First Farmers' Day at Idyl Wyld

Steamer Otonabee Carried a Big Crowd Down the River

The first annual farmers' excursion to Idyl Wyld was held yesterday, and proved to be a decided success. The new steamer Otonabee made her initial trip down the river with a load of some 300 passengers from Peterborough, and probably 200 more picked up along the route. The big boat is running very satisfactorily. She went down and back without a hitch, although only half speed was made on account of the machinery being new and stiff.

The farmers' excursion was a big day, and so thoroughly pleased were those present that it has been decided to make it an annual affair and to extend it to outside points. After the speeches were over a resolution was adopted setting aside the 3rd Thursday in June each year as the date of the annual Farmers' Picnic in future. This date henceforth will be known as "Farmers Day" in this district.

The Otonabee left here yestrday morning at eight o'clock and arrived at Idyl Wyld at 12 o'clock. The delay was caused by a couple of stops having to be made along the route, to take on passengers. As there is a shortage of wharfs on the canal the boat frequently runs on to the land and is stuck for some time, causing great inconvenience to both the boatmen and the passengers. Upon arrival at the picnic grounds, however, the large crowd made a rush for the dinner table. They had had a long trip and were very hungry. Host Londerville was prepared for a big crowd, and he handled the dinner in good shape, but the number and size of appetites was more than he had figured on, and a great number went hungry for supper. This will, however, not happen again.

After dinner the programme of speeches was started. Mr. Dawson Kennedy took the chair, and he made an ideal presiding officer. Speeches were delivered by Mr. Lochie Wilson Provincial Superintendent of Agricultural Fairs, Toronto; Mr. Jas. Barnard, North Monaghan; Mr. Joshua Smithson, Otonabee; Mr. Jas. Roberts, Anwick; Mr. Berry and Rev Mr. Johnston.

On the return trip the Otonabee left Idyl Wyld about six o'clock and arrived in the city at 11 o'clock, having the same difficulties of a couple of stops made on the way home.

The searchlight has not yet been fitted up, although there were about 80 incandescent lamps and the boat looked very well.

Of the 102 parcels of school lands offered at Neepawa only twenty were sold

WEST ENDS AND KARENOTS A TIE

For First Place in the League as Result of Last Night's Game

The West Ends are longer ahead in their run for championship honors and once more are a tie with the Karenots.

The West End aggregation went down to defeat last night in the last three innings at the hands of the Strathconas and lost their first game this season by thirteen runs to eleven. The standing of the league is greatly changed, and the game between the West Ends and Karenots next week will be an interesting contest, as it will decide the leaders of the league.

The Lillies also last night redeemed themselves and won their first victory, defeating the Lakeviews by fourteen runs to twelve. The results of the games this week have evened things up and the standing of the teams at the present time is interesting. The West Ends and Karenots are tied for first place, and the Strathconas, Lillies, Excelsiors and Lakeviews have each won one game.

STRATHS. WON.

The West Ends badly disappointed their host of supporters last evening when they failed to keep up their past reputation, and lost to the Strathconas. This contest was a fine exhibition of ball and both teams played a good game. The closeness of the score is an evidence that neither had much over the other. At the start the Straths were leading by one and their opponents felt confident of overcoming it and they did for a while, but failed to keep it up and made several costly fumbles, which lost them their game. The Straths have never played as good a game this season as last night. Parnell was in fine form and twirled great ball, and the West Ends found it hard to hit. Their fielders too were all to the good, and few errors were registered to them. Butcher, of the West Ends, pitched excellent ball, but the support given him could be improved upon. Nevertheless they played a good game and kept their opponents from piling up a big score.

Mr. Fred Craig umpired the game satisfactorily.

The teams were;

West Ends.—L. Dobson, cf, J Monern c, W. Butcher p, M. Cameron 3b, A Rose ss, Ed King 1b, D Dobson lf, C Halpin rf, N Moore cf

LAKEVIEWS DEFEATED

The Lillies administered a defeat to the fast Lakeview aggregation, and thus sprung a surprise on a great many fans. The Lillies started off last night with a lead of seven runs and finished with a lead of two, winning by 14 runs to 12. The Lakeviews played a much better game than on Monday night, and were not guilty of nearly as many errors. The Lillies did not play so well as on Monday, but the big lead was too much for the Lakeviews and the Lillies managed to hold their own. There were no heavy hits made and both Mahoney and Graham performed well in the pitcher's box. Honors were about equal in the number of men struck out. The Lakeviews field played well and the Lillies fielders were always on the spot when the ball came their way. The Lakeviews scored seven runs in one innings, and it looked like a win for them, but the Lillies succeeded in adding four to the ten scored on Monday, and their opponents failed to overcome them.

Mr. W. Stacey officiated as umpire satisfactorily.

The teams were;

9–8 Was the Score in the Game at Riverside Park Yesterday Afternoon—Locals Played Gingery Ball and Scored Winning Run in the Ninth—The Most Exciting Game in Years.

With never more than a run separating the two teams during the last four innings of the game, Peterborough and Port Hope fought it out for supremacy at Riverside Park yesterday afternoon, and when it was all over it was found that the locals had annexed nine, while the best the visitors could do was to garner in eight. It was a great game, especially on the home stretch, and the 400 enthusiastic fans enjoyed it to the fullest extent. Both teams had a big contingent of rooters, and they made dints in the air with their yells of encouragement. About 200 of the excursionists from Port Hope and Cobourg attended the game, so that the support of the crowd was pretty evenly divided. But the backers of the locals had all kinds of things to cheer for in the last few innings, and their shouts that told of coming victory overshadowed the rooting of the visitors.

The local team made a fine showing throughout, and on the whole showed much improved form over that displayed in the previous games. The fielding was much better, while every man of the nine seemed to take particular delight in lambasting the pellet every time it come over the plate in an opportune position. There was only one change in the Peterborough line-up from that of their last game. Poulter, late short-stop of the Toronto Arctics, was in that position for the locals, and made good. He handled himself well in the short-stop territory, and, while he failed to score yesterday, his work on the whole was highly satisfactory. He is residing here permanently and will add much to the strength of the team.

The Port Hopers had their regular Midland League nine, with two exceptions. Brown, their regular second baseman, and Roney, who holds down short-stop, were unable to accompany the team to Peterborough, and their places were taken by the famous "Dick" Turpin, of Cobourg, and a youth named Bulger, who hails from the same burg. Both were much to the good, although Turpin had two errors chalked up against him, while Bulger was just behind him with one black mark against his fair name. Pethick pitched the first four innings for the visitors, but it became apparent to the management that he was losing steam, and Surphlis was put in to do the twirling. And what Peterborough did to Surphlis in the first innings he was in the box would make sad reading from a Port Hope point of view. He was hammered all over the grass patch, and four badly needed runs were annexed before he settled down. He was better towards the end, but the locals found no difficulty in connecting with his twists. O'Neil, who did the receiving for Port Hope, was not in the best of shape, his left hand being badly lacerated from the effects of receiving the swift ones shot over the plate. Two of his fingers were badly cut, and blood dropped from them frequently. O'Neil hails from Neepawa, Manitoba, and is a star back-stop. O'Brien, the visitors' third baseman, comes from Toronto, while Kolb, who does stunts around the second cushion, hails from Rochester, N.Y. During the four innings of Pitcher Pethick's regime, the locals had four hits and three runs, while three men were struck out. In the last five innings when Surphlis was doing the twirling for Port Hope, the homsters corralleled six runs, had seven hits, while four men were struck out. Surphlis handed out two complimentaries, but Pethick failed to walk anyone.

Cornie Burns, who did the pitching for the locals, had ten strike outs to his credit, only allowed nine hits, while he gave two men free passage to first base. He was given good support in the field, and pitched good ball throughout. The following tells how it happened;—

SOME DETAILS

The locals had fewer errors against them than in any game this season. Three bad plays was the sum total yesterday which is a very gratifying showing. Their fielding was also good and they usually did the right thing at the right time. Flaherty pulled down a long fly in the left field in a manner that made the fans buzz. Burridge was the star of the team. In addition to his stellar work behind the plate he had a three bagger to his credit as also did Burns. Every man on the Peterborough team with one exception had one or more hits to his credit. Connors did great work in the field and in running the bases, sliding like a piece of greased timber. Graham at first pulled off one of the prettiest plays of the day, catching a man who thought that the first baseman had dropped the ball and started out to make second. Chris had the ball safely in his mitt and tagged his man as soon as he started off. Sheridan showed up well and assisted materially on several occasions, when things did not look too bright for the locals. Quinlan and Callaghan both did good work, using the hickory well.

The Port Hope team is a big, hard hitting aggregation, and lost no chances. Their fielding was good, perhaps better than that of the locals and their pitchers had fine support. The game was fast and snappy all the way through, and the fans were kept agog with excitement.

BY INNINGS.

Port Hope went in first and were retired in one, two, three order. O'Brien, Henderson and O'Neil, all connected with the rubber, but none of them ever reached first.

When The Petes came in Burns drove a long one to the raceway and got to third. Callaghan got to first, but Burns was put out while trying to come home. With Burridge at bat, Callaghan kept going around the diamond, and on a fly came home, but Burridge's hit was caught and he was out. Connor's foul fly was also copped and the side was retired.

There was nothing doing for either team in the second, but in the third the visitors came strong, Pethick, O'Brien and Turpin getting over the home plate before Peterborough came to bat. The locals failed to tally in this period, owing to the visitors' clever fielding.

In the fourth Poulter garnered in a drive from Walters and he was out. Pethick and Rowden were struck out. With the locals at bat, Burridge struck out, Connors tapped the pellet and slid to first, Quinlan made first on a nice hit, and Connors had sneaked to third in the meantime. While the Port Hopers were fielding the sphere Connors came home and with Graham at bat, and landing the rubber for a neat drive Quinlan got to third. Flaherty also hammered the horsehide and Quinlan came home, tieing the score, 3–3. Graham was put out while trying to come home.

In the first half of the fifth, Port Hope annexed two counters, O'Neil and O'Brien scoring, making the tally 5–3 in favor of the visitors. When the locals went to bat, it was seen that Surphlis was replacing Pethick in the box and a roar of approval went up from the visiting fans.

Sheridan got off by a nice hit, and Burns succeeded in reaching first on Turpin fumbling the ball. Callaghan hammered the leather, and allowed Sheridan to come home, making the tally 5–4. Burridge tore off a three bagger at this stage of the proceedings, and allowed both Burns and Callaghan to score, which boosted the locals to six points. Connors hit but did not make first, and Burridge came home, putting Peterborough in the lead, 7–5. Poulter went on balls, Quinlan sacrificed and advanced him to third, but Graham failed to reach Mr. Turpin at first and the side retired.

In the seventh, Walters and O'Neil made good for the visitors and made the score 8–7 in their favor, when Peterborough went to bat. Burridge scored for the homesters, coming home on a hit by Poulter after Callaghan and Connors were out.

The eighth was featured by a double play which resulted in Graham and Sheridan going out. Flaherty had fallen by the wayside and there was nothing doing. Port Hope was first to bat and O'Brien, Henderson and O'Neil all went down in one, two, three fashion.

The ninth opened with the score 8–8, and Turpin at bat. Flaherty connected with a long drive from this gentleman in left field and he was stayed in his base running operations. Kolb went out and Walters walked on balls. Bulger tapped an easy one that Burns gathered in, and Port Hope retired without tallying.

Burns led off for Peterborough with a drive to right field and with Callaghan at bat managed to reach third. Callaghan made good with the hickory, driving the sphere to left field and Burns came home amid great rejoicing and the game was over. Final score 9—8.

Trained Seals of Capt. Webb

Forepaugh-Sells circus will be here on Tuesday of next week, and do not fail to see the trained seals.

Of all the fur producing animals the most widely known is doubtless the seal. This is probably because of the universal use which is made of the timid creatures beautiful fur. Captain Webb, who has two schools of seal and sea lions with the Forepaugh-Sells circus tells an interesting story of how the ever-watchful seal is caught alive; to kill them is quite an easy matter. Captain Webb's expedition started from Kotzebue Sound. His hunters are all Eskimos, for these little people are clever at hunting, they have grown so trying to catch seals. When they discover a seal, they look to see in what direction the wind is blowing. Then they walk toward the seal, keeping to the leeward, that the wind may not carry any trace of them to the sharp scented animal. When they have arrived within a mile they begin to crouch. The hunter watches the seal closely, and moves on only when the seal's head is down for a few minutes of sleep.

The seal is one of the most wide-awake of all creatures. It has the habit of throwing up its head every few seconds to guard against danger. When its head is down upon the ice its eyes are shut. In these short periods it is supposed to take all the sleep it ever gets, in naps shorter than cat naps. The hunter watches it carefully and finally manages to come within about two hundred yards of it. Then he lies down full length on the ice.

Now begins the fun. The Eskimo understands the seal language. He looks like a seal, because his clothes are made of sealskin. And he smells like a seal because he eats the flesh and oil of the seal. So the seal thinks thinks the Eskimo is one of his friends or cousins and begins to talk to him. This means that it flips up its tail. The Eskimo answers in the same way. He tosses up his foot, and at the same time moves a little forward. The seal has something more to say in a little while and throws himself yet a little nearer.

When the seals head is down, the hunter comes still nearer by dragging himself forward on his elbows. This sort of thing continues for some time. At last there is only a few yards between the two, sometimes but a few feet. Here the Eskimo watches for a good opportunity to catch the seal.

Captain Webb's two schools number twenty seal and sea lions, their wonderful performances form an interesting feature of Forepaugh-Sells circus, which will give two exhibitions here next Tuesday.

NEW LINE TO MUSKOKA

Canada's greatest railway, in building a line to connect Toronto with the main transcontinental track at Sudbury, has incidentally given us a new direct route to the Muskoka Lakes district, over which fast passenger trains will be running after Saturday, June 22nd. Bala, which is reached in three and a half hours from Toronto, will be the Lakes terminus this summer, and there steamers of the Muskoka Navigation Company will connect with trains, carrying passengers to all points on Lakes Muskoka, Joseph, and Rosseau. The roadbed is heavily laid and well ballasted, train equipment is new and handsome, and excellent time is made. In addition to the local trains there will be two flyers to the Lakes, the Lakeland Limited and Sunrise Express, and two flyers south bound, the Queen City flyer and Twilight Limited. Through sleepers will be run to and from Toronto, Buffalo, Pittsburg and New York, and, of course a splendid equipment of parlor cars, dining cars and luxurious day coaches. C. B. Foster, District Passenger Agent, C.P.R., at Toronto, will be glad to mail full particulars of trains and handsome illustrated Muskoka folder, or same may be obtained free from local C.P.R. agents.

The Agony of Piles

IS ENDED BY ZAM-BUK

The alternate burning, aching, itching and smarting of piles, and the misery to the body generally, which this ailment brings, are cured by Zam-Buk. Piles result from congestion of certain veins and Zam-Buk speedily give ease by softening the tissues and reducing the congestion. Stops bleeding, too

Mrs A. E. Gardner, of Catalina, writes; "For twelve years I have been troubled with blind, bleeding and protruding piles, and have been using various kinds of ointments, etc., but never came across anything to equal Zam-Buk. This balm cured me completely. You are at liberty to do what you will with these remarks. And that they may be the means of helping some of those who are suffering from piles to try Zam-Buk is the wish of one who has found great relief."

Mr. Enoch Mills, of Walsall, says; "I suffered forty years from piles. The itching, burning and smarting were so terrible that when I went to bed at night I could sometimes hardly lie still. I tried sulphate of zinc ointment, coal-tar ointments, and everything I could think to get ease from, but until I got Zam-Buk I got no relief. Zam-Buk cured me and made me like a different man. My general health is vastly improved."

Sure to be so, because where piles exist the general health is bound to suffer. If you have piles remember this case and try Zam-Buk. If you suffer from skin, disease, eruptions, scrofula, eczema, ulcers, ringworm, abscesses, etc., think how Zam-Buk could benefit you. It also cures cuts, burns bruises, scalds, insect stings, sore feet, sore nipples, barber's rash and all skin diseases. Druggists and stores everywhere sell at 50c. a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. 6 boxes for $2.50.

The "Sailor Boy" brand of canned goods are the best that are put up. They never fail to please. Try a few cans.

must win upon their merits. The International Dictionary has won a greater distinction upon its merits and is in more general use than any other work of its kind in the English language.

A. H. Sayce, LL.D., D.D., of Oxford University, England, has recently said of it: It is indeed a marvelous work; it is difficult to conceive of a dictionary more exhaustive and complete. Everything is in it—not only what we might expect to find in such a work, but also what few of us would ever have thought of looking for.

A supplement to the new edition has brought it fully up to date. I have been looking through the latter with a feeling of astonishment at its completeness, and the amount of labor that has been put into it.

The Daily Review

FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1907.

A BRAVE SOLDIER

It is a great pity that so able a military officer as General Lord Dundonald has been practically driven out of the British service by the Government of Canada. For that, as the London Free Press points out, is what his retirement comes to.

Since the ignominous treatment he received at the hands of the Laurier party Lord Dundonald has not been favored with employment in the home service, not for lack of desert, for he is an accomplished and gallant soldier not that he is thought unworthy, for he has been recently promoted by the board having in charge the recognition of distinguished service.

Lord Dundonald has not been employed doubtless out of a false deference to the rulers of Canada and defective judgment of what took place here. Those at headquarters imagine no doubt that colonial susceptibilities might be adversely affected were this gallant officer to be taken by the hand at the Horse Guards after what took place; it might be construed as a rebuke for the action of the Hon. Sydney Fisher, who, as acting Minister of Militia, in 1901, caused the trouble. Having been "turned out" of the Canadian service the late commander is not re-commissioned by the home Government. He, therefore, after years of inactivity, has resigned from the army, "turned out," as he says himself.

It is a wretched conclusion for the hero of Ladysmith. He deserved better in England and Canada. It was only when his efforts had been thwarted by the military midgets in control at the time and his opinions set at naught that Dundonald openly criticized the Administration at Ottawa at a Montreal banquet. Hon. Mr Fisher, acting Minister, had appointed a man of no experience as head of a regiment, excluding a man who was well qualified. It was an abuse of political power at the expense of the militia of Canada. This and other actions the commander critized.

There were ways of reprisal open which need not have hurt, but with special vindictiveness the Government waited until Lord Dundonald appeared on duty at the London camp to give him his conge in a manner the most offensive.

Lord Dundonald, however, has had the sweet revenge of seeing his recommendations for the militia improvement adopted by the very men who flouted them in his presence. Sir Frederick Borden, at a meeting in Ottawa, said Canada needed no defences, as, under the Munroe doctrine, "no hostile power would be permitted to set foot in this country," the United States would prevent it. In such craven fashion the Minister of Militia spoke for Canadian national sentiment; yet he has adopted the scheme laid down by Lord Dundonald, and which he before denounced as beyond our necessities.

PEN POINTS.

If you go to the band concert this evening do not do too much talking when the musicians are playing. If you do not care to listen, there are others who do.

The Bishop of the Diocese of Syracuse denounces Sunday sacred concerts in churches. He says that the sanctuaries are for sacrifice and prayer, and not for vaudeville. Sunday concerts are, he adds, "a succotash of piety and profanity." That's a new name for them and will be probably improvised into a march or waltz by some clever musician.

Address: The Cook Medicine Co., Toronto, Ont. (formerly Windsor)

Should a man drink lager in hot weather? is a present day problem, but here is another one to be solved. Mr. J. J. Kelso, Provincial Superintendent of Neglected Children, has been asked to pass upon the wisdom of giving a seven-weeks' old infant strong tea and other kindred drinks, which are supposed to work havoc on the nerves of maturer humanity. Mr. Kelso will interest himself in the case, and give judgment to a waiting world in a few days.

Here is Uncle Sam copying after the banner province of the Dominion. A Toronto despatch says;—Hon. A. J. Matheson, the Provincial Treasurer, has been requested by the United States Government, through their chief consul at Ottawa, to forward to Washington copies of the Ontario Succession Duties Act—a request which has been complied with. At the present time there is a strong agitation in the United States in favor of a Federal inheritance tax, along similar lines to Ontario's Succession Duties Act. The agitation, it will be remembered, was endorsed by President Roosevelt in his recent address at Norfolk, Va.

The Warden of the Kingston Penitentiary refused to allow the Frontenac county Grand Jury any greater means of inspection than are afforded ordinary visitors, and the Minister of Justice, Mr. Aylesworth, has upheld the Warden. The contention is that a Frontenac grand jury has no more rights to privileges of inspection than any other body. The very idea of shutting out grand juries. Why, from time immemorial, they have had the solemn vested right—in their own opinion—of inspecting every thing on the earth, above the earth, or the waters under the earth, and making "recommendations" thereon.

There seems to be a wave of immorality and evil influence sweeping over the young. One may well stand aghast and exclaim, "Whither are we drifting?" Ministers are calling attention to the outbreak, and speaking in no uncertain sound on the laxity and indifference of parents in the matter of governing and disciplining their children. A preacher in Hamilton never uttered a greater present day truth than when he said:—Parents shuffle off too much of their responsibility on to the Sunday school and Public school teachers." "In Canada parents obey their children. It is a disgrace to the city to see the hatless, gum-chewing and overdressed girls and blase youths on the street on Saturday nights when they should be in their beds."

"Of all the funerals that pass along our streets, one out of every four is that of a child under five years of age," said His Lordship the Bishop of Huron, in his annual charge to the Synod, which is in session at London. Doctors who had given this appaling fact serious consideration, declared that the mortality was largely due to ignorance of the laws of health, more particularly those concerning infants. Three things suggested themselves as admirable. The subject of hygiene should receive more prominence in the schools; there should be a difference in the education of boys and girls. At any rate, there should be continuing classes where elder girls could be instructed in the duties and responsibilities of motherhood, and the State should provide that mothers should not be left entirely to chance, blind instinct and affection as to how to care for their little ones in their tenderest years. These are wise words and well spoken.

An Outing for Doctors and Lawyers

Physicians Will Hold Annual Trip Down River on Wednesday Next

The medical men of the city held a meeting last night and decided that their annual outing would be held down the river on the steamer Otonabee on Wednesday afternoon next, June 26th to Idyl Wyld, Rice Lake. The boat will leave the Wolfe street wharf at one o'clock. p.m sharp, and the street railway wharf at 1.30 o'clock. This year the medicos will entertain the lawyers, who were the hosts last year. The annual baseball match will take place between the physicians and the legalities and the former claim they will be able to win hands down. The lawyers are not saying much but are doing a good deal of thinking and planning and there may be a big surprise in store.

A Serious Crisis in France; Soldiers Fire on the Mob

Troops Shot Straight at the Narbonne Rioters.

Three Persons Killed and One Hundred Injured—Score of Women Included—Military Were Ordered to Fire In the Air But Disobeyed—Whole Army Corps In Motion—Grave News From Midi.

Paris, June 21.—The brief despatches which reached Paris yesterday showed that the conflicts which have occurred between the troops and mobs in the south were more sanguinary than at first suspected. At Narbonne three persons were killed and a hundred soldiers and civilians, including a score of women, are said to have been wounded, a number of them fatally. The troops, who were ordered to fire in the air, shot straight at the mob besieging them in the courtyard of the superstructure.

A whole army corps has been put in motion to deal with the rebellious wine-growers.

State Banquet Cancelled.

The state banquet which was to have been given last night in honor of the King of Siam, was countermanded in consequence of the bloodshed. The newspapers report another attempt to burn the sub-prefecture at Narbonne. Gendarmes fired from the upper storey and the attackers fled.

It is also announced that there has been further shooting in the streets of Narbonne, and that many persons have been wounded. Many wine-growers continue to pour into Narbonne, and threaten to set fire to the hotels occupied by the army officers. Fresh troops are arriving there.

Tried to Rescue Prisoners.

Montpelier, France, June 21.—Serious rioting broke out here Wednesday night, lasting all evening. The mob attempted to burn down the door of the prison and rescue the prisoners. The troops were turned out, but were received with volleys of stones and bottles. Troopers were pulled off their horses and clubbed. A prominent police official was seriously wounded by a broken bottle. Many soldiers were less seriously injured.

Incendiaries Driven Off.

Narbonne, France, June 21.—A violent mob from the outlying villages gathered Wednesday night. They poured petroleum over the door of the sub-prefecture, which they set on fire, but were driven off after repeated charges by the troops. In the course of the fighting the manifestants fired revolvers, but no one was hit. The disorder was augmented by the absence of lights, the mob having cut the electric cables. In other parts of the town barricades were erected. These were stormed by the troops and torn down, only to be set up again by the rioters.

Late last night Premier Clemenceau received grave news from the Midi, the district of the discontented wine-growers, where the exasperation of the people is increasing. Messages to the Premier came indirectly by way of Lyons, indicating that the wires had been cut. The Argelieres committee has been reconstituted, a third committee being named in case the members of the second committee also were arrested. It is now certain that Marcelin Albert has not been arrested, and it is admitted that the police have no idea of his whereabouts.

The Long, Long Summer Day

Editor Review.—The poem "The Long, Long Summer Day," in yesterday's Review, is so striking that I would like to keep it going. Therefore the public will excuse the following:—

The long, long summer day.
The mosquitoes are in happy cheer,
The long, long summer day.
For peek-a-boo waists are just the thing
Through which to bite and maidens sting.
Just list to the mosquitoes sing,
The long, long summer day.

Ice cream girls they too are here,
The long, long summer day.
All Peterborough is drinking beer,
The long, long summer day.
Across the bar the long ones come,
The barkeep he is going some,
The wifey's fooled for hubby's mum,
The long, long summer day.

The band is playing in the park,
The long, long summer day,
The poisoned dogs no longer bark,
The long, long summer day.
The canines rest beneath the sward,
Their lot on earth was cruel and hard,
Gee, how this butter tastes like lard!
The long, long summer day.

The iceman he's the only cheese,
The long, long summer day.
For heat is floating in the breeze,
The long, long summer day.
His ice may be bad, but after all
It satisfies Inspector Batt,
To make complaint there is no call,
The long, long summer day.

The preachers still preach sermons long,
The long, long summer day.
The choirs sing the same old song,
The long, long summer day.
The listeners swelter in the pews,
In perspiration from hair to shoes,
But really now this can't be news,
The long, long summer day.

The Peterborough ball team's making good,
The long, long summer day,
They trimmed Port Hope, we knew they could,
The long, long summer day.
They hammered Surphlis o'er the field
While bleachers bleached and spielers spieled,
And back and back the foemen reeled,
The long, long summer day.

But what's the use to keep this up,
The long, long summer day.
It's easy as slaying a dead, dead pup,
The long, long summer day.
Some day perhaps John Bell will be
A poet who can plainly see
They rhyming is not *poetree,
The long, long summer day.

Letter Boxes for Front Doors

Put One on and be Ready for the Mail Delivery Service

Since things begin to look as if Peterborough is to have a free mail delivery, there is one thing which every householder needs to look after. Before the service is started the head of the family should see that a letter box is cut in his front door. This not only applies to residences, but stores, offices, factories, and every place of business or abode. Without the letter box a satisfactory service cannot be secured as the mail man will not leave mail outside the door and he is not always able to get inside.

To cut a letter box in the door is a very inexpensive job, and the door is not defaced at all, as a metal plate surrounds the hole. It is not necessary to have a box on the inside of the door either, as all the letters and papers will drop on the floor and will be outside the reach of the disinterested "interested" persons outside.

With the letter box in the front door, subscribers of the local papers will then be assured of a satisfactory service from the carrier boys, as the little chaps will be able to get the paper inside the door and he will have no excuse to leave it on the verandah for the wind to blow away. The sooner you can get your letter box ready the better.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country, than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years, was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

DURHAM OLD BOYS

Will Hold Annual Excursion on July 25th to Niagara Falls.

The annual excursion of the Durham Old Boys will be run this year on July 25th, embracing all stations between Peterborough and Whitby, via G.T.R. Train will arrive in Toronto, at 8.30 a.m., and arrangements have been made whereby the party can take the magnificent steamers of the Niagara Falls Navigation Co., from there to Niagara Falls. On arrival at Toronto, the excursionists will be joined by the Toronto Association. A special train will leave Toronto the same night on arrival of the steamer, about nine o'clock, or those wishing to do so can stop over till the next day.

ROAD REPAIRS

The steam road roller has completed its work on Water street north, where an excellent job was done. This morning it fixed up Chambers street, which had been torn up for the sewer and now that street is in good condition again. The sidewalk gang is busy putting the new cement walk along the west side of the street. When this is completed Chambers street will be very respectable.

LIVING STATUARY.

London County Council Will Not Forbid Its Exhibition.

London, June 21.—Despite the influential character of the opposition to living statuary exhibitions and the example of other cities suppressing them, the Theatre Committee of the London County Council has decided not to interfere with the representations. The question was discussed at several committee meetings, and all the members attended a special show of the posers. Many of the committee strongly supported the purity campaigners, but the majority in favor of the posers was large. The campaigners will now probably appeal to the Council over the committee's head.

Peterboro' After Mr. Hod Stuart

Wants the Service of the Star Hockey Player of Montreal Wanderers

An Ottawa despatch says:—Unless Wanderers, of Montreal, are on the alert they may lose their star player, Hod. Stuart. Hod, who had been working in Ottawa, is at present up at Belleville, where his father has taken the contract for the erection of a big drill hall.

Since his arrival in Belleville Stuart has received several tempting offers from several Western hockey clubs

The building, the erection of which Hod is superintending, may not be finished next winter, and he may decide to stay there through the frosty months. The famous cover point is said to have been requested to take charge of the Belleville team, and manage it next winter.

Peterborough has also been after Stuart's services, and another town not far distant from Toronto is said to have promised him a railroad president's salary if he would remove his traps there and play hockey. Stuart has refused to consider the offer so far.

Bruce Stuart is still in Ottawa, but will join his brother in Belleville in a few days. Bruce is billed to captain the Houghton team again next winter.

Semi-Ready Co. is Prosperous

500 New Shares Promptly Subscribed at Annual Meeting

Montreal, June 21.—How to take care of a business which has been growing very rapidly was the problem presented to the shareholders of Semi-ready, Limited, at their annual meeting just held at the head office of the Company in Montreal. Every shareholder was represented at the meeting, and general satisfaction was expressed at the return to active interest of Charles H. Nelson, the Vice-President, who joined the Company, with Mr. Wood over a year ago.

New shares to the amount of $50,000 were offered and were promptly subscribed for at par by Messrs. Charles H. Nelson, Joseph Kilgour, of Toronto. Charles P. Creamer, of New York: Alfred Wood, H. A. Nelson, C. F. Nelson and E. L. Nelson.

Charles P. Creamer, for some years with Morse & Rogers, of New York, was appointed General Manager, to succeed H. A. Beatty, who had resigned some time before the meeting.

A general review of the business during the year past showed that the number of agencies had grown from 55 in 1906, to 104 at the close of the financial year, and that the business for the past six months was equal to the total business for the whole year of 1905.

The necessary bylaw for the addition of Mr. Creamer to the directorate was passed and will be gazetted. The value of the Semi-ready franchise was demonstrated by the the reports from the various towns and cities. Without a single exception these reports showed substantial increases in the volume of business transacted, and a stronger acceptance of the new idea in tailoring

EXCURSIONISTS' SPLENDID TIME

Enjoyable Outing of St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild

Over 150 participated in the annual excursion of St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild to Stony Lake yesterday, and everyone had a delightful time, in fact the outing was pronounced the most successful ever held under similar auspices. The excursionists left the G.T.R. station on the 8.30 train, and at Lakefield boarded the steamer Stony Lake for the trip around the lakes. Dinner was partaken of at Burleigh, where the boat remained until after two o'clock, and then followed a delightful cruise around the lakes. The weather was ideal for an outing of this kind, and the afternoon was one of rare pleasure. The Mandolin Club, consisting of five members, supplied excellent music on board the boat and added greatly to the pleasure of the excursionists. The boat pulled into McCracken's Landing about five o'clock, and then supper was one of the features. Afterwards a short programme of athletic sports was carried out and greatly enjoyed, especially by the younger element

Lakefield was reached about 8 o'clock, and a special train taken for home.

The committee in charge are to be congratulated on the success of the annual event. The young men keep up their reputation for being ideal hosts, year after year, and their guests have never yet failed to have a good time.

Dog Poisoner Scores Again

Valuable Fox Terrier Victim of Some Despicable Person

A valuable terrier belonging to Mr. Thos. Blodgett, Downie street, departed this life yesterday by way of the poison route. This is the second dog that Mr. Blodgett has had poisoned within a year, and he is highly indignant. He is offering $25 reward for information that will lead to the apprehension of the guilty person.

WILL AWARD THE CONTRACTS

For Bell Telephone Co's. New Office on Monday—Officials in the City

Messrs. Carmichael and A. T. Smith, of Montreal, who are connected with the head office of the Bell Telephone Co., arrived in the city this morning and, in company with Messrs. F. W. Dunn and J. S. Knapman, went up to Stony Lake to spend Sunday at Mr Knapman's cottage

Before the party left it was learned that it has been definitely decided to proceed with the erection of the new central office on Hunter street, at once. As yet it has not been announced who the successful contractor is, but the Review was assured that all contracts would be let on Monday when the officials of the company returned. Once the work is started it will be rushed, as the company is very anxious to get moved as soon as possible, and get settled down in their new quarters

OBITUARY

MR. ALEX. FEIR.

There has been three funerals of late in East Ops. The late Alex Feir, aged 83, Miss Robinson, daughter of Wm. Robinson, and A. Pogue, son of Ephraim Pogue. The late Mr. Feir was highly respected, being a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and the Orange Order. His family were all present excepting Rev. H. Feir and Walter Feir in Western Manitoba. A widow, two daughters and seven sons are left to mourn—Wm., of Cambray; Harry and Walter, of Western Manitoba; Isaiah, Janetville; Jake, of Buffalo: Alex., of Peterborough, and John, at home. The sons acted as pall bearers. Deceased was the first miller in East Ops, operating a stone flour mill and chopper and saw mill during the last forty years.

MAJOR JOHNSON IS PAYMASTER

"Authority is granted for Major W. D. Johnson, R.O., to be attached to the 3rd Dragoons, during annual training as paymaster with pay of that appointment.

"It is notified for general information, that the musketry course, commencing at Rockliffe, June 4th, is hereby cancelled. Officers and non-commissioned officers, who have applied for this course, may make application for the full course, commencing Sept. 5th."

New Members For S. A. Band

COUNTY BRIDGES NEED REPAIRS

Commissioner Brown Reports on The Bridges to County Council

Mr John Brown, one of the Commissioners of Roads and Bridges, read the following report to the County Council this morning.—

"I beg to report, that in company with Mr. Kelly, deputy reeve of Cavan we visited several bridges. The bridge known as Dunlop's, is a wooden one throughout and we found it in good state of repair. The township of Cavan has under contract a large ditch which will necessitate the removal of the covering during construction at this part. The warden of Durham and Northumberland, and deputy reeve of Cavan, assures me that the contractor is required to safeguard the counties during the construction of the same and leave it in same condition as before.

The Douglas Creek bridge was erected about seven years ago, and is a substantial steel structure on concrete super-structure. A coat of paint would be an improvement in preserving the iron work from rust but may easily be deferred until another year.

We also inspected the Clarke bridge near Springville. This has been built a great many years and would of necessity have to be replaced in the near future, and at present we considered it unsafe for heavy loads. Mr. Kelly during the late session at Cobourg, recommended it being rebuilt and they agreed to bear one half cost of the same.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN BROWN.

Incendiarism at Mount Julian

Kitchen of the Hotel Caught Fire—Blaze Under Cottage Verandah

On Sunday evening last about 10.30 o'clock, fire was discovered under the verandah of one of the cottages in connection with the Mount Julian Hotel. The alarm was given and the fire extinguished before the cottage was seriously damaged. On Monday evening, while Mr. Thompson, proprietor of the Mount Julian Hotel, was fixing up his horses for the night, he noticed the kitchen in the rear of the hotel to be on fire. He immediately gave the alarm and in a few minutes a number of men appeared upon the scene and after an hour's hard work, succeeded in subduing the flames. The kitchen was badly damaged and it was a fortunate thing that Mr. Thompson happened to be out at the time, which was about twelve o'clock, or the hotel itself would undoubtedly have been destroyed. The two fires coming so close together give rise to the suspicion that the buildings had been wilfully set on fire, and it is to be hoped that the party guilty of such an act will speedily be brought to justice.

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

New York, June 21.—The stock market was subjected to a professional attack today, on the bad bank statement outlook, troubles abroad, and one or two minor features, but when the Vanderlip bullish address came forth from Jamestown, there was short covering and the market's tone remained good. The list is in equilibrium. That is all that can be said. But it is encouraging that no liquidation of consequence pressed and this feature, with an oversold condition should operate for gradual impovement later, some of the big houses saying that the month of July will witness betterment. $2,500,000 more gold was engaged for export today, but this had little effect marketwise. The close was lifeless, but at about the best for the day. The grain market was unchanged from yesterday.

The First Boat Over Lift Lock

Lock Worked Very Smoothly—Ready for the Opening

Kirkfield, June 20.—The new steel lift-lock was opened for the first time today, when The Government tug, Bob Hall of Peterborough, was locked over for the purpose of cleaning up the driftwood from the lower portion of the canal. Everything worked with perfect satisfaction, and great credit is due Mr. D. A. Murphy of Dominion Bridge Co., of Quebec, who directed the erection of the lock, from its commencement in the spring of 1906, to its completion now. The official opening is expected for July 6th

The Lights Were Not Turned on

To the Editor of the Review

Sir,—I have seen several pieces in the Review relative to the lights at Jackson Park. Now the day before yesterday the electric lamps in that park burned all day long. This may be none of my business, although I am a taxpayer, that is if the city does not have to replace these lamps I understand, however, that our taxes do go towards paying for this useless though petty expenditure. What I want to find out, however, is not the picayune matter of the purchase of a few lamps, but whose duty it is to see that the lamps which seem burn by day, but are too often out by night in this park. A friend of mine spoke to three of the local police a day or two ago, and was told by them that there is no bylaw or other authority for compelling the police to look after the lights in this park, and that the Horticultural Society is in full charge of it.

It may seem a trivial matter to ask your space for, this writing about the lights in a small park. Still as the father of a family, I think for the protection of the young girls of our city the matter of lighting this park should be settled. The city should at once determine whose duty it is to attend to this matter.

Victoria Park is the most central public place for general outing and fresh air that the city possesses. Thus, the council should, in protection of the rights and pleasures, let alone any undefined dangers, of the women of this city, see that arrangements be made, whereby the duty and responsibility of lighting this park be placed definitely.

Yours truly,

FATHER.

Peterborough, June 22, 1907.

MANY WERE AT BAND CONCERT

Biggest Crowd of Season Enjoyed Splendid Programme

For the third successive time this season fine weather greeted the 57th Regiment Band for their Friday evening concert in Victoria Park last night. This is a big change from last year, when several concerts had to be postponed during the month of June, owing to unpropitious weather. The attendance at Victoria Park last night was perhaps the largest of the season and the splendid programme of Bandmaster Gliddon and his talented musicians was greatly enjoyed.

The band is showing constant improvement and the different numbers last night were given in a manner that brought forth hearty applause.

For some reason or other the lights were not turned on in the park during the first part of the evening, which seems strange, when it is taken into consideration that they were burning all day yesterday. Those lights in Victoria Park have been causing numerous citizens to do considerable speculation during the past few days. Some days the electric globes are bright with light "throughout the live long day" and why they should be extinguished when the band concert was being held last evening is a pretty big kind of a mystery. Whoever is responsible for those lights should waken up and see that they are on when they should be on and off when they should be off.

The programme last night was as follows;

PART I.

March,—Gilmour's Triumphal,
Overture,—Bohemian Girl.
Whistling Serenade.
Euphonium Solo, "Vacant Chair," —Bandsman Crook.
Grand March.—Indienne.

PART II.

March.—St. Louis Exposition.
Explorers.—Comic Opera Selections.
Mazurka.—Amouroso.
Selection.—Floradora.
Finale, "My Old Kentucky Home" with variations.
God Save the King.

GARDEN PARTY AT SPRINGVILLE

Was Most Successful Function—Held on Presbyterian Church Grounds

The garden party held at Springville last night under the auspices of the Presbyterian church of that place was attended by over 200 persons and a highly enjoyable time was spent. The function took place on the church grounds which were lighted and decorated for the occasion.

One of the main attractions of the evening, was Rev. Dr. Marsh's big telescope, and nearly everyone present had a peep at the wonders of the heavens, through the instrument. Ten cents for two minutes at the end of the tube was charged, and the receipts from this feature of the evening, added considerably to the proceeds. Limelight views of scenes in Labrador in the extreme north and of West Indies Islands in the far south, were thrown on a large canvas; also illustrated songs, including many of the old melodies of the sunny south. Those present joined heartily in the singing of these. The musical part of the programme was of a high order of merit. It consisted of vocal selections by Miss Robson, of Norwood, who has a pleasing voice, and who sang in a particularly charming manner last night, and instrumental and vocal selections by the Salvation Army band of Peterborough. The band was in excellent form and added greatly to the programme.

Addresses were given by Rev. Mr. MacKenzie, of Centreville, and Rev. Mr. Sexsmith, of Cavanville. These were brief and of a happy nature, and were listened to with deep interest.

Refreshments were served during the evening and a booth where ice cream, fruit, etc., were sold, did a thriving business. Another stand where ladies' work was sold, was also busy during the evening.

The proceeds of the party will go towards the Ladies' Aid Society of the Springville church and amounted to a handsome sum.

Two 'bus loads of young people drove out from Peterborough to attend the party and had a most enjoyable time.

Judge Landry May Refer Emmerson Suit to Supreme Court.

Case Adjourned to Monday—Commission to Examine Witnesses Is Refused—Mr. Emmerson Hints That Dice Are Loaded—Counsel Declares He Will Not Go on In That Court—Crocket Scores.

Fredericton, N. B., June 22.—Hon. Mr. Emmerson, in spite of all of Mr. Pugsley's cunningness, was backed up yesterday morning step by step until at last he declared that he would not go ahead with his case. The counsellor is quoted as saying: "I am not playing with loaded dice." Jas. H. Crocket, the defendant, has been receiving congratulations all day.

Court opened with an attempt by the prosecution to procure a postponement because two witnesses, by name Foster and O'Brien, were missing, one being in England and the other in the United States. So swore Hon. William Pugsley, by affidavit, to the best of his knowledge and belief. One of these men, it was believed, had been the porter who had assured Mr. Emmerson's lady friends that there was no need to leave the hotel. The affidavit concluded with the assertion that it was not made for the purpose of delay.

Mr. Pugsley followed up the filing of this document with a citation of decisions as to adjournments of criminal cases. As to the time of making the application, the contention was that the crown could not have moved before the plea of justification has been entered.

"In connection with this, I propose to ask your honor to refer to the Supreme Court, which meets on Aug. 30, the question of law as to whether or not your honor should have overruled the demurrer.

A Ruling on Libel.

"It is a question affecting libel suits generally, because there is a section in the code which says that no man is guilty of publishing defamatory matter, which he on reasonable grounds believes to be true. If your honor's memory is correct, on any charge of this nature bearing upon private character, if the court holds that the publication is in the public interest, no matter whether the statement is true or not, all the defendant has to do is to enter the box, give the source of his information, and say that on reasonable ground he believes the statement to be true."

Judge Landry went over the code on this subject, and Mr. Pugsley proceeded to declare that under his honor's ruling there could be no successful prosecution for libel.

A discussion arose as to whether Judge Landry had actually held that The Gleaner publication was in the public interest.

"I said that I was not convinced that it was not," said the judge. "But I am ready to make the stronger declaration, and say I believe it to have been in the public interest."

Mr. Pugsley forthwith, with due deference, accused the judge of doing what no other judge had ever done. The defence should have known that if he filed a plea of justification the crown would ask for and be entitled to an adjournment.

"I ask for this commission as a matter of right."

Court Overrules Motion.

John Lloyd, the ex-night clerk, and Harry Dean, ex-night watchman, at the St. Lawrence Hall, were then placed on the stand. They were positive that neither O'Brien nor Foster, both ascribed as employes of that hotel, had been in the service of the hotel on June 10, or for a considerable time prior thereto.

The court overruled the motion for a commission to examine these witnesses.

Mr. Pugsley again implored the court not to bring on the trial, but to refer the legal questions contained in the demurrer to the full court.

This led Judge Landry to say: "I feel strongly on the question of a reference to the full court. While I am satisfied that my decison of yesterday was right, yet it would be a relief to me to have it upheld by the full court. I will give a decision on Monday, but I would suggest that witnesses be on hand.

"Then I may tell your honor frankly," interposed Mr. Pugsley, "that if your honor refuses to refer the case to the Supreme Court, in view of the strong feeling that I have and though there would be no great difficulty in getting an appeal to the Supreme Court, I would feel it my duty before going to trial to exhaust every resource that the law offers. I may tell my learned friend (Mr. Hazen) that he need not have his witnesses here on Monday, as I will not go on then, nor at this court."

Judge Landry said that it was because of the difficulty in the way of an appeal that he was reserving judgmen. He wanted to get information as to the sittings of the Supreme Court, to see if there could be a speedy argument.

Mr. Hazen: "Do I understand that my learned friend will not go on?"

Mr. Pugsley: "Not at this court."

"Do I understand that you will enter a nolle prosequoi?"

"No, I have made my statement. I do not proposed to add or to detract from it."

During the argument Mr. Pugsley remark that it was not a private prosecution, but in every case there must be some one to lay the information.

Shot Two Policemen.

New York, June 22.—Salvatore Gouvernale, an Italian, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted for the murder of Policemen Selleck and Sechler on April 15.

Cabrera Said to Be Dying.

Mexico City, June 22.—President Estrada Cabrera of Guatemala is reported to be dying, from blood poisoning, which followed the extraction of a tooth.

Dies of Lockjaw.

Belleville, June 22.—George Wilson Mitchell, son of James K. Mitchell of this city, died in the hospital early yesterday morning. He was 17 years old. Two weeks ago he stepped on a rusty nail, which penetrated his right foot. Lockjaw developed.

Was Instantly Killed.

Walkerville, June 22.—Harry Eastman, an employe of the Canadian Bridge Co. here, was struck by a falling girder yesterday, and killed almost instantly. He was a young man, and only lately married.

Cattle Man Suicides.

Fredericton, June 22.—John Boyle of J. Boyle & Sons, cattle dealers, shot himself through the heart here yesterday morning, and died almost instantly. He fell off a wagon recently and his mind had been affected.

Booth Back to London.

London, June 22.—Gen. Booth of the Salvation Army returned to London yesterday from a tour of Japan and Canada.

Just Figure out the Cost

What's the use of putting up a barn that will last only ten or twenty years, when, for the same money, or even less, you can build one that is good for a generation at least, and is lightning-proof, fire-proof and water-proof?

Use "Acorn Quality"

Corrugated Galvanized Sheets

and both price and quality will be right. They will cost no more than an all-wood building. The process of corrugating, renders the sheets so rigid that a lighter frame may be used, than with any other structure. Sheeting boards are quite unnecessary and only wood strips are required.

Then, the cost for labor in applying Corrugated Sheets, is, by actual test, less than half what it would be for wood shingles. The economy effected by labor, sheeting boards, and lighter frame-work, more than makes up the difference in cost between present day wooden shingles and our "Acorn Quality" Corrugated Galvanized Sheets.

Our lightning proof barns are in almost every locality in Canada. We will mail you, on request, a list of users in your own county. Get their opinion. 44

HAYWOOD MUST FACE JURY.

Judge Refuses Motion for Acquittal on Murder Charge.

Boise, Idaho, June 22.—When the state yesterday closed its case against Wm. D. Haywood, charged with the murder of ex-Governor Frank Steunenberg, the defence made an unsuccessful attempt to have the court direct the jury to acquite the prisoner on the ground that the state had not proved its charge. Judge Woods' ruling, which requires the defence to meet with evidence the case that the state has presented, was made at the close of court, and it was then arranged that Haywood's counsel should make their opening statement and present their first testimony on Monday.

The prosecution introduced a few witnesses to corroborate previous evidence, and then formerly rested its case. The motion for an instruction to the jury to acquit was by agreement presented at the afternoon session, and the jury was sent out of hearing.

Statute Forbade Conviction.

Mr. Richardson said among other things:

"I would say to your honor, that if Haywood was guilty of the blowing up of the Vindicator Mine, which he is not; if he had guilty knowledge of the attempt on Gabbert, which he had not; if Haywood were guilty of the conspiracy on the life of Peabody, which he is not; if he killed Walley, which he did not; if he planned to kill Bradley, which he did not; if all these things were true, which they are not; all this would be insufficient to convict him of a crime on the body of Steunenberg. These were all crimes committed in states other than the State of Idaho, and this man Haywood stands charged only with a crime committed within the borders of the State of Idaho.

"We come, therefore, to the proposition: By whom does this man stand connected with the murder of Steunenberg, except by the mouth of the man who sat in that witness chair, and whose unsupported word is not worthy of belief by any living person."

Why, your honor, we can find 5,000 men in Idaho who are guilty of the murder of Steunenberg if a denunciation of Steunenberg made a man guilty of that murder.

PERSIAN REVOLT CRUSHED

Shah's Rebellious Brother Seeks Asylum in British Consulate.

Teheran, Persia, June 22.—Aboul Fath Mirza Salaned Dowlah, the rebel brother of the Shah, and third son of the predecessor, Muzaffer-ed-Din, has taken refuge at the British Consulate at Kermanshah and asked security for himself and his family.

Aboul Fath Mirza raised the standard of revolt immediately on his father's death. His claim is that Mohammed Ali Mirza, the present Shah, though his father's eldest son, is not the son of a princess of the Kadjar race and therefore is not qualified to become Shah. Aboul asserts that he is the eldest son by a Kadjar mother. He was Governor of Luristan, a mountainous province in Western Persia, previous to his revolt, and he had a force of 10,000 local troops at the outset, with which he started to march to Teheran.

FIVE AUTOISTS KILLED.

Car Ran Into Rock and Was Demolished.

Naples, June 22.—A most appalling automobile accident occurred at Caianelle, about 100 miles distant from Naples, Thursday, five men being killed. The motor car, which was going at high speed, ran into a rock and was demolished.

Among the killed was Prince Pescara, a member of the Italian nobility and related to the Spanish royal house, on account of whose death the aristocracy of the whole of lower Italy will be in mourning.

Word has been received in Rome that the automobile containing Marquis Ferrara, the Duke de la Regina, two guests, one of whom is believed to have been an American woman, and chauffeur, plunged into a ravine on the Naples road. All were killed.

Engineer Badly Scalded.

Ottawa, June 22.—Engineer Edward Reddick of Ottawa was severely scalded on the arms, legs, body and face in a collision Thursday night at Lachute, as a result of the steam escaping from a break. His head also was badly injured. He is in the hospital here critically ill.

Fireman Row was also badly bruised, but not so seriously. They were brought to Ottawa by special train this morning. Both trains were on the way to Montreal.

Edward Reddick, the Ottawa engineer so badly injured at Lachute Thursday night through steam escaping in the cab he was in, died at the general hospital yesterday afternoon.

It is understood there will be a full enquiry as to how another train was standing at Lachute station. Coroner Baptie opens an inquest this morning.

Dr. Niven has been appointed to the Board of Health of London.

TROOPS HELP RIOTERS

French Battalion Deserts and Joins the Wine-Growers.

Raided Ammunition Stores—Marched Out of Barracks With Flying Flags—Premier Refuses to Parley With Them—Rumored Assassination of Prefect — Artillery Proceeds to Scene to Compel Surrender.

Paris, June 22.—A battalion of the 17th Infantry Regiment, stationed at Agde, in the Department of Herault, has deserted with its arms and ammunition and joined the insurgent wine-growers at Beziers, the headquarters of the regiment. The mutineers, who mostly were recruited from the wine-growers, number about 400 men. They marched into Beziers, which has about 50,000 inhabitants, with drums beating and colors flying, and are now camped in the principal square of that city, with stacked arms. The deserters tried to enlist the sympathies of the remainder of the regiment, stationed at Beziers, but, failing to do so, they promised to eject them from the barracks.

Premier's Curt Reply.

Early yesterday afternoon the subprefect of Beziers notified Premier Clemenceau that the mutineers had offered to return to Agde on the condition that they were not punished. A little later they renewed their demand to be allowed to re-occupy their former barracks at Beziers. M. Clemenceau curtly replied that he refused to parley with deserters, or consider any proposal but unconditional surrender, adding that he was determined to utilize all the country's force, if necessary, in order to suppress the uprising.

General Bailloud, with artillery and other troops, is proceeding to Besiers in order to compel the unconditional surrender of the mutineers, who are now said to number 607 men.

The Cabinet held a lengthy session Thursday night, only breaking up at midnight. The crisis in the Midi was thoroughly discussed. At 2 a.m. it was announced that Premier Clemenceau had received a message from the Prefect at Narbonne stating that order had been restored.

Blood Incensed Mob.

Narbonne, June 22.—A conflict in which the 139th fired volleys caused the worst possible impression. The shooting appears to have been due to the precipitancy of a non-commissioned officer, and it is stated that the commandant of the 139th was so horror-stricken at the unfortunate affair that he tore off his insignia of rank in front of his men, and later resigned his commission, but this is not confirmed. Crowds stood Thursday night mournfully gazing at the pools of blood where the dead and wounded fell. On the bloodstained paving stones is chalked the inscription: "Here fell the victims of the 139th. Death to Clemenceau and Picquart."

The funeral of the victims was fixed to take place yesterday, and the greatest disturbances were apprehended. A police commissary of Paris who was detached on special duty at Narbonne was caught by the mob and horribly beaten. It is feared he will not recover.

There are persistent rumors that the Prefect of the Department of the Aude has been assassinated at Narbonne.

Support Cabinet.

After six hours' debate the Chamber last night by 327 to 223 votes decided to support the Cabinet and give the Ministers a free hand to employ any measures they deem best to re-establish order.

The receipt of a despatch from Besiers later in the day announcing that the mutinous battalion had decided to return to the rest of the regiment caused decided satisfaction in official circles, as it was hoped that the action taken would head off any further open insubordination among the troops.

Accused of Stealing $3,000.

Montreal, June 22.—Joseph E. Costin, an agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., was brought before the court yesterday morning on a charge of stealing the sum of $3,000 from the company. Costin is alleged to have secured the money by means of a forged cheque. He pleaded not guilty and was remanded.

Condemned to Death.

Kiev, Russia, June 22.—The court-martial convened to try the mutinous sappers at the summer camp, at Banievka, is said to have acted with promptness and severity. It is reported that forty-eight mutineers have already been condemned and shot.

Trans-Alpine Trains Crash.

Paris, June 22.—The Modena express ran into the express which runs from the Simplon to Paris Thursday at the Dijonville Station. Four passengers were taken to the hospital.

HEMMED IN BY FLAMES

Four Men Burned to Death on Blazing Steamer

Terrible Disaster On St John River—Spark From Funnel Causes Fire On "Crystal Stream"—Cargo of Hay Was Ignited—Many of Crew Injured—Caught Like Rats In Trap.

St. John, N. B., June 22.—Four men were burned to death and half a dozen other persons badly hurt in a disaster at Cole's Island early yesterday morning, when the steamer Crystal Stream was totally destroyed.

The Crystal Stream was an old New York sidewheeler, brought here five years ago to run on the St. John River and Washademoak Lake. D. J. Purdy, M.P.P., of St. John, is the principal owner.

The steamer, which makes two trips a week, was lying on the west wharf at Cole's Island, 50 miles from St. John, on her down trip to this city, heavily loaded with hay.

Shortly after 1 o'clock fire was discovered on the upper deck. It had evidently caught in the hay from a spark from the smokestack. With great rapidity it spread through the light freight, and before the members of the crew could be awakened the whole steamer was in flames.

Hemmed In Like Rats.

Most of the men were sleeping in the lower deck below the freight, and were hemmed in by the fire like rats in a trap. As soon as those on the upper decks were aroused they endeavored, but without success, to extinguish the flames, turning their attention also to those of their comrades who were below decks.

Strenuous efforts were put forth to rescue the men who were below, and it was not until the rescuers were unable to approach even the side of the steamer that the task was given up.

William Logan and Allan Logan, two brothers, belonging to Land's End; Fred Smith of Shannon, Queen's County, and a fourth man named Baxter, were burned to death, and yesterday morning their charred bodies were found in the ruins.

Engineer Wentworth Roberts and the stewardess, Mrs. Chase, both belonging to St. John, were quite seriously burned, while Capt. Mabee and other members of the crew sustained painful injuries. Herbert McAlary, the mate, and H. P. Belyea, the purser, were also badly burned.

The steamer cost $22,500 and is insured for half her value.

WIPED OUT THE FAMILY.

Man Killed Wife, Three Children and Himself.

Atlanta, Ga., June 22.—A special to the Journal, from Jaspar, Fla., says W. W. Barton, a carpenter, shot and instantly killed his wife, three children and himself at his home there Wednesday night. One victim, a child five years old, survived long enough to tell that Barton did the killing. Barton left home Tuesday and did not return until late Wednesday evening, when he found the doors nailed against him. He battered them down and began his work of destruction.

DOCTOR'S WIFE SUICIDES.

Swallows Morphine Tablets Owing to Domestic Troubles.

Brockville, June 22.—Mrs. Sadie Mulholland, wife of Dr. W. Mulholland of Heuvelton, committed suicide by swallowing morphine tablets. The woman's act is thought to have been due to domestic troubles.

The couple had disagreed, and the doctor took their child to the home of his parents in Massena. It was during his absence that she took the fatal dose. Some hours later she was found in an unconscious condition, and soon afterwards died.

BLEW HIS CLOTHING OFF.

Powder Explodes But Man Was Only Slightly Injured.

Sydney, N. S., June 22.—While Norman McLeod was carrying some plugs of powder inside his clothing on the way to work yesterday morning, a spark fell from his pipe and set off the powder.

The explosion actually blew the clothing from his body and did damage to the street, but beyond a slight burn and a bad fright McLeod is none the worse for the experience.

TOWN OF THESSALY DESTROYED

River Flood Destroys Trikhala and Kills 200 People.

Athens, June 22.—The Town of Trikhala, in Thessaly, is almost destroyed, owing to the overflow of the River Lithaoe. Hundreds of wooden houses are washed away and the loss of life is about 200.

Barnardo Girl Drowned.

Delhi, Ont., June 22.—Yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock a Barnardo Home girl named Martha Parsons, 14 years of age and employed at the home of Dr. Davies, was accidentally drowned. She and another girl were down by the creek barefooted and Martha Parsons walked out on a log overhanging the water to wash some sand off her feet and slipped in.

Bakery Badly Gutted.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, June 22.—Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday morning Frank Thomas' bakery on Queen street was badly gutted by fire. Mr. Thomas and his wife were forced to make their escape by a ladder from the second storey window. The damage is estimated between $600 and $700, with no insurance.

Barn Was Destroyed.

Listowel, Ont., June 22.—About 2 o'clock yesterday fire broke out in A. Yule's stable, on Main street, extending to F. Smith's large frame building, used for the sale of implements, both of which are badly damaged.

GOVERNMENT 'PHONES SUIT.

Prince Albert, June 22.—Associated boards of trade closed a very important convention here on Thursday, and it was decided to meet in Medicine Hat next year.

The business included a resolution approving the action of the Government of Alberta in taking steps to provide a Government telephone service and calling upon the Saskatchewan Government to take a similar action. This was unanimously passed.

The abolition of local improvement districts and substitution therefor of regularly organized municipalities was also urged. It was decided to ask the Dominion Government to name the point of redemption in each of the new provinces and nominate deputy receivers-general to reside at such points. More roadways through forests, increase in number of fire rangers and other steps to preserve timber were also demanded. Provincial Governments are to be asked to provide 50 per cent. of the cost of hospitals when the balance is provided by municipalities; this is in addition to ordinary Government grants for maintenance.

The Dominion Government will be asked to establish several customs outports in Alberta and Saskatchewan, to facilitate handling customs business. Demand will also be made for more adequate postal service throughout new portions of the western provinces.

B.N.A. ACT SECOND READING.

Winston Churchill and Hamar Greenwood Support It.

London, June 22.—The British North America Act, as amended, passed the second reading yesterday.

Winston Churchill and Hamar Greenwood supported it, pointing out that whilst the Government could not interfere between British Columbia and the Dominion, the way was still open for any province to make better terms if possible.

The words "final and unalterable" were omitted, because it was impossible to bind the sovereign Parliament.

Mr. Greenwood indicated with pride as a Canadian the dignified and quiet way the Canadian Prime Ministers, including Mr. McBride, had brought the matter to the Colonial Office. Mr. Greenwood said the bill must pass by July 1. He said the Government intended it to pass.

Don't Like Lemieux Act.

Ottawa, June 22.—R. W. Botterell, who is the only grand officer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in Canada, returned yesterday from Quebec, where that body has been in session. The meetings were private.

He says that generally the engineers were not satisfied with Mr. Lemieux's Labor Disputes Act, but decided to leave the matter over for further discussion.

Bids have been accepted by the American navy for the construction of two battleships of the Dreadnought type.

THE HIGHEST RECOMMENDATION

for the shares of the LUCKY BOYS GOLD MINES, LIMITED, is the fact that large blocks are being rapidly subscribed for at Cobalt, Haileybury, New Liskeard and Larder Lake. We are receiving letters from mining engineers and miners every day reserving large blocks of LUCKY BOYS shares. These men have been over the ground, and in all of the letters we receive from them they say that the properties are even better than we represent them, and that LUCKY BOYS will be the greatest and most profitable mines in the Larder Lake district. The fact that these experienced men are investing their own money in LUCKY BOYS should be sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical. Miners employed on the nearby mines are all pinning their faith to the LUCKY BOYS. They are buying all the shares they can. They realize what a splendid investment they are getting in buying LUCKY BOYS at SIX CENTS PER SHARE. They know a good thing when they see it. Are you going to join them in making a fortune? Bankers and conservative business men throughout the whole country are now buying LUCKY BOYS for their investment. We strongly advise our clients not to hesitate, but buy LUCKY BOYS to-day at SIX CENTS PER SHARE. We have only one million shares to dispose of at this price, and at the rate that these shares are being absorbed we predict that they will not last long. The public will be falling over themselves six months from now trying to buy at One Dollar per share or more. We strongly urge the immediate purchase of these shares. We are placing our own funds in it and we are willing to stake our reputation on the merits of LUCKY BOYS.

The LUCKY BOYS properties consist of 20 claims of 40 acres each, making a total acreage of 800 acres. Some of the claims adjoin the famous Reddick claims, others adjoin the Proprietary Gold Fields, and others adjoin the wonderful Blue Bell properties.

We have sent our own mining engineers to examine and report on the properties, we have looked exhaustively into the merits of LUCKY BOYS before offering the shares to our clients. We question if an opportunity like this will ever present itself to you again. We advise our clients to buy LUCKY BOYS.

We advise you to buy all you can, you are bound to greatly profit thereby.

The stock of the LUCKY BOYS is actually worth a great deal more money than the price we are asking for it. Our engineers figure there is in sight on the properties of this Company gold equal to many times the par value of the total capitalization of the Company. All it requires for investors to make money is to have faith and confidence in the LUCKY BOYS proposition, and we strongly advise investors to put every dollar that they can in these shares at the present price.

Could you visit the Larder Lake district and examine the properties, as we have done, you would not hesitate a single moment in placing every dollar at your command in the shares of LUCKY BOYS at

6 CENTS PER SHARE

(Par Value, $1.00. Fully Paid and Non-assessable.)

It should be noted that all of the Directors of the Company are well-known and successful business men—not men that are simply interested in a mine—but men that are miners in every sense of the word, and who know how to operate, maintain and conduct a mine in a business-like manner, and who have been connected with the strongest and most successful mines in the Cobalt camp. These gentlemen are just the kind of mining men that investors should be glad to become identified with.

The fact that some of these gentlemen, who are Directors of the Company, and originally owned a part interest in some of the LUCKY BOYS claims, are buying the shares at 6 cents each with the cash that they receive for their interest in the properties should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical. These men know what a splendid investment they are getting in buying the shares at 6 cents each.

The mineral production during the current year has been remarkable as compared with former records, and it will be still greater in 1907. Remember, when you see the enormous advances in the prices of Larder Lake mining securities that are coming immediately and that will continue for months and months, if not for years, that we told you to select one or more good stocks, and that a small investment in them will yield inside of a very short time enormous profits that would be impossible in any other industry.

We are not trying to sell stocks of LUCKY BOYS to uneducated or half-witted people. We are trying to interest legitimate business men in a proposition that we believe will turn out to be one of the greatest of its kind the world has ever known, and again we say, if you are not in a position to hold this stock until such time as the LUCKY BOYS GOLD MINES, LIMITED, properties are developed, we do not want you to buy it. A mine cannot be developed in a day any more than a railway of 50 miles can be built in an hour, and no railway ever paid dividends or ever amounted to anything until the trains were running, and a mining property cannot amount to anything until the ore is being treated. People who purchase the stock of the LUCKY BOYS cannot expect the Officers and Directors of the Company to pay dividends until dividends are earned. We do honestly believe, however, that before the present summer is past LUCKY BOYS will be paying dividends to its stockholders. We are in business to-day and we propose to stay in it while there is any business to be had, and we can say to you now that in some years to come we expect to be counted among the financial houses that are spoken of and referred to in the highest terms by investors.

When we offered the first block of Blue Bell shares, we predicted that the Larder Lake district would be the greatest gold district in the world, and our predictions are being endorsed daily by miners arriving from the golden north with the beautiful specimens of pure free gold. These men fully endorse our predictions. The time is not far distant when the eyes of the whole world will be concentrated upon the wonderful golden north of New Ontario.

A year ago very few white men had trodden the trail through the Larder Lake district. To-day the greatest stampede the world has ever known is taking place. Capitalists, mining engineers and prospectors are now "hitting the trail" and hurrying through as fast as they can. Millions of dollars will be offered for some of the Larder Lake properties within the next few months.

President.

The price of LUCKY BOYS shares will TAKE A JUMP some of these days, and then it will be too late to buy them at the first issue price.

Tenders are Called for New Church

Handsome Catholic Edifice to be Erected at Once

Tenders are being called for the erection of a new Roman Catholic church and sacristry, which will be located at the corner of Romaine and Aylmer streets. The time for receiving tenders expires on July 8th. All tenders must be addressed to His Lordship the Bishop of Peterborough. The church will be a fine large structure about 150 feet long, and 58 feet wide. It will have a gallery at one end and will seat about 1,000 persons.

The structure will be of limestone and granite, and will have a tower in the front. There will be a large crypt underneath the church and sacristry, which will be of the Romanesque style of architecture. It is expected that the edifice will be completed this fall, as owing to the crowded condition of St. Peter's Cathedral and the rapid growth of the city at the south end the erection of the church has been rendered necessary.

SPENT SOCIAL TIME

The regular weekly practice last night was held at the home of Mrs Charles McClelland, Downie street, organist of the church. At the close of the practice refreshments were served and a social hour spent. Rev. J. G. Potter being present, took opportunity to thank the choir for the help rendered to him and the church in the service of praise.

Of Miss Wilhelmine Gumpricht Last Night—Appreciative Gathering

A recital by the pupils of Miss Wilhelmine Gumpricht, A.T.C.M., and A.C.C.M., was held at her home, Aylmer street, last evening. A large number of the parents and friends of the pupils were present. The several numbers were given by the pupils with an efficiency and expression that did credit to the faithful teaching of Miss Gumpricht, and many complimentary remarks were made during the evening. Miss Ida Sanderson, of the Conservatory of Music staff, assisted in the programme, and was heard in two solos with great pleasure.

The following is the programme as rendered by the pupils, and which proved such an interesting one:—

Ketchecum Club Return Home

Had the Best Time in History of the Fishing Party—All Caught Fish

The Ketchecum Club fishing party returned last night after spending one of the most enjoyable week's outing in its history. They went up the lakes last Saturday night and made their headquarters at La Belle chasse, Mr. H. LeBrun's beautiful summer home. There were twenty-five of the best sports from Peterborough in the party, and they certainly had a fine time. The weather could not have been more favorable. It was pleasant all the time and the boys were in great spirits. The fishing was fine and, besides having lots of fish to eat there, every member of the party brought two or three nice ones home with them. Mr. Alex. Elliott carried off the honors for the largest lunge, and Mr. Levinson, of Montreal, caught the largest bass. He got three that weighed 12 1-2 pounds, and took them to Montreal with him last night.

The evenings were very happy times at La Bellechasse. Several members of the party were good entertainers, and everyone had a bunch of good stories to tell. The trip next year will be looked forward to with great pleasure.

ON CHARGE OF SELLING LIQUOR

To Drunken Men—Two Hotelkeepers Were Dismissed

Two hotelkeepers were arraigned before His Worship Magistrate Dumble this morning on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor to men who were already drunk.

Mr. J. E. Haverson, of Toronto, solicitor for the License Holders' Association, appeared for the defendants. Neither charge was proved and both cases were dismissed. In the first case that of Charles R. Nixon, of the Southern Hotel, George street, two witnesses were called, who testified to the man in question being drunk.

Inspector Stewart swore that on Tuesday last he followed the man to the hotel, where he saw him get a schooner of beer, and he was already drunk.

The defence called no witnesses, and Mr. Haverson stated that a conviction could not be made on the evidence given. There was nothing to show that the man was disorderly before he took the drink. There was no evidence to prove that the bartender was aware of the man being drunk. The inspector stood and watched the man drink it but made no effort to stop him.

M. C. Tooley, of the Queen's Hotel was similarly charged. He pleaded not guilty.

It appears according to a mother's story, that the hotel-keeper sold liquor to her son, after having been warned not to do so. She swore to having entered the bar last Saturday and seeing him drinking.

Inspector Stewart was called and stated that the woman came to him on Saturday and asked him to get her son out of the hotel. He went to the hotel and saw him quite drunk, but he could do nothing with him.

This case was also dismissed, His Worship stating that they had failed to prove that he was given intoxicating drink.

WAS FINED

Daniel Moher was fined two dollars for being drunk in a public place yesterday. He paid his fine forthwith.

WEDDING BELLS

WETHERUP—McNICHOLL

A very quiet but interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNichol, Lake View Farm, Verulam, recently, when their daughter, Annie E., was united in marriage to Mr. Walter J. Wetherup, of Omemee. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. M. Wilson, of Dunsford, the bridal party standing under an arch of evergreens. The bride was given away by her father, and was gowned in white organdy, trimmed with allover lace, with lace insertion. The bride's going away suit was of blue lady's cloth, with white allover embroidery waist, and white hat to match. They were unattended. The parlor was prettily decorated for the occasion with evergreens and flowers.

They received a number of very pretty and useful presents, among them being a handsome parlor set, gift of the groom. The bride's cake, which was a very dainty one, was a gift of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr David Erskine, Toronto Jct. They will reside in Omemee.

FIRES IN NORTH PUT OUT.

Many Lots Burned Over—Settlers Had Hard Time.

Toronto, June 22.—Word has been received at the Parliament Buildings that a heavy rain is following along the line of the T. & N. O. Railway between New Liskeard and Moose Lake, and all danger of further fires in that district is over for the present.

Deputy Minister of Lands Aubrey White was informed from Webbwood that ten or twelve lots were burned over in the Township of Dunlop, and that Scott and Brown, jobbers, had five horses burned to death in Porter Township.

Mr. Henderson, Government agent at Sudbury, wrote that Moore and Molthrop had $10,000 worth of supplies destroyed by a fire in the Township of Hurley.

At Chapleau the fire approached so close to the village that it was with the greatest difficulty that the people saved their homes. The whole population had to turn out to fight the flames, and it was only after hours of hard work that the danger was averted.

Chief Fire Ranger Macdonald wired the department yesterday that the fires in James Township were all out. The damage in this district has been very heavy, but no detailed estimate is yet possible.

The chief ranger reports that five miles of the crown revenue between Silver Lake and Bear Creek were burned over, but most of the timber destroyed was Jack pine and the pine was practically left untouched.

A corps of specials was sent north yesterday by Hon. Frank Cochrane to make an estimate of the damage done. Their report, however, is not expected for a couple of weeks at the earliest.

The report that three people were burned in one of the fires has not been substantiated, and the department is not inclined to place much faith in the rumor.

TEN YEARS FOR ARSON.

Toronto, June 22.—For setting fire to the kitchen of the Richelieu Restaurant, 84 West King street, a few days ago, Gordon Charles, who informed the insurance company of his action, was sentenced to ten years in Kingston Penitentiary by Magistrate Denison in the Police Court yesterday.

Charles Ward, on a grave charge, also got ten years. His wife and two daughters testified against him.

Thief Throws $100 Away.

London, June 22.—While returning to the city from Springbank, Abraham Slater, a member of the firm of Slater Bros., tailors, was relieved of $700 by a pickpocket, while riding on the rear end of a heavily loaded trolley car. The thief got away with the cash.

At midnight Slater came across his man at the Grand Trunk depot, and again gave chase, during which he saw the pickpocket throw something into a pile of old bricks. This he found to be $100. The thief escaped.

Strikers Win Out.

Montreal, June 22.—The strike of the Dominion Transport Co.'s teamsters, which started Wednesday, when 300 men employed by the company stopped work, was ended last night by the company agreeing to grant the increase demanded by the men, who will receive $1.75 a day and 20c an hour overtime. They were receiving $1.60 a day.

Will Not Declare Strike.

St. Petersburg, June 22.—A conference yesterday of delegates representing all the revolutionary groups, including the Polish socialists, union of railway employes, group of toil and peasants party, rejected the proposal to declare a general strike as a response to the dissolution of Parliament.

Late Adam Dawson Was Laid to Rest

Large Funeral Under Masonic Auspices—Public Service at All Saints' Church

The remains of the late Ex-Ald. Adam Dawson were borne to their last resting place in Little Lake Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral cortege was a long one, a great many citizens turning out to pay their last respect to the memory of the departed. A private service at the house was conducted by Rev Wm. Major, after which the funeral proceeded to All Saints' church, where the public service was held It was conducted under Masonic auspices, and the members of A. F. & A.M., Corinthian Lodge, headed the procession to the church. The Mayor, City Council and city officials drove in cabs, followed by Court Peterborough C.O.F., of which the deceased was a member, and the Bricklayers' and Stone Masons' Union

At the church the Masons formed in two columns and the remains were carried into the church.

The pall bearers were Wor. Bro. T. E Bradburn. Wor. Bro. T. A. S. Hay, V. Wor. Bro. H. Winch, Wor. Bro. D. Walker, V. Wor. Bro. James Lundy, and Wor. Bro. Col. H. C. Rogers

Rev Wm. Major and Canon Davidson conducted the service at the church. Canon Davidson reading the lesson, after which a hymn was sung.

Rev E. A Langfeldt, rector of St. Luke's church, of which the deceased was a member for twenty-five years, gave a short address, in which he referred in eulogistic terms to the life of the departed. In his opening remarks he said the occasion was a sad one, and the purpose of gathering in the House of God was to pay the last respect to the memory of our late brother. The church was hardly the place to enumerate his many excellent qualities. For over thirty years his life had been as an open book to a large number of citizens and his honesty and uprightness were the predominent features of his life. The efforts put forth in his service in the council were for the best interests of the city. In the carrying on of his daily work, and in all the activities in which he engaged, he always did that which was honest and righteous "Why was he always truthful and ready to do that which was right?" asked the speaker. "Because he was a firm believer in God. His ardent and sincere faith in Christ was the foundation of his work in civic affairs. In these days when the denial of the divinity of Christ is so common it is refreshing to point to the deceased, whose daily life was based on the principles laid down in the Gospel. His long sickness was bravely and cheerfully borne No doubt it was a great trial, but he was a man of God and when his physician told him that he could not recover, he said, "Thy will be done."

Rev. Mr. Langfeldt referred to the closer contact the clergy had with the inner life of the deceased than any one else. The speaker had learned to love and respect him and his Christian life was worthy of example. Some people think if they live honest lives ,they do not need to go to church. They believe in an idle or abstract religion. Look upon the deceased as he lived. He was most regular at church, always present at the services of the church. He was sure those present joined with him in expressing deep sympathy to the bereaved wife and family.

The remains were taken from the church as the Nunc Dimittis was being played, and the cortege then proceeded to the Little Lake Cemetery where the last sad rites were performed.

The service at the grave was conducted by the Masons, Wor. Bro. D. H Burritt acting as director of ceremonies and Wor. Bro. J. D. Craig of Corinthian Lodge, conducting the service, assisted by Rt. Wor. Bro. R. E Wood, of Corinthian Lodge; Rt Wor. Bro. A. Gibson, of Peterborough Lodge; Wor. Bro. D Walker and Bro. Wm. Major.

The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful, one cab being taken for the flowers alone. They included several handsome designs from the A.F. & A.M., Canadian Order of Foresters, City Council, Bricklayers and Stone Masons, and many others.

WOODMEN WILL ATTEND SERVICE

The members of Sherwood Forest Camp No. 26, Woodmen of the World, will hold their annual church parade to-morrow Sunday evening. The Woodmen will meet in the S.O E. hall at 6.15 o'clock and march in a body to the church, where the rector, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, will deliver a special address to them.

Oddfellows Will Honor Their Departed Brethren

List of Those Whose Graves Will be Decorated on Thursday—Eighty Members of Triple-Linked Order Now Resting at Little Lake Cemetery.

Thursday afternoon of next week the Oddfellows of Peterborough will march in a body to Little Lake cemetery where the graves of the deceased members of the triple linked fraternity will be decorated with flowers. The custom of Oddfellows to hold a decoration day each year to keep green the memory of the departed brethren, is one that appeals to every person that rejoices in the thought that the memory of those removed from the scene of earthly activity is not buried when the grave is closed, and the form is hid from view forever.

Owing to the lateness of the season, Decoration Day is about a week later than last year when it was observed on June 19th. A change has also been made in the hour. This year the Oddfellows will meet at Central Park at five o'clock and headed by the 57th Regiment band will march to Little Lake cemetery, where after depositing flowers on the mounds of the departed, short addresses will be delivered by city clergymen. It is expected that nearly all the business houses of the city will close the latter part of the afternoon, in observance of the day. In former years many places of business closed for the whole of the afternoon, but it was found that this was almost too much to ask them to do, and so it was decided to change the hour from two to five o'clock.

Eighty Oddfellows are now taking their last rest, beneath the green sward at Little Lake cemetery. Three members of the Order have passed away, since Decoration day last year. They were Bros. John A. MacDonald, Fred Logan, and Chas. Beauclere and their graves along with those of the seventy-seven other brethren who have gone to their reward as the years have rolled by will be decorated.

Cement Co's Employee Dead; Electrocuted at Raven Lake

A man named Armstrong, employed by the Raven Lake Cement Co., at their works north of Victoria Road, lost his life Wednesday evening by coming in contact with a live wire, which he was adjusting.

Dr Blanchard, coroner, of Lindsay was notified, and proceeded north to hold an investigation. A jury was empanelled, but proceedings had to be adjourned until Monday next.

This is the second fatality of the kind within a few months, the first victim being a brother-in-law of Armstrong.

New Chief Now Rules the Indians at Hiawatha

A new chief now rules the Hiawatha band of Indians. He is Mr. Alfred Crowe, and replaces Mr. Robt Paudash, who has been chief for the past eighteen years. Election took place yesterday, there being two candidates for the chiefship, Chief Paudash and Alfred Crowe. The vote stood.—

Alfred Crowe	9
Chief Paudash	[illegible]

Since about fifteen years ago the election of a chief takes place every three years. Chief Paudash was re-elected for several periods, and has held office for eighteen years.

Mr. Johnson Paudash, who has been Secretary of the band, for several years, was defeated for his position by Mr Henry Cowie, the vote standing, Cowie 11, Paudash 3. The secretary is elected every year.

COMPASS IS DISTURBED

How the Boats Get Out of Regular Course on Lake Ontario

In connection with a short interview with Rev. Dr Marsh of Springville, which appeared in the Review one day this week, in which it was stated that the sun spots which are now being viewed with much interest by astronomers would cause a magnetic disturbance which would affect to some extent, compasses, telephones, telegraph instruments, and other instruments which are susceptible to magnetic influences. That such a magnetic influence is taking place was clearly proved by an incident that occurred when Rev. Dr. Marsh was crossing from Toronto to Niagara Falls on one of the lake boats one day this week. The doctor was in conversation with one of the ship's officers, and the guiding of the boat while out on the lake came up. Dr. Marsh was informed that the compass was used for guiding the boat once the shore was out of sight and the officer further stated that during the past few days, those in charge of the boat had discovered that though the compass was followed closely at their destination they were about a mile out of their regular course. In the forenoon they went about a mile to the east, and in the afternoon about the same distance to the west of their natural course.

Upon Dr. Marsh mentioning that the compass was likely affected by magnetic influences, the officer remarked that one of the astronomers at the observatory in Toronto, had told him that before, but he had not thought of connecting the sun spots with the disturbance to the compass.

Visited the City in Touring Car

Mr. Fred Somerville and Party Enjoyed Ride From Toronto Here and Return

Mr. Fred Somerville, of Toronto. was in the city yesteray with a party of friends. They came down from Toronto in his big "Arrow" touring car, leaving the Queen City about ten o'clock in the morning and reaching here shortly after three o'clock. On the way down one of the tires of the auto was punctured which necessitated some delay while repairs were being made. The company left for Toronto on the return trip about four o'clock. Mr. W. C. P. Heathcote accompanied them. Mr. Kern, of the New York Mutual Life Assurance Company, Toronto, was one of the party.

The Committee Made No Change

In the Matter of Rev. J. J. Rae and Picton Congregation

The special committee of the Bay of Quinte Conference, of which Rev. R. Duke of Selby, the president of the Conference is chairman, met at Trenton, yesterday, to consider the request of the Main Street Church Congregation, Picton, that Rev. J. J. Rae, their pastor for the past three years be allowed to remain a fourth year.

It will be remembered that Mr. Rae was left by Conference without a station for a year, at his own request over an incident, which arose and Rev. V. H. Emory of Bowmanville was sent to Picton.

The congregation of the latter town, desired that Mr. Rae be permitted to stay the fourth year. A deputation was present yesterday and waited upon the special committee, which is composed of the president and secretary of the Bay of Quinte Conference, the chairmen of the various districts and five laymen.

It is understood that after considerable discussion, a resolution was carried to the effect that the conference special committee, possessing limited powers, had not the authority in this case to change the final draft as Mr. Rae had been left without a station at his own request, and no action was taken. The matter therefore, rests as it was

Rev. Mr. Emory will go to Main street church, Picton, for the coming year, and Mr. Rae will be left without a station.

New Train is Well Patronized

Present Service Between Port Hope and Peterboro' May be Permanent

The special G.T.R. summer train which leaves here each morning at 8.35 o'clock for Port Hope and returns at 11.45 a.m. in charge of Conductor Jobbitt, is being well patronized. It is rumored that the service may be continued throughout the year. Passengers leaving Toronto at 9 o'clock in the morning are enabled to reach Peterborough in much shorter time than those who depart from the Queen City over an hour earlier and come by way of Lindsay. The connections with the main line are also highly satisfactory.

ANNUAL PICNIC BIG SUCCESS

Chemong Day and Sabbath School Had a Jolly Time

The annual picnic under the auspices of the Chemong Day and Sabbath School, was held in the public grounds, on Saturday, the 15th of June.

In the evening a fitting program was rendered by the school children consisting as follows, interspersed with appropriate songs.;

Recitation, "We Learn by Doing," Susan Johnson.

Recitation, "Bad Habits and Bad Apples," Ruth A Whetung.

Recitation, "Sometimes Naughty," Lilly Taylor.

Recitation, "A Happy Day," Irene Tobico.

Recitation, "I'm a Merry Farmer Boy," Leslie McCue.

Recitation, "Freckles and Tan," Clara and Susie.

The event was favorably patronized by the parents.

A very touching address was delivered by Chief Irons, on the occasion of hoising the new Union Jack, under which the Chief spoke briefly on the subject of "Patriotism." The other speakers were Mr. Joseph Whetung, Alfred McCue, Indian day school teacher and superintendent of the Sabbath school.

Ald. Duncan Got an 18 lb. Lunge

In Stoney Lake--He Also Caught a Baby Fox on the Way to Camp

Word has been received from Stony Lake of a fishing expedition upon which Ald. Geo. Duncan distinguished himself. Ald. Duncan has the contract for decorating Mr. A. L. Davis' handsome residence and the other evening he went out to fish. There are few men who have a better knowledge of how to entice the finny creatures and few have as good luck in landing them. A favorite game of the alderman's is to fish with bottles. That is he attaches the line to an empty bottle and lets it float. Several of these bottles are put out and then the chairman of the Board of Works watches them from his canoe. As soon as a bottle bobs he starts after it and very often has a most exciting chase. Frequently while he is after one bottle another bottle starts off in the opposite direction and he has his hands full. But it is great sport and Mr. Duncan enjoys it.

It was this style of fishing that he alderman had adopted on the occasion referred to above. His bottles had not been out long when he noticed one dive under the water and come up several feet away. That was notice enough. The canoe with the excited fisherman in it was started a break-neck pace. The bottle was moving rapidly and frequently disappeared for two or three minutes and then turned up behind the canoe. This sort lasted for probably fifteen minutes before the 18 pound lunge which had taken hold of the hook was landed safely in the boat.

Ald. Duncan was returning triumphant with his breakfast when he suddenly saw an animal run along the bank on the main land. Being just a little bit inquisitive he pulled his boat into the shore in hopes that he might have a fight on land as well as on water. He tracked the animal for some distance until he discovered its hole and found Mrs. Fox at home with a family of young. A lively tussle ensued, but the well known alderman succeeded in getting one of the babies.

WILL REBUILD.

The work of clearing away the debris from the site of the burned Kennedy and Davis mill is being pushed with vigor, says the Lindsay Post. Messrs. Davis, father and son, have withdrawn from the firm, and Mr Kennedy will continue the business on a larger scale than before. A solid brick factory 60x72 ft. two storeys high, will be erected, with all possible speed, and the most modern machinery will be installed. In Mr. Barton, the superintendent, Mr Kennedy has a thoroughly ca-

TO LEARN TO SWIM.

Now that the summer season is on with bathing and its attendant dangers to men--the Y.M.C.A. provides an excellent place to learn the art of swimming. Mr. Dingman, physical director, has charge of this department and has a number of learners. A number of men and boys joined the association this week for the sake of the baths and swimming. Any man or any boy over 12, may become a member. Now is the time.

BUILDING ACTIVITY.

There are good prospects of considerable activity in the building trade this year, says the Campbellford Herald. The renovation of the the interior of the T. V. Woolen mill at a cost of $30,000, the erection of the factory of the Jackson Bridge Works, the improvements to be made at the paper mills, and the work on the Trent Canal should ensure a busy season for Campbellford. A number of residences are being repaired and beautified, and several new ones are being built.

MORE ORDERS COMPOSITE COS.

Some Additional Information of Interest to Those Who are Going

The following additional orders have been issued in connection with the composite companies from the 57th regiment:

Headquarters,
Peterborough, June 21, 1907.

Orders by Major E. B. Clegg, commanding 57th Regt. detachment, composite Regt., No. 3 district:

No. 1. In accordance with Regt. orders of the 21st inst., the companies and the bugle band composing the detachment for the composite regiment from the 57th regiment, will parade at the drill hall in marching order on Tuesday, June 25th, at 7.30 a.m. and proceed to the Grand Trunk station and entrain for Barriefield camp, Kingston.

No. 2. As much baggage as possible will be got ready and sent with the advance party which leaves at 8.30 a.m. on Monday, June 24th. All baggage not sent with the party must be ready at the drill hall not later than 7.30 a.m., on Tuesday, 25th inst.

No. 3. That part of order No. 3, of the 18th inst., that called for tunics as part of the clothing to be taken to camp is hereby cancelled, except for the members of the bugle band, who will take tunics.

By order,
E. M. BEST, Lieut.,
Act. Adjt.

It might be stated that there are a few vacancies in the companies and any members of the regiment desirous of enlisting for the four days training at Barriefield camp should apply to the officers commanding on Monday night.

PETERBOROUGH'S WEEKLY MARKET

There was a very small attendance at the market this morning. Not more than a dozen or two rigs were backed up against the sidewalk and most of the stuff offered for sale consisted of potatoes in bags at $1.25, and two or three loads of garden vegetable such as lettuce, radishes and green onions, at three bunches for 10 cents. There was also a load of flowering plants. All the merchandise was sold in a short time.

In the market hall the ladies reigned supreme as usual. The tables were covered with chickens, turkeys, butter and eggs, and the prices were very good. Chickens sold at 80c and $1.00 a pair, butter at 22 to 24 cents per pound, and eggs at 18c a dozen.

Hay sold at $15 to $15.50 per ton although only a few loads were offered.

The Early History of the Famous Iron Mines' Located at Blairton

Short Sketch of a Past Industry—Thirty Five Years Ago the Mines Were Being Worked at Full Blast—Village Was Then a Thriving Centre.

Mr. J. L. Aunger, of Blairton, who is considered to be an authority on iron mining, has written the following brief review of Blairton's past greatness:—

"Not infrequently does the newsman go back 35 years to recall to the reader's mind the happenings of events of that date. 35 years ago the Blairton iron mine was being worked in full blast.

300 men were employed in and around the mines, and many more on the route of transhipment of the ore, from Blairton to Cobourg. From 300 to 500 tons of ore was mined daily. The old "Pioneer" locomotive, wide gauge, brought from Nova Scotia, and said to be the first locomotive in Canada, spun over the old C.P. & M.R.R. from here to Trent Bridge, where the scows were loaded, making three trips daily with a train of twenty-five four-wheel trucks of 10,000 lbs. capacity. Huge machinery, all material for the mine, and large quantities of merchandise for our then large population, came here from Cobourg on the time.

A LIVELY VILLAGE.

There were in Blairton at that fifty dwellings, including three large boarding houses, and the population amounted to 800 or over. Four large stores managed by shrewd business men, done a very lucrative business. A good hotel was well kept, and, of course, liberally patronized, as were also some other places where liquor was sold "on the sly."

For wages at the mine, and along the line of transhipment of the ore to Cobourg, and for fuel, material, etc., the Company paid out from $25,000 to $30,000 monthly. To our knowledge the ore sold at times for $11 per ton, and we can prove that the ore taken from the bottom of the mine to the surface, paid hundreds per cent dividend. The cause of cessation of operations we shall leave until another time. 35 years ago dollar bills were more plentiful here than half-dimes are today. For fruit, vegetables, and the cereal product of the farm, we had a market which, owing to limit of growers, or farms near by, was never half supplied, even at highly advanced prices. Hay for years sold at $20 per ton, while straw for a tick cost 50 cents, for a bolster 25 cents, and for a pillow 5 cents. Wages were such that families by economy could live with credit to their position. On the credit system, though many over-reached the mark. The display of rustling silk and satin was common, and the gorgeous and costly ostrich plume beckoned time to the graceful tread of many of the fair sex.

The average attendance of our common school was over 100, requiring a dozen teachers, each with a class of twelve. Our church was crowded to the doors and was self-sustain. Old Havelock, then a part of this mission, helping us to the extent of $400 per year.

WEEKLY EXCURSIONS.

Excursions from Cobourg to Harwood by rail, through Rice Lake and the Trent river to Trent Bridge by steamer, and thence to Blairton by rail, were almost weekly occurrences. Commercial travellers and agents of all kinds flooded our village, Blairton iron mine being the topic of the day, the growth and success of the village having become proverbial.

The greatest success at any time in the history of the mine was when operated on contract mining by the ton, by the late Thomas Dumble, Esq., whose practical management and knowledge of mining, his geniality of manner, and liberality to his employees, readily called forth the approbation of all concerned. About this time, so great was the desire of a large number of men of means to build costly houses, and also buildings for the carrying on of various industries, that pressing applications were made to the Company for deeds of quite extensive territory for their proposed operations. The Company, however, very wisely destined to sell land in the village limits, other than the site for a hotel and a store. The ground for the school and two lots for the church and parsonage, was the Company's liberal gift.

"Blairton" was the name given to the village by Mr. Blair, who was then president of the Company. Mr. Blair then lodged with our bookkeeper, Mr. Bates. A substantial sum of money was donated by the Company to the mother of the first child born in the village, and the gift fell to Mrs John Merritt, the wife of one of the foremen.

ELECTRIC SMELTING.

The annual report of the experiments made at Sault Ste. Marie under Government auspices in the smelting of Canadian iron ores by the Electrothermic process, has just been issued.

Among the ores treated, the Marmora Herald says, was a shipment of magnetite from the Pearce Co's. mine at Blairton. The experiments have shown to the entire satisfaction of the experts engaged, that magnetic iron ores, containing even as high as 1 1-2 per cent sulphur, can be successfully treated by the new method. The samples from Blairton contained scarcely more than a half of one per cent. sulphur, and assayed between 25 per cent and 60 per cent metallic iron. The tests were all made with charcoal, it being one of the objects of the commission to ascertain whether this could successfully replace coke. It proved a splendid substitute. This in itself will mean a great deal to the iron industry of Canada, as the saving effected in freights alone will materially lower the cost of reduction of pig iron.

Another favorable feature is the proximity of sand and limestone, both of which are required in the smelting process. Unlimited quantities of both are to be found close to the Blairton mine.

Still better, however, as regards this particular property, is the fact that Healey falls is within nine miles of the mine. The Ontario Power Commission's report states that several thousand horse power can be generated at that point, and this could be transmitted electrically to the mine. The ore could thus be smelted at the mine, removing the freight to smelter — a very serious matter.

Altogether it would appear that the Blairton proposition is one of the very best in this section of Canada, and it is only a question of a short time before some strong company of practical iron men will take hold of this property. With the railway to the Narrows on the Trent waters it will be very easy to deliver the ore or pig iron on barges, to any point on the Great Lakes.

The Dominion Government have recently passed an Act granting a bonus of $2.10 per ton on electrically smelted iron and steel, and this assistance will no doubt materially help this new industry to make a start.

NEW LINE TO MUSKOKA

Canada's greatest railway, in building a line to connect Toronto with the main transcontinental track at Sudbury, has incidentally given us a new direct route to the Muskoka Lakes district, over which fast passenger trains will be running after Saturday, June 22nd. Bala, which is reached in three and a half hours from Toronto, will be the Lakes terminus this summer, and there steamers of the Muskoka Navigation Company will connect with trains, carrying passengers to all points on Lakes Muskoka, Joseph, and Rosseau. The roadbed is heavily laid and well ballasted, train equipment is new and handsome, and excellent time is made. In addition to the local trains there will be two flyers to the Lakes, the Lakeland Limited and Sunrise Express, and two flyers south bound, the Queen City flyer and Twilight Limited. Through sleepers will be run to and from Toronto, Buffalo, Pittsburg and New York, and, of course a splendid equipment of parlor cars, dining cars and luxurious day coaches. C. B. Foster, District Passenger Agent, C.P.R., at Toronto, will be glad to mail full particulars of trains and handsome illustrated Muskoka folder, or same may be obtained free from local C.P.R. agents.

MEMBERSHIP OF KNOX CHURCH

Nearly 40 Persons Joined the Church Last Evening

At the Preparatory Communion service in Knox church last evening Rev. G. A. MacLennan, pastor of the Norwood Presbyterian church preached an able and impressive sermon.

Rev. H. J. Keith, the pastor, also took part in the service.

Nearly forty new members were received by certificate and profession of faith. The new members will partake of communion tomorrow morning when the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 62, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are, it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Havelock News That Interests

Pretty House Wedding Celebrated—School Picnic—Other Notes

Havelock, June 20.—A very pretty house wedding took place at the residence of Mr D. A. Forde, on Wednesday afternoon at 5.30, when Miss Rose E. Green was married to Mr. Wm Watson, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. E. Camp, in the presence of only a few relatives of the contracting parties. The bridesmaid was Miss A. Green of Madoc, sister of the bride, while Mr. Robt. Flynn, of town supported the groom.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch, and to the bridesmaid a gold brooch. Mr. and Mrs. Watson both of whom have grown up in Havelock, are very highly respected and esteemed. They will take up their residence in their new dwelling on George street east.

BALL GAME

At the Havelock Park on Saturday last the Havelock school baseball team defeated a Norwood nine by the score of 22-21. It took twelve innings to decide the victory. At the end of the third innings the score was 11—0 in Norwood's favor. Mr F. Doherty, of Norwood, umpired the game.

The Citizens' Band will hold a concert in the town hall on the evening of July 1st.

SCHOOL PICNIC

The pupils in the primary department of the school were treated to a picnic in the public park on Tuesday afternoon by their popular and efficient teacher, Miss A. M. Kelly. Races of all kinds were held and eagerly contested by the little tots. A very amusing baseball match also took place. After the prizes had been presented a substantial lunch was served, and the enjoyable outing wound up with a scramble for nuts and candies.

Miss Edna Viola, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McQuaig, passed away on Monday after a short illness. The funeral took place to the Maple Grove cemetery on Tuesday.

Zutoo

Regarding your Zutoo Tablets I beg to say: I have been a sufferer from headache since childhood and have used all, or nearly all, of the so-called "cures" on the market, till warned by my physician to discontinue their use on account of their bad effects on the heart. Some months since my attention was called to your Zutoo Tablets and I have been using them ever since with the most gratifying results. I find they cure a "sick" or "nervous" headache in a few minutes and leave no bad effect. My family use them whenever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from headache and they never fail to give quick relief. I find them a good remedy for "sour" stomach as well as headache. I always carry them in my grip on the road and would not be without them at any cost.

Rumbling Noise Of the Elephant

Is Difficult to Describe—Three Herds With Forepaugh-Sells Circus

Elephants must always form an interesting study, particularly to those who inhabit the western hemisphere; even in Asia and Africa where the mammoths abound they are objects of great interest. The African elephant and the Asiatic species differ as widely as the zebra and the horse in appearance as well as characteristics. The African elephant can not be trained to man's will. They are stalked and killed for sport and for ivory, while the Asiatic species are carefully trapped and taken alive, and show even greater intelligence than the domestic horse in doing the bidding of a keeper. A recently returned hunter who came to America with a consignment of elephants for Forepaugh-Sells circus, relates some interesting facts.

"Elephants when at rest and not alarmed in any way, frequently keep up a curious sort of rumbling noise, difficult to describe, but once heard never forgotten. This sound can be heard for a considerable distance. In spite of their size, it is marvellous how invisable elephants in thick cover can be. It is only after the most careful search that their forms can be distinguished and it is generally the flapping of an enormous ear, or swishing of a tail, that reveals their whereabouts.

"As a rule, they stand perfectly motionless. But gradually, if he keeps quite still and allows his eyes to get used to the gloom of the forest, the hunter will be able to make out the presence of several gigantic forms, very possibly in surprisingly close proximity to the place where he is standing. If the wind remains favorable he can watch them at his leisure and such a sight is well worth seeing. Some of them may be asleep, leaning against the tree trunks and others may be lying down flat on their sides, though this last sight is only occasionally seen.

"Should no breath of air from his vicinity reach them, he may get as close as he likes to them with impunity—almost touch them, in fact. He would, however, before doing so, do well to reconnoitre, especially in thick cover, and assure himself that he has not passed any member of the herd unobserved and thus given him his wind. Should such a contingency arise the alarm is communicated like magic. Probably a warning squeal will be heard and up will go every trunk.

"Then the whole party will either vanish away like a vision or, one or more of them will charge straight off the spot whence the disquieting odor issues. Should the hear consist of many cows, more especially if accompanied by calves, this last result is almost certain to happen. Bull elephants, on the other hand, if unwounded, will probably make off without any hostile demonstration."

All the elephants used in the Indian army as draught animals in the artillery or commissariat, or as baggage animals in the transport department, are carefully attended to, and in every way treated with the greatest consideration. Their care is rather expensive, being about thirty rupees, or $9.60 a day, including, of course, the wages of their mahout and grass cutter. They are fed principally on unhusked rice and grass; of the former they get about 250 pounds, and of the latter about 400 pounds a day.

A large female eats about 750 pounds of green fodder in eighteen hours: this is exceeded often by large tuckers, so that 800 pounds is about the right quantity to be placed before a full grown elephant, with margin to allow for waste. The normal weight of an elephant, when full grown, is about 7500 pounds.

In the Forepaugh-Sells free street parade next Tuesday there will be three herds of Asiatic elephants and two rarely fine specimens of the African species.

THE TRUTH ABOUT MINING

Do you invest in mining? Have you ever invested in Mining? Do you ever expect to invest in mining?

Did you ever make money from speculating? Would you like to make money from investing?

Have you money deposited in a bank drawing but THREE or FOUR per cent. interest? Have you funds invested in mortgages or real estate that are not earning a large rate of interest?

These questions all bear upon your present and future welfare, and your name should be upon the mailing list of "Spear's Mine Development." This paper tells the truth about legitimate mining and instructs you how mining should be conducted. It will tell you all about the great mining interests in Northern Ontario. It will keep you posted on the Larder Lake District, where rich gold discoveries are being made.

It will cost you nothing to receive "Spear's Mine Development," except the cost of a postage stamp or postal card in writing us to let us know that you want "Spear's Mine Development."

"Spear's Mine Development" will be sent to you absolutely free of cost. It is the only mining paper of its kind published in Canada. There has never been one published in Canada like it.

It is a real newspaper, up to-date, truthful and instructive.

It contains information about the Larder Lake, Montreal River, Round Lake, Lake Abitibi, Cobalt and all Northern Ontario mining districts.

"Spear's Mine Development" describes and illustrates legitimate, profitable investments in mining. Every person interested in mining, or who would like to know about mining, should have this paper.

"Spear's Mine Development" will make millions of dollars for investors, through safe and profitable investments in mining.

This is why it is read by thousands of people all over the country—because investors desire to know about legitimate mining propositions.

If you are at all interested in mining, or if you would like to know anything about mining and the development of mining properties, you cannot well afford to be without "Spear's Mine Development." It will be sent FREE, post paid, to all who write for it. Just ask for "Spear's Mine Development" by dropping a postal card or a letter to P. V. FRASER & COMPANY; Financial Agents, 23 Toronto Street, Toronto, Ontario.

Kirkfield Lift Lock Opening

Ministerial Party Leave Lindsay at 9 O'clock by Boat and Return Same Night

Word has been received from Ottawa that Hon. Mr. Lemieux, Minister of Labor, and Mr. Butler, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, will pass through Peterborough to Lindsay on Saturday morning July 6th, on their way to Kirkfield, where they will open the new lift lock. The Peterborough party will join them at Lindsay and take the boat at nine o'clock for Kirkfield, arriving there at one o'clock. Immediately after their arrival the ceremonies of opening the lock will commence and it is expected, will last until three o'clock. Then the party will go aboard the boat again and go down the canal to Lake Simcoe and through to Beaverton, where a special train will convey the passengers to Lindsay in time to connect with the train for Peterborough and Port Hope.

Mr R. M. Roy has on exhibition in his window several fine views of the hydraulic lift lock at Kirkfield which were taken by Mr. Fred. Roy. He made the trip from Peterborough to Kirkfield and return, a distance of over 100 miles, took seven different views of the locks, and had the finished proofs on exhibition, all within twenty four hours.

This is pretty quick work—in fact a record. Mr. Roy took the pictures for the canal authorities. The photos are official ones. They are taken with both pontoons down, one pontoon half way up, and one all the way up; another with the tug "Bob Hall" leaving the lock, a view from the top, and a profile view.

OBITUARY

MR. GILBERT DOUGLAS.

Mr. Gilbert Douglas passed away at Warsaw on Friday, at the advanced age of 78 years. He was ill only a few days. He was one of the oldest and most respected residents of Dummer and was born in Glasgow coming to this country in 1832 and settling in Dummer. He was one of the country's most progressive and industrious farmers, and some 14 years ago, he was able to retire with a competency gained by intelligent husbandry. Since that time he has lived in Warsaw. The late Mr Douglas was a member of the Presbyterian church.

The deceased is survived by his wife and five children, three sons and two daughters, all of whom live in Warsaw. The sons are William W., Glen and Bruce, and the daughters, Charlottie Calder, and Cettie Bell.

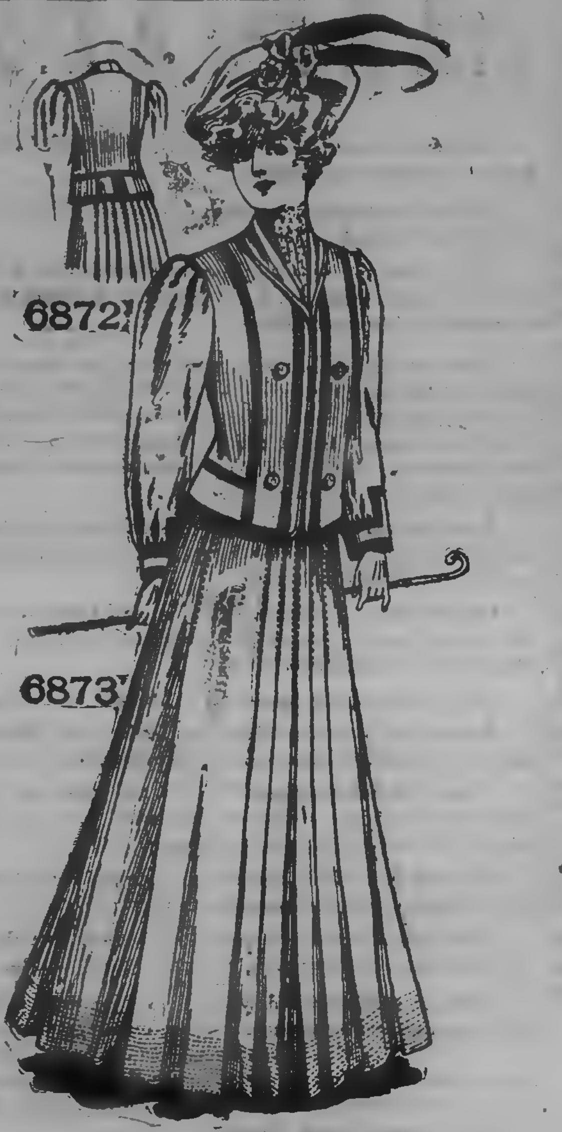
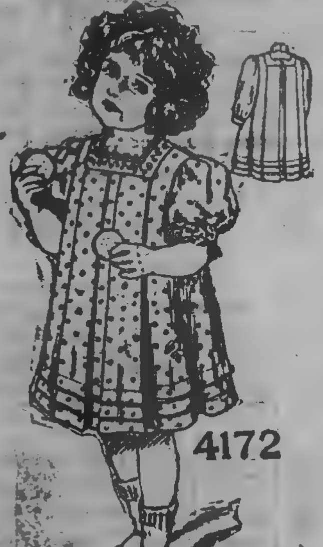
The Latest Ideas in the Dean Patterns



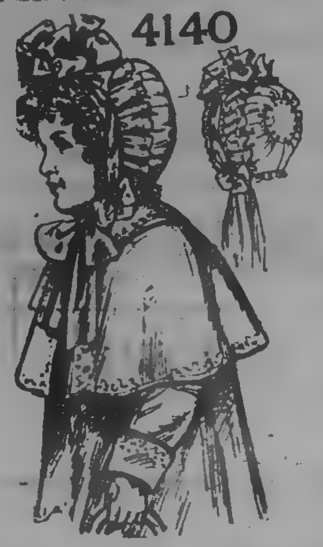
A New Outing Suit



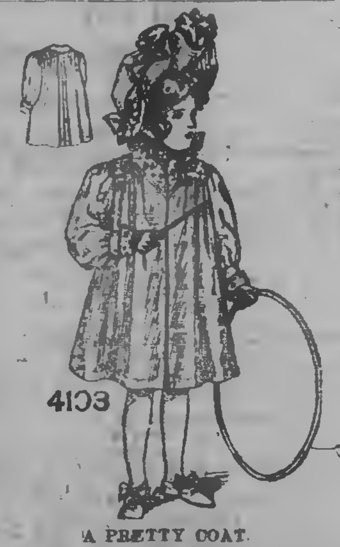
4172.—A CHARMING LITTLE FROCK

For little maids there is no prettier style of dress than that of one piece and a pleasing example is shown in the accompanying sketch. Two box pleats in front and back relieve any tendency to plainness and prove more attractive than gathers or tucks. The tucks near the hem assist the flare and are quite in keeping with the fashion of the day. A square yoke and standing collar may finish the neck or it may be in Dutch square outline as shown. Sleeves in full or short puff length are provided for so that a dressy or plain frock may be realised with this pattern. A tub fabric or light weight cloth may serve as material, of which 2 1-8 yds. 36 inches wide are needed for the medium size.

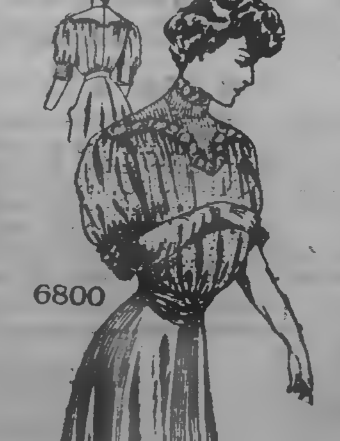
4172.—Sizes, 1-2, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 years.



4140.—A FETCHING LITTLE CAP.



A PRETTY COAT.



6800.—A DRESSY WAIST IN NET.

Every woman who touches so much as the hem of society life needs a dainty waist which she may don with the suit of another skirt and be presentable for any sort of afternoon or evening function. The woman of moderate means will find this simple waist of embroidered net or crepe de chine in some delicate color like champagne, pink or blue exceedingly becoming and very serviceable, not to mention its inexpensiveness. A suggestion for such a waist is shown but any number of variations may be added. The yoke which extends out a bit over the shoulders, giving that broad effect so much sought for this season, may be of tucked chiffon or silk or even tucked organdie with a simple lace galon as finishing. No other trimming material for the waist is needed except a girdle of velvet if desired.

to match, which are applique to the material between the wide plaits a little above the hem. The plaited bodice, which is crossed in front over a vest of white and blue spotted foulard, is ornamented with buttons covered with the same, the cuffs being turned back with a kilting of foulard to match.

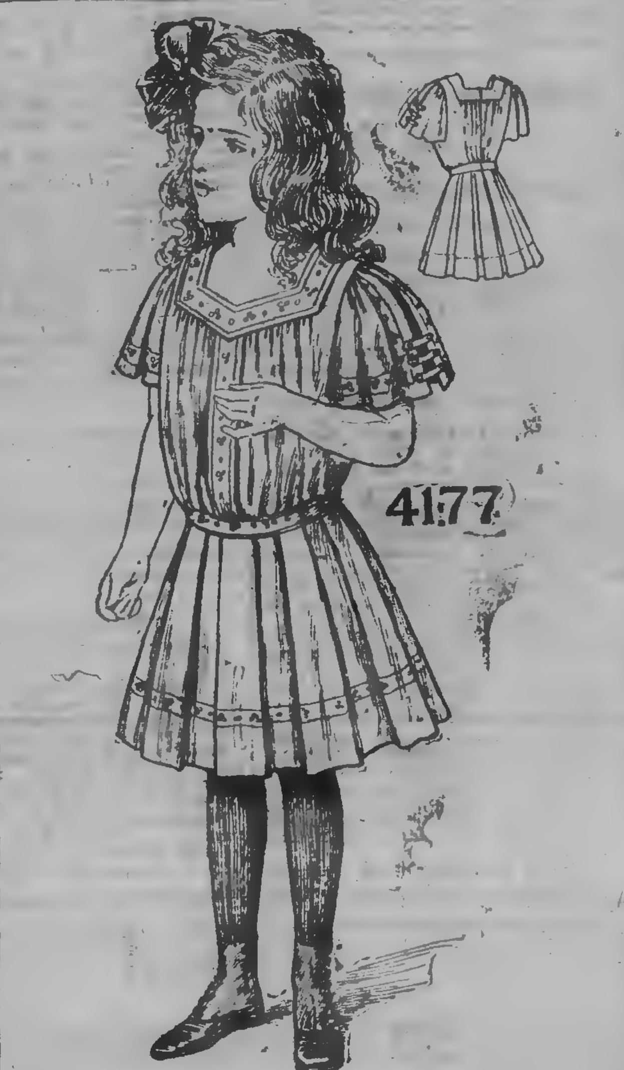
Another dear mite is clad in a checked red and white ribbed fabric, the skirt trimmed with a band of white flannel and the round yoke of lace bordered with a band of the same, finished with pearl buttons.

A dear little girl is dressed in fine navy blue serge, with extra full box plaited skirt. The vest of tucked lawn is outlined with a wide band of white serge adorned with white and blue braid, two long bretelles of the same being brought over the shoulders and depending to the hem of the skirt in front and behind.

Empire fashions still rule the choice of the nursery authorities, and a quaint fancy in the construction of many of the little coats is the devotion which is shown to military braidings and "froggings."

Little white serge coats adorned with coarse white silk braid interwoven with threads of gold will be seen on all sides, while pale pastel blue coats in the finest faced cloths are often trimmed with silver braid in the military designs.

Box plaited effects may almost be said to be ubiquitous where children's frocks are concerned, and this is amply justified in very many cases. Nowadays one pretty child is attired in pale blue Irish frieze, the skirt, with its ample box plaits, being gathered into a band, while a novel effect is given by means of the straps of narrow braid



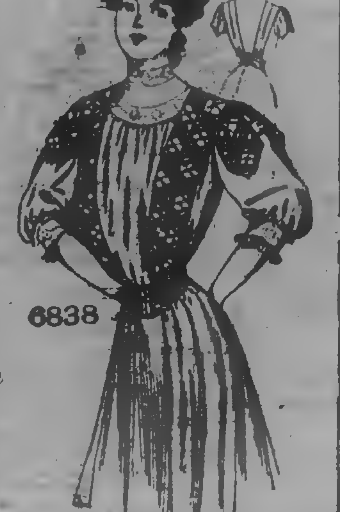
A Charming Little Gown for Summer Days

Some of the most pleasing modes of the summer for little girls are found in the different guimpe and over-blouse effects. The fashion is not only suited to youthful wearers and very becoming, but practical for warm days when the guimpe may be omitted and the little maid be as comfortable and happy as freedom from all discomfort can render her. The dress sketched consists of a full waist and sleeve caps and a circular skirt laid in box plaits and attached by a waistband. The style of the gown is excellent for attractive adornment and may be developed in chambray, gingham, linen or mull, while many find pongee very good for small gowns as it launders well and wears splendidly. The medium size calls for 3 5-8 yards, 27 inches wide.

4177.—Sizes, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 years.

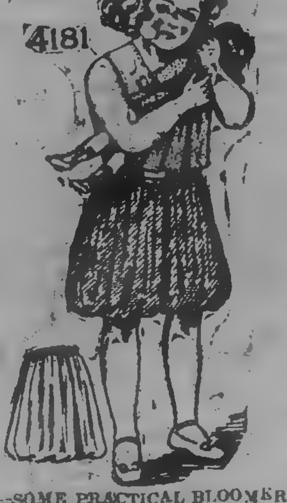
The price of this pattern is ten cents.

Leave your order and ten cents at the REVIEW OFFICE, and pattern will be sent you by mail.



6838.—A SMART DEVELOPMENT FOR SILK OR LINEN.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

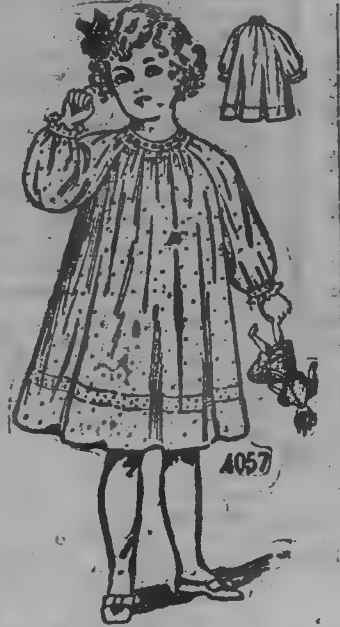


4181.—SOME PRACTICAL BLOOMERS

4181.—7 sizes, 2 to 14 years.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

Leave your order and 10 cents at the REVIEW OFFICE and pattern will be sent you by mail.



4057.—A SMALL BISHOP DRESS.

Among the many designs for children's frocks none is more comfortable and becoming than the bishop dress, and we may add, none is so easily made. There are only the seams at each side which join the front and back and those that join the sleeves to the body. These latter extend to the neck edge where the dress and sleeve are gathered to a narrow neckband or finished with a narrow frill of lace. Another suggestion is to hemstitch the lower edge and finish the sleeves and neck with tiny hemstitched frills. Nainsook, lawn, dimity or a flouncing would develop this little dress charmingly. The medium size demands 2 1-8 yards of 36 inch goods.

4057.—Sizes, 6 months to 6 years.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

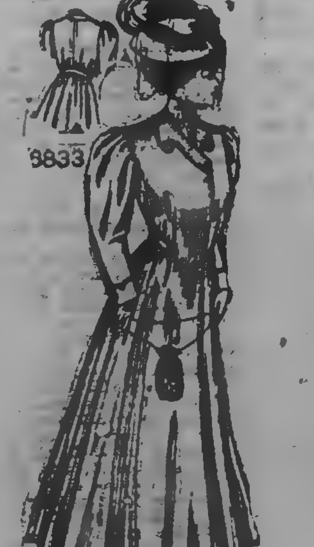
6722.—A SMART SKIRT FOR GENERAL WEAR.

Now that the fashion for separate skirts is again to the fore, many very chic new designs are to be seen and one is sketched which will please the particular woman. The skirt is a five piece circular one with tuck pleats in front and an under box pleat at the side and back to give it a wide ripple at the hem. The new skirts are most of them pleated in one way or another, and for the woman who does not desire a full pleated one the skirt shown is excellent. The medium size calls for 5 3-4 yards of 44 inch material.

6722.—7 sizes, 20 to 32 inches waist measure.

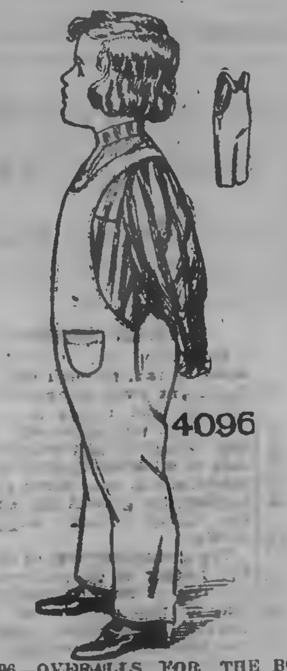


6833.—A SMART RAIN COAT.

The woman who goes out in all kinds of weather finds a trig rain coat a stern necessity. A wrap of this kind is needed at all seasons of the year and the woman who needs one will find the accompanying design most becoming and practical. The coat is peculiarly free from anything heavy and bundling and may be worn over any frock or suit without unpleasant feeling or results. The coat has a centre back seam stitched in inverted pleat effect and hanging free below the belt with extra width. The neck finishing is neat and attractive as is the closing at the side front. Many material are used in the making of these coats, mohair or waterproof serge being liked by some, while cravenette is the most popular fabric and waterproof silk a late fancy. The medium size calls for 5 1-8 yards of 54 inch material.

6833.—7 sizes, 32 to 44 inches, bust measure.

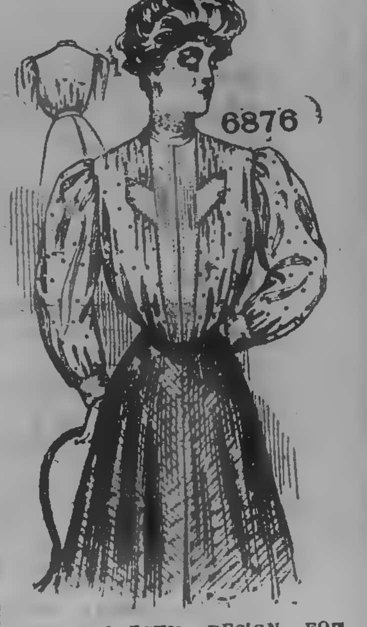
The price of this pattern is 10c.



4096.—OVERALLS FOR THE BOY.

There is no end of fun to be found in these overalls which may be slipped on over any suit at a moment's notice and there is not a boy who would not enjoy wearing them. Such garments as this are indispensible when there is a young Canadian to be clothed and the lads are wearing them a great deal now-a-days and with good reason for they protect the suit from dirt and wear and prove themselves invaluable as a labor saver for mothers. They may be made of any stout material, such as crash or denim. For the medium size 2 1-8 yards are needed.

4096.—Sizes, 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 years.



6876.—A PRETTY DESIGN FOR CHAMBRAY OR SILK.

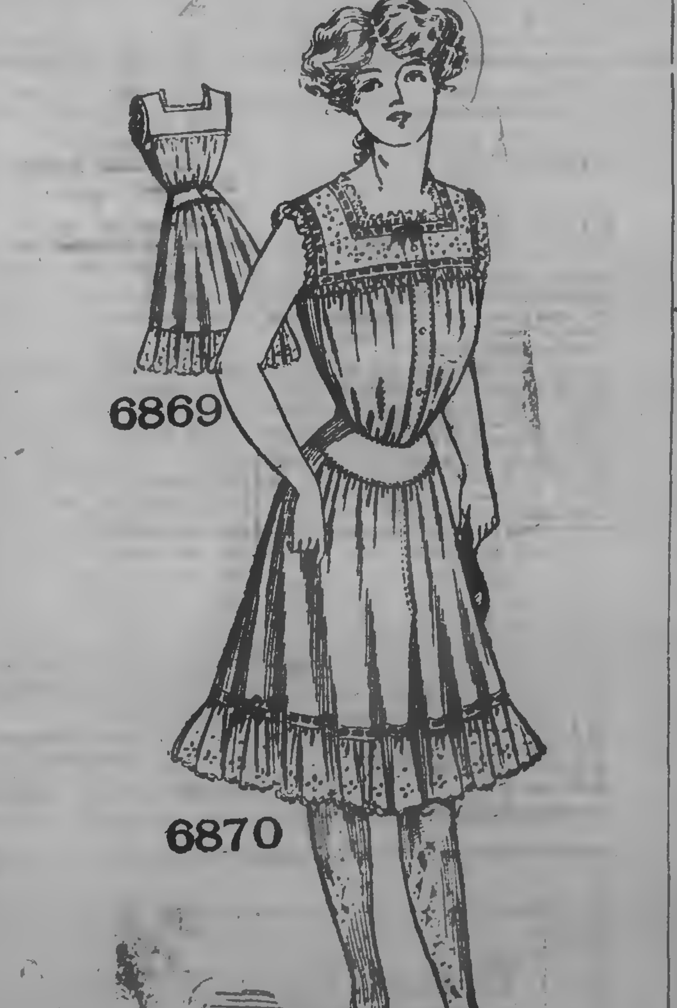
Every woman who fashions her own shirt waists is glad of designs which are adaptable to a variety of materials, for often one pattern may serve for several waists by a little variation in the trimming. The waist shown is simple to construct and needs no trimming though small buttons might be very pretty on the front bands which close in duchess style. For madras or chambray the model is excellent while the dotted pongee would prove very smart developed in this way. For the medium size 3 3-8 yards of 27 inch material are needed.

6878.—Sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. 6 sizes.

IT DOES NOT INJURE LEATHER

There are some malicious persons, who in their anxiety to sell some other shoe polish, have falsely stated that the "2 in 1" Shoe Polish injures leather.

The proprietors intend to enter suit against all parties who resort to unbusinesslike practices in trying to belittle the virtues of "2 in 1" Shoe Polish.



Dainty Lingerie

In the fashioning of dainty lingerie the average woman takes real delight and a suggestion for corset cover and drawers of late design is given. The corset cover is a bit unique for its yoke band which forms the shoulder straps and supports the full portion. This may be of a plain material and trimmed with lace or embroidery, or it may be of fine tucking, such as our grandmothers bridal undergarments were beautified with. The full body portion is finished at the waist with a narrow band or beading. The drawers are made on a yoke and fit the hips very smoothly. These are easily full and may be finished in regulation or garter length. The latter style are popular and finished with a deep ruffle as shown. 1 1-4 yards of 36 inch material are needed for the corset cover in the medium size, and 2 1-2 yards for the drawers in the regulation length.

Two Patterns.—6869—6 sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust measure. 6870—Sizes 20, 24, 28, 32 inches waist.

The price of these patterns is 20c but either will be sent upon receipt of 10 cents.

Leave your order and ten cents at the REVIEW, OFFICE and pattern will be sent you by mail.

Easy Exercises for Filling Out Hollows

With the approach of summer and its uncompromising transparent gowns, the thin girl becomes almost desperate.

"What can I do to take on flesh quickly? My arms and neck are so thin and I do so want to wear low neck and short sleeve dresses this summer."

This is the burden of many letters which come to me just now. In reply I would say, that, generally speaking, it is a little late in the day to think about the need of flesh in juxtaposition to summer clothes. Taking on flesh is a deliberate, long-drawn process which requires much patience. Diet, correct exercises and massage will all contribute to good results, if persevered in.

The thin girl should take quantities of cool, not cold water, and eat starchy and sweet foods, particularly peas and beans. She should avoid pickles and acid fruit.

The directions for massage have been given so often in this column that I will not repeat them here, but if any of my readers have mislaid the instructions I will be glad to send a typewritten copy on receipt of a self-addressed and stamped envelope. In massaging the throat, shoulders, chest and arms, use a cream or flesh food made according to the following formula:

Tannin	½	Gramme
Lanoline	30	Grammes
Oil of sweet almonds	20	Grammes

Melt the lanoline and oil in a double boiler, with slow fire, stirring till thoroughly mingled, as the mixture cools best in the tannin.

This is a much better flesh builder than ordinary cold cream, but it must not be used on either the face or arms if there is a tendency to a growth of hair on the skin. Lanoline, one of its chief ingredients, encourages this evil.

Now as to exercises. To put flesh on the shoulders, try this exercise night and morning:

Raise the arms to the level of the shoulders, stretched outward, with palms of hands turned up. Bend the arms at the elbows until the hands touch the shoulders. Grip the shoulder tight, inhaling while counting seven. Now hold the breath while counting four and draw down hard on the point of the shoulder with all the strength you can put into the arms and hands, the elbow pointing downward. Exhaling, and still gripping and pulling, count four more. Then loosen the grip slightly on the shoulder, count seven as before and repeat the pulling movement on the shoulder, as given above. Repeat this exercise at least ten times without taking the hands from the shoulders, and gradually increase until you can reach a record of twenty times. Bear in mind that the drawing down movement is made while holding the breath four counts and exhaling on four counts. While inhaling the hands grip the shoulders more lightly. This exercise fairly draws the hollows out between the neck and the point of the shoulder and gives curved lines in their place.

Second: Stand straight with the chest high and the head thrown back. Clasp the hands behind the body, with the palms turned upward and the thumbs touching the body. This position, if taken correctly, throws the chest high and gives the perfect Grecian bend to the figure. Now loosen the thumbs, but do not unclasp the hands, and turn them slowly at the wrists until the palms are down and the thumbs apart and out. Make sure that you are standing firmly on your feet; then bend slowly at the waist line, keeping knees stiff, and raise the clasped hands as far as possible toward the front or above the head. Swing the hands back and forth, still clasped, while you count twenty. When first taking this exercise resume the normal position of hands and body after counting twenty. Later on you will be able to rest by merely stopping the swinging motion. This exercise puts flesh on the upper part of the arms as well as on the chest, shoulders and throat.

An exercise that will improve the shape of both the shoulders and arms is this:

Stand erect with hands dropped at side. Inhale slowly, while you make fists with the knuckles turned forward and the thumbs resting against the side of the body. Twist the arms outward until the palms instead of the knuckles turn out, keeping the muscles of the arm taut the while. Repeat the motion with all your strength and your muscles tense, slowly raising the arms with each twist, and gradually working them backward above the head and behind the head, and gradually dropping them until on the finish they are behind the body, with the palms outward, the hands still clenched. Count seven for inhaling and four for exhaling, inhaling through the nostrils and exhaling gently through the lips. Have your chest bare when you take this exercise and watch the action of the muscles. You will be surprised at their daily increase in size and power.

Last: Lie flat on your back on the floor, with the arms out straight at right angles with the body, palms down on the floor. Without moving, take ten deep breaths; then raise, or rather swing the hands to a point directly above the head, the palms turned upward and take ten deep breaths. Repeat this exercise twenty times and allow no part of the body to leave the floor.

House Cleaning Hints for Bed Rooms

ALL heavy winter bedding should be washed or cleaned before it is packed away for summer.

To wash blankets, air and shake them first in the sunlight, beating out as much dust as you can with a furniture beater. Then have plenty of hot water ready and wash them quickly as follows: Fill two tubs with water of the same temperature, warm but not really hot. Add to this a lather made by shaving a bar of pure white soap with three tablespoonfuls of borax if the water is very hard. Dissolve the shaved soap and borax in boiling water and add to the two tubs of warm water. Lay the blankets in the first tub, and, as an old colored laundress describes the process, "sozzle" them up and down, back and forth in the warm suds, patting them between the hands as you would fine lace or a chiffon veil, but do not rub them. Then, pressing the water out lightly but never wringing them tightly, run them into the second suds, which should not be as strong as the first. Let them lie there while you empty tub No. 1, and fill it with clear rinse water, the same temperature as that already used. Repeat the "sozzling" process in the second soapy water, pat out as much of the water as you can and run the blankets into the first rinse water. Let them lie there until you have cleaned out tub No. 2 and filled that with clear warm water, which gives the last rinsing. Then hang them on the line lengthwise, using pins, set close together, so the blankets will not sag, dry perfectly and lay away in newspapers with camphor balls or other moth defiers. The secret of washing blankets lies in using water throughout of a uniform warm, not hot, temperature, and never twisting or wringing the blankets. If you have a very large wringer, loosely set, you can press out the suds through this, but be careful that it is not set tight enough to wrench the nap of the blanket.

If the ticking cases of pillows are dirty, make muslin slips, turn the feathers into these and hang them all day in the sunlight while you wash and dry the ticking covers. The air and sunlight will purify the feathers. Southern housewives advise turning the feathers into cheese cloth bags, and washing feathers, bags and all in warm soapy water. Follow this by several rinsings in clear water. They should be dried in the house, near a stove—never in the sun.

Dependable Designs for Tub Frocks

IN buying fabrics for tub frocks, the action of sun and soap must be taken into consideration, and delicate colorings must be avoided, unless the wearer can afford to patronize the French cleaner. Fabrics which turn stringy or sleazy from laundering must be tabooed, and certain laces which lose all pattern and freshness in the tub must also be laid aside however dainty before washing. In choosing a pattern, puffs, intricate shirrings, tucking made in geometrical patterns must be avoided, and simple gathers or pleats be given the preference.

In white goods, light weight linen, pique, firmly woven cotton voiles, linen lawn, percale with tiny figures, Swiss plain or dotted, cross-bar dimity, and batiste all launder admirably, but it is not true economy to buy them in cheap grades. For instance, a good linen lawn will last two seasons, but a cheap imitation will become stringy and the iron will push open the weave in the first washing. French percales make the finest of tailored shirt waist suits for morning wear and are cooler and lighter than linen of the average grade and at the same price. In fact a percale at 25 cents a yard will outwear a linen at 35.

In colors, the finely mixed or mottled weaves will outwear and outwash the plain, solid-color weaves. For instance, a Delft or China blue, shot with fine streaks of white will outwear the plain tint. Brown and white mixtures also wear well, and all the new shades of red and pink are shown with dashes of white to insure laundering. Green, yellow and lavender are also shown in plain and mottled weaves, but they do not wash as well as the colors mentioned above and are apt to streak yellow.

Torchon, German Val. and a good grade of French Val. are the best laces for laundry purposes. Point de Paris which looks so dainty before washing loses pattern and freshness under the iron. Cluny, filet and baby Irish, among the novelty laces, clean better than they launder. The newest embroideries for children's frocks are those which show scalloped edges with a flower or conventional figure in each scallop, in excellent imitation of convent work. Eyelet patterns are still simulated in machine-made embroidery, and are much used for vests, guimpes, yokes, cuffs, etc.

Natural colored linen, plain or with pretty figures in scarlet, bright blue or brown, is popular. It launders well, and with a bit of hand embroidery or belt and stock to match the figure makes a pretty shirt waist suit.

Most of the skirts for tub custumes this year are pleated. Sometimes the softer materials show shirring, but side pleats are in high favor. For skirts in which a tailored effect is desired, the pleats are often inverted, or stitched down in graduated lengths to give the effect of a deeply pointed yoke in the front. Box and side pleats are inset also at a point near the knees to give flare and fulness to the bottom of the skirt. Only on the very soft materials like Swiss, batiste, etc., are ruffles and flounces seen. All the stiff materials, like pique, linen, percale, etc., call for pleats.

The jumper fad has invaded the field of wash goods and many smart little costumes are achieved by the use of a linen or percale jumper suit with a guimpe of lighter material tucked and trimmed with lace or when the jumper is in a color, the guimpe is of white. The illustration shows two pretty ideas for tub frocks. The shirt waist suit, which might be worn by any age from sixteen to forty-six, is developed in percale at 25 cents a yard, with a vest of white embroidery.

The skirt is cut in nine gores, the pleats being so arranged as to conceal the seams and is laid in inverted pleats at the back.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 9½ yards 27, 5 yards 44, or 4½ yards 52 inches wide when material has figure or nap; 7¼ yards 27, 4¼ yards 44, or 3¾ yards 52 inches wide when it has not.

The waist is made with the fitting lining, which can be used or omitted as preferred, and which is closed at the centre front, and consists of the fronts, the centre front and the back. The fronts are arranged in a box pleat at each edge and in rather wide tucks at the shoulders, which are stitched to yoke depth, while the back is tucked on tapering lines. The trimming portions are joined to the centre front, which in turn is joined to the waist, and the closing is made invisibly beneath the box pleat at the edge of the left side. The sleeves are moderately full ones finished with prettily shaped cuffs, whether they are used in three-quarter or full length.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 3½ yards 21, 3¼ yards 27, or 1⅞ yards 44 inches wide with ⅞ yard 18 inches wide for the centre-front and collar, 1⅛ yards if long sleeves are used.

The little girl's frock shows a pretty combination of dotted linen lawn at 35 cents a yard (and this, by the way, is fully 36 inches wide) with a chemisette of fine Swiss embroidery, and matching insertion to outline the jumper waist, and sleeves and two rows for the skirt.

There is a body lining of fine lawn, which is faced to form the chemisette, and again around the arm-holes, and over which the waist is arranged and to which the sleeves are sewed. The skirt is separate except at the centre front, where it is cut in one with the waist, giving the effect of a long box plait. For the twelve year size will be required 6½ yards of material 27, 4⅛ yards 36 or 4 yards 44 inches wide with ⅝ yard 18 inches wide for the chemisette, or 1 yard if long sleeves are used.

Good Form in Calling Cards

Many young people starting out on first vacations or rounds of summer visits write for information about cards.

"What size do I use?" "What shall I have on my card in the way of an address, the house number only or the name of the town also?" "How will my newly made acquaintance know the city where I reside?"

Such are the questions sent particularly by those who will be travelling far from home. In reply, here are some general suggestions for cards and their uses:

There is no pronounced change in size this season. The largest card used is that shared by husband and wife. Next in size comes the card used by the matron, third the card for single women and fourth in size, that used by men.

Pure white polished but unglazed bristol board, with plain, unbeveled edges is preferred. The type may be in the square block text, most severely plain, in French script or in old English. No family crests or decorations of any sort are used and the full name runs directly through the center of the card, with the house address, "23 West Branch Street," in the lower, right-hand corner. A woman can have her day at home engraved in the lower left-hand corner and a man may have there the name of his favorite club. If he lives at a club, however, he has the name engraved where his home address would come, in the lower right-hand corner.

The name of the city is not given. Presumably if a traveling acquaintance desires to remember you, she will either write the name of your home town on the card or in her address book.

Married women have their husbands' name in full on their cards, thus: "Mrs. James Newton Grey," not "Mrs. Anne B. Grey." The name is engraved in full. Initials are bad form.

A divorced woman drops her former husband's surname or retains it, according to the terms of the annulment of their marriage. For instance, the card of "Mrs. John Trent Barton," after divorce, may be either "Mrs. Jane Merton Barton," if she decides to retain his surname, or she can resume her maiden name, thus: "Mrs. Jane Merton," but she cannot use "Miss" on her card.

A man's card, whether he has not yet attained his majority or is nearing the proverbial three score and ten, runs: "Mr. James Ellsworth Barton." "Mr." is obligatory.

The wife of a doctor or minister does not take her husband's title. The wife of Dr. James Hudson Brown has "Mrs. James Hudson Brown" engraved on her card. The best form for a doctor to observe is a card engraved, "James Henry Brown, M.D.," with residence in the lower right-hand corner. This is for social purposes. He has another card with office address and hours for professional purposes. A minister's card runs: "Reverend Samuel Dodge Baxter." If the name is very long, the title may be shortened to "Rev."

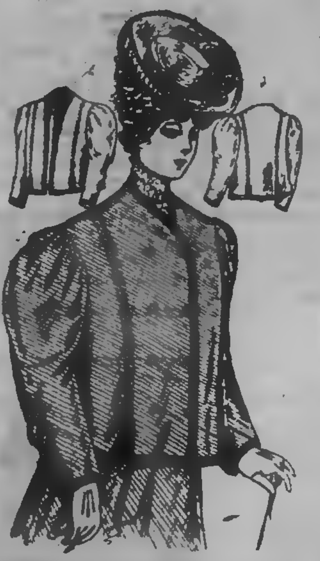
Separate Short Jackets for Warm Weather



Simplest Form of Pony Coat

UNQUESTIONABLY, this spring and summer, the separate, short jacket is to be the thing, and no woman who pretends to keep her wardrobe up to date can afford to be without at least two of these chic outer wraps. They may vary from tailored jacket to fluffy cape. They may be made in cloth, silk, lace and linen. They may be trimmed with several of bias bands and folds or with bolts and bolts of lace or braid. They may match costumes in color or fabric or they may present a decided contrast in both—but they must be short, very short and very natty.

The illustrations show patterns for three short wraps which can be developed and elaborated in various sorts of materials.

One is the simplest form of pony coat, which may be used as a foundation for braid, lace, or all-over embroidery. It can be developed in either single breasted or double breasted fashion.

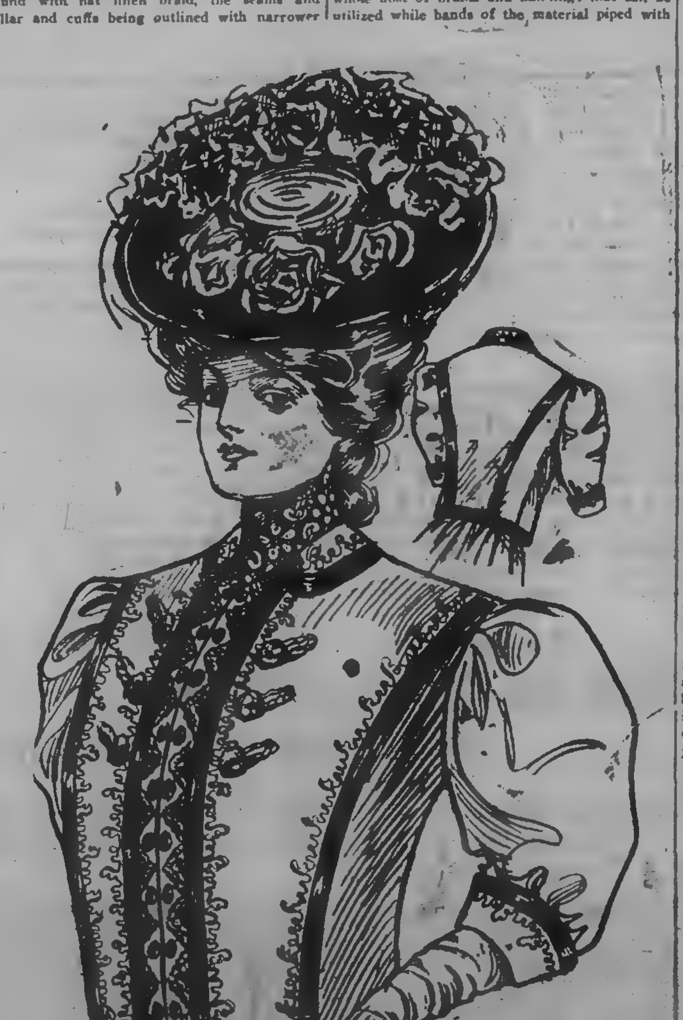
The jacket is made with fronts, side-fronts, backs and side-backs, the seams all extending to the shoulders and giving becoming lines to the figure. The sleeves are in "leg o' mutton" style. When closed in double breasted style two rows of buttons are used, but when the single breasted is preferred the coat is cut off at the centre and closed either with a single row of buttons or invisibly, the button-holes being worked in the fly.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 4 yards 27, 2½ yards 44, or 2 yards 52 inches wide with 4 yards of banding to trim as illustrated.

This design is especially effective, in silk for wear with veiling frocks, and in linen to wear over white or colored wash dresses. It can be made very simply in silk with flat braid for binding and silk frogs and buttons or ornaments for trimming, or the various pieces can be taken to a shop where stamping is done, and a close, conventional pattern for braiding be stamped upon them. The narrowest of braid is then used to outline the pattern, the work being done by hand. These jackets done in silk braid are one of the luxuries of the season in ready-to-wear goods, but the home-sewer who braids rapidly can have one at half the price demanded in shops. They are distinctly quaint and old style, yet right up to date. Sometimes, when the silk pony coat has been braided, it is finished off around the edge with a double ruffle of chiffon cloth or liberty silk, set in between the coat and its lining, which should be the lightest of China silk, with perhaps a very light weight interlining of crinoline to give it shape and body.

Often, too, these braided coats are set off with double ruchings of black lace, such as Chantilly, or a collar of black guipure. Here is where some of the family lace in black comes into very excellent use.

Some stunning little coats in this design are shown developed in white linen, braided with narrow soutache, or finished all the way round with flat linen braid, the seams and collar and cuffs being outlined with narrower braid and big pearl buttons down the front. Or the collar and cuffs may be of very heavy linen lace, and if the wearer of the wrap is slender, the seams may be outlined with insection or galloon to match the lace in collar and cuffs.



Semi-fitted Pony Jacket

The second pattern shows the semi-fitted pony jacket, especially suited for development in cloth, silk or linen for wear with semi-tailored costumes. Very often this pattern made up in veiling and lined with light weight silk is trimmed with silk cording applied in a somewhat heavy design, the silk matching the cloth in tone.

As illustrated it is made of pongee in a very beautiful shade of blue and is trimmed with plain and fancy braid while the vest is made of Oriental appliqué, but braiding executed over a stamped design is greatly in vogue and the coat lends itself to such treatment with singular success. Lace appliqué is well liked for the dressier linen suits and there is a whole host of braids and bandings that can be utilized while bands of the material piped with contrasting color must not be omitted from the list of available trimmings. For the vest almost anything in contrast can be used or the material itself braided or trimmed.

The jacket is made with fronts, side-fronts, back and side-backs. The vest portions are faced onto the fronts and their edges are concealed by the trimming. The fronts also are cut to give the drooping shoulder line and there is a becoming little flat collar at the neck. The sleeves of moderate size are finished with rollover cuffs.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 4⅛ yards 21, 3⅜ yards 27, or 1¾ yards 44 inches wide with 1½ yards of appliqué for the vest, 6½ yards each of plain and fancy braid.

The third design shows a cape Eton. The garment fits snugly to the figure, thus doing away with the "bunchy," middle-aged lines, which some women dislike in capes. This is distinctly a costume wrap, and looks best when developed in the same material as the skirt and high girdle. If the gown is of cloth or veiling in a plain color, the wrap may be of silk, but it must match the skirt in shade.

This one is adapted to silk, to chiffon wools, to linen and to cotton equally well and provides just the protection needed on a summer day. In the illustration it is made of pale blue radium silk and matches the skirt, the collar being of moiré antique of the same shade.

The Eton is made with fronts, side fronts, back and side-backs and the cape sleeves that are joined thereto. The neck is finished with a flat roll-over collar and the edges meet at the front to effect the closing.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 3½ yards 21, 3 yards 27, or 2 yards 44 inches wide with ½ yard 1 inch wide for the collar.

Many of the new capes can best be developed from kimono patterns, cut short over the arms like an abbreviated kimono sleeve, and in long points back and front. Again the short wrap is nothing but a bolero, with two deep points back and front. Double and triple capes, without any fitted underbody, and capes that are simply broad-shouldered fichus crossed surplice fashion in the front, are developed in silk, nets, veilings, lace and embroidery. Most of the fancy capes and boleros are finished with double ruffles of net, lace, liberty silk or other soft trimming. In fact, pleated frills and ruffles and ruchings are used whenever possible on outer wraps.

Black silk pony coats braided, will be worn with black and white voiles, silks and wash frocks; some very smart little coats in stripes are shown for wear with plain silks or cloths, but two sorts of stripes must never be worn in the same costume. If the gown is of striped or check or figured goods, then the jacket must be plain.

HOW YOU GET CONSUMPTION.

Most "lungers" allowed their power of resistance to fall very low. Favorable conditions were provided for the development of the baccilli. Consumption was the result.

But in a healthy body Consumption can't take root. The most potent health-maker is Ferrozone. Take it regularly and you needn't fear tuberculosis.

FERROZONE

Supplies exactly what the man verging on Consumption needs. It forms rich, nutritious blood, strengthens the nerves, puts vim and endurance into every organ of the body.

Price 50c per box or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

Summer Residents at Chemong; Many New Homes Being Built

Several Important Improvements Made on the Grounds--New Road Opened Up—Auto Bus Running Better Than Ever—Good Season Looked for.

Chemong Park, the beautiful pine grove situated on the hill back of Chemong, or Mud Lake, is once more in full swing and attracting hundreds of visitors. This spot is more beautiful and inviting than ever and there will be more people spend their holidays there this year than in any previous year. The park lots are selling rapidly and each season sees several more cottages erected. This year about a dozen new summer residences have been built, or are now in course of construction, and they add greatly to the appearance of the place.

One of the handsomest houses is that of Mr. Bull and family, of New York. It has just been completed and for size and modern convenience takes first place. It is a very large house, built on the side of a hill just outside the park property and overlooking the lake. The front of the building is several feet above the ground, and a modern, wide verandah runs around the sides. From the floor of the verandah to the ground is lattice work, and the enclosure is used as a store room. The interior is very beautifully finished and there are few conveniences of a city not enjoyed here. In the hall is a large, artistic fire place, in which a fire burns on cool evenings. The grounds surrounding are picturesque, and the view of the lake is one of the best to be had at this popular resort.

Another very fine cottage is that of Mr. and Mrs. Popham and family, of New York. This is Mr. Popham's first summer at Chemong, and he is already one of the most popular residents there. His home is built near the wharf, and has a very pretty view. The house is of a Swiss design and is quite different from any of the others. It is two stories high and is exceptionally well finished. There are two large fire places, which to a summer cottage add greatly to the value.

Other cottages erected are Mr. Herbert Morphet's, which is ready for him to move in; Dr E. R. Poole's is completed, and he has moved his family out; Mrs. Andrews' is nearly ready. Mrs Pope's new cottage is finished and has been rented. Mr. A. A. Hollingshead is building and Mr. Jas. Long has just started one.

The appearance of the park has been greatly improved. All the shrubbery which previously lined the brow of the hill and the low branches on the trees, which obscured the view of the lake have all been removed, and the water can be seen now from nearly every point of the park. This is something which will be greatly appreciated by the cottagers, and it also adds considerably to the appearance. The grounds, as usual, are kept in splendid condition, and Superintendent Pope deserves a lot of credit.

Another big improvement is the opening of the road through the back part of the property. This was declared a road about two years ago, but it was thickly covered with stumps of large pine trees, which have been cut down for years. The Park Association is having these stumps removed, and it is wonderful the difference it makes. When this work is completed the back road will be fixed up and will be a great convenience to the residents on that street.

The Chemong Park Hotel has undergone a thorough overhauling. Mr and Mrs. G. N. Brown are again in charge, and they have made several improvements. The house has been papered and painted throughout and partially refurnished. A fine new concrete platform has been built in front, and altogether the hotel is looking better than ever. There have been several guests registered there already, and the prospects are very bright for a good summer. Among those who are at the hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Kelso and two sons, of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Kondoff and Miss Kate Kondoff, of Rochester.

The Chemong Park 'bus, which has been making regular trips each day for a couple of weeks, is running very much better than last year. Mr. Ernie Hannah is in charge of it, and he is a most capable, careful and obliging chauffeur. As a result the traffic on the 'bus has been greatly increased. Already the full number of passengers are carried nearly every trip, and the season has not fairly been started. The run out is made in about a half or three-quarters of an hour, and it is very pleasant to go out in the morning and spend the day under the shade of the tall pines, breathing in the sweet aroma and exhilarating air of the park. The 'bus leaving the hotel at a few minutes after five, and arriving in the city about six o'clock, gets the people home in splendid time.

The only thing wrong about living at Chemong this summer is the trip out and back. The road is not in very good condition. There are a great many little holes, which the auto bumps over, giving the passengers quite a jar. Then, in several places an attempt has been made to fill up the holes by dumping crushed stone and sand into them. This material has been left loose, and when the auto strikes them it almost stops, thus making the trip a slow one. It is understood, however, that Mr. R. N. Scott, reeve of the township, said that the township council will put the big steam roller on the road at once and thus make permanent repairs. This will be a great thing for the auto 'bus, and for the people using the road.

With the 24th Field Battery Under Canvas at Petewawa

Sergeant Major Fee Met With Serious Accident--Corp. Wilson Has a Leg Broken--Boys Are Well and Nicely Settled Down.

Military Camp, Petewawa, June 20.—The 24th F.B.C.A. after a tedious journey, arrived all O.K., with the exception of a mishap that took place near Tweed, when one of our fellows got into an altercation, and thereupon Brigadier-Sergt. Major Fee, gave him some kindly advice. On being informed to leave the car, the fellow struck at the window in front of Mr. Fee, the broken glass striking one of Mr. Fee's eyes. On arriving at Smith's Falls Mr. Fee was sent to oculist in Toronto, and later on word came from that quarter, that his optic was seriously damaged, and that he would likely lose it. The person who struck him was immediately placed under arrest, and is to be tried by court martial today. Another mishap occurred this morning to another of the boys, Corporal V. Wilson. His horse became unmanageable, bolted, striking him heavily against a tree, breaking his leg and also lacerating one of his fingers. His condition is not serious.

This camping ground is certainly a peach—sand in abundance—we like it! Mosquitos—black flies!!! Avenues galore, almost like a Chinese puzzle to find your digs, as the grounds are not properly lighted. The place is undulating—small pines, lots of winter greens, wild strawberries, and any amount of small stumps which certainly are hard on boots. We have shower baths on the grounds and they certainly are necessary as one can hardly move more than a dozen paces before he is almost as black as a coal heaver.

Just before noon yesterday a great blessing arrived in the shape of a hail storm, which was quite a treat cooling the atmosphere to the King's taste.

The horses are quartered under good shingled stables, are being well looked after and are becoming used to the surroundings.

The men are getting the best of care, are nicely settled down, and all well with the above exceptions.

Taking all in all, under the existing circumstances, the 24th will try their level best to bring credit back to the good old electric city.

NOTES.

There are some good singers in the bunch. They line up every night in front of the officers' digs and give a nice sing-song concert.

Five Weeks Trip Through United States and Canada

Messrs Hall, Roger and Shook Returned Yesterday—Were Picking Oranges in California—San Francisco in Terrible Condition—Western Canada Very Prosperous.

After spending a little over five weeks in touring the western half of North America Messrs. E. H. D. Hall, J. C. Shook and G. M. Roger returned to Peterborough yesterday feeling in the very best of spirits. They had a delightful trip. They were in many cities and saw many things of great interest and they were many times impressed with the beauty growth and prosperity of other cities, but they are not at all backward in saying that for them there is no place like Peterborough. They could not see where they would gain anything by moving away. Such a compliment from three men who are in a position to give a fair judgment and to express an unprejudiced opinion is something which every citizen of this beautiful and prosperous city should feel proud.

Although the travellers decided in favor of their own city they thoroughly enjoyed the trip nevertheless. To go from city to city and from country to country is in itself of great interest, while the plesure of seeing new things and of seeing the efforts of others has a fascination about it which one cannot resist.

Messrs Hall, Roger and Shook left Peterborough on May 13th last and went to Chicago, Denver, Salt Lake City and Los Angeles, where a day or two was spent in each place in sight seeing and study. From Los Angeles the party took a run down to Catalina Island, a very pretty island along the Pacific Coast. In California several famous orange groves were visited and the people from Canada had the pleasure of not only seeing this delicious fruit growing on the trees but picked as many as they wished. The groves were in excellent condition while they were there and the fruit was never better. The orange groves of California are the same as the peach orchards and vineyards to the Niagara district, only on a larger scale.

Coming home they visited Santa Barbara and San Francisco. The latter place is at the present time in a terrible condition. Everything seems to be at a standstill. Building operations are not progressing nearly as rapidly as would be expected. The streets are filthy and in many places still covered with refuse while the dust and dirt sweeps along in dense clouds almost blinding and choking pedestrians. Peterborough streets on a dry windy Sunday morning, are perfectly clean compared with those of the Earthquake city. The street car service could hardly be worse and people are afraid to ride upon the cars. San Fransisco is no place for tourists and the Peterborough people were glad to take the first train out.

From the famous city of ruins and labor disturbances the party went by rail to Portland and Seattle and from there took the C.P.R. boat to Victoria and Vancouver. In the Canadian Pacific cities everything is booming, and conditions are quite the reverse to San Fransisco. Land values know no limit. One of the most noticeable features is the land sales in North Vancouver. This section is situated several miles out of the city and is reached by taking a ferry across an arm of the sea and then the street cars. The land is mostly vacant and covered with great tree stumps. These stumps have to be dynamited before any building can be started, yet the people are going crazy in purchasing. Lots with a 50 foot frontage sell there at $900 each, and are in great demand. All lines of business are booming and the population is increasing by leaps and bounds.

Coming east from the coast Messrs. Hall, Roger, and Shook stopped at most of the larger cities and towns and had a look around. They found everybody busy and prosperous. The same thing is noticeable every way one may turn. They met many Peterborough people in the west who were glad to see them. These all sent their best wishes to their many friends here and wished to be remembered to them. Among others seen were Mr. Geo. Dixon, of Maple Creek a successful rancher, and Mr. R. M. Dennistoun at Winnipeg.

From Fort William east the party saw many bush fires which are doing great damage to the young pines growing so rapidly there. On the whole the party had a splendid outing and will remember it for many years.

Y.M.C.A. Boys' Tenth Camp at Sandy Point on Clear Lake

The Peterborough Y.M.C.A. has issued the following information in reference to its tenth annual boys' camp;

This is the tenth time we go to this delightful spot on Clear Lake. It has a safe, sandy beach for swimming, and miles of water for fishing and boating. It has a good field for baseball and other games. It has half a hundred other good features that make it the best spot on the Lakes for a boys' camp. Any one of the four hundred who have been at one of the past camps, will tell the same story.

It is open to any member of the Y.M.C.A. under twelve years of age, whose application is in by July 6th. One dollar of the camp fee is required as a deposit when application is made.

The entire charge to each boy will be six dollars, including train and boat fare, board, boats, etc. Also a trip around the Lakes before the close of the camp.

SANDY BEACH.

We leave the G.T.R. station, morning train, on July 11th, taking the steamer Stony Lake at Lakefield, and arriving in camp at about eleven o'clock. Returning from camp on morning boat, July 25th, reaching home about noon.

Wear your every-day clothes to camp. Bring two blankets and two heavy quilts, two suits of underwear, extra trousers, coat, shoes, gym shoes, cap, sweaters, stockings, towel, handkerchiefs, swimming tights, brush, comb, tooth brush, soap and your Bible. Also knife, fork and spoon, enamelware plate and cup. Other things that you may take if you choose: Rubber coat or sheet, camera, musical instruments, games, fishing tackle, baseball outfit, brushes, mirror, needle and thread, reading matter and a burnt wood outfit. All may be packed in a strong wooden box with handles, or in a small trunk.

Plain, substantial food, and lots of it, will be provided, as in the past. Mr. Thos. Arnott will again act as cook. His abilities in that line are well known to the boys. He will also run a store for the benefit of those with the sweet tooth.

We believe in putting a boy on his honor, and so rules are few. There are two cast-iron ones, however;—No firearms or air rifles allowed in camp. 2.—No one allowed in water for swimming or bathing, except at stated times, and then in the presence of a leader. Every boy is expected to help the other have a good time.

"Something doing all the time," is the motto. Sometimes it is what the leaders have planned—often what the boys plan. Always a variety. Here are a few of many items. Baseball league and other games, water sports, camp fires, concerts, magic lantern, minstrels, mock trials, etc. Many new features this year. The annual field day and regatta will be as usual. Visitors' day will be celebrated.

A Bible Class, lasting twenty minutes, will be held each morning. The topics will be "Jesus in the Mountains."

The Camp will be in charge of the General Secretary and Physical Director, assisted by a number of senior leaders. They will have personal interest in and care for each boy who goes. The object of the camp is to provide a place where boys may be surrounded with the purest of things that help to equip them for the battle of life.

WEDDING BELLS

WILLIAMS—ANDREWS

Quietly, with only the immediate relatives present, the marriage of Miss Mary Andrews, A.T.C.M., only daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Andrews, of Keene, who is well known in this city, to Mr. W. E. Williams, was solemnized at the home of her uncle, Mr. David Porter, Parkdale, Toronto, Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Logan Geggie, assisted by Rev. W. M. Andrews, M.A., brother of the bride. Sharp at 2 o'clock the bridal party entered, as the wedding march was being played by Miss Alice Porter, of Peterborough, cousin of the bride. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. J. S. Andrews, was gowned in Brussels net over taffeta silk, with lace trimmings and wore the conventional veil, crowned with lilies-of-the-valley. She carried a shower bouquet. Her only attendant was little Miss Della Andrews, who acted as flower girl. The groom's present to the bride was a diamond ring.

INTENSIFIED FRUIT JUICES AN IMPROVEMENT ON NATURE

A Discovery that is Revolutionizing Medicine.

Remarkable Success Attends the Finding of a New Medicinal Compound by Combining the Juices of Apples, Oranges, Figs and Prunes.

Fruit helps to keep one healthy. Fruit, in itself, will not cure disease. The medicinal principle—or that part of fruit which has a curative effect—is in such infinitesimal quantities, that it is unable to overcome a diseased condition of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys or skin.

Just here is where science stepped in. An Ottawa physician did what nature could not do. He first found that some fruits were stronger medicinally than others—and that apples, oranges, figs and prunes contained all the healing properties of other fruits. There are two principles in fruit juices—bitter and sweet. After extracting the juices of the four fruits mentioned, this physician succeeded in replacing one atom of the sweet principle by one of the bitter. This resulted in an entirely new combination being formed. This new compound was many times more active medicinally than the fruit juices. Where eating fruit only helped to keep one well, this compound actually cured disease.

To make it more valuable still, this physician added the finest tonics and antiseptics, and then, by evaporating the entire compound to a powder, made it into tablets.

This, in short, is the method of making "Fruit-a-tives"—these wonderful tablets — the most reliable cure for Constipation, Biliousness, Stomach Troubles, Kidney and Bladder Disease and Skin Affections. Being made from fruit, "Fruit-a-tives" may be taken by women and children without fear of ill-effect.

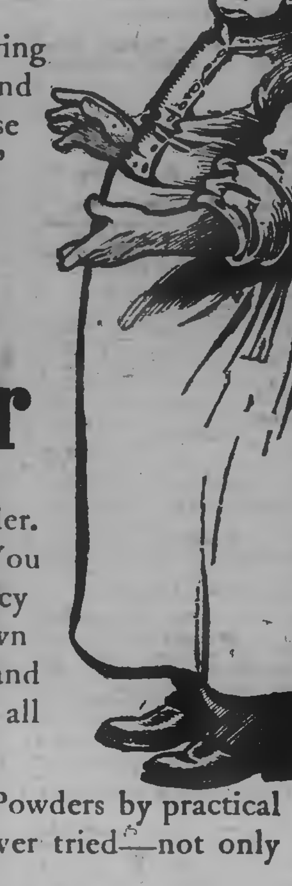
"Of course you said so—but Baking Powder is one of the things that a baker must try for himself."

"That's right! What's the use of buying the best pastry flour, creamery butter and rich milk—and then have one of those alum baking powders ruin the baking."



St. George's Baking Powder

is a pure Cream of Tartar baking powder. I know it by the way the paste rises. You have eaten my Cakes, Pies and Fancy Pastry for years. Have you ever known them to be quite so light and flaky—and taste so good—as they do now? It's all due to ST. GEORGE'S."

"Yes, neighbor, we old fellows have found out about Baking Powders by practical experience. And ST. GEORGE'S is the best baking powder I've ever tried—not only for bakers, but for home cooks as well."

A FORBIDDEN MARRIAGE

BY LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

It was many a long day ere a knowledge of her surroundings came to Reine.

One day, as soon as Reine was able to be about, her aunt sent for her to come to the drawing-room, adding that "some one was there who wished to see her very much."

Girl-like, she took a glance in the mirror before going down, smoothing her collar, and pushing back the rings of golden, curling hair from her forehead; and in that momentary glance she could not help but notice how pale and thin she had grown. She could scarcely recognize the wan face reflected there.

She walked slowly down to the parlor, and opened the door. Some one was seated in the shadow of the bay window—some one who uttered a cry of intense surprise as he beheld her; and the next moment Bernard Chesleigh was clasping her hand, looking joyfully down into her face.

"Why did you hide yourself like this from those who love you best?" he asked, sadly.

Reine hid her face in her hands.

"I know all, Reine. But why, in the hour of need, did you not go to your father, who loved you so well, or come to me?"

"Papa would never have received me," she faltered. "He shut his heart against me. I have deserved it as the price of my folly."

Bernard Chesleigh was a good man, but he could scarcely refrain from cursing the villian who had wrecked Reine's young life. For God had punished her sufficiently for forgetting the words of her dear old Bible: "Honor thy father and thy mother."

Poor Reine! She was but another pitiful example of the folly of eloping. Will young girls never take heed, and learn to shun false-hearted lovers whom loving friends and parents strive to warn them against?

She continued to improve in health and strength rapidly; and once more, as she stood among the roses, and her clear laugh rang out, she seemed like the merry, joyous Reine of yore.

Bernard Chesleigh watched her with yearning, sorrowful eyes, no longing seeking to hide the truth from himself. He loved her with all his heart. She was his first and only love, the other half of his soul. Yet she was separated from him as completely as though she lay in her grave.

The days that passed were all too bitter-sweet to Bernard Chesleigh. He was only human, not a saint, and it was beyond human nature to deny himself the joy of being near the woman he loved.

He fell slowly, without knowing it, from the state of blind worship into the deepest pit passion ever digs for men. He understood it at last, when a feeling of despair came over him, and he said to himself that he would give his very life to clasp her in his arms just one fleeting moment, and kiss her, even should he then die. It was when that thought came over him that he realized how desperately, how madly and blindly he loved her, and more now, if that could be, than ever. He had never trembled at a woman's soft touch before; now, if his hand touched hers, if her dress touched him in passing, if, as he bent over her to read or to sing, the perfume from her hair reached him, he trembled like a strong tree swaying in the storm.

He knew his love was hopeless, he told himself over and over again that she could be nothing to him, and the next thing was to fly from her, to go where the witchery of her face would never set his heart on fire again; to go where her voice would not reach him. And yet, realizing all that, he still lingered.

He drained his cup of poison slowly, surely, knowing it was poison, knowing that it would destroy him, yet unable to put down the fatal cup, which once tasted, clings to the lips. He found himself wondering over and over again, if she were but free, if her heart would turn to him, for he read in her eyes now a look which was new in them, if they by chance met his; then the white lids would droop over them and Reine would turn confusedly away.

There was one incident that happened one evening which was certainly a trying one for both Reine and Chesleigh.

The latter was sitting at the piano drumming thoughtfully on the white keys, when a lady who was just then visiting at the villa, crossed over to where Chesleigh sat—requesting him to try a piece of music for her which she had just received. "I think I have heard you sing it before," she said, laying it before him.

One glance at the title, and his face paled; he turned hastily around; Reine was in the room, seated near them. He bowed, took the music, placing it on the rack; the next moment his deep impassioned voice rang through the room. From a mirror hung over the instrument, he could see Reine's face distinctly; their eyes had met; then he lowered his scorching gaze, never raising his eyes again until he had finished his song.

These were the words he sung:

"And have you quite forgot me, dear?
Or say, do you sometimes dream
What life might have been if we wandered still Together by wood or stream!
Do you think of days when my love was all
The world could give or take,
Do you say with a sigh they were 'happy days,'
Just for the old love's sake?

"Do you ever sit in the twilight, dear,
And think of that other day,
When we met, and parted, and journeyed forth,
Each on our separate way?
I turned and stood for a moment; dear,
And looked in your face to take
Its memory far on my way through life,
Just for the old love's sake!

"Do you ever think they were bitter words?
Their memory haunts me yet;
Do you wonder how you could say farewell,
And wonder if I forget?
Dear, my heart has forgiven—forgiven long ago,
Though at first I thought 'twould break;
And whenever I think it's kindly still—

Reine rose hastily and silently quitted the room.

Chesleigh excused himself shortly after and went out into the grounds. He paced rapidly up and down under the trees to cool the mad fire in his veins; future possibilities, with their alluring fancies, took possession of him, clouding his better nature, that painful issues were to accure, he could not foresee.

To Chesleigh's nature, the moment was cruel, with its yearning and doubts.

"I should save myself from such agitation as this," he muttered, hoarsely, "I will not go through it again." Those airy visions to which he could give no outline, rendered his thoughts of her as beautiful as the freshly-opened violets after rain.

CHAPTER XXIX.

As soon as Reine's health would permit of the journey, it was decided that her aunt should take her to Florida. It was arranged, through Aunt Rachel's earnest request, that Bernard should join them a little later.

It was dangerous to his peace of mind to be so near Reine, but he could not deny his starving heart so small a crumb of comfort, as her near presence brought to him.

He felt himself drawn like the fabled moth, irresistibly toward the flame.

"There's nothing like travel and change of scene to make one forget sorrow," Mrs. Woodstock had declared; "and amid new scenes Reine would, in a measure, forget the past."

But, alas! how human calculations fail. A week after Bernard arrived, Reine's aunt was attacked with her old enemy, the rheumatism, and upon Bernard devolved the task of cheering Reine. It was a pleasure so great it was almost pain.

She clung to him with all the old-time childish thoughtfulness. With him it was hard to refrain from uttering the loving words that often rose from his heart to his lips—so hard to keep down the love that thrilled every nerve—yet he crushed it with a mighty power that surprised even himself.

On the evening Mrs. Woodstock had been stricken down, the three had planned a sail on the water as far as the light-house, which was situated on an island a few miles from the beach.

"Never mind me," Aunt Rachel had said, irritably; "don't stay on my account; take Reine and go, by all means, Bernard; I'd rather be alone."

"Ah! but for her folly—her mad folly—Reine might have been Bernard's wife! How would it all end?" she wondered. Ah, if she had but known!

The sun was low in the western sky when the little boat touched the island.

"I'm afraid we will not have time to explore the light-house," said Bernard, anxiously. "If I am any judge we shall have a storm, and a severe one, too. I think I had better turn the boat about, and head for our hotel again."

"The storm-clouds will blow over, as they did yesterday," she said. "See, they are shifting now. We must explore the old quaint lighthouse, now that we are here."

Against his better judgment he allowed himself to be persuaded. Whether there was a "fate" in it or not, only Heaven could have foretold.

He fastened the boat and followed her up the steep path without further objection, seeing that she had set her heart upon it.

The evening had a weird beauty all its own. The rose of the sunset, mixed with gold, had dark purple linings. The sea was calm, but the color of it had changed from blue to a dull, leaden hue; the waves were languid, but there seemed to be a deep undercurrent; the boats rocked, the white-sailed ships passed more slowly by; every now and then there was a slow, sullen murmur in the wind, as though it were collecting force for some special purpose. There was a heavy, brooding silence over the trees and flowers of the little island; the birds seemed frightened, and sought shelter in their nests. The whole scene had a weird effect—grand, beautiful, terrible.

While they stood there the keeper of the light, a bronzed, weather-beaten old sailor, joined them, bowing to the tall, broad-shouldered young man, and doffing his cap, to the slender, golden-haired girl by his side.

"We have come to view your castle," smiled Bernard; "that is, if you do not object."

The old keeper declared that he would be only too pleased to show them about, adding that they were just in time to see the great lamp lighted. Even as he spoke the leaden hue of the water deepened, and the weird colors died out of the sky.

"That usually presages a storm," he said. "Do you think it is far off?"

"It will be upon us directly," declared the keeper. "You must bring the lady in, sir, and wait a bit until its fury is spent. See, the great drops are commencing to fall now."

"The storms do a sight of damage at times. Just by the white rock there lies a dangerous reef, and many a good ship has been battered to pieces there."

While they were speaking, the darkness of night seemed to fall like a pall over the earth, without warning. And they had barely reached shelter ere the storm broke in all its fury. The hissing of the wind rose into a scream, the sullen waters into a roar, the rain fell in torrents, and the lightning flashed in white, blinding sheets.

It was one of those terrible storms that sweep at times over the Florida coast, carrying destruction with it. At first it was wonderful; then it became awful; at last alarming. And in the midst of it all, something terrible happened. The awful hurricane demolished one of the windows of the tower, and the deluge of water put out the great lamp.

"Great God!" he cried, "the light is out! Heaven help any vessel on the sea that must pass this way tonight!"

A lurid flash of lightning lit up the room, showing the ghastly effect of the weird, awful scene outside.

A low cry broke from Reine's lips. The old lighthouse seemed to rock on its foundation. The angry waves, rolling mountain-high, seemed to threaten to dash it at any instant into the hungry sea.

Reine clung to Bernard's strong arm with trembling hands, and the flashes of light showed him the pale face, quivering lips, and eyes distended with fear.

Oh, how he longed to take her in his arms and comfort her. But his shield of honor restrained him.

Suddenly, as they stood there, a terrible sound smote their ears—a sound that strikes terror to every heart; the firing of the minute guns, which denotes a ship in distress at sea.

"A ship in distress. I must get my lifeboat and go to the rescue," he said, simply.

Hark! There it is again. The terrible booming.

"The old keeper of the light has shown me my duty, Reine. He has gone to the rescue. I cannot stand here while my fellow-creatures are crying for aid, facing death. I must go and help. I must save a life if I can."

Reine clung to him in wild alarm.

"You must not go, Bernard," she sobbed, piteously. "You would die in those horrible waves, and it would kill me. Oh, Bernard, do not leave me."

"I must, Reine," he said, hoarsely, bending his handsome head and kissing reverently the little white hands that clung to him so frantically.

He loosened the white hands, and, in a flash, she was standing alone in the deserted lighthouse.

Reine sprang through the doorway after him with a wild cry. She forgot the drenching rain and terrible storm as she tore madly down the beach after him, crying out wildly:

"Oh, Bernard! Bernard! You are going out to death! Take me with you, and let me die, too, for I cannot live without you!"

And those piercing cries smote Bernard Chesleigh's ears far out among the mad waves, as he valiantly headed his lifeboat toward the fearful wreck on the reefs.

How the words clung to him! They revealed that which made his heart bound with a great throbbing pain—Reine cared—yes she cared for him.

How cruel the knowledge was to him now when it was too late. She was nothing more to him now save a dearly loved sister.

Yes he had found Reine—but too late. But he must put all thoughts of her from him at this moment and think only of those in such dread peril out there at the mercy of the deep.

Was it a reckless madness that seized him, to wish for half a moment that, he might not live to return?

Two Hundred Reports From Reliable Sources in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta Indicate a Tremendous Yield This Year.

Winnipeg, Man., June 21.—The Winnipeg Commercial to-morrow will publish nearly 200 reports from bankers, boards of trade and general merchants in the three provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, showing that the prospects are better at this date than at any timein years for a large crop.

The decrease in the wheat acreage in older Manitoba is 10 per cent., but there is a large increase in the oats and barley acreage.

The increase in the wheat acreage of Saskatchewan and Alberta is 30 per cent.

I learn from a reliable source that the Saskatchewan Government will show 40 per cent. increase in the acreage of all crops.

My conservative estimate of this years cropp is 120,000 000 bushels of wheat for the three provinces.

I was told that a Pilot Mound farmer sold six cars of wheat for October delivery at 80 cents.

Hay in all the provinces is likely to be a short crop, although the weather is improving conditions.

The whole country is having deal growing weather.

Manitoba conditions are no longer indication of generral prospects.

Money conditions are better.—Toronto News.

Ontario the Land of Wealth ; Railway Blasted With Gold

Toronto June 21.—A section of the Canadian Northern railway running north-west from Sudbury and crossing the Vermillion river, has the unique feature in Ontario of being ballasted with gold. Every yard of the gravel used for ballast contains from 50 cents to a dollar's worth of the precious metal in the shape of fine dust. Right alongside the track in the township of Hammer is the place. Mining camp of the R. H. Ahn syndicate, which has been quietly working away testing the gold bearing gravel with satisfactory results, and Mr. R. H. Ahn himself is authority for the above.

The gold was discovered some years ago, and for a time there was considerable excitement, but prospectors being unable to discover it in chunks gradually dropped out, although it has been all along known to exist in paying quantities in the form of fine dust. The Ahn syndicate have succeeded in installing machinery which will save it and large operations are contemplated in the near future.

The Canadian Northern is now in the same class as the T. and N.O. railway near Cobalt, whose right of way, runs over silver deposits, and the town which will probably be established there will be an earthly example of "the beautiful city where the streets are paved with gold.

CHEMONG PARK.

Are you going to the summer school to be held at Chemong Park, as per the official programme. Then let me tell you about it, so that the delights may be anticipated. From south, east and west, you will reach it by the way of Peterborough, which will surprise those who have looked upon this place as a quiet little town. They will find it an up-to-date city, and everything humming with life and business.

The drive upon the auto-car from Peterborough to Chemong, is one of the most pleasant possible. Up hills and down dales, through the foothills of the highlands of Middle Ontario, each reach in the road bringing clearer and purer atmosphere. Over the summit, the Chemong Lake bursts into view, stretching like a mirror ten miles long and one or two wide.

The Park stretches along the eastern shore of the lake, and the land dry and sandy, rises as it retreats from the beach till it reaches its crown of the old pine forests some hundreds of feet above the lake level. Here and there clear springs of water burst from the soil and sing their way to the lake, and in springtime, the woods are a mass of ferns and flowers.

The bathing and boating are not surpassed in the whole Kawartha Lake region, and at the proper places little children are perfectly safe for rods from the shore. The pavilion is situated at the highest point on the Park shore, with a magnificent view of the lake and all the advantage of a cool breeze. Rest assured that you will never regret the visit to Chemong Park. For the murmur of the pines, the songs of the rivulets, the gentle roll of the waves upon the pebble shore, from one common harmony of nature, which is better than medicine to the worn nerves of those who toil through the long winter.

THE OFFICERS.

The Kawartha Lakes Summer School is a union of Twelve O'clock Park and Bobcaygeon Schools of last year.

The officers of the Bobcaygeon school are,—

Hon.-Pres.—Rev. Geo. Bishop, D.D.,
Pres.—Rev. J. P. Perry, B.A.,
Vice-Pres.—Rev. C. H. Coon.
Treasurer—Rev. D. R. Clare, B.A. B.D.
Secretary—Rev. C. E. Cragg, B.D.
Registrar—Miss M. Moment

The officers of Twelve O'clock Park School are,—

Hon.-Pres.—Rev. S. F. Dixon,

Retail Grocers Loose Money by Not Systematically Advertising

Canadian Grocer Contains Interesting Letter on Subject—Grocer's Duty to Busy Housekeeper—Advertising is a Necessity to a Successful Business.

Why do retail grocers not advertise their goods in the local press? Hundreds and thousands of families are reached every day by the papers and there never was a time when the successful housewife looked the daily paper over for advertisements as she does today. The display ads in the paper are as essential to the wife or housekeeper as the stock markets and sporting columns to the man. She takes up the paper as soon as it arrives at the door, and her sense of duty, her desire to make money go as far as possible, her wish to make her table look well, and to provide appetizing and nutritious food for her husband and family prompts her to look for advertisements in the papers.

The dry goods merchants and clothiers advertise extensively, and they could not successfully conduct a business if they did not. Women, the same as men, often want something and they do not know exactly what. Sometimes they see it in a window, but more often they see it advertised. Thousands of dollars worth of dry goods are sold in Peterborough, through the daily advertisements in the papers that would not have been sold otherwise. A woman who has a house to look after has not time to continually study fashion plates and magazines, and thus keep herself posted in the latest fabrics and novelties. The drygoodsmen realize this and they undertake daily to place before her a list of articles that are new and stylish, and she has got into the habit of looking in the press for these announcements.

Grocers claim that they have nothing to advertise. Everything they sell is a necessity of life. When persons want them they will come for them. Such an argument is only the argument of a lazy, behind-the-times person. No one gets anything in this age by waiting. Everything that is worth having must be gone after. The sooner the grocer realizes this, the sooner his business will commence to prosper and the sooner his profits and bank account will begin to increase.

RETAILER'S DUTY.

If a housewife has no time to study fashion plates, much less has she time to study trade journals, in which wholesalers and manufacturers advertise, to find out what to get for tomorrow's dinner. It is not the duty of a trade journal to educate the housekeeper. It is the duty of the retail grocer, and him alone. If he gets in a new line of canned goods or if he is enterprising enough to add an entirely new line of food stuffs to his stock, he should be enterprising enough to go to every house in the city and countryside and tell about it? How will the people find out about it otherwise? The way to do this is to advertise, and it is the only way.

Not ten per cent of the people know what any one store carried in stock, and the grocers, evidently, are unconcerned whether they do or not. In Peterborough there are nearly one hundred stores carrying a stock of groceries. These are scattered all over the cities, mostly in the residential parts, where a woman can run out in the morning and get a few little things she finds she needs and get back to the house without losing any time. She never thinks of the hundreds of tasty delicacies she might get, and she is in such a hurry the grocer cannot tell her about them. Thus thousands of dollars worth of business is lost every year.

The large stores in the centre of the city are being driven out. There is not enough business to enable them to pay the heavy expenses. The small stores are cropping up all over. These carry a general stock, the so-called "necessities of life." The big stores carry the varied stock and are losing the general trade.

ADVERTISING A NECESSITY.

There is only one cause,—they do not advertise. They cannot hold the trade. The corner grocery is nearer to the people and they get a big share of the business. The only remedy for the grocer is to advertise. Tell the people about the fresh goods that are received every day. Suggest to them a new brand of pickles, a new kind of canned fruit the cooked meats, fresh biscuits and the hundreds of other palatable things so much desired in the hot weather. The people want these things and would buy them if they only knew where to get them. The corner grocery does not carry them and in warm weather a woman will not run around the city, looking for something to eat that is cool and refreshing. She has no time and less inclination. If she saw advertised that a certain store had what she wanted she would soon telephone an order or send for it.

When the grocer is getting the order for the special article he can can very easily get another order for the general groceries. What he wants to do is to reverse his system of doing business. Get the people coming for luxuries and then sell them groceries as well. A hundred stores in the city sell groceries, and the clerk or proprietor might think to suggest to the customer some dainty, thus making the "necessities of life," the main feature. The profit of a grocery store is not on sugars, flour, vinegar, molasses, etc., it is on spices, teas, coffees, pickles, fancy canned goods, fancy biscuits, etc. These are the things to advertise. They are what the people want and are willing to pay for. They will buy ordinary groceries any way and from the nearest store, but they will go a mile for a luxury.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country, than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years, was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co, Toledo, Ohio., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

PRESENTED WITH A GOLD LOCKET

Mr. John Bain Remembered by Auburn Woollen Mills Employees

On Saturday afternoon, at the Auburn Woollen Mills, Mr. John Bain, who has been an employee of the works for several years, and who is severing his connection with the company, was presented by his fellow workers, with a handsome gold locket, suitably engraved. It was accompanied with the following address;

To Mr. J. M. Bain,
Auburn Woollen Mills,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Mr. Bain.—

It is with feelings of deep regret that your friends of the Auburn Woollen Mills have assembled here this afternoon to say good-bye ere you sever your connection with the firm which has been the scene of your faithful labors for so many years.

We should deem ourselves ungrateful were we to allow so favorable an opportunity to pass without expressing our heart-felt appreciation of your kindness and good work.

During the years you have superintended our department, you have been a model to us all, ever so willing and cheerful to assist us, at all times genial and self-denying, conscientious and honorable in all your dealings, which has been duly recognized, and has earned for you the confidence and esteem of those committed to your charge, as well as the respect of all with whom you have come in contact.

Needless to say, we envy those among whom your future lot will be cast, still rest assured, our heartiest good wishes will ever attend you and we sincerely hope your future labors will prove as successful as did those of the past.

Mere words, however, cannot express the regret we all experince at the departure from our midst of so zealous a manager, and so faithful and benevolent a friend.

We ask your acceptance of this slight token of our regard in the spirit in which it is offered, as a tribute to your merits, and an expression of our sincerity and gratitude

Signed on behalf of your co-workers.

Many Establishments Became Depleted of Supplies as a Result of the Big Demand—Great Weather, for the Ice Cream Men.

Peterborough almost had an ice cream famine on Saturday night, in fact for a time it was almost impossible to secure any of the frozen sweetness in the numerous establishments where cooling dishes and drinks are sold.

On acount of the extreme heat on Saturday there was a big demand for cold drinks and dishes and especially for the old favorite, ice cream. The result of the big demand all day and evening was that many of the parlors had exhausted their supply shortly after ten o'clock and many persons travelled from parlor to parlor in search of ice cream only tobe told that the supply was exhausted. One party of young men went to five places before they could secure what they wanted and then they had to wait until the ice cream freezers had been got busy and a fresh supply was manufactured. The tables were surrounded with people before it was ready, however, and that freezer of ice cream disappeared with the rapidity of snow before a spring rain when that crowd of ice cream hunting citizens were turned loose upon it.

The ice cream dealers of the city did a tremendous business last week, in fact their receipts for the last 8 or 10 days would probably total a larger sum than for the same period for several years. Everybody has been eating ice cream and drinking cream sodas and other cold drinks in an attempt to keep cool, and judging from the weather to-day, another busy week for the ice cream men is ahead.

Father Killed; 3 Sons Hurt By an Explosion of Dynamite

WereB lasting for a Barn Foundation When the Fatality Occured--Father Was Terribly Mangled and Died Soon After--One Son's Skull Fractured

Lindsay, June 22.— As the result of a premature explosion of a dynamite charge on the farm of James Rettie, Burnt River, just before six o'clock last evening, James Rettie is dead and his three sons badly injured The eldest, Lorne, a lad of about 14 years old, is in the Ross Hospital. The other two sons—mere boys—are slightly injured.

Mr. Rettie, with the assistance of his three young sons, was doing some excavating, preparatory to building a foundation for a new barn on his farm at Burnt River. Dynamite was used to do some blasting. A charge was set and the eldest son, Lorne was tamping the charge in place with a crowbar. It is thought the charge was ignited by the steel bar coming into sharp contact with the dynamite. The entire charge exploded and Mr Rettie who was standing close by, was terribly injured. One eye was gouged out and his face frightfully mangled; one arm was torn off at the elbow and he was otherwise injured. Lorne sustained injuries on the head.

Suffering intense pain, the father was carried into the house and, Dr Gould, of Fenelon Falls, called. He did all that was possible to alleviate the pain, and this morning the sufferer was brought to Lindsay on the Haliburton train. He died just as the train was coming down Victoria avenue.

The son was taken to the Ross Hospital, and is badly injured, his skull being fractured.

Made Strong Plea in Favor Of the Early Closing Movement

Rev. J. G. Potter Says That the Evil Can Only be Remedied by United Action on the Part of Clerks, Merchants and Citizens Generally.

At the service in St. Andrew's last evening the Rev. Mr. Potter discussed the question of early Saturday closing. His subject was "A plea for fellow-feeling," and he emphasized the fact that the matter could not be made right by denunciation or by any rigid measure, but by merchants, clerks and citizens all combining to lessen the great evil. He noted that many clerks were making up parcels for delivery at eleven o'clock Saturday night, and this meant that many men and boys would not get home till long after midnight. This would in turn necessitate the staying up of households. Mr. Potter thought and declared that if every home affected by this homelike state of things, would in turn help to make earlier the Saturday night shopping, the evil would be greatly minimized. It means a general lowering of moral tone, when Sunday is only a day for groans and aches and pains, instead of a day of mental, physical and spiritual rest and recuperation.

The praise service throughout the day was excellent and was most highly appreciated by the congregations.

Monday—Young People's Society.

Wednesday—Prayer Meeting, subject, "The Last Prayer Meeting."

Thursday—Communicant's class at the manse.

Friday—Preparatory service, the Rev. S. S. Burns, B.A., will preach

Everything Quiet in France; The Outlook is Encouraging

No Further Disturbance—Troops Have Returned to Barracks.

Leader of Rioters Appears Before President—Forces of Troops In the Streets — Insurgents Demand Release of Those Already Taken—Mutinous Troops Return to Barracks—Prefect Beaten.

Paris, June 24.—The most interesting event yesterday in the wine growers' revolt was the visit of Marcelin Albert, the leader of the disturbing element in the south of France, to Premier Clemenceau.

Yesterday morning the man for whom the police and troops have been vainly scouring the country for a fortnight, appeared suddenly at the Ministry of the Interior. He wore the simple garb of a southern peasant.

The cotton shirt, the silk handkerchief around his neck and the carpet bag in his hand aroused the suspicion of the corps of detectives now constantly guarding the Premier. But when he had established his identity, Albert was admitted to the presence of Clemenceau, with whom he had a fifteen minutes' talk.

A semi-official account of the interview says that the Premier used extremely strong language, virtually blaming his visitor for all that has happened in the south, the refusal to pay taxes, the strike, the resignation of the officials of municipalities and the bloodshed that has occurred—everything in fact.

A profound sense of relief now pervades the French capital at the check to the outbreak in the south, which is described by ex-Premier Ribot as the worst internal crisis in France in the past 37 years. The Government now apparently is satisfied that it has the situation well in hand. Overwhelming forces of troops garrison the whole area to prevent a recrudescence of the armed revolt against the central power. Such a mobilization of military forces has not previously been witnessed in the life of the third republic.

Despatches report that a general surface calm prevails, although there are one or two storm centres in isolated districts.

Senators and deputies representing the south called at the Elysee Palace Saturday night and asked President Fallieres to intervene personally to secure the release of the members of the Argelliers committee, under arrest as the surest means of ensuring pacification. The President regretted that his office did not permit him to comply with the request.

No further disturbances of importance were reported yesterday, the mutinous troops returning to their barracks at Agde, and the roll call showed only one man missing.

Later details of the capture of Sub-Prefect Leullier show that soldiers who tried to protect him were forced to retreat before the fury of the mob. M. Leullier's clothes were literally torn from him and he was badly beaten.

Disturbances Over.

The fear that yesterday, being Sunday, would witness a renewal of the rioting in the affected districts, fortunately was not realized, although the prefecture at Niems was stoned.

There is a heavy concentration of troops at Narbonne, Montpeillier and other centres of disturbance.

Gen. Cailley, who is in command at Narbonne, thinks the chief danger now is from professional agitators and anarchists. He has information that a large number of anarchists have crossed the frontier from Spain, but declares he now has a sufficient force to patrol every foot of railroad in his territory.

The peasants view every stranger with suspicion. Two newspaper correspondents narrowly escaped lynching in the mistaken belief that they were spies.

Several deputies from the south, who hurried home on Friday to aid in calming their constituents, received such a hostile reception that they were forced to return to Paris.

M. Albert left for the south at nine o'clock.

Just before he left, it was officially stated that he had promised M. Clemenceau to do his utmost to induce his countrymen to return to work and to cease their disturbances.

Narbonne, France, June 24.—The funeral of the sixth victim of the rioting on Thursday last was held yesterday. There was no disorder.

Despatches describing Marcelin Albert's interview with Premier Clemenceau, were read to crowds throughout the south and were received with thunderous cheers. The affair appears to have made a most marked impression.

Fresh troops continue to arrive and are being distributed over the country. It is estimated that their are now more than 70,000 in the three departments.

MAN BOILED TO DEATH.

Winnipeg, June 24.—A. J. Rainville, foreman at the Eureka mine, was literally boiled to death in the shaft, which was being emptied out. The pump exhaust discharged into the water in the shaft, and raised it to boiling pitch. Rainville was lowered into the water, through mistaken signals and although promptly rescued died of his injuries soon after.

He was a French-Canadian, coming from near Montreal 15 years ago, and was well-known all over Kootenay.

ONE KILLED, FIFTY HURT.

New Britain, Conn., June 24.—One of the worst trolley wrecks in this section in years occurred here Saturday night, when cars from Plainville and this city met head on at full speed near a switch at White Oak Park amusement resort on the outskirts of this city.

Motorman Chas. Carey of the New Britain bound car, received injuries from which he will die.

Hamlet Washed Away.

Albuquerque, N. M., June 24.—The Rio Grande, swollen by recent rains in New Mexico, has passed the danger point in the valley south of this city, and thousands of dollars' worth of damage has been done.

HOLDS UP STAGE COACHES.

Robber Was Cool and Secured $300 With Much Jewelry.

Raymond, Cal., June 24.—Two stage coaches, carrying 16 tourists bound for the Yosemite Valley, were held up and the passengers were robbed of $300 and much jewelry by a lone highwayman the other night about 40 miles from here.

The robber was very cool and business-like.

It was just at twilight that the first stage was stopped as it turned a corner of the road.

The command "Hands up, there" was the first warning of trouble, and the driver found himself looking into the barrels of a shotgun before he had time to lay hands on the weapons that rested at his side.

The robber stood on rising ground at one side of the road. He wore a linen duster and a slouch hat. His features were covered with a black mask.

Some of the women started to scream, but the passengers were told no harm would come to them unless they refused to obey quickly and silently. The driver was soon standing, hands in air, by the roadside, and the passengers joined up with him.

When the masked man had filled the pockets of his duster with coin and jewelry he ordered the passengers back into the stage one by one.

At the first halting place a posse was organized to run down the outlaw.

SIX MONTHS FOR 35 CENTS.

Galt, June 24.—Theodore Lightwine, aged 18, one time a driver for Store, is the self-confessed perpetrator of a burglary committed at Radigan's grocery on Thursday night. Lightwine had just returned from the militia camp at Carling's Heights and wanted a little cash, so he cleaned up the till in the grocery store. The booty amounted to only 35 cents, but Judge Blake sentenced him to six months in Central Prison.

Damas Gratton died at his home in Hull Thursday evening as a result of being struck by a flying board in Booth's lumber mill. Deceased was fifty-five years of age, and leaves a widow and five children.

FAVORS ARBITRATION.

M. Bourgeois Makes Speech At Hague Peace Conference.

The Hague, June 24.—M. Bourgeois, president of the first committee, delivered an eloquent speech on Saturday in favor of the principle of arbitration, and produced an excellent impression. He gave a detailed survey of the arbitration convention of 1899. He expressed gratitude to Andrew Carnegie for his donation of the peace palace.

Regarding the task before the commission, of perfecting the convention of 1899, Mr. Bourgeois observed that the rules of 1899 might be modified to a kind of summary procedure.

M. Beernaert, in his speech, congratulated the countries of the American continent in joining Europe in the blessed work of peace, which, he said, was a good augury for the success of the conference.

The committee evidently, in order to avoid hurting the feelings of the Japanese, concluded that up to the present there is no distinct international understanding on the subject of opening hostilities, holding that each country can affirm that its point of view in this connection is correct. The committee must, therefore, decide whether to maintain the status quo or establish international rules for the opening of hostilities.

SCANDAL IN ROYAL NAVY.

Petty Officers Graft From Contractors In Construction Works.

London, June 24.—"Grave irregularities" is the term the parliamentary committee of public accounts gives to certain conditions in the navy, on which it issued a report on Saturday.

The committee found that a widespread custom was the acceptance of commissions from contractors by petty officers, but the report adds that severe disciplinary measures have been adopted to suppress the custom.

The committee objects strongly to the action of the admiralty in contracting for the construction of the armored cruisers Invincible, Inflexible and Indomitable, without competition, although the admiralty officials explained that they wished to keep the plans secret.

The committee finds that the builders of the battleship King Edward VII. secretly patched up a defectively cast rudder, which the government was obliged to replace. The builders gathered together a few of their employes on a certain Sunday and by electric welding concealed a huge fault in the rudder.

The report of the committee says: "We hope it will not again be our duty to investigate a case where a British firm, for commercial advantage, will callously hazard the lives of hundreds of their fellow-countrymen."

BRAKEMAN SCALDED.

Ottawa, June 24.—William G. Douglass, a G.T.R. brakeman, died in the hospital here yesterday after hours of terrible suffering, from injuries he received in a wreck late Saturday night near Eastman Springs.

At the time of the accident he was on the locomotive and while the rest of the trainmen succeeded in jumping and saving themselves, he was pinned between the locomotive and tender and held there for hours with scalding water pouring over him.

With the aid of farmers the other trainmen finally released him, but he died shortly after reaching the hospital.

The collision was between a freight train out of Ottawa and a light engine running from Hawkesbury to Ottawa for repairs.

One of the locomotives and three cars were ditched, the other locomotive was badly damaged, and the track was torn up for 200 feet.

It was necessary to transfer passengers to and from Montreal yesterday morning while a wrecking gang were at work to repair the damage.

OVERCOME BY FUMES.

One Man Dead—Three Narrowly Escape.

Fort William, June 24.—A catastrophe happened at Loch Lomond water supply tunnel yesterday morning. One man is dead, one is seriously injured, and three more were restored to consciousness. They were going to their work in the shaft, which is being sunk for opening the tunnel through the mountain in connection with the waterworks. The fumes of the material used for blasting are driven out by an air compressor, but the six men, who work below the surface, went into the shaft too soon after the blast and were overcome by the fumes. John Pollo, sub-foreman, undertook to give the alarm, and fell from a ladder, breaking his arm, and injuring his back. The dead man is Joseph Chichester, a young Englishman. Three others were overcome, but the men on top of the ground succeeded in getting them to the surface and reviving them.

CONDUCTOR IS KILLED.

Pittsburg, June 24.—A trainman was killed and ten passengers were injured, three fatally, late yesterday, when the New Haven accommodation train, No. 156, on the Monongahela & Youghigheny division of the Pittsburg & Lake Erie Railroad was wrecked in the yards at the foot of South Twenty-first street.

Killed on Crossing.

West Lorne, June 24.—Hugh McColl, aged 75 years, was struck and instantly killed by M. C. freight train Saturday evening, while driving across. The wagon was smashed, but the horses unhurt. He was a prominent Mason and founder of the local lodge here.

Dr. McInnes will be sworn in as Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education of Manitoba on Tuesday.

REVOLT IN PORTUGAL

Troops Fought People In the Streets, Dead and Wounded Laid Out In Rows—Women Filled Their Aprons With Stones—Kept the Rioters Supplied—Papers Appear In Black Border.

Lisbon, June 24.—The two persons killed by the police while suppressing a political demonstration against Premier Franco, which marked his return here from Oporto June 19, were buried secretly by the police during the night, in order to avoid manifestations.

There have been a number of clashes between the police and the people, in which some of the latter were slightly wounded and numerous arrests have been made, the prisoners being taken to Caxias fortress.

It is said that the Government intends to prosecute the leaders of the opposition, who are accused of stirring up a revolt against Premier Franco's attempt to introduce reforms in the Government.

New York, June 24.—A Paris despatch to the Times Saturday says that despatches received there on Saturday from Lisbon by way of Madrid report that popular hatred of the system of Government by decree instituted by Premier Franco, after the dismissal of Parliament in the beginning of May, has had as its outcome barricade fighting between the troops and the people and much bloodshed.

The Premier made a journey from the capital to Oporto in the hope of obtaining a popular endorsement of his policy, but at every station between Lisbon and Oporto crowds hissed and hooted the train as it passed.

Oporto received the Premier with crepe banners in place of flags and yells and insults instead of the hoped-for cheers.

When the dictator returned to Lisbon there was a furious riot outside the railway station. Cavalry charged the mob and infantry fired into it. The officers' commands were drowned by cries of "Death to the dictator." Revolvers were freely used by the crowd and a young officer was mortally wounded.

A neighboring square was filled with killed and wounded, laid out in rows. The principal fighting occurred under the windows of the Hotel D'Angiaterre. Several English visitors witnessed the struggle. It is said that the people fought for hours with sticks and stones against the soldiers, who fired volleys.

The women with their aprons filled with stones supplied missiles to the men and urged them on. Republican leaders harangued the people to revolt. Barricades were built and cafes were invaded, the mob breaking up furniture for their extempore fortifications. The chief Lisbon cafe was completely destroyed. The mob fought with great fury, undismayed by the volleys of the troops.

Thursday was a day of mourning for the dead. All the newspapers appeared with deep black borders and on business offices and private houses flags were flown at half mast and windows were draped with crepe.

Saturday night the troops were again firing on the people in the public squares. Most serious events are expected. The spirit of revolt is widespread.

The censorship is strict.

TRAGEDY IN A TRAIN.

Barber, Crazed With Drink, Shoots Three Passengers.

Denver, Col., June 24.—While crazed by drink John Belle, an Italian barber, shot and killed C. V. Topp, a tailor of St. Paul, Minn., as he slept, and wounded Mrs. Olsen, a bride, and Mrs. Harry Blakesley, sisters, of Marshall, Minn., all passengers on a train westbound on the Rock Island road near Selden, Kansas, Saturday night. Belle and his companion, Patsy Longobardi were arrested and removed from the train at Goodland, Kansas. The wives and children of the Italians came to Denver and decided yesterday to return to Chicago. The two families had started from Boston for San Francisco. Belle had boarded the train at Chicago on Thursday night. He and his companion had been drinking and Belle imagined he had been robbed.

Guelph, June 24.—A C.P.R. freight train pitched into another freight train Saturday morning at Christie's Siding, and eleven head of cattle were killed, some beef cars damaged, and a sleeping car badly smashed.

Spoils Their Fun.

London, June 24.—(C. A. P.)—The Paris dinner to the Republican committee of commerce, industry and agriculture, to the Canadian Ministers, has been postponed in consequence of the wine riots.

Fatal Balloon Accident.

Vienna, June 24.—Thirteen persons were killed in a balloon accident near Bebreesin, Hungary. Three aeronauts, two French officers and one Austrian officer fell from the balloon and were killed.

Peasants in trying to capture the balloon approached it with a light and the balloon exploded killing ten of them.

Declares Against Red Flag.

Novgorod, Russia, June 24.—The Governor of Novgorod, Count Medom, has caused to be posted in the cities and villages of the province an order declaring that the troops will use their firearms to disperse every meeting at which a red flag is shown or revolutionary songs are sung.

Fifteen Years For Wife Murder.

New York, June 24.—The jury that tried Dr. Samuel S. Guy, charged with murdering his wife, returned a verdict late Saturday night of guilty of manslaughter in the first degree.

Dr. Gay was at once sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment.

Wholesale Calamity.

Another gentleman with long whiskers and a glitter in his eye has gone into the profitable prophecy business and has pulled out of his box a prediction that Lake Michigan will tip up and wet Chicago twenty or thirty feet deep, so that those with the skyscraper habit will have to come down to their offices in boats.

This would indeed be annoying to the people of Chicago, not all of whom can swim or are the proud possessors of forty-nine cent pocket folding boats. However, those of them who believe the words of the prophet can busy themselves building light, serviceable arks on the tops of their houses, equipped with a stock of canned goods and some ten cent magazines. Then when the wading gets up to their necks they can launch their barks and sail away to Iowa or Kansas or some state that is dry, at least on the statute books. It is to be hoped that the prophetic gentleman is not interested in some life preserver factory.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Prime Minister of the Dominion of Canada, and the Premier of Newfoundland, are, according to present arrangements to visit Washington, immediately after the return of the president to the national capital from his summer holiday.

A FORBIDDEN MARRIAGE

BY LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

CHAPTER XXX.

The rain beat upon Reine's golden head, the terrible storm drenched her through and through, yet she did not appear to notice it. Her white hands beat the air; bitter cries fell from her lips as she flung herself down on her knees, sobbing out that if he never came back to her, she would throw herself into the sea.

If he found death in those cruel waves, dashing mountain high, she would find a grave there, too, and the sad sea waves should sing a requiem over both.

The scene on the wrecked steamer was a terrible one. The lifeboats had been lowered, but many of the frightened passengers, in their mad terror, had thrown themselves into the lashing sea.

She had struck the treacherous reef, and it was but a question of a few terrible moments ere she would go down, for she was fast settling. The steamer was doomed.

Not a soul seemed to be on board the fatal steamer when Bernard reached it, and a voluntary cry, "Thank God! all have been saved!" burst from his lips.

He turned to leap into his boat again, but at that instant a low moan fell upon his ear from down the hatchway.

A man was attempting to make his way toward the deck. By the feeble, flickering light from the lantern he carried, Bernard Chesleigh saw that his face was covered with blood from a wound on his temple.

He cried out, faintly, rejoicing to see succor at hand.

"One of the spars fell upon me, and I must have lost consciousness. They left me here to die," he said, putting out his hands gropingly to reach the spot where his rescuer stood.

He took one step forward, then staggered blindly, and fell at Bernard's feet exhausted, crying, faintly.

"I am too weak to walk I—"

The sentence never was finished. Bernard Chesleigh had stooped beside him, holding the lantern close to his face.

There was a hoarse cry from the lips of both.

"Bernard Chesleigh!"

"Waldemar Waldron!"

In that awful moment they had recognized each other, each was gazing into the face of the other with bated breath these two who had been such bitter rivals for the love of beautiful Reine.

"Ah, it is you!" gasped Waldron, white to the lips. "Then all hope of rescue is at an end. You will leave me to die."

Bernard Chesleigh had drawn back with a face ghastly white. There are moments when the bravest and most honorable of us have been sorely tempted—tempted almost beyond the power of human endurance and such a moment of terrible temptation assailed Bernard Chesleigh.

His rival lay at his feet, maimed helpless, at his mercy. He need but turn and fly; speak no word; lift not so much as a finger, and ere he reached the shore, the steamer would go down, carrying with it the barrier that parted him from the woman he loved.

If Reine were but free, he might woo and win her. This man's life parted them. His death would set her free. The world would never know—even Reine need not be told—no one would suspect that his hands were crimsoned with the blood of a human life.

Waldemar Waldron gazed fearfully up into the white face bending over him, and read all the struggle there. The poor wretch groaned aloud.

The tempter cried: "He has wrecked and spoiled your life and Reine's. Let him die. Make for yourself a golden future." Honor and conscience cried out: "You must save a human life, no matter how painfully your lives have crossed."

"I will save you!" cried Chesleigh, hoarsely, "for Reine's sake. Make amends to her for the past, and I shall be repaid."

Waldemar Waldron was much too spent to utter the grateful words that sprang to his lips.

By main force Bernard Chesleigh succeeded in lowering him into the skiff, grasped the oars, and again the little boat, with its double burden, was breasting the mad waves.

They were scarcely out of danger's way a moment too soon, for the boat went down, dragging all within her reach into the whirlpool—down, down to the rocks full many a fathom below.

They reached the shore in safety. The excitement and the pain of the wound on the temple had been too much for Waldemar Waldron, and again he had succumbed to unconsciousness.

Chesleigh lifted the inanimate form in his strong arms and laid him on the beach, then hastened to secure his boat, which the high tide threatened to take out to sea with each high wave.

The rain had ceased, and the moon looked out clear and bright from the network of jagged clouds.

It seemed but an instant that Chesleigh had spent in securing his boat, but when he turned around, lo! no motionless form lay where he had placed it. The white-capped, eddying waves curled around the spot. Waldemar Waldron was not there!

Then the horrible truth burst upon him. The tide had carried its unconscious victim out to sea again. He had done his best to save Waldemar Waldron, but it seemed to be the will of Heaven that he should not be spared.

With hurried steps he regained the lighthouse, and found poor Reine suffering from hysterics, in charge of the lighthouse keeper's daughter. It would have brought tears of pity to any one's eyes to have heard the cry of joy as Bernard flung open the door and entered.

He did not tell her just then the startling revelation he had to make. She was too weak to bear such a shock.

Mrs. Woodstock was waiting for them at the hotel in the greatest alarm. "Safe!" she cried, clasping Reine in her arms. "I feared you were both at the bottom of the sea. I was sorry—so sorry that I consented to your going."

That night, when Reine lay sleeping the sleep of exhaustion upon her pillow, Bernard Chesleigh was relating to Mrs. Woodstock all that had transpired.

When he had finished the two sat looking earnestly into each other's eyes.

"You have proven yourself a noble foe," said Aunt Rachel, huskily grasping the other's hand. "You did what you could to save his life. Perhaps Heaven knew what was for the best when it interfered."

The terrible story that had so strange an ending was not told to Reine for many a long day after.

She was back in the old garden at Fairlawn when her aunt gently broke the news to her months later.

She did not cry out. She did not weep. She listened like one turned to stone.

"Waldemar was not kind to me, Aunt Rachel," she said, slowly. "Still I loved him once. I grieve that he met such an untimely fate. I can never look again on the hungry, sobbing sea, for I should see his face in the waves."

Yet even as she spoke she realized that his death had set her free. Yes, Heaven help her, she was free at last!

She would not be disloyal to Waldemar Waldron even in thought. She tried to think of him kindly and of his best, for his untimely death wiped out all the keen misery he had ever caused her.

How long she sat there among the blossoms she never knew. A step startled her at length a step that brought the warm blood to her cheek and a thrill to her heart for she knew it was Bernard's step. Before she could rise to meet him he had come forward and seated himself by her side, imprisoning the little white hand that lay on the rustic bench.

Her long, curling lashes were wet with tears, and he knew what brought them there.

"Let me teach you to forget, Reine," he said, gently. "The one gift I ask from Heaven is the right and power to comfort you, dear. Renew the promise you once made, Reine, and my happiness will be complete. Be my wife. No barrier stands between us. Give me the heart that should have been mine long ago."

She shrank from him in passionate tears.

"No, no," she cried, incoherently, "it can never be—never! I must be true to his memory nothing else would be right."

"Is this my reward for waiting for you all these weary years?" he exclaimed, bitterly.

"Be content as matters are now, Bernard," she said faintly, "everything is going on well."

He moved nearer her so that his hot breath scorched her cheek as he answered steadily:

"Would it satisfy you to live forever, like this? no nearer to me than you are now?"

It seemed to Reine his fiery eyes burned down into the very depths of her soul as he asked this huskily, murmuring "Oh, my love so cold and cruel!"

Reine shivered a little, her face paling.

"Oh, Bernard," she faltered, "why are you not content?"

"Why am I not content?" he interrogated passionately, and so bitterly that he quite frightened her. "Because I am not made of marble or ice; because I have a living, human heart pulsing in my bosom that longs for love returned a soul that cries out against this cruelty of being so near you, yet held off at arms' length. I love you so well that I must win you, or I must go from you. I have borne more than a man should bear. Do you think I never long to clasp your hands in mine—to hear you whisper tender words to me?"

"I do not know," she murmured.

"But I do know, Reine, and I can bear the torture no longer of being near you if there is no possibility of winning you."

Reine drew a long breath. How could she withstand his ardent pleading when her heart yearned for him so strongly! "Have you an answer for me, Reine?" he whispered.

"I am not worthy, Bernard," she faltered. "I once threw away your love. Would you—could you—trust me after that?"

For answer he raised the sweet face to his and kissed away the pearly tears, murmuring loving words over her.

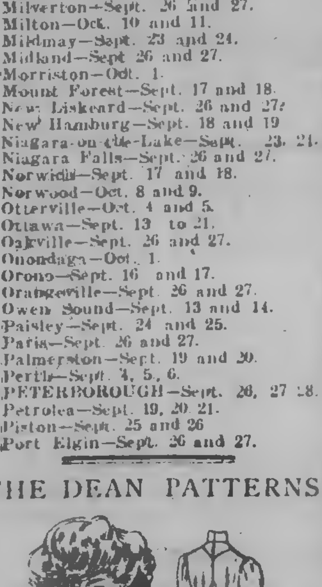
THE DEAN PATTERNS



6895—A WAIST OF NOVEL DESIGN

The fashion of trimming cloth or silk with lace has been reversed and now it is lace which forms the body of the prettiest waists and the material adorns it. Here is a waist showing the style very prettily, the waist proper being of figured net and the bolero of silk. The waist is very unique in style and wonderfully fetching. Long and short sleeves are provided for, the latter being the more attractive because of the natty little cuff band which finish them. Such a waist is smart in white cloth or pongee, and may be developed at home without difficulty. For the medium size 3 yards of 27 inch goods are needed for this waist and 1 1-8 yd. of 18 inch goods for the bolero.

6895—6 sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust measure.

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS
The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."
We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.
It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.

Closing Exercises of Conservatory

Elaborate Preparations Being Made for Thursday Night

In connection with the closing exercises of the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, which will take place on Thursday evening of this week, June 27, in the Grand Opera House, elaborate preparations are being made by the teachers in the various departments for the presentation of a pleasing and most representative programme. There will be selections by the orchestra, Madrigal Club, and Mandolin Club, as well as piano, vocal, violin solos, duetts and trios.

The admission has been placed at 25 cents for which sum seats may be reserved without extra charge. The admission fee has been made merely to cover the expense of engaging the opera house.

The programme will begin at 8.15 o'clock sharp and all should be in their seats by that time.

To-morrow Will be Circus Day

Large Number of Visitors Expected in City to See Forepaugh-Sells Show

The performance of the Forepaugh-Sells shows, announced for to-morrow afternoon and evening will, it is said, surpass in point of magnitude and excellence all previous achievements of this triple combination, embodying an amusement undertaking of a modern and colossal character, in keeping with the progressive spirit of the times. Among the principle features are: Mlle. Lanoque's fearless dash down a steep incline with her racing automobile, which in the course of the journey turns a complete somersault in mid air; the eight Dornallas, European acrobats, an exhibition of nerve, originality and inventive genius; Frederick Zobedie, the high-air sensation of Europe in his towering Eiffel stairway; the flying Fishers; the Four Fearless Lavands; the Navarro troupe of high wire experts; Ardell and Shriver in a novel elevated bar act; Cornella Trio amusing burlesque on horizontal bars; Pearl Forepaugh, aerial trapezist; Mamie Klein, wire cable dancer; Nettie Carroll, golden wire artiste; the Alvelons in exploits on double trapeze; Joseph LaFleur, in the high diving act; Captain Webb's two companies of acting seals and sea lions; the Stirk family in unique bicycle exploits; the eight Dollars in acrobatic novelties; Orrin and Victoria Davenport, Parisian equestrians; Oscar Lowanda, the world's champion bareback rider; May Davenport and W. F. Wallett, sensational equestrian act. More than usual attention has been paid to the organization of the company of clowns, which the management proposes to make a special feature of this season's performance.

"Fighting the Flames" will furnish material for the great spectacular feature requiring the services of more than one thousand people, on foot, in carriages, coupes and landaus, automobiles, carettes, carts and bicycles, all forming a life-like reproduction of a metropolitan avenue; the rushing patrol waggon and blue-coated policemen. To add to the interest of this spectacle there will be prize contests between rival fire companies, exciting hose company competitions, all the various devices for combating fire, together with the latest mechanical and electric appliances and apparatus for the imitation of smoke, steam, flames and other pyrotechnic stage effects. Forty special fire fighters have been picked from among the leading fire departments of the largest cities, men who have made national reputations in tourneys, and in actual fire and who wear medals for bravery and devotion to duty.

The Zoological department has been largely augmented. Forepaugh-Sells will make a special feature of their street parade tomorrow which will be held at 10 o'clock.

ST. JOHN'S DAY

To-day, June 24th, is the Festival of St. John, the Baptist, a red letter day in the Masonic calendar, when the craft lodges throughout the world meet in observance of this festival. There will be a regular communication of Corinthian and Peterborough Lodges A.F. & A.M., this evening in the Masonic hall.

CHARMING MUSKOKA

The Grand Trunk Railway System, the pioneer line to Muskoka, will continue to give its patrons the best of service and "Muskoka Wharf" will remain the principal gateway, being the headquarters of the Muskoka fleet of steamers.

The beautiful scenic trips from Toronto, skirting along the shores of Lake Simcoe and Couchiching, and around Kempenfeldt Bay, crossing the narrows at Orillia and Atherley Junction and the Severn River, make the route the only one to go.

Muskoka Wharf has been widened 20 feet and lengthened 100 feet, enabling four steamers to dock alongside the Grand Trunk expresses.

The trip up Lake Muskoka to Beaumaris, Little Pittsburg, among the islands and beautiful summer homes can be seen no other way, therefore, it is not unlikely the Grand Trunk will not be able to retain the patronage of its old customers.

Full information may be obtained at W. Bunton's, town agent; F. Sandy, Depot Agent; or write to J. D. McDonald, Union Station, Toronto, Ont.

Go to Idyl Wyld with the Young Men's Guild of St. Paul's church on Thursday afternoon. Return fare 50c, children 25c.

CHILDREN WILL SEE THE PARADE

The public school children will be given leave of absence to-morrow morning to enable them to see the circus parade. They must all be back at school in the afternoon or else there will be trouble in store for them. The children will no doubt appreciate the kindness of their teachers in letting them off and will govern themselves as requested.

Lightning Struck in Many Places in Saturday's Storm

Damage Done at Over Half a Dozen Places in the City--Charlotte Street Church Slightly Damaged--Where Lightning Strikes Twice--Transformers Blown Out.

Peterborough was visited by another severe electric storm on Saturday afternoon, and damage to a considerable extent was done. The lightning struck in several places, but fortunately no serious fires occurred, although there were several minor blazes. The lightning and thunder were accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain, and the wind flew at a cyclone rate for some time. The lightning struck several industrial establishments and private houses in the city, while the Peterborough Light & Power Company had several transformers burned out, and as a result several houses were without electric light Saturday and last night. Charlotte street church was among the places struck. It was the worst storm of the season, the lightning striking in at least half a dozen places in Peterborough and vicinity.

The city streets were flooded with water while the downpour lasted, but, as far as can be learned no cellars were flooded, or other damage done from this source.

A peculiar fact about the rain-storm on Saturday was that the fall of rain was similar to that of the big storm on Wednesday. According to the government register, the precipitation of moisture was .56 inches, the same as recorded on Wednesday. Yesterday's rainfall was .24 inches.

Lightning's Havoc at Aylmer St. House

Mr. John Jameson's residence, at 85 Aylmer street, was one place where the lightning played havoc. During the storm the lightning hit the rear chimney on the house, and knocked several bricks out of it. The fluid then went down the chimney along the wall, tearing paper and plaster off, down to a bedroom where a large mirror in a dressing room was smashed into a thousand pieces. The fluid must have got out through the wall, as there was a large hole torn in it. The fluid never went downstairs. The occupants of the house were not at all shocked and were fortunate in escaping uninjured.

Country Bridges Were Washed Away

The heavy downpour of rain which accompanied the electric storm was also effective in doing some damage. The bridge spanning the creek which runs through the 12th concession of North Monaghan was washed away, the creek rising very quickly. The farmers who were in the city on Saturday, and who always travel by this bridge, were forced to go home by a different route. There is also a small creek running through the farm of Mr. G. W. Webber in North Monaghan, and it also overflowed, flooding his property. A small bridge across this creek was also swept away, and Mr. F. Webber stated to the Review that the fences of the farms along the creek were to be seen floating down the stream.

Charlotte Street Church Damaged

During the fierce electric storm on Saturday afternoon a particularly vivid flash of lightning struck the tower on the northwest side of the Sunday school room of the Charlotte street Methodist church. The ridge board was shivered and some shingles scattered in all directions. The damage will amount to only a few dollars. The Sunday school building certainly had a close call, and it is fortunate that the edifice did not.

Made Noise Like a Giant Firecracker

Another place where the lightning played jinks was at the residence of Mr. E. G. Patterson, 415 Rubidge street. The electric current apparently came in contact with the electric light wire leading to the house, for it seemed to follow the wires in going through the residence. The electric lights on the verandah were put out of business, and also those in the bath room. The interior of the bath room was singed by fire, but fortunately no great damage was done. The flash seemed to wind up its career in the cellar, where it disappeared with a noise like the exploding of a giant firecracker.

It all happened within a few seconds, and the occupants of the house were greatly alarmed.

Transformer Blew Out at Matthews

Had not prompt measures been taken a serious fire would have likely occurred at the premises of the Geo. Matthews Co. The transformer, which is used in connection with the motor, and which is situated inside the building, was blown out, and a fire started, but no time was lost in turning a stream of water upon the blaze, and it was extinguished before any damage was done. There was a loud report when the transformer blew out, and the men working in the vicinity were temporarily stunned by the shock.

Lightning Struck Twice at This House

An evidence that lightning strikes twice was furnished by Saturday's storm. A year ago the electric fluid entered the chimney of Mr. Leslie's house at 401 Smith street, and gave the occupants of the residence a bad scare. On Saturday the lightning struck the same chimney and demolished it. The bricks were scattered around, and the shock greatly frightened the people in the house and those living in the immediate vicinity.

No Damage Done at Two Country Points

The storm area was apparently not large and the city suffered more than the surrounding country. At Springville there were only a few drops of rain fell and there was very little lightning and thunder. A heavy storm, however, passed over the country about a mile east of Springville.

At Douro post office, there was only a sprinkling of rain and no damage was done by lightning and thunder.

RAINS CAUSED MANY WASHOUTS

The heavy rain Saturday afternoon caused several bad washouts in the sewers. At the corner of Stewart and London streets, the danger was the greatest. A hole was caused three feet deep and about fifteen feet long. Street Commissioner Evans heard of it Saturday evening and put up a barricade and light and this morning had two or three loads of material dumped into it. This sewer was part of Mr. Sheehy's contract.

At Barnardo avenue, the sewer which was laid by Contractor Hays, also caved in. It has been filled up. Then on Sherbrooke street, where Mr. William White is superintending the sewer work, sewer washouts were caused and Mr. White had a lot of filling to do. This, however, as in all cases was merely the sewer settling, and was a good thing for the sewers.

TRANSFORMERS AND FUSES BURNED OUT

The Peterborough Light & Power Company suffered considerable damage from the storm. Two transformers and a large number of fuses were burned out, putting the electric lights out of order, and in several places a number of houses were without electric light Saturday night and last night, but repairs have now been made and everything is running smoothly again.

The Otonabee Power Company escaped without damage.

The Bell Telephone Company, or at least some of their subscribers, were inconvenienced by the storm. Several telephones were put out of working order but they were repaired as quickly as possible and everything is in working order today.

Ancient Foresters at Knox Church

Rev. H. J. Keith Admonishes Them to Cling to Christ

To avoid the so-called friends that lead one away into things that tend to destroy one's vitality, and to cling to Jesus Christ, as their inspiration, was the advice given by Rev. H. J. Keith, to the members of Court Stanley, No. 7680, A. O. F., on the occasion of their annual church parade to Knox Presbyterian church last evening.

In spite of the threatening weather there was a very large representation of the brethren present, and as the members of the congregation turned out in large numbers the accommodation of the church was taxed to its utmost.

Rev. Mr. Keith delivered a brief, but eloquent and forcible sermon, in which the principles of the Order present, were referred to and endorsed.

The text chosen was from Proverbs 18:24.—"There is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." In beginning the speaker referred to the fact that people were coming to understand that certain obligations rested upon them to help their fellow-man, as long as help was needed. He pointed out that people were dependent upon each other even for their food and clothing, and each must help the other, in view of the obligation laid upon everyone. Speaking of other obligations, the speaker believed that the time was not far distant when the compulsory use of the ballot and assistance in governing the country, would be in force, and those who did not fulfill their obligations along this line would be punished. Reference was made to the changes in this direction that were being brought about. In these days the people were held responsible for the evils in political life.

Passing on the speaker proceeded to warn his hearers against the wrong kind of friends. He spoke of the "hail fellow well met," who sought friends not for his own good, but for his own unselfish ends, leading them to idle away their lives in useless pastimes, that would destroy their vitality. When hardship comes upon one, where are these so called friends, the speaker asked?

People should be banded together in the higher ideals of life, seeking to help each other and act towards each other as Damon and Pythias or David and Jonathan.

They should have an inspiration to guide them in their efforts, and the speaker referred them to Jesus Christ, who would be a friend whose patience could never be worn out and who would be always ready to extend sympathy.

The choir rendered two anthems, "Now the Day is Ending," and "Forever With the Lord," in a finished and effective manner, and Mr. Duncan Campbell sang a solo in excellent voice.

Peterborough College of Music

Closing Exercises on June 26th Will Produce Some Splendid Talent

Closing exercises of the Peterborough College of Music in union with the National College of Music, London, Eng. Mrs. W. J. Morrow, F.N. C.M., principal, takes place in St. Peter's hall, Wednesday evening, June 26. Jackson Park car will let you off at the corner of Brock and George streets near the hall. Liza Lehmann's "Daisy Chain," will be given for the first time in Peterborough by local talent. It was given a short time ago, by the Watkin Mills English Concert Company.

The following pupils will present it,—Mrs. Archer, Miss Hallighan, Mr. Morphet and Mr. King. Hear it and criticize your local talent and compare it with the European teachers, as you have in your midst some of the finest vocal talent in Canada.

Plan open at Lynch's drug store.

Colonial Weaving Company Outing

Employees and Friends Spent Pleasant Day up the Lakes

The management and employees of the Colonial Weaving Co., and their friends to the number of about 160, enjoyed every minute of the time spent on their annual trip Saturday, taking the 8.30 G.T.R. train to Lakefield and steamer Stoney Lake to Juniper Island.

Music was furnished by Paul Tinklewinkle, a very fine violin soloist, accompanied on the guitar and mandolin by Jos. P. Zepp, Supt. of the company, and mouth organ by Mr. Maher. Mr. Gill rendered several fine songs and Master Joe Clancy also contributed songs which delighted the gathering.

Some enjoyed themselves boating and fishing, while others enjoyed dancing in the pavilion till the party were called for by the steamer for the return trip. Some very flattering remarks were passed by gentlemen on board regarding the very fine badge which was designed and woven at their mills, stating that they were surprised to see such beautiful work executed in Canada, and spoke very highly of the behaviour and apparent intelligence of the gathering.

Those on the committee were Jos. P. Zepp, Howard Clegg, W. Distin, Harry Zepp and M. Clancy, and they did everything in their power to make the outing one of great pleasure to all.

Bids have been accepted by the American navy for the construction of two battleships of the Dreadnought type.

North Monaghan Farmers Had Unpleasant Experience

Land Flooded to Depth of Several Feet--Fences Washed Away--Farmers Forced to Swim to Rescue Their Stock.

The heavy rains of Saturday afternoon certainly wrought great havoc with the farms of North Monaghan. The creek that runs through Monaghan, cuts several farms, and they were all more or less effected and the damage to some will be considerable. The heavy rains swelled the creek and flooded the land, to a depth of several feet. It was indeed amusing to see the farmers going through the water to save their fences and their cattle.

The flood began at Mr. Jos. Green's farm, and from there right down the creek to the C.P.R. track. Mr. Green's fence was taken down the stream and the culvert crossing, Mr. Geo. Webber's farm was washed away. He was forced to enter his house by another route. He considers the damage done to his place will be about $100.

Mr. Jas. Bestard's farm, which is also near the creek, suffered as well. His cattle were a source of trouble to him, and they were very nearly drowned. Mr. Bestard's son had to swim in over five feet of water to save the cattle. Their fence was also washed away.

Mr. J. Little had to make a raft to go after his cattle, and Mr. O. Carver came very near losing a valuable horse. Mr. Carver had to swim after it and had a difficult time. His potatoes were all washed out of the ground and today they are to be seen along the road.

Mr. Sam. Carver's chimney was struck by lightning and the people in the kitchen of the house, received a terrible shock.

Mr. M. Succee probably suffered the most from the flood. His house is low and it was almost completely submerged. The occupants were forced to move upstairs as the lower part was swamped.

Below Mr. Succee's farm the C. P. R. main line passes, and part of it was also washed away. Before a train could pass, four carloads of gravel had to be brought to fill up the part washed out.

The farmers today are all busily engaged cleaning up, and they are at a loss to tell to whom the different poles of the fences belong. It was amusing to see the active part the ladies took in rescuing the fences and other articles from the flood.

Mrs. D. H. Moore and Miss M. Lillian Moore left today for Gananoque, where they will attend the marriage of Miss Jessie Wilson of that town to Mr. Cecil Sherin, of Pelican Rapids, Min., formerly of Peterborough. The wedding will take place on Wednesday, June 26.

TELEPHONE MEN HAVE AN OUTING

One of the jolliest parties that has gone up the lakes this year was the telephone bunch. There were only five in the party, but they were all good sports, and they know how to appreciate a good outing. They were Mr. J. Grant Cornell, of Montreal, head of the purchasing department; Mr. W. J. Carmichael, of Montreal, superintendent of buildings; Mr. A. T. Smith, Toronto, district superintendent; Mr. F. W. Dean, manager of the local branch, and Mr. J. S. Knapman, purchaser of poles. They all spent Friday night, Saturday and Sunday at Mr. Knapman's cottage, "Forest Home," Stony Lake, and the host made a great name for himself. The object of the trip was to breathe pure cool air for a couple of days, have a little fish, and to enjoy the privilege of cooking their own meals. The latter was a feature of the trip, and the men swore each other to secrecy for fear that their wives would find out and make them do the cooking during the hot weather. But there is no use talking, no woman can cook a bass like a man who has a frying pan, a wood fire and a piece of fat pork.

The fishing was good all the time they were out, and besides eating about twenty while in camp, they brought several home with them.

MOONLIGHT TONIGHT.

The moonlight excursion of St. Luke's Young Men's Guild, which was postponed from last Wednesday night, will take place down the river this evening on the steamer Otonabee.

CIRCUS DAY TOMORROW.

The Forepaugh-Sells Bros.' circus, which is showing in Toronto today, will be in Peterborough tomorrow. The big street parade will take place at ten o'clock in the morning and a large number of visitors are expected in the city.

HORSESHOERSS HOLIDAY.

The blacksmiths of the city will close their shops tomorrow, as it is the annual holiday of the Master Horseshoers. Once a year all the men lay off work and enjoy a holiday, away from the anvil and the forge.

STUCK AT CROSSING.

This morning a team of horses drawing a heavy load got stuck at the corner of Dublin and George sts where a gang of men were engaged in laying a new crossing. It took quite a while for the team, with the assistance of all the men to pull the waggon out.

BUSY HARBOR SCENE.

The Cobourg Star says,—The work at the harbor has been going along lively. The dredge has been doing grand work, being powerful and able to get through a lot of work in a day. In addition to the pile driver which has been at work another has been added and a lot of able-bodied men are engaged unloading large timbers and logs for the piles. It is a busy time, and when the ferry boat arrives no doubt all will be ready for her to do business.

Come with St. Luke's Men's Guild on their moonlight excursion to-night per steamer Otonabee. Boat leaves Wolfe street wharf 8 o'clock. Tickets 25 cents.

KEEP YOUL DOORS LOCKED TO-MORROW

As It Will be Circus Day and Crooks May be in the City.

To-morrow is circus day and there will no doubt be crowds of people in the city. There are always a number of pickpockets and robbers who follow the circus. Every circus day one hears of persons being robbed of their purses of other valuables. It would be a wise thing for people not to carry any more money than they actually need, to-morrow. Chief Rossel also issues a warning to the residents of the city to keep their doors all locked to-morrow as there is sure to be some smart alecks around.

WERE SWIMMING IN PUBLIC PLACE

There was a small docket at the police court this morning. A young man was fined two dollars for being drunk and disorderly on Saturday last which he paid forthwith.

Evidently the police are still chasing up the negligent dog owners. Jacob Isbister has not got his dog tag yet and this morning was fined two dollars and costs, amounting to $4.00, and he is liable to a like fine every day until the tag is procured.

A number of names of young fellows who were in swimming in a public place yesterday were taken and they will likely appear in police court some of these days.

Rev. Mr. Langfeldt Had Leg Injured

Met With Painful Accident While on Visit to Orillia

While visiting in Orillia on Saturday, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt met with an accident. He was ascending a flight of steps leading to the veranda at the summer residence of Mr. J. J. Hatley, father of Mrs. Langfeldt, on Cedar Island, when the steps gave way and he fell to the ground a distance of some four or five feet, with the result that his leg was badly wrenched at the knee. The injury caused the rector of St. Luke's church considerable pain. He returned to the city on Saturday evening. The mishap will necessitate him walking with a cane for some time.

FLOWER SUNDAY AT GEORGE STREET

"Flower Sunday" will be observed at George Street Methodist Church next Sunday morning and this service promises to be an exceptionally interesting nature. The children of George Street and Grace Church Sundays Schools will assemble in the Sunday school room at 10.30, and each carrying a bouquet of flowers, will march into the church, where the central section of seats will be reserved for them. An appropriate sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Crothers and the hymns sung will be suitable for the occasion.

The Epworth League Society will hold a "Literary Evening" tonight and an unusually interesting programme has been prepared. Tennysons' works will be the subject and it will be dealt with by Mrs. R. F. McWilliams. Two of Tennyson's most beautiful poems, "Crossing the Bar," and "Sweet and Low," will be sung, the former as a solo, by Miss Howell, and the latter as a duet by Misses Parnell and Sperry. A recitation from Tennyson's works by Miss Hill will be another feature of the evening. Altogether a most enjoyable and profitable time is assured for those who attend.

The regular prayer service will be held on Wednesday evening.

Rev. Dr. Crothers will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday evening.

On Friday, June 28th, the Steamer Stoney Lake will leave Lakefield on the arrival of the noon train from Peterborough and proceed at once to the Lakes.

Eye Was Almost Gouged Out; Peterboro' Gunner Attacked

Gunner Cooper Brutally Assailed and Comrade Lodged in Guard Room--Attack Apparently Intended to Revenge Assault by Injured Man Upon Sergt. Major Fee.

"The sequel of a terrible accident occurred here, when Gunner Cooper, of the 24th Peterborough Battery, was way-laid by a number of men at the camp canteen and one of his eyes nearly gouged out. It was a case of revenge and a gunner named Poole is in the guard house pending an investigation.

The quarrel started on the train from Toronto. Cooper had been drinking and when ordered out by Sergt Major Fee, struck back at him, but put his fist through a window, showering the particles of glass upon Fee. The latter fell to the ground, writhing in pain. He was cared for by the medical officer, while Gunner Cooper was placed under guard. When Tweed was reached it was found necessary to send the injured man back to Toronto for treatment.

Cooper, when brought up for trial pleaded that the assault was not intended, and was let free. It now seems as if he has paid dearly for his rash attack, with chances of receiving further punishment.

Fee is an old member of the R.C.H.A., and it is thought that some of his old comrades may have revenged him.

AN ACCIDENT

While wrestling with a friend, Sergeant-Major McAllister, of the 24th Peterborough Battery, had the misfortune to severely sprain his ankle. He had got his leg interlocked with the friend's leg and both fell. He is now in the hospital, but expects to be out in a short time."

Ald. Elliott Fully Explains Provisions of Garbage By-law

Maintains That the Only Fair and Equitable Means of Paying for the Service is by an Assessment of 7-10 Mills on the Dollar Which Will Include All Expense--The Rich and the Poor Will Then Pay on an Even Basis--By-law by all Means Should go to the People.

To the Editor of the Review

Sir, Before further action is taken on the garbage by-law, I think the general public should be thoroughly informed regarding the two propositions that were submitted to Council by the Committee who had the by-law in charge for raising the necessary funds to carry out the system. I believe every citizen of Peterborough wishes to see the city kept in a cleanly and sanitary condition, at the smallest cost possible. The idea of the committee was to remove the garbage, ashes and in fact, refuse of all kinds, from the premises of the citizens once a week [illegible] private houses and business places, regularly and systematically, not to cost the ratepayer any more than he is paying at present, with our once a year cleaning up process. We found, by communicating with other places, who have a system, what this would cost our city with a population of 17,000. The most fair way was to find how many private houses, business houses, hotels, factories, and [illegible] every kind of a place that required the services of a scavenger, then try to levy a rate that we thought would be equitable to all parties. The first proposition was to charge each householder 15 cents per month for our weekly service, which is $1.80 per year to everybody. Business places or other places requiring service two or three times per week were charged on the same proportion per visit. These fees will raise the amount necessary to carry out the system successfully, but it is not equitable to all.

The other proposition is to place 7-10 of a mill on the dollar, which works out this way: For instance, there are hundreds of small houses in Peterborough whose assessment values are from $500 to $1,000. Now, a house valued at $500, assessed in this way for this purpose would cost 35 cents per year. A house at $700 would cost 49 cents; a house at $1,000 costs 70 cents; a house at $1,500 would cost $1.05; $2,000 house cost $1.40, and so on all the way up. I submit, Mr. Editor, that it would not be just and equitable that these hundreds of small houses should be charged the same price for services of scavenging as the owners of handsome residences whose assessed values are from $3,000 to $5,000, and who burn from 12 to 20 tons of coal each year.

These fine residences would be taxed from $2.00 to $3.50 per year for this purpose, and it is certainly worth it. This plan will raise the necessary funds to carry out the system, and I may add [illegible] I am convinced, and I believe the majority of the Council hold the same opinion, the only proper course is to submit the by-law to the people for their approval or otherwise. As an expression of opinion which of the systems of payment is more desirable.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space,

I remain,

GEO. E. ELLIOTT,

Peterborough, June 24th, 1907.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country, than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Church Parade of the Woodmen

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt Delivered Stirring Address to the Visitors

About seventy-five members of Sherwood Forest Camp No. 50, W.O.W., marshalled by Woodman W. J. Johnston, paraded to St. Luke's church last evening where the annual service was held.

There was a large congregation in attendance, and the members of the Order joined heartily in the singing of the hymns and reciting the responses. This is the second year St. Luke's has been chosen for the annual church service of the local Woodmen, which is an evidence of the popularity of Rev. Mr. Langfeldt with them.

The sermon preached last night by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt was an earnest one and contained much valuable advice for a benevolent society. This eloquent sermon was based on the words found in the 33rd verse of the 6th Chapter of St. Matthew;—"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all things will be added unto you."

In the speaker's opening remarks he extended a hearty welcome to the visiting brethren. He wished to speak to them on some practical questions on the principles of the gospel as practiced in daily life. There is often confusion in the order of right things.

"We are expressly told," said the speaker, "that 'the last shall be first, and the first shall be last.' The greatest purpose of Divine truth is to show which will be first and which will be last. What man is accustomed to put forth first will be last. No observant mind can take a casual walk into any part of society and fail to see the necessity of this readjustment for the general mind. Take into consideration the promise to those who will make religion their first object of life. Their only motive must be the glory of God. 'Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all things will be added unto you and all things will be added unto you,' are the words of the text. There are men who are religious from a temporal standpoint. Their first thought is "Does it pay to be religious?' They are not filling the condition of the text. Such a man is not in earnest about his soul. A man following the command of the text will succeed and his religion will make him eager for success in his daily work. God does not promise richness or prominence.

"There are three instances the text may be applied to. First, to a young man entering upon his life's work. Success shines in his way and everything looks bright for him in worldly affairs, but the claims of God direct him to some work for the Master, probably in the mission field. Let him follow the command of the text, and all other things will be added unto him.

"Then in the ordinary life. This text appeals strongly to the busy man. He has little time for religious duties. Let him take care of his soul and he will never regret his determination. He may have a friendship which is dear to him, yet a snare to his soul. Let him forsake it. Thirdly, in these days of competition, men do things dishonest to keep up with others. To these the text belongs."

Continuing the speaker said; "Let God's will rule. Seek it in your difficulties. Whatever your engagement may be the duties of God have a higher claim and attend to them first.

"In every matter there are thousands of things to enslave the soul but you have God for your help. It matters not whether people believe in eternal things, the truth still exists. Remember the Kingdom you have around you in God's church and the kingdom coming. You must have a religion wrought by faith and evidenced by love."

In conclusion the speaker referred to the motive of the Society, viz., the supporting of those in need. Seek not the glory of your Order, but the glory of God, and in the voyage of life steer for the high things and the mind's best intelligence.

After the sermon, Miss Ruth Dawson sang, "I am a Pilgrim," in her usual excellent manner.

The Society marched back to their hall, where a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Langfeldt for his excellent sermon, and the congregation for giving up their pews and to the choir for their excellent singing.

Improvements to Charlotte St.

Rubbish Pile Being Removed—Low Land Nearly Filled in

Those people who have not visited what is sometimes called a goose pond, sometimes the gully, at the foot of Charlotte street, for some time will hardly know it now. Last year the city undertook the work of filling in the gully and this year the Board of Works is continuing the good work. Contractor Mahoney has deposited a lot of stuff on the low land and in a few more days all that property will be completely filled in to a point just south of Charlotte-st. and about two or three acres of land that was for many years of absolutely no use except as a breeding place for mosquitoes, frogs, etc., will have been converted into an ideal spot for a large manufacturing concern, or for a big warehouse or flour mill.

As yet the Board of Works has not decided whether it will fill in further south or raise that already filled in a couple of feet. Before the dredge has completed its work in the river there will be enough material to do both, viz., to fill in the whole of the low land and to raise it a couple of feet higher as there will be much heavy digging before the turning basin is completed.

That unsightly pile of garbage, ashes, street scrapings, etc., is being cut down and a big improvement is being made. When that work is completed and those few willow trees are removed a most beautiful view of the river, Eaglesburn park and the western boundry of Ashburnham will be had. The Board of Works deserves great credit for having that unsightly pile of rubbish removed.

Week End Notes About the Boats

Saturday's Rain Spoiled Many Pleasant Trips—Many Boats in the Evening

The electric storm Saturday afternoon was a great disappointment to a large number of citizens. Many little excursions down the river had been planned for that day. Every boat at the Otonabee boat house had been ordered, and nearly every private canoe and skiff in the city was all ready to be shoved into the water, while hundreds of lunch baskets had been packed by young ladies in the morning ready for the picnic on the green, soft banks of the Otonabee. All the power launches had been billed to take small parties out for a spin, while a good crowd had intended patronizing the steamer Otonabee, which was scheduled to make her first regular trip to Idy. Wyld and return. The new boat was to have left the Street railway wharf at half-past one o'clock, but it was very late in getting up from the lake, and then the heavy storm coming up, the trip was cancelled.

Had the rain stayed off there would have been at least a thousand people on the water between the city and Rice Lake, and many happy hours would have been spent. As it was, a large number went down between three and four o'clock, some to spend the evening, and some to stay until Sunday night.

The Rob Roy, with Capt. Roy in charge, took down some of the C.G.E. Angling Club boys to their new cottage, and several other members got a tow from the Monarch. The party had four or five canoes with them to paddle around in on Sunday and to bring them back home.

Mr. W. E. Talbot's yacht "Grenette," went down to the grove with a jolly party, and the week end was spent in a tent under the handsome pines of that favorite resort.

The Eko Camp boys also were out for a spin and had a good time. Their staunch yacht is running better than ever this year and they are enjoying many trips on the Otonabee.

The Otonabee boathouse had a very narrow escape from being destroyed by lightning during Saturday's storm, and Mr. Rye also had a close call. He and his assistant were upstairs working when the lightning came in on the wires and cracked and flashed around for a second or two, and went out through a window. A few minutes afterwards another flash, much stronger than the first came in, and for a short time the two men were stunned. In speaking of it afterwards Mr. Rye said that he never felt so much regret for his past life before, as he did then. He has had many narrow escapes, but he never truly realized what it was to be on the brink looking into the future. Fortunately no damage was done.

A large number of young people spent Sunday on the river. They went down in small boats and launches, but those who started out in the morning got a good wetting, but as the majority of them were not dressed in their Sunday best, it made very little difference. Except for the couple of hours that it rained, the day was very pleasant and greatly enjoyed.

Cressman's Store Entered by Boys

Were Discovered by One of the Clerks—Youngest Was 7 and the Oldest Only 15 Years

Three young gaffers, who have a past that is not at all enviable were caught red handed yesterday afternoon in Mr. A. W. Cressman's store. The lads, in age, were about seven years, nine years and fifteen years, but in experience are much older. Sunday afternoon between three and four o'clock one of the members of Mr. Cressman's staff, went into the store and was surprised to hear someone moving about. He went cautiously to where the noise apparently came from and was further surprised to find the three boys. One of the little chaps tried to make out the first window and over the awning to the sidewalk, but he was prevented by another member of Mr. Cressman's staff, who was waiting at the front door. The names of all three boys were taken and handed to the police who have been looking for them on another charge. As far as Mr. Cressman is concerned he will take no action, but the probability is the police will have the boys up before the magistrate.

What the little gaffers were after, is hard to say, unless it was to get a few coppers that might have been left in the cashier's box. They were such youngsters that it seems impossible for them to be regular thieves. If such they are they should be sent to the reformatory and the parents severely punished for negligence in bringing the boys up. The attempted robbery was a bold one and was worthy of more experienced persons. An entrance was gained by climbing to the roof of the new addition at the back, and down to the second floor. After that was accomplished the store was all open and everything looked rosy until the clerk entered the front door.

Mr. Cressman said that nothing was taken from the store, and he was much grieved to see the little fellows in such a sad position. There is a night watchman on duty every night, and in future there will be a man on duty on Sundays and holidays.

CARTERS MUST USE THE SHELTER

Chairman of the Property Committee Will Instruct the Police to Act

The carters' shelter just east of the National hotel has been completed, said Ald. McIntyre, chairman of the Property committee, to the Review, on Saturday. It has been ready for several days and as yet the carters have not used it. What the reason is cannot be guessed. The carters requested in a most emphatic manner that they be furnished with a suitable place in which to stand when they were not engaged. They put up a great cry about having to stand out in the cold of winter and the boiling sun of summer.

The sympathetic ear of Ald. McIntyre was gained and he fought in the Council until he got authority to spend considerable money in fitting the place up. The city has done its share and it is now up to the carters to keep off the streets when they have nothing to do. Ald McIntyre says he has warned the men, but they have paid no attention to him, and every day half a dozen or more waggons are lined up along Simcoe street just west of George. The chairman of the Property committee says that if the carters do not keep off the streets and use the shelter he will inform the police and have the guilty parties in the police court. There is no excuse for having the streets blocked and the sooner the police are instructed to enforce the by-law the better.

The carters do not want to use the shelter because the city has not put a telephone in it for them. The Council was requested to put in a telephone, but the aldermen thought the men could do that much for themselves. Every other business man, or private individual who wants a telephone has to pay for it. Such a request from the carters is, said one alderman, a piece of impertinence. The next thing they will want us to do will be to keep a man at the shelter to care for their horses.

G.T.R. Magnates Visit the City

Mr. Charles M. Hayes and Party on Tour of Inspection

A private train arrived in the city about 10.30 o'clock on Saturday morning containing several G. T. R. magnates.

Among those on board were Chas. M. Hayes, 2nd Vice-President and General Manager of the road; W. D. Brownlee, General Transportation Manager; W. R. Tiffin, superintendent of the Northern Division; J. W. Loud, General Freight Agent, and Chas. F. Dewey, District Freight Agent; J. Irwin, G.T.R. Trainmaster, Lindsay, and others. The distinguished company went over the G.T.R. line to Lakefield, and return on a tour of inspection. On their way back, they stopped here for a few minutes surveying the yard and station, appointments.

PARTY IS ACTIVE

Whether the Federal elections come on this fall, or whether they do not, the Conservative party is ready for the fray. No stone is being left unturned to meet the situation and end the reign of graft, corruption and scandal at Ottawa.

Mr. Borden has been very active and during the past week held important conferences in Montreal and Toronto. Most encouraging reports were received. The organization in all the provinces is being perfected, and, when the fray is on, the grand old party will be fully prepared. Mr J. S Carstairs, secretary of the Dominion Liberal - Conservative Association for Ontario, is an active, aggressive gentleman, and is fully convinced that the Conservatives will more than hold their own in the next contest.

One gratifying feature is that most of the members have either accepted nomination again, or will do so showing the confidence and assurance which exists in the ranks of the Conservatives.

But before Sir Wilfrid Laurier brings on the election, he has a little party patching up to do, and good Grit cabinet material is reported pretty scarce. Some one has to take Hon. C. S. Hyman's place as Minister of Public Works, as that gentleman, like Mr. Emmerson, late of the Railways and Canals Department, is down and out. Where are suitable men to come from, and what positions will they fill? The matter of getting together a Cabinet with so many claimants for preferment and so little sound timber, to put into the structure, is causing the Grits much more anxiety than is the date of the election to the Conservatives, who are encouraged by reports from all the constituencies. Judging by the enthusiasm and unanimity, which characterized the recent conferences, the party will enter the campaign with vigor, when ever the government sees fit to order an election and take the cold plunge.

Come on Sir Wilfrid, with your dark record, unparalleled extravagance and disjointed Cabint. The Conservatives are only too happy and too ready to give you fight.

BUILDING PERMITS

The system of issuing building permits, which was inaugurated this year, has so far worked admirably and has met with but little opposition.

The total value of the structures now under way is nearly $600,000 and it is probable, before the season is over, that the outlay will reach $1,000,000, which will establish a record. Some large structures are yet to be erected. There is the new Roman Catholic church on Romaine street, which will cost fully $50,000, and the new Baptist church on Park street, which will mean an expenditure of $15,000 or $20,000, as well as the new factory of the Colonial Weaving Company. Besides these a large number of private dwellings and one or two big business blocks are on the way.

It is true that one or two contractors have condemned the publication of permits because the figures as to the estimated cost of the buildings were, they said, known to everybody. But in every city in Canada where the system of issuing permits is in vogue, the figures are published and furnish a great deal of reliable, useful information as well as affording comparisons with previous years. These records are the best possible tests as to whether a place is going ahead or standing still. Gratifying to relate is the news from nearly every city in the Dominion that this is a banner year in the building line.

A prominent contractor stated today that although a great many private residences were erected in Peterborough last year he was certain that there were as many dwellings going up this year; and besides there were large structures like the collegiate institute, the armouries, normal school, extension to north ward school and others of an imposing character which demonstrate that Peterborough is still forging ahead and at the conclusion of 1907 will show a record in structural operations and extensions that will open the eyes of some persons who, perhaps, think things are being a little bit overdone in the building line.

PEN POINTS.

Circus day tomorrow!

If you want to be a June bridegroom, you will have to hurry up.

The rain—never was it so welcome. It will atone in a measure for the cold weather and backward spring.

It's strange that certain local anglers are modest about showing their catches, but they can talk about them for hours.

Great will be the crowd in the city tomorrow to see the circus. Many a father will have to come to Peterborough just to "take the children to the show."

The majority of the ministers are cutting their sermons short, and still some people will not go to church in hot weather. The weather merely serves as a convenient, plausible excuse; they would not go any way.

It's pretty near time that the Royal Humane Society took up the question of providing a hero medal for Hon. H. R. Emmerson for his gallantry in accompanying those ladies from a Montreal hotel after midnight.

A decision of some interest to hotel keepers and their guests was rendered in the Toronto courts the other day, in a suit against the proprietor of the St. Charles' restaurant. Mr. W. D. Greer, a guest while at dinner in the private dining room had a valuable fur-trimmed overcoat and Persian Lamb cap stolen from the rack outside the room. The hotel keeper produced a menu card which had a notice at the bottom that no responsibility was assumed by the management for the property of guests, but the judge held that the fact that racks were provided, constituted an invitation to use them, and for articles placed thereon the management was responsible. Damages of $40 were given.

Amusing Incidents on Account of Notices About Water to be Turned Off

Notices appeared in the evening papers on Saturday that the city water would be shut off from seven to nine o'clock Sunday morning on account of some repairs being made to a hydrant near Auburn. However, the water was not turned off at all and some amusing incidents are reported as a result.

A local member of the legal profession who usually rises about ten o'clock on Sunday morning arose yesterday about six in order that he might have a bath and perform his usual ablutions before the water would be turned off at seven. When he discovered that the water was not turned off at all he was highly indignant that he should have been deprived out of four hours sleep and is talking of entering an action against the city for loss of sleep and other inconvenience caused him.

Another gentleman who is also a late riser on Sunday, left his downy couch before seven o'clock yesterday morning in order that he might repair a water tap while the water was turned off. The tap had been out of order for some time and he was thankful for the opportunity he was going to have for fixing it. But, alas, he was also greatly deceived. He waited and waited for the water to be turned off until he fell asleep sitting beside the tap.

Famous Hockey Player Was Killed While Diving Off Dock

Struck On Jagged Rocks and Broke His Neck—Police Magistrate Morden Drowned At Pincher Creek—Bargeman Falls Over Board—Ottawa Boy Saves Companion—London Boy Sinks While Bathing.

"Hod" had his swimming suit and set out for a swim to the lighthouse, about a quarter of a mile away, while his companions waited for him.

He reached the lighthouse all right, and climbed up on the platform which surrounds it, and which is about five feet above the water. There he rested a minute or two, and was then seen to dive into the water. The watchers waited for him to come up, but waited in vain.

After a few minutes they became alarmed, ran for a boat and rowed to the lighthouse, where the body of poor "Hod" was found, lying on the bottom in two feet of water. He had dived head first on a lot of jagged rocks.

There was a terrible gash in his head, and his neck was broken. The body was taken across to the Rathbun dock, and Coroner Yeomans was notified.

After viewing the body and hearing the stories of the men who had been in Stuart's company, he decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

BOY DROWNS.

London, June 24.—George Paxman, a 12-year-old lad, was drowned in the south branch of the river, about three miles from the city. In company with his brother and two other boys, he went bathing and attempted to swim across the river, although a poor swimmer.

Gordon Hek Erskine attempted to save him and was pulled under by the drowning boy and almost lost his life before he could release himself.

Magistrate Drowns.

Pincher Creek, Alta., June 24.—A. M. Morden, police magistrate here, was drowned on Saturday in Pincher Creek.

Deckhand Was Drowned.

Kingston, Ont., June 24.—Honore Rosseau of Montreal, a deckhand on the barge Montreal, fell overboard on Saturday night and was drowned. The body was found yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Deceased was 21 years of age.

DROWNED WHILE BATHING.

Young Scotchman Meets Tragic Death at Guelph.

Guelph, Ont., June 24.—The second drowning fatality of the season occurred Saturday afternoon, when a young Scotchman lost his life. His name was Andrew Stewart, clerk in the Dominion Bank, and he had only been in the country a few weeks, coming from Kilwinning, Ayrshire.

With four companions, he had gone bathing, but was a poor swimmer and got into deep water. Two of his companions were nearly pulled under in trying to rescue him.

Deceased has a cousin in Toronto, but no other relatives in this country.

Boat Upset, Man Drowned.

Ottawa, June 24.—George Cooper, a bricklayer, was drowned early yesterday morning. With two other men he engaged a rowboat about midnight to cross to Buckingham. The boat upset and Cooper was lost, while his comrades reached the shore in safety.

Drowned In Butter Crock.

There was only eight inches of water in it, but the little girl was drowned before her parents found her.

The Baptist Association Concluded its Meetings

Deacon Wm. Graham of Gilmour Memorial Church is New Moderator—Able Addresses Marked Closing Sessions--Memorial Service to Late Rev. J. E. Trotter.

The meetings of the Peterborough Association of Baptist churches, which began on Wednesday, June 19, in the Port Hope Baptist church, were continued throughout Thursday and Friday, closing with the evening meeting on Friday.

The morning session on Thursday opened at 89.30, with a short experience and testimony meeting, conducted by the moderator.

At the introduction of new pastors, Rev J. R. Webb, pastor of Murray street church, Peterborough was presented to Rev. C. H. Emmerson and Rev. Mr. Beattie, of Bailieboro, by Rev. A. H. Brace. Both these introductions called forth brief, but very felicitious responses.

Rev A. C. Fournier, representing Grand Ligne Missions, being present, was introduced by Mr. Webb, and responded in a short, but very forceful address, in which he traced the steps by which he was led from the priesthood of the Roman Catholic church to the Baptist ministry.

He recounted his dissatisfaction with the principles and practices of the Romish church, his struggle for better things, his introduction to the work at Grand Ligne, where he found light and peace, and the consequent devoting of his life to the interests of that work. His words were listened to with marked attention and interest.

The reports of the Associationaly secretaries of the various mission enterprises were then given;—Home, Missions, Foreign, Western and the Grand Ligne,—followed by the reading of the clerk's statistical statement. These all contained much to encourage, showing both larger membership and increased contributions.

The reading of the annual letters from the various churches comprising the Association, in which there was much of deep interest and large encouragement, concluded the morning session.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The exercises of the afternoon began with a devotional half-hour conducted by Rev. G. Victor Collins, of Lakefield.

Rev. L. B. Steedman, of Warsaw, then preached the annual sermon, from the text, "God is a spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth", an earnest, thoughtful, and instructive thought compelling presentation of the necessity and requisites of real, true worship.

This was followed by an address on Grand Ligne by Rev. A. C. Fournier. Mr Fournier's remarks in the morning had made large preparation for the interest with which his address was now listened to, as with telling force, and with the relation of many facts and incidents, he set forth the conditions in the Romish church, which justified the prosecution of such a work as that of Grand Ligne, ending with an earnest plea for greater interest in, and larger support of, that work.

An address on "Christian Education was then given by A. T. McNeill, B.D principal of the Woodstock College. Owing to the lateness of the hour Mr. McNeill was unable, in his address, to do full justice to either himself or his subject. Nevertheless, he let us see the heart of the matter. Only the briefest outline of his remarks can be given.; "Any young man or woman, who would properly relate themselves to their own age, must come into a knowledge of the past, out of which have grown our industrial conditions, our social relations, our political organizations, our free and representative institutions and also our religion. They must not only be familiar with the past, but also with the social, political and national conditions of the age in which they live. They must make themselves familiar with the forces at large in society. Not tradition, not superstition, not science, is the largest factor in this new century life, but the force of truth. Emphatically are the words of the Great Teacher being exemplified; 'Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free'. In the three great forces of present day life, the nation, church and home, the dominant power must be Christian, and why? Because in this age of world's civilization, there is no training which is applicable, except the Christian conception. Anything else falls short. Anything short of Christian education, spells decay, and death and ruin. These are the ideals of our educational institutions.

A duett, "I will give you rest," was most tastefully rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Johnston.

EVENING SESSION.

The evening session was opened with a praise and prayer service led by Rev. B. Davies, of Colborne.

The report of the nominating committee was then presented, but, on motion by Rev. J. R. Webb, was referred back for further consideration.

An address was then given by Rev G. Victor Collins, on "How to Make the Young Peoples' Society a more effective power in Church Life."

This was followed by an address on the "Two-fold Obligation of every Young Christian," by Rev. A. H. Brace, of Park street church, Peterborough. These were shown to be development of personal Christian life and character and service for the salvation of others.

Owing to the lateness of the hour the discussion was dispensed with and way made for the address, "The Call of the West," by Rev. Walter Daniel, Eastern representative of Western Missions, who in breezy, racy hearty, and at times humorous manner, set forth the greatness of the demand of Western Missions, the strenuousness of the life, the arduousness of the labor, but with all the great satisfaction of the posi-

The meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. W. Quarrington, of Cobourg.

FRIDAY'S SESSION

The Friday morning session opened with devotional meeting led by Rev. Mr. Beattie, of Bailieboro.

Twenty minute addresses upon "The Efficient Church," were then delivered as follows;

Rev B. Davies, "The Church and the Word."

Rev J. P. McLennan, "The Church and Work."

Rev. C. H. Emerson, "The Undeveloped Resources of the Church."

These were all very thoughtful, plain, pointed and practical, setting forth the demands made upon the church, and how they may be met.

A short, but very earnest address was then given by Rev. L. McKinnon on "Stewardship." Stewardship is the being entrusted with the goods of another for administration. A sense of God is necessary in order to the right discharge of our obligation. Stewardship involves the unselfish use of money, the prudent manipulation of forces. Our business is so to manipulate and so to use our money that we may do the best we can to help on the Kingdom of God.

At 2 p.m. the afternoon session was opened with the presentation of the claims of the Canadian Baptist and book room, by the business manager, Mr. R. D. Warren. Briefly, but very effectively, Mr. Warren set forth the aims of the Canadian Baptist and the ground of its claims for our hearty support, and also the efficiency of the Book Room and its equipment for the prompt and satisfying supply of the needs of our churches and Sunday Schools in literature.

This was to have been followed by an address upon "The Pastor and Sunday School," by Rev. B. W. Merrill, B.A., of Toronto, general Sunday school superintendent.

As some time had already been lost and not wishing to encroach further, Mr. Merrill suggested that his address be omitted and the conference on Sunday School work be entered upon. This resulted in the strong presentation of several phases of this work, as related to both pastor and superintendent, as well as teacher, in which Mr. Merrill, in answer to one question gave what he called the "bones" of his address.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

This was followed by a memorial service in honor of the loved and respected brother, the late Rev. J. E. Trotter, which was participated in by Rev. C. H. Emerson, Rev. L. McKinnon, Rev. B. Davies, Rev. W. Quarrington, and Rev. Jas. Desson, and which very fittingly gathered up and bound together the many expressions of sincere appreciation, of high respect and of loving grief, which have been constantly heard during the meetings.

At the close of this service, a resolution, which had been passed in an earlier session, was read, placing on record the feeling of the Association, in tender, grateful recognition of the services rendered the Association by Pastor Trotter, and his noble, consistent, Christian life and also expressing deep, brotherly sympathy with the church in Port Hope, in their sudden and irreparable loss.

During this service a solo, "Come Unto Me," was beautifully sung by Mrs Randall.

THE NEW MODERATOR.

The evening session opened with a prayer and praise service led by Pastor Beattie, of Bailieboro.

Immediately following this came the introduction by the moderator of the moderator-elect, Deacon Wm Graham, Gilmour Memorial church.

Deacon Graham responded in a few remarks, in which he expressed his thanks for the honor conferred upon him.

Rev J. G. Brown, D.D., of Toronto, secretary of Foreign Missions, then spoke of conditions in India. He told of the political unrest in that country, showing its cause, its dangers and its possible outcome; also of the social unrest in the breaking down of the age-long caste system and the tremendous significance of that fact, and further of the wide-spread religious unrest. Dr Brown clearly showed the relation sustained to these various conditions by the missionary work of our churches and its largely increased importance in such time of crisis.

REVIEW OF GATHERING

Rev. W. Quarrington, of Cobourg then gave an address in which he sought to gather up and compact together the inspiration, impulse and power of the gatherings, and give them direction, point and purpose.

In earnest words, by Scripture teaching, by exhoration and injunctio he set forth the problems which make their demand upon us as individuals and churches and urged a more devoted service, rendered effective by the spiritual power of prevailing prayer.

A solo by Master Piper and a few earnest words by Moderator Graham, were followed by the reading of a resolution expressing appreciation by the Association of the kindness of the Port Hope church and other friends in full-handed and open-hearted entertainment, and the efforts of all who have contributed to the success of the gathering, especially the organist, choir and individuals who assisted so greatly in the beautiful music.

The singing of "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow," prayer by Dr. Brown and Pastor Quarrington, with the benediction by the ex-Moderator, Rev. Jas. Desson, brought to a close another most helpful gathering of the Peterborough Association of Baptist churches.

Reynolds is Taking Big Walk

From Port Hope to Toronto and Return To-day—Says He Will Win

The Port Hope Guide of Saturday says: Today is the last for James Reynolds to practice in preparation for his big walk. When the town clock tolls one o'clock on Monday morning James will start from the Queens Hotel and to win the bet Reynolds has to go to the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, and register, and return to the Queen's hotel here before three o'clock Tuesday afternoon, June 25th. According to this arrangement, Reynolds has to make the trip rain or shine, sick or well, and Jimmie thinks it a little slack on the part of his opponents that they didn't insert the words "dead or alive".

When the bet was first made it, $1,200 against Reynolds $600, a 2 to 1 shot and Reynolds put up $300 against his opponents $600 to bind the bargain. The balance was to be deposited a few days previous to the race, but the $1,200 men, according to Reynolds' statement have backed up. They think that their $600 is sufficient. But James likes the of the six hundred long greens and he will endeavor to make the trip. The other $300 which he intended to wager will be given to different parties with instructions how to place it. Last night he offered to bet $100 that he would cover the first hundred miles in 24 hours.

Reynolds is naturally put out at his opponents backing up to the extent of six hundred dollars, but feels sure that he will get up his other $300 at 2 to 1, before he starts and thus stand to win $1,200.

James has been holidaying for the past three days and feels in excellent trim. He is confidant of accomplishing the undertaking and the majority of Port Hopers wish him success.

A large crowd will be at the Queen's Hotel to give him a send-off on Monday morning.

Wm. Evans and Leo Bouskill have been selected as umpires; W. J. Robertson and Charles Mitchell will catch the time, and L. G. Bennett will act as referee.

Runaway Stopped By a Conductor

Mr John Cocks, of North Monaghan, who was driving from the city along Charlotte street on Saturday afternoon, had a runaway which he will not forget for a while. A short distance west of Charlotte street the horse became frightened at a street car and took to the sidewalk. It ran on the pavement, dragging the buggy for quite a distance. All this time Mr. Cocks was still in the buggy. Finally, the spirited animal took to the road. One of the reins became broken, and the horse started off on a mad gallop. A conductor on the street car ran out and stopped the runaway. Mr. Cocks escaped unhurt, and the only damage done was the one rein being broken. Much credit is due the conductor who so quickly stopped the horse.

The Midland Football League intermediate game at the Driving Park on Saturday afternoon between the Oshawa eleven and the Quakers second team had a rather unsatisfactory ending. The home team was awarded the match by the referee after they had scored a goal with seven of the Oshawa players off the field. The game had only been in progress about ten minutes when one of the visiting team who was being outplayed by Crough, the star centre forward of the locals, made an assault upon the Peterborough man, and the latter retaliated, and his opponent showed the white feather and "laid down," to use the common expression for such an action. The other players rushed in and prevented any further trouble, and the referee was about to have the ball put into play again after penalizing the two offending players for two minutes each, when seven off the Oshawa team walked off the field. Four remained in the game, but the others could not be persuaded to come back again. With only four men against seven the game was started and the Quakers scored easily. As it would have been farcical to proceed with the play under the circumstances, the referee awarded the match to Peterborough.

The action of the Oshawa players was entirely unjustifiable, as the trouble was started by one of their own men, making an assault upon Crough, who always plays a square, clean game. The Quakers regret exceedingly the manner in which the game ended. They are confident that they could have defeated Oshawa, as they took them into camp on their grounds a week ago Saturday and should have won the home game handily. The referee was Mr Doherty of Norwood, and his action in awarding the game to the locals cannot be questioned. Under the circumstances, there was nothing else to be done, the visitors declining to continue. This gives the Quakers the championship of two districts and they will now play off with the winners of the Campbellford, Warkworth, Hastings and Keene group for the intermediate championship of the league. It looks as if Warkworth were going to win that district and they will likely be the Quakers' opponents in the finals.

The action of the Oshawa team in quitting the field showed very poor sportsmanship. Apparently they were suffering from cold feet, and did not wish to play the game out.

The Quakers lined up as follows,—
Goal—Lang.
Backs—Scrimshaw and Sullivan.
Halves—Dingman, MacDonald and Deforge.
Forwards—Yates, Brodie, Crough, Canniff and Hagley.

EXCELSIORS PLAY LILLIES TO-NIGHT

The game between the Lakeviews and Strathconas scheduled for last Saturday afternoon, did not take place and will be played off some time later. To-night the Lillies and Excelsiors will play the first four innings at the Patterson-st. field. Both teams have won one game, and no doubt the contest to-night will be interesting. The best game will be next Saturday when the Karenots and West Ends meet. Both aggregations have won three games and lost one, and an interesting struggle is assured for next Saturday.

The committee to draw up a new schedule for the balance of the season will meet on Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the Y.M.C.A.

BASEBALL

Harry Burridge, the clever backstop of the locals, did the receiving for the Port Hope team in their game at Oshawa on Saturday. The Port Hopers won by 13 runs to 6.

BOWLING

GAMES FOR THE WEEK.

The lawn is now in the best condition it has ever been and the schedule is now ready. The following are the games for Monday night,—

R. Waddell vs. R. Cottrell.
E. Cox, vs. J. McIntyre.
Dr. McClelland vs. R. Kidd.
Dr. McKinnon vs. S. T. Medd.
The schedule for Tuesday is,—
Dr. Greer vs. J. E. A. Fitzgerald,
W. Atchison vs. Dr. Marshall.
T. E. Pratt vs. W. Talbot.
W. O'Brien vs. W. Lang.

The bowlers will get into practice at once, as it is the intention of the executive to announce the draw for the Frost Cup at an early date. Don't forget to leave the scores in the club house after each game, whether a scheduled game or not.

CRICKET

Mr. H. Cyril Hill was in Toronto last week playing with the Toronto cricketers against R. M. C. eleven. Mr. Hill made the highest individual record in the number of men bowled out, and also scored the highest number of runs.

The local cricket club will play Grace church boys in Toronto on Monday, July 1st.

Moving Pictures at Jackson Park

Fine Programme Will be Put on This Evening

There will be a band concert and moving picture entertainment at Jackson Park this evening.

Starting tonight the moving pictures will be put on every evening. Some fine scenes and views have been secured and the public will no doubt be delighted that the pictures, which were so popular last year, are to be repeated this year.

There will doubtless be a large crowd at the park this evening and a special car service will be given.

Dissatisfaction was expressed at the regular monthly meeting of the executive council of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association with what was termed the continued policy of the Government in reference to the importation of skilled labor.

PAID TRIBUTE TO THE DEPARTED

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt Refers to Sterling Character of Late Adam Dawson

Yesterday morning, preceding his sermon, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt referred to the death of Mr. Adam Dawson. For twenty-five years, he said, the departed brother had been a member and regular attendant at St. Luke's. For two years he was rector's warden, and at all times he was much interested in the material welfare of the church, which he supported liberally, and in the councils of which he took a prominent place. No one ever had a doubt where Adam Dawson stood. He never compromised a principle. While some perhaps could not see eye to eye with him in everything, no one doubted the sincerity of his principle. We remember him as a true servant of God, who delighted to be in God's House, and who tried to live up loyally and faithfully, and without wavering to that he perceived to be right. To the bereaved widow and children, Mr. Langfeldt said, heartfelt sympathy was extended by St. Luke's congregation, who mourned with them over the loss of a noble and true man. Mr. Langfeldt asked the congregation to rise and join him in a short memorial service, taken from the office for the burial of the dead and prayers for the widow.

The hymns at the morning service were of a commemorative nature, suitable for the triumphant victory over death of God's children.

REV. DR. O'BRIEN SAILS FOR HOME

Rev Dr. O'Brien is expected home from the Old Country at the end of this week. He sailed from Liverpool on Friday and will reach Montreal towards the end of this week. He will be home in time for the T.A.S picnic at McNamara's Grove on July 1st, and no doubt will be extended a hearty welcome.

83 IN THE SHADE AT NOON TO-DAY

Rather warm, isn't it? At noon today the government thermometer at Peterborough registered 83 in the shade, yesterday at noon it was 82 and Saturday at the same hour 85 degrees. It will thus be seen that the weather man is handing out a uniform brand of heat and the prospects are that it is going to keep up for a few days. Yesterday's rain cooled the atmosphere a little bit, but today it is almost back to Saturday's standard again.

PHOTOGRAPHING STARS.

When Done With Ordinary Camera They Show as Lines, Not Specks.

It is an easy matter merely to photograph stars. The trouble is to picture them as points and not as streaks, for as the earth rotates it carries the photographic apparatus with it, and the light from the star makes a line, while the astronomer wants a point.

He must therefore devise a machine that will counteract the movement of the earth and so keep the light steadily in the same place on the plate. Elaborate clockwork must turn the lens backward to keep it on the star and at the same rate as that at which the earth moves forward.

An astronomer at the Yerkes observatory at Williams Bay, Wis., is quoted in St. Nicholas as saying that "many of the most important results of astronomy have been derived from the use of an ordinary camera. On a clear night point one of these toward the north pole, and it will be found after an exposure of one or two hours that the stars which lie near the pole have drawn arcs of circles upon the plate. This is due to the fact that the earth is rotating upon its axis at such a rate as to cause every star in the sky to appear to travel through a complete circle once in twenty-four hours.

The mere act of photographing is not much more difficult than a short exposure out of the window of a moving car. Any one can try it.

Let the exposure be for at least five minutes if the camera is pointed overhead and for at least one hour if directed toward the pole star. The camera may be left out all night if pointed at the pole, but must be taken in just before daylight. The longer the exposure the longer the star "scratches." Develop the plate as long as possible.

DRIVING THE LOGS.

First and foremost your true riverman can ride a log. This does not mean merely that he is able to stand upright or to jump from one to another without splashing in, though even that is no mean feat, as a trial will convince you. That is the kindergarten of it. The saw log in the water is not only his object of labor, but his means of transportation. Your true riverman on drive seldom steps on land except to eat and sleep.

A journey down stream is to him an affair of great simplicity. He pushes into the current a stick of timber, jumps lightly atop it, leans against his peavy and floats away as graceful and motionless as a Grecian statue. When his unstable craft overtakes other logs he deserts it, runs forward as far as he can, the logs bobbing and awash behind his spring, and so continues on another timber. Jack Boyd once for a bet rode for twelve miles down Grand river on a log he could carry to the stream's bank across his shoulders. Fully half the time his feet were submerged to the ankles.

Nor does quick water always cause your expert riverman to disembark. Using his peavy as a balancing pole and treading with squirrel-like quickness as his footing rolls, he will run rapids of considerable force and volume. When the tail of a drive passes through the chute of a dam there are always half a dozen or so of the rear men who out of sheer bravado will run through standing upright like circus riders and yelling like fiends.—Stewart Edward White in Outing Magazine.

Marriage Expenses.

Careful observation, extending over a period of forty-two years and supplemented by thousands of interviews with storekeepers, hairdressers, modistes, milliners, collectors and others, leads us to believe that the average cost of a bride's trousseau in this country—taking the rich with the poor—is the sum of $88.38. Equally careful observation convinces us that the average cost of a bridegroom's sartorial outfit is slightly less than one-third that amount, or, to be exact, $22.01. Thus we have $88.39 as the cost of the garments worn by bride and bridegroom at the average wedding and in the course of the average honeymoon.

Long Lived Razors.

"How long have you had this razor?" asked the barber.

"A dozen years."

"Well," said he, "that is not bad. It's no record, though. Lots of my customers have razors that they've owned twenty and twenty-five years and used too. Why, one old man gets me to hone every three months a razor he bought over forty years ago. And it's such a good razor yet that this old man's son, whenever he wants a velvet shave, goes to his dad and borrows the veteran razor. A razor that with good use won't last twenty-five years is no razor at all."

Yourself.

If you wish to be miserable you must think about yourself, about what you want, what you like, what respect people ought to pay you, and then to you nothing will be pure. You will spoil everything you touch, you will make sin and misery for yourself out of everything which God sends you and you will be as wretched as you choose.

Pure Love.

When a woman chooses a man with a bald head, a pair of bowlegs and a Saturday night pay check of $10 you can't accuse her of marrying for anything but pure, unalloyed, uncontaminated, unquestioned and undying love. —Lamar (Mo.) Democrat.

The concessions of the weak are the concessions of fear.—Burke.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

USEFUL TO HAVE ABOUT.

Though we may loudly scoff at wealth,
The money comes in handy
For purchasing most anything
From Christmas gifts to candy.
Yes, it's a fine and useful thing,
And if you ever doubt it
Imagine how you'd like to be
The ones who are without it.

We like to roast the millionaire
From Halifax to Texas
And biff him in the pocketbook
Or in the solar plexus.
We throw things at him in our minds
And at his house make faces,
But yet should he invite us to
We'd mighty soon trade places.

We say we do not want the stuff—
It only brings us trouble—
And then we sit around and scheme
To make our profits double.
We scorn the festive dollar bill,
But still we try to catch it—
Go loaded for it night and day
With side arms and a hatchet.

The reason why we scoff at wealth,
It's pretty safe to bet it,
Is just because we do not know
A foxy way to get it.
We tell our sweet, confiding wives
We'd rather be without it;
But, knowing us, they always take
The liberty to doubt it.

If you will have an illuminating confab with the underdog in choice dog Latin, you will find that peace is a most lovely and desirable thing.

The nation that cannot see how it could get anything but the worst of it and large ornate chunks of that in a more or less merry war would rather have peace than ice cream sodas and fifteen cent cigars.

On the other hand, the nation that has a new navy just out of the repair shop takes the most disinterested view imaginable of peace conferences. Pushed into a corner, it may be willing to admit that peace is a good thing if it can name the brand. If the smaller nations will give it what it wants without fighting it sees no need of war and, in fact, might consider it a useless waste of energy. It is because most of the nations that are to take part in The Hague conference have navies of that kind that the outlook for peace is not as bright as the moon on a clear night.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Sweetness and light are good things to have, but one does hate to swell the treasury of the sugar trust and the gas company.

Nothing looks more like bad management than being in a hurry except being too slow.

"It is," replied his wife, "although it is a little trying at times. Some one always has to go along with him when he makes a purchase to see that he gets the right change."

Rather Difficult.

"I'd rather be good than pretty."

"Why?"

"The good are always beautiful, you know."

"Yes, but you have to make good on that proposition, while on the other it's a snap."

Rev. Dr. Crothers Honored Publicly By the Citizens of Peterborough

Was Presented With a Purse of Gold on the Eve of His Departure for St. Catharines —Many Prominent Citizens and Clergymen Speak Eulogistically of the Guest of the Evening--City Hall Filled With Admirers of the Reverend Doctor.

The city hall was filled last night to do honor to Rev. Dr. Crothers, who has for the past three years been pastor of the George street Methodist church, and who is leaving in a few days for his new home in St. Catharines. The gathering represented the whole city. No particular class or sect was in charge of the affair. It was simply a demonstration of the great appreciation which the citizens of Peterborough had for Rev. Dr. Crothers, and an expression of the great regret felt at his leaving the city.

His Worship Mayor McWilliams occupied the chair, and he, with several others, made short speeches eulogistic of the doctor's many good qualities. At the conclusion of his address Mr. J. H. Burnham presented Dr. Crothers with a purse of gold containing 20 British sovereigns.

Some of those present were:—Mr. Jas. Kendry, ex-M.P.; Rev. Canon Davidson, rector of St. John's; Rev. Wm. Major, rector of All Saints'; City Clerk S. R. Armstrong, Robert Neil, F. H. Dobbin, J. H. Burnham, Col. Miller, A. W. Cressman, Dawson Kennedy, Dr. Morrison, chairman of the License Commission; Andrew Allison, and Mrs. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Knapman, Mrs. Geo. Elliott, Mrs. Dawson Kennedy, A. E. Dixon, B. F. Ackerman, Dr. Morrow, Thos. McFadden, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, rector of St. Luke's; Geo. H. Williamson, secretary of Y.M.C.A.; Mrs. E. R. Armstrong, His Worship Mayor McWilliams, H. P. Kennedy, and a large number of others.

His Worship Mayor McWilliams was in the chair, and in opening, he said he felt honored in being asked to occupy the chair at this friendly gathering. "We are here, he said, to do honor to a worthy man. All sections, all sects, and all parties were working together for the same end. He was pleased that the gathering had taken place, as there was no man who was more highly respected than was Rev. Dr. Crothers. His Worship then called upon Mr. J. H. Burnham to speak.

Mr. J. H. Burnham said that he felt proud in being asked to occupy his present position. He had found on all sides that there was a general feeling to do something more tangible than speak a few words in favor of such a man as Rev. Dr. Crothers. The list of contributors which he had before him showed that the movement had been general, and free from all political, religious or any other meanness. Everyone wished to show in a tangible form his great respect for the departing minister. It was not merely that Rev. Dr. Crothers was a good man himself that the citizens of Peterborough wished to honor him, but for certain principles for which he fought, and for which he sometimes was criticized. Those principles were true, and the reverend doctor had accomplished much good. Mr. Burnham then asked Dr. Crothers to come forward and accept the purse of gold which had been gathered together, consisting of 20 British sovereigns.

Rev. Dr. Crothers was greatly surprised, and he very feelingly responded to the generous gift. He hardly knew how, he said, to express himself. When so many kind things had been said about him, he felt he would require more time to pull himself together. He appreciated the honor conferred upon him, but he could not express how deeply he appreciated it. He agreed with Mr. Burnham that it was not so much his personality that was honored as certain principles for which he stood. He had, since he came to Peterborough, tried to be a faithful citizen. He set out to do that at the first, and he had always done what he could. He had always taken an interest in municipal affairs. He had been accused of taking an interest in political affairs. As to that, he would say nothing. He had always been met here with good feeling on all sides. He wished to thank his ministerial friends in public. He was never treated with more fraternity and Christian feeling than he had been by Rev. Canon Davidson, Rev. Wm. Major and Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, who belong to another denomination. His stay in Peterborough had been a most pleasant one, and he went away from here with only feelings of thankfulness in his heart that he had been here.

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt said he was greatly pleased to be present to do honor to Rev. Dr. Crothers. They had been great friends since the reverend doctor had been in the city, and they had been friends, the like of which he had never met in the ministry before. He spoke for his congregation, as well as for himself.

REV. DR. CROTHERS
Presented With a Purse of Gold by the Citizens

Mr. Jas. Kendry expressed his great pleasure in being one who did honor to a gentleman like Dr. Crothers. He had known him ever while he had been here, and he knew few men who were more deserving of a public honor. He wished him every success in his new home in St. Catharines, and he felt sure that all the people in the city would extend to him their very best wishes.

Dr. Morrison, as a citizen of Peterborough, said he was delighted to have the pleasure of expressing in public his appreciation of Dr. Crothers as a citizen and as a minister. On behalf of the Board of Trade he wished to express their best wishes to the reverend doctor.

Rev. Canon Davidson said that he was much pleased to know that Rev. Dr. Crothers had been so signally honored as he had been tonight. He knew no man who so thoroughly deserved it. He referred to the very broad view which the doctor had taken in religious matters. He had done a great deal of good in the city and had opened the eyes of many men, and there were more in the city taking a broad view of religion than in many cities and towns in Canada. He greatly regretted that Dr. Crothers was leaving the city.

Col. Miller said he was here to do honor to Rev. Dr. Crothers, one of the best men the city had ever known. He deeply regretted that the Methodist church compelled the pastor to move away just when he had won the hearts of his congregation. The doctor was a man who had convictions, and he was not afraid to express them, and to express them so strongly that they struck home. He was always careful to first know that he was right and that made his speech all the more telling on those who were our hardest.

Mr. G. N. Gordon, speaking for the young men of the congregation over which the reverend doctor presided, said that there was no pastor in the city who was so thoroughly popular with the young men, and they all regretted his departure very much.

Mr. A. W. Cressman spoke for the joint boards of the George street church, and heartily agreed with all the good things which had been said.

Mr. A. E. Dixon, secretary of the George street Methodist Sunday school, spoke very feelingly on behalf of that body.

Rev. Wm. Major said that Rev. Dr. Crothers had tonight received the highest honor any man could have received, and by the many kind references which had been made to him by those present, showed him that his work had been appreciated.

Mr. George H. Williamson, of the Y.M.C.A., also spoke, and on behalf of the institution, expressed great appreciation of Dr. Crothers' very valuable assistance to them in their work. He had always been willing and anxious to help them, and he had done much good and would be missed when he went away.

His Worship Mayor McWilliams said that, before separating, he would like, on behalf of the whole city of Peterborough, including all classes and sects, the heartiest best wishes, and to express the general regret felt at Dr. Crothers' departure. Personally he had admired Rev. Dr. Crothers because he was a good, hard hitter, and he was a fair fighter. A man of his class could not help but win the esteem of the public, and he felt sure that Dr. Crothers would do as much good in St. Catharines as he had here.

This brought the gathering of citizens to a close, and all went home feeling glad that they had attended.

Among those who subscribed to the fund were:—Dr M A Morrison, C Fessenden, S R Armstrong, J H Burnham, V Eastwood, A E Dixon, W H Hill, W Madill, Rev E A Langfeldt, Warne Bros, F Mason, H P Lindsay, Richard Hall, Robert Neil, Dr J T I Halliday, John Nugent, Ald Geo E Elliott, Dawson Kennedy, George H Williamson, Rev J C Davidson, Jas Kendry, E F Mason, J W Miller, F W Doan, F H Dobbin, F B Schneider, R M Waddell, Wm Wartley, A W Cressman, W E Conway, Robt Mann, George Ruth, Geo Baird, R J Sodon, Col H C Rogers, F J Might, E B Clegg, W Might, Thos Barrie, Dr Geo Burnham, R B Kingan, H LeBrun, Edward Green, H R McKenner, J Crane, D Hughes, Charles A A Hollingshead, H P Kennedy, H C Stabler, Wm Higgins, B F Ackerman, F Brownscombe, A Parker, J J McBain, W F Morrow, J S Knapman, Dr Jas Middleton, J Pentland, G N Gordon, A Micks, J C Shook, R P Best, A Allison, G W Hatton, E A Peck, S A Cha

The Emmerson Libel Case Is Likely to be Abandoned

Crown Pleads For Further Delay in Emmerson Case.

Crockett's Counsel Makes Vigorous Protest—Says Crown Has No Real Intention of Going On—Judge Landry Again Adjourns—Refuse Reference to Supreme Court, But Grants Reserve Case.

Fredericton, N.B., June 25.—Decision was rendered yesterday on one count against the Emmerson forces in the prosecution of Mr. Crockett, but the crown had more obstacles to prevent the progress of the trial. Judge Landry refused to refer the question raised in the demurrer to the supreme court of New Brunswick, as the crown had requested him to do, but J. H. Barry, K.C., of Fredericton, had another application ready for a reserved case. This the court granted, and then the question arose as to whether the trial could proceed before a decision was obtained on the reserved case.

"The practice," said the judge, "of referring to the court important questions arising on circuits might lead to abuse, and to much unnecessary and vexatious delay. Each time such a practice would be invoked and followed the proceedings at circuits would have to be stopped and put off to another circuit, and one can readily see how often recourse would be had to such a practice if once established."

Judge Landry adjourned proceedings until this morning.

Mr. Barry then moved for adjournment of the trial of the indictment. "I might point out," said he, "that while we have demurred against the plea, there is on the record a denial of all the statements of fact. The question of fact has yet to be tried. Where questions of law and fact occur in the same case, questions of law are always decided first."

Will Not Make Reference.

To Mr. Hazen's objections, Judge Landry replied: "Does it not seem very evident," he said, "that you can't go on? If the crown says we are ready you would have to apply for an adjournment to get your witnesses."

"We make no such application," replied Mr. Hazen. "We can send for our witnesses.

"Because of the action of the crown we ask you to dismiss this application as our absolute legal right. My learned friend's sole ground is the reserved case. It is not sufficient."

Mr. Hazen, insisting that his client, Mr. Crockett, was entitled to a speedy trial, grew indignant at the continued delay.

"I say boldly," he declared, "and knowing it to be true, that from first to the last there has been no bona fide intention of the crown to go on."

The defence, because of Mr. Pugsley's intimation on Friday, had no witnesses in court yesterday, although all of Mr. Crockett's counsel were there. The crown attorney was not present in court, nor Mr. Emmerson himself, who apparently confident of adjournment, has left for Toronto.

CHINA ACCEPTS RED CROSS.

When Assured That It Has No Religious Significance.

The Hague, June 25.—The third committee of the international peace conference met yesterday in the Hall of Knights, behind closed doors. The committee has been divided into two sub-committees. The program of the first sub-committee includes the questions of the bombardment of harbors, etc., the laying of mines and torpedoes, and the adoption of the red cross in sea war. The second sub-committee will discuss the treatment of belligerent ships in neutral harbors.

After Gen. Porter (United States), and the German delegate, Dr. Kriege, had presented propositions regarding the adoption of the red cross in sea war. Sir Ernest M. Satow (Great Britain) reserved the right to present a proposition referring to the use of torpedoes.

The Chinese delegation stated officially that they would accept the red cross after explanations had been received showing that the cross is merely the Swiss coat of arms and not a religious emblem.

An official communication issued yesterday says "Russia has not presented a proposition regarding the opening of hostilities. She merely supported a proposition to that effect."

BANBURY WANTS EXTENSION.

Longer Time For Grant of Dominion to British Columbia.

London, June 25.—In the House of Commons in committee yesterday on the British North America bill, Sir F Banbury moved as an amendment that the period during which the annual grant of £100,000 is to be made by the Dominion to the province of British Columbia should be extended from ten to thirty years. Banbury was speaking when the House adjourned. Churchill said it was a most disgraceful and flagrant act of obstruction.

TO RESTRAIN THE LORDS.

British Premier Moves His Resolution In the House of Commons.

London, June 25.—Premier Campbell-Bannerman yesterday moved his resolution curtailing the power of the House of Lords before the fullest House of the session. The galleries also were crowded, those present in that part of the House including many peers, who were anxious to observe the beginning of the attempt to reduce their power to control legislation.

Drowned In Grand River.

Galt, June 25.—Yesterday afternoon little Emmerson Cunningham was drowned while bathing in the Grand River. The lad had been warned not to go swimming, but did not heed the warning. The body was found in about five feet of water, and was recovered after being in the water about twenty minutes.

American Killed In Auto Accident.

Dieppe, France, June 25.—An automobile, in which an American, John Ryan, and his wife and three other persons were riding, was ditched Sunday in trying to avoid a cart. Mrs. Ryan was killed.

FATAL RAILWAY SMASH

Passenger Train Crashes Head-on Into Freight.

Five Persons Killed and Twenty Seriously Hurt—Midnight Collision on New York Central Near Pittsford—Was Rounding Curve at Good Speed — Freight Train Conductor Said to Be at Fault.

Rochester, N.Y., June 25.—Five persons were killed and a score more or less seriously injured on Sunday night on the Auburn branch of the New York Central Railroad, one mile east of Pittsford, when passenger train No. 230, which leaves Rochester at 10.35 crashed head-on into a freight train. The collision took place on a sharp curve at a point known as Mitchell's Farm. The smoking-car was telescoped and four of the fifteen passengers instantly killed. The fifth victim was Emmet Lyons, son of Engineer Lyons, of the freight, who was in the cab with his father, and who died in a Rochester hospital yesterday morning. Engineer Lyons, who was brought to Rochester with the dead and injured, on a special train, is not expected to live. There are twelve injured in Rochester hospitals, all of whom, with the exception of Lyons, are expected to recover.

The passenger train had been on only a short time, running on Saturdays and Sundays. It is said the conductor of the freight forgot that the passenger was running, and ran by his orders. An inquest will be held by the coroner.

CYCLONE BROUGHT DEATH.

Man and Three Valuable Race Horses Killed.

Kalamazoo, Mich., June 25.—Three valuable race horses and a man were killed in a cyclone which struck Recreation Park yesterday morning at 2.20 o'clock. William Wiedmannere, aged 39, was found dead two hours after the storm had passed. He was killed by coming in contact with a telephone wire. The cyclone came up without an instant's warning and lifted a long row of stalls, carrying them over the fence.

THREATENED TO SUICIDE.

Lady Shoplifter Sentenced — Fears Disgrace For Her Daughters.

Detroit, June 25.—Threatening to commit suicide Mrs. Isabella Smart, formerly of Toronto, was led to the Police Court yesterday, where she pleaded guilty to shoplifting and was fined $25 or 15 days in the house of correction.

"Would to God my daughters, who are in a London (Ont.) boarding school, would die before they learn my disgrace!" Such said a sorrowful woman.

MUTINOUS TROOPS REMOVED.

Beziers, France, June 25.—The mutinous soldiers of the Seventeenth Infantry have been transferred from Agde without notice. Three other regiments quietly marched into that town yesterday, surrounded the barracks and escorted the mutineers to a train, in which they were locked. A large number of the mutineers came to Beziers without permission, and were arrested on their return. The destination of the mutineers is kept secret, but it is believed to be Briancon, in the Department of Pautes Alpes, far from the scene of their insubordination.

An Incipient Mutiny.

Paris, June 25.—A delegation from Nimes visited Premier Clemenceau yesterday and pleaded for the release of M. Ferroul, ex-mayor of Narbonne, and the imprisoned members of the committee of Argellieres and the quashing of the proceedings against the resigned mayors and others members of the municipalities.

An incipient mutiny occurred yesterday at the barracks of Avignon, fifty miles from Marseilles. Some soldiers hissed Col. St. James and sang a revolutionary song, forcing the colonel to retire. Later Lieut.-Col. Dalbies addressed the men and restored order.

FOR HIS DAUGHTER'S HONOR.

Father Takes Vengeance For Supposed Outrage.

Houston, Va., June 25.—The trial of former Judge W. G. Loving, of Nelson County, for the murder of Theodore Estes, son of Sheriff M. R. Estes, of Nelson County, began in the Circuit Court here yesterday. Judge Barksdale presided.

Judge Loving, armed with a double-barrelled shotgun, instantly killed young Estes, while he was unloading a car of fertilizer in Oak Ridge, on April 22. The shooting was the sequel to the buggy ride taken on the evening prior to the homicide, by young Estes and Miss Elizabeth Loving, the 19-year-old daughter of Judge Loving. The girl, when brought home, had been drinking, and it is alleged that her escort had maltreated her. Acting under the impulse that his daughter had been drugged and assaulted, Judge Loving immediately went in search of Estes. After the shooting he said:—"I shot to kill. Every drop of blood in my body called for vengeance. I would have gone a hundred miles to kill him."

The plea of the defence will be emotional insanity and the "unwritten law." The relatives of young Estes, whose family connections extend to the Governor of this State, will exert every effort to clear the memory of the dead man from any stain of wrong doing.

STOP PELAGIC SEALING.

Ottawa, June 25.—The Government has been advised that the Japanese Government ordered a suspension of pelagic sealing in the neighborhood of Robben Bank, a noted sealing ground off the coast of Saghalien Island, which was formerly held by Russia.

The rookery the only one held by the Japanese, passed into possession of the Mikado's Government as part of the spoils of war.

This action is in compliance with the proposal of the United States Government to suspend sealing in that region until some agreement is concluded in the forth coming conference at Washington of Great Britain, the United States and Russia regarding pelagic sealing in Behring Sea.

The prohibition of sealing off Robben Bank, which the Japanese have renamed Seal Island, will have the effect of diverting the large fleet of schooners to Behring Sea and Copper Islands sealing grounds.

ANTI-MILITARISTS FIRM.

Defy Law and Insist On Continuing Propaganda.

Paris, June 25.—The trial of ten anti-militarists, who signed the manifesto which was placarded on the walls of Paris on May 1, appealing to the soldiers to join the workmen and fight against capital, began here yesterday, with Gustave Pere as principal counsel for the defence.

When interrogated, the accused maintained a defiant attitude, lauding the mutineers of the 17th Regiment, at Agde, and affirming their determinations to continue the anti-military propaganda.

BANDIT CHIEF IS BUSY.

Is Destroying Villages and Waging War In Northern Persia.

St. Petersburg, June 25.—A special despatch from Teheran, Persia, says the situation in the northern part of Azerbaijan Province is becoming serious. The bandit chief, Martuz Khuli Khan, assisted by Kurds, is waging war on the population and destroying villages. Constant fighting is occurring in Maku, 132 miles from Tabris. Two companions of Persian troops, with six field guns, are being despatched to Maku from Tabris.

Murderer Electrocuted.

New York, June 25.—John Johnson, a wife murderer, was put to death in the electrical chair in Sing Sing Prison early yesterday. The jail officials pronounce the electrocution a successful one. Only two contacts were given. Johnson murdered his wife, Catherine, in Yonkers, two years ago, in the presence of their two young children. He had been an ex-convict, had treated his wife badly and shot her when she threatened to leave him.

Three Distinct Tornadoes.

Medicine Lodge, Kans., June 25.—Three distinct tornadoes struck Medicine Lodge late Sunday night, destroying 25 houses in the northern part of the town. Six persons were injured seriously and one is missing.

Lumber piles half a mile long and worth $250,000, were burned at Vancouver on Saturday.

IRISH HATE THE ENGLISH

Redmond Declares They Are as Much Rebels as in 1798.

English Rule Is Still Defeated—Spirit of Their Forefathers Still Exists—Hurls Defiance at British Statesmen—To Use Force In Securing Home Rule—Question of Expediency When They Will Strike.

Dublin, June 25.—John E. Redmond delivered an address at Wexford Sunday at the ceremony attending the unveiling of a memorial to Wexfordians who fell at the battle of New Ross in 1798.

He gave a defiant warning to British statesmen, saying:

"We tell England that we hate her rule as bitterly as did our forefathers when they shed their blood on this spot.

"We tell her that we are as much rebels to her rule to-day as our forefathers were in '98.

"We tell her that she can change that hatred only by granting freedom, and so long as she withholds freedom, it will remain merely a question of expediency how and by what means we will strike at the power that holds our country in bondage."

Dublin, June 25.—Charles J. Dolan, member of the House of Commons for Leitrim, North, has now decided to resign his seat in the House and appeal to his constituents for re-election.

Mr. Dolan at a recent meeting of the National Directory of the United Irish League, supported resolutions calling upon the Irish members of Parliament to resign. These resolutions were defeated, and later Mr. Dolan wrote to the senior whip, severing his connection with the Irish party, but declined to resign his seat.

BUSY WHILE IN JAIL.

San Francisco, June 25.—The Appellate Court has taken Mayor Schmitz's application for a writ of habeas corpus and bail under advisement.

Chief of Police Dinan and Acting Mayor Gallagher have clashed. Gallagher had signed, as mayor of San Francisco, a permit for a number of boxing bouts. Dinan refused to recognize the permit and would not allow the doors to open or the crowd to enter the place until the promoters of the fight got another permit signed by Mayor Schmitz.

From his cell in the jail Schmitz returned to the board of supervisors the municipal budget and a message vetoing the appropriation of $720,000 for the reconstruction of the Gery street railroad.

Mayor Schmitz also objected to a special tax of 20 cents to raise revenue for the city government.

PREACHER ARRESTED.

Alleged Misappropriation of Church Funds Causes Trouble.

Brantford, June 25.—Rev. John Taylor, a colored preacher of Woodstock, who has been collecting funds for the British Methodist Episcopal Church, now in convention here, was arrested in Montreal on a charge of misappropriating church moneys. The warrant for his arrest was made out at the instance of Rev. H. D. Wright, Toronto, secretary of the conference.

Taylor collected a considerable sum of money and it is alleged refused to turn it over to the conference or allow his books to be examined, and his departure for Montreal led to his arrest.

HAYWOOD DEFENCE BEGINS.

Counsel Darrow Tells of Founding of Miners' Federation

Boise, Idaho, June 25.—The largest crowd of the Haywood trial attended the defence yesterday morning. Promptly at 10 o'clock Sheriff Hodgin called for order, the doors were closed and Charles S. Darrow began the opening statement.

Haywood's wife and daughter were present and his mother was in her usual place at his side. Mr. Darrow took a friendly attitude with the jurors, standing close to them, with hands in his pockets and opening his argument in conventional tones.

"You have heard the evidence and the theory of the state," he said. "It is now our story. This case, like everything else, has had two sides. Nominally Hayward is charged with the murder of Governor Steunenberg. The state has gone into a wide field to show its case. Mr. Hawley told you the Western Federation of Miners from its inception was a terrible conspiracy to kill, to control politics, to gather money to hire lawyers, and other criminal purposes."

Mr. Darrow related the history of the Western Federation of Miners, telling the jury the organization was born in the jail beneath where they sat, and that James H. Hawley was the godfather and first attorney of the Western Federation of Miners.

Mr. Hawley continued their attorney for a long time. If there was anything criminal in their appropriating money for a lawyer, the miners did not know it.

Characterizes Orchard.

Mr. Darrow characterized Orchard during his address as follows:

"Harry Orchard was a cheap soldier of fortune, a shoestring gambler who had never done a day's work in his life. He owned a sixteenth share of the Hercules mine, but sold it because of his needs and continued his gambling.

"We will show that he did not participate in most of the crimes, of which he has here boasted. I don't like to take any of the bloom off a peach like that, but while we will show he is not the murderer he boasts himself, we will compensate him by proving him to be the most monumental liar that ever existed.

"If Orchard to-day held his one-sixteenth interest in the Hercules mine he would be worth half a million dolllars, but I think he would rather have what he has got, because it is more valuable to the newspapers."

Alex. McCredie, a Willoughby farmer, was dragged to death by a colt

An Absolute Cure for Rheumatism

If the skin or bowels are unhealthy, they won't throw off enough urea. This urea is changed into uric acid—carried by the blood to the nerves—and causes Rheumatism.

Fruit-a-tives surely cure Rheumatism and Sciatica because they act directly on bowels, kidneys and skin—and so strengthen and invigorate these organs that there is no urea and uric acid retained in the system to irritate the nerves and bring Rheumatism, Sciatica and Neuralgia.

◆ ◆ ◆

BY LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

She attempted to struggle out of his arms, for she saw her aunt coming down the path, but her laughing, happy lover held her fast.

When Mrs. Woodstock saw them she knew that the ardent hope of her life was to be realized, yet she could not refrain from crying out, with many a ha! ha! ha!—

"Why, what in the world does such a scene as this mean? Bernard! Reine! explain this situation at once."

"It means, dear madam," said the happy lover, proudly, "that my long devotion and deep love are to be rewarded at last. Reine has promised to become my wife."

"Thank Heaven!" exclaimed Mrs. Woodstock, fervently. "I have always said God brings together soon or late, the hearts he intended for each other." With these words she left them.

The hour they spent sitting side by side on the rustic seat by the murmuring fountain, building bright air-castles of a rosy future, was the happiest they were ever to know.

How great is the wisdom of God that the dark beyond is all unknown to us!

CHAPTER XXXI.

It was decided at length that the marriage should take place at once. Aunt Rachel demurred greatly at losing her niece so soon, but the impulsive lover declared he had waited altogether too long for his bride already, that delays were dangerous, and he must claim Reine at once.

He could hardly restrain his impatience at the time it took to prepare the elegant trousseau.

The grand wedding was to take place at Mrs. Woodstock's new villa in Richmond, and the preparations were going on, on a magnificent scale.

All the country side had been invited, just as they had been invited to attend the other wedding so long ago, where Bernard Chesleigh was to have been the happy groom, and lovely, golden-haired Reine the bride. More than one vaguely wondered how this affair would end.

And the vague, uneasy speculations grew as the wedding day drew nigh, and heavy storms, which were unusual at that season of the year, set in.

At length the day before the grand event dawned, and the storm increased in its wild fury, showing no signs of abating on the morrow.

Reine watched the scene from the window with smiling lips. The storm had laid the roses low in the garden. The trees bent earthward, nearly stripped of their green foliage. Still Reine smiled, despite her maid's anxious face.

"Signs of good or evil omen do not count for much," she said. "I have no faith in them. My wedding day will be a happy one, even if the sun does refuse to shine."

"The Lord grant it," replied the maid, fervently.

"I shall not need you any more to-night," said Reine, pleasantly, although it was only dusk. "Come to me early to-morrow morning, Amy."

The girl courtesied and left her young mistress. Ah me! How little she dreamed under what thrilling scenes she was to pass, and what tragic events were to transpire ere she looked upon Reine's face again.

Reine drew the heavy silken curtains, and turned away from the window, for it had grown dark while she stood there.

"To-morrow is my wedding day," she murmured, uncoiling her long golden hair before the mirror, and running her slim white fingers through its luxurious masses. "How kind Heaven is to me to let me be happy with my love at last."

The words had scarcely died on her lips ere a paragraph in a crumpled bit of newspaper lying on the mantel caught her eye, and held her spellbound.

For one moment the darkness of death seemed to enfold her. Her heart almost seemed to cease beating, and stand still. The wild rose bloom faded from her cheeks like a pale blossom of the lightning's blast. The light died from her blue eyes, and the joy from her heart.

Slowly, steadily, she put out her poor, white hands and grasped the bit of paper, sinking down upon the nearest seat, and smoothing it out over her knee.

There were but a few lines, but they were a death-knell to a human heart—death in life.

Like one who has received a dagger-thrust in the heart, she read the cruel words; and each letter seemed branded on her brain in letters of scorching fire. It read as follows:

"We are pleased to announce that the story of the tragic death of Waldemar Waldron, the young heir of the Towers, which went the rounds of the press some time since, is entirely without foundation. Instead of meeting death in the sea waves which carried him out from shore, he clung to the wreck of a spar; and was picked up by an outward bound vessel bound for a foreign coast. After a long and tedious illness he set sail once more for his native land, and will arrive at his estate in Virginia—Waldron Towers — to-day, accompanied by a party of friends."

Alive! Reine crushed back her misery—trying to thank God his life had been spared—but the words died on her lips in a moan.

She looked at the date of the paper—it was that evening's. In the excitement of the preparation for the morrow's wedding no one had thought of taking time to read it, and consequently it had become torn.

Could it be that a mistake had been made? She buried her death-cold face in her trembling hands, with a bitter, gasping sob.

To-morrow was to have been her wedding-day. She was to have been married to the man she loved. Had Heaven swept them apart by an insurmountable barrier—a second time?

"I cannot, I will not believe it. I will go myself to Waldron Towers and see if it be true. If it is—"

Heaven forgive her the thought that crept into her heart—she was so sorely tried.

What mattered it to her that the storm raged outside with demon like fury? Her very soul was burning with a fever of unrest. She must know the truth ere the light of the morrow dawned, or the suspense would drive her mad.

The house was wrapped in a mantle of gloom and darkness as the slender figure, heavily cloaked and veiled, crept noiselessly down the stairway.

Only Heaven could have foretold the impulse that caused the poor girl to thrust it into the pocket of her long cloak. Reine had left a little tear-blotted note for Bernard—enclosing the paragraph, and telling him where she had gone—believing it would not be found until the next morning.

She took the night train, and, to her consternation, found, when she was fairly on her way, that the express made no stoppages until it reached the cross-roads. No doubt she could find a stage there to take her to Dover, upon whose outskirts lay the Waldron estate.

Trembling with excitement and fatigue, Reine alighted from the express at the cross-roads. And this, dear reader, brings us back to the opening chapter of our story—to that memorable ride of a young girl on the mountain road through the terrible storm.

When Reine alighted from the mail coach at the gates of the Towers, her heart gave a strange throb. She saw that the house was brilliantly lighted, and the sound of music floated out to her over the wild warring of the pitiless storm.

One quick, startled glance, then a cry that was hardly human, fell from her white lips.

She saw Waldemar Waldron, standing in the middle of the spacious drawing-room, handsome, smiling, gay as ever, and by his side, clinging to his arm, was a young and lovely girl.

Reine turned away sick at heart. She could not censure Heaven that his life had been spared. She could not wish that he had died in the dark waters that night. But, oh, the pity of it! the pity of it! he had spoiled her life.

To-morrow was to have been her wedding-day. She was to have married the man she loved. And now, it was all over. Bernard and she, who loved each other so fondly, must now part. They were separated more cruelly than if one of them lay in the grave.

Waldemar Waldron had deserted her, fled from her wilfully, left her ill and penniless among strangers. It was not likely he would seek her out now. Still, he was her husband. The fatal marriage bond, forged in a moment of thoughtless folly, bound her to him while her life lasted.

Life! How could she endure it, separated from the one love of her heart, whom she was to have wedded on the morrow? Better death than that.

The thought, born of frenzy and despair, came to her with a sudden shock. Nothing could ever release her from the fetters that galled her so, save—death. Ah, why shouldn't she die and end it all?

Involuntarily, her trembling hands sought the pearl and silver revolver which would furnish the way and means.

In her anguish she did not heed the warning voice of conscience. She forgot everything save her supreme misery, and her one yearning desire to end it all, then and there. When morning dawned she would be the pale, cold bride of death.

One moment she leaned heavily against the frame-work of the long French window, her white lips parted in the tremulous word. "Forgive!" The next instant there was the clear, ringing report of a revolver. But the fatal bullet, owing to the unsteadiness of her hand, missed its mark wide, and instead of piercing the white breast of its victim, crashed through the plate glass window, whirred over the heads of the panic-stricken guests, and buried itself in the opposite wall.

And at that instant, as their gaze was riveted to the window, they caught a fleeting glimpse of a white, terror-stricken face, framed in dishevelled golden hair; but, swiftly as a shadow, it was lost to view in the darkness and storm of the terrible night.

CHAPTER XXXII.

In an instant the wildest confusion prevailed at the Towers, and, despite the fury of the storm, the gentlemen dashed from the drawing-room out on to the porch in search of the beautiful, desperate, golden-haired young girl whose terror-stricken face had been seen at the window.

The foremost of them nearly stumbled over the prostrate form of a woman lying, face downward, among the wet grass.

Despite their belief that the bullet must have been intended for some one of the party in the drawing-room, they raised the cowering form with tender hands, and bore her into the marble corridor, and laid her down on a velvet divan.

Reine had not swooned, she struggled up to her feet like a hunted deer driven at bay, still holding the veil closely down over her face, which shielded her from recognition.

"I—I did not mean the bullet for any of you," she cried, incoherently. "I meant it for myself. I wanted to die and end it all."

"Why, was life so distasteful to you?" asked a fair-haired young man, pityingly.

"You ask me that, Waldemar Waldron?" she cried quivering with intense excitement and passion. "You ask me that?—you who have spoiled and wrecked my life?"

She drew back and looked at him with bitter scorn, clenching her little white hands together, her eyes blazing like blue fires, even through the thick veil.

"There is evidently a strange mistake here," he said quickly. "I am not Waldemar Waldron; I am Clarence Waldron, his younger brother. The likeness between us is said to be striking. Am I right in supposing you have mistaken me for him?"

"Not Waldemar Waldron!" Reine murmured, brokenly. "Am I mad or dreaming? or are my senses playing me false?"

"My friends," he said gravely, turning to those about him, "will you kindly leave me alone with this young woman? There is a grave mystery here."

Intense as their excitement was, there was nothing else for them to do but readily acquiesce to their host's request.

He closed the door carefully after them and wheeled suddenly around, facing Reine.

"I see it all now," he exclaimed, excitedly: "You are the young lady whom my hapless brother wedded, and—Heaven pardon him for it—deserted—"

"Hold—hear me through," he added, as Reine nodded in the affirmative and attempted to speak. "This matter is quite clear to me; I see through this whole matter quite plainly. You, the deserted wife of my poor, unhappy brother, saw the paragraph in this afternoon's paper, and, of course, believed it. Part of the statements made by the reporter were quite true, others sadly mixed up. It was true, Waldron did not die in the waves on the Florida coast; he was picked up by an outward-bound vessel and was landed in China, ill unto death. It was long months before the ravages of fever left him, and he was able to set sail for home; and on that homeward-bound steamer, the first persons whom he saw, upon coming up on deck, were my bride and myself with a party of friends. The second day out, my brother confessed to me the whole story of his misspent life; I came here to take possession of the Towers with my bride and requested that all the neighbors hereabouts should be invited here to meet us. Through my perfect resemblance to my brother Waldemar, I was taken for him by those who saw me drive up from the station. It did not take long, however, to explain the situation, when my curious, wondering guests arrived. A pretty mess these papers have made of it, to be sure. Waldemar will be here to-night. I am expecting him every moment."

Reine listened to the strange recital with speechless amazement. Waldemar really not dead! and this his younger brother! No wonder the newspaper reporter who had made such a strange blunder had been deceived by the close resemblance between the brothers.

But now that Reine observed him more closely, she saw many points wherein he differed from Waldemar.

There was a hasty step in the corridor outside, that both of them recognized.

must win upon their merits. The International Dictionary has won a greater distinction upon its merits and is in more general use than any other work of its kind in the English language.

A. H. Sayce, LL.D., D.D., of Oxford University, England, has recently said of it: It is indeed a marvelous work; it is difficult to conceive of a dictionary more exhaustive and complete. Everything is in it not only what we might expect to find in such a work, but also what few of us would ever have thought of looking for. A supplement to the new edition has brought it fully up to date. I have been looking through the latter with a feeling of astonishment at its completeness, and the amount of labor that has been put into it.

LOCAL OPTION IN OWEN SOUND.

Supreme Court Upholds Decision and Bylaw Stands.

Ottawa, June 25.—In the Supreme Court yesterday judgment was given in the case of Sinclair v. Owen Sound, the appeal being dismissed with costs. This was a case affecting a local option bylaw in the town of Owen Sound. Judge Mabee quashed the bylaw. His judgment was reversed by the Exchequer Division, which decision was affirmed by the Court of Appeal. The Supreme Court has dismissed the appeal and affirmed the decision of the Court of Appeal.

FATAL FOOTBALL INJURY.

Victim Said Blow Was Accident and Refused Name.

New York, June 25.—Matthew J. Burke died in a hospital in Long Island City yesterday of injuries received Saturday last in a football game. In a scrimmage he was struck over the kidneys and died of the resulting hemorrhage.

He insisted that the blow was an accident and refused to give the name of the man with whom he came in contact.

Trial a Week Hence.

Belleville, June 25.—Dorland Foote, the young self-confessed firebug who started a fire in the Queen's Hotel stables, No. 1 firehall and the Jenkins & Sons' stable, was up before the magistrate yesterday morning, and his case was enlarged for another week.

The girl, Amy Babcock, who, Dorland says, incited him to commit arson, also had her case enlarged.

Young Lad Resuscitated.

Ottawa, June 25.—The value of the school training given in the physiology was strongly evidenced when George Turcotte, a 12-year-old lad, was resuscitated by intelligent efforts of a few boys, after he had been rescued from the Rideau Canal and brought on shore in an unconscious condition.

Found Dead On Prairie.

Winnipeg, Man., June 25.—Robert Harwood, pianist, was found dead on the prairie near Freeman's Lake. Harwood, who was a native of England, was a cocaine fiend and a heavy drinker. A previous musician at the same resort was found dead on the prairie about a year ago in a similar manner.

Ship Wrecked.

Santiago, Chile, June 25.—The Pacific Steam Navigation Co.'s coasting steamer Santiago, a vessel of 1,366 tons, trading between Panama and the south coast of South America, has been wrecked fifty miles north of Corral.

Toronto Junction Live Stock.

TORONTO JUNCTION, June 24.—Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 72 carloads, composed of 1424 cattle, 129 sheep, 78 calves and 6 horses.

Exporters.

Prices ranged from $5.90 to $6.25 per cwt., the bulk selling around $6 per cwt. Bulls for export sold at from $5 to $5.50.

Butchers.

Picked lots of prime butchers' sold at from $5.60 to $5.80, but there were few of them at these prices. Best loads sold at from $5 to $5.50; fair to medium, $4.65 to $4.90; medium, mixed, $4.40 to $4.65; cows, $3 to $4.75.

Milch Cows.

Veal Calves.

There was a good demand for veal calves, and prices were quoted at $4 to $6.50 per cwt. Prime new milk-fed calves are worth $7 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Export sheep sold at $5 to $5.50 for ewes; bucks, $3.50 to $4.50; light butcher sheep are worth from $5.75 to $6 per cwt.; lambs sold at $8.50 per cwt.

Hogs.

H. P. Kennedy quoted prices at $6.75 for selects and $6.50 for lights and fats.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, June 24.—(Special.)—At the Montreal stock yards, west end market, the receipts of live stock for the week ending June 22, were 5264 cattle, 87 sheep and lambs, 2260 hogs, and 1242 calves, while the offerings this morning were 1200 cattle, 115 sheep and lambs, 725 hogs and 250 calves. Owing to the more liberal supplies of cattle coming forward, of which the bulk consisted of half finished grass stock, a weaker feeling developed in the market and prices show a decline of 1-4 cent per lb. since this day week.

There was some demand from exporters here this morning and a few small lots of choice steers were bought at 6 cents and bulls at 5 1-4 cents, and they bid 5 1-2 cents for good steers, which holders refused, as they wanted 5 3-4 cents.

There was a fairly good demand from local jobbers and butchers, considering the extreme heat and the difficulty in keeping stock in condition. On the whole a fairly active trade was done, and supplies were well cleaned up. Choice beeves sold at 6c to 6 1-4c, good at 5 1-2c to 5 3-4c. Fair at 5c to 5 1-4c, and lower grades at 3 3-4c to 4 3-4c per lb.

The bulk of the receipts to-day were to fill contracts which were made last week, consequently only a few small lots were on the market for sale and trade was quiet. Selected lots sold at $7.25 to $7.40. Heavy at $7 per 100 lbs. weighed off cars and extra heavy lots were offered at $6.50 and refused. The market for sheep and lambs was quiet. Owing to the small offerings the demand for sheep for export account is good, and all suitable stock coming forward meet with a ready sale at 5c per lb. Lambs are also in good demand for local consumption, and sales were made at $4 to $5 each. Supplies of calves continue fair for the season, for which the demand is good at prices ranging from $4 to $10 each.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, June 24.—Cattle—Receipts, 400 head; slow and 10c to 25c lower; prime steers, $6.25 to $6.75; shipping, $5.50 to $6; butchers', $4.75 to $5.75; heifers, $4 to $5.60; cows, $2.75 to $4.50; bulls, $3.50 to $4.85; stockers and feeders, $3.50 to $4.60; stock heifers, $3 to $3.50; fresh cows and springers slow and $2 lower, $18 to $50.

Hogs—Receipts, 14,500 head; active and 5c to 10c lower; heavy, $6.10 to $6.35; mixed and yorkers, $6.35; pigs, $6.35 to $6.40; roughs, $5.10 to $5.35; stags, $4 to $4.75; dairies, $6 to $6.30.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 1600 head; active; wethers steady; others higher; lambs, $5 to $7.75, yearlings, $6 to $6.50; wethers, $5.25 to $5.75; ewes, $4.75 to $5; sheep, mixed, $2.50 to $5.

New York Live Stock.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Beeves—Receipts, 2282; steers in fair demand and steady; bulls slow to 25c lower; cows demoralized; medium and common cows 25c lower; steers, $5.70 to $6.70, bulls, $3 to $4.50; cows, $1.80 to $4.10. Exports to-morrow, 700 cattle and 3500 quarters of beef.

Calves—Receipts, 4762; veals 50c higher; buttermilks firm to 50c higher. Veals, $5 to $7.75; few choice, $8; throw-outs, $4.25 to $4.75, buttermilks, $3 to $4.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 6777; sheep firm to 25c higher; lambs full $1 higher; common to good sheep, $3.50 to $5; culls, $2.50 to $3; lambs, $7.25 to $8.

Hogs—Receipts, 10,312; market lower for all weights; quoted at $6.50 to $6.60.

THE DEAN PATTERNS

4174.—A CHARMING LITTLE COAT

One of the prettiest of the new models in small coats is shown for the benefit of the home sewer. A round yoke continues to the lower edge in front in real stole fashion and lends height to the wearer. Two side pleats at each side of the centre front and back give a pretty fulness to the skirt portion and allow plenty of room for dainty frocks beneath. Natty turnback cuffs finish the sleeves and a collar to correspond, the neck. The coat is suitable to development in any of the seasonable cloths, taffetas, pongee or linen. For the medium size 2 1-4 yards of 54 inch material are needed.

4174.—Sizes, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 years.
The price of this pattern is 10c.

4163.—A PRETTY SHIRT WAIST DRESS.

Grace and simplicity are essential qualities in the frocks of the young girl and every mother who fashions her daughter's gowns appreciates how difficult the realization of this often proves. A dress which requires no great amount of skill or experience to fashion and which nevertheless appears smart and attractive is sketched. The waist has a fanciful yoke as its distinctive feature with two broad tucks at either side below. The closing is effected beneath the last tuck at the side and on the shoulder, while the sleeves are to be finished full length or shorter as desired. The skirt is a seven gored one laid in pleats and stitched in double box box pleats at the front and back. Mohair is an excellent material for such a dress as it sheds dust and does not quickly show wear while Henrietta, rajah, pongee, linen, crash or madras might be used. For the medium size 5 1-8 yards of 44 inch goods are needed.

4163.—Sizes 14, 15, 16, 17 years.
The price of this pattern is 10c.

Congregation Will Vote on Question

Of Handing Knox Church Over to Trustees of That Congregation

At a meeting of the office bearers of St. Paul's church held last evening it was decided to call a congregational meeting on Monday, July 15th, when the matter of handing over St. Paul's congregation's interest in the Knox church building, free of charge, to the latter congregation, will be considered.

Knox church applied to the office bearers of St. Paul's church a few days ago for permission to make some changes in the interior of the church and erect a gallery at the west end. The office bearers of St. Paul's church, after some discussion, favored handing the property over to Knox church trustees and the matter will be submitted at St. Paul's congregational meeting, called for July 15th.

OBITUARY

MRS. W. R. O'DONNELL.

After suffering several months from heart trouble, Mrs. Wm. R. O'Donnell passed away at her home Crescent street, on Monday morning in the 45th year of her age. The maiden name of the deceased was Flora Williams. She was born in Utica, N. Y., but since early childhood had resided in Peterborough. Her husband died some years ago. Deceased leaves to mourn her loss her father, and three brothers and one sister, the brothers being Edward of Toronto; Eugene of North Bay, and Angus of Utica. The sister is Mrs. D. Crough of Ennismore.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at nine o'clock from the residence of her father, 71 Crescent street to St. Peter's cathedral and thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery.

Vegetable Gardener Taken for Burglar

Was Ordered Away From East City Residence When Leaving Goods

A rather amusing and ridiculous incident happened last evening, at an east city residence, and through it considerable excitement was caused. It appears that a resident had arranged with a local gardener to leave some vegetables at her house. Accordingly the gentleman called about eight o'clock with the goods, but all the occupants of the dwelling were out at the time, and the gardener, not caring to make two trips, first tried all the doors to see if any were open, so he could put the stuff in. Not finding any of the doors open, he endeavored to raise a window. While engaged in this latter act he was accosted by a man who lives next door, and ordered off the property. Having heard so much of burglaries lately, the neighbor thought that the man was suspicious looking, and was trying to enter the house. After feeling confident that the burglar had gone, the neighbor went to the nearest telephone and sent word to the police station of the attempted robbery. A policeman started on the trail of the supposed culprit. Meanwhile, the gardener was on his way home, feeling rather silly at the strange outcome of his errand, but this neighbor never felt so cheap before, to think that his supposed burglar was nothing more than a respected gardener.

SHINING PARLOR FOR THE LADIES

Will be Opened in Peterborough in the Near Future

A ladies' shoe shining parlor will soon be opened in Peterborough. Yeates Bros., George street, are making arrangements to open an exclusive ladies' shoe shining parlor in connection with their present business and it no doubt will be well patronized. It will be equipped in the most modern manner, and will be opened in a few days. This will be something new in Peterborough, although ladies' shoe shining parlors are common in the larger cities.

School Children Must Not Play Rough Games in Victoria Park

Horticultural Society Has Written to Public School Inspector—Public Requested to be More Careful—Great Improvements for Central Park Under Way.

The Peterborough Horticultural Society is busy this year as usual, and they will again examine all the premises of private individuals in the city and award prizes for those who have kept their yards in the best condition under the circumstances.

The Society is also making arrangements to have the trees in Central Park trimmed now, so as not to have to cut them later when it would be more injurious. In connection with the Central Park it might be mentioned that the officers of the Horticultural Society have in mind the duty that will rest upon them in conjunction with the city authorities in making up the grounds and arranging for public walks through the parks, so that there will be a very handsome foreground to the two new buildings, the armories and the Collegiate Institute.

When this work has been completed the result will be that that the lawn will be made right up to the front of the two new buildings, and it will look more parklike than heretofore. This implies that the grounds shall not be used to such an extent for baseball, football and other strenuous games, as it is impossible to keep any place in proper condition under such circumstances. Central Park will in another year or two be a bower of beauty, and it will be a credit to the city.

VICTORIA PARK.

The President of the Horticultural Society has sent a letter to the Inspector of Public schools notifying him that Victoria Park cannot be used by the schools as a romping ground for the children. While they are perfectly welcome to go through the park by way of the paths, rough games are wholly inconsistent with keeping up pretty flower beds. The children are reckless and much damage has been done, forcing the society to take strong action to save the beauty of the flower beds by putting restraint on the children.

Then at night there are large gatherings, especially on band nights, when great crowds frequent this ideal spot. It is regrettable to state that some of those people do not hesitate to break down the guards around the flowers and to trample on them. Some of the most beautiful plants have been destroyed in this way. As these flowers are kept at the public expense and for the people to admire, the society naturally looks to the public to treat Victoria Park with the same care they would private property. The people should cultivate a love for the beautiful and help to keep up these grounds, which are so creditable to the city and so attractive to excursionists and visitors.

Shows at Exhibition Grounds This Afternoon and Evening—Some Thrilling Features of the Programme—Great Street Parade Witnessed by Thousands of People.

This is circus day in Peterborough. Who can picture the delight of the small boy and girl and the suppressed excitement of many who are no longer young. Let memory carry you back to the days when you were a boy or girl yourself and don't blame the youngsters if they seem overly excited and more inclined to think of the circus than anything else in the whole big world. You were just as bad yourself once; probably you are not completely over it yet.

The city is in possession to-day of one of the biggest crowds that has been here for a long time. Early this morning people began to stream into town and at noon it was almost impossible to get a place at a table in the hotels and restaurants. Numerous gallants from the country along with their maidens fair were walking about the city streets at 6.30 this morning. Apparently they were not going to miss anything that was going.

The great Forepaugh-Sells circus arrived in the city by Grand Trunk at an early hour this morning and is quartered at the exhibition grounds. These have been converted into a small city in which all is activity and bustle, but where, despite the hundreds of people and animals, there is still order and system.

The arrival of the circus was witnessed by a big crowd of men and boys, boys and girls. Some stayed up all night to see the circus come in while others left their downy beds at an early hour this morning to be on hand for the unloading of the trains. It was a great sight too and well worth taking the trouble to see.

THE PARADE.

The principal streets of the city were parade at noon, the splendid pageant being witnessed by hundreds of people.

For hours before the parade was due this morning crowds of ladies and children lined the streets, and every point of vantage was eagerly snapped up. When the first notes of the band accompanying the parade could be heard workmen in stores and clerks in business houses dropped their work and hastened to the windows.

The parade left the show grounds shortly before 12 o'clock, owing to delay in trains and when it was fully stretched out it measured over a mile. It was certainly one of the best that has been seen in this city in years and well repaid those who turned out to see it. All the way the crowds on the streets were from ten to fifteen deep on both sidewalks, whilst the windows were packed with children eager to see everything and interested to the very last.

The features which delighted every one were the splendid collection of horses of all shades and sizes and the fine equestrians the circus has with it. A troupe of Mexican cowboys in their picturesque native costumes made a fine showing. The parade was punctuated with music from the seven bands that are carried.

The animals are always a drawing card, and the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers circus is not lacking in these. As the lions, tigers, leopards, polar bears and hippopotamus in open cages passed the admiration of the crowd, and camels, each animal bearing a gorgeously dressed driver and riders, were perhaps the best feature of the animal part of the show.

Particular mention must be made of the splendid exhibition of firemen and apparatus which was another popular item in the parade. The brigade was one which any city might be proud to own.

FEATURES OF PERFORMANCE.

When such features as "looping the gap" and "the death leap" were introduced by circuses in past years, it was said that the limit of human ingenuity and of daring had been reached, but the Adam Forepaugh & Sells Brothers' show put on a feature which is so much in advance of any of these former blood-curdlers that it is designed "Beyond the Limit." It is the act of Mlle. La Raque, and it certainly is a thrilling one. Mlle. La Raque rides in an auto weighing 1,200 her own weight being 150.

The plane on which the car decends has an elevation of about 45 feet and an angle of 65 degrees. At the bottom of the descent the car takes a sudden jag, asends into space at an angle of about 60 degrees, rises 30 or 40 feet, and then the front of the car dips and it describes a complete revolution in mid-air, descends and slights upon a platform with its daring rider smiling.

The effect upon the vast audience this afternoon as the rider and car took their places on the upper platform was intense. As silence and stillness that could be felt came over the crowd. When the descent, the suden ascent, the somersault and the final landing are accomplished the crowd breaks into the most demonstrative applause.

The great fire scene is another thriller. Five hundred people are seen about the square, in front and around a large hotel. Four fire companies, with aerial truck, steam engines, hose wagons, etc., arrive, and the most thrilling rescues are performed, as the fire is fought in realistic style.

There are other splendid features in the show. The company carries waterproof tents, so that there need be no fear in case of rain.

Reynolds Collapsed on Road; Was Unable to Finish Long Walk

Plucky Pedestrian Fainted After He Had Passed Newcastle on Return Trip When Within a Few Miles of End of His Journey—Had to be Driven Back to the Village.

Special to the Review.

Newcastle, June 25.—James Reynolds the Port Hope barber, who undertook, on a wager, to walk from Port Hope to Toronto, and return, a distance of 130 miles, within 38 hours, was unable to complete his journey, although he made a plucky fight to do so. After passing through this village, which is fifteen miles from Port Hope, where Reynolds was to finish by three o'clock this afternoon, he gradually grew weaker. When a mile out of the village, and about fourteen from the end of his journey, the veteran pedestrian fell on the road from sheer exhaustion. He said that he had five hours in which to complete the fourteen miles, and that he would crawl on his hands and knees and win. This was at ten o'clock. A minute or two after Reynolds fainted and was placed in a buggy and driven here. He is now at the Oriental Hotel, Alfred Bennett proprietor—and at noon today was sleeping from sheer exhaustion. He is so week and tired and footsore that he will not be allowed to complete the trip.

James Reynolds, the 55-year-old barber of Port Hope, who is walking from that place to Toronto and back, on a wager that he can do the distance of 130 miles in 38 hours arrived at King Edward hotel last night at 6.45, dusty and tired, and full of confidence that he will accomplish his hard trip. He left Port Hope, accompanied by the stake-holders and his representatives in buggies at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and excepting for a stop at Bowmanville, where he changed his boots, and his hour's rest at the King Edward, came through without a rest. He was clad in an undershirt, knickers, soft hat, and heavy walking boots. Reynolds is well within his schedule, and, barring accidents, should win the money.

A Port Hope despatch states; —The match was made several months ago. Reynolds' opponents agreeing, to wager $1,200 against his $600 that he could not make the trip in 38 hours. Reynolds put up $300 against the opposition's $600 to bind the bargain, and the balance was to be put up a few days previous to the race. Reynolds deposited the remaining $300 of his bet, but the other side backed down, so that the wager now stands $300 against $600. Notwithstanding the early hour that the start was made, a large crown of citizens were present, and gave the plucky barber a royal send-off Since the bet was first proposed Reynolds had been walking from 20 to 30 miles daily, and is in excellent trim. He tips the scales at 140 pounds, a reduction of sixteen pounds since his trip to Toronto last summer. The general feeling in Port Hope is that he will accomplish the undertaking, and there is very little betting against him.

REVIEW LETTER BOX

THE SLAUGHTER OF DOGS

The the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—If you are so anxious to know when the dog poisoner will quit I can tell you. It will quit when all the nasty bighting bruits are gone.

Why should the place be troubled by the trecherous things. I have been bitten twice and the seat of my pants gone once and I will cleare Peterborough of them.

The poison is strickcanine and I buy it in Toronto.

Yours truly,
D. KILLER.

STILL THE FIRES BURN

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—The attention of the authorities has been repeatedly called to the nuisance, injury and danger of setting out fires in our back yards. There is another and higher aspect of the case which has not been touched upon. We know that there is no greater menace to the welfare of society than for the people, or any portion of them to disregard the laws of the land. Such disregard breeds contempt, and contempt breeds anarchy. What an object lesson for the rising generation to know that there is a law against these fires, and to see it violated with impunity and no effort being made to bring the guilty parties to justice. In order to remove the baneful effects of such an influence I would respectfully ask our Mayor and Aldermen to rescind the bylaw in that behalf, they are not sincere in enforcing it. I have noticed these fires every day since the passing of the bylaw. This morning before eight o'clock I saw four of them near the same spot, quite near to a board fence, as well as to the building, two of them in full blast at the same time.

Yours, etc.,
LOYALTY.

Two Companies Off to Kingston

About 80 Rangers Got Away Early This Morning

The two companies from the 57th regiment to form part of the composite regiment at Barriefield camp, Kingston, left this morning by Grand Trunk. Both companies were almost full strength, each having about forty of all ranks. Capt. Mills and Lieuts. Hodgson and Merritt were in charge one company, while Lieut. Best was in charge of the other. Capt. McWilliams was unable to get away today, but will leave for Kingston to-morrow and will take command of the company with Lieut. Best as subaltern. Lieut Higgins who was to have been the other subaltern for the company cannot get away. Major Clegg was in command of the two companies.

The redcoats paraded at the drill hall at 7.30 o'clock and along with about ten buglers and drummers marched to the G.T.R. station where they boarded a special train. The men presented a fine appearance and will no doubt give a good account of themselves during their three days in camp. They will return home on Friday.

Weaver Drank Carbolic Acid

Port Hope Man Ends His Life—Despondent Over Poor Health

Special to the Review.

Port Hope, June 25.—James Baxter, a weaver, aged 64 years, committed suicide here last night by drinking carbolic acid. Dr. A. T. Dickinson was summoned and was present when death came. Ill health is said to have been the cause of the act.

A wife, three sons and one daughter survive.

MOVING PICTURES AT JACKSON PARK

Biggest Crowd of Season Was There Last Night.

For the first time this season, moving pictures were shown at Jackson Park last night and a big crowd was on hand to take in the sights and hear the excellent music provided by the 57th regiment band. The pictures shown were all new ones in Peterborough and they were above the average. They were thrown on the canvas, clearly and steadily and were greatly appreciated by the large number who watched them. It was the biggest crowd of the season and they were well pleased with the entertainment.

Jackson Park is an ideal spot to spend these hot evenings and the band concerts and moving picture entertainments will no doubt be largely patronized during the summer.

DOCTORS AND LAWYERS.

The doctors will entertain the lawyers to-morrow afternoon to the annual outing to Idyl Wyld. The steamer Otonabee will leave the Wolfe street wharf at one o'clock and the street railway wharf at 1.30. This has always been one of the jolliest parties that leaves Peterborough for an outing and there is no doubt the doctors will prove themselves capital hosts.

CONFERRED DEGREES.

At the regular meeting of Otonabee lodge, No. 13, I.O.O.F., held last night four candidates had conferred upon them the first, second and third degrees. Several visiting brethren were present from Campbellford and Lakefield. At a recent meeting of the I.O.O.F. district meeting it was decided to recommend that Bro. R. J. Matchett, P.G., of Otonabee lodge, be the D.D.G.M., for the Peterborough district for the coming year. He will succeed Bro. Wm. Hill, D.D.G.M., at the end of his present term of office.

The painters' strike in Hamilton is ended and the men get 30 and 32 1-2 cents per hour.

C. P. R. car checkers at London have asked for an increase to $50 a month from $45.

Moonlight Trip Was Much Enjoyed

St. Luke's Young Men's Guild Outing Was Well Patronized

About three hundred people took in the moonlight trip down the river on the new steamer Otonabee last night. The excursion was under the auspices of St. Luke's Men's Guild, and it was a decided success in every way. The evening was an ideal one for such an affair, the moon shining forth brightly.

The steamer left the city shortly after eight o'clock, with a good crowd on board, and the trip was made down the river for about seven miles, where the boat turned around on the homeward journey. The excursion was made more pleasant by music on the piano and mandolin, of popular songs. The people joined heartily in the singing and altogether a very enjoyable time was held. A refreshment booth on board was well patronized. The steamer arrived at the Wolfe street wharf shortly after eleven o'clock. The committee worked hard for the success of the affair and they were well pleased with the result.

Splendid Recital Given by Pupils

Piano Students Acquitted Themselves Very Creditably

The pupils of Miss Ethel Tully, 351 McDonnel street, gave a recital at the residence of their teacher last evening and a splendid programme was pleasingly and artistically carried out. The manner in which the pupils executed the various numbers reflected the highest credit on themselves and their faithful teacher. Special mention should bee made of the exceptionally proficient work, of Misses Mabel Pringle, Lillian Hill and Edythe Kerr.

The programme was as follows;

PART I

1. Instrumental solo, "Folk Song," by Urbach,—Miss Bertha De Hart.
2. Solo, "Heart's Ease Waltz," by De Forest.—Miss Rhea Potter.
3. Duett, "Folk Song," by Urbach. Misses Edythe Kerr and Lillian Hill.

24th F.B.C.A. Break Camp Saturday

Will Arrive Here Sunday and Owners of Horses Requested to be on Hand

A letter has been received from Lieut. R. H. Leary, of the 24th F.B.C.A., now in camp at Petewawa that they will break camp Saturday morning and start for home arriving here about seven o'clock Sunday morning. It is requested that all farmers who have horses at camp be on hand at the Ashburnham armouries to take charge of their animals.

Lieut. Leary further states that they have had a splendid drill and all the boys and horses are doing well. The animals have excellent stables and are looking fine. The weather has been very warm and the country dusty otherwise everything has been all that could be desired.

FORMER PASTOR GETS AN INCREASE

A Calgary despatch says,—At a special meeting of Grace Presbyterian church held last evening, it was decided to increase the salary of the minister, Rev. A. McWilliams, from $1,300 to $1,800. This increase of $500 is a substantial tribute to the popularity of Mr. McWilliams. Mr. McWilliams is a former pastor of St. Andrew's church, Peterborough.

FARM CHANGES HANDS

The 100-acre farm of Mr. Ed. Ball, west half of lot 8, concession 13, North Monaghan, was sold this week to Mr. David Eastwood, of Smith township. Mr. George Ruth, real estate agent, effected the sale. It is understood that the purchase price was in the neighborhood of $8,000.

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

New York, June 25.—Strength in the London market today where trading for the new account started, which included substantial recovery in consols and other gilt-edged issues which communicated to this market today and the traders were found ready and willing to help along, the upward movement. While there was a small amount of investment buying, the advance was largely at the expense of the short interest, and there was a good deal of profit-taking on the part of recent buyers during the afternoon. In the last hour the market was not far from the top which showed gains of 1 to 3 points among the better issues, generally, and there did not seem to be much follow-up to the buying.

THE TRUTH ABOUT

MINING

Do you invest in mining? Have you ever invested in Mining? Do you ever expect to invest in mining?

Did you ever make money from speculating? Would you like to make money from investing?

Have you money deposited in a bank drawing but THREE or FOUR per cent. interest? Have you funds invested in mortgages or real estate that are not earning a large rate of interest?

These questions all bear upon your present and future welfare, and your name should be upon the mailing list of "Spear's Mine Development." This paper tells the truth about legitimate mining and instructs you how mining should be conducted. It will tell you all about the great mining interests in Northern Ontario. It will keep you posted on the Larder Lake District, where rich gold discoveries are being made.

It will cost you nothing to receive "Spear's Mine Development," except the cost of a postage stamp or postal card in writing us to let us know that you want "Spear's Mine Development."

"Spear's Mine Development" will be sent to you absolutely free of cost. It is the only mining paper of its kind published in Canada. There has never been one published in Canada like it.

It is a real newspaper, up-to-date, truthful and instructive.

It contains information about the Larder Lake, Montreal River, Round Lake, Lake Abitibi, Cobalt and all Northern Ontario mining districts.

"Spear's Mine Development" describes and illustrates legitimate, profitable investments in mining. Every person interested in mining, or who would like to know about mining, should have this paper.

"Spear's Mine Development" will make millions of dollars for investors through safe and profitable investments in mining.

This is why it is read by thousands of people all over the country—becaus investors desire to know about legitimate mining propositions.

If you are at all interested in mining, or if you would like to know anything about mining and the development of mining properties, you cannot well afford to be without "Spear's Mine Development." It will be sent FREE, post paid, to all who write for it. Just ask for "Spear's Mine Development" by dropping a postal card or a letter to P. V. FRASER & COMPANY, Financial Agents, 23 Toronto Street, Toronto, Ontario.

County Tax Rate One Fifth Mill Lower For General Purposes

New Rate for House of Refuge Maintenance—Total Amount to be Raised is $27,168.44—House of Refuge Matters—Special Meeting on October 22nd.

During the session of the County Council which was closed on Saturday at noon, there was some discussion re selling a lot of the farm, connected with the County House of Refuge. In reference to this matter, it was moved by Messrs. Brown and Moher that the matter of selling any lot off the House of Refuge farm be referred to the County Property Committee.

On motion of Messrs. Booth and Hales, the matter of renting the dwelling house on the House of Refuge farm was left in the hands of the Board of Management with power to act.

The warden requested the council to pass a bylaw providing that any member of the council may claim the body of any inmate who may die in the House of Refuge. This will prevent the bodies of the inmates who die and have no friends to bury them, being sent to the School of Anatomy.

The following bylaw was then passed,—

"Whereas it is expedient to provide for the proper interment of persons dying in any public institutions maintained by the County, and whose bodies are not claimed by relatives of the deceased.

"Therefore, the Municipal Corporation of the County of Peterborough by the Council, thereof, enacts as follows, That all members of the County Council of the County of Peterborough, shall, pursuant to the provisions of section 41 of chapter 10 of the Ontario Statutes, 1904, be deemed to be bona fide friends of any person dying in any public institution of this county, for the purposes set forth in section 2 of the Ontario Anatomy Act."

WANTED DAMAGES.

Mr. J. K. Galvin of Burnsmore, addressed the council and asked to be re-imbursed for the loss of five cattle which were drowned in 1904. The facts of the case are that during 1904 the Pidgeon Creek bridge was closed for repairs. One day a teamster opened the barricade to take in a load of material, and left the gate open until he was ready to come out. In the meantime Mr. Galvin was driving his cattle past and five of them went through and were drowned. This matter came up before the council that year and was investigated, but the council decided to take no action. In view of this the council again decided to take no action.

SURGEON'SS SALARY.

On motion of Messrs. Scott and Moher, the treasurer was authorized to pay the House of Refuge surgeon, as salary, dating from Feb. 1st, 1907, the sum of $150 per annum, said amount to cover drugs necessary, and if Dr. Brown refuses to accept the same, the superintendent and Board of Management are hereby authorised to employ medical assistance when required.

SPECIAL MEETING.

A bylaw to provide for the issuing of debentures to raise $4,000 for the purpose of building bridges in the county, received its first and second readings without amendment, and on motion of Messrs. Breault and Moher, the council adjourned to meet October 22nd next, for the purpose of giving the said bylaw its third reading, at the same time authorising the clerk to advertise the said bylaw in accordance with the law.

LOWER TAX RATE.

The general county rate this year is 1-5 of a mill less than in 1906, for which Councillor Thompson, chairman of the Finance Committee deserves great credit. This rate is 2 3-5 mills; the school rate is 15 mills or the same as last year, and a new rate of .62 mills for the maintenance of the County House of Refuge. The total amount of money to be raised is $27,168.44.

A bylaw to assess, levy and collect certain sums of money for county purposes for the County of Peterborough for the year, 1907, was passed as follows,—

Whereas it is estimated that the sum of $21,057.63 is required for county purposes for the year, 1907, for the payment of salaries, jurors, sheriffs, administration of justice in all its forms, for the council and municipal expenses, wolf bounty, repairs to roads and bridges, votes of council and other expenses including $5,021.40 for the maintenance of the County House of Refuge, and $1,089.41 for school purposes, equivalent to Government grant. It was therefore enacted that the following municipalities be collected from,—

	County Purposes	School Purposes
Lakefield	$ 808.05
Norwood	535.97
Asphodel	2354.72	119.05
Belmont	771.23	40.32

STREET DELIVERY OF MAIL MATTER

Will be Started Very Soon—Two Cents Postage on Drop Letters.

Mr. Wm. Smith, secretary of the Post Office Department, Ottawa, has written Col. H. C. Rogers, postmaster, that the free delivery system of mail matter in Peterborough will start at the earliest possible moment.

The business men and others who have drop letters will have to pay two cents on each letter instead of one, but they are guaranteed that, when correctly addressed to a certain street and number, the recipients will get the letters, whereas, now, if the parties think the missives are "dunners" they will not take them out of the post office, but will say they are intended for some one else. Thus many letters sent out by merchants never reach the persons to whom they are addressed. Copies of newspapers sent through the mail by publishers to subscribers in the municipality where free delivery applies will have to pay one cent postage for every four ounces or fraction thereof.

Provided Music for Ten Cents

How two Tricky Fellows Played for Havelock Residents

Havelock, June 25.—A couple of tricky fellows who are trying to earn their living in the easiest way possible, visited town last week and made an attempt to do the citizens of this burg. At a private residence or hotel they would ask for ten cents to furnish music for half an hour. When the ten cents was produced the instrument used to furnish the music was found to be an old cornet with a voice slightly cracked on account of it's age, and mouth organ that had every other reed blocked. A few minutes sufficed to furnish all the music desired by the bystanders by and they were asked to move on, having easily earned their ten cents by a few minutes work.

COMPLAINS OF S. A. BAND

Perhaps "Onlooker" is Actuated by Motives of Jealousy or Envy—Who Knows.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Sunday evening, I noticed a number of people, who I am prepared to call some of God's little ones, without fear of contradiction, were holding a religious meeting at the corner of George and Simcoe streets. The crowd that stood around this gathering, were drinking in the truth as it was told out, when along comes the big, blatant Salvation Army Band, and with all lack of common courtesy, saying nothing about anything of a Christian character, blowing their instruments and banging their drums, to the drowning of the sound of the voices of those, who were in their simple and earnest way endeavoring to tell men and women the way of life. I noticed, however, that the crowd stayed with the little company, until they separated and went to their place of worship. Another confirmation of the truth, that if Jesus Christ is lifted up, He will draw all men up to Him.

How long will this and other wrongs be allowed to go on, without proper action being taken? The question was asked in my presence last night, "Of what use is the big, brass band, as a means of helping men and women into an experience of righteous living?" I honestly cannot answer. Perhaps some one can give the public some needed information. Signed,

AN ONLOOKER.

CHURCH PARADE OF ORANGEMEN

Will be Held to All Saints' Church on Sunday, July 7

The annual church parade of the Orangemen of the Peterborough district will be held this year on Sunday, July 7th, to All Saints' church in the evening when the rector, Rev. William Major, will deliver a special sermon to the visitors.

The brethren will meet at their hall on Simcoe street and march to the church in a body.

Will Celebrate Here Next Year

Orangemen Going to Millbrook This Year—Will Assemble in Peterboro' in 1908

The Orangemen of Peterborough district will all go to Millbrook July 12th this year to take part in the big demonstration there. Next year the L.O.L. men will gather in Peterborough in large numbers. Already big preparations are being made for the event. The County Orange Lodge at its semi-annual meeting held in Lakefield last week, fully discussed the matter. County Master W. H. G. Armstrong presided, and the project was enthusiastically received.

Bro. Geo. Sloan having resigned the position as County Secretary, Mr. E. G. Clarke, of Diamond L.O.L., No 80, was elected to fill this position for the balance of the term.

New Steel Bridges Needed; County Likely to Assume Them

County Engineer Belcher Recommends That the Two Bridges in Asphodel and the One in Belmont be Rebuilt With Steel and Concrete.

At the meeting of the county council held last week, reports were received from County Engineer John E Belcher, C.E., on three new bridges badly needed in the county. The county councillors have examined these bridges and are strongly of the opinion, it is generally understood, that the county should assume them. They are at present in a very bad state of repairs and will soon have to be rebuilt, and as they are all on boundary lines, they come within the council's policy of assuming such bridges. The county engineer favors the proposal in all three cases and emphatically states that they should be rebuilt at once and by the county.

The three reports are as follows;

BRIDGE FOR ASPHODEL

To the Warden and Gentlemen of the County Council.

Gentlemen;

I have received your instructions to report on the bridge over the River Ouse, on Victoria street, Norwood, in the township of Asphodel, on the high road leading to the village of Hastings. I have known this bridge for many years, and truly it has done yeoman's work, but though some small repairs have been done to the trusses of the old structure, I think it is about time your council should take it into your serious consideration, and requiescat in pace should be your motto It is now about 33 years since I measured and reported, aided by Mr. Michael Sanderson, on this bridge, or what remains of it.

The bridge is not a credit in appearance, to the progressive town of Norwood, but taking into consideration that in itself, Norwood has the maintenance and construction of some five or six additional bridges, together with unmurmuringly paying its quota to all the other county bridges for the past 36 years, the town is not much to blame for this bridges, delapidated condition.

The bridge, in my opinion, should be replaced by a steel structure of from 70 to 75 feet in clear span, having a reinforced concrete floor and concrete abutments, with a roadway width of 18 feet and a sidewalk of five feet width on the upstream side. The bridge should be well kept up, so as to aid the grade of the street.

If, gentlemen, I have stepped outside my official character in sympathizing with an old friend, the Norwood bridge, though none of my family, I feel sure that many, if not all of you, can appreciate "Auld Lang Syne."

Signed,
JOHN E BELCHER, C.E.
County Engineer.

BRIDGE FOR BELMONT

To the Warden and Gentlemen of the County Council.

Gentlemen;

On the 26th of last April, in accordance with instructions from your council, I proceeded to Havelock, where I met Mr Thompson, reeve, Havelock, and Mr. McNulty, warden of the county, and with them proceeded in an easterly direction towards Round Lake, in the township of Belmont, and driving on the leading and only road to the back country to Cardiff, Anstruther and other northern townships. This road, in consequence of the roughness of the country, is of devious directions and at a point on the road between the 8th and 9th concessions, on the 23rd lot, a bridge crossed a creek, running into Round Lake. This bridge is an old one of but small span say 25 or 30 feet, which after crossing, one is met by an almost inaccessible hill, and travellers say it is thoroughly so when frost forms, as from its direction on a curve, to avoid a higher grade, it is with difficulty ascended, and becomes really dangerous with a load in frosty weather.

In reporting on the peculiar position of this bridge and how it came to be built there, I might state that a glance at the stretch will suffice. The creek, when narrow, is flanked by precipitous and rocky banks. The little gully was evidently seized by the astute lumbermen as a ready spot, probably to roll on a dump, or to make a dam to run out his logs, thus likely the spot became sufficiently known and convenient to erect a little bridge to reach camp, and subsequently resolved itself into the dignity of a highway bridge, regardless of its future And so I find it, practically useless for the purpose of travel on the only highway to the north from Havelock via Round Lake.

I would advise that the bridge should be a steel one of a clean span of about 100 feet, more or less, probably less, much depending on the bottom, which from the surroundings, I should say was solid; the abutments would be of concrete, with concrete floor to bridge. This should be raised high to permit the bridge abutments and approaches to aid in reducing the hill. Of course, should your committee give the matter your favorable consideration, and which the case deserves, the township should guarantee the construction of the approaches.

Signed,
JOHN E BELCHER, C.E.
County Engineer.

OUSE RIVER BRIDGE

To the Warden and Gentlemen of the County Council.

Gentlemen;

Having received instructions to examine the bridge site on the concession line between concessions No. 6 and No. 7, on lot 14, in township of Asphodel, over the River Ouse, I proceeded to Norwood on March 14, 1907, and in company with Mr. A. Breault, reeve of Norwood, proceeded to survey the site in question, where we met the warden

The concession line runs north and south and at a point about 200 yards distant from the northern boundary of lot 14, jogs east some 400 yards, being stopped short by the low, drowned land, caused from the overflow of the River Ouse. After jogging easterly about he above distance, the road then pursues a southerly direction, crossing higher up on the stream, a most delipidated bridge over the said Ouse River. The continuation of the concession line from the point of divergence first aforesaid, has recently been chopped open through the drowned land, and the old bridge now being condemned for travel, it is sought to continue the concession line in its southerly direction by opening up, raising, trenching and grading the concession road for this purpose. A bridge will be necessary of say from 75 to 80 feet waterway, having steel superstructure and concrete abutments, and further a deepening of the creek at this point and for a distance above bridge site for at least 200 yards to confine the waters to cut a new channel There is no doubt but the bridge is now a necessity and most desirable. It is the straight concession and should be opened through for the purposes of travel, but yet it is for your council to determine its adoption, and it is one I can honestly recommend to the consideration of your honorable body, as being of much need in the locality basing this statement on the representations of the residents in the locality.

Signed,
JOHN E BELCHER, C.E.
County Engineer.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country, than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years, was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Onhio., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

For Trespassing on G.T.R. Tracks

Six Boys Were Fine $1 Each in Police Court To-day

For trespassing on the G. T. R. tracks, near Jackson Park, six young fellows were each fined one dollar in the police court this morning by His Worship Magistrate Dumble. They were Vince Creebur, Percy Lynch, H. McNern, Arthur Blade, H. Baker, F Dunnett, and Ed. Cain. Each pleaded guilty to walking on the track a week ago last Sunday. They were watched by a G.T.R. detective. Complaints have reached the head officials of boys throwing stones at the cars, and one brakeman complained of being struck. He watched on the night in question and he noticed one small boy trying to board the train. This boy was running a lot of risk and the company would be held responsible for it if he had been hurt.

His Worship said they would have their hands full if they prosecuted all who trespassed on the track. The company had a right to make people stay off their property, and if they brought them to court, it was his place to deal with them. He, therefore, imposed the above fine to be paid in ten days.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

The communicants class will be held on Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock; prayer meeting at eight o'clock, while the session will meet at nine o'clock.

The Home Auxiliary of St. Paul's and Knox churches will meet at Knox church on Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

The Young Men's Guild will hold their annual picnic to Idyl Wyld on Thursday afternoon next, while the annual Sunday outing will take place to the same spot per steamer Otonabee, on Friday, July 5.

Preparatory Communion service will be conducted in the church on Friday evening.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed next Sunday morning.

Ottawa, June 25.—Two large smokestacks on the Riordon Pulp Mills at Hawkesbury, were blown down during a windstorm, killing Wilfrid Ouimet and injuring three others. One of the men injured is in a serious condition, but will recover. The other two were only slightly hurt. Several hundred dollars in property damage was done. Ouimet was a young, unmarried man.

FELL FROM ENGINE PILOT.

Canadian Pacific Brakeman Killed In Rainy River District.

Kenora, Ont., June 25.—F. C. Heathcote, a brakeman employed on a C. P. R. freight train, was instantly killed at Dinorwic, about 80 miles from here, by falling from the pilot of the engine. His right arm, leg and neck were broken.

He was an Englishman, 22 years of age, and had no relatives in this country.

Toronto Man Killed.

Port Hope, June 25. Harry B. Wright of Toronto, a lineman of the C. P. R. Telegraph Co., met a sudden fatality here yesterday morning.

With three other men, in charge of Foreman W. Hillis, Toronto, deceased was making some repairs when his arm touched a live wire and a charge passed through his body, killing him instantly.

Balloonist Lost.

London, June 25.—All doubt as to the fate of Lieuts. Caulfield and Leake of the Royal Engineers, who made a balloon ascension from Aldershot camp on May 28, has been removed. The body of Lieut. Caulfield has been picked up at sea near Weymouth.

Drank Paris Green.

Brockville, June 25.—In a fit of temporary insanity, Mrs. Chent, an elderly woman living at Glenmore, committed suicide by drinking paris green. Her act was not discovered for some time after, when it was too late to save her life.

Trains Delayed by Fires.

Ottawa, June 25.—The C.P.R. trains arriving in Ottawa from the west during the last few days have been delayed by the forest fires. A bridge was destroyed over the Montreal River, and passengers had to be transferred to another train.

C. P. R. Held Responsible.

Ottawa, June 25. Lawrence Williams, the five-year-old adopted son of Polycarpe Pirier, butcher, Hull, was drowned in a water-filled excavation on the C.P.R. ground, Albion street. The C.P.R. are held criminally responsible.

Killed in Station Yards.

PREFERS WEST TO ONTARIO

Interesting Letter From a Saskatchewan Farmer

W. R. Emmerson, of Kenlis, Sask., in renewing his subscription to the Review, says:—

We had a lot of rain last week, but this week it has been bright and warm, but cool at nights. I never saw the crops looking better since I came to this country, but they are a week to ten days later than in other years, but if we get the right kind of weather I think they will be as early as other years. Oats two weeks ago were just through the soil, and today you can't see the ground. We have in 335 acres of wheat this summer, and 50 acres of oats, and 6 of barley, and 200 acres for summer fallow, and we have 135 ploughed over once. I can tell you I would not go back to Ontario to farm again, as it is so much easier up here.

Michael Fallon Was Discharged

Not Guilty of Breaking into Residence of Mr. R. Nimmo

Michael Fallon, charged with breaking into the house of Mr. R. Nimmo, Harvey street, early Saturday morning, June 8th, was discharged yesterday afternoon by His Honor Judge Weller. Crown Attorney R. E. Wood conducted the case, and O'Connell and Gordon defended the prisoner. All the evidence for the defence had not been taken last Tuesday and was resumed yesterday.

Mr. Fred McCormack, brother-in-law of the prisoner, was called. He swore that he was at the prisoner's house the night of the burglary. Fallon was lying drunk, with his clothes and boots on, till after midnight. Witness did not know where Fallon was from midnight, till 6 a.m. next morning.

The prisoner went into the box and swore that he was drunk on the night of the burglary. He told P. C. Newhall, the day of his arrest that he got home that night at 9 p. m. He denied ever being near Mr. Nimmo's residence. Two overcoats were produced in court. The prisoner identified his overcoat, which is somewhat lighter than the one used for identification. He also denied ever wearing a Christie stiff hat.

His Honor in giving his judgment remarked that Fallon was not being tried for being drunk. A man that would drink and go on the way he does, was nothing more than a beast. He said that Miss Nimmo had given splendid evidence and was quite a clever young lady. However she did not get a good square look at him. Fallon seemed to answer the description of the burglar. The fact that Fallon was put in a stiff hat and overcoat for identification would have an effect on Miss Nimmo's mind. The fact of paint being found on the walls does not alone make a conviction. If the evidence for the defence is true, the prisoner was at home at this time of the burglary. No matter how bad the prisoner is, and the judge had no sympathy with him, he had a doubt in his mind as to the prisoner's connection with the affair. He therefore, discharged him.

REGIMENT WILL DRILL TO-NIGHT

The 57th regiment will have a regular drill tonight, and as the orders for the St. Catharines trip will be given out, it is important that everyone should be on hand. There will likely be another drill on Thursday night.

St. George's church, Newcastle, will celebrate its 50th anniversary on Sunday July 7th.

Will Make Test of Special Machine

At Corner of George and Brock To-morrow Morning at 8 O'clock

An interesting machine for cutting and making connections with water mains, without the necessity of shutting off the water will be tried by the water commissioners tomorrow morning at eight o'clock, at the corner of George and Brock streets.

All who desire to see the test are requested to be on hand. The machine is made by the A. P. Smith Manufacturing Company of Newark, N. J., and will be purchased by the commissioners if it gives satisfaction.

It will cut the 12 inch pipe on George street, tap it and allow of an eight inch pipe being connected without the water being shut off the main pipe. A new four way hydrant will be placed at the corner of George and Brock streets, and the eight inch pipe, which will tap the 12 inch main will connect with the new hydrant.

The machine is said to be a wonderful invention, and a large crowd is expected to be on hand tomorrow to see it work.

WEDDING BELLS

DELANEY—CONDON

The marriage took place at the Douro church this morning of Miss Nora Condon, daughter of James Condon of Douro township, to Mr. Daniel Delaney of the same township. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Kielty in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. After the wedding, the bridal couple and friends drove to the home of the bride's father where a wedding dinner was partaken of.

The happy young couple will reside in Douro.

Major Clegg Commanding The Composite Regiment

Major E. B. Clegg of Peterborough will be in command of the composite regiment at Kingston camp, composed of members of the 14th, 15th and 57th regiments. Colonel Halliwell of the Reserve of Officers, late of the 15th regiment, Belleville, who was to have been the officer commanding of the composite regiment, is lying seriously ill at his home at Stirling and as a result will not be able to fill the position assigned him. Major Clegg, the next officer after Col. Halliwell, has therefore, been given the command of the regiment and no doubt will fill the position with every satisfaction. With Major Clegg in command of the regiment, Capt. Bennett, as adjutant, and Capt. McLean, as quartermaster, the 57th regiment certainly has a big share of the officers of the composite battalion.

Whole Family Was Poisoned; Six Members Seriously Ill

Believed to be Suffering From Ptomaine Poisoning—John Malane's Family, Rogers Street, Had Close Call—Little Child on Water Street Suffering.

The family of Mr. John Malane, who resides at 448 Rogers street, East City, had an experience, apparently with ptomaine poison, yesterday afternoon, which they would not care to repeat. The father, mother, three boys and a girl, vomited freely for some hours, and finally some of the sufferers collapsed. Medical aid was hastily summoned. The members of the family are today much better and able to be around. They partook of some roast beef on Sunday, and again ate of the same roast yesterday at dinner. Ptomaine poisoning is believed to have been the cause of the sickness.

CHILD WAS ILL

The year-and-a-half old child of Mr and Mrs. Elmer Bebee, 680 Water street, was taken seriously ill yesterday and showed symptoms of the same kind of poisoning. The child had drunk some milk, but had not been given any meat.

The effect of the excessively warm weather on animal food, that is kept in the house for some time, is said to be responsible for ptomaine poisoning.

Four Suspicious Characters Placed Under Arrest To-day

They Are Evidently Pick Pockets—All Had Large Sums of Money in Their Possession When Searched

Four suspicious looking fellows were arrested this afternoon at the Commercial House on a charge of picking pockets. P. C. Adams, Megarry and Newhall, and Mr. R. Lucas each brought a man to the station. They were well dressed and apparently are well onto their job. It is most likely they are following in the wake of the circus. Two complaints were made of persons being robbed of large sums of money and the police have been on their tracks of several suspicious persons. They were all examined at the police station and large sums of money were found on each of the four persons. C. H. Phelps, the talkative one of the bunch was at a loss to know what he was locked up for. He handed out $37 and a gold locket, $30 being in one roll. When P. C. Newhall went through Phelps' garments $25 more was found concealed in a small pocket on the inside of his trousers. This the man thought he had secure. Another slick gent, who says he came here yesterday from Montreal, Harry Lewis by name, handed over $44. He also had several bogus cheques in his possession. At the time of his arrest he was wearing a grey cap but he also carried a black soft hat. One of the other gents sat aside and did not have so much to say, but $30 was taken off him. The fourth chap also had a like amount. They have been prowling around all day. One was spotted out by a street car man, as he had been riding up and down on the car all day. They all likely belong to the same gang, although they seemed not to know one another.

All four positively denied they ever picked a pocket.

Very Brilliant Piano Student

Miss Annie Sisson Gave a Recital at the Conservatory

One of the most pleasant musical evenings spent in Peterborough was enjoyed by the friends of Miss Annie Sisson, one of Mr. R. Giddon's most accomplished piano pupils. Miss Sisson gave a piano recital at the Conservatory of Music last night and in rendering the entire programme she performed a very creditable fete. In her individual numbers Miss Sisson displayed brilliant technique, and her style and manner at the piano are indeed pleasing.

Piano—Sonata Op. 13.
Schumann's—"Aufschwung."
Chopin's—Valse Brillante Op. 34
Transcription—Walther's "Prize Song"—From the "Meinster-Singer," by Wagner.
Lullaby—by Nevin.
Polonaise, "The Tournament"—by Nevin

Complimentary Entertainment

Tendered by Mark St. League to Rev. J. G. and Mrs. Lewis

The congregation of Mark street Methodist church tendered a complimentary concert to Rev. J. G. and Mrs. Lewis, on the eve of their departure for Picton, where Mr. Lewis will have charge of the Main street church.

The entertainment was under the auspices of the League and was given in the basement of the church. A large number of the congregation attended and a right good time was spent by all.

Owing to the inability of Rev. Dr. Crothers to attend, Rev. Mr. Lewis had to preside, and he announced the following programme:

Mandolin quartette.
Chairman's address, Rev. Mr. Lewis
Instrumental solo, Miss Addie Dixon.
Recitation, Miss Greta LeBar.
Duett, Misses Bela and Vira Matchett.
Solo, Mr. Pratt.
Recitation, Mrs. John Speer.
Instrumental solo, Miss Helen Howson.
Solo, Miss Morry.
Solo, Mr. John Miller.
Instrumental, Miss Quinn.
Solo, Miss Pilling.
Recitation, Miss Greta LeBar.
Solo, Mr. Pratt.
Duet, Mrs Sergeant and Miss Howson
Instrumental, Miss Mabel Hooper.

At this point Miss Florence Dernier, on behalf of the League, read an address to Mrs. Lewis, in which the sincere regret at her departure from their midst was expressed, and at the same time the members extended their best wishes to Mrs. Lewis in her new field of labor. Accompanying the address was an autograph quilt, which was presented by Miss Alice Wand, on behalf of the League.

Mrs Lewis was very pleasantly surprised and Rev. Mr. Lewis responded for her. He expressed his and Mrs. Lewis' sorrow in leaving the Mark street congregation, but hoped that the young people of the League would give his successor the same whole-hearted support that had been tendered him during his stay here.

After this, refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis spent a very jolly evening with their young friends.

Baseball News That Interests

Games Being Arranged for the Holiday—Locals May Play in Ottawa

The Peterborough Baseball Team will not practice tonight, but every man is asked to be out in uniform on Thursday night, when the last practice before Saturday's game will be held. A three-game series for Saturday and Dominion Day is being arranged with a fast Toronto team. One game will be played on Saturday and two on Monday.

The secretary has received a letter from an Ottawa team, asking Peterborough for a match there a week from Saturday and the request will likely be complied with.

Excelsiors Lead Lillies by One

In the first four innings of the Lillie-Excelsior game at Patterson street field last evening, the Excelsiors took a lead of one run, the score being five runs to four. It was an exciting contest and both aggregations played good ball. The Excelsiors have not got much of a lead as yet and their opponents feel confident of winning out in the finish on Wednesday evening. Belleghem twirled the leather for the winners and pitched good ball, and had Graham somewhat outclassed, but Graham pitched a good game. The fielders on both aggregations played well. Both scored in their first but the Excelsiors took a lead in their second and scored one in their third and two in their last, while the Lillie aggregation tallied one in their first, two in the third and one in the fourth.

Mr. Stacey umpired the game satisfactorily.

The teams were,—

Lillies—Billier c, Graham p, Price 1b, Shambo 2b, Foley ss, Connors 3b, Pilling rf, Webb cf, Simmons cf.

BASEBALL

Lindsay is having a big celebration on July 1st. Among other attractions is a ten mile road race in which Ben Howard, the Hiawatha Indian, will enter. There will also be a baseball game between Lindsay and St Mary's, and Flaherty, of the Peterborough team, will pitch for Lindsay.

WANT A GAME

The Capital Baseball Club, of Toronto, would like to arrange a game for the first of July with some Peterborough team. The Capitals are leaders of the Interassociation League of Toronto, having won six games and lost one. Any team wishing a game kindly address Secretary Palmer E. Rogers, 48 Empress Crescent, Toronto.

Damas Gratton died at his home in Hull Thursday evening as a result of being struck by a flying board in Booth's lumber mill. Deceased was fifty-five years of age, and leaves a widow and five children.

Presentation to Geo. F. Schneider

By Y.M.C.A. Members on the Eve of His Departure for Germany

A very pleasing event took place in the parlors of the Y.M.C.A. last evening, when a number of members of the Association were gathered together to do honor to Mr. Geo. F. Schneider.

For several years Mr. Schneider has given the Association the benefit of his excellent musical talents on numerous occasions, particularly in the men's meetings, the orchestra and the social work. His contribution to the work of the Y.M.C.A. in this way can scarcely be estimated.

Mr. Williamson, General Secretary, occupied the chair, and called on Mr. J. F. Thornton, chairman of the evangelical work, who read a well worded address, and at the same time presenting Mr. Schneider with a handsome travelling case. Mr. Schneider was entirely taken by surprise, yet managed to reply in his modest way in a few well chosen words. He said what he had done was a pleasure to do.

Short speeches were made by Messrs R. E. Harding, A. E. Dixon, A. Bradshaw, A. Callandar and others, all expressing their appreciation of Mr Schneider's talents and gratitude for his services in the Association

The present to Mr. Schneider was very opportune, as it is understood he is leaving in a few days on a holiday trip to Germany.

Fishing Party Arrives From Rochester—Other Notes

Mrs. H. C. Garrard (nee Miss Mabel Yenney) and two children, of Ermelo, South Africa, arrived in the city last night and will pay an extended visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs H. A. Yenney, 86 Weller street. Mrs. Garrard and children sailed from Durban, S.A., on the 27th March and after four weeks' voyage, arrived in England, where they spent some time visiting her husband's people, who reside about six miles from Stratford-on-Avon. The boat sailed from Liverpool on the 3th inst., but owing to dense fogs they did not arrive in Montreal until last Sunday.

Mrs Garrard left Peterborough five years ago, when a contingent of Canadian teachers were sent to South Africa. After teaching at two different places in the Transvaal for about 18 months, she married Mr. H C Garrard, and moved to Ermelo, a small town in the Transvaal. Mr. Garrard is an Englishman, but has lived in the Transvaal for over ten years. He is a graduate of Cambridge University, England, and upon his graduation went to South Africa. He is a high school teacher, and is engaged in a school composed of both English and Dutch pupils. There are also Dutch teachers to teach the Dutch pupils.

Mr. Garrard hopes to come to Canada in a short while, and in all probability they will in future reside in this country. The government hire teachers in South Africa, and the people at present want all Dutch teachers, and Mr. Garrard, after he completes his present term, will join Mrs. Garrard here.

The Transvaal people are now having winter, and at Ermelo, although there is no snow, it is quite cold. Mrs. Garrard states that the evenings in Ermelo are always very cool, so much so that one can never sit out on the verandah. The days are quite warm and very dusty.

COURT STANLEY GOING AHEAD

There was good attendance of members at Quarterly meeting of Court Stanley, No. 7680, A.O.F., held in the S.O.E. hall last night. The Chief Ranger, Bro. T. Hendry, presided. Three candidates were duly initiated into the mysteries of Forestry and six propositions were received for membership. The Court is going ahead and with the assistance of new members, there will be no trouble in making this the banner Court. Speeches were made by several members and a vote of thanks was passed to committee of Bro. T. Hendry, R. J. McWilliams, S. Adlam, for arranging the annual church service, held on Sunday evening last. Chief Ranger Hendry thanked the members for turning out so well. A vote of thanks was tendered Rev. H. J. Keith for his appropriate sermon, also to choir for the excellent singing and to the officials for use of church, to which Rev. Mr. Keith replied. He said that it gave him great pleasure and honor to be the first to address the members of a fraternal society at Knox Church.

WILL ENGAGE THE TEACHERS

Special Meeting of Board of Education To-morrow Night

A special meeting of the Board of Education will be held tomorrow evening when the engagement of teachers for the school year, commencing September 1st, will be considered. The committee on appointments will present a report having to do with the appointment of teachers for the different schools in the city. Among the teachers to be engaged, are a principal and assist- school. Many applications have been received for these positions, and the board should have no difficulty in securing a capable staff.

It is not likely that there willl be many changes in the other schools of the city, as nearly all last year's teachers have applied for re-engagement.

Recital to-night by pupils of College of Music under direction of Mrs. W. J. Morrow, will open sharp at 8 o'clock, closing at 10 o'clock, in St. Peter's Hall.

Circus Expensive to One Young Man

An excited Chinaman, all out of breath ran into the police station last night about 10.30 yelling, "Fight! Fight!" The policeman on duty at the station thought the celestial said "fire" and at once sent in an alarm.

The fire team were soon out and were driving towards the police station, seemingly not knowing where to go The people from all directions were running to the scene of the supposed fire ,but the firemen soon found out the mistake and drove back to their hall.

When the Chinaman finally made the policeman understand, the officer went to the Simcoe street laundry, the scene of all the trouble.

John Allen, of Lakefield, came to the city yesterday to see the big circus, and while here got an overload of boozerine. He began to annoy Charlie Mork at his laundry. During the disturbance Allen broke a lamp He spent the night in a cell at the police station, and it might here be mentioned that the cages at the station last night were all filled with guests.

Allen pleaded guilty today in court and was fined $2.75 and $3.85 costs, amounting to $6.60, which he paid forthwith.

Mrs. Mary Frances Whiting, of Hamilton mother of Rev. Richard Whiting is dead aged 63.

Smith Patent Tapping Machine Successfully Demonstrated

Waterworks Commissioners Can Now Make Connections to Water Mains Without Shutting Off the Water—Purchase a Machine.

In future it will not be necessary to cause water consumers any inconvenience or for the city to run any great risk from loss in case of fire by turning the water off in any section while a large connection is being made The water commissioners have purchased a Smith Patent Tapping machine and it was used this morning for the first time, and proved very satisfactory in every respect.

Mr J. W. Strackbein, representing the A. P. Smith Manufacturing Co. of Newark, N.J., was here and superintended the operations. The machine was designed for the purpose of making connections from two to eight inches in diameter, in the water mains ,without shutting off the water for a minute. This was accomplished, and the connection was made in two hours and a half, and not one consumer knew that it was being made, nor yet was the water pressure reduced an ounce.

The demonstration was made at the corner of George and Brock streets, in front of the Geo. Matthew Co's north store, in a 12-inch water main, with eighty pounds water pressure in the main pipe. The connection was made for the purpose of installing a four-way fire hydrant, several of which are to be installed on the main business streets. It was witnessed by all the water commissioners, Superintendent Henderson, several of the aldermen and a large number of citizens, who are delighted with it, especially Superintendent Henderson.

Hitherto it has been necessary, when the water commissioners were about to make a connection of any kind whatsoever, to notify the consumers in the district effected, and to notify the chief of the fire department that the water would be turned off. Then it could not be known for how long; sometimes it took all day, causing great inconvenience to all parties, besides leaving that particular district practically at the mercy of a fire. Then the work was always very dirty and very hard as large quantities of water came out of the main. With this new machine all this has been done away with, and in time alone, the machine wa soon save its own price which is $550 in both Canada and the United States.

It might be interesting to mention here that the Smith Patent Tapping machine, was invented by Mr A. P. Smith, president of the company. He was for sixteen years superintendent of the water works at Newark, N.J., and once, while they had the water turned off to make a connection, a fire broke out in a large zinc works, causing damage to the extent of $250,000. From that day Mr. Smith started to study how to make connections without turning off the water. After some time the result of his labors was the patenting of this machine, and today Newark has another large factory and the machines are being purchased in all the leading cities and towns in Canada and the United States.

Recently machines were installed in Toronto and Hamilton. Kingston, Belleville and Lindsay are considering the advisability of getting one and Mayor V. R. Vrooman, Superintendent of Water Works W. H. Hammond and Mr. Thos. Brady, of that place, were here and witnessed the demonstration.

Trainmaster Had Busy Day

Mr. Irwin of Lindsay Here in Connection With the Circus

G.T.R. Trainmaster John Irwin of Lindsay, was in Peterborough all day yesterday in connection with the circus being here. A large amount of work is necessary in handling the circus trains and Mr. Irwin was kept on the jump all day. He remained at work until the last train pulled out about three o'clock this morning and went to Belleville with this train to see that everything was looked after properly there.

Postponement Was Refused; Libel Case Practically Dead

Judge Landry Will Not Postpone Emmerson Libel Suit.

Counsel Moves For Crocket's Discharge—Indictment Not Dismissed—Case Goes Over Until January—Defendant's Recognizance Taken—His Honor Criticizes Position of Crown In the Matter.

Fredericton, N. B., June 26.—The Emmerson-Crocket case has been postponed again, and it now looks like the last postponement unless His Honor finally grants the request of the prosecution.

Yesterday morning His Honor Judge Landry was not fully decided as to whether he had better allow a postponement until after the reserved case is argued before the full bench of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick. The crown has announced that if their demurrer to the plea of the defence is not allowed to stand they are not prepared to go on. Judge Landry has refused the demurrer to stand, and the full bench, it is expected, will sustain his decision.

In the meantime His Honor is going to look up some authorities, in order that he may give the question the closest consideration.

To Please Everybody.

His Honor expressed a willingness to give his decision at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, but Mr. J. D Hazen, the leading counsel for the defence, had an engagement in Sudbury County yesterday afternoon, where he is entertaining the members of the County Council, and he asked to have it put off until six o'clock. His Honor preferred to take time after tea to give out the decision, and when Mr. Hazen suggested seven o'clock, Mr. J. H. Barry, K. C., counsel for the prosecution, wanted to have it made eight o'clock. His Honor split the difference and made it 7.30.

Mr. Emmerson Away.

As was the case Monday, Mr. Emmerson was not in court. It is stated he has gone to West Virginia. Mr. Crocket was on hand, and occupied a seat near his counsel. Mr. Barry was the only one of counsel for the prosecution present, and Mr. Hazen and Mr. O. S. Crocket, M. P., were the lawyers present for the defence, Mayor McLeod having left yesterday morning for Camp Sussex, in command of the 71st York Regiment, of which he is senior major. There was no stenographer present to take notes of the proceedings of the court, Special Stenographer McPeake, who was on the job Monday, having also gone to Sussex, as captain of one of the companies of the 71st.

Why the Delay?

"I had hoped," explained Judge Landry, in giving his reasons for postponing the giving of his decision, "that I could have given my decision as to the question of postponement this morning, but I was engaged here in the afternoon until after six o'clock, and was not able to look up certain authorities which I wanted to consult. I feel that it is due to myself to take further time to look up these authorities."

Afterwards His Honor told the jurors that they need not be in court unless ordered to come by the sheriff, until Aug. 20, when civil business will be again taken up, and in the course of his remarks His Honor said that the court would adjourn in the evening until that time. He corrected himself in a moment, and then it was that the idea was given that he may order the prosecution to proceed with the Emmerson-Crocket case when he takes his place on the bench this evening.

May Order Case On.

"When I said that the court would adjourn this evening," said His Honor, perhaps I said something that I should not have said. I cannot anticipate what will happen. However, the jury need not come back before the 20th of August unless ordered to do so by the sheriff."

Postponement Refused.

The last has been heard in the courts of the Emmerson-Crocket libel case until January next, with the possible exception of an argument on a legal point or two. Perhaps it should be said that it is all over now.

Judge P. A. Landry last evening refused to allow the application of the crown for a postponement.

The court was crowded.

The judge, in his decision held that the article was written in the public interests, and again decided that the defendant's plea should stand and that the demurrer of prosecution should not stand.

When court was adjourned and Mr. Crocket was held in his own recognizance, to appear in January next—"if there should be an indictment against him"—it was generally felt among the crowd that the last has been heard of the case.

The defence claim that Judge Landry having refused to grant a postponement, and the crown prosecutors refusing to proceed with the case when a postponement is not allowed, the indictment is killed.

If it is decided by the prosecution to have the point on which they have been granted a reserve case argued before the supreme court, that argument will not take place until November.

"In my opinion," said the judge, "the rights of the crown to get a postponement of trial remains the same as though no reserved case existed, leaving aside, therefore, the consideration of the reserved point, no case has been made by the crown for a postponement. Hence I must refuse it.

"I do not think I am called upon to note or consider in this application what the representative of the crown said on Friday last, viz., that the crown would not go on with the trial till the decision given was reversed.

"If the meaning of that declaration was that the crown would be able to convince me that it had sufficient reasons for asking and obtaining the postponement, it has so far failed to present those reasons.

"If the declaration meant that the crown had means to postpone the trial without an order for that purpose from the presiding judge, then I leave it to the crown to exercise those means or to go to trial. In the meantime the case stands before, so far as the crown is concerned, ready for trial, and demanding from me a disposition of it."

HOUSE COLLAPSES.

Seven Persons Killed—Buried Under Tons of Debris.

New York, June 26.—Seven persons, six of them members of one Italian family, were killed yesterday in the collapse of a ramshackle tenement in the downtown Italian quarter. Three other members of the same family were rescued from the ruins. An old man was rescued from a two-foot ledge 40 feet from the ground by firemen.

The building was a four-storey affair, built over 50 years ago. It had been in a dangerous condition because of excavations next door. The constant rumbling of subway trains a block away was too much for it.

The seven persons who lost their lives were buried under tons of debris.

Some had been instantly killed, but others escaped death in the first crush only to be smothered by bricks, broken timbers, plaster and dust.

Two of the younger occupants of the house who reached home shortly before two o'clock yesterday morning, warned by the severe shaking of the house, ran through the building and warned sleeping tenants of impending disaster, and dozens of persons ran into the streets in their night clothing.

FELL ASLEEP ON TRACK.

Charles Shelton of Gloucester Township Instantly Killed.

Ottawa, June 26.—Charles Shelton, aged 22, of Gloucester Township, Russell County, while walking home Monday night after spending some hours in an Ottawa hotel, fell asleep on the C. P. R. track and was run over and instantly killed by a train.

Vets At King's Levee.

London, June 26.—King Edward held the last levee of the season at St. James' Palace yesterday, Indian Mutiny veterans again supplying the most feature.

The second group of survivors of the mutiny, including 70 officers, of whom no fewer than 33 were generals, and several civilians were presented by Field Marshal Sir Evelyn Wood.

Among those present was J. Pierpont Morgan.

The Age of Understanding.

London, June 26.—The finest tribute which Mark Twain has received in England was the Pilgrims luncheon in his honor yesterday.

After speaking in a humorous strain for some minutes, however, he paused and said:

"I have chaffed and chaffed and chaffed, but man does not reach the verge of 72 years without knowing life."

Killed On the Railway.

Niagara Falls, June 26.—The M. C. R. train from Buffalo picked up Samuel Gladhill, an employe of the Bridgeburg Shipyard, on the tracks near the shipyard, last evening, with both legs cut off. In the hospital he died one hour afterward.

He leaves a widow and one child in Scotland.

Acquittal on Bigamy Charge.

Brantford, June 26.—Charlotte Worrall was yesterday morning acquitted of a charge of bigamy by Judge Hardy. She had left her former husband, George Pembleton, to marry John Worrall, believing Pembleton's former wife was dead.

DOUBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Angry Husband Killed Wife, Lover, and Himself.

Sudbury, Ont., June 26.—A double murder and suicide took place at Creighton Mine, some 12 miles from Sudbury, on the Manitoulin and North Shore Railway, about 11 o'clock on Saturday night. The victims were John Restula, his wife Sophia Restula, and the latter's paramour, Herman Vick, Jr., all Finlanders. The three bodies were found early Sunday morning on the railway track between three and four hundred yards west of the station, which is at the west end of the village.

Shot Wife First.

Apparently Restula had shot his wife first in the back of the head, close to the neck. Vick, who had evidently started to run away, was shot in the back, under the left shoulder blade, and dropped within a few paces. Restula then turned the revolver, a 32-calibre, on himself, firing one shot near the left side of the throat, and another in the left breast. He fell close to his wife and all were found lying face downwards.

Vick Had a Weapon.

In Vick's hand was a 32-calibre revolver, but not in very good working order and apparently discovering this fact, he had started to run away.

Restula went to work at Crean Hill mine a short time ago, leaving his wife at Copper Cliff. Some two weeks ago she left there and went to Creighton Mine, where she took up with Vick, and they lived in a house at the Gertrude Mine, one and a half miles west of Creighton.

Restula was informed on Friday how his wife had acted, and on Saturday came to Sudbury and purchased a revolver in one of the hardware stores. Before leaving Crean Hill he told his foreman, Frank Anderson, that if he found his wife with Vick there would be some shooting, and he kept his word.

An inquest was held by Coroner Struthers on Monday, and a jury, of which J. C. Kelly was foreman, brought in a verdict in accordance with the facts as given above.

Restula was about 28 years of age, and Vick about 25 years.

LIGHTNING DOES DAMAGE.

Miles of Telegraph Poles Shattered—Barn Burned Down.

Brockville, June 26.—A violent thunderstorm passed over this district yesterday morning, doing great damage. A barn belonging to Frederick Darling of Springvalley was burned.

Telegraph poles along the main traveled roads were shattered and broken for miles.

Lightning struck the residence of William Atcheson at Fairfield East, but the occupants escaped. The damage to the house was light.

Stunned by Bolt.

Woodstock, June 26.—Monday evening at Lakeside Mrs. Arch. Martin was milking a couple of cows in the yard when lightning killed both of them. Mrs. Martin was badly stunned. William Harris was in the stable feeding the cattle when lightning stunned him as well as several head of cattle.

LOOKS LIKE A MURDER.

Woman Found Hanging In Barn—Evidence of an Assault.

Hamilton, June 26.—Word has just been received here of a tragedy at Benford, a postoffice five miles south of Ancaster. Mrs. John Reinhardt was found dead in the barn by her husband when he returned home on Monday night. The woman was hanging by her neck and had evidently been strangled. From marks on her body it looked as if she might have been assaulted. When Crown Attorney Washington was notified he took charge of the case and ordered an investigation.

FIREMAN BADLY HURT.

Brantford, June 26.—The fire department, while responding to a call from the Verity plow works last evening, the front axle of the hook and ladder truck broke, throwing Driver Michael Swayne to the ground. He broke his collarbone, and also received other serious injuries, and is in a critical condition.

ONLY ONE WAS SAVED.

Ninety Perish In Wreck of Steamer on Chilian Coast.

Santiago, Chile, June 26.—Only one man on board the Santiago, wrecked in a heavy squall 50 miles north of Cotaral, was saved. The rest of the crew of 90 persons, including 12 English officers, perished.

One boat launched was dashed to pieces on the rocks after drifting for several days.

To Examine Coast Defences.

London, June 26.—(C. A. P.)—The admiralty is sending expert officers to Canada, Australia and New Zealand in order to prepare a report upon the coast defences and advise generally upon ships or squadrons at present stationed in their waters.

It is said the report is expected to constitute a basis for the naval program of 1908.

Japan Is Aggressive.

Mukden, June 26.—Without waiting for an announcement of the policy of the new Manchurian administration Japan, on the grounds of the defence of her treaty rights, has begun a program apparently directed toward forcing action by China.

Find Revolutionary Headquarters.

St. Petersburg, June 26.—The police Monday night searched a department of the War Ministry and found it to be the headquarters of one of the revolutionary groups. Much illegal literature was seized.

Nothing Serious.

Paris, June 26.—The sensational newspapers are printing extras announcing new mutinies of troops in the south, but the war ministry declares that nothing serious has occurred.

Lumber piles half a mile long and worth $250,000 were burned at Vancouver on Saturday.

Orchard Gives Lie to Two Witnesses For Defence.

Hercules Mine Deal Had Nothing to Do With Steunenberg's Murder—Was Spotter for Detective Agency—Women Give Evidence—Orchard and the Mine Owners' Association—Witnesses Swear as to Threats.

Boise, Idaho, June 26.—The first direct testimony in defence of William D. Haywood was offered yesterday.

The first witness for the defence was preceded by a further examination of Orchard, to permit the defence to complete its formal questions of impeachment.

Orchard spoke in the same soft tone that he did recently. He again denied that he ever threatened to kill Steunenberg because of the Hercules mine and again asserted that he sold his interest in the mine two years before the trouble which drove him out of northern Idaho.

The witnesses heard yesterday were F. R. Redd, once of Cripple Creek, and now of Goldfield, Nevada; and Charles A. Sullivan, formerly of Cripple Creek, and now a watchman in the Brown Hotel in Denver.

Redd testified that he heard Orchard make the statement and the threat in the Miners' Hall in Cripple Creek, and Sullivan swore that while he and Orchard were fellow boarders, Orchard repeatedly said that but for Steunenberg he would be a rich man, and that he intended to kill him.

The cross-examination showed that both witnesses were members of the Western Federation of Miners, and that Sullivan was a friend of Haywood, Moyer and many of the union leaders.

Dr. I. L. Magee, a mining broker, swore that Orchard told him in 1904, at Wallace, Idaho, that he was a spotter for a detective agency. Orchard denied this conversation.

Several witnesses, principally women who kept boarding houses at Cripple Creek, testified to Orchard's being in conference at various times with Sterling, the detective for the Mine Owners' Association.

FOR DEFENCE OF CANADA.

Lord Roberts Says Matter Is One of Vital Importance.

London, June 26.—In the House of Lords, Lord Roberts, referring to Haldane's army scheme, the merit of which he acknowledged, remarked:

"We could not leave out of account the most extensive exposed of all our frontiers, Canada's. Could we be silent about the defence of Canada without inevitably conveying to Canadians the impression that we did not consider the defence of Canada of vital importance. Surely if there are any nations to whom we could not afford to give ground for offence they are the nations within the empire. But how could we offend them more deeply than by refusing to discuss questions which matters of life or death to them.

"If the empire is to be defended at all, the co-operation of the colonies and India is indispensable."

He looked, in the great imperial struggle, not to small contingents, ear-marked for our use in return for our holding corresponding, though far larger, expeditionary forces available to help them. War could not be waged on limited liability principles.

CHURCHMEN WANT PEACE.

British Dean Heads Deputation to Hague Conference.

The Hague, June 26.—The President of the Peace Conference, M. Nelidoff, yesterday received a deputation from Christian churches throughout the world, headed by Very Rev. Wm. Henry Fremantle, Dean of Ripon, who presented an address urging the conference to ensure peace, justice and humanitarianism. The address was signed by all the leading churchmen of Great Britain, except the British Catholics, who refused to participate, even indirectly, in a conference to which the Pope was not invited. Nine American Catholic Bishops signed the address.

M. Nelidoff thanked the deputation for the interest taken in the work of the conference, to which he said the address would be communicated, adding that everyone earnestly desired the success of its work.

The proposition which France has presented to the second committee (land war) will express the wish that a declaration of war become compulsory before the opening of hostilities.

BALLOONIST FALLS IN RIVER.

After Good Exhibition Airship Meets With Accident.

New York, June 26.—A big cigar-shaped airship sailed across the bay from Staten Island yesterday, circled around above the high office buildings in Brooklyn and then swept across East River and alighted gently in the midst of a crowd numbering thousands, which had gathered in Battery Park.

A few moments later the operator set the machinery in motion again and the ship rose to an altitude of about 800 feet and started northward over the skyscrapers of Manhattan Island. The ship was in charge of Lincoln Beachey, who seemed to have perfect control of the big machine.

After passing over Manhattan Mr. Beachey sent his airship out over East River toward Long Island Sound. In some manner it collided with a spindle which marks a lodge at the sunken Meadows and the airship was badly damaged and he was thrown into the water, but was rescued by a boatman.

The Opposite.

"Did he go to the dogs when you refused him?"

"No, quite the opposite."

"Quite the opposite?"

"Yes. He went and got himself engaged to Kittie Catety, the little cat!"

Build a Metal Home

In every way metal is superior to wood or plaster for the interior of homes. Classified Metal Ceilings and Walls, designed and manufactured by the Metal Shingle & Siding Co., Limited, of Preston, Ont., are to be preferred over all others for their beautiful and harmonious finish. They are made in a great variety of designs to suit all tastes, and are classified according to the prevailing styles of architecture.

Metal ceilings and walls are fire-proof and vermin-proof, are sanitary and easily cleaned. They may be beautifully decorated at small cost.

Those, who are tired of the yearly expense of re-plastering, re-painting and re-papering, should make a change to metal ceilings and walls. They may be put on over the old plaster, without dirt or muss, and in much less time than plastering would require. They last a lifetime, and never need repairs, so that the first cost is the only cost.

Life insurance companies recognize the security which metal ceilings and walls afford, by making their rates one-third less on homes constructed of this material.

Illustrated catalogues and complete information as to cost may be obtained by writing the Metal Shingle & Siding Co., Limited, Preston, Out. 57

A FORBIDDEN MARRIAGE

BY LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

Author of "When Lovely Maiden Stoops to Folly," "A Cruel Revenge," "The Heiress of Cameron Hall," "Ione," "Parted at the Altar," Etc.

"Ah, here is Waldemar now!" his brother exclaimed, adding hastily, "I will leave you alone together to settle your differences."

Reine would have detained him, but he hurried from the apartment, and, an instant later an opposite door was flung open and Waldemar Waldron stood on the threshold, with glowering eyes—red and bloodshot—even at the distance he was standing, the horrible odor of rum reached her.

For a moment Reine was stricken dumb, a terrible sound filled her ears, flashes of red, glaring light seemed to flit before her vision, but through it all, she raised her terrified eyes to the harsh, mocking face before her.

"Well," he cried, harshly, "you have led me a pretty dance, haven't you?" and, as he spoke he banged the door after him, and strode up to her, and a hand, hard and heavy, clutched her white arm, hissing in her ear:

"I have just heard how you came here, and fired in among the crowd. I knew that the heavily veiled woman they were all talking so excitedly about was you. What did you do it for, I say! Did you mistake my brother Clarence, who was standing there, for me and attempt to pop him over, thinking it would rid you forever of me?"

"Waldemar," she murmured, faintly, "hear me; I—I—never meant to fire into the room among those people—I—I—well I may as well tell you the truth," she said, desperately: "I did take your brother for you and I determined to kill myself to end it all." As she uttered the words, no cry fell from her white lips, although the grip of the hard, steely hand that grasped her arm, grew cruelly harder each moment to bear.

"When you ran away from me you thought I should never be able to find you, did you," he cried, tauntingly.

"You left me, Waldemar," she corrected.

"It's a lie!" he cried, brutally, giving vent to such a volley of horrible oaths, that Reine's heart seemed to die within her. She shrank back from him, coweringly.

"It's a lie!" he repeated, fiercely, "and you know it. I only wrote that letter to frighten you into getting some money from the old man, or from somewhere else—it didn't matter much where. I stayed away three days to bring you to your senses, and when I came back you were gone, glad of the excuse no doubt, and ever since I have been searching for you, and you have led me a pretty dance of it, I say."

"I did not know, Waldemar," she murmured, faintly.

"Do you think I'm fool enough to believe that?" he cried, fiercely.

"It is the truth, Waldemar," she said.

"And there's another affair that came to my ears as I was coming up the mountain pass; the report of my death, which you have circulated, and last but not least, that you were about to marry Bernard Chesleigh—curse him—is it true? Answer me!"

"We were to have been married to-morrow," she replied, falteringly, "but when I found you were alive, and supposed to be here, I came here too."

"You've put me out of the way," he interrupted: and again he broke into such a volley of horrible oaths Reine was fairly electrified. He seemed to not stop to catch breath until he had exhausted his whole vocabulary.

"Don't," she cried faintly; "you are killing me, Waldemar;" but her remonstrance only made him all the worse. He stopped at length through sheer exhaustion, for a moment, and in that moment the door was suddenly opened again and Bernard Chesleigh, with a face white as death, stepped into the room.

It was Reine to whom he turned, ignoring Waldron's presence altogether.

"I had your note," he said, simply, "and I could scarcely credit what you said was true. I believed there was some terrible mistake, Reine, and followed you here in all haste to see if what you wrote were possible."

The saddest cry that ever fell from human lips broke from Reine's. With an almost superhuman effort she wrenched herself from the detaining hold of Waldron's steel-like hand and flew like a wounded bird that has the arrow of death in its heart, to Bernard Chesleigh's arms, clasping him with her white arms as though nothing but death should loosen her clinging hold and part her from him.

"Bernard, my love, save me from him," she gasped. "Oh, save me from him, or kill me with your own dear hands."

Before Bernard could answer, Waldemar Waldron had torn her white arms from his neck, thrust her back and stepped between them. Waldron had pushed her so roughly that she had fallen backward, at Bernard's feet.

"Do not touch her, do not dare to touch her, Bernard Chesleigh," he cried, in a voice of thunder; "she is my wife!"

"Just this once," implored Bernard, "let me raise her in my arms and whisper one poor word of comfort to her, we have loved each other so well, and on the morrow," he said huskily, "she was to have been—my wife,—I know she is yours; I am not going to dispute your right. Let me raise her just this once and look into the face that has been heaven on earth to me, then I will go quietly away."

"Stand back! lay your hands upon even one hair of her head and I will kill you," cried Waldron, his face fairly purple with rage. "You have stolen Reine's heart from me, and I curse you for it—curse your low, smooth, winning ways and proud, aristocratic face. But for you she would be willing enough to go back home to New York with me. No doubt you would like me to give her up to you," he sneered, but without waiting for Chesleigh to utter the words that were on his lips, he added:

"Know this, that I do not love her, I never loved her. I hate her with the bitterest hate—for her white face, tearful eyes, and moping ways—yes, I hate her, but she will go with me all the same. It will be a glorious revenge to me anyhow, to know that I have wrested her from you, Bernard Chesleigh. No matter how she may shrink from me, she must go with me. I am her lord and master," he cried, boisterously.

She had struggled to her feet, poor, beautiful, hapless Reine. Her white face was turned to Bernard, oh, so pathetically lovely in its terrible woe! and a voice, tragic in its despair, cried faintly—

"Must I leave you, Bernard—oh, must I leave you, love, and go out with him into the bitterness of death?"

"Certainly," retorted Waldron, frowning darkly; "what need to answer such a question. You are to go with me—your husband, certainly."

Still she looked at Bernard in her piteous despair.

"Are you quite sure I should go with him, Bernard?" she repeated. "Ah, it would kill me, my love."

"Dare to speak to him like that again at your peril," foamed Waldron furiously. "I am sure that you are to go with me whether he is or not. He will do well to not interfere between us."

Poor Reine! her heart died within her when Bernard's head drooped and a heavy sigh of anguish broke from his lips. Then, poor child, she knew there was no hope for her. Without another word she fell prone on her face among the lilies of the carpet in a deep swoon.

If he must leave her, better that he should leave her now, Bernard told himself. "Good by, my lost love," he murmured, letting his eyes linger for an instant on the white face lying there so cold and still, and with a sudden movement, knelt down and kissed the spot her feet had so lately pressed, then tore himself away.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

The carriage which had brought Bernard Chesleigh to the Towers stood at the entrance gate. He sprung into the vehicle, saying hoarsely to the driver.

"Take me back to the station at the cross-roads. When does the next train pass that goes to New York?"

"At midnight, sir," replied the man; "but it doesn't stop, sir."

"I suppose it can be flagged and made to stop," said Bernard.

"Oh, yes sir," answered the man, "it has been done, but it's rather uncommon."

How he passed the time after he had reached the station until the train came in, Chesleigh never knew, for some time he was like a man bereft of reason.

Once, the thought had come to him, as he stood looking gloomily through the narrow window, how easy it would be for him to end his sorrow there and then; by flinging himself headlong down the deep mountain gorge into the ravine below; but the next moment his better judgment had reasserted itself; such an act as he had contemplated would be cowardly, and only cowards had recourse to such a way out of difficulty as that. No, he would live; he knew he should never know what happiness was again; it would be a dead letter for him forever after.

He knew that time might blunt the keen edge of his grief; but forget her, ah, he could never do that, go where he might; her face would be always before him. He had won Reine's love, too late.

"I ask from heaven what I have done that I should be so cruelly punished," he ruminated bitterly, as he paced up and down the narrow waiting-room. But from the darkling heavens to which he appealed, there came no reply.

"Some men meet with a cruel fate," he mused, "but they deserve it. In my life I may not have done much good, but I have done no great harm. I have committed no crime—yet, never since the world began, has a man's life been so wretchedly wrecked as mine, and happiness so near me twice."

From afar off he heard the shriek of the midnight express—in a few moments more it had flashed around the curve of the mountain and stood panting and quivering like a thing of life before the station.

Chesleigh boarded it and sank into a seat, but instead of rushing on after a moment or so, it still stood upon the track whistling shrilly.

One or two of the impatient passengers started out to learn the cause and reported that the down express was some twenty minutes late and that the train would have to wait there at the cross-roads probably some twenty minutes or more.

"I have known a train that was late to cause no end of disaster from one end of the line to the other," grumbled a commercial traveler sitting back of Chesleigh. But Bernard paid little heed to these remarks, and the fellow traveler rather piqued at his neighbor's silence, sauntered off into the smoking-car, leaving that portion of the train in which Chesleigh sat, quite without occupant other than himself.

"Reine," he murmured, "it is hard to give you up, but alas—"

The sentence never was finished—the door of the car was flung suddenly open and Reine—yes, it was surely Reine, sprang into it.

At the first glance she beheld Chesleigh and in an instant she was kneeling before him.

There was no mistake, he was neither mad nor dreaming, it was Reine, kneeling at his feet, her long dark cloak dripping with rain and bespattered with mud thrown about her—her head uncovered, her long golden hair, wet and dishevelled, hanging all about her white, terrified face, and her hands clenched tightly over her heart that beat with great strangling, spasmodic throbs.

"Bernard," she cried, shrinking down at his feet, clasping his knees and looking up into his face with great, terrified, dilated eyes; "save me—oh, Bernard, take me with you, dear, anywhere—anywhere, save me, Bernard!"

"Reine, my poor child!" he exclaimed; "tell me, dear, what does this mean?"

A laugh that was more horrible to hear than the cruelest sob could have been, broke from her lips.

"It means," she cried wildly, "that he tried to murder me, Bernard, after you had left me with him. When I woke to consciousness from my swoon, I saw him standing by the mantel; he had not even summoned help for me, and he did not know whether I was dying or not.

"I saw him standing there drinking brandy from a flask he carried about him. He was bad enough when you saw him; he is a fiend incarnate now.

FRANCE AND SPAIN.

Will Maintain Their Insular and Maritime Possessions Intact.

Paris, June 26.—The official text of the French-Spanish understanding was published yesterday.

It declares that each Government is firmly resolved to maintain intact its insular and maritime possessions in the Mediterranean and Atlantic and binds each country, in the event of circumstances arising which threaten to modify the status quo, to consult the other, with the view of "common action."

Getting Ready For War.

New Orleans, June 26.—A despatch from Port Barrios, Guatemala, says that the forces at the east coast ports held in readiness to repel invasions number 500 men at each place, each battalion of this size having six rapid-fire and six siege guns.

The despatch also confirms the reports that the coast fortifications are being erected at several ports.

The Guatemalan Government is reported to be negotiating for a 400-ton steamer of 18 knots speed to be armed with eight rapid-fire guns.

Will Continue It Peacefully.

Argellieres, France, June 26.—Marcelin Albert, the "Redeemer," was cheered here by 12,000 persons.

He announced that the Premier promised; if the wine growers would give up their illegal attitude, he would release the prisoners, withdraw the troops and take the most lenient view of everything that had occurred.

The committee resolved, owing to the vagueness of the promises made by M. Clemenceau, to continue the movement peacefully.

Sir John Hall Dead.

Wellington, New Zealand, June 26.—Sir John Hall, ex-Premier of New Zealand, is dead. He was born in 1824 and left England for New Zealand in 1852. In 1856 he became Colonial Secretary and Postmaster-General 1866-9. He became Premier in 1879.

Asheville, N. C., June 26.—A party of revenue officers have returned here, having captured 35 moonshiners and destroyed 13 illicit stills.

Between three and four hundred shots were exchanged with the mountainers in the darkness.

Gun Accidentally Discharged.

Brockville, June 26.—David Fayson, aged 14, was badly injured yesterday afternoon on his father's farm by the accidental discharge of a gun. The charge entered the hip and it may be necessary to amputate his right leg.

Cost $12.50 to Threaten Rival.

Ottawa, June 26.—Ernest Larocque of Buckingham was yesterday fined $12.50 for shooting a revolver in the air and threatening a young man whom he saw out walking with one of his former sweethearts.

Eggs—Steady; receipts, 30,232; state, Pennsylvania and nearby, brown and mixed, firsts to extra firsts, 16c to 17c.

CATTLE MARKETS.

LONDON, June 25.—Liverpool and London cables are easier at 12c to 13c per lb., dressed weight; refrigerator beef is quoted at 9c to 9½c per lb.

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, June 25.—Receipts of live stock at the City Market, as reported by the railways, were 54 carloads, consisting of 622 cattle, 807 hogs, 735 sheep and lambs and about 250 calves.

Exporters.

Few shipping cattle were offered; in fact, we did not see any loads of heavy, well-finished exporters on sale, therefore, we cannot give sales, but would judge that had there been such they would have been worth from $6 to $6.25, and medium cattle in proportion.

Butchers.

Prime picked butchers', and there were few of them, sold at $5 to $5.40; loads of good, $4.80 to $5; medium, $4 to $4.50; common, $3.75 to $4; cows, at $3.50 to $4.25; canners at $2.75 to $3.

Milch Cows.

Trade for milkers and springers was dull, unless it was for a few of the best. Common to medium cows were almost unsaleable. One commission firm had six fair class cows left on their hands unsold. Prices ranged all the way from $25 to $55 each.

Veal Calves.

Prices ranged at from $3.50 to $6 per cwt., the bulk going at $5 to $5.50 per cwt. Choice, new, milk-fed calves are worth from $6.50 to $7.

Sheep and Lambs.

Export sheep sold at $5 to $5.25 per cwt.; rams, $3.50 to $4; culls, $3 to $3.50; spring lambs, $4 to $5.50 each for the bulk, but there were some extra heavy lambs, that sold as high as $6, $7 and $8 each, but these were lambs that weighed 80 to 100 lbs. each.

Hogs.

The deliveries were light. Mr. Harris reports the market weak at $6.75 for selects and $6.50 for lights and fats.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

Veals—Receipts, 150 head; active and 25c lower, $5 to $7.25.

Hogs—Receipts, 3500 head; active and steady; mixed, yorkers and pigs, $6.35.

Sheep and Lambs—Slow and steady, unchanged.

New York Live Stock.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Beeves—Receipts, 87; no trading; feeling unchanged. Shipments to-day were 990 cattle and 2800 quarters of beef; to-morrow, 2800 quarters of beef.

Calves—Receipts, 354; feeling steady; common to choice veals sold at $5 to $8 per 100 lbs.; culls at $4; buttermilks at $3 to $4.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 4468; sheep steady; prime and choice lambs firm; others barely steady; sheep sold at $4 to $5 per 100 lbs.; lambs at $7 to $8; one car of extra do. at $8 to $8.20.

Hogs—Receipts, 2570; feeling steady; state and Pennsylvania hogs are quoted at $6.50 to $6.60 per 100 lbs.

VILLAGE BADLY GUTTED.

One Side of Main Street Destroyed—Loss $30,000.

St. Thomas, June 26.—The Village of Springfield, on the M.C.R., sixteen miles east of St. Thomas, suffered serious losses through fire early yesterday morning. One side of the main street was destroyed by the flames.

Chambers' departmental and hardware store, Ferris' barber-shop and residence, Lamb's general store, Postmaster Chandler's store and barn, were demolished before the fire burned itself out. Total loss is $30,000. The origin of the fire is not known.

One man was caught under falling timbers and was extricated with an injured leg.

The Aylmer fire brigade was called.

Harry Thaw Very Ill.

New York, June 26.—Harry Thaw is desperately ill in the Tombs, and grave fears are entertained that he is on the verge of collapse. Application will be made to the Supreme Court of Justice for bail for Thaw, on the ground that his life will be endangered if he remains in prison.

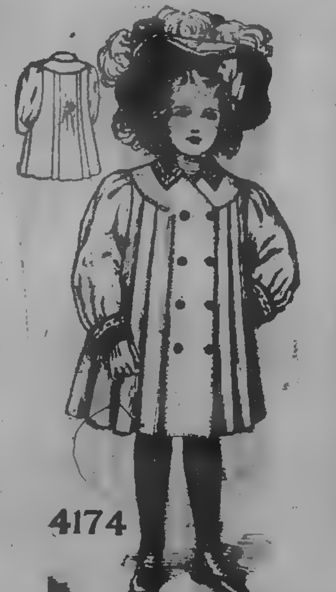
Venezuelan Cabinet Resigns.

Caracas, Venezuela, June 26.—The Cabinet has resigned owing to the action of congress in condemning the policy of the Minister of Finance.

Daniel Durrand, an old resident of Barton township, is dead aged 60.

Rev. Rural Dean Hicks, of Simcoe has been appointed canon of St. Paul's.

THE DEAN PATTERNS

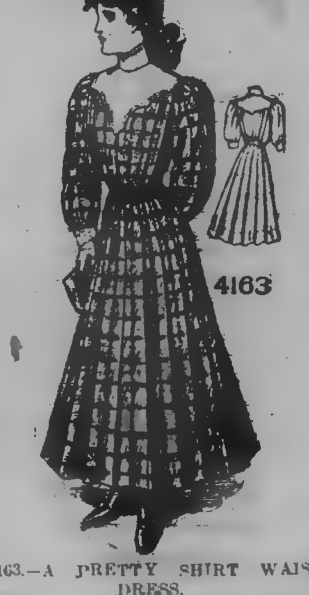


4174.—A CHARMING LITTLE COAT.

One of the prettiest of the new models in small coats is shown for the benefit of the home sewer. A round yoke continues to the lower edge in front in real stole fashion and lends height to the wearer. Two side pleats at each side of the centre front and back give a pretty fulness to the skirt portion and allow plenty of room for dainty frocks beneath. Natty turnback cuffs finish the sleeves and a collar to correspond, the neck. The coat is suitable to development in any of the seasonable cloths, taffetas, pongee or linen. For the medium size 2 1-4 yards of 54 inch material are needed.

4174.—Sizes, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 years.

The price of this pattern is 10c.



4163.—A PRETTY SHIRT WAIST DRESS.

Grace and simplicity are essential qualities in the frocks of the young girl and every mother who fashions her daughter's gowns appreciates how difficult the realization of this often proves. A dress which requires no great amount of skill or experience to fashion and which nevertheless appears smart and attractive is sketched. The waist has a fanciful yoke as its distinctive feature with two broad tucks at either side below. The closing if effected beneath the last tuck at the side and on the shoulder, while the sleeves are to be finished full length or shorter as desired. The skirt is a seven-gored one laid in pleats and stitched in double box box pleats at the front and back. Mohair is an excellent material for such a dress as it sheds dust and does not quickly show wear while Henrietta, rajah, pongee, linen, crash or madras might be used. For the medium size 5 1-8 yards of 44 inch goods are needed.

4163.—Sizes 14, 15, 16, 17 years.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

Mr. Sucee's House Was Not Flooded

Water Did Not Come Within 100 Feet of His Dwelling

In connection with the drain in North Monaghan, about a mile west of the city which overflowed its banks on Saturday afternoon last, owing to the heavy rain storm, it was stated in the Review that Mr. M. Sucee's house was almost submerged and that the occupants were forced to move upstairs. This report is entirely untrue, and it now appears that the rumors as to the damage were greatly exaggerated. The water did not come within a hundred feet of Mr. Sucee's dwelling, and he and his family suffered no inconvenience whatever. There was not even any water in his cellar and the report of the inundation of his house is not relished by Mr. Sucee.

The Prospects are Improving

Outlook for Winter Wheat Crop In Different Countries

Liverpool, June 24. — Broomhall's weekly foreign crop report says;

United Kingdom. — The weather is very unseasonable, which is causing apprehension and harvest indications are only moderate.

France. — The outlook for crops is favorable, but warmer weather is wanted.

Germany. — There is much apprehension expressed regarding the outlook, as the hot weather keeps the crops backward. Native wheat, however, is being offered freely.

Hungary. — The weather is favorable, and home estimates are being raised.

Roumania, Bulgaria and Turkey.— The weather is favorable. The prospects for winter grain continue to show improvement. The outlook for spring crops is fair.

Italy and North Africa. —Favorable prospects, as reported last week continue to be maintained.

Spain. — In the south, the harvest will be short as compared with last year, while elsewhere the prospects are for a moderate crop. There has been some deterioration as a result of heat and drought.

Russia. — In the south east crop prospects are favorable. In the south west the damage to the winter crop is fully confirmed. The spring crops need rain. Supplies are generally light.

Belgium and Holland. — The crop outlook is satisfactory.

MDE. JOSEPH BEAUDOIN.

CATARRH OF STOMACH RELIEVED BY PE-RU-NA.

Mde. Joseph Beaudoin, 59 Rue St. Olivier, Quebec, P. Q., Can., writes:

"Peruna is wonderful for indigestion. I eat whatever I want and no longer feel any oppression.

"Having had dyspepsia for a long time and having tried various other remedies, I decided to try Peruna and with the fourth bottle of it I was perfectly cured.

"For this reason I recommend it to all those who are suffering with that terrible malady, dyspepsia.

"I hope that all who are afflicted in this way will take Peruna as I did."

The experience of Mde. Beaudoin ought to be sufficient proof to any one of the value of Peruna in cases of catarrhal dyspepsia. If you suffer from stomach catarrh in any of its various forms, give Peruna a fair trial, avoiding in the meantime all such indiscretions in diet as would tend to retard a cure, and you will soon be rewarded by a normal appetite and healthy digestion.

FLOWER SUNDAY

Flower Sunday will be observed on Sunday morning next in St. Luke's church. All the children will march from the Sunday school rooms into the church, carrying flowers, which after the service will be forwarded to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto. Children from the country, not members of the school will be cordially welcome to join with the others.

Subscription for James Reynolds

Will be Refunded Money That He Dropped in Contest

Port Hope, June 25.—Jas. Reynolds who left Toronto Monday evening, at 7.45 on his return walking trip, collapsed when three miles west of Newcastle. He put up a plucky struggle all through, but at his own request was taken in the umpire's carriage and driven to the Newcastle Hotel. He was a physical wreck and his trainer is of the opinion that had he continued he would have died on the road. The news of his downfall caused much regret here, and all afternoon the streets were crowded with hopeful citizens that the Newcastle report was not correct. He arrived here on a stretcher on 4.30 train, but his condition is not serious. A subscription was started in Newcastle and a large amount of money contributed. Port Hopers will make a similar move and Reynolds' $300 will be returned.

Plans for This Portion of the Waterway are Almost Completed—Work to be Started at Newmarket in About Two Weeks.

It is stated on reliable authority that the contracts for the completion of the southern portion of the Trent canal will be let within the next few weeks. The plans are now nearly completed and it is understood that no time will be lost in going ahead with the work. This will be pleasing news to people residing in that district and also to those affected in any way by the canal. The government, it is stated, are not going to allow any further delays in the work of construction.

Work on the construction of the section of the canal between Newmarket and Lake Simcoe will be commenced in about two weeks' time. The contractor is all ready to begin operations and is prepared to rush matters. A number of the canal staff, who are now located in Peterborough, leave for Newmarket next week, where their presence is required owing to the work of construction which is about to start.

The canal staff are very busy at the present time, making arrangements for the construction work which will soon be started. It is a long time since things were so active and indications point to the early completion of the great inland waterway.

WEDDINGS OF ONE JUNE DAY

MACKAY—HALL

One of Peterborough's charming daughters, in the person of Miss Alice Mary Hall, daughter of Mrs. Jas. Hall, 342 Rubidge street, and of the late Sheriff Hall, was wedded at St Paul's church this afternoon to Rev. Wm MacDonald Mackay, of Toronto, son of Alexander Mackay, of Thamesford, Ont. The ceremony took place at 2.3 0o'clock and was performed by Rev. Dr. Torrance, assisted by Rev. Robt. Mackay, of Toronto, cousin of the groom. The wedding, though quiet and not elaborate, was exceedingly pretty. The bride entered the church as the wedding march was being played by Mr. John Crane, organist of St. Paul's church, and was given away by her brother-in-law, Sir Sandford Fleming, of Ottawa. She looked very sweet in a gown of white satin over taffeta, trimmed with lace, and wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms. The bride and groom were unattended, and simplicity marked the wedding ceremony. The ushers were Rev. George Hackney, of Toronto; Dr. Smith, of Stratford, and Mr. Harold Hall, of Peterborough.

After the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Rubidge street, to which only immediate relatives and friends were invited. The happy bride and groom were showered with hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackay left on the 4.48 C.P.R. train for Toronto, and other western points, where the honeymoon will be spent, after which they will reside in Toronto. The bride travelled in a pretty costume of white serge, and white hat with wings.

The bride is one of Peterborough's most esteemed and charming daughters, and her popularity was amply testified by the large number of beautiful presents received. Among them was an exceedingly pretty silver fern pot from her Sunday school class of little girls at Knox church, and also a beautiful gift from the Sunday school teachers of the same congregation. She was actively connected with the work of St. Paul's and Knox churches, and will be greatly missed in these circles.

The groom has a large number of friends in Peterborough, having been assistant pastor of St. Paul's church for a term, leaving here a year ago last spring. He is now general secretary of the Y.M.C.A. in connection with the University of Toronto, and in this position is meeting with marked success.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackay will have the best wishes of a legion of friends in Peterborough for their future welfare and happiness.

McNABB—PATTERSON

A very pretty but quiet wedding took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Patterson, King street, Norwood, when their second eldest daughter, Miss Myrtle Elrena, became the wife of Mr. Jas. Austin McNabb, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

Miss M. M. Calder, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by Mr. Wm. McNabb, brother of the groom, of St. Catharines, while little Miss Doris Patterson and Miss Mildred Deacon were maids of honor. Rev. Mr. Adams, of Norwood, was the officiating clergyman. The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreens, wedding bells, lilacs and apple blossoms. The bride entered the room leaning upon the arm of her father, as the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, from "Midsummer Night's Dream," was played by Miss Eva L. Patterson. The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of white silk and Valenciennes lace, and insertion. She wore the conventional veil with a cornet of wax orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was attired in white Swiss and Valenciennes lace and insertion, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride's travelling dress was of ladies' gray cloth trimmed with blue velvet and pearl buttons, her hat being of white silk straw, with a wreath of apple blossoms, and sprays of flowers at the back.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents, showing the high esteem in which she is held by her many friends. Among the gifts were very handsome articles of silver and cut glass, and many of fancy work.

The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful gold pearl crescent brooch; to the bridesmaid, a gold stick pin, set with pearls, and to the maids of honour gold necklaces and lockets.

Mr. and Mrs. McNabb left on the midnight train for Ottawa, Montreal, Pembroke and several other places along the line, and then return by boat to Sault Ste. Marie, where they will take up their residence.

Guests were present from many outside points, including St. Catharines, Hastings, Sault Ste. Marie, and other places.

MACPHERSON—BOLLARD

At Old St. Andrew's church, Toronto, on Wednesday evening last, a very pretty wedding ceremony was celebrated by Dr. G. M. Milligan, when Miss Margaret Evelyn Bollard, the only daughter of Mr. Arthur Bollard, 381 Berkeley street, was married to Mr. William E. Macpherson.

The bride, who was gowned in a very pretty lace robe over white duchess satin, trimmed with old point lace, an heirloom of the family, was given away by her father. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. The bridesmaids, Miss Marcella Sparrow, of this city, and Miss Jessie McCarde, of Philadelphia, in gowns of pink and white mousseline, also carried shower bouquets of white roses and sweet peas. Two very pretty little flower girls, Miss Jean Eastwood, of Peterborough, and Miss Evelyn Jackes of Toronto, completed the bride's entourage. The groom was assisted by Mr. Jack Toye. The gift of the groom to the bride was a hoop ring of pearls and diamonds; to the bridesmaids, signet rings; to the little flower girls, beauty pins set with pearls; and to the ushers, scarf pins set with pearls.

After the ceremony a reception

MARLING—LEFEVRE

St. John's church, Lakefield, was the scene of an attractive wedding this afternoon, when Miss Lefevre, eldest daughter of Mr. H. J. Lefevre, of that village, was joined in the bonds of matrimony, to Mr. T. B. Marling, of Upper Canada College, Toronto, formerly of Lakefield. Rev. Walter Creighton, rector of St. John's church, officiated. There was a large and fashionable gathering at the sacred edifice.

WIGMORE—CAMPBELL

A pretty but very quiet wedding was celebrated in Keene at noon today, when Mr. Thomas Wigmore of Oxbow, Sask., formerly of Norwood, was married to Miss Margaret Miller Campbell, daughter of Mr. Wm. Campbell, postmaster, Keene, and Mrs. Campbell.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. D. McDonald, pastor, of Keene Presbyterian church, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the uniting parties. The bride, who was prettily attired in point d'esprit over white taffeta, wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was unattended. Miss Lillian Campbell, sister of the bride, played the wedding march.

After the ceremony, hearty congratulations were extended Mr. and Mrs. Wigmore and a dainty dejeuner served.

The happy couple left on the 4.48 train for a trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and other points.

The bride's going-away costume was of brown, with hat of Tuscan straw to match.

The house was artistically decorated for the occasion and a large array of beautiful presents bore ample evidence of the popularity and esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wigmore will take up their residence at Oxbow, and will be followed to the West by the well wishes of all.

SELBY—WHITCROFT

A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Wm. Whitcroft, 30. Aylmer street, when Miss Frances E. was united in marriage to Mr J. Fraser Selby, of Toronto.

The ceremony was performed by Rev Wm. Major, rector of All Saints church, in the drawing room which was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and palms. Only the immediate friends and relatives were present.

Punctually at ten o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Oda McCarthy of Toronto, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, entered the drawing room and took her place beneath a beautiful canopy of evergreens and orange blossoms. The bride looked charming in a pretty gown of white Brussels net, over chiffon taffeta, trimmed with baby Irish and Valenciennes lace. She wore the conventional bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The only attendant was a little maid of honor, Miss Hazel Whitcroft, sister of the bride, who was becomingly attired in nile green muslin, with trimmings of Valenciennes lace. She carried pale pink carnations.

After the ceremony a choice wedding dejeuner was partaken of and hearty congratulations were bestowed upon the bride and groom.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant, and to the maid of honor, a pearl ring. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and attractive presents, among them being a handsome silver bread tray from the Girls' Guild of All Saints church.

Mr. and Mrs. Selby left on the 11.40 G.T.R. train for Niagara and Buffalo, and will also visit the Jamestown Exposition, Virginia.

The bride is a most popular young lady and her host of friends will join in wishing her and her husband many years of happy wedded life in their future home in Toronto.

LAMPREY—COLLINS

A fashionable wedding was celebrated this afternoon in St. Thomas' church, Millbrook, when Miss Helen Collins, daughter of Mr. T. B. Collins, one of Millbrook's most prominent residents, was married to Mr E. W. Lamprey, manager of the Bank of Toronto, Maisonneuve, Montreal, and former manager of the Bank of Toronto in Millbrook. Mr. Lamprey is also a former resident of Peterborough, having been for some time ledger keeper at the Bank of Toronto there. Rev. W. C. Allen, rector of Cavan, performed the ceremony, in the presence of a large number of guests.

MAYOCK—HOWREN

The marriage took place at St. Peter's Cathedral this morning of Miss Mary Howren, daughter of Mr Cornelius Howren, of Peterborough to Mr Michael Mayock, son of Mr. Martin Mayock, also of this city. The ceremony took place at six o'clock and was performed by Rev. Father O'Leary, in the presence of a number of friends and relatives.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast took place at the home of the bride, when the happy bride and groom received the congratulations of a large number of friends.

Mr and Mrs. Mayock left on the morning train for a wedding trip to western points, after which they will reside in Peterborough.

OBITUARY

JOHN DOUGLAS.

Mr. John Douglas, a former resident of Peterborough, died recently in Minto, Man. He was a member of the firm of Douglas and Logan, carriage manufacturers, and was well known here. The deceased was for many years a member of the town council. He removed to Manitoba about fifteen years ago, and has since then made his home there. Last winter he met with an accident by a fall and during the confinement made necessary, he developed internal complications, which resulted in his death.

Entrance Exams. Now in Progress

182 Candidates are Writing at Collegiate Institute

There are 182 pupils writing on the Entrance examinations at the Collegiate Institute today. The examinations will last for three days. After the reading instructions, the first examination was composition. Two boys thought that was all this morning and went home. However, they were sent after and brought back for the second paper. Mr Duncan Walker is presiding examiner, assisted by Mr. C. Fessenden. Miss A Weir, of the Collegiate staff, and Miss M. O'Connell, of St. Peter's Separate School.

Messrs. Kenner, Stubbs, and Brigley, of the Collegiate staff, are presiding in the different rooms, but are not examiners.

Presentation to Departing Pastor

Rev. A. E. Camp of Havelock Given Gold Watch and Purse

A most interesting congregational gathering was held in the Presbyterian church, Havelock, on Monday night, on the eve of the departure of Rev. A. E. Camp, B.A., for Sault Ste. Marie.

A very complimentary address expressive of the high esteem in which Mr. Camp was held by his people, was read by Mr. George Childs. The address bore the signatures of Mr. James Thompson, clerk of sessions and Mr. Alex. Rose, chairman Board of Managers.

Miss Marjorie McKay, little daughter of Mr. Kenneth McKay, presented Mr Camp with a handsome gold watch and fob, together with a purse.

Mr. Camp was very much affected by the overwhelming expressions of regard and was deeply moved as he sought to utter words of appreciation.

It is only on such occasions that the real ring of loyalty and devotion is evidenced. Havelock is pre-eminently a railroad centre, and her citizens, ever on the alert for the call of duty, are not profligate with eulogies and many a Christian worker is too apt to think of their attitude as indifferent, but it was evident that there had existed a very strong attachment to Mr. Camp during the years of his pastorate, and the entire community had thus proved it in such an emphatic form that they fully appreciated what he had endeavored to do on their behalf.

Rev. Mr. Camp left on the four o'clock train for the west and will be inducted in the charge of St. Paul's church, Soo West, on Friday night.

For Wounding Man With Pocket Knife

Henry Williams, an Old Pensioner, Was Given Month in Gaol

One month in the county gaol at hard labor, for assaulting Clare Clancy and wounding him with a knife, was the magistrate's sentence to Henry Williams this morning at the police court. Williams is an old pensioner and hails from Whitby.

He has been in the hospital and just got out a few days ago. He pleaded guilty this morning to the charge. It was the same old thing, whiskey got the better of him, and he was in a fighting mood. In a hotel bar last night there were a number of young fellows and this old man. The fellows were fooling, and made some remarks which Williams thought were meant for him. He went out of the bar and soon after returned, striking Clancy on the arm and on the breast with the knife. The wounds are not serious, but it was not Williams fault that they were not.

Williams will spend the next four weeks at Castle Nesbitt.

Loving Tribute to the Departed

Decoration Ceremony Will Take Place To-morrow Afternoon at 5 O'clock

Tomorrow will be Decoration Day. Local Oddfellows will assemble at Central Park at five o'clock in the afternoon and march in a body to Little Lake Cemetery, where the graves of the departed brothers will be decorated with flowers. The 57th Regiment band will lead the procession to the cemetery and it is expected that the majority of stores will close for the latter part of the afternoon. All citizens are invited to take part in the ceremony.

Cobourg Again Sends an Excuse

Instead of a Football Team to Meet the Quakers—No Match To-night

A telegram was received from Cobourg last night that the football team of that place would not be able to play in Peterborough against the Quakers tonight. Inability to get a team together, was given the cause for the failure to keep their engagement. As a result there will be no game at Riverside Park tonight. This is the second time that the Cobourgers have disappointed the locals and the Quakers should take the game by default. The Quaker management have spent considerable in advertising on the two occasions but each time the lake town outfit sent word at the last minute that they could not come.

LACROSSE TEAM WORKING HARD

The intermediate lacrosse team had an excellent work out last night, in preparation for their game against Beaverton at Riverside Park on Dominion Day. In addition to a number of the younger players, all the old stalwarts were in line, and dog in with plenty of ginger. The men are fast rounding into form, and will practice every night this week. They should be in fine condition to meet the Beaverton aggregation, and although the northerners are coming strong, should be able to make them bite the dust.

The match promises to be one of the most interesting played here in years, and will no doubt be witnessed by a monster crowd.

The drubbing at Rosedale a week ago Saturday has proved good medicine for the locals, and they have been turning out to practice regularly in order to show the public that they can play lacrosse, and make the best of them hustle when they are in shape.

BASEBALL

The baseball team will practice at Riverside Park tomorrow night when everyone is asked to be out. The locals will likely take a jaunt to Lindsay in the near future, where they will collide with "Bill" Cinnamon and the Lindsay baseball team. This will no doubt prove a great contest as the name of Lindsay is enough to make the local fans turn out and root.

Advance Party for St. Catherines

About a dozen members of the 57th Regiment leave for St. Catharines tomorrow morning to make arrangements for the visit of the Ringers to that city on Dominion Day. They have been selected by Capt. Eastwood, quartermaster of the corps, who will leave for the Garden City on Friday to arrange the final details. The advance party will put up the tents and have everything ready for their comrades-in-arms when they arrive on Sunday morning.

WATERING CARTS AT THE CIRCUS

Sprinkled the Road to the Exhibition Grounds and Kept Down the Clouds of Dust

One of the best acts that has been performed by the engineering department was the sprinkling of Lock street to Lansdowne to the entrance to the circus. This stretch is not in the street watering territory, but owing to the fact that several thousand citizens of the city and county were going down there in the afternoon and evening it was done. Street Commissioner Harry Evans ordered one of the street watering carts from the central district down to the south end immediately after the parade was over, and during the afternoon the cart went over the road two or three times, this made a great improvement. A great cloud of dust, which usually follows in the trail of a circus parade, and which rise when thousands of people are tramping, was prevented, and there was not a single complaint about the dust all day. Had Mr. Evans not taken the precaution the public would have been greatly inconvenienced.

County Council Committees Submit Favorable Reports

Peterborough, June 19.

To the members of the Committee on Roads and Bridges throughout the County of Peterborough:

Gentlemen,—In submitting this annual report on the bridges throughout your county. I might say regarding the floating bridges, that notwithstanding the fact, the breaking up of the ice during the present spring was accompanied with very high winds, both combining to make the circumstances of a very adverse nature. Yet I find these bridges on the whole in very good state of repair; this is no doubt, partly due to the very efficient manner in which the caretakers of these bridges perform their duties.

Young's Point Bridge. — This bridge is in good condition, with the exception of a few repairs of minor character, which the caretaker is attending to.

Mud Lake Bridge.—This bridge is in very good condition, after the going out of the ice a few repairs of a trifling nature such as chains, etc., was found necessary, which was attended to by the caretaker. The expenses of repairing this bridge during the recent spring has been about the same as the average season.

Gannon's Narrows Bridge. — This bridge is in good condition. Owing to the severe strain during the breaking up of the ice this present spring, one of the anchors was drawn about seven feet from its proper position, thereby leaving a sharp curve in the bridge, a circumstance which although it does not materially affect public travel, yet it spoils the appearance of the bridge somewhat. The caretaker, however, assured me that he would make an effort to have it replaced to its proper position. I might remark that there is very little mud in the bottom of the lake at this point, making it difficult to anchor the bridge.

Pigeon Creek Bridge.—This bridge is in very good condition everything considered, it being a very old structure. The railing is in bad condition, and I would suggest that some action be taken to have it made safer for public travel. The greater part of the old material could be utilized in making the necessary repairs. The approach on the west side should be repaired by a few loads a gravel at the point where it meets the bridge.

Burleigh Falls Bridge.—This bridge we found in need of some repairs. The flooring of the approaches is not in the very best condition, the stringers on north approach are not as strong as the traffic over the bridge should call for. The Commissioners, however, have been attending to it and there are four stringers on the ground preparatory to having them placed in position. I might add that in my opinion the caretaker is not paid sufficient salary considering the size of the bridge. From end to end this bridge is four hundred feet long, and being built some time it requires a good deal of attention.

Burns' Bridge.—This bridge is in very good condition in every respect, excepting the fact that it is badly in need of painting.

Sullivan's Bridge. — This bridge is in good condition, it having been refloored about three years ago. It is also in need of painting.

Indian River Bridge.—This bridge which was built in 1905, is in good shape in every respect, excepting the western approach, which seems to have been built in a very slipshod manner, there being scarcely any stone outside the posts of the railing, being held in place by being wired to some old stringers, which were left from the old bridge, consequently they are very badly out of line, and will doubtless continue to get worse, if some steps to repair the same are not taken.

Warsaw Bridge. — Is in a good state of repair, with the exception of the railing which needs some repairs, which I ordered to be done.

I might add that I will be particularly pleased, and request the several commissioners of bridges to bring in their respective reports, thereby enabling us to intelligently discuss the matters pertaining to all the bridges.

Signed, F. MOHER,
Chairman Roads and Bridges.
Council Chamber, June 19, '07.

Report to Committee on Roads and Bridges:—

We beg to report that we have inspected the bridges under our supervision, excepting those adjoining Northumberland county. The bridge crossing the Indian River, called Evans' bridge, as you are aware, was newly built last year with the approaches left unfinished. We have now the filling in of the approaches and the building of a railing completed, costing in the neighbourhood of two hundred dollars. We found the abutments and the superstructure in good condition.

We found Leary's bridge in as good condition as when last inspected.

We carefully inspected Armstrong's bridge, and found it in our opinion, unsafe for heavy loads on wagons, or traction engines. We lifted the flooring between each pier and could drop a crowbar half way through the stringers in some places. We would recommend the building of an iron bridge next year.

In inspecting Hope's bridge we found the approaches needing repairing and ordered the repairs to be made. We also advised the caretaker to examine the structure underneath when the water became low and to report to us.

In inspecting the Allandale bridge we found the southeast corner of the abutment giving away, the abutment being built up with dry stone, but in our opinion it can be repaired by an ordinary mason at a trifling expense.

Two years ago Mr. Carey the commissioner had the Keene station bridge repaired by putting a new stringer in the centre and cutting flooring, turning worn part outside, and we now consider it safe for a number of years.

We have examined the Keene bridge on several occasions, and now find that the abutments have closed tight to the ironwork, leaving, in our opinion, no room for expansion.

We had the railing put on the posts on the approaches to this bridge, and had it painted and fixed up complete.

Respectfully submitted,
W. J. PORTER,
J. H. FIFE.

SPECIAL REPORT ON DEER RIVER BRIDGE.

This bridge from shore to shore at present water level is 90 feet; at high water mark it is about 120 feet The east approach is 54 feet, the west is 40 feet. This bridge has been rebuilt some five years ago, and is in good state of repair. The stringers are somewhat small, and would recommend, if assumed by the county, that some action be taken by the commissioner to have them strengthened.

When we consider the fact that Chandos has six bridges all nearly the dimensions required by the county, before assuming as county bridges, and that there is a great deal of traffic over this bridge now under consideration, I would recommend that the county would assume the same.

F. MOHER,
Chairman Roads and Bridges Committee.

Peterborough, June 19, 1907.

Peterborough, June 19, 1907.

To the Warden and Members of the County Council and Chairman o' Roads and Bridges Committee.

Gentlemen.;

I beg to report that the bridges in the municipality of Burleigh are in the following condition;

Brown's Falls bridge, in good order

Burleigh Falls bridge.—The railing is in bad order and one approach wants being renewed. I would request that the caretaker's salary be increased, he not being sufficiently paid for so big a bridge. The bridge also should be painted.

All of which is respectfully submitted

CHARLES R. D. BOOTH,
Reeve of Burleigh.

REPORT ON COUNTY BRIDGES IN THE TOWNSHIP OF DUMMER.

To the Members of the Roads and Bridges Committee of the county of Peterborough;

Gentlemen.;

Having examined the bridges which come under my jurisdiction as commissioner, I beg leave to report as follows;

1. Having examined the bridge known as Payne's, I find this bridge in good condition.

2. Spencer's bridge although an old bridge, the substructure seems to be in a fair state of preservation, with the covering in need of some repairs, which will not entail any great expense.

3 The bridge on boundary between Asphodel and Dummer, under the supervision of Mr. Robson, I find in a similar condition to that of Spencer's bridge, the covering in need of some repairs.

4. Warsaw bridge is in good condition.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

CHRIS J DARLING,
Commissioner.

May 18th, 1907.

REPORT ON BRIDGES IN THE TOWNSHIPS OF BELMONT AND METHUEN.

1. Brown's bridge I find in good condition, with no repairs for this year.

2. Taylor's bridge is also in good repair.

3 Preston's bridge is also in good condition.

JOSEPH JOHNSTON,
Commissioner.

Numerous Guests Are at "Viamede"

Fishing Party Arrives From Rochester—Other Notes

Viamede Stony Lake, has again opened for the season and is looking even prettier than ever, its popularity being on the increase. A number of guests have already arrived and are enjoying the quiet rest of the lakes before the tourist season sets in.

A very pleasant party is that of the Quite Quiet Sojourners Club of Rochester, who come every season for a week's fishing, this being the sixth season at Viamede. In five days angling they captured 168 of the beautiful black bass of our water, and were enabled to take home with them their full alowance of 95 bass, averaging 2 1-2 pounds each. They had as guides Messrs. Wm. Lamford, Payten Shewen and Roland McCauley. The part was composed of W. S. Firman, H. M. Webb, J. M. Walmsley, G. W. Fitzpatrick, G. E. Mosbert, and E. E. Shutt, all of Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. G. W. Kirkpatrick succeeded in winning again this season, the club's special prize for catching the largest bass, the weight being 4 1-2 lbs.

Among other registrations are, Mr. A. J. Leggett and wife of Rochester, James W. Brown and F. G. Kay, Pittsburg; Dr. Munro, Warsaw; W. McGoffman, Lakefield; J. E. Mueller, Toronto; Lloyd L. Cheney, and wife, Syracuse; Dr. Bruce, Sault Ste. Marie; W. Swackenberg, Cripple Creek; J Elmer Schultz, and wife, Akron, Ohio.

On Thursday and Friday, two delightful evenings were spent in the Viamede pavilion, which were interspersed with song, music and chorus by the guests.

EXTENSION TO THE TOWN HALL

Contract Let—Norwood's Civic Holiday—Big Catch of Fish

Norwood, June 25.—The Methodist Sunday school excursion to Idyl Wyld last Friday, was participated in by only a moderate crowd, but those who did attend spent a most enjoyable time. The steamer Otonabee left the Hastings wharf about 9 a.m. with about two hundred people on board and reached the beautiful picnic grounds in good time for noon. The return trip was commenced about 5.30 p.m. and reached Hastings about 7.30, in good time for the people to drive home.

The excavation for the basement of the town hall extension, has been completed and Contractor Elliott is expected to commence work on the cement foundation this week. The work will be pushed ahead as fast as possible, so that the building may be ready for use at as early a date as possible.

Mr S. A. Smithson, principal of public school, will preside at the entrance examinations in Havelock, this week.

ATTENDED SERVICE.

The Norwood Lodge, A. F. & A. M., attended divine service in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon last at 2.30 o'clock. A large number of the brethren turned out and marched from the lodge room to the church, where they were treated to an excellent sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. MacLennan.

Rev. Mr. Locke of Havelock, preached in the Methodist church here on Sunday last.

CIVIC HOLIDAY.

Friday last was civic holiday in Norwood. Some enjoyed the trip to Idyl Wyld, while others took the first opportunity of the season for a good old fishing expedition, and so about a dozen people spent the day at Trent River.

Among the Trent visitors were,—Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Callander, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hendron, Messrs. A. B. Greenbank and E. Emery and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Cuffe. These are all reported to have caught their full allowance of fish and came home delighted with their day's sport.

SAW THE CIRCUS.

Quite a number of Norwoodites journeyed to Peterborough on Tuesday morning to see the circus, and to feast upon the delights of the wonderful side shows, clowns, red lemonade, and everything that goes to make up the first class circus.

Mr. Ashton Lillie of Peterborough who is spending his vacation here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs John Lillie, Spring street, favored the Methodist congregation on Sunday evening last, with a well-rendered solo, between the reading of the two Scripture lessons.

OTHER NOTES.

Mr. J. Frappy of Seymour, former principal of the Norwood Model and Public school, with Mrs. Frappy and daughter, are renewing acquaintances in Norwood this week.

Mr. S. A. Smithson, our public school principal, will preside at the entrance examinations in Havelock, this week.

Miss Ellen Beavis has gone on an extended visit to Dunley, Sask, where she will spend the summer with her brother, Rev. R. Beavis. She will also visit other places of interest.

This Year's Show Will be the Best

Central Canada Exhibition at Ottawa Will Lead

The directors of the Central Canada Exhibition held at Ottawa for which the dates are September 13—21 inclusive, are rapidly completing arrangements for this great fair. Every year sees many important changes and innovations and this year is no exception. In 1906 the directors made a number of new departures, some good and others found not to be in the interests of the Exhibition. The experience gained augurs well for the success of this year's show, and from the preliminary announcements it is safe to say that taken all in all the exhibition will excel any previous fair.

The official announcements to date show that very high-class special attractions are to be put on every afternoon in addition to many new features and improvements in connection with the show proper. Probably one of the most interesting announcements made is that of Knabenshue will be present to give exhibitions daily with his airship. This is one of the marvels of the century and doubtless visitors will appreciate the efforts of the directors to furnish an interesting and novel attraction at great expense. Knabenshue will make flights with his airship every afternoon during the show This is probably the greatest attraction ever given the people of Canada.

Among the other daily attractions this year will be two trotting races and one running event every afternoon in front of the grand stand.

The purses for these races aggregate $1,500.

Kirkfield Picnic Will be Held July 6

Rev. Father O'Sullivan, of Kirkfield, who has returned from a trip to Great Britain, Ireland and the Continent, was in Peterborough yesterday and arranged for a picnic to be held at Kirkfield on July 6, on the occasion of the formal opening of the hydraulic lift lock.

The picnic will doubtless be a decided success and all visitors to the opening of the lock may obtain meals on the grounds.

DECORATION DAY TO-MORROW

All Preparations are Complete for Impressive Ceremony

All arrangements are now complete for the decoration of the graves at Little Lake cemetery to-morrow afternoon when the Oddfellows and their friends will observe the annual ceremony.

The triple linked brethren will meet at Central park at five o'clock and headed by the 57th Regiment band, will march to the city of the dead.

After the decoration of the graves there will be short addresses delivered by several city clergymen. Addresses will be given by Rev. H. F. Keith Rev. J. R. Webb and Rev. William Major. It is expected that a popular local vocalist will sing a solo. It is hoped that the stores and factories will close early in order to afford their employees an opportunity of taking part in decoration day celebration.

Lady Arrives From South Africa

Mrs. H. C. Gerrard Home on Visit to Her Parents Mr. and Mrs. Yenney

Mrs. H. C. Garrard (nee Miss Mabel Yenney) and two children, of Ermelo, South Africa, arrived in the city monday and will pay an extended visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Yenney, 86 Weller street. Mrs. Garrard and children sailed from Durban, S.A., on the 27th March and after four weeks' voyage, arrived in England, where they spent some time visiting her husband's people, who reside about six miles from Stratford-on-Avon. The boat sailed from Liverpool on the 8th inst., but owing to dense fogs they did not arrive in Montreal until last Sunday.

Mrs. Garrard left Peterborough five years ago, when a contingent of Canadian teachers were sent to South Africa. After teaching at two different places in the Transvaal for about 18 months, she married Mr. H C Garrard, and moved to Ermelo, a small town in the Transvaal. Mr. Garrard is an Englishman, but has lived in the Transvaal for over ten years. He is a graduate of Cambridge University, England, and upon his graduation went to South Africa. He is a high school teacher, and is engaged in a school composed of both English and Dutch pupils. There are also Dutch teachers to teach the Dutch pupils.

Mr. Garrard hopes to come to Canada in a short while, and in all probability they will in future reside in this country. The government hire teachers in South Africa, and the people at present want all Dutch teachers, and Mr. Garrard, after he completes his present term, will join Mrs. Garrard here.

The Transvaal people are now having winter, and at Ermelo, although there is no snow, it is quite cold. Mrs. Garrard states that the evenings in Ermelo are always very cool, so much so that one can never sit out on the verandah. The days are quite warm and very dusty.

Dr. Barnardo's Will Filed for Probate

Directed That His Body Should be Cremated in Most Unexpensive Form

Toronto, June 26.—In connection with the Barnardo Home at 214 Farley avenue, valued at $4,000, the will of the late Dr. Barnardo, founder of the work, was filed for probate in the Surrogate Court in Toronto yesterday.

Dr. Barnardo made the will on April 13 1905, and his death occurred on September 19, 1905, at St. Leonard's Lodge, Surbiton, Surrey, England.

The executors named are Dr. F. A. E. Barnardo, brother; W. S. E. Barnardo, son; and Wm. McColl, friend.

The first clause deals with the disposal of his remains: "I desire to be cremated, the arrangements to be in the most inexpensive form. My ashes are to be interred in the grave I have already prepared in front of Cairns' House at the Girls' Village Home, Barkingside, Ilford, Essex. My ashes are to be carried to their last resting place by such of my good friends from Edinburgh Castle and Stepney Castle as may volunteer, and as many of the girls and boys from my homes are to follow as can be readily and inexpensively arranged. Should I die abroad, my body shall be cremated there, and brought home. I hope to die, as I have lived, in the humble but assured faith of Jesus Christ, whom I have imperfectly served, and whom I acknowledge to be my Saviour, my Master and my King."

Dr. Barnardo directs that his private correspondence and letters shall be handed to his wife, Sarah Louise, "to be dealt with in such manner as she in her absolute discretion shall think best."

Mrs. Barnardo receives such plate, linen, glass, china, pictures, prints, books and furniture as she may select, excepting only certain tokens to the three children, two sons and a daughter. "My grandfather's chiming presentation clock" is one, and "my kodak" another. The signet ring goes to the daughter.

One-fourth of the estate goes to the Barnardo Homes. The income from the residue goes to Mrs. Barnardo. At her death a yearly income of 100 pounds will be paid to the daughter. Should she die the two sons will inherit. The widow is expected to educate the younger children, the son for the Indian service, or, should he fail to obtain an appointment, for the profession of medicine."

Dr. Barnardo held the Toronto branch in trust for the Barnardo Homes.

THE CAMP LIFE AT PETAWAWA

How the Members of the 24th F.D.C.A. are Spending the Time

Special to the Review.

Petawawa, Camp, June 26.— Gen. Lake visited the camp yesterday and was favorably impressed with the way things were going along.

This is certainly a peach of a wilderness, black flies and skeeters are a treat to us!! They certainly must like us, as they got acquainted with us a little more than is to our liking. This would be a good place to start a sand stone or brick factory, as sand is the main guy here, barring black flies and skeeters. The heat has been something terrific, and when the dust is raised a person looks like a coal heaver.

Our first gun practice commences tomorrow morning—Monday.

This camp is a very large one, and it is almost like a Chinese puzzle to find your own digs.

It is surprising how one runs up against old friends, who have not seen each other for years, from nearly all parts of the globe, and a person could easily tumble to what takes place after the hand shake.

The boys are all well and behaving themselves to the King's taste. They have had an issue of straw hats, which is what is required in this place.

We expect to arrive home next Sunday.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country, than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years, was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case, it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENEY, Toledo, Ohio.

LAST DRILL BEFORE TRIP

Regiment in Good Shape for the St. Catharines Jaunt

The last drill of the 57th Regiment previous to the trip to St. Catharines, was held at Central Park last night. Of course the attendance was not as large as usual, owing to about eighty men being absent with the composite companies, and then again the circus could not be resisted by a large number. Under the circumstances, however, the turnout was very satisfactory. The men were put through various movements in the park and showed that they have improved greatly during the past two weeks. All the uniforms and equipment are being put in first class shape for the St. Kitts jaunt, and the Rangers should give a good account of themselves in the Garden City. The boys are all looking forward to the trip with interest and expect a good time.

Within a week the price of wood pulp has advanced from $15 to $23 in the Halifax market. It is predicted by papermakers that news will advance $10 per ton before the new year.

Girl May Save Her Father; Takes Stand in Murder Trial

Moving Scene in the Trial of Judge Loving For Murder.

Tells On Stand How Dead Man Treated Her—Was Drugged While Riding In Buggy—Accused Declares No Power On Earth Could Have Kept Him From Killing His Child's Betrayer.

Houston, Va., June 26.—The trial of former Judge Loving, charged with the murder of Theodore Estes, was resumed yesterday. After an argument of an hour, Judge Barksdale permitted the defendant, who was on the stand, to relate a conversation with his brother-in-law, Harry Sneed, who told him of the alleged drugging of his daughter which led to the killing.

"This revelation came to me as a thunderbolt from a clear sky," said the defendant. "I loved my daughter and no power on earth could have restrained my hands."

Here the witness wept and several of his relatives also gave way to tears. Continuing Loving said:—"In this condition of mind I went out intending to put that man to death. I got my shot gun and drove at once to Lovingston. When I got there I called a boy and asked for Estes, but found he was at Oak Bridge. I went to Oak Bridge and I inquired for Estes. I learned that Estes was in a car at the station. I then turned my horse to a livery stable and got out of the buggy and loaded my gun. I saw Estes in the car with two negroes and waved them aside and said to Estes:—"You are the young man who takes ladies out driving and drugs and ruins them?"

"I heard no reply and when he made a motion as if to leave the car I shot him. I then surrendered myself to the nearest magistrate."

He was followed on the stand by Sneed, who corroborated him.

streaming from her eyes, Miss Elizabeth Loving, aged 19, testified of her alleged ruin by the young man, whom her parent shot to death.

Estes, she said, gave her a drink of whiskey from a flask he had in his pocket, while they were out buggy-riding on the afternoon prior to his being killed. After taking the drink, she declared that she immediately began to feel dizzy and her head "spun around" as if she had been given some powerful drug. In this condition her escort drove her along an unfrequented road and then abused her.

She realized nothing more until she regained her senses in bed late that night at the home of County Clerk E. L. Kidd. On the following morning she related to her father on bended knees the statement she made yesterday.

This recital, the defence contends, so affected the mind of Judge Loving that he committed a crime which, according to his statement, could have been prevented by no power "except God Almighty."

Thousands of People Saw, Forepaugh-Sells Big Circus

Circus day has come and gone, and pink lemonade and peanuts are a thing of the past until another circus comes. Enormous crowds turned out to see the big performance at the exhibition grounds, afternoon and evening. The attendance in the afternoon was between eight and ten thousand, while at night it averaged between four and five thousand. The country folk were out in full force in the afternoon, but at night the bulk of the audience was from the city, and everyone was well pleased. Forepaugh & Sells Bros.' have a splendid circus, probably the best that ever visited Peterborough. The day was just of that type that seems to be best adapted to a circus, with a baking hot sun and a clear atmosphere that permitted of the limit in neglige and kept everyone in good humor. The cool breeze served to relieve any discomfort from the heat, and the splendid location of the circus, with the excellent car service supplied, gave everyone quick access to the grounds, and afforded easy means of handling the great crowds with advantage.

FINE SHOW OF ANIMALS.

The greatest interest was taken in the animals, and these were without doubt an extraordinarily large and fine collection. There were three herds of elephants of great size, a score of camels, a giraffe with an enormous stretch of neck, two hippopotami, and the only rhinoceros in America. The last animal alone was well worth going to see the show. Its weight was given as 4,300 pounds, and it looked fully up to the estimate, while its capacious mouth looked large enough to take in an ordinary man at one gulp. The menagerie tent, after its occupants returned from the procession, became the greatest object of interest, and as soon as it was thrown open it was filled with a curious crowd of animal lovers. The many strange inhabitants from all quarters of the globe excited great interest, and a refreshing feature in this connection was the willingness and courtesy of the attendants in answering queries.

A REALISTIC FIRE SCENE.

When the big show began, almost every seat in the vast tent was occupied. The great improvements made in recent years in the style of seats and the provision for the comfort of the patrons were so marked as to excite comment, and the performance was witnessed with fully as much pleasure as the ordinary theatre would give. The often-heard cry for the old-time circus with all its attendant inconveniences, appeals strongly to many people on sentimental grounds, but the modern show, with its up-to-date equipments gets the preference in the last analysis.

The big show opened with the unusual spectacle termed "Fighting the Flames." This is one of the most realistic pieces of work that has ever been attempted in a circus tent. With a full equipment of engines, reels, hose and other paraphernalia incident to a first class fire department, the circus men have a miniature city constructed inside the big tent. The manner in which it takes fire, the explosions that follow, the onward sweep of the flames, the gallant rescue of imperiled females, and the final victory of the brave firemen can only be imagined by city people who have seen similar events in actual life, but it provides an entirely new experience for most people, and gives a very vivid realization of the splendor of a big conflagration, the terror that grips one's heart as he watches it, and the indescribable thrill of excitement and of exultation at the triumph of the smoke-eating firemen.

THE MOTOR SOMERSAULT.

The general performance runs along as most other circuses have done, but with a wealth of action that cannot possibly be grasped at one visit. There are no less than five rings, with a constant performance in each, and all entitled to exclusive attention. A detailed description of the 300 odd performers would be impossible, but all the latest equestrian accomplishments, the most difficult feats on high wires, and the most skilful acts of the equilibrist are to be seen.

The culmination of an afternoon of excitement came with the sensational automobile somersault. There was a great calm as the daring chauffeuse was drawn to the top of the incline, and a suppressed cry as she started downward at a terrific speed. The car shot off the tracks into the air, turned completely over and landed on a platform all prepared with pillows to soften the impact and resting on steel springs.

The circus left last night for Belleville, where they are showing today. They will be at Kingston tomorrow

Havelock is Preparing for Big Dominion Day Celebration

There Will be a Trades Procession—Other Features of the Day—Rev. A. E. Camp Preaches Farewell Sermon—Clerk Burns Hand With Acid.

Havelock, June 24.—A monster demonstration will be given here on Dominion Day, July 1st, when all others that have taken place will be surpassed. A number of men have been busy for the past two weeks in arranging every particular to make those attending enjoy themselves as they have never done before. The first and very important part, that of the trades' procession, will take place at ten o'clock in the morning, when Havelock's enterprising and prosperous merchants in all lines of business, manufacturing and trade, will parade the streets, and in the most comic way, will advertise their line of business.

BALL GAME.

A baseball game between a Havelock nine, and a band of Hastings ball handlers will take place at 1.30 p.m and is sure to be very interesting and still more so will be a football match between Havelock and Norwood, two old rivals, which will be pulled off at 3 p.m.

A five mile race open to all comers will be a special feature of the day and in view of same, several in town are in training. One mile and 100 yards, races, as well as small sports of all kinds will take place in the Havelock Park, the opening of which takes place on July 1st. A slow horse race, a most comic affair will also take place in the afternoon. Refreshments of all kinds will be served on the grounds.

A special train will come from Peterborough, leaving that city at 10.16 a.m., and arriving in Havelock at 11.15. Returning special will leave Havelock, at 8.30 in the evening. Fare from Peterborough is 75c, and that from Norwood 20c. The Citizens' Band will furnish music on the grounds, during the day.

A large number from town attended the Round Lake picnic, held [illegible] and swimming races, which will Friday last and all report an excellent time.

The annual picnic of St. John's Sunday School will take place on July 4th to Trent Bridge, when an excellent time is expected. Besides the common run of foot races there will be several rowing, canoe at Senney's Landing, Raish Point, on afford plenty of enjoyment to the boys, at least.

The ten cent tea held on Vanorman's Lawn, George street, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church on Thursday evening last was well attended on account of being the first that has taken place this season.

FAREWELL SERMON.

Rev. A. E. Camp, who is leaving to take charge of St. Andrew's church at Sault Ste. Marie, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday evening last to a large congregation. Mr. Camp, who is popular with those of all classes and creeds, will indeed be missed when he leaves, and his congregation regret very much his departure from town, but wish him every success and happiness in his new field of labor, which he is about to take up. On Sunday next, Rev. MacLennan of Norwood, acting moderator for this district, will declare the pulpit vacant.

Mr. Alex. Murray, clerk in A. E. Barrett's store, has been compelled to take a few weeks holidays on account of blood poison setting in from burning his hand with acid. He leaves tonight for his home in Almonte where he will remain until the injured member has recovered.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Mr. H. Taylor, and Miss L. Anderson, both of town, to take place in English church, Norwood on Wednesday, July 26th. A reception will afterwards be held at the home of the bride's parents, three miles east of Norwood.

A meeting of the Daughters of the King of St. John's church, will take place at Miss Lancaster's on Monday evening, when Bible Study will be taken up.

SCHOOL IN RUSSIA.

A man of Swede birth was in town last week, canvassing for enough money to build a school in Russia which has lately been burned down and which the municipality has been unable to build. Although it was for a purpose of which they knew but little, the citizens of the town gave liberally.

Mr. Stein of town, has been engaged as brakeman on the C.P.R. running from Havelock to Smith's Falls.

The public school closes tomorrow for the mid-summer holidays.

GENERAL NOTES.

Messrs. C. Williams and G. Bain, spent Sunday in Campbellford.

Miss Loretta Bennett left today for Peterborough, where she will try her first examination in music on Tuesday.

Miss M. Walton of Toronto Junction, is the guest of her mother, for a few days.

Mr. Pratt, piano agent of Smith's Falls, was in town for a few days last week

Wm. Rice of Hastings, was in town on Sunday.

Mr Chas Roberts has been engaged as clerk by W. A. McMaster.

Mr. Wm Chambers, section foreman at Blairton, has been transferred to a similar position on the section of the C.P.R. in Muskoka, and left on Saturday morning, to take charge of same. His family will follow in a few weeks.

Mr. A. Haig of town, has been engaged as clerk by Thompson Bros.

Several new residences are being built on King street.

Mr. John Weir of town, spent Sunday in Norwood.

Mr. James Davis, has been engaged as wiper, by the C.P.R.

Peterborough, June 22, 1907.

Orders Governing Trip of 57th Regiment to St. Kitts.

Regiment Will Parade at Drill Hall at 9.30 O'clock Saturday Night and Entrain at the Grand Trunk Station—Will Return Home Tuesday Morning.

The following orders have been issued in connection with the trip of the 57th Regiment to St. Catharines. All members of the Regiment should peruse them carefully.

Headquarters, Peterborough
June 26th, 1907.

Orders by Lt.-Col. J. W. Miller,
Commanding 57th Regiment,
"Peterborough Rangers."

No. 1.—The regiment with both bands, will parade in drill order, with helmets and ball bags, at the armouries at 9.30 p.m., on Saturday, June 29th, 1907, and thence march to the G.T.R. station, where they will take special train for St. Catharines, there to go into camp for two days —June 30th and July 1st.

PASSENGERS.

No. 2.—After entraining, officers commanding will remain with their respective companies for 15 minutes and rejoin them 15 minutes before arriving in St. Catharines.

No passengers will be allowed to remain on the special train except regularly enlisted members of the 57th regiment, in full uniform, or such as have the proper pass signed by the Adjutant.

DAILY ROSTER.

No. 3. —(a). Orderly officers are detailed as follows,—

(1). Captain Bennett and Lieutenant Higgins.

(2). Captain Mills and Lieutenant Wallace.

(3). Captain Rounsell and Lieutenant Best.

(4) Captain Cluxton and Lieutenant F. A. Clarke.

(5). Captain McWilliams and Lieutenant Hodgson.

(b). Capt. McLean is detailed as Transport Officer.

(c). The roster of duties for non-commissioned officers and men will be supplied by the Sergt.-Major.

(d). The hour of duty will extend from 9.00 p.m. to 9.00 a.m., and from 9.00 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.

ORDERLY OFFICERS.

No. 4.—It will be the special duty of the orderly officers to have control of the conduct of men while in camp. They will inspect, march off, and dismiss all guards and other duties, attend all parades, see that the meals are good and according to contract and assist in carrying out the daily routine of the camp.

ADVANCE AND OTHER PARTIES.

No. 5.—(a). An advance party, consisting of such men as the Quartermaster will require, will proceed to St. Catharines on Thursday, June 27, 1907, to make the necessary camp and other arrangements for the reception of the regiment.

(b). A baggage party consisting of one man from each company, from the brass band, from the bugle band, and from the stretcher bearer section, will report to Captain McLean at the drill hall at 6.30 p.m. on Saturday, the 29th inst.

(c). A party from each company and from the brass band, consisting of a sergeant and four men and a party from the bugle band and from the stretcher bearer section, consisting of a corporal and two men will be detailed to report at the quartermaster's stores on the camp grounds at St. Catharines, immediately after arrival there, to draw the necessary blankets, rugs, utensils, etc.

BAGGAGE.

No. 6.—(a). Men will provide themselves with towels, brushes, soap and other necessaries for toilet and for cleaning clothing and accoutrements. Rifle oil may be procured from regimental stores.

(b). Company kit boxes and all other baggage must be in the drill hall and ready for shipment not later than 6 p.m., on Saturday, June 29th, 1907.

DRESS.

No. 7.—All ranks must appear at all parades and when "walking out" tidy and clean in person and attire and in proper dress. Faces must be shaven, hair properly cut, buckles, buttons and brasses thoroughly polished and belts and clothing kept neat and clean. All will wear black leather boots and see that the same are kept cleaned and well shined.

No. 8.—(a). Arrangements will be made with the hotels in St. Catharines to supply meals. The daily bugler will call a mess parade 15 minutes before each meal hour, when the color sergeants will parade their respective companies at the quartermaster's tent where each will receive from the officer commanding the company, a requisition, counter-signed by the quartermaster for meals for the company.

(b). Color sergeants and section-commanders will be held responsible for the order and perfect regularity of all mess parades.

(c) The commander of the guard will see that all on guard duty get their meals by reliefs with their respective companies.

(d). The hours for meals will be,—

Breakfast, 7.30 a.m.

Dinner, 12.45 p.m., Sunday; 12.00 noon, Monday.

Supper, 6.30 p.m.

ISSUES.

No. 9.—Officers commanding companies will, on route to St. Catharines, make out requisitions for the blankets, rugs, etc., required for their respective companies and will be responsible for the accurate count of the number and quantity drawn from and returned to stores.

CAMP REGULATIONS.

No. 11. (a) Reveille and Retreat will be sounded by the regimental buglers, the time to be taken from the duty bugler.

(b) At Tattoo the regimental band will play a selection or two on the parade grounds.

(c) Immediately after reveille, all will be up, and if the weather permits, tent curtains will be rolled up, blankets and rugs will be folded and placed at the right side of the doorway, with rifles placed beside blankets, clothing and accoutrements will be cleaned and everything put in order in the company lines and in and about the tents.

(d) Orders for striking tents, returning stores and reloading baggage will be issued later.

GUARDS

No. 12. (a) The Regimental Guard will consist of one sergeant, one corporal, one bugler and eight privates.

(b) The first guard will be mounted at the drill hall at 9.15 p.m. on Saturday, the 29th inst., and will report to the adjutant for instructions.

GUARD DUTIES

No. 13. (a) The guard will turn out at Reveille, Retreat and Tattoo, and at such times as they are to be inspected by the orderly or commanding officers.

(b) The guard will:

1 Remain constantly in readiness for any alarm or emergency that may require them.

2. Place two sentries to be relieved every hour.

3. Take charge of all government and regimental property and see that nothing is missed or stolen.

4. Pay proper compliments to all entitled thereto.

5. Allow none to leave the camp unless properly dressed.

6. Allow no loitering at or near the post.

7. Take into custody and confine any disorderly or intoxicated men;

8. See that no nuisances are committed in or about the camp grounds.

No. 14. The commanding officer expects every member of the Regiment to so conduct himself, while in the city of St. Catharines, as to reflect credit on himself, his city, and his corps; and it is confidently hoped that nothing will occur on this occasion which will detract from the good reputation which the regiment has heretofore gained for itself while enjoying its annual outings.

By order,
D. WALKER,
Captain and Adjutant.

WAS THERE AN ELOPEMENT?

Peculiar Circumstances Surrounding Actions of Hunter Street Young Lady

Rumors were rampant on the street this afternoon that a well-known young lady who resides on Hunter street, had eloped with a popular commercial man, who was in the city today. The story cannot be vouched for authentically, but as far as can be learned the lady in question was seen going to the G.T.R. station with the gentleman in question. She wore no hat, but, obedient to her supposed master's commands, carried his grip, and looked the personification of loving submissiveness as she walked along beside him. The twain boarded the Belleville train, but the girl was missed soon afterwards, and a telegraph message was sent to Keene to detain the eloping couple there. Whether this was done or not could not be ascertained at a late hour this afternoon.

The young lady's friends cannot understand her action and are at a loss to comprehend what should have induced her to elope unless it was her commercial friend's sweet singing of "Wait till the sun shines, Nellie."

Gets One Month With Hard Labor

Sentence Imposed on Youth Who Stole Otonabee Woman's Eggs

John Donnelly, who was found guilty of stealing eggs from Mrs. Manley of Otonabee, was sentenced yesterday afternoon by County Magistrate Edmison to one month in gaol with hard labor, the time already spent in the lock-up to count on the sentence. As Donnelly has been boarding on the hill for about two weeks the sentence means that he will only have to put in about two weeks more.

His Worship was lenient in view of the fact that the accused was a young man and a long sentence in gaol might tend to develop his criminal nature. The magistrate promised to let Donnelly off if he would make restitution for the loss incurred by the stealing of the eggs, but the accused was unable to secure the necessary money.

Should be Man of Good Character

Middleton Citizens Pass a Rather Pointed Resolution

Halifax, N.S., June 26. —Following is a resolution passed at a public meeting of citizens of Middleton, June 6, 1907;

"Whereas it is currently reported that Lord Strathcona is shortly to retire from the office of Canadian high commissioner to England and the Federal Government will in consequence be called upon within a few months to appoint his successor,

"And whereas, in the opinion of this public meeting of the residents of Middleton and vicinity, it would be nothing less than a public calamity should our Dominion be represented in the Mother Country by any man of notoriously immoral character, or of questionable integrity;

"Therefore resolved, that this meeting express the hope that the Government of the day may feel constrained to make such an appointment as will reflect no reproach or discredit upon the social or public life of Canada, and that it also express the opinion that the failure of the Government to regard the good name of Canada in this connection will lead to exposures of immoral conduct more serious than any which have thus far been made against our public men."

REMOVAL SALE

LIFE IS NOW WORTH LIVING

And you don't have to spend all the money you own in order to dress well. It is the ambition of every woman to dress well, and to have her home dressed well, but heretofore it has been almost impossible to do either, owing to the increased cost of everything. But now the problem has been solved—it's an open secret—the B. Y. Moyes Gigantic Removal Sale is responsible. They have cut slashed and hammered down the prices on every article in the store to, where it is just about giving the Goods away.

CHANCE FOR EVERY ONE

This is the people's store. We don't make fish of one and flesh of another. One customer's money is as good as another to us. All receive the same careful attention. Don't put off any longer. Four Suspects Were in Court; Were Remanded for a Week

Visitor From Gooderham Reports That He Was Robbed of $600—Serveal Other Cases of Pocket Picking Complained of by People Who Came to See the Circus.

The four fellows who were arrested yesterday afternoon on suspicion of pickpocketing, were arraigned before His Worship Magistrate Dumble this morning, charged with stealing $12.50 from W. J. Hurl, of Young's Point. They did not plead, but asked time to consult a lawyer. His Worship remanded them for a week. They gave their names as Henry Goldfield, of New York City; C. H. Phelps, of Niagara Falls; Ray Bradford, also of New York, and Henry Lewis, of Montreal. Goldfield and Lewis are Jews, and the other two are apparently Yankees. They are all well dressed and resemble professional pickpockets. They have been following the circus. It is believed that there was one other in the party, but he evidently got away. Their ages range from 24 to 33 years. They came to Peterborough yesterday morning, and evidently intended to leave on the 4.48 C.P.R. train last night. There were several people lost money yesterday. Three complained to the police, and in all instances they were robbed on the street cars.

Mr. Sam Baird, of Gooderham, was a heavy loser. He had $600 in his pocket. There were five twenty dollar bills and 56 ten dollar bills. He was on the street car going to circus when the money was taken. It is thought the fifth man got away with this large sum.

Mr. W. H. Hurl, of Young's Point, was also riding on the car, when he missed his money. He lost $12.50. He identified two of the prisoners as having been near him on the car.

Another man lost 75 cents, but he identified the two men who he says took it.

It appears that these four smooth gents were riding up and down on the car for some time yesterday afternoon. Suspicion was aroused that these men were doing up the passengers, and Manager Larmonth informed the police. P. C. Newhall, in plain clothes got on the car, kept his eye on them and followed them around. Another gentleman also noticed their suspicious actions on the car and informed the police. After all the people had gone to the circus the quartette got off the car and were on George street. They were followed closely and they went into the Commercial House, where two were arrested, and the other two were secured on George street, Mr Larmonth pointing them out to the police.

At the police station, where they were examined, large sums of money were found on them. A gold locket and chain was also found on one of them. It has a lady's picture in it, and if anyone is minus a gold locket, they had better call and see the chief.

WERE PHOTOGRAPHED.

After court this morning the four were taken to the Roy studio and photographed. They were also further examined and their height taken. They were also weighed at the market scales.

Details of the fire and the amount of loss have not yet been received.

Busy Times at The Police Court

Several Offenders Faced the Magistrate This Morning

There has been something doing every day this week in police court and Magistrate Dumble has had a busy time of it.

The docket this morning consisted of a vagrancy case and three drunk and disorderly ones.

Jack Shanahan was charged with being drunk and disorderly on the 22nd. He pleaded guilty but His Worship wanted to give him a chance and allowed him to go on this charge. That was not all, however. There were two more charges of assault. Wm. Copperwaite had an information against him for assault. Copperwaite swore that he was struck by Shanahan at Kelly's hotel last Saturday. Shanahan said that he was so drunk he did not know what he was doing. He was fined two dollars for this offence, which he paid forthwith.

"There is a charge against him for assaulting Jack Clancy on Feb. 10th 1894," said Chief Roszel.

"Fourteen years ago; that is almost too old," said His Worship.

"It will have to be settled," said the chief.

"Clancy has been out of town for years, and has most likely forgotten all about it by this time," said His Worship and he dismissed the case.

Ben Lellar was charged with being drunk and disorderly on the 22nd inst. He was also mixed up in the fight at the Royal Hotel. He pleaded not guilty and the evidence taken was not sufficient to make a conviction, so he was discharged.

"There ought to be spikes driven into the door of Kelly's hotel, and the place locked up," said His Worship. "When a fight occurs there they 'phone for the police, and when they are summoned to court, the parties pretend to be perfectly ignorant of the circumstances of the affair."

Fred Rawlings, was charged with vagrancy—having no visible means of support.

He pleaded guilty. He formerly came from Lindsay, where he worked at the Ross Memorial hospital.

He was given a few hours to get out of town, and "if you appear again you will go to Central Prison," added the court.

How Banking Can be Done by Mail

It is Now Being Adopted by Some Progressive Corporations in Toronto

To accept deposits and pay drafts by mail is a new departure for a savings institution. One of the large financial corporations of Toronto, however, has recently introduced into its Banking System an up-to-date feature in the shape of a Banking-by-Mail Department. This so far as Canada is concerned, is an innovation, although it has been in successful operation by some of the most important depositories of the United States for some years, and has there proved a great convenience to the public.

The idea of banking-by-mail followed other business done by mail, as a natural process of development. Some bright mind saw the need and catered to it. The American public, quick to appreciate a real convenience, responded readily, and banking-by-mail became an established branch of the banking business. Progressive banking institutions promptly realized the enlarged field of usefulness opened to them through banking-by-mail, and there are today millions of dollars on deposit with these houses, belonging to people who have never seen the institutions with which their money is entrusted. Many of these great banking houses have thus become international in their scope. Their progressive measures have incidentally exercised a strong influence in pressing home the gospel of thrift and economy to every civilized nation.

The depositors' register of one of the best known banking-by-mail institutions in the United States, shows that it now has depositors living in every State of the Union, all but three of the Provinces of Canada, four of the countries of Central and South America, Porto Rico, Cuba, Hawaii, the Philippines, England, Russia, Spain, Germany, Italy and one or two African countries. Other banks have undoubtedly reached still other points, so that it is no exaggeration to say that banking-by-mail has, in the brief period of its existence, been introduced into all parts of civilization.

The depositors are from every station of life. The cowboys and ranchmen of the West, welcome the opportunity of placing a portion of their income in a safe place, where it will be earning something for old age or a rainy day. Officers and men in Uncle Sam's army and navy stationed in the Philippines, and other out-of-the-way corners of the world, have sent orders to Washington, for a portion of their pay to be sent each month to the companies with which they have their accounts, thus obligating themselves to save systematically and regularly. Other depositors are found among farmers, mechanics, laborers, school teachers, professional men, miners, business men and women, in every pursuit. Even bankers living in sections where interest rates are low, sent their money to the four per cent paying companies, in order to increase its earning power. Another important class of depositors is made up of those who have trust funds to invest. Four per cent. interest, compounded four times a year, without danger of loss or deterioration, is one of the most attractive propositions that can be placed before the average trustee or executor. Hundreds of thousands of dollars of trust funds, therefore, find their way through the mails to the mail banking institutions.

As to the safety of sending money by mail—an important consideration to the depositor—so far as can be learned, there has never been a dollar lost to depositors through the failure of the mails to take care of their part of the transaction. Millions of dollars travel back and forth over the country every day. In Canada our mails are even more secure than in the United States. In either country, however, if the sender uses ordinary care in addressing and mailing his letter, his express or post office order, is just as safe within the envelope, as it would be in his pocket. Should the remittance be in currency, it can be made secure by registration.

PUPILS' WRITING IS IMPROVING

Good Effect of Medals Offered by Mr. Wm. Pringle

For the past three years Mr. Wm Pringle, principal of the Peterborough Business College, has donated three silver medals to the pupils in the commercial form of the institute, the fourth book and Entrance classes in the Public and Separate schools and the third book classes. That the donation of the medals has stimulated the pupils to do better writing is amply evidenced by the marked improvement noticeable in the specimens that have been submitted for the competition this year. The competition is very popular and a large number of samples of writing have been submitted. The writing of the Collegiate Institute pupils was examined by Messrs. Walker and Pringle, and for the Public and Separate schools by Messrs. Srigley, Walker and Pringle. Mr Pringle is not in possession of the names of the winners of the medals, the competitors simply numbering their papers. The numbers of the winning specimens, however, were supplied to the Review today, and they are as follows:

Collegiate Institute. —1st, 19; 2nd, 27 and 3rd, 15.

Third Book—1st, 668; 2nd, 240; 3rd 245

Those holding the numbers indicated above are asked to communicate with Mr. Pringle at once. The medals will be presented at the opening of the fall term, since it will take some time to have them made and engraved.

BE BRIGHT—WELL—STRONG
BUILD UP WITH FERROZONE

Ferrozone Adds Vigor and Strength to the System, Purifies and Enriches the Blood, Vitalizes the Nerves and Assures Permanent Good Health.

Let your fight for health begin now, before you feel any warning of physical collapse.

Your whole system needs a thorough cleansing. Likewise, the blood should be purified, made rich and nutritious.

The one cure for that tired, drooping feeling is Ferrozone, the acknowledged king of all tonic medicines.

To restore your appetite you need Ferrozone, certainly you do.

You need it to restore your nerves and to enrich your depleted blood.

The strongest reason why you need Ferrozone is because it will build up your run-down system and make you well.

It's because we know Ferrozone is absolutely certain to cure that we urge everyone in poor health to use it. If depressed, tired, nervous, sleepless, Ferrozone will make you cheery, bright and happy, because it will make you well.

FERROZONE
A Good Appetizer.

MR. AUBREY E. TEMPLEMAN, of Mechias, writes: "I have found the greatest satisfaction in using Ferrozone, and consider it is the best tonic made. I was all run down a few months ago, and in a very miserable state of health. I took a few boxes of Ferrozone, and was surprised at the result. Ferrozone drove away that dull, heavy feeling, and put my system in splendid order. I am never nervous or sleepless, and have a hearty appetite. This is all due to Ferrozone, which I recommend in the strongest way possible."

FERROZONE
Gives Real Vigor.

MRS. NORMAN MACADAM, of Bridgeport, writes: "I am in good health to-day as the result of Ferrozone. Before using Ferrozone I was tired and miserable, lacked energy and ambition. But Ferrozone altered all that. It has built up my system, and given me more real vigor than I ever had before. Ferrozone is a good tonic."

Ferrozone Makes the Weak Strong—the Sick Well

Ferrozone is sold only in 50c boxes, containing 50 Ferrozone Tablets. Six boxes for $2.50. At all dealers or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

Orchard's Story is Denied; Another Turn in Famous Case

Witnesses Repudiate His Statement in All Particulars.

Davis Swears He Never Led Mob—Was Not a Member of the Union—Heard Orchard Threaten Steunenberg—Remained In Hiding After Mill Was Blown Up and Changed His Name.

Boise, Idaho, June 27.—William F. Davis of Goldfields, Nevada, one of the most important witnesses for the defence of William D. Haywood, accused of the murder of Frank Steunenberg, was called to the stand at noon yesterday, and his cross-examination had not been completed when court adjourned.

Harry Orchard testified that Davis led and commanded the mob that destroyed the Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mine in 1899; inspired, as the agent of Haywood and Moyer, the Vindicator explosion and the train wrecking plot at Cripple Creek, and was an accomplice in the Independence Station crime.

On direct examination by Clarence Darrow, Davis went over the story of his working life and made positive denial of every statement of Orchard that involved him or his associates in any form of crime. Davis denied that he was even a member of the union when the Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mine was blown up.

At the conclusion of his general story, Davis swore that at Cripple Creek during the strike Orchard told him of the Hercules Mine affair and threatened to kill Steunenberg.

The cross-examination of Davis by Senator Borah was severe and searching. It was chiefly devoted, as far as it proceeded, to the Bunker Hill and Sullivan affair and the circumstances under which Orchard made the threat against Steunenberg.

Davis said that he remained in hiding after the mill was blown up because he did not want to be deported or thrown into the "bull-pen," and that he changed his name when he departed from Butte shortly afterwards, because he feared the mine owners' "blacklist," made up from a petition that the employes of the Bunker Hill had sent to Governor Connell protesting against the unsafety of the mine. Borah showed that the petition had been presented six years before and that Butte was a federation camp where the blacklist was ineffective.

On Side of Peace.

The defence is trying to prove that Orchard was not at Warner on the day of the explosion. The defence has been allowed to ask questions bringing out the story of the disturbances at Cripple Creek during the great strike of miners there. The state has objected to opening up this wide field, but the defence persisted that it had the right to go deeply into this matter of labor troubles in order that it may show what was done by the military and the provocation that was given to the striking miners.

While the foundation for proof of conspiracy on the part of the mine owners to exterminate the Federation and thus eliminate an element that interferes with the working of the mines under conditions such as the mine owners would dictate, makes a large part of the fabric the defence have built up so far, Orchard is [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] witness after witness is called to show that Orchard, through all the years that intervened between his flight from Idaho in 1899 and his return to this state in 1905, carried with him continually a private grudge against Steunenberg.

What Defence Seek.

If a sufficient weight of evidence can be brought to show that the assassination of the former governor was merely the culmination of one man's grudge and not the part of a conspiracy, counsel for the defence say the state's case must fall. Orchard will stand convicted out of his own mouth of this one murder, and if a conspiracy on the part of the detectives employed by the mine owners to destroy property or cause riot in order to continue a state of martial law can be shown, it is the opinion of counsel that the jury will abandon the conspiracy idea and their clients will go free.

While the defence is trying to break down Orchard by sheer weight of testimony, the state is pushing each witness as far as possible to show that they are subject to impeachment later. The large number of witnesses to be examined by the defence gives promise of a long period of rebuttal testimony.

Whole Train Crew Suspended.

Ottawa, June 27.—The whole train crew of the G. T. R. light engine, which crashed into the New York and Ottawa freight train at Eastman's Springs on Saturday evening, killing Fireman W. R. Douglas, was suspended yesterday.

This was the result of investigation proceeded with by Morley Donaldson, superintendent, at Ottawa.

Half-Hearted Consent.

London, June 27.—(C.A.P.)—The Tribune says its article on the all-red route gave expression to the view prevalent in the lobby of the House of Commons where it is thought advisable to do what can be done to prevent any possibility of Lloyd-George's half-hearted consent to the scheme being translated into action.

Cuts Throat With Pocket-Knife.

A SNAKE IN A PADDLE-BOX.

A Fifteen-Foot Constrictor Was Killed by the Crew of the "Angler."

New York, June 27.—Captain "Al" Foster, of the steamer Angler, brought to shore Tuesday afternoon a huge snake that when alive had caused some annoyance to the crew by winding itself about the paddle box. The skipper said he knew something was wrong with the machinery, but was loathe to stop to make an investigation. When the Angler got to 18th street and North River the crew was ordered to look around.

"When the paddle box was opened," Captain Foster said, "we saw a big snake of the constrictor variety. I called the crew and we attacked it with hooks. It fought furiously, but we finally killed it, and there it is?"

With this the skipper threw on the floor fifteen feet of snake. It is supposed the reptile escaped from a collection being brought into port by some unidentified steamer.

ONTARIO NEEDS SUBSIDY.

Amendment to B. N. A. Act In Imperial House Affects Province.

Toronto, June 27.—Ontario is interested to the extent of $800,000 in the passage of the amendment of the British North America Act, in the Imperial House this week.

"If the bill does not go through," said Hon. Col. Matheson yesterday, "it will mean that we will be short $400,000 this year. The measure must pass within the present week or it cannot be put through this session, and we will be unable to get this money that we have been counting on."

If the amendment carries Ontario will receive two instalments of $400,000 each, but it is very necessary that the bill should be carried at once, as the Government has been counting on at least one instalment of the money and will be considerably out in its accounts if it is disappointed.

Many Deaths By Drowning.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 27.—Clifford Arnold, aged 40 years, a fisherman, was drowned in the surf while going out in a dory to meet his son and another boy.

Moose Jaw, Sask., June 27.—Eva Hall, formerly of Portage la Prairie, with a companion named Evans, was swept over the C. P. R. dam in a boat and drowned.

Reston, Man., June 27.—Walter Hansell, 5 years old, was drowned in an old well.

Arrested on Murder Charge.

New York, June 27.—James Murray, a Bronx contractor, who formerly lived in Little Falls, N. Y., was arrested yesterday in connection with the murder of Julius Rosenheimer of Pelham. Murray denied any knowledge of the crime and declared that his arrest was the result of political ill-feeling against him in Little Falls.

Prof. MacCallum Honored.

New Haven, Conn., June 27.—The award of honorary degrees by Yale University, announced at the commencement exercises yesterday, included doctor of science, Archibald Byron MacCallum, professor of physiology in the University of Toronto.

Suicides In Hospital.

London, Ont., June 27.—John Turner, an Englishman about 55 years old, who has for the last 15 years been employed off and on as an orderly at Victoria Hospital, committed suicide in that institution Tuesday night by taking carbolic acid.

TEN BOMBS EXPLODED

Missies Burst With Terrific Force in Public Square.

Many Persons Killed Or Injured At Tiflis—Windows and Doors Shattered Over Wide Area—Police Prevent All Approach—Torpedo Boat Damaged At St. Petersburg—Terrorists Foiled In Attempted Raid.

Tiflis, Transcaucasia, Russia, June 27.—Ten bombs were thrown yesterday in the Erivan Square, in the centre of the town, which was thronged with people.

The missles exploded with terrible force.

Many persons were killed or injured, and windows and doors were shattered over a large area.

The police are preventing all approach to the scene of the outrage.

During the excitement a wagon containing $125,000, escorted by Cossacks was robbed of all its contents. This was apparently the motive for the outrage.

Tried to Steal Explosives.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—An attempt was made Tuesday night by terrorists to force an entrance into the the magazine of the proving grounds, near St. Petersburg, containing a large amount of explosives. A sentry was fired at and wounded by the men engaged in the attempt, but the shots caused a patrol to hurry to the spot and the terrorists fled.

Struck a Mine.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—During the manoeuvres yesterday the torpedo boat Ubedimilny struck a mine, which exploded. The damage done was slight, owing to the deterioration of the mine.

UNIVERSITY HONORS.

Mark Twain Received Degree at Oxford Yesterday.

London, June 27.—At Oxford University, with 30 men distinguished in politics, religion, art, science or letters, including Premier Campbell-Bannerman, Lord Chancellor Loreburn, the Speaker of the House of Commons, Mr. Lowther, Gen. William Booth of the Salvation Army, Rudyard Kipling and the Archbishop of Armagh, and Rev. William Alexander, Mark Twain (Samuel L. Clemens), received a university degree yesterday. Lord Curzon of Keddlestone presided.

WHOLE BLOCK BURNED OUT.

One Thousand People Are Homeless—Fifty Buildings Destroyed.

Norfolk, Va., June 27.—One whole block of the fine beach section, immediately adjoining the Jamestown Exposition grounds, was swept by fire yesterday.

The big Arcade Hotel, the Berkeley Hotel, Outside Inn, Powhattan Hotel, Caroline Hotel, and several other smaller hotels and a large part of the outside warpath was destroyed.

The loss may run up to $300,000; partly insured.

Between 40 and 50 structures were consumed, and probably 1,000 persons are homeless. It was learned that a negress was burned to death in one of the houses.

Wellman For Thaw.

New York, June 27.—Tuesday was the first anniversary of the killing of Stanford White on the Madison Square Roof Garden. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw and Lawyers Daniel O'Reilly and A. Russell Peabody visited the slayer.

Walking between two other men accused of murder, Thaw laughed and joked over the printed reports of his ill-health.

From trustworthy sources it was learned Tuesday that Francis Wellman, the noted criminal lawyer, will act as chief counsel for Thaw at his next trial.

Wellman, it will be remembered, appeared for the Hymes brothers when they were on trial for murder in Toronto.

Find Company Negligent.

Port Hope, June 27.—The inquest on Harry Wright of Toronto, the C.P.R. lineman who was killed here on Monday, resulted in a verdict that "the C. P. R. knew that the electric light company's wires were on their poles and that they were negligent in not having the current shut off while the men were working."

Grand Trunk Station Burned.

Thamesville, Ont., June 27.—The Grand Trunk Depot, erected here by the Great Western Railway in the early fifties, was burned to the ground. The pump house was also destroyed.

This was the third time the depot has been on fire during the past few weeks.

Escape From Police Station.

Niagara Falls, June 27.—Two prisoners made their escape from a cell at police headquarters. They were two boys named Park Stewart and Cash Robinson, who had been picked up on the street as suspicious characters.

Could Starve the West.

Calgary, June 27.—Before the beef commission P. Burns, head of the firm of P. Burns & Co., asserted that if he closed his abattoir and purchasing department for ten days, the west would starve.

General Store Destroyed.

London, June 27.—W. R. Dawson's store at Inwood was completely destroyed by fire yesterday. The fire originated mysteriously.

Four Persons Killed.

San Francisco, June 27.—Four persons were killed and five badly injured here yesterday by the collapse of a scaffolding at Fourth-Natoma streets.

Representatives of Japan are in Ottawa arranging to purchase remounts for the Japanese army.

CURTAIL THE LORDS.

Premier's Resolution Carried in British Commons by 432 to 147.

London, April 27.—The three days' debate in the House of Commons ended at midnight, when Premier Campbell-Bannerman's resolution in favor of curtailing the power of the House of Lords in vetoing bills passed by the House of Commons was carried by 432 to 147, amid loud Ministerial cheers.

The amendment introduced by A. Henderson (Laborite), Durham, for a total abolition of the House of Lords was previously rejected by 315 to 100, the minority being composed of Laborites, Nationalists and a few Radicals.

In this division the Unionists as a body abstained from voting.

The Premier, on leaving the House, was given a great ovation.

PUBLIC OPINION HIS JURY.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson Leaves Reputation to Country at Large.

Toronto, June 27.—Hon. Mr. Emmerson was in the city yesterday en route to Virginia.

"I leave my reputation to the great jury of the country at large," he said. "If it is as the court ruled, I might as well have been in Newfoundland as in Montreal on that night. I couldn't have got a verdict of libel, so long as they say they beleived me guilty. I can't prove that they did not think they were telling the truth, so why bother any more about it."

CANADA NOT FORGOTTEN.

Lord Elgin Says Frontier Question Has Been Faced.

London, June 27.—(C. A. P.)—In the House of Lords Lord Elgin, replying to the criticism of Mr. Haldane's scheme, said it was untrue that elementary facts, such as the Canadian frontier, had not been faced, for the views of Canada and the other colonies had been placed before the Imperial Conference. The principle underlying Mr. Haldane's statement was local autonomy under the guidance of a General Staff recruited from the forces of the empire as a whole.

IMMIGRATION INCREASES.

Over Forty-Four Thousand Came Into Canada During April.

Ottawa, June 27.—The total immigration into Canada for the month of April, 1907, was 44,051 as compared with 35,313 for April of last year, an increase of 25 per cent. For the ten months, July 1, 1906, to April 30, 1907, the immigration was 168,718, as compared with 124,031 for the corresponding months of the fiscal period 1905-06, an increase of 44,687 or 36 per cent.

A FORBIDDEN MARRIAGE

BY LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

Author of "When Lovely Maiden Stoops to Folly," "A Cruel Revenge," "The Heiress of Cameron Hall," "Ione," "Parted at the Altar," Etc.

"As I struggled to my feet he approached me, hurling me back on my knees. 'Stay there!' he cried, with a demoniac laugh; 'stay where you are, and say your prayers if you know any, for your time has come to die! I will show you how I deal with those who are faithless to me,' and with that, and before I could cry out for help, he struck me and whipped out a revolver, and holding it close to my heart—fired. It was so near the fire burned my arm, Bernard, but his hand was unsteady, and the murderous ball crashed wide of its mark.

"Terror lent me strength. With a scream I sprang to my feet, and dashed precipitately through the open French window out in the storm and the night. He pursued me, with cries of rage, firing right and left. The brandy had driven him into a frenzy; he was like nothing human.

"I thought you had come to the station to take the train, and I ran here every step of the way. Oh, save me, Bernard, for the love of Heaven! Let me stay with you, dear, if he finds me, he will kill me!" and the words died away with a bitter wailing cry of mortal fear.

Bernard Chesleigh was so filled with horror and dismay that the very power of speech seemed to have deserted him.

"See, Bernard," she sobbed, holding up her white arm to him, "there is where the powder burned me, and here"—flinging back her rain drenched cloak—"there is where the fire burned my dress—right over my heart; see, Bernard!"

It was more than mortal man could bear. Surely Heaven could find pardon for him, that in that moment he lost all self-restraint. His calm reason, his better judgment, his nobler self, all had vanished. He only heard her words—"Take me away with you, Bernard, if he finds me he will kill me!"

"I will take you away, Reine," he cried, breaking the clinging clasp of the white hands that clung round his knees, and drawing her to a seat by his side, and holding the poor, shivering girl close. "He has brought the last tear to your eyes, you shall not stay here—you shall not be the victim of a madman. Your very heart is crushed. I will save you. We will go so far that no one who has ever known us will look upon our faces again. You shall know nothing but love and happiness all the rest of your life. We will fly to the other end of the world together, and live only for love and each other."

Ten minutes before, he would as soon have thought of shooting himself as to ask Reine to fly with him to escape her husband, for, no matter what the man was, he was still—her husband.

Now that Bernard's passionate nature was in the ascendancy, it seemed to him that to rescue her from this tyrant was a right thing to do. He had a most chivalrous feeling for women, a woman's tears were to him irresistible, and while she clung to him with trembling hands and he was protesting to her that she should never regret coming with him, slowly the train moved out; another instant and it was whirling along at a terrific rate of speed on through the storm and darkness of the night. But all in a moment as the train had moved out, Bernard Chesleigh began to realize what he had done. Great Heaven! he, who had always been the very soul of honor, had done so dastardly a thing as to fly with another man's wife; what had he been thinking of!

But of what use were regrets now? Why startle Reine—who was still clinging to him with hands trembling with fear? There was no returning—they had burned their bridges behind them.

"Are you content, Reine?" he asked, slowly—huskily.

"Yes, Bernard," she sighed. He clasped her closer, and soon, despite all the cold and the chill of her garments she sank to sleep like a child in his arms.

"Poor Reine," he murmured compassionately. "Heaven have mercy on us both."

He sat quite still, trying to think out what their future should be. The angels in Heaven who had watched it all, and wept over poor Reine, had marked out that future.

How long they sat thus, Bernard Chesleigh could never afterward quite fully recall—the train whirled on past hills and dales and leaping rivulets—on and on rushed the lightning express—on with a terrible roar until it reached a high bridge that spanned a dark, deep ravine—and then—

There was a horrible crash, a quiver, a sudden blinding light flashed through the car for an instant—and in that instant the engine plunged down through the bridge—down the steep height to the dark-vine-wreathed valley below. Then came oblivion to Bernard Chesleigh.

It was many a long day after when Bernard Chesleigh awoke to a realization of what was transpiring around him.

He found himself in a small, unfamiliar room, with strange faces bending over him.

"Where am I," he asked, faintly. But before the good woman could answer, a cry of anguish broke from his lips.

"I remember, Great Heaven! I remember. The accident. Where is—is—"

"You are not to talk," said the nurse, gently. "It was a terrible accident! Many were wounded, many were killed outright; you were found terribly wounded, and brought here, where you have been for many a long week. Look through the window, see those snow flakes scurrying past, it is winter now, you have had a long siege of it." She went on. "There was a lady near you, a young and beautiful lady, lying there dead—quite dead—when they found her, which was at daylight. Her hands were crossed over her breast like a tired child's. There was a smile on her lips. Everyone said the angels must have been hovering very near her when that accident happened, watching for her soul. She was so young to die—poor, pretty young thing. There was only a little purple mark on the temple to show how death had met her, that was all.

"Some one came up from Waldron Towers, away down in Virginia, and took her home with them—the body I mean, and I heard since that they buried her on the slope of hill—just back of the Towers."

Bernard Chesleigh turned away with a groan, turning his face to the wall. It seemed to him that her death lay on his soul.

One stormy winter night, a fortnight later, a man made his way through the snow drifts close to a small enclosure, which was fenced off in the most isolated portion of the Tower grounds.

He need not have taken so much pains to steal along in the shadow of the trees, for there were none to see him. The old Towers was closed again, its occupants gone, none knew whither, and surely his tread could not awaken her who slept beneath the marble shaft toward which he bent his steps.

He lit a match and read the inscription on it; it bore simply this:

Sacred to the Memory of REINE.
Aged 18 Years.

The flaring match which shed its light upon the tomb fell upon the man's face,—the pale face of Bernard Chesleigh.

From that night Bernard Chesleigh was never seen again. For a time those who knew him missed him, then forgot him.

Many a winter's snow fell deep upon Reine's grave, and many a summer's storm showered down blood-red rose leaves from a wild vine that had clambered round the shaft and over the grave, ere the inmates of Waldron Towers returned. It was summer then and the wild-rose vine was still in bloom. They found the wild-rose vines twined so closely about some object lying on the grave that they had to bend closer to see what it was. To their surprise and horror they found it was the skeleton of a man, but who he had been, or how he had come there no one knew; only this, some one must have lain down to die on the moss grown grave that was "Sacred to Reine."

They never knew they were carrying out the last fervent prayer he had uttered on earth, when they dug his grave and laid all that remained of him beside Reine.

Nickel Indications in New Ontario.

The mineral discoveries in the belt along the new Temiskaming Railway, which have led the Government to remove the land from sale or lease, are nickeliferous. Some of the ores are unlike any that have hitherto been found in quantity in this Province. For instance, the mineral niccolite, otherwise known as kupfernickel, which contains about 44 per cent. of nickel, and which up to the present has furnished cabinet specimens only, has been discovered in what, judging from surface indications, seems to be commercial quantities. A cobalt-nickel arsenide has also been found resembling smaltite and carrying, according to one assay 6 per cent. of nickel and 18 per cent. of cobalt. Both the niccolite and smaltite are rich in arsenic, the former carrying 56 per cent., and the latter up to 72 per cent.

In addition to these, native silver occurs, some exceedingly handsome specimens of which have been found.

The value of these discoveries, if they turn out to be extensive, can be realized by a comparison with the famous Sudbury deposits. In Sudbury 3 per cent. of nickel in the ore is the average, and 5 per cent. is exceedingly rich. In the new discoveries the ore carries 44 per cent. of nickel. A much smaller body of nickel, therefore, in Temiskaming will constitute a mine than in the nickeliferous pyrrhotite region of Sudbury.

Where the Jews Are.

Prof. Haman, of Basel, an authority on the subject, has lately printed a paper dealing with the geographical distribution of the Jews. He says the total number of Jews is 10,000,000 of whom two-thirds are in Europe. Russia has 5,500,000; Austria-Hungary, 1,860,000, Germany, 568,000; Roumania, 300,000, and Great Britain, 200,000. The United States has 1,000,000; Asia has 250,000, Africa, 270,000, and Australia, 17,000. He says that not less than 200,000 Jews embraced the Christian religion in the nineteenth century.

MOTHER DUCK AND HER BROOD

She Carried Twelve Young Ones on Her Back

A few days ago, the Bancroft Times says, a wild duck was noticed flying over the town, but low down, with a labored flight, as if exhausted, until finally she came to the ground in Mr. S. James' garden, when investigation disclosed the fact that the mother duck had been carrying on her back twelve young ones apparently three or four weeks old. Whether the old one became exhausted with the burden she was carrying or whether the young ones were slipping from her and she wanted to readjust her load, is not explainable but after an unsuccessful effort to restore them to their former position on her back, the old one departed, leaving behind eleven of her brood. These Mr. James is caring for until they can take care of themselves.

Flour Mill Burned At Campbellford

Fire destroyed Mr. L. H. Stephens' flour mill at Campbellford on Tuesday night. The alarm was given at 11.30 and soon after a large crowd was gathered at the place, but the building was enveloped in flames and nothing could be done to save it. Mr. Stephens had just put in about $4,000 worth of new machinery, and had a large stock of grain and flour in the mill. The estimated loss is about $11,000 with about $5,000 insurance. No one knows how the fire started, but it is surmised that some parties fishing near the mill dropped a match or cigar stub. Mrs. Johnston, who resides opposite the mill noticed it first and she says that the fire appeared to be all on the outside at the north east end of the milll.

FOOTBALL

KEENE WON

Keene football team, the winners of their district defeated Warkworth winners of the Campbellford, Havelock and Warkworth district, on the Agricultural Society's grounds Wednesday evening, by 2—0. There was a good attendance, and the game was clean and interesting, but the Warkworth aggregation were hopelessly outclassed, although they played good ball, and the locals expect an easy win in Warkworth on Friday. Following was the line-up:

Keene		Warkworth

SMART STYLE AND BECOMINGNESS

It's a white season, and shirt blouses of every style will be par excellence. A very trig shirt waist in linen showing narrow tucks at either side of the front closing, and wider ones on the shoulder ending at yoke depth, is sketched and recommended to all lovers of good style. The narrow plaiting edging the front plait is a late suggestion for adornment and may be used or not as desired. The natty shirt cuffs are trimmed in like manner while this also appears on the collar. The waist is one not difficult to fashion, but suggestive of good taste and representing the best of the newest fashions. Any of the seasonable waistings may be used, the medium size calling for 3 yards of 36 inch material.

STUDENTS WERE HURT.

Experiment In Chemistry Causes Explosion—Severe Burns Result.

Cornwall, June 27.—The science room of the Chesterville Public School was the scene of an accident on Tuesday afternoon. An experiment was being made in the manufacture of ozone gas.

The pupils were gathered around Russell Wood, who held the tube, and several of them were terribly burned.

Wood's face, arms and chest were badly burned and cut by the flying glass.

Charles Huxtable's face, eyes and hands were severely burned, while Elva Lacelle and Lucy Moore were only slightly burned.

MUST DECLARE WAR.

French Proposition At Hague Meets With Opposition.

The Hague, June 27.—The French proposition presented to the second committee (land war) of the peace conference, June 22, regarding the reopening of hostilities, is strangely opposed by the countries relying on prompt mobilization, chiefly Great Britain, Germany and Japan.

The proposition is as follows:

"Article 1—The contracting powers agree that hostilities among them cannot begin without advanced and unequivocal notice, having either the form of a declaration of war supported by facts or the form of an ultimatum with a conditional declaration of war.

"Article 2—A state of war must be communicated to neutral powers without delay."

WHAT'S IN A NAME.

Brantford, June 2.—Rev. J. G. Taylor, the colored preacher charger with retaining books of the B. M. E. with retaining boogs of the B. M. E. Church, with intent to defraud, pleaded not guilty yesterday and the case was adjourned until the books are forthcoming from Montreal.

Taylor said he did not wish to hand over the books to this successor to work with, as they contained names of the best church contributors in the country, including Carnegie, Morgan, Hattie Green and Rockefeller. Relinquishing the books, he claimed, would frustrate his purpose of erecting a large church in Montreal.

DROWNED IN BARREL.

Woman Found Dead and Suicide Is Suspected.

Cornwall, June 27.—Mrs. Thomas Keys of Harmony, in Dundas County, was found drowned in a water barrel under circumstances which seem to indicate suicide. Her daughter-in-law, injured in a recent runaway accident, was unable to leave her bed, and her husband and son were milking when the sad affair occurred. On their return they were horrified to find her body in the barrel.

Mrs. Keys had been ill for some time, and this is supposed to have affected her mind.

CAR TOOK WRONG COURSE.

Killed Two Girls Who Were Crossing Street.

Passaic, June 27.—Bella Krones and Annie Worksman, each aged 20 years, and the daughters of local merchants, were killed Tuesday night by a trolley car that was thrown from its proper course by a misplaced switch. The set switch had been opened, and the car, whichc was moving at fair speed, turned the corner unexpectedly, and ran down the girls, who were crossing the street.

Pleads Guilty to Theft.

Montreal, June 27.—Joseph E. Costin, formerly manager of the French-Canadian agents of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of Canada, pleaded guilty yesterday to the charge of theft that was laid against him by the local manager, Mr. Allen.

He pleaded guilty to a theft of $4,000. There is not much likelihood that further charges will be made against him.

Sir Charles Tupper Ill.

London, June 27.—Sir Charles Tupper has been suffering of late from a return of his old internal complaint. Acting under the advice of the eminent King's physician, Sir Douglas Powell, he is going into a nursing home for a week to undergo an operation. His excellent constitution promises success.

Brokers Heavily Sentenced.

New York, June 27.—Oliver M. Dennett, a broker, yesterday was sentenced to serve not less than five years nor more than ten years in Sing Sing Prison for his connection with the theft of nearly a million dollars' worth of bonds. William O. Douglass, assistant loan clerk, was sentenced to three years.

"All-Red" Proposals.

London, June 27.—(C.A.P.)—The Government has appointed a small committee, consisting of the Rt. Hon. Sydney Buxton, Rt Hon. David Lloyd-George, Winston Churchill and Walter Runciman, to consider the proposals for a subsidized steamship line between Great Britain and Canada.

Bluejackets Run Away.

Victoria, B. C., June 27.—While the guard of honor for Prince Fushimi, composed of bluejackets from the Monmouth, were drawn up at Esquimalt Tuesday, six of them broke away from the lines and fled, with a view to desertion. Two were captured and conveyed in irons to the Monmouth.

Killed At Barn-Raising.

Shelburne, June 27.—While assisting at a barn raising on the farm of George McAuley, in Melancthon Township, James Culliton was struck on the head by a falling beam and died a few hours after the accident.

Three hotelkeepers of Amherstburg pleaded guilty to violations of the license law and were each fined $50 and costs.

KILLED UNDER AUTO.

Yale Student Meets Instant Death—Three Others Hurt.

New Haven, Conn., June 27.—An automobile accident, causing the death of one under-graduate, and injuries more or less serious to two other students, and to a guest, cast gloom over the commencement exercises at Yale University yesterday.

The victim was D. Leet Oliver, of Pittsburg, one of the most prominent socially of the upper classmen. He died from a broken back, received by being crushed under his automobile after it had jumped off a bridge. The machine apparently skidded.

Longshoremen Unsatisfied.

Montreal, June 27.—Mr. Poliquin, secretary-treasurer of the Longshoremen's Union, complains that the longshoremen were not properly treated by the Department of Labor at Ottawa with regard to the recent arbitration.

The longshoremen answered the board of conciliation without delay and they claim that the announcement of the contents of their letter before the reply of the shipping men had been sent in was unfair to the longshoremen.

Robbed of $1,000 Wad.

Winnipeg, June 27.—An American named J. Miller was relieved of $1,000 by pickpockets, in the Bank of Hamilton yesterday.

A lad named W. Plumridge, aged 4 1-2 years, was instantly killed yesterday by falling beneath the wheels of an asphalt wagon.

CITY A LOSER ON THE CIRCUS

Much Damage Done to Lock Street and Only $25 Revenue

Forepaugh and Sells Bros. circus kind of handed the city a lemon as a result of their visit here on Tuesday. They did it without intention, but nevertheless some action will be taken to protect the corporation from loss, when the next circus comes along. One of the aldermen stated at the Board of Works meeting last night that the damage done to Lock street by the big circus waggons passing over it, could not be made good for less than $200. The roadbed is badly cut up and will have to be repaired in the very near future. For several blocks north of Lansdowne, street, Lock street is now pretty much on the rough although it was in good condition before the circus struck the city.

All the city got out of the circus was $25, the license for the street parade. The exhibition grounds, where the circus was located, are in North Monaghan, and consequently the city could not tax them anything. The $25 will not nearly cover the damage done to Lock street and it is likely that the next circus that comes along will have to put up a good deal more than this sum. The matter is likely to be brought up in the council at an early date.

ANGLING CLUB'S COTTAGE OPENING

Will Take Place on Dominion Day—Splendid Time is Expected

The formal opening of the C.G.E. Angling Club's new cottage will take place on Dominion Day. The boys are preparing for a good, jolly time and they will certainly have it. They will go down Saturday afternoon, and will camp there until Monday night. Provisions of all kinds have been laid in, to last the three days and it is expected that the fishing will be good.

Mr. Geo. W. Ranney Passes Away

Was 86 Years of Age—Interment at Little Lake Cemetery Friday Morning

Word was received in the city today by relatives of the death of Mr. Geo. W. Ranney, of Belleville, which occurred there this morning. The deceased was an old resident of Peterborough and will be remembered by a great many of the older residents. He was for some years superintendent of the Trent Valley Canal, and was superannuated by the Dominion Government. He was a member of the firm of Ranney & Ling, who were appointed street inspectors for the town of Peterborough on March 29, 1897. His duties were to take full charge of the work on the streets and bridges. The firm held that position until March 6th, 1899, when Mr. T. A. S. Hay was appointed city engineer and superintendent of public works.

For several years the deceased had been a resident of Belleville. He was 86 years of age, and was, generally speaking, in good health. His death was due wholly to old age.

The funeral will take place Friday evening, when the remains will arrive on the 8.10 train from Belleville. Interment will take place at Little Lake cemetery.

Removed Big Patch of Sod From Margaret Ave

Matter Was Reported to City Engineer Hay and the Offenders Will be Warned That They Must Not Do it Again.

At the meeting of the Board of Works last night, a letter was read from City Engineer Hay to the effect that Mr. Huffman had informed him a few days ago that certain parties were removing sod from Margaret Avenue. The engineer examined the street and found that about 6,000 square feet of sod had been removed. The man, who was removing the sod, was stopped. Mr. Hay wanted to know what action he would take.

Surprise was expressed by the aldermen that sod should have been removed without the council even having been asked for permission to take it. It was clearly pointed out that no sod must be taken from the streets of the city.

It was decided to leave the matter with the city engineer who was instructed to secure all the information possible regarding the removal of the sod and to call the party or parties, who had taken it, before him, and inform them that if they do such a thing again, they will be brought up in police court. An effort will also be made to secure the value of the sod removed from the person or persons who had taken it. At five cents per yard, the usual price, it would be worth a little over $30.00.

Pupils of Mrs. W. G. Morrow Achieve Distinct Success

Recital of Peterborough College of Music Attended by Large Number and the Work of Those Taking Part Enthused the Audience.

The annual recital of the Peterborough College of Music, given last evening in St. Peter's hall, was the musical event of the season, and though the attendance was not as large as it should have been the audience represented many lovers of good classical music and they were well repaid for the couple of hours spent at St. Peter's hall. As is well known the principal of the high-class musical institution is Mrs. W. J. Morrow, and the careful training pupils receive, under her tuition was demonstrated last night to a marked degree. There were twenty-one numbers on the program consisting of vocal and instrumental selections, and judging from the hearty applause which greeted each they were thoroughly enjoyed by those present. The participants were nearly all local people, or residents of the county, and no doubt the vocalists of last evening have a bright future before them in the musical world, and by their ability and careful training, should take a leading place among the foremost Canadian singers. Some of the vocalists of last evening sang at Mrs. Morrow's recital a year ago, and the execution of their parts this season showed a marked improvement over their work of last year.

THE PROGRAMME.

The programme opened with an instrumental duet, "Grand March" by Mrs. Morrow and Miss V. Pentland. This selection was given in a brilliant and finished manner and was heartily applauded.

Miss Bertha Curtis, one of Mrs. Morrow's promising pupils, was heard in "Who is Sylvia?" by Schubert, and rendered this difficult piece in excellent manner.

Miss Nora Fitzgerald's clear and sweet soprano voice was heard to good advantage in Metcalf's "Absent."

One of the most pleasing numbers of the evening was Mr. Harry Quinlan's vocal solo. Mr. Quinlan made his first appearance last evening before a local audience and certainly created a decidedly favorable impression. His rich, strong voice was heard in "My Kingdom," by Adams.

The next was a vocal solo, "Sing On" by Denza, given by Mrs. Swain in a highly accomplished style.

Miss Hurley and Miss Rudkins next gave a vocal duet, "Love Shall Guide Thee," by White. It was an exceedingly difficult selection and the creditable way, in which the high notes were taken was very pleasing. Miss Rudkins was also heard in instrumental work, in which she excelled. Her piano playing was almost faultless, and for one so young she achieved great success. She played with Miss Simpson, the "Tannhauser March," by Listz, and with Mrs. Morrow in a grand concert valse "Radius" by Gottschalk. Her solo number "Harmonious Blacksmith," by Handel, was also excellently rendered.

Miss I. Pentland also gained a triumph last night, in her solo, "I think," by d'Hardelot. Her voice is one of great compass and she sang this difficult selection very creditably.

Mr. McKibbon's baritone voice, was never heard to better advantage than last night in "My Ain Sweet Mary," by Gilbert.

Mrs. Davidson in her solo number "May Morning," by Denza, scored a distinct success and added more laurels to her fame as a vocalist.

Mrs. Teck gave a very pleasing number "Take Your Lute," by Clarke, as also did Miss Moloney in "Come out My Dears," by Dessauer. Both were highly creditable.

Mr. John King, who is always a great favorite with local audiences, was heard in solo and duets last night. Probably the most pleasing duet was "The Battle Eve," by Bonheur and Mr. Frowde. This selection was a very popular one with the audience. He also sang with Miss Hackett in "Moonlight Stream." Their voices blended well and were given great compass in this selection. Miss Hackett also sang Del Regio's "Happy Song," in her usual pleasing way.

Miss Simpson, who appeared last night for the first time in public has a bright future before her. Her solo work is almost perfect. She rendered "Carissima" by Penn in a natural and sweet manner. She and Mr. King were also heard in a vocal duet, "I Feel Thy Angel Spirit," by Huffman.

Miss Molly Young gave a true interpretation of Verdi's Grand Opera selection "Eranine." This difficult piece was rendered faultlessly, her enunciation being clear, and the high notes were taken with the utmost ease.

PART II.

The second part consisted of Liza Lehmann's twelve songs of childhood, "The Daisy Chain." This was given in quartette and solo parts. The quartette was composed of Mrs. Archer, contralto, Miss Hallihan, soprano, Mr. H. Morphist, baritone and Mr. J. King, basso. The quartette part was exceptionally well given, the voices blending in perfect harmony. Each one also had a solo. "The Daisy Chain" cannot be praised too highly; it is beyond criticism.

The concluding number was "God Save the King" which was enthusiastically sung.

Mrs. Morrow and her pupils are to be congratulated on the success achieved.

It was indeed most regrettable that this grand recital did not receive a larger patronage. That Peterborough has citizens with such wonderful voices is a thing to be proud of. It must have been rather discouraging to Mrs. Morrow, who has taken infinite pains with her pupils, that even some parents did not turn out to hear their children sing. Mrs. Morrow in her efforts to give the Peterborough public some splendid musical treats, has during the past year provided several recitals under her direction. In most cases they have been very poorly attended, although involving great expense. Last night, the work of Mrs. Morrow's pupils was marvellous, considering that some have only been taking lessons a comparatively short while. The work of all the pupils was exceptionally good. It would indeed be regrettable if particular mention was not made of Miss Molly Young's faultless rendition of Verdi's "Eranini" from Grand Opera. This Italian number was given without a mistake. Miss Simpson, in her vocalism, scored a distinct success. High C is a high note, but Miss Simpson took E, above high C, with perfect ease.

The "Daisy number" compared favorably with the Watkin Mills Concert Co.'s quartette, who gave this bright musical composition in their recital here some time ago.

The pupils of Mrs. Morrow will discontinue their studies until September.

School is Over; Vacation Begins

Scholars Enter Upon Long Holiday—The Entrance Exams.

The Public and Separate Schools of the city closed today for the long mid-summer holiday. The schools will not re-open until Tuesday, September 6th. The majority of teachers on the local staffs who reside outside the city, will leave for their respective homes this week. The teachers and children are looking forward to the long vacation with a great deal of pleasant anticipation.

There were 35,000 candidates at present writing on the Entrance examinations in different centres of the province. In Peterborough city there are 182 candidates, and at the seven points in the county where examinations are being held, there are about the same number trying as in the city.

The Magistrate Went too Far

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun Got Conviction Quashed by Court of Appeal

The Winnipeg Free Press says:—The Court of Appeal sat yesterday morning to continue the list of cases set down for argument. Present: Chief Justice Howell, Mr. Justice Richards, Mr. Justice Perdue and Mr. Justice Phippen.

The King vs. Meinke. Defendant was convicted by Magistrate McMicken for an assault occasioning bodily harm at Headingly on May 21st last. He could not be tried summarily as he was by the magistrate without consent, and it is contended that the magistrate did not ask the question which he should have done pursuant to section 778 of the criminal code. A motion was made to quash the conviction on that ground.

The court granted a rule quashing the conviction. Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, for applicant; Mr. F. R. Ferguson for the crown.

43rds of Ottawa To Visit Niagara

Will See the Big Cataract on Dominion Day

Ottawa, June 27.—The Forty-Third D. C. O. R. will visit Niagara Falls on Dominion Day. Capt. Armstrong, the only member of the excursion committee now in town, has had a discussion with the other officers of the regiment and they have added this excursion to the list of other amusements. Both the G.G.F.G. and the khaki clad regiment will probably meet, while viewing one of the eight wonders. The battalion will leave Hamilton in the morning at about eight o'clock and about two hours later, the Falls will have been reached. The regiment will not keep in a body. Each man will look after himself. The body will be dismissed directly after entraining, and little parties will form up and see the sites on their own hook. This course will also be applied in Hamilton. The citizens of that town are preparing daily for the visit of the doughty Forty-Thirds. A church parade will be the feature of Sunday's proceedings.

New Church Was Opened on Sunday

Retiring Pastor Rev. E. A. Pearson Will Come to Peterboro'

A Toronto despatch says;

Sunday's was a bright page in the history of the Centennial Methodist Church, when the new edifice on the site of the old church, Dovercourt road, near Bloor street, was formally opened with appropriate and interesting services. Congregations which overflowed the seating capacity of the building were present morning and evening, and dedicatory sermons were preached by Rev. Dr. J. C. Speer and Rev. C. J. Hart of Sault Ste. Marie, the latter a former pastor of the church.

Rev. John Pickering, who has recently been the incumbent in the most important Methodist pastorates in St. Catharines, Brantford and Woodstock, assumes the pastorate of the new church. Rev. Edwin A. Pearson, the present pastor, leaves shortly to become pastor of George street church in Peterborough.

The new church was erected at a cost of about $44,000. There was a debt on the old church of $4,500, and the congregation had, therefore, to raise $48,500 for the new building. The Social Union and the Massey estate agreed to contribute a total of $23,500, if the congregation furnished $11,000, the balance to be taken care of by a mortgage. The $11,000 is subscribed, and $7,700 is already paid in, which leaves but $3,300 to be raised, and a very satisfactory sum was contributed in special collections Sunday.

The new edifice is of red brick, relieved with trimmings of white stone, and the architecture is of Tudor Gothic style, adapted to modern requirements. Traceried stained windows add much to the appearance of the building, which has a seating capacity, in the church proper of 1,000, exclusive of the Sabbath school. The old building will be used for the purposes of the latter, in addition to the class rooms in the basement.

Creamery Burned To the Ground

Struck by Lightning—1000 lbs. of Butter Destroyed

The severe electric storm which occurred on Saturday last did considerable damage in Haliburton vicinity.

The Allsaw Creamery, owned by Mr. C. D. Kellett, and operated by C. V. Jones, located eight miles from Minden, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. This happened between four and five o'clock.

The machinery and one thousand pounds of butter were utterly destroyed. The loss was partly covered by insurance. Mr. Kellett contemplates rebuilding the Creamery.

Walter Hansell, aged 5, of Reston, Man., fell into a well and was drowned.

QUILTING BEE.

The Ladies' Aid of the Park street Baptist church held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon. The president, Mrs. M. Mowry, was in the chair. After the routine business was attended, it was decided to have a quilting bee next week, the proceeds of quilt to be devoted to furnishing the new church.

NEW CROSSING.

One of the new crossings laid by the Board of Works that is appreciated probably more than any other is the one on Hunter street, across Chambers street, just outside the Review office. This crossing was badly needed, as the old one was always muddy for a long time, after a rain storm.

GOT SEVEN LUNGE.

Of all the good fishing stories reported so far this year, Messrs. W. F. Greene and Al. Haskill have the best. They went down the river to Hales' bridge where they fished all day and returned with seven fine big lunge. They say that fish never were biting better than they were yesterday and while they got seven they lost at least twenty more.

SPECIAL TRAIN.

A special train will pass through Peterborough to-night at 8.45 on the C.P.R. for Quebec where it will connect with the Empress of Britain which sails on Friday for Liverpool. This is the first special train run from the west for passengers for the Empress of Britain and it will be well patronized as there is a very large number going over to the Old Country this trip.

WAS NOT DRUNK.

In Saturday's issue of the Review, in the police court items, appeared a paragraph to the effect that Daniel Moher paid $2.00 fine for being drunk in a public place. The Review has since been informed that Moher was not drunk, but that he is subject to fainting spells and that was what troubled him Friday.

A NEW FLYER.

The C. P. R. will introduce its new fast service to the Pacific Coast, in the first week of July. The flyer leaving Montreal at noon, will cross the continent to Vancouver in eighty-five hours. It is claimed that the rolling stock for these new tri-weekly trains, which is receiving its finishing touches at the Angus shops, will surpass anything yet seen on the continent.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

The Grand Trunk freight shed was struck by lightning last evening and considerable minor damage done. The electric current entered where the telephone wires came in, and tore a hole through the office walls. The correspondence and other papers were littered over the floor and several articles damaged. The clock was injured and stopped with the hands pointing at 2.30.—Lindsay Post.

LOST HIS THUMBS.

While a large boiler was being turned in the boiler shop of the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Co., yesterday, a young Englishman named Clarke, had the misfortune to have the thumb of of each hand crushed so badly that amputation was necessary. The employee was placing a block of wood under the boiler and had his hand at each end of the piece. When the boiler rolled over both thumbs were caught. Clarke is now in the Nicholls hospital.

WORTHY OF HONOR

Rev. Dr. Crothers, formerly of this city, was honored by the citizens of Peterborough on the eve of his departure. At a public meeting clergymen and laymen of nearly all denominations gathered and they patted the worthy doctor on the back and gave him a purse containing twenty English sovereigns. Rev. Dr. Crothers now goes to St. Catharines and the best wishes of a host of people will follow him. — Belleville Intelligencer.

KICKED BY A HORSE.

Monday was the day of accidents and another one has been recorded to the long list. Carl Haskill, five-year-old son of Mr. Slater Haskill, Lake shore road, was playing about the yard on Monday morning, when he was kicked by a horse and very severely injured. A doctor was called and found that the little fellow's hip was badly fractured. He is at present doing as well as can be expected but suffering considerable pain.—Port Hope Guide.

Bad Accident to Ball Player

Dave Lawson Who Played Here on May 24th and 25th Seriously Injured

Many in Peterborough, especially the members of the local baseball team, will regret to hear of a serious accident which happened a few days ago, to Dave Lawson of Toronto, who played first base for the Arctics, when they played here on May 24th and 25th. Lawson was employed at a bag manufacturing factory in Toronto, and one day, this week had the fingers of both hands cut off by being caught in some of the machinery. He will be unable to work for a long time, and will never be able to play baseball again. He made many friends while in Peterborough for the games here on May 24th and 25th. On account of his height was called "Longboat Lawson" by the local fans. He was a good ball player and a gentlemanly fellow, and many in Peterborough will regret to hear of his deplorable accident.

Are You a Sound
Woman?
If Not, Read This.

Have you any weakness or disorder peculiar to your sex?

If you have, nip it in the bud. Don't let it grow till inflammation, tumor or cancer result.

Remember, all these come from little ills—neglected.

If you only realized what Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women are doing—how quickly and efficiently their special ingredients reach the cause of your peculiar troubles and overcome them, you would take them immediately.

Mrs. Putney, wife of Customs officer Putney, of Barnston, Que., is one of many who has obtained relief by them. She says: "Suffering from disorders peculiar to my sex, I tried Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets. They did me good from the beginning. I am feeling now like a new woman."

They will make any such person feel like a new woman, because they combine certain medicaments which will absolutely allay inflammation, stop all drains on the system and make women regular.

Fractured Ribs in Loading Canoes

Driver for Dominion Express Co. Met With an Accident

Mr Jack Curtis, driver for the Dominion Express Co., had the misfortune a few days ago of having several ribs broken while engaged in loading some canoes on the C.P.R. local.

Mr. Curtis got jammed between a canoe and the side of the car door. At the time of the accident he did not pay much attention to it, thinking he was not hurt very badly. The pain got worse each day and a couple of days later on consulting a doctor he found that he had five ribs fractured. He has not been working since, his place on the rig being taken by Mr. Wm Lewis. The injured man is now doing nicely and it is thought will soon be around again.

Doctors Defeated the Lawyers In Big Ball Game at Idyl Wyld

Annual Excursion Held Yesterday Afternoon—Party Went Down on Steamer Otonabee—An Exceptionally Good Time Was Spent by Everyone.

It was a glorious trip the doctors gave the lawyers and a number of friends yesterday afternoon, and evening. The outing was the annual affair and it was indeed most successful and very enjoyable. The doctors chartered the steamer Otonabee to take them to Idyl Wyld, and soon after one o'clock it pulled away from the Wolfe street wharf and about two o'clock the main party was taken on board at the street railway wharf. The boat was delayed at this point for several minutes as it is very difficult to turn it around in the river. After the boat got started with the 100 or 125 passengers on board, it made very good time and the trip down was thoroughly enjoyed. The country just now is looking its very best and both banks of the stream were very picturesque. The doctors provided excellent entertainment for their guests and nothing was forgotten which would add to the pleasure of the party. Refreshments on the boat were in charge of Mr John Jayes, who retained his reputation as a first class man for that position.

When the steamer entered the lake a good stiff breeze was blowing and fortunately for those on board it was only a short distance across and none of them had time to feel the effects. The boat landed at the new wharf, which is as yet only partially built, and very rough and ragged, in good time.

While supper was being prepared the feature of the outing was pulled off. Every year the doctors and lawyers have a game of baseball, and they furnish their guests with the best bunch of fun one could wish to see. As soon as the boys got the diamond marked out there arose a dispute as to who was to be umpire. Each side had their man but finally Chris. Graham was given the job.

The teams lined up as follows;

The doctors went to bat first and hit pitcher Kerr for three nice runs. Dr. Marshall hit for a home run and had lots of time to make it, but he forgot to go to third base and was caught before he could get back. Dr. Amys went to bat for the first time in his life. He made a couple of passes and then landed a nice single to left field. He got to second on a passed ball, and when going to third he fell about half way between the bags and crawled on his hands and knees the rest of the way. He just got there in time too.

The lawyers went to bat and started in strong. They hit out several good liners and ran up a score of three runs before anyone was out. Then Dr. McCulloch got his men steadied down and the next three men went out with only one more run, making the score 4—3 in the lawyers' favor.

The doctors' second innings was a heart breaker for the legal men. Man after man went to bat and knocked the ball all over the park. It was lots of sport and the men with the long gowns began to think they would never get another bat. Thirteen runs were scored, making the medicine men's total 16 runs.

The lawyers went to bat for their second innings but only got two runs, giving them a total of six. Thus the doctors were winners by 10 runs.

As soon as the game was over the excursionists went in to supper after which a game of football between the married men and single men was played, the former winning by two goals to one. Several foot races for side bets were run off, and thus the professional men from Peterborough put in their time.

At half past eight the boat whistled for the boys to get on board, and at about a quarter to nine the homeward journey was started.

Coming home the musicians in the party got busy, and a jolly time was spent. All the latest popular and classical songs were sung, while several exceptionally well rendered piano solos were given, in which, as the music teachers would say, 'brilliant technique" was displayed. The Otonabee reached the street railway wharf before eleven o'clock and all on board got home in good time.

Mr. Mahoney's Contract Sent To Committee of the Whole

Was Willing to Accept 11½c Per Yard and Repair Cars Himself But Board of Works Would Not Accept Offer—Conditions Were Not as Contractor Expected.

Further trouble has arisen in connection with the filling in of the river front along the Otonabee with dredgings from the dredge, which is now at work, and has been in operation for several months. A short time ago the contract for filling in the river front was awarded to Mr Mahoney at 8 1-2 cents per square foot, but since commencing work he found the conditions different from what he expected, and as a result does not want to proceed with the contract at the price at which it was awarded to him. He is willing to accept 11 1-2 cents per yard for the remainder of the work to be done.

A communication from Mr. Mahoney was the first matter taken up at the meeting of the Board of Works last night. Mr. Mahoney wrote the chairman of the Board that owing to conditions at the dredge not being as expected, he was unable to continue the work at the price he had contracted for. This was 8 1-2c per yard. He stated that he would complete the contract if the price was raised to 11 1-2c per yard and if the cars were repaired. These, he wrote, were not in working order. He had also to pay $25 to Mr. Conroy for the use of the rails, which he understood would be free when he put in his contract, and until recently he has had to pay two men, who were paid by the Government during the time Mr. Conroy had the contract. Breaks in the machinery frequently cause a shortage of material and consequent loss to the contractor.

Mr. Mahoney waited on the Board in person and the matter was discussed at length. He stated that he would be willing to complete the contract to the satisfaction of all concerned if he were given 11 1-2c. per yard and the council repaired the cars.

It was pointed out that at the time tenders were called for, the next lowest tenderer to Mr. Mahoney offered to do the work for 12c per yard.

Ald Wilson pointed out that if the Board raised Mr. Mahoney's contract to 11 1-2c and repaired the cars, the total cost would likely exceed 12c. This would not be fair to the other men who had tendered.

Ald. McIntyre favored giving the contract to the next lowest tenderer, Mr. Kylie.

"Would he take it now?" asked Ald Johnston.

"I'd offer it to him, anyway," said Ald McIntyre.

Chairman Duncan proposed that Mr Mahoney accept 11 1-2 cents and make whatever repairs were necessary to the cars.

Mr. Mahoney said he would accept 11 1-2c and repair the cars himself.

Ald McIntyre objected to this. He did not think it was the right way of proceeding. "Give it to the next man," he said.

Ald. Johnston considered that Mr Mahoney's offer to accept 11 1-2c. should be accepted. The contractor had met with difficulties that no one had expected.

Mr. Hall said if they took the matter from Mr. Mahoney the better way would be to call for new tenders again.

Ald. Wilson favored giving Mr. Mahoney 11 1-2c and allowing him to continue.

At the suggestion of Ald. Duncan it was decided to let Mr. Mahoney continue at the present rate until the matter could be decided by the committee of the whole council on Tuesday night. The mayor is at present out of town and will not be able to attend meeting until Tuesday night.

It appears that the rails, for the use of which Mr. Mahoney has had to pay $25 to Mr. Conroy, are owned partly by the Government and partly by Mr. Conroy. Mr. Mahoney thought that the rails belonged entirely to the Government, and did not figure on having to pay for them.

The council could make Mr. Mahoney carry out his contract, but in view of the circumstances this will not be done.

COBOURG HORSE SHOW IN AUGUST

Big Preparations Made for This Year's Attraction

The third Cobourg Horse Show will be held on August 21st, 22nd and 23rd in Donegan Park, one of the prettiest show grounds in America. Although last year's show was the best ever held in this part of Canada, the show this year, promises to be far larger in every respect.

While this show has so many high-class events, such as tandem, four-in-hand, high jumpers, etc., the management this year is increasing prizes for all kinds of agricultural and roadster classes, and intend showing the public what this section of the country is producing.

The first day there will be a large excursion from Rochester on the Grand Trunk Ferry Boat, carrying about 2,000 passengers.

The second day is Cobourg Old Boys' day, and a large excursion from Toronto and elsewhere will take place.

The third day, has for one of its great attractions a Hunt Club Race, and other interesting events.

Reduced rates on railways. For prize lists and other information apply to the secretary, John D. Davidson, Cobourg, P. O., Ont.

THE TRANS CANADA LIMITED

The C. P. R. New Fast Trans-continental Service.

The new fast service to be inaugurated by the Canadian Pacific Railway, Tuesday, July 2nd, will carry passengers across the continent in a little over three days and a half, the quickest time made by any railway in America. The new trains will consist of two or more sleeping car and a diner—of latest pattern—with baggage car, and will rank amongst the most luxurious in the world. No day coaches will be attached, and the trains will be exclusively confined to holders of first-class tickets, who desire sleeping car accommodation. These 'Trans-Canada Limited', trains will leave Montreal, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 12.30 noon during the months of July and August. Connecting trains leave Toronto for North Bay at 1.45 p.m. on the same day. Close connection is made at Moose Jaw with the fast trains for Spokane, and other western American points.

Pastor's Services Are Appreciated

St. James Church, Montreal, Increases Stipend of Rev. Dr. Young

The Quarterly Board of St. James' Methodist Church, Montreal, showed their hearty appreciation of the services of their pastor, Rev. Dr. Young, by voting him a bonus of $150, and increasing his salary for next year, $250. Last year the debt of the church was reduced by $2,000 and this year a similar reduction was made on June 1st, leaving a balance of $45,000 on the entire property. Rev. Dr. Young has a host of friends in Peterborough who will be pleased to know that his work is so appreciated at St. James' church.

Lawn Social Was Held at Bethel

Choir of George St. Church Furnished the Programme

The choir of George street Methodist church drove to Bethel last night where they furnished the programme at a lawn social held at the residence of Mr. Armstrong. The function was under the auspices of the Bethel Methodist church and was largely attended.

Rev Mr. Burgess, of Keene acted as chairman, and the programme was as follows;

Anthem, "The Lord is My Shepherd."—The Choir.
Selection, S. S. Orchestra.
Recitation, Miss E. Stevenson.
Solo, "Afterwards," Miss I. Mowry.
Selection, S. S. Orchestra.

Strike Will be Maintained; Stormy Times in France

Albert's Attempt to Stop Agitation in Southern France Fails.

Hopes of the Government Blasted—Difficult For the Cabinet—Clemenceau Trying to Weather the Storm—Bill For Abolition of Court Martial In Time of Peace Is Postponed—Discipline Is Lax.

Paris, June 27.—The Government's hope that the return of Marcelin Albert, leader of the wine-growers' movement, to the south, after his interview with Premier Clemenceau would result in a change of attitude on the part of his followers has been blasted. The federated committees have decided to maintain the civic strike and the "redeemer," or "apostle," as he is variously termed, has no alternative but to surrender himself to the authorities in accordance with his promise to M. Clemenceau.

Nevertheless the excitement in the disturbed territory continues to subside and the Government believes that, barring some unfortunate incident which may again inflame the people, the latter will gradually come to their senses and realize that a prolongation of the present situation will only increase their misery.

The Government now apparently is quite as much concerned about the insubordinate spirit manifested among troops as the attitude of the wine-growers, for in spite of the efforts to minimize them new incidents showing the lack of discipline in the army are occurring daily. The Government seems to have awakened to the necessity of dealing sternly with the demoralization engendered by the socialistic anti-military propaganda, and the press commends the decisions of the Government to exile the mutineers of the 17th Infantry and to postpone indefinitely the bill providing for the abolition of court-martial in time of peace.

The position of the Cabinet grows increasingly difficult, and M. Clemenceau's sole object seems to be to weather the storm until the summer vacations of Parliament affords a breathing spell. To-day, when the Premier replies to the interpellation on the general policy of the Government is likely to decide whether he will be able to overcome the difficulties in his path or fail in his attempt to do so.

Money Returned to Clemenceau.

Paris, June 27.—M Albert yesterday gave himself up to the authorities at Mont Pellier. He received a chilly reception from crowds at Narbonne. His comrades of the committee of Argelliers have from their prison issued a statement repudiating him and declaring for a continuation of the civil strike. Later M. Albert sent this letter to M. Clemenceau:—"In two or three days you will have proof that I kept my promise. Enclosed find the 100 francs you loaned me, for which accept my thanks. As agreed, I have surrendered myself to the authorities."

The Young Chauffeur Was Cool and Collected and Beyond Forcing the Pedestrian to Turn a Somersault no Damage Was Done.

A little girl driving an automobile down George street yesterday created considerable excitement for a short time. She was only eight or nine years of age and was in the auto alone, running it at a good speed. By careful handling and by keeping a clear head, the little thing made her way through until she was passing Mr. C. E. Frost's jewellery store, and then there was a collision. The young chauffeur had a strong grip on the wheel and going at the rate she was, she made a brave attempt to avoid the accident, but everything was sprung upon her so quickly that it was all over before she knew what had happened.

The little girl was running a small Ford auto down the sidewalk, and as she passed Frost's a lady stepped out of the doorway directly in front of her. There was no time to stop and the result was, the front of the auto struck the lady just at the knees. Her feet went from under her and she fell forward with such force that her feet went straight up in the air and on over. There was a few screams, a flutter of skirts, a scramble to get her feet covered up and the accident was over. The young lady quickly got up and hustled into one of the stores, where she was loaned a hair brush, a looking glass, some talcum powder, a few hair pins, clothes brush, and a few other little things which were necessary before she could recognize herself. The auto was not damaged at all although the little girl was somewhat scared.

Many Matters Disposed of At Board of Works Meeting

Boundary Road Between City and Douro Township Needs Repairing—Sewer Connections to be Put in for Vacant Property as Well as That Where Houses are Erected—Other Interesting Matters Considered.

Various matters came up for consideration at the meeting of the Board of Works last night, and before adjournment took place about 10.30 a large amount of business had been transacted. Ald. Duncan, chairman of the board, presided, and those present were Ald. Johnston, McIntyre Wilson, city engineer Hay, Street Commissioner Evans and City Clerk Armstrong. Although there was a large amount of business on the calendar it was disposed of in business-like fashion, and the board was through earlier than usual.

THE BOUNDARY ROAD.

City Engineer Hay reported regarding the inspection of the boundary road, between the city and township of Douro. He reported that the road was in bad condition, that it required to be watertabled, the holes filled up and the ditches cleaned out. The estimated cost of doing this work was $100. No repairs had been made to this road since 1898, when $151.50 was expended on it, of which the county provided $50, the township $50 and the village of Ashburnham the remainder. The portion of the road referred to is between the corner of Concession street and the canal.

Ald Wilson moved that the city clerk be instructed to write the officials of Douro township and ascertain if there was an agreement between the village of Ashburnham and township, and if there is no agreement, that the township be asked to enter into negotiations with the city and have one drawn up. The motion was seconded by Ald. Johnston and passed.

SEWER CONNECTIONS.

Mr W. H. White, who has the contract for the construction of the sewer on Sherbrooke street, waited on the board and enquired if he would put in sewer connections where there were vacant lots. It appears that the Council decided some time ago that the connections should be put in when the sewers were constructed no matter where the property fronting the street was built on or vacant. Mr. White wanted to know what he would do about the connections on vacant property when he had no word from the owners as to where they wanted them located.

Ald. Johnston moved and Ald. Wilson seconded, that the city engineer write the owners of vacant property and inform them that the city was going to put in connections for such property and that if they have any choice of location they should notify the engineer at once.—Carried.

ELECTRIC LIGHT POLES.

A letter was received from the Otonabee Power Company asking permission to place two poles on John-st and one on King-st., west of Water. On motion of Ald. Johnston and Wilson the request was referred to the city engineer with power to act.

FROM MR. JAS. BOGUE.

A letter was read from Mr. Jas. Bogue informing the board that he would hold the city responsible for any damage that might occur to his property on Edinburgh street from the drain passing through it. He stated that the drain had been changed from its former course for the benefit of some friends of certain aldermen.

Ald. Johnston said the changes on Edinburgh street were made to accommodate Mr. Bogue and his neighbors.

Ald. Wilson moved that the communication go to the committee of the whole. This was seconded by Ald. McIntyre and carried.

WILL REMEDY GRIEVANCE.

A communication was received from Edward Green stating that since the east end of Charlotte street was filled in his property had been flooded after each succeeding storm. Charlotte street is filled high towards the south side, with the result that the water floods Mr. Green's property.

The city engineer stated that there was justice in Mr. Green's complaint and on motion the engineer was instructed to have the east end of Charlotte street watertabled in order to remedy the grievance complained of in the letter.

A BILL FOR REPAIRS.

Through City Engineer Hay, Mrs. Jas. Campbell, who resides at 234 Water street, wrote asking for $25.85 the cost of repairs made to the sewer connection to her cellar, which she claims was put out of order when the cement sidewalk was laid in 1904. Owing to the prevalence of sewer gas she has been unable to use her cellar.

Ald. Johnston said he saw nothing ahead but that the city should pay for the cost of the repairs which Mrs. Campbell had to have made.

Street Commissioner Evans stated that the damage had not been done when the sidewalk was laid, but that the connection was not properly constructed when it was put in at first.

Mrs. Campbell has not yet paid Adamson & Dobbin, the plumbers who did the work, insisting that the city should pay it.

On motion it was decided that the city pay the account, but that before doing so the city engineer secure an itemized bill and see if the account could not be reduced.—Carried.

A somewhat similar account from the Peterborough Lock Company of $37.33 was referred to the city solicitor. There is some doubt as to the responsibility for the work that had been done.

TO DRAIN SIMCOE-ST.

The chairman drew the attention of the board to the fact that Simcoe-st west of Bethune was flooded after every storm and recommended that a storm drain be put in from the foot of the hill to the creek, the same as had been done on Charlotte street.

On motion it was decided to have the city engineer prepare an estimate of the cost of putting in a surface drain from Rubidge street to the creek.

AT BARNARDO-AVE.

Ald. Johnston drew attention to the condition of Barnardo avenue, between George and Water streets. This thoroughfare has just recently been opened and fills up with water when a heavy rains comes.

He was informed by the chairman that arrangements were being made to have gravel placed on the street and have it raised to a proper level.

Ald. Wilson drew attention to the bad condition of the sidewalk on Gilchrist street, south of Elm street. On motion of Ald. Wilson and McIntyre it was decided to have it repaired.

BOX SALE WAS BIG SUCCESS

Junior W.A. Gave Very Pleasant Entertainment and Sold All the Boxes

A very pleasant and successful box sale was held in the basement of All Saints' church last evening. It was under the auspices of the junior Woman's Auxiliary and the young ladies showed that they thoroughly understood the management of such an affair. For a long time the girls have been working on fancy articles for this sale and they got a splendid collection of things together. The goods were done up in a box and these boxes were purchased by those present. Boxes of candy were also sold and it was very pleasing to the members of the society to know that not a single box was left. The proceeds of the sale go towards the building fund for the new church.

After the sale an excellent musical programme was run off and refreshments were served.

During the evening there was a presentation of prizes to members of the Junior W.A. for regularity in attendance and for good conduct at the meetings. These prizes were presented by the diocesan officials at Toronto and were won by Miss Florence Reid, Miss Ruby Cranfield, Miss Lillie Spicer, second year, Miss Pearl Haskill. The prizes were appropriate books. Misses Pearl Haskill and Bessie Latimer have won the prizes for three consecutive years and this time were presented with the silver badge of the Woman's Auxiliary Society.

Miss Irene Scott won a post card album, the prize offered by the society for the one selling the largest number of tickets.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.

THE GARBAGE BY-LAW

The garbage bylaw will be voted on by the electors in January next. Ald. Elliott, the father of the bylaw, is strongly in favor of letting the people pronounce upon the merits of this most important measure, and it will be for the ratepayers to say whether there will be such a service inaugurated or not.

In the discussion which has been aroused over the question, another method of paying for the service has cropped up and it appears to have much to recommend it. For once a week collection in the central part of the city, it was proposed to charge householders 15 cents a month, or $1.80 per year. This seems like an unfair tax, as the man with the four room dwelling would have to pay as much as the wealthier citizen, who lives in a house costing many times more, who burns thrice as much coal perhaps, and has a great deal more garbage and waste material to remove.

Under this new plan it is proposed to levy a general rate of 7 10 of a mill on the assessed value of each house.

This would embrace all the expense in connection with the scavenging system, including the sanitary inspector's salary. It is pointed out that a house assessed at $500 would thus pay 35 cents a year. A house valued at $1,000, 70 cents; $2,000, $1 40; $3,000, $2 10; 4,000, 2.80; $5,000, $3 50, etc. This would appear a fair and equitable distribution of the expense, whereby each householder would contribute according to the amount of rubbish, ashes and refuse that he had, for it is evident that the larger the residence the more ashes, etc., there are to remove. The assessment system seems on the face of it to be preferable as thereby the rich and the poor each share in bearing the expense of the service, according to their several holdings in the property line. The same principle is carried out in street sprinkling, and water rates. Each dwelling for street sprinkling purposes is charged half a mill on its assessed value, and for water rates the levy is according to the size of the building and the number and nature of the fittings. The large and costly residences, thus are charged more for street sprinkling and water than the smaller and more modest dwellings. Why should not the same principle of payment be carried out with respect to the levy to meet the outlay for an up-to-date regular and systematic garbage service, which the city urgently needs.

EARLY CLOSING

The early closing movement is gaining in favor, and the improvement, while gradual, is rather encouraging. The warm weather has an effect upon certain lines of trade, such as drugs, groceries, etc., causing them to close at an earlier hour in the evening than usual. But the movement is not progressing rapidly enough, and too many purchases are made at a late hour on Saturday nights, thus necessitating clerks and delivery people putting in long hours, which prevents them from properly enjoying the day of rest. It is only as a city clergyman pointed out in an address on Sunday last, by exercising a fellow feeling by practicing the principle of the golden rule, that any permanent progress can be made. The public, the business men and the clerks must all unite and co-operate in the step. There is no good reason why every purchase required for Sunday supplies cannot be made by nine o'clock on Saturday night. The practice is now to frequently wait until ten, and in some cases eleven o'clock before Saturday night shopping is completed. This means that deliverymen have to work in some instances until one and two o'clock on Sunday morning before the long Saturday toil is over.

Encroaching upon the Lord's day by causing others to labor when that labor could be finished several hours earlier, is not Christianlike. It is purely selfish and narrow in spirit, and reflects no credit upon those who are wilfully guilty of the practice. Too much cannot be said in favor of early closing on Saturday night. Let each citizen set a good example and strive to do all in his or her power to influence others to join in an advance which will steadily, but surely, be marked if there is only unity and earnest, enthusiastic endeavor.

GOOD BUSINESS MAXIMS

In the progressive development of any life or business, there must be system, method and order. Spasmodic efforts—intermittent spirits—followed by lapses of different kinds, tend to undermine any cause. It is always well to be steady, cheerful, optimistic and bright, so far as the public or your employees can guage your actions and thoughts. Certain words of wisdom are often published for the guidance and advantage of those who are fighting, it may be, against terrible odds. For sound, clear logic and common sense, the following epigrammatic utterances from the Merchants' Journal are worth careful study. In fact many of the subjoined maxims might profitably be memorized so that they can be practiced daily:

It does not pay to be a shirker.

It does not pay to be a kicker.

It does not pay to talk about your boss.

It does not pay to get discouraged.

It does not pay to be a weakling.

It does not pay to be a dreamer.

It does not pay to be a spendthrift.

It does not pay to wear your troubles on your face.

It does not pay to fear an undertaking.

It does not pay to let responsibilities get the better of you.

It does not pay to cheat time.

It does not pay to cheat experience.

It does not pay to meddle in other men's business.

It does not pay to waste time in doing your work.

It does not pay to do careless work.

It does not pay to get the better of your boss when he's not looking.

It does not pay to be a coward.

It does not pay to be self-satisfied.

It does not pay to have your mind so firmly made up that nothing can change it.

It does not pay to put off for tomorrow what you can do today.

It does not pay to yield to temptation.

It does not pay to sell a man goods he cannot use.

It does not pay to nurse a grievance.

It does not pay to increase your sales by knocking another house.

It does not pay to imitate the vices of your associates.

It does not pay to be slovenly in your talk, appearance and manner.

It does not pay to give up trying and yield to difficulties.

It does not pay to cry when you are worsted.

It does not pay to misrepresent goods.

It does not pay to talk back when you are reprimanded.

It does not pay to mind other people's business.

It does not pay to plead ignorance when in the wrong.

It does not pay to mix business and pleasure.

It does not pay to ask many favors.

It does not pay to try every new scheme.

It does not pay to be over-conservative and refuse to consider new ideas.

It does not pay to swear unless you are compelled to take an oath.

It does not pay to spare your energy where it is needed.

It does not pay to make men fear you.

It does not pay to ignore the good will of customers.

It does not pay to promise one thing and do another.

It does not pay to miss business appointments.

It does not pay to court disfavor.

It does not pay to think of what might have been.

It does not pay to sacrifice character for success.

It does not pay to be so self-satisfied that you refuse to learn from others.

It does not pay to consider advertising an expense. The best business men consider it as an asset.

PEN POINTS.

Decoration Day!

The long summer holiday begins today for the boys and girls. How quickly it will pass.

That man who had the neck to go the circus this week with $660 and was relieved of his cash, must have felt something like a giraffe.

Some more nominations are now in order for the vacant portfolios in the Laurier Cabinet. The suggestions as to likely material make good hot weather reading.

The Board of Education meets this evening to deal with the engagement of teachers for the coming year. If rumor is correct some of the winsome female instructors are engaged already.

Col. Denison, Toronto's police magistrate, is an ardent loyalist and most thorough Imperial Federationist. No wonder, then, that he sent a ball player named Flood to gaol for fifteen days for assaulting "the empire."

Keep your back yard sweet and clean this hot weather, and see that the alleyway is not littered up with rubbish. Of course, it's purely a matter of conscience—no one will say a word to you even if the refuse is ankle deep.

The Water Commissioners have bought a machine for tapping water pipes without turning the water off. That's nothing. You can find a dozen human walking machines who will tap a beer pipe any warm day and never ask to have the supply shut off.

Quebec is waging a vigorous fight against tuberculosis. In March last a bylaw was passed providing that all milk cows coming into the city be tested before being sold, and in April another providing for the testing of all cows within the city every six months, the city paying two-thirds of the loss. Since then, 163 tuberculosis cows that have been sent out of Quebec have been cheerfully sent to Montreal, and are now in use there.

Notwithstanding the absence of the artificial safeguards that a conventional society has ordained, circus performers are, as a class, the most moral folk on the face of the earth. An old circus man expressed the fact in this way:—"For two hundred years there has not been a domestic scandal nor a divorce among us when both husband and wife were from recognized circus families. In every case where there has been a scandal, either one or the other has been an outsider."—"The Aristocracy of the Circus," in Everybody's

The total immigration into Canada for the month of April, 1907, was 44,051, as compared with 35,313 for April of last year, an increase of 25 per cent. For the ten months, July 1st, 1906, to April 30th, 1907, the immigration was 168,718, as compared with 124,031 for the corresponding months of the fiscal period 1905-06, an increase of 4,687, or 36 per cent. The arrivals at the ocean ports for April totalled 34,439, an increase of 11,941 over the corresponding month of 1906. The arrivals from the States totalled 9,613, a decrease of 2,743.

The Liberals came into power at Ottawa in 1896 upon the promise to reduce the public expenditure $38,000,000 a year on a revenue of $40,000,000. They increased the expenditure on a growing revenue until from $40,000,000 in 1896 the expenditure advanced to $126,000,000 in 1907. Liberals alleged that taxation in 1896 was excessive. They came into power on a plea to reduce the same, and forthwith increased it. They promised if returned to power to reduce the tariff. They promptly increased it. Liberals made a plea to be entrusted with the government of the country, promising to free the political atmosphere of the corruption with which they charged their political opponents. Having secured power, they perpetrated election frauds in numerous constituencies from the East to the West.

And still the Laurier preferential tariff gives a preference to the work of a foreign mechanic. Is that fair.—Galt Reporter.

In one respect the Galt Reporter is more honest than the Tory organs which are now trying to claim for their party the credit of the preference. But why that "guff" about the "foreign mechanic"?—Hamilton Times.

Well, who are making the woolen goods for us that should be manufactured in Hespeler, in the mill that before the preferential tariff went into effect employed 500 hands, asks the Galt Reporter. Is it not the foreign artisan in England? There is no guff about this statement. The big, silent mill in the neighboring town, closed by legislation at Ottawa, bears on its doors the explanation of its silent looms. It was sacrificed by a group of statesmen who could not do enough for the bounty-fed industries of the Lower Provinces. It stands as a monument to the folly of the Jug-Handled Preference.

Closing Exercises at Grove School

Presentation of Prizes—Measles Still Rife—Fishing Season Opens

Lakefield, June 26.—Mrs. Dunn arrived in the village on Friday last from Grimsby, on her way to her cottage, at Stony Lake.

Measles are still rife in the village, and many additional boys at "The Grove" have been attacked by the disease. Amongst the latest sufferers is Miss Tate, who is, we are glad to say, recovering rapidly. Mr. Sparling, who has been very seriously ill with the same disorder, is also on the road to recovery.

Mr. E. R. Tate, who has been confined to the house with an attack of pleurisy, is, we hear, getting better daily.

The Methodist Sunday School picnic to Sandy Point on Tuesday, 25th inst., was, notwithstanding the rival attraction of the circus in Peterborough, an unqualified success.

Mr. Atwood, who has been spending a few days at his old home, Gore's Landing, returned to Lakefield on Tuesday last.

PRIZES PRESENTED

The presentation of prizes to the boys at "The Grove" School took place on Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance, including visitors from several outside points. Peterborough sent its quota in the person of Rev. E. A. Langfeldt and Mr. J. Hampden Burnham. These gentlemen, whose presence is always welcome in Lakefield, did much towards making the evening the success that it was, their speeches being especially happy and replete with humor and good advice to the boys. The following visitors were present:—Mrs. Hilliard, Miss Hilliard, Mrs. Lefroy, of Millbrook; Mrs. Cumberland, Mr. and the Misses Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. Drayton, Mr. and Miss P. Davis Fleece, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, Mr. J. H. Burnham, Miss Owen, Miss Sylvia Strickland, Miss Penny, Rev. W. J. Creighton. The winners of the prizes were:

Form I, general proficiency—Gordon.

Form II, general proficiency—Cockburn, Lefroy.

Form III—Mathematics—A. Patterson.

Classics—Max Nelles.

General proficiency—A. Patterson.

Special prize for music, given by Miss Atwood—Lefroy.

Prize for manliness (medal given by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt,)—A. Patterson.

Singles, senior, Nelles Mat. I.; Winslow II.

Singles, Junior, Smith I.; Badgley II.

Tandem, A. Patterson—Winslow I.—Nelles Bros II.

Fours, Dormitory No. 4 I.; Dormitory No 2 II.; Dormitory No. 1 III.

Hurry Scurry, Nelles I.; Barron II.

Crab Race, Nelles I.; Barron II.

100 yards swim, Patterson I.; Nelles II.

100 yards, junior, Renfrew I.

Mr. T. B. Marling arrived in the village from Toronto on Friday last.

JOY FOR FISHERMEN.

The opening of the fishing season has brought joy to the hearts of all local anglers. It is wonderful to what an extent the gentle art fires the imagination of even the most prudish and moral amongst men. I have wandered in many places and met many talented liars in my time but to be told by a solemn church-going person, as I was a short time since, that he had caught salmon trout over a hundred pounds in weight, caps anything I ever heard in the fish line. That man now ranks in my mind with the shantyman who once informed me that he did not see any earthly use in being able to swim. He said, "Why bless yer sowl, All a man has to do is to keep his head. I've tumbled off drives many a time and sunk plumb to the bottom. Do yer think that bothered me? No, siree, I just kept my head, shut my mouth and walked ashore."

Is there any hope of paradise for a man like that?

OTHER NOTES.

Cadet Geo. Hilliard will be home on Thursday for the midsummer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs Lingwood, of Simcoe, Ont., are expected in Lakefield on Wednesday next, on their way to their summer cottage at Stony Lake.

Instructions on Milk Testing

Some Figures as to Tests Made at Warsaw

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Perhaps it would be a good idea to indicate a few lessons drawn from the Warsaw tests for June, and to give a few ideas as to studying the test results. In the first place it is very important to weigh the milk on the three days indicated and to get a representative sample. The milk should be poured or thoroughly stirred before the sample is taken. If the milk is weighed on only two milkings out of the six it may be the two when the cow is not at her best. It is to the farmer's interest that the test be fair and he should be careful enough to get it correct.

At Warsaw there were 199 cows tested for the full 30-day period. Only 27 gave 1000 lbs. of milk or over, while 38 gave less than 600 lbs. The highest milk yield was 1290 lbs testing 3.5 per cent. butter-fat, and the lowest yield was 350 lbs testing 4.9 per cent. Between these two cows we find a difference of 940 lbs. in yield of milk and 28 lbs difference in yield of butter fat in thirty days. But how long have these cows been milking. The heavy yielder has just freshened, while the other has been milking for some time, and possibly when she has been milking as long as her neighbor, she will not be giving as much. It is not the monthly record that counts, it is the yearly record. The cow that gives large yields month after month is the one that pays and the one that should be kept for breeding.

But it is not always the cow that produces the largest amount of milk, that produces the most butter-fat. We find in this report that another cow giving only 780 lbs. milk gave 53.04 lbs. of butter-fat. Again the lowest yield of milk did not give the lowest yield of butter-fat, for we find that one cow giving 430 lbs of milk had only 12.9 lbs. butter-fat to her credit.

Here we see a difference of 40.14 lbs in butter-fat. The tests at Warsaw for June varied all the way from 2.4 to 6.8 per cent. and this also is a very important consideration when studying records.

Hoping this will give an insight into the methods of comparison of records, and that it will encourage farmers to continue keeping records, I remain,

Yours, etc.,
T. H. BINNIE.

Double Wedding Was Celebrated

A very pretty double wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Switzer, Maple Lane, Emily on Wednesday, June 19th, when their twin daughters Mary Amelia and Rhoda Emma, were united in marriage to Mr. James H. and Lewis E. Jones, sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jones, of the township of Tay, in the County of Simcoe.

At the hour of two o'clock the piano was heard to peal forth the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by the skilfull hand of Miss Ella Switzer, sister of the brides. The contracting parties took their places under a twin arch of evergreens and flowers, which was erected for the occasion on the beautiful lawn. The brides were given away by their father, and were attended by two little pages, Master Roy Fee and Ernest Lowes. Each carried a beautiful calla lily, containing the rings.

The ceremony was performed by Rev H. Johnson, of Bethel. The brides were prettily attired in costumes of cream point d'esprit, over Japanese silk. They wore the conventional veils and orange blossoms and carried beautiful bouquets of white roses and carnations.

After the ceremony was performed and congratulations were over, the guests, numbering 160, repaired to the dining room, which was decorated for the occasion, and partook of the sumptuous dinner there provided.

Many and costly were the presents received, showing the high esteem in which the brides were held by their numerous friends. The Bethel church and neighborhood has sustained a great loss by the departure of two such estimable young ladies, they being members of the choir, and active workers in the League and Sunday School.

Mr. Robinson's cab, of Peterborough, and a handsome grey team, were in attendance to carry the happy couples to Omemee, accompanied by a carry-all from Omemee and several other carriages, where they took the train, en route for Toronto, Niagara and other points, amid showers of confetti and flowers.

Their future homes will be near Midland. The brides' going away dresses, were of a pretty grey, trimmed with braid and buttons, with hat to match.

Many friends and acquaintances join in wishing them happiness and prosperity in their new homes.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country, than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years, was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Beaverton Lacrosse Team Drawn From Many Points

Interesting Information About the Team That Will Play the Locals at Riverside Park, Monday Afternoon.

The Beaverton lacrosse team, who will meet the locals in an intermediate C.L.A. game at Riverside Park on Monday afternoon, like the animals in the Forepaugh-Sells circus, is gathered from all parts of the earth. Harry Cameron's burg is out to win the championship this year and to accomplish this purpose they have not failed to pick up every good lacrosse player within a fifty-mile radius of the Beaverton cross-roads. The team that will collide with the homesters at Riverside Park on the holiday will be one of the strongest that has ever represented the northern town and are looked upon as one of the strongest twelves in the C.L.A. This is how they will line up when they meet the locals;

Goal, "Dinny" Dobbin, Toronto.
Point, Coombs, Uxbridge.
Defence field, Marshall and Tucker, Orillia; Jacobi, Beaverton.
Centre, Manron, Barrie.
Home field, Fennock, Stouffville; Anderson, Uxbridge; Doyle, Newmarket; Carter, Orillia; Cave and Cameron, Beaverton.

It will be somewhat of a change to see "Dinny" Dobbin playing against his old team mates, but this will, however, not detract from the friendly reception that will be given him by his former townspeople. "Dinny" is working in Toronto, but travels to Beaverton when there is a game on or when the Checkers go forth to meet their opponents on a foreign award. He is said to be playing a great game in goal this year and stopped all kinds of shots when the Beaverton team defeated Newmarket in Beaverton 6—2 a few days ago. The fact that the Newmarket team was strong enough to beat the Young Torontos and were then taken into camp by Beaverton shows that the Checkers are perhaps the strongest team in the C.L.A. intermediate ranks.

The Peterborough team have been hard at work all this week, and are fast getting into shape. There will be several changes in the line-up from that which met the Young Torontos, and as for condition and stick handling, the team will not be recognizable as the same bunch which fell so hard at Rosedale. Practice was what the team needed and they have been having plenty of it this week. Among those who have been out nearly every night this week are the following; Morgan, Glover, Regan, MacLean, Backus, Mein, Derocher, Ford, Judd, Robertson, McDonough, McGrath, Dillon and Best. Tracey, who will play inside home for the locals, will arrive here on Saturday and will remain in Peterborough for the rest of the season, having secured a position here. The team will practice at Riverside Park tonight, tomorrow night and Saturday afternoon. The locals would rather beat the Beaverton aggregation than get a trip to Europe and will go on the field determined to win.

The game will start at 2.30 sharp in order to be over in time to let the visitors catch the train for home. Under existing conditions it should prove a great contest and no doubt every lover of lacrosse in the city will be on hand.

Peterborough Baseball Team Now in the Midland League

Bowmanville Drops Out and Locals Take Their Place—Artics of Toronto Here Saturday Afternoon and Monday Morning—Team Goes to Port Hope for Dominion Day Afternoon.

The Peterborough baseball team is now in the Midland League. The Bowmanville Club has dropped out, and the locals have taken their place and will play their first league game in Port Hope on Monday of next week, Dominion Day. Port Hope is leading the league with three wins and one loss to their credit; Bowmanville is second with two wins and two losses so if the Peterborough team can trim the Port Hopers on Monday, they will be even with them for first place. Cobourg is occupying third place in the league, and Oshawa is in the cellar position. After Monday the second section of the schedule will be commenced. Port Hope and Oshawa will each have a game in Peterborough before the season is over, while Cobourg will be here twice, having a postponed game with Bowmanville. It appears that the Bowmanville team is somewhat disorganized and could not continue in the league. The fact that Peterborough is now in the Midland League will be received with joy by the local fans. The locals can be depended upon to make a great fight to oust Port Hope from the head of the position, and will go to Port Hope on Monday prepared to win or die.

ARCTICS COMING.

Arrangements have been completed with the Arctics, of Toronto, for two games here, one on Saturday and another on Monday forenoon. The fans will remember the splendid games between the Arctics and the home team on May 24th and 25th, and big crowds will no doubt witness the two contests. Saturday afternoon's game will commence at 3.30 and Monday's contest at 9.30 a.m. After playing against the Arctics on Dominion Day the locals will board the noon train for Port Hope, where they will go up against the Midland League leaders in their first league fixture.

The Peterborough team will practice tonight at Riverside Park, and every man is asked to be out in uniform. Peterborough must win the Midland League championship, and can do it if the boys get down to practice.

BASEBALL

PRACTICE GAME.

The Strathconas and Karenots will practice tonight on the Oval. A full turnout of both teams is expected.

GAME TO-NIGHT.

The remaining innings of the Lillie-Excelsior game, which was to have been played last night at the Patterson st. field will be played to-night. Mr. W. Stacey will officiate as umpire.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The meeting of the Intermediate baseball executive announced for to-night, will not be held until to-morrow night at 8 o'clock, when all teams are asked to be represented and the matter of a double schedule will be discussed as well as other important business.

Mrs Archie Martin of Lakeside, Ont was stunned by lightning while milking a cow, and the cow was killed.

Mr J. Edward Fisher, organist of the Methodist church at Cobourg, has resigned to accept the position of organist of the Methodist church, Regina.

WEDDING BELLS

MARKS--MANNING

The wedding of Miss Nan T. Manning, second daughter of the late George S. Manning of Peterborough, and of Mrs. Manning, and Mr. Gerald Marks, son of Dr. and Mrs. T. Osborne Marks, of Cathedral Hill, Armagh, Ireland, took place at three o'clock yesterday, at the residence of the bride's mother, 39 St. Vincent street, Toronto. The bay window was banked with palms and an arch of marguerites was erected, from which a daisy bell was suspended. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. G. Wallace, the bride's brother, Mr. Middleton Manning giving her away. She wore white liberty satin, the skirt being deeply tucked horizontally and perpendicularly and falling away into a long train. The bodice of net and Valenciennes lace, had folds of satin to form bretelles over the shoulders and ruffles of net to form sleeves. Her tulle veil was becomingly arranged on her pretty fair hair with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a white and gilt prayer book, instead of flowers. Her sisters, Ethel and Lola attended her, the former in white and the latter in blue silk mull. Each had on a white chip hat, and carried a basket of marguerites. Miss Ethel Manning was the recipient of a pendant of pearls and amethysts, and Miss Lola a gold watch bracelet from the bridegroom. Mr. H. J. Nastel was the best man. After a short reception the bride and bridegroom left for Muskoka, the former travelling in a navy melrose cloth suit, faced with white cloth, and Tuscan hat with navy wings and a touch of green. On their return from the honey-moon, Mr. and Mrs. Marks will go to Dunnville, where they will reside.

PARKER—BARTLEY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening, when Miss Lillian Ethel Bartley, eldest daughter of Mr. W. G. Bartley, 218 Perry-st. was united in marriage to Mr. W. A. Parker of this city.

The ceremony was performed at St. Andrew's manse by Rev. J. G. Potter. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride was becomingly gowned in a pretty champagne Panama cloth dress, over taffeta. She wore a pale blue hat to match. After the ceremony they repaired to the bride's residence, Perry street, where a reception was held, and a choice wedding repast partaken of. The house was beautifully and tastefully decorated with palms and cut flowers.

Many guests were present, including several from out of town. They were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bartley, of Purple Hill; Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson and Miss Edna, of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Montgomery, of Blackstock; Miss Olive Parker, of Parry Sound, and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Bartley, of Toronto. The bride and groom are widely and popularly known in this city, and were the recipients of many attractive and costly presents, including a silver tea service from the lamp department of the C.G.E., where the bride was employed, and a handsome Morris chair and quarter cut oak centre table, from the groom's fellow workers in the wire department.

Mr and Mrs. Parker will reside on Perry street.

HEWITSON—RAPSEY

The following from the Winnipeg Free Press will be of interest to many in Peterborough, the bride being a sister of Mrs. Wm. Pringle, and a frequent visitor in the city:—

Port Arthur, Ont., June 23.—One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in the city for some time was solemnized here on Tuesday morning, when Miss Bessie Rapsey, youngest daughter of Mrs. Rapsey, became the wife of Mr. John T. Hewitson, of the firm of Stewart & Hewitson. The ceremony took place at the family residence on Victoria street, in the presence of a goodly number of friends. The house had been converted into a perfect bower of blossoms. The drawing room, hall and staircase were banked with large boughs of fragrant white cherry blossoms. Long trails of smilax and fern wreathed the archways, windows and doors, and palms and graceful ferns were everywhere in profusion. Shortly after nine o'clock the bridegroom and Mr. J. Albert Rapsey, the best man, took their places, and almost immediately the first notes of Mendelssohn's wedding march announced the approach of the bride. Preceded by her maid of honor and a dainty little flower girl she entered on the arm of her eldest brother, Mr W J Rapsey. Very sweet she looked in her lovely gown of ivory brocaded taffeta, and filmy bridal veil. The bodice was in pleated bolero effect, edged with chiffon lace, the yoke was of embroidered chiffon, with touches of lace, and outlined with seed pearls. The skirt was in the princess style with yoke effect formed by bands of the insertion, which fell to the hem. The high girdle was also outlined with pearls. The veil was caught up with orange blossoms, worn in a coronet style that was most becoming. She wore as her only ornament a beautiful necklet of pearls set in gold, the gift of the groom, and carried a large bouquet of cream roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Rapsey, looked charming in a frock of white point d'esprit over taffeta, elaborately trimmed with bands of val insertion and lace and tiny satin bows. She wore the gift of the groom, a pretty gold bracelet, and carried a large sheaf of pink roses.

The little flower girl, Baby May McCutcheon, looked very pretty in a white silk frock. She wore a gold bangle and emerald ring, the gifts of the groom, and carried a basket of pink and sweet peas. During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev J. C. Walker, of Trinity church, Mrs. W. J. Rapsey, who presided at the piano, played very softly, "Abide With Me." After the congratulations and good wishes of all had been received, the bride and groom led the way to the dining room. Her breakfast was served at small flower-decked tables. Crimson and white was the colour scheme here.

For her going away costume the bride donned a pretty suit of navy ladies' cloth, trimmed with white satin and braid, the little Eton coat opening over a blouse of silk and net trimmed with cluny lace. The hat worn with this was of blue braid with a white osprey and clusters of roses. Amid the customary shower of rice and confetti and followed by the shoes for good luck, Mr. and Mrs. Hewitson left for Fort William, sailing on the Hamonic for Detroit. They will visit Toronto, Peterborough, Buffalo and thence will sail down the St. Lawrence by the Thousand Islands' route.

The groom's gift to the best man was a silk watch fob with gold mountings, and to Miss Read, who assisted at the table of the bridal party, a dull gold bracelet. Both bride and groom have a very large circle of friends who remembered them on this happy occasion with most beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Rapsey, the mother of the bride, was gowned in black silk, with vest of black lace over white satin.

LIFE IS NOW WORTH LIVING

And you don't have to spend all the money you own in order to dress well. It is the ambition of every woman to dress well, and to have her home dressed well, but heretofore it has been almost impossible to do either, owing to the increased cost of everything. But now the problem has been solved—it's an open secret—the B. Y. Moyes Gigantic Removal Sale is responsible. They have cut slashed and hammered down the prices on every article in the store to where it is just about giving the Goods away.

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

New York, June 27.—Such market manipulation as there was today seemed to be concentrated upon Reading and Union Pacific, very much to the disappointment of traders. They were hoping that some different stocks might be taken in hand, if only to relieve the artificial character of the market. The most striking feature in the situation at present is the change in the market's technical position. The bear account is lighter than it has been in months and probably only exists in quantity in Penna. On the other hand the advance in loaning rates indicated a more extended bull account. Sentiment, both here and on the other side is much more hopeful and the outlook favors further improvement, in this very important feature of the general situation all over the world. We consider the market a purchase on all reactions and expect much better prices next month for the entire list.

The publication of Expert Jones' report on winter wheat, which estimates Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas will not produce over 50,000,000 bushels of wheat, caused a sensational advance in wheat, July shooting up to 97, Sept. $1.00, and Dec. $1.03 1-2, an advance of over five cents. Shorts were in a panic and scenes of a month ago were again witnessed in the pit.

Will a Layman Soon be Appointed Moderator of General Assembly?

Canadian Presbyterian Discusses the Question and Says Several Elders are Well Qualified for the Position—Ex-Mayor G. M. Roger Mentioned as Acceptable Candidate.

The Dominion Presbyterian says:—In quoting our remarks of last week on this subject the Ottawa Journal says:—

"The Dominion Presbyterian is quite sound in its statement that there is a large quantity of moderator material among the laymen of the Presbyterian church in Canada. Certainly in no other church are the laymen more highly skilled in the science of church government. The Presbyterian seems to imbibe from his birth the intangible but potent spirit of the Presbytery, a spirit born, perhaps, in the blood of the martyrs; and quite certainly tinged with a temper purely racial. It is the habit of the Presbyterian to be a Presbyterian, unless he flies off altogether. And when he reaches Presbytery, Synod or Assembly he has the knack of the thing, whether he be minister or not."

A correspondent reminds us that we overlooked several names that should have been mentioned, such as Hon. Thomas Ballantyne, of Stratford, Lt.-Col McCrae, of Guelph, Geo. M. Macdonnell, K.C., of Kingston, and Judge Archibald, of Montreal. That is quite true. But we were careful to say that there were "scores of others" that would occur to the reader. Certainly the list given was very imperfect as to numbers, although the material was first class.

In enumerating names of elders well qualified to fill the moderator's chair in Synod or Assembly the names of Judge Forbes, Hon. Speaker Sutherland, ex-Mayor Roger, of Peterborough, and Hamilton Cassels, K.C., of Toronto, will readily come to mind. Then we have Alexander Bartlett, of Windsor; Geo. E. McCraney, M.P., of Rosthern, Sask., Hon. B. Rogers, of Alberton, P.E., and J. K. Macdonald, long time convener of one of the standing committees, who also takes a useful part in the discussion of business before the Assembly. And last at this time, but by no means least, there is the Hon. G. W. Ross, who would even rival the late Dr. Jenkins or the present moderator, Dr. Campbell, in the prompt application of the rules governing discussion as well as in felicitous speech in reply to deputations.

Walter Plumridge of Winnipeg, aged four, was run down and killed by an asphalt wagon.

Woman and Four Children Perished in the Flames.

Bad Fire at Arnprior Steam Laundry—Gasoline Tank Exploded—Husband Got Out in Night Clothes—Family Cut Off From Escape—Bodies Charred Beyond Recognition—All the Walls Fell In.

Arnprior, June 28.—Mrs. W. P. Armstrong and four children were burned to death in the most disastrous fire in the history of this town, and which took place yesterday morning.

William Armstrong, manager of the Arnprior Steam Laundry, where the fire broke out, who, with his wife and four children was sleeping over the laundry, rushed down to learn of the fire. A gasoline tank exploded, and it was impossible for him to return. The family was cut off from all means of escape and all perished in the flames.

The cause of the fire is not known, but it started in the engine room at the rear of the building, and had worked its way through the entire lower storey before being discovered and cut off all means of rescue.

The firemen were soon on the scene, and had several streams of water on the fire in a short time. The laundry was completely destroyed, all the walls falling in.

The other firms occupying the block were R. Charbonneau, butcher shop, and residence upstairs, and the Hamilton & Lewitt Knitting Co.'s factory. The upper storey over the butcher shop was completely gutted, but the lower part suffered only from the water.

The fire worked its way into the attic over the knitting factory, and it could not be got at for some time until it burst through the ceiling, but it was soon subdued there. The machinery in the factory will be considerably damaged by water.

The bodies of the unfortunate victims were recovered from the debris by seven-thirty and removed to the morgue. They were charred beyond recognition. The loss on the buildings and stocks has not been estimated, but is fairly well covered by insurance.

Loss of Life in Arnprior Fire; Terrible Fatality in Laundry

C. P. R. Guilty of Negligence Says Mr. Justice Riddell.

Charge of Manslaughter May Be Laid—Case Sent to the Attorney-General—Judge Declares Facts Disclose Crime—Crown May Take Action—Suit Arose Over Accident Resulting From Defective Bridge.

Toronto, June 28.—"The facts of this case disclose a crime," says Mr Justice Riddell, of the suit brought by the widow of Andrew M. Villeneuve against the C.P.R.

Villeneuve was a trainman and was killed on April 29th at Fire Hill, Nipissing, north of Lake Superior. It was admitted by counsel that the engine upon which the unfortunate man was fell through a bridge owing to the fact that the bridge had been allowed to decay.

"The claims agent of the company investigated the facts and found that the company had no defence," says Judge Riddell, "to an action at the instance of the widow and step-children of the deceased; accordingly an agreement was come to that the company should pay the sum of $2,318.58, the amount of three years' wages of the deceased.

Willing to Settle.

"A writ was issued by the widow and her two children, step-children of the deceased, and the case was brought on before me at the weekly court at Ottawa, June 22nd, by way of a motion that the plaintiff be awarded judgment for the sum of $2,318.58, or an apportionment of the amount among the plaintiffs, and for an order for payment into court of the infants' share."

After quoting from Union Colliery v. The Queen, Mr. Justice Riddell says:—"I have quoted this largely from this case because it is exactly in point. Here the defendants maintain a railway, they have a bridge; it is their duty to maintain it that an engine will not fall through; they disregard that duty; the anticipated event happened (that such an event was to be anticipated is manifest, it is notorious that but the other day a similar occurrance took place in a city in Ontario, fortunately without loss of life)—'they are criminally responsible for it,' and it makes no difference that the unfortunate victim was an employe. No doubt also in this case there is some one person—perhaps more than one—who is guilty of personal negligence, and therefore equally liable to an indictment and for manslaughter."

Crown May Take Action.

Mr Justice Riddell approves of the settlement and adds: "it being the duty of the Crown, if so advised, to prosecute for crimes, 'offences against the public at large,' and this kind of offence has been held to be, by the the Supreme Court, a copy of this part of my judgment will be sent to the Attorney-General for such action against the company or an employe or officer thereof as may be considered justified by facts."

The apportionment is as follows: Susan M Villeneuve, $1,250; Lavan Ferguson, $318.58; Mary Ferguson, $750. The defendants must also pay the costs of the plaintiff's solicitor, $130.

STEAMER DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Explosion of Lamp the Cause—All the Crew Escaped.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 28.—The steamer Batchewana of the Ganley Tug Line was totally destroyed Wednesday night at Coppermine Point, fifty miles west of the Soo.

It was due, it is said, to the explosion of a lamp. The flames made rapid progress, compelling the engineers to make a hurried exit from the engine-room, leaving the machines in operation.

The vessel was turned to the shore one mile away and beached, the crew of fifteen men, under Capt. James Ganley, all being landed safely.

The Batchewana carried a cargo of iron ore from the Helen Mine for the Algoma Iron Works, and was partly insured.

GAS WORKS WERE BURNED.

Dangerous Fire At Belleville Unattended By Casualties.

Belleville, Ont., June 28.—Between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday morning the greater portion of the gas works owned by the city were completely gutted by fire, but fortunately there were no explosions, and no person was injured. The roof and framework was burned, and the machinery was damaged by water in consequence of the fire. There is much inconvenience throughout the city, but it is thought that it will be possible to manufacture gas by this evening. How the fire originated is not known, but there is every suspicion that it was incendiary. The loss will be at least $5,000, and is covered by insurance in several companies.

The trade disputes during May totalled 49 and 411 firms and 11,697 employees affected.

David Bell, of Montreal, attempted to commit suicide at Quebec by shooting himself and in the hospital he killed himself with a pocket knife.

GREAT FIRE AT BERLIN.

Warehouses and Stables Destroyed—Explosion Narrowly Averted.

Berlin, June 28.—One of the largest fires Berlin has ever known destroyed the great warehouses and stables of the Berlin Omnibus Co. on Wednesday night. The whole fire brigade vainly fought the flames for many hours, but the firemen saved the adjoining Royal victualling warehouse, where 5,000,000 litres of spirits were stored. These were threatened for a long time, causing fears of a terrific explosion.

SUICIDES WHILE INSANE.

Body of Peter Graham Found Suspended From a Beam.

Lindsay, June 28.—Dr. Wood, coroner of Lindsay, left for Kirkfield yesterday to investigate the facts of the finding of the body of Peter Graham, a bachelor, 60 years of age, in his brother's barn, in the Township of Eldon, suspended from a beam by a logging chain.

The coroner decided an inquest to be unnecessary, the conditions pointing to suicide while temporarily insane.

No Hope Says Oliver.

In an interview yesterday he stated that there was no possibility of reciprocal tariff relations between Canada and the United States.

STILL GIVES ORCHARD LIE

Davis Under Cross-Examination Adheres to His Story.

Denies Taking Orchard to Meeting of Miners' Union—How Detectives Wrecked Train—Former President of Federation Gives Evidence—Judge Gives Important Ruling Which May Limit Defence.

Boise, June 28.—In his cross-examination yesterday morning Senator Borah took Davis over the period he spent in hiding in the Hercules mine after the Bunker Hill explosion. He said that Paulson and another man were there. He remembered two men calling at the mine while he was there. They were union men getting out of the country. Orchard said that he was at the Hercules at this time.

Davis was unable to recall Orchard as one of these men, nor could he remember when he first met Steve Adams at Cripple Creek. Davis said he was at home on the night of the Vindicator mine explosion and denied that he had called at Orchard's house early and taken him to a union meeting.

At Cripple Creek.

Davis could not tell when he last saw Orchard prior to the explosion. Referring to his previous testimony that all was quiet at Cripple Creek before the troops were sent there, Davis admitted that he had heard of various murders there, but that some had occurred after the troops arrived.

However, he insisted that he would stand on his previous statement regarding the condition of Cripple Creek before the troops came there.

Denver Convention.

Davis said the mine owners continually sought to disrupt the Federation. He believed the two men killed at the Vindicator Mine were non-unionists. He denied telling a representative of the Vindicator Mine that if the property was opened with non-union men there would be trouble. Davis also denied that there were unusual features of the Denver convention of the Federation, regarding which Orchard had testified that Haywood had told him that something should "be pulled off."

Detective Wrecked Train.

W. W. Rush, formerly engineer of the Florence and Cripple Creek Railway, testified that Detectives Scott and Sterling staged and executed a train wreck on his line during a strike of miners.

"Ed." Boyce, formerly president of the Western Federation of Miners, and now one of the owners of the Hercules mine, testified that in 1893 James H. Hawley, now leading counsel against Haywood, but then retained as counsel for the miners, suggested to Boyce the organization of the Western Federation of Miners as an offset to the Mine Owners' Association.

He denied the existence of an "inner circle," or of a conspiracy in the organization to do an illegal act. The main feature of the Boyce cross-examination was the production of a copy of a speech by him at the convention of the Federation at Salt Lake in 1898, in which he said that every union should have a rifle club and every member a rifle, so that the Federation could march 25,000 armed men in the ranks of labor.

A ruling by Judge Wood while Boyce was testifying may limit materially the showing by the defence about the existence of a counter conspiracy against Haywood and his associates.

Mr Hawley for the state, objected to the general question as to the policy and practice of mine owners throughout the west of blacklisting union miners. In the argument that followed Clarence Darrow for the defence, claimed the same latitude to proving counter conspiracy that the state had in showing a conspiracy.

Mr. Hawley contended that the state had directly shown the existence of a conspiracy by Harry Orchard and by so doing had laid the foundation for all the evidence subsequently offered on the subject. He said that the defence was trying to prove a counter conspiracy by various isolated instances for none of which a proper foundation had been laid.

EMMERSON DOWN AND OUT.

Said to Have Resigned—Will Not Bother Any More With Trial.

Ottawa, June 28.—Hon. H. R. Emmerson's statement in Toronto, that "he is not going to bother any more about the trial at Fredericton," is taken here to mean that he is out of politics for good.

The rumor was current yesterday that he had forwarded his resignation to the Speaker. This could not be confirmed here, but when Hon. R. F. Sutherland was communicated with at Windsor he replied that he had not received any such resignation.

It is said here that Mr. Emmerson will take the management of a coal and oil enterprise in West Virginia, which is owned by some of his New Brunswick friends.

Killed At Oil Well.

Petrolea, Ont., June 28.—Henry Garrison, in charge of Mr. Wm. English's oil wells at Osborne, about six miles from here, got tangled up in the machinery on Wednesday, and before assistance arrived he received fearful injuries, having one leg broken in three places, and one heel torn off, besides other injuries. He lived for a few hours in terrible agony and expired at two yesterday morning. He was married and leaves a widow and family.

Refuses to Resign.

Brantford, June 28.—Magistrate Woodyatt has written the Attorney-General stating that he does not feel called upon to comply with the request for his resignation.

The trustees of the B.M.E. church at Windsor will retain the services of Rev. O. H. McGowan, who has been expelled from the conference.

INTERESTING LETTER

WRITTEN BY A NOTABLE WOMAN

Mrs. Sarah Kellog of Denver, Color Bearer of the Woman's Relief Corps, Sends thanks to Mrs. Pinkham.

Mrs. Sarah Kellogg

The following letter was written by Mrs. Kellogg, of 1628 Lincoln Ave., Denver, Colo., to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.:

Dear Mrs Pinkham:—"For five years I was troubled with a tumor which kept growing, causing me intense agony, and great mental depression. I was unable to attend to my house work, and life became a burden to me. I was confined for days to my bed, lost my appetite, my courage and all hope.

"I could not bear to think of an operation, and in my distress I tried every remedy which I thought would be of any use to me, and reading of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to sick women decided to give it a trial. I felt so discouraged that I had little hope of recovery, and when I began to feel better, after the second week, thought it only meant temporary relief; but to my great surprise I found that I kept gaining, while the tumor lessened in size.

"The Compound continued to build up my general health and the tumor seemed to be absorbed, until, in seven months, the tumor was entirely gone and I a well woman. I am so thankful for my recovery that I ask you to publish my letter in newspapers, so other women may know of the wonderful curative powers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful periods, weakness, displacements or ulceration of the female organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such trouble.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female trouble.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty five years under her direction and since her decease has been advising sick women free of charge. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing women, and don't allow any druggist to sell you anything else in its place.

LOVING TRIAL NEAR END.

Judge Sustains the Defence in an Important Point.

Houston, Va., June 28.—Taking evidence in the trial of ex-Judge Loving in the Circuit Court of Halifax County for the murder of young Theodore Estes in Nelson County last April 22 was concluded late yesterday. The court then adjourned till this morning, when the instructions to be given to the jury will be argued before Judge Barksdale.

Yesterday saw one important turning point in the case. Judge Barksdale rendered an opinion concerning the admissability of certain evidence, dealing a heavy blow to the plans of the prosecution.

Attorney Daniel Harmon, for the prosecution, announced that he would have witnesses show that the story told by Miss Elizabeth Loving to her father, that she was drugged and assaulted by Estes, was a falsification.

The defence objected on the ground that such evidence had no bearing on the case, and had nothing to do with the question of Loving's mental state at the time of the tragedy. The judge sustained the defence, and among the cases he cited as authority was the Thaw case in New York.

TELLS STARTLING STORY.

Sensational Charges Made by the Cook of Steamer Crystal Stream.

St. John, N. B., June 28.—There is considerable excitement here regarding the burning of the steamer Crystal Stream, in which four men lost their lives. At the enquiry things took a sensational turn when the cook, Mrs. Coleman, gave evidence pointing to Capt. Perry, of the steamer Aberdeen, as the incendiary.

The two steamers are rivals in one section of the river and there has been bad feeling between the crews for some time. It was stated that the Crystal Stream people agreed not to compete with the Aberdeen this summer, and when the agreement was broken Capt. Perry, it is alleged, promised to get even.

At the enquiry Mrs. Coleman swore that Capt. Perry declared he would have revenge if it took ten years. She also swore that on running to the deck, after discovering the fire, she saw Capt. Perry running across the wharf in his bare feet. This statement is vigorously denied by Capt. Perry.

CUT TO PIECES ON TRACK.

Young Englishman Run Down by Locomotive at Brockville.

Brockville, June 28.—A young Englishman named Witt, who came to Canada a few weeks ago, was killed directly in front of the station here on Wednesday night by a light engine. Witt was employed as fireman on the Grand Trunk between Brockville and Montreal. He was crossing the tracks in company with Car Inspector Hannah, and both men failed to notice the approach of the engine of No. 5 passenger train, which was backing towards her train. Witt was literally cut to pieces and death was instantaneous. His companion was picked up unconscious, but, aside from the shock, does not appear to have sustained injury. An inquest will be held.

LAND FOR IRISH TENANTS.

Birrell Pleads That Commons Pass Evicted Tenants Bill.

London, June 28.—Mr. Birrell, Chief Secretary for Ireland, in introducing the evicted tenants bill in the House of Commons yesterday, said:

"Rain is falling pitilessly in the west of Ireland, the turf is rotting and the seaweed used as manure is as wet as when taken from the sea.

"Such a measure as this will be taken by that population as a token of good feeling.

"It will do much to bind up many a well-nigh broken heart, and in some measure staunch bleeding wounds.

"There are two thousand tenants to be reinstated, and the Government wants to make a clean job of it and must acquire land compulsorily."

CANADIANS ENTERTAINED.

Laurier, Fielding and Brodeur Dine With Fallieres.

Paris, June 28.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Premier; W. S. Fielding, the Minister of Finance; and L. P. Brodeur, the Minister of Marine, of Canada, who have returned here from their trip to Italy, were entertained at lunch by President Fallieres at the Elysee Palace, yesterday.

Decorations For Canadians.

Baronetcy, Col. Ivor Herbert, ex-local major-general of Canada.

Knight Commander, Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick.

Knight Bachelor, William Mortimer Clark, F. C. S. Langelier, Robt. Gillespie Reid (in recognition of his services to Newfoundland)

Royal Victoria Order of Knight Commanders, Earl Dundonald, Sir T. G. Shaughnessy.

On Trail of Stolen Cup.

New York, June 28.—Three Scotland Yard detectives arrived on the Oceanic. They refused to talk of their errand except to say that they were going to the British consulate as soon as possible.

A rumor that gained ground on the steamer was that they sought the recently stolen Ascot Cup.

Revolutionist Forced Out.

St. Petersburg, June 28.—The Emperor has accepted the resignation of Charles Von Schwanebach, the comptroller of the empire, and leader of the reactionary wing of the Cabinet in the campaign for the dissolution of the Douma.

Closing Exercises of the Conservatory of Music

The splendid work the Peterborough Conservatory of Music is doing in promoting musical culture in this city, was demonstrated to the public last night, when the annual closing exercises of this well known institution was held in the Grand Opera House. Despite various other attractions there was a large audience, to many of whom the correct and artistic work of those presenting the programme came as somewhat of a surprise. There are many who are not cognizant of the excellent work that is being done by the Conservatory in making numerous residents of the city and District, especially young people, proficient in the art of music. The citizens of Peterborough should be proud that such an institution flourishes here, an institution where a thorough musical education may be obtained amid surroundings that tend to promote the artistic temperament and develop the love for the aesthetic. Mr. Giddon and his staff of capable and accomplished instructors deserve credit for the work they are doing and for their efforts to conscientiously fulfil their obligations.

But to get back to the closing exercises. The programme was one that could not fail to delight the lover of good music, music given to the world by the old masters, and which never dies. Considering the fact that many of those taking part are only comparatively young pupils in music, and some of them young in years, too, the programme was of extraordinary merit, and the way the way the most difficult selections were given was indeed something worthy of more than passing mention. The programme commenced shortly after eight o'clock and was over at 10.30, just about the proper length for this season of the year. However, everyone was so well pleased that they would willingly have remained longer to enjoy the musical feast.

The Conservatory orchestra, consisting of over twenty pieces, took an important part in the programme and scored a distinct triumph. No one knows how good the orchestra is until it is heard, and then no doubt he or she is surprised to find that such an excellent organization of this nature exists in Peterborough. The orchestra is conducted by Mr Giddon, and he has spared no time and detail to bring it up to standard of efficiency. It is good in all departments, but if there is any section that excels, it is the violins. These were heard to great advantage last night, and it was plainly discernible that every violinist in the orchestra knows the instrument and how to use it with more than ordinary ability. The reeds and brass were also good, the latter, especially in the Pilgrim Chorus from Lombardi. Every member of the orchestra is a skilled musician, and the way they have been trained together by Mr. Giddon enables them to perform with great harmony and artistic finish.

The piano solos and duets were given with exceptional brilliancy, and were received with enraptured applause. Little Miss Gladys Seward again demonstrated her ability as a pianist, and was given a warm reception. Misses Florence Bell, Edith Aymer, Grace Taft and Irene Philip, also drew forth sweet melody from the piano, all playing with rare skill and extraordinary sympathetic interpretation.

The vocal numbers were contributed by Miss Ruth Dawson and Ida Sanderson, and Mr. Hague Sawers. Mr Sawers had a difficult selection, but sang it with much cleverness. He has a fine voice and has been receiving careful training. Miss Dawson and Miss Sanderson both were enthusiastically received and their vocalism was worthy of the audience's deep appreciation. The Madrigal Club only appeared on the programme once, but judging from the applause that greeted their selection, the audience would have liked to have heard them many times more. Their's was one of the most pleasing numbers on the programme. The club is a credit to the Conservatory.

Miss Julia Choate furnished the only violin solo of the evening, and without disparagement to other parts of the programme, it may be said that it was the most popular selection of the closing exercises. Miss Choate is a talented violinist, and is constantly improving. She plays gracefully and without the strained effect that rather often mars the work of young students on the violin. After the rendition of her selection last night the audience was persistent in demanding an encore, and the young artist had to bow her acknowledgments several times. She was also the recipient of a pretty bouquet.

The complete programme was as follows:—

March, White Squadron, Moges Toban—Conservatory Orchestra.

Reminiscences of Balfe—Conservatory Orchestra.

Sonata, Op. 10, Beethoven—Gladys Seward.

Air with Variations, Handel—Miss Florence Bell.

Musketeer of Tarragona, Henrion—Mr. Hague Sawers.

Sonata in A, Mozart—Miss Edyth Aymer.

Miserere from Trovatore—Orchestra.

Pilgrim Chorus from Lombardi, Verdi—Orchestra.

Selection—Mandolin Club.

Solo, "Awake," Pelissier—Ruth Dawson.

Cant que D'Amour, Liszt — Irene Philip.

Suite for Two Pianos, Op. 15, Romance Valse, Polonaise—Irene Philip and Gladys Seward.

Under the Double Eagle, Wagner—Orchestra.

God Save the King.

Miss Seward, Miss Taft and Miss Philip are pupils of Mrs. Collins (nee Miss Alice Roger); Miss Bell and Miss Aymer, of Miss Laura Newman; Miss Choate, of Miss Adamson, and Mr. Sawers, of Mr. Van der Water. Teachers and pupils alike deserve credit for what has been accomplished, and no doubt, they can look back over the past season's work with deep satisfaction.

The accompanist of the evening was Miss Sisson, whose excellent work at the programme added greatly to the success of the exercises. Miss Sisson is a clever pianist and makes a clever accompanist.

The piano used during the evening was a Gerhard Heintzman.

The Sensation of the "Silly Season"

Put Your Ear to the Ground and Hear This Political Rumble

All are aware full well of the ways of the boomer and the boomerang. We are often approached in the kindly, friendly way of "the press agent," the modern device of the "machine" age, and the last word in advertising. But the subjoined extract seems to beat them all. It has them all knocked cold—even silly. As for the boom—well. But look out for the boomerang. Gee! It is intended for Mr. R. R. Hall, at present M.P. for this riding. Who inspired it? Is Mr. Stratton a really serious factor in politics just now? For hot, dog day sensations the following from the Millbrook Reporter has them all beat a mile:—

Rumors are afloat that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will reconstruct his Cabinet on his return from England, with a view to strengthening the Ontario wing. We have no mandate to speak for the Liberals of Ontario, but we do say this, that Hon. J. R. Stratton is the strongest and safest man he can select. Mr. Stratton is a shrewd, optimistic and progressive statesman and can convince and advise with a view to results. He saw the Ross Government going down and got out, and although he was "called names," he was the shrewdest and ablest man of the bunch in Queen's Park. He don't parade any self righteousness, but he's true to everybody and plays the game fair. If Sir Wilfrid is looking for the man par excellence to lead the Ontario section, Hon. J. R. Stratton, we say advisedly, is the only man from Ontario who can fill the bill, and more than that, he's a strong and able public man who cannot be hid under a bushel.

Presentation to Miss Cochrane

By St. Luke's Sunday School on Eve of Departure for Galt

Miss Eva Cochrane, who has been a faithful teacher in St. Luke's Sunday School for a number of years is leaving for Galt to pursue a course as trained nurse in the hospital there.

Last evening she was waited upon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Maniece, Mark street, and presented with an appreciative address, accompanied by a medical dictionary and a ladies' travelling bag. Mr. T. H. Adams made the presentation.

Many friends will join in wishing Miss Cochrane every success in Galt.

Ashburnham, June 27, 1907.

Miss Eva Cochrane.—

Dear friend.—On the occasion of your leaving Peterborough, we desire to place on record our appreciation of your faithful services rendered as teacher in St. Luke's Sunday school. In your capacity as teacher you have won the esteem of your scholars and the affectionate regard of your fellow teachers.

We part with you very reluctantly but we feel that the profession of nursing the sick, which you have chosen to be your future work, will open to excellent qualities of heart and mind, great opportunities for employing your talents, which, to our mind, singularly fit you for this work.

As a token of our warm regards we ask you to accept the accompanying gift, which we hope will ever keep alive the pleasant intercourse and co-operation in church work, which united us with you during the last five years.

We remain,

On behalf of the officers and the teachers of St. Luke's Sunday school

Very sincerely yours,

E. A. LANGFELDT, M.A., Rector,

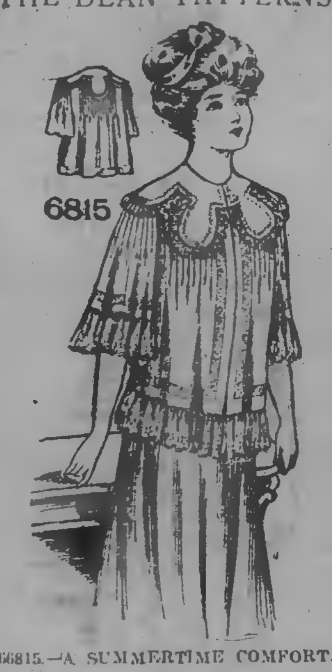
DAVID SPENCE, Superintendent.

T. H. ADAMS, Secretary-Treasurer

Circus Had Real Fire to Fight

Kingston, June 27.—The fire-fighters of Forepaugh and Sells circus had a real good practice yesterday forenoon as soon as they returned from the parade. The fence and the stalls in front of the fair grounds, where the circus tents are placed caught fire and with a heavy north westerly wind made it dangerous for the dwellers under canvas. The city brigade was augmented by the circus brigade and they stoutly fought the flames. The stalls were badly damaged. The loss is $2,000.

THE DEAN PATTERNS



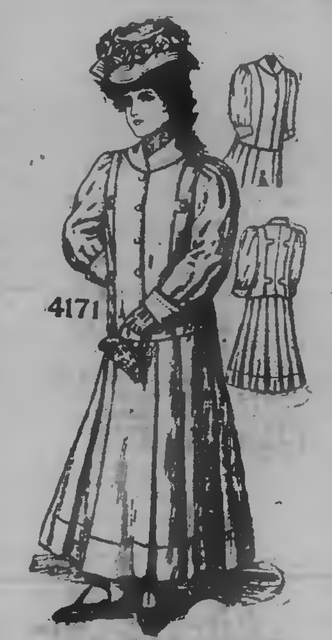
66815.—A SUMMERTIME COMFORT.

The heat of summer days is often rendered less oppressive by the donning of some light and dainty negligee and every woman and girl provides herself with several before this time arrives. A very dainty one is shown in flowered dimity with collar of plain material for contrast. The sack and sleeves are laid in narrow tucks at the top and the result is most pleasing. The closing is effected in front and may be elaborated with ribbon bows or pretty buttons. For home making this is excellent in style as it is a bit unusual and therefore more valued. The thin silks and washing fabrics may any of them be used successfully in its realization. For the medium size 3 5 8 yards of 36 inch material are needed.

66815.—Sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

Leave your order and 10c at the REVIEW OFFICE and pattern will be sent you by mail.

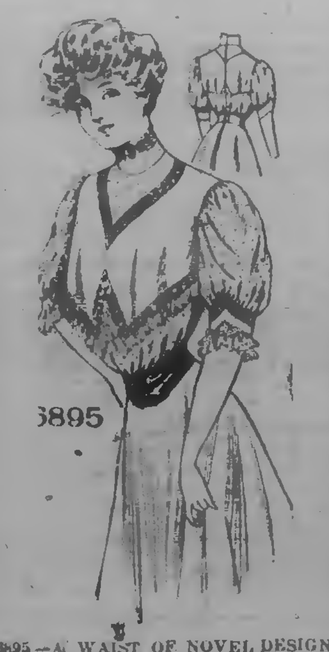


4171.—AN ATTRACTIVE STYLE FOR LINEN.

The semi-fitting coats are specially pleasing upon young girls and as Dame Fashion considers them par excellence no better mode can be chosen. This coat suit shown is one of the smart new models, buttoning in single-breasted fashion and ending below the hip. The trig rolling collar and cuffs are shown in a darker linen, the buttons being covered with the same. The skirt is a seven-gored one with the fulness laid in box plaits and stitched flat over the hips. This insures a trimness about the top and and full ripple at the hem. The suit may be made without difficulty and may be developed in any of the seasonable materials. For the medium size 4 7 8 yards of 36 inch material are needed.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

Leave your order and ten cents at the REVIEW OFFICE and pattern will be sent you by mail.



6895.—A WAIST OF NOVEL DESIGN

The fusion of trimming cloth or silk with lace has been reversed and now it is lace which forms the body of the prettiest waists and the material adorns it. Here is a waist showing the style very prettily, the waist proper being of figured net and the bolero of silk. The waist is very unique in style and wonderfully fetching. Long and short sleeves are provided for, the latter being the more attractive because of the natty little cuff band which finish them.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Steady—American Markets Are About Unchanged.

LONDON, June 27.—Liverpool and London cables are steady at 12c to 13c per lb., dressed weight; refrigerator beef is quoted at 9c to 9½c per lb.

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, June 27.—Receipts of live stock at the city market since last Tuesday, as reported by the railways, were 84 carloads, consisting of 876 cattle, 1537 hogs, 1158 sheep and lambs, with 350 calves.

No straight loads were on sale and only a few odd cattle picked from amongst the butchers' loads. Good to choice cattle for export would be worth around $6 and perhaps $6.25.

George Rountree bought 7 loads of butchers' cattle for the Harris Abattoir Company, and reported prices as follows: Best butchers, $4.70 to $5.40; good cows and mixed loads, $4 to $4.50; fair grass cows, $3.35 to $3.70; common to medium cows, $2.65 to $3 per cwt.

Milkers and springers are selling at lower prices, especially light common to medium cows, which are in poor demand, altho there is always an outlet for choice quality cows. Best cows sold from $45 to $55, mediums were slow at $30 to $40, and poor cows sold down to $20 and $25 each. Two or three extra choice sold up at $60 and one was reported at $75.

Considering the large number of calves offered, the market held fairly steady. Bob calves sold at $3 per cwt.; common to medium calves, $4.50 to $5 per cwt.; good to choice, $5.50 to $6.50 per cwt., and a prime new milk-fed calf would sell at $7 per cwt.

Export ewes sold at $5 to $5.25 per cwt.; prime quality light yearling ewes for butcher purposes are worth $6 per cwt., and sold at that; lambs sold from $8 to $9 per cwt., or $4 to $6 each for the bulk.

Mr. Harris reports the hog market weak at unchanged quotations. Selects, $6.75 per cwt.; lights and fats at $6.50 per cwt. Prospects are for lower quotations for the coming week.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, June 27.—Cattle — Receipts, 100 head; quiet; prime steers, $6.25 to $6.75.

Veals—Receipts, 100 head; active and 25c higher; $5.00 to $7.75.

Hogs—Receipts, 2600 head; active and steady; heavy, $6.10 to $6.40; roughs, $5 to $5.40.

Sheep and Lambs—Active and steady; unchanged.

New York Live Stock.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Beeves — Receipts, 2116. Nothing doing to-day; feeling dull, except for good dry-fed steers. Exports, 4350 quarters of beef.

Calves—Receipts, 349. Demand fair; prices no more than steady; veals, $5.00 to $7.80; buttermilks, $3.50 to $4.25.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 5942. Sheep steady; lambs opened weak to 25c lower; closed 35c to 50c off; sheep, $3.50 to $5, few head $5.25; lambs, $6.75 to $7.75, two cars choice, $8.

Hogs—Receipts, 1350. Feeling firm on Buffalo advices. No sales reported.

Chicago Live Stock.

CHICAGO, June 27.—Cattle—Receipts, about 5000; market steady, but slow; common to prime steers, $4.60 to $7; cows, $3.25 to $4.75; heifers, $3 to $5; bulls, $3.40 to $5; calves, $3 to $6.50; stockers and feeders, $3 to $5.

Hogs—Receipts, about 18,000; market steady; good to prime heavy, $5.90 to $5.95; medium to good heavy, $5.80 to $5.90; butchers' weights, $5.95 to $6; good to prime mixed, $5.90 to $5.95; light mixed, $5.95 to $6.05; packing, $5.25 to $5.85; pigs, $5.50 to $6.05; selected, $6 to $6.12½; bulk of sales, $5.90 to $5.95.

Sheep — Receipts, about 9000; market weak; sheep, $4 to $6.25; yearlings, $5.50 to $6.50; lambs, $5.75 to $7.75.

Cheese Markets.

KINGSTON, Ont., June 27.—The regular meeting of the cheese board was held at 10 o'clock this morning, when 797 white and 645 colored cheese was boarded. Gibson secured white at 11⅛c, and Alexander the colored at 11 1-16c. Prices slightly lower than last week by ⅛c on white and 3-16c on colored.

KINGSTON, June 27.—At the Frontenac cheese board there were 1282 boxes boarded; 1080 boxes sold at 11 1-16c.

MADOC, Ont., June 27.—Eight hundred and sixty boxes cheese offered; 850 sold 11 1-16c.

PERTH, Ont., June 27.—There were 2080 boxes cheese boarded here to-day, 1880 white and 200 colored. All were sold subject to Brockville ruling prices. Buyers present were: Bissell, Webster, Patton, McVeigh and Murphy. The meeting was held here to-day instead of Friday on account of some of the buyers wishing to be in Brockville to-morrow.

Triple Hanging.

Jefferson City, June 28.—Harry Vaughan, Edward Raymond and Geo. Ryan were hanged together yesterday for the killing of Prison Guard John Clay during a concerted attempt to escape from penitentiary.

Samuel Gladhill found on the M. C. R. tracks near Bridgeburg with his legs crushed, is dead at Niagara Falls.

Lewis Again For West Huron.

Dungannon, June 28.—An enthusiastic convention of West Huron Conservatives was held yesterday and unanimously selected E. N. Lewis, M.P., for another term.

Dr. Chisholm, M.P. for East Huron, in a capital speech said that the French-Canadian people were getting tired of so much scandal, and with the lower provinces would do well at the next election.

The following were nominated, but retired: Robert McLean, Goderich; David Cantelon, Clinton; Matthew Lockhart, Auburn, and John Cox, Porters' Hill.

WEDDING BELLS

McINTYRE—GILLESPIE

Mr. John McIntyre, jr., of Otonabee, was united in marriage on Wednesday to Miss Jean Gillespie, daughter of Mrs. Peter Gillespie, Villiers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. D. McDonald, of Keene, in the presence of only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was dressed in a pretty costume of white silk and was unattended. The maid of honor was Miss Florence Hutchison. After the ceremony the customary wedding supper was served. Many beautiful and costly presents were received, testifying to the high esteem in which the young couple are held among many friends. Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre will reside in Otonabee.

GARVEY—BOLAND

Norwood, June 26.—A wedding of great interest was solemnized here on Tuesday morning in St. Paul's church, when Miss Mary Agnes Boland, became the wife of Mr. David Garvey. Rev. Father Conway performed the ceremony. The bride attended by Miss Annie Lonergan, was becomingly attired in cream crepe de chene, and was given away by her brother, Mr. John Boland. Mr. Thomas Boland ably supported the groom. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding repast was partaken of at the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Garvey have the best wishes of a host of friends, for a long married life. They will reside in Asphodel.

NORTHEY—PRESTON

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Preston, Smith township, on Wednesday evening, when their neice Miss Mary Northey, was united in marriage to Mr. Aldus Austin Northey, of the same township. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, was gowned in cream crepe de chene with berthe of cream lace, and wore a wreath of orange blossoms in her hair. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and maiden-hair ferns. The bridesmaid Miss Edna Northey, sister of the bride, wore white organdie, prettily tucked and trimmed with lace, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Little Miss Bertha Preston, cousin of the bride, made an admirable flower girl, prettily dressed in white organdie over pink, and carried a basket of roses and smilax, in which the wedding ring reposed. Mr. Gordon Fitzgerald acted as groomsman. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. S. Sutherland Burns, B.A., pastor of the Lakefield Presbyterian church, took place in the drawing room which had been prettily decorated with ferns and cut flowers, and was witnessed by only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Northey and at the close of the ceremony Miss May Northey, of Peterborough, sang very sweetly "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden." After congratulations and good wishes had been offered the young couple, the guests to the number of about 60, partook of a delicious wedding supper served in the spacious dining room. The many useful and handsome gifts of which the bride was the recipient testify in a very substantial manner of the high esteem and love in which the bride and groom are held by their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Northey will reside in North Smith.

MARLING—LeFEVRE

The interesting event of the week in Lakefield was the marriage on Wednesday last at St. John's church, in that village, of Miss Helen LeFevre, eldest daughter of Mr. H. J. LeFevre, of "Uplands", Lakefield, to Mr T. W. B. Marling, of Toronto. The ceremony took place at two o'clock, the officiating clergyman being Rev. W. J. Creighton, incumbent of the parish. The bride, in the unavoidable absence in England, of her father, was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Evans Atwood, of Peterborough. She was most becomingly attired in white silk and wore a beautiful Brussels lace veil, an heirloom of the bridegroom's family, also a diamond brooch and bracelet, which had belonged to her mother. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy Hilliard, a cousin of the bride, looked charming in a gown of white and pink organdie, with white lace hat trimmed with pink roses. She wore a pearl crescent, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of "American Beauties." The groom was ably supported by Mr. Rupert Taylor, of Toronto. The church, which had been beautifully decorated by the ladies of the Chancel Guild, an organization to which the bride belonged for many years, was well filled with the friends and relatives of the happy couple. The bride's travelling costume was a coat and skirt of rajah silk, with lace blouse, and burnt straw hat. A pleasant and quite informal reception was held at "Uplands" after the ceremony, which was largely attended. Among those present from a distance were Mrs. Du Vernet, Miss Marling and Miss Edith Marling, of Toronto, and Mrs Henry, of Lachine. Mrs. Barlee, the great-aunt of the bride, was also present. Very many presents were received by the bride and bridegroom, a convincing testimony to the wide-spread affection and esteem in which they are held. The happy pair, after a short trip to western points, intend spending the summer at Stony Lake.

Council Turned Down School Board

Refused to Grant $4000 to Havelock Board of Education

Havelock, June 28—At a meeting of the town council on Monday night a requisition was received from the School Board asking for the sum of $4,000, with which to build an addition to the school and to improve the present building.

Our city fathers, however, did not feel justified in granting the request of the Board without the consent of the ratepayers, and a bylaw will be submitted to the people for their approval or rejection. Another thing that influenced the council in their view of the matter, was the fact of a large number ofrate-the fact of a large number of ratepayers wanting an entirely new school erected.

Another despatch says:

The School Board met on Monday night and instructed Chairman Mathison to go to Peterborough this week and have architect Blackwell finish up the plans for the addition to the school. The cost of the proposed addition is estimated at $4,000 for which sum the Board have made a requisition on the town council.

The ladies on the teaching staff of the school have all applied for their positions for the next year, and it is altogether likely that they will be re-engaged.

NEW APPOINTMENTS.

Mr. W. H. Hill, chairman of the committee on appointments, reported the following:—

Your Committee on Appointments beg leave to report and recommend as follows:

1. As instructed your committee advertised for applications for the position of principal of the King Edward school. For this position we received thirty-seven applications. Six from university graduates, twenty-three from teachers holding first class professional certificates, and eight from teachers with professional second class certificates.

2. Your committee after carefully considering these applications, recommend that Mr. W. J. Dunlop, of Tavistock, be appointed to the position at the minimum salary of $1,000, according to schedule. Mr. Dunlop is highly recommended and has been a very successful teacher. He is the holder of a first class professional certificate and has also had university training.

3. For the position of lady assistant there have been received fifty-one applications. Your committee recommend that Miss Dollie Morley, of Chesley, who is the holder of a first class certificate, be appointed to the position at the minimum of $400, duties in each case to start on the first of September, 1907.

4. Your committee recommend that clause nine of the salary schedule passed by this board on March 11th, 1907, be amended by adding "That each teacher re-engaged for the ensuing year, who has taught one year or over, receive at least $50 over present salary.

SALARIES OF PUBLIC TEACHERS.

The teachers re-engaged for the school year 1907-08 and their salaries are:—

William Smith $1050.
H. A. Yenney, $1050.
W. H. Walkey, $850,
J. C. Smyth, $780.
J. W. Kelley, $850.
Jas. McCreary, $850.

Miss Ross, $450.
Miss Stubbs, $400.
Miss Burns, $450.
Miss Lightfoot, $450.
Miss Rannie, $450.
Miss Watt, $450
Miss Hallett, $400.
Miss Martin, $400.
Miss Rush, $400.

NEW HEATING APPARATUS.

The question of remodelling the heating apparatus of the West Ward school was discussed at length during which Mr. Pringle advised the disposal of the property as it was the most unsightly one in the city, situated in the best resident location, and that another site be secured and a new building located thereon.

Mr. Dumble did not think it advisable to have another school built for a few years to come and considered that if some repairs were made the school would be satisfactory.

It was decided to leave that matter in the hands of the Property committee with power to act.

CLOSING BUSINESS.

The advertising of tenders for wood and coal was also left to the Property committee.

It was moved by Mr. Pringle, and seconded by Mr. Robinson, that the taking over of the new King Edward school be left in the hands of the Building committee.

Contractors Sheehy and Langford on the new Collegiate were reported to have been given their first payment in the report of Dr. Morrison's, chairman of the Building committee.

The Board then adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

Sun Spots Gone But May Be Visible Again Shortly

The big spots which have been defacing the countenance of Old Sol for the past couple of weeks have disappeared and the sun is again in its normal condition. The spots disappeared on Wednesday but whether they are gone for good or not is not exactly known. This morning the Review called up Rev. Dr. Marsh of Springville, and ascertained that the sun spots were gone. They are likely still on the sun, but the revoluting of the solar body on its axis has caused that portion of the sun upon which the spots were situated to be turned in another direction from the earth and consequently the spots cannot be seen any longer. The sun makes a complete revolution on its axis every twenty-seven days, therefore, if the spots do not disappear while the portion of the sun upon which they are located is turned away from the earth, they will be visible again in about fourteen days. Dr. Marsh's opinion is that the markings will again be visible in two weeks.

Bright Comet is Sighted Drawing Near to the Sun

Ottawa, June 28th.—The brightest comet seen in four years has just come to the notice of Mr. J. S. Plaskett, who has charge of the big telescope at the Dominion Observatory. The wandering member of the solar system is approaching the sun and is daily growing more brillliant. At present the comet can be seen through an opera glass in the early morning, towards the south east, and in a few weeks will probably be visible to the naked eye. The object can easily be distinguished from a star on account of its haziness and larger diameter. Any person expecting to see the body with a long fiery tail will be disappointed because this popular notion of a comet is rarely realized. The comet will increase in brightness till September when it will be nearest the sun. During this time the curious planet will be the object of daily observation by Mr. Plaskett.

Rev. Dr. Marsh of Springville, when asked by the Review today, stated that he had not yet observed the comet, but that if Mr. Plaskett said it was there, it was correct, as Mr. Plaskett was thoroughly reliable. He was one of the members of the party that went to Labrador to view the eclipse of the sun in 1905, of which expedition Dr. Marsh was also a member.

When Dr. Marsh was informed of the existence of the comet he communicated with Ottawa and ascertained its position in the heavens. In astronomical terms its position is as follows,—declination, plus 4 degrees 26 mins.; right ascension, 0 hours, 48 mins. To put it in ordinary language the position of the comet is 50 degrees 9 mins. above the equator, the elevation of which at Peterborough is 45 degrees, 43 mins.

Dr. Marsh expects to see the comet tomorrow morning.

Boys Must be Going Fishing

That the holiday season for the school children is at hand, was amply evidenced last night. Everywhere one looked, in the parks, by the road-side, in fact every place where there was a patch of sod, could be seen boys with lanterns, hunting for fish worms. Half the boys in the city must be going fishing today, judging from the number who were out looking for bait. Free from the cares of school life, the boys can fish as much as they please, and are apparently going to make good use of their time.

Several People Lost Their Cash

It is said that another pick pocket is operating around the city. It was learned today that several had lost money and that the man had been arrested. Upon enquiry at the police station, the officers neither confirmed nor denied the report. One of them did not think there was much in it. People should learn a lesson from those who were robbed on circus day and not go about the streets with large sums of money. Evidently had there been another smooth fellow around the police would have got him and most likely the rumor is nothing more than a hallucination on the part of the informant.

Composite Cos. Home From Camp

Three Days at Barriefield Camp Was Very Beneficial

Bronzed by their three days' drilling under a hot June sun, the two composite companies of the 57th Regiment, arrived home from Barriefield camp, Kingston, about three o'clock this afternoon. Headed by the bugle band, the red-coats swung up George street in fine military style and were admired by many citizens. Major Clegg was in command with Captain Mills and Lieuts. Hodgson and Merritt in charge of one company and Captain McWilliams, and Lieut. Best in charge of the other. The Peterborough boys reached Kingston early Tuesday afternoon and broke camp this morning. The composite regiment was composed of the two Peterborough companies, and two from the 15th Regiment, Belleville. The 57th companies being considerably stronger than those from Belleville, they were formed into three companies, thereby giving a five-company regiment. Major Clegg was in command, with Capt. Bennett, adjutant; Capt. MacLean, quartermaster; and Major (Canon) Davidson, chaplain. Some splendid work was done during the three days in camp and everyone who went along reports having had a splendid time. There was plenty of work but then there was considerable recreation. The composite company was attached to the Seventh Brigade, of which Col. E. B. Edwards was brigadier.

Officers and men are well pleased with the Kingston trip and will be glad to go back again next year.

Advance Party Off to St. Kitts.

The advance guard of the 57th regiment left for St. Catharines in charge of Capt. Eastwood, quartermaster of the regiment. They will have the tents up and everything ready for the regiment when it arrives there Sunday morning. The advance guard was composed as follows, — Quartermaster-Sergeant Edwards, Staff-Capt. Sharpe, Color-Sergt. Kingscote, Corp. C. Mitchell, Privates Webb, Morency, Cook, McCormick, and four civilians, W. Sherwood, J. Williams, F. Hayes, and Chas. Hayes.

SAD SUICIDE AT KIRKFIELD

Peter Graham's Body Found Hanging From Beam in Barn

The body of Peter Graham, of the 11th con. of Eldon, near Kirkfield was found hanging from a purline brace, with a logging chain around the neck on Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. His brother, Duncan, discovered the body hanging limp from the beam, but as it was high above his head, and no ladder being available, he was unable to do anything until he had summoned help from the house, over half a mile distant.

Coroner Dr. Wood, of Lindsay, was notified by telephone and immediately left for the place. He found that death had resulted from the neck being broken, and, as the conditions pointed to suicide, decided that an inquest was unnecessary, the rash deed having evidently been committed during an attack of temporary insanity.

The details of the melancholy affair are meagre as yet. The victim was a bachelor and about 60 years old. Two brothers and a sister, all well up in years, survive the deceased.

Confirmation at the Cathedral

190 Candidates Will Receive Their First Communion on Sunday

At St. Peter's Cathedral on Sunday morning 190 candidates will receive their first communion, after which the rite of confirmation will be administered by His Lordship Bishop O'Connor.

The ceremony will take place at the nine o'clock mass.

GOOD FISHING

There has been good fishing in the river this year, owing no doubt, to the energetic efforts of the Fishery Overseer, assisted by the Fish and Game Association, in protecting the waters. Mr. George Scott informed us that on one day the maskinonge which came under his personal notice caught in Crow Bay, numbered 55. We may thank the Overseer and the local branch of the Fish and Game Association for the present condition of the river as a fishing ground.—Campbellford Herald.

OUR MEAT SUPPLY

Lady Thinks That It is Rather Carelessly Handled by Butchers.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I desire to call attention to the careless and apparently unclean way in which some butchers appear to bring their supply of meat from the slaughter house into the city. I was out driving yesterday, when I saw a load of beef on a dray. Over it was an old dirty cloth, and the driver was sitting on a quarter of the carcass, with nothing between him and the meat. Another man was lying on top of the soiled cover in his shirt sleeves. The spectacle was anything but inviting, and I wonder if all the meat merchants are so careless and slovanly. I hope my butcher is not. Too much cleanliness and carefulness cannot be exercised in handling beef in the warm weather.

Yours,
A LADY PATRON.

GOING SOME IN THE COUNTRY

How a Rural Correspondent Sizes up the Situation

This is how the Rimington correspondent of the Madoc Review sizes up the situation,—"One must be truly thankful and unreserved in his praise of this marvellous, transient change produced by a most wise and beneficent nature, to see the mantles of purest green with which the trees have clothed themselves, and to smile at this reserved yet presumptuous pride, with which the flowers lift their innocent, pretty faces to be kissed by the evening dews, or painted by the early morning sun. How delightful is it to recline in a front verandah in the mellowed light of the moonbeams, to breath the perfumed breeze carrying the drowsy dronings of the apiary, resting from their predatory expeditions of spolition, and happy in the redolent smell of the honey; and how inspiring to feel one's heart beating in delicate synchronism with the pulsations of another's and to hear the whispered words of hope and devotion; truly, "What is so rare as a night in June?" What think you Mr. E?"

OBLIGING OFFICIALS.

The officials of the local branch of the G.T.R. are said to be the most accommodating on the system. While the train was going to Lakefield from Peterborough on Tuesday evening it stopped long enough to allow a farmer, who lived near the track, to alight, saving him about a three mile walk from Lakefield.

PUT FIRE OUT.

Mr. Robert Hootan, ex-reeve of Cavan, had a narrow escape with his barn during Saturday's storm. lightning struck it and ran along the whole hundred feet, shattering posts and boards and ran to the stone wall and rent it like so much clay. Mr. Hootan who was in the house ran out and discovering fire in the stable succeeded with the help of his wife in extinguishing the flames. The wreck of the building is considerable, but the loss is fully covered by insurance.

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

New York, June 28.—At the opening the market was generally firm and in most cases above previous closing prices. Sentiment was cheerful and bulls of stocks claimed that important financial interests were encouraging the advance. The firm tone of the metal in London helped the copper stocks in early trading. A good deal of importance is attached to the city bond sale by the Street.

There is very little doubt that if the bonds are well subscribed the effect upon the market through an improving public sentiment will be considerable. After more than an hour's trading the market was quiet but firm and moderately active.

After 2 p.m. the market reacted rather sharply, carrying most issues back to the low of the day or slightly under. Profit-taking and selling in anticipation of a bad bank statement tomorrow was the reason given The closing was active and a trifle heavy.

Y.M.C.A. 26th Annual Meeting; Year's Work Very Successful

May Add Another Flat Over the Gymnasium to Use as Dormitories—Two Rooms to be Furnished on Second Floor—Membership Fees Have Been Raised—Reports Read and Adopted.

The 26th annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. in Peterborough was held in the Association's parlors last night, when a large number were present, especially of the workers on the various committees. President R. E. Harding presided and after the opening ceremonies, the routine business was proceeded with. Reports were received from all branches and all were very encouraging, except from the finance committee, which showed a deficit of several hundred dollars.

RAISE THE FEES.

The deficit reported by the finance committee brought forth considerable discussion, and it was decided that radical changes must be made in order to wipe out this overdraft at the end of each year. During the past ten years the expenditure has nearly doubled, while the membership fees, which is one of the main avenues of revenue, have remained the same. This will be changed and in future boys' tickets will be increased from $2.50 to $3.00, associate members tickets from $3.00 to $4.00 and full membership tickets from $5.00 to $6.00. This will make a substantial increase and will only be following the action of associations in nearly all other places.

ENLARGE DORMITORIES

It has also been decided to convert two of the rooms on the second floor, which heretofore have been used as class rooms into dormitories. This will give at least an increase of $300 per year. The association requires many more rooms for renting both to meet the demand, and to put it on more self-sustaining basis. A suggestion was made and seriously considered, to erect another flat over the gymnasium, to be used for this purpose. It would cost about $5,000 and would give the association a much larger income with which to carry on its work.

The date of the annual meeting has been changed and instead of the Association's year ending on May 31st, it will end on December 31st. The next annual meeting will therefore be held six months hence.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Before the election of officers, the secretary, Mr. G. H. Williamson, referred to the very deep interest the president, Mr. Harding, had taken in every branch of the association's work. He had been a regular attendant, and had made himself very popular with all the boys. He had also proved himself a very capable officer.

The old officers were all re-elected, and are as follows;

Pres., R. E. Harding.
1st Vice Pres., J. C. Shook.
2nd Vice Pres., R. J. Kidd.
Treasurer, J. J. Howden.

Directors, Messrs. G. M. Roger, B. F. Ackerman, R. J. Kidd, Jas. Connal and J. J. Howden, elected for three years. New directors, Messrs. J. F. Thornton and V. Eastwood.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE

We regret to have again to present a report showing a floating debt standing against the work.

Our membership fees were $700.00 less than the budget for the year asked for, while there was no special response in the subscriptions to speak of, beyond the regular annual contributions, leaving us about $700 short there also.

In addition to this the length of the past winter required a larger amount of fuel than was estimated, making that item much heavier than before.

We feel that the time has now arrived when the membership fees should be raised so as to yield a larger revenue from that source.

The expenses of the Association have increased by fifty per cent. during the past nine years, and yet the fees have remained the same. A number of Associations in the cities have increased the fees with no loss of membership and increased revenue. We note with pleasure the receipts from the dormitories. If more dormitories could be added they could be easily rented, and place the Association on a more sustaining basis.

The Association secured the services of Mr. W. R. Morris, Chartered Accountant, to act as auditor for the Association, the books being audited every quarter instead of every year, as formerly.

We trust that with the change of the Association year closed with December 31st instead of at the present time, will be productive of good results, and that on December 31st of this year we will see the work free of debt.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. E. DIXON,
Chairman Finance Committee

GENERAL SECRETARY'S REPORT

In presenting this the 26th annual report covering the work of the past year, the activities of the different departments have been placed before you by the chairmen of the respective committees.

The work during the year, like every other year, has had its encouraging and discouraging features, yet on the whole the work has been fairly well sustained.

The evangelistic work is a special cause for gratitude to God, and while some figures may be given, yet they do not begin to measure the work done or the results obtained.

The boys' work will require a boy secretary for the winter months at least, if the work is to be done commensurate with the opportunity.

The physical department had a good year, when due consideration is made for the lack of permanent leadership for the period preceding the coming of Mr. Dingman. This department should, however, attract and help a large number of men; the same might be said of the educational department.

The Bible study classes have been well sustained; the Saturday Bible Club has been the bright and uplifting feature of the week. The shop Bible class work was never more encouraging and as it is a layman's movement, it should be extended as capable teachers as can be secured.

The membership of the Association is 675, including sustaining, full, limited, intermediate and boy members.

Many transfers have been given to members who have left for other Associations, a most valued feature of Association membership.

The great event of the year was the very commendable action of the trustees of the Nicholls estate, who under the discretionary powers vested in them by the will of the late Mrs. Nicholls, deeded over to the Association the lot on the south side of the building thus ensuring space for extension of the work as the years go by.

The trustees of the estate at the same time, asked to be relieved of the trusteeship of the Association, and the trustees of the Association were appointed as follows,—Messrs. B. F. Ackerman, W. D. Scott, G. M. Roger, R. J. Kidd, and J. J. Howden.

We regret the condition of the finances are not better, and that they are not better is due to no lack of effort.

When we consider we hold a building free of debt, and with no heavy interest bill to carry as many associations have, our position should be easier. A deficit is, however, a heavy burden for any officers or associations to carry, and as we have so frequently stated, robs the work of its best degree of efficiency.

The Ladies' Auxiliary have shown the same solicitude for the welfare of the work as in the past and have had a most successful year, having a cash balance on hand of $72.00.

Before closing we wish to express our deep gratitude to all who have in any way contributed to help the work during the past year and to express my personal gratitude for the kind consideration I have received during my ten years of service in the association which was completed on May 12th, 1907.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. H. WILLIAMSON,
General Secretary.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

The committee on boys' work reported that the interest in the work was still very keen and good had been accomplished both morally and physically. The next conference for older boys in Ontario and Quebec will be held here next Easter. The boys want a gift of a few hundred dollars to build a pavilion at the camping grounds.

The report of the evangelistic work was indeed encouraging and the evangelistic band deserves great credit. Fifty-one men's meetings were held during the year with an average attendance of 42, and of 65 for the winter months. The total attendance was 2707.

The Social Bible Club was re-organized last October and it met on Tuesday evenings when a course of Bible Study was taken up. Once a month a social and literary evening was held and much pleasure was taken out of them. There were 16 members and the attendance was good. A banquet on May 14th closed the season.

The Bible Study Department is a most important branch of the work. There were classes for men and for boys and two shop classes. The total enrollment was 94, and 45 in the shop classes, making a total of 139, with a total attendance of 3314. There were 207 class sessions held.

The Saturday Evening Bible Study Class under the leadership of Mr. J. C. Shook, was well attended and very helpful.

A class of Personal Workers was held Sunday mornings early, with seventeen on the roll.

The report of the Foreign Work Committee drew attention to the need of greater efforts in this branch. It referred to Mr. Farquhar's visit here last winter and the good results of it. There are now seventy secretaries of Y.M.C.A.'s in foreign fields, supported by the associations of North America, and last year $190,000 was contributed for the work. The local society gave $30. The committee expects to increase this next year.

PHYSICAL WORK.

As is to be expected, physical work forms an important feature in the curriculum of the Association, and in view of this fact, the report of the physical department was one in which considerable interest was taken. It was presented by Mr. G. Galley, chairman of that committee, and stated that there were enrolled in the different classes of this department, 59 men and 95 boys, total of 154. Eleven of these were business men. During the year 74 class sessions were held in the men's classes and 153 in the boys' classes, with a total attendance of 3,142. Reference was made in the report to the basketball league. The field day, held by the Harriers' Club was also mentioned, and the Association was congratulated on its success.

EDUCATIONAL WORK

Mr. Richard Lees, in his report of the Educational Committee stated that the work of this department had been carried on with varying degrees of success, the attendance on the whole, in the evening classes being good, and the work done was excellent.

The report also referred to the Saturday night "Pops," of which there were seven. Special mention being made of the lecture by Mr. Frank Yeigh, and that of Rev. E. A. Langfeldt. The reading room of the Association proved very popular, the report stating that it was scarcely possible to ever find it vacant.

Wilfred Shingler presented the report of the Bible Study Department, which stated that seven study classes were conducted, with a total attendance of 3,314, the number of sessions of the different classes being 207.

In the Strangers' Fellowship Club report mention was made of the fact that 382 visitors' tickets were issued during the year. The club has a membership of 22, and held 10 meetings.

The Social Department, according to the report presented by the chairman, is one of the most important in the Association. Over 600 men have attended the various social functions held under the auspices of the Association during the year. The report gave a general outline of the work attempted by the department.

Annual Outing of St. John's Choir

Presentation to Mr. Greenhalgh Who is Leaving for England

The annual outing of St. John's choir was held yesterday to Idyl Wyld and was a most enjoyable event to all those who were privileged to attend. The steamer Water Lily was chartered for the day and the trip down the river and across Rice Lake to this popular resort was made in splendid time, the party arriving at Idyl Wyld shortly after eleven o'clock. On the arrival at the picnic grounds, dinner was partaken of and a very happy time spent, including a number of sporting events.

The popularity of Idyl Wyld was evidenced yesterday by the fact that there were three excursions to that point. They were St. John's, St. Paul's Men's Guild and one from Westwood.

The return trip was started in good time, and the sail on the water in the evening was delightful. The generous donations of several friends, enhanced the pleasure of the day. Messrs. Hooper and Coleman Bros. gave ice cream, Mr. Hollingshead, $3 for candies and Mrs. C. Bell, cream. Prizes were given by Mr. D. Hughes-Charles, Mr. McFarlane Wilson, W. E. Ridgway, A. H. Stratton, J. R. Bell, F. Linton and A. Taylor. Just before the steamer reached Peterborough, Mr. R. J. Devey, choirmaster, on behalf of the choir, made a presentation to Mr. N. Greenhalgh, who is severing his connection with the church and is leaving for his home in Manchester, England. He was presented with a large and handsome picture of his companion choristers and the rector, Rev. Canon Davidson, grouped around a photo of the church. In a few well chosen words Mr. Devey hoped the picture would be a memento to Mr. Greenhalgh of his associations with St. John's. Mr. Greenhalgh made a suitable reply. Thanks was also tendered the congregation for placing the Water Lily at their disposal for the day's outing, and to those who contributed prizes and delicacies.

Funeral of the Late G. W. Ranney

Took Place From G.T.R. Station to Little Lake Cemetery This Morning

The funeral of the late G. W. Ranney, who died yesterday in Belleville, took place from the G.T.R. station this morning upon the arrival of the 8.10 train. The remains were accompanied by Mr. G. Rabbitts, of Belleville, and were met at the station by a number of friends and relatives in this city. The body was transferred to Little Lake cemetery where interment took place, and where Rev. Wm Major, rector of All Saints' church, conducted a short service. The pallbearers were Col. H. C. Rogers, Messrs E. H. D. Hall, Dr. Halliday, Chas. Stapleton, John E. Belcher and R. E. Wood.

In referring to the deceased the Belleville Intelligencer says:—

Mr. George Weir Ranney died suddenly this morning at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Wilkins, Pinnacle-st. The deceased was a member of St. Thomas' church, and had resided in Belleville for more than seven years. He was born in Picton on the 19th of February 1821, and became a successful and prominent civil engineer in the Government service. Mrs. Chas. Ranney, widow of the late and only son, resides in Peterborough.

This Year's Show Will be the Best

Central Canada Exhibition at Ottawa Will Lead

The directors of the Central Canada Exhibition held at Ottawa, for which the dates are September 13—21 inclusive, are rapidly completing arrangements for this great fair. Every year sees many important changes and innovations and this year is no exception. In 1906 the directors made a number of new departures, some good and others found not to be in the interests of the Exhibition. The experience gained augurs well for the success of this year's show, and from the preliminary announcements it is safe to say that taken all in all the exhibition will excel any previous fair.

The official announcements to date show that very high-class special attractions are to be put on every afternoon in addition to many new features and improvements in connection with the show proper. Probably one of the most interesting announcements made is that of Knabenshue will be present to give exhibitions daily with his airship. This is one of the marvels of the century and doubtless visitors will appreciate the efforts of the directors to furnish an interesting and novel attraction at great expense. Knabenshue will make flights with his airship every afternoon during the show. This is probably the greatest attraction ever given the people of Canada.

Among the other daily attractions this year will be two trotting races and one running event every afternoon in front of the grand stand. The purses for these races aggregate $4,500.

Mr. Stevenson Will Lay Corner Stone

Of the New Collegiate Institute —Date Not Yet Fixed

At the meeting of the Public School Board last night, it was moved by Dr. Morrison and seconded by Mr. Hill, that a corner stone be laid on the new Collegiate Institute. That the chairman of the Building Committee be empowered to instruct the architect to have a stone prepared with a hollow in the centre, and that the words, "Corner Stone, 1907" be cut on it. That the stone be laid at the north-east corner, to complete the foundation. That the stone be laid by Mr. James Stevenson, and that the chairman have a trowel made suitably engraved, and that the arrangements be left in the hands of the Collegiate Building Committee.

Young Men's Guild St. Paul's Church

Had Most Enjoyable Outing to Idyl Wyld on Steamer Otonabee

It was an ideal day for the annual excursion of the Young Men's Guild of St. Paul's church which was run to Idyl Wyld yesterday afternoon. The steamer Otonabee was chartered and when it left the street railway wharf about two o'clock there was a good crowd on board. The boat made excellent time and the trip was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. A couple of very pleasant hours were spent at Idyl Wyld and after supper at the hotel the party started on the homeward journey, arriving at the street railway wharf at about ten o'clock.

"ALL GOOD THINGS" must win upon their merits. The International Dictionary has won a greater distinction upon its merits and is in more general use than any other work of its kind in the English language."

A. H. Sayce, LL.D., D.D., of Oxford University, England, has recently said of it: It is indeed a marvelous work; it is difficult to conceive of a dictionary more exhaustive and complete. Everything is in it—not only what we might expect to find in such a work, but also what few of us would ever have thought of looking for.

A supplement to the new edition has brought it fully up to date. I have been looking through the latter with a feeling of astonishment at its completeness, and the amount of labor that has been put into it.

Charlotte Street Choir Excursion

Delightful Trip up the Lakes—Boat Got Stuck on Rock

The choir of Charlotte Street Methodist church had a delightful outing yesterday. About 45 formed the jolly part, and leaving here in the morning, they boarded the steamer Empress at Lakefield. Going up the boat called at Mr. Robert Neill's cottage and, when seeking to get away from the shore got caught on a rock. She had to remain there about an hour, but finally, in answer to the distress whistle, the steamer Majestic came to her rescue and pulled her off. At Mr. Julian the picnickers enjoyed dinner and returned early in the afternoon to Lakefield where they partook of tea. The choristers and their friends reached home at an early hour, well pleased with the jaunt which was given through the generosity of the trustee board of the church in view of the faithful and efficient work of the choir.

LIGHTNING DEALS DEATH.

Severe Electrical Storm Sweeps New York—Church Steeples Struck.

New York, June 28.—A death-dealing electric storm Wednesday afternoon following a day of sweltering heat, soaked with humidity, swept over the city and surrounding territory killing three persons, injuring several, causing many fires and doing considerable damage. In this city the only places struck were two churches. The steeples of both were torn into fragments by the lightning bolts.

J. A. McKenna, of Newark, N.J., and his two young daughters were caught in the storm near Union, N.J. They took refuge under a tree, which a few minutes later was struck by a lightning bolt. The younger girl was killed outright, and the father and elder daughter severely shocked.

At Fishkill-on-the-Hudson, Walter Dixon, a negro, was struck by lightning and killed. A woman who accompanied him was stunned and burned. A lightning bolt hit John Lawless while he was at work on a canal boat in Gowanus Canal, Brooklyn, and instantly killed him.

A bolt struck one of four small steeples on St. Monica's Roman Catholic church and sent it hurling through the air to the sidewalk. It landed, pinnacle foremost, within a short distance of a group of children, but while they were covered with dirt from the debris none were hurt.

LITTLE GIRL DONE TO DEATH.

Missing Eight-Year-Old Child Found Dead In Coal Bin.

New York, June 28.—Eight-year-old Viola Bylau, who had been missing from her home in Second avenue since last Monday, was the victim of an atrocious assault. Her body, horribly mutilated, was found in a coal bin in the cellar of her home yesterday. She had been dead for many hours. No arrests have yet been made, but the police are searching for two young Italians who, they have been informed, were seen trying to entice the child to enter a cellar with them several days ago.

The disappearance of the child was reported to the police last Monday, and since that time the whole neighborhood has been searched. No trace of her was found, however, until one of the occupants of the tenement house where the child lived, stumbled on the body by accident. He had gone to the cellar for wood, and in the dim light got into the wrong bin. The little body was found lying in a corner, and it was apparent that she had been dead some time. When the Coroner came he found that the child had been strangled and the condition of her clothing and body told plainly of the brutality of the crime of which she had been the victim.

BOY SAVES THREE LIVES.

Bravely Faced the Terrors of a Niagara Whirlpool.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 28.—A fifteen-year-old boy named Dick Carpenter was the means of saving three men from drowning in the lower Niagara River. The men were, James Stewart of Queenston and James Scott and Hector Lidger of Lewiston, all fishermen. They went out on the river in a skiff and got caught in the whirlpool below Boiling Rock, and in spite of their efforts the skiff shipped water and they were thrown out. Young Carpenter saw their plight and put out in another small boat to their aid. Scott and Lidger were able to catch his boat and climb in, but Stewart was helpless. Scott grabbed for him and got his hat, but the man went down. When he arose for the last time Lidger managed to catch him, but could not get him into the boat. Scott and Carpenter pulled the boat to shore and Lidger dragged Stewart behind. He was nearly dead, and it took a doctor some time to resuscitate him.

AERONAUTS WERE LOST.

Tug Could Not Catch Up With Drifting Balloon.

Nieuport, Belgium, June 28.—Tugs that went out Tuesday night in an attempt to reach a balloon that had fallen into the sea returned Wednesday night, their search proving fruitless. They were unable to catch up with the balloon, which was driving along with great speed before the south-west gale. The balloon, which carried two men, was sent up at Dunkirk and when the accident occurred the men took refuge in the netting, as the basket soon was under water. They undoubtedly have been drowned.

Fleet For Nicaragua.

Mexico City, June 28.—Minister Delgado, representing the Republic of San Salvador in Mexico, received a telegram Wednesday night from President Figueroa of that country saying that the Republic of Nicaragua was fitting out a fleet of three gunboats on the Pacific side and that an attack was expected at any time. The message added that Salvador was fortifying its ports.

Booth Given Great Welcome.

London, June 28.—Gen. Booth was given a very enthusiastic welcome home by the Salvation Army at Albert Hall, which was packed to its utmost limits. The general walked on the platform in a blaze of limelight and it was some time before he could speak on account of the vociferous cheering.

Japan-U. S. Treaty.

London, June 28.—The Daily Mail's Tokio correspondent says that apparently Japan and the United States have agreed that the existing treaty should be replaced by a new treaty in 1909, when Japan will fight hard to place her subjects on an equal footing with Europeans.

Cannot Make Statement.

London, June 28.—(C.A.P.)—In the House of Commons, in replying to a question already cabled by Harold Cox, respecting the subsidized line to Canada, the Premier said he was not in a position to make a statement till the committee of Ministers and experts reported.

Mr. Thomas Keys, of Harmony, Ont. was drowned in a water pail and suicide is suspected.

After Sixteen Successful Years McCallum's Restaurant Sold

Mr. McEwen Spence, Late of Homewood Sanitarium, Guelph, the Purchaser—Taking Possession at Once—Mr. McCallum Will Retire.

Mr. W. J. McCallum, the well-known proprietor of McCallum's restaurant, which has been open night and day for the benefit of the general public for the past sixteen years, has sold his business and will retire. The purchaser of this excellent stand is Mr. McEwen Spence of Guelph, who arrived in the city last night on the C.P.R. local. The deal was put through today and the new proprietor will take charge at once.

Mr. Spence is a middle-aged man, genial and obliging. He recently resigned his position as assistant superintendent of the Homewood Sanitarium at Guelph, where he was a very efficient officer for the past ten years. He is a good business man and in his official capacity at the Sanitarium learned to study humanity and his experience well fits him to successfully conduct a restaurant business. He will have associated with him, Mrs Spence and several of her sisters, and thus he will have the help problem reduced to a minimum and half of the difficulty in such business will be gotten over.

The business at the present time is one of the largest and best paying of its kind in the province. The volume of trade has year by year been increased and the first six months of this year have been the heaviest during the sixteen years. Mr Spence therefore, takes hold of the restaurant when it is at its best, and with careful management, which he is sure to give, he should have no trouble in holding, if not increasing the business.

McCallum's restaurant has been in the city market building since it was first opened sixteen years ago, and has been a tenant in the market building longer than any other business. It is known to practically every person in the surrounding country and it receives the largest patronage of any restaurant in Eastern Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs McCallum during the many years they have catered to the public have made many warm friends among all classes. They have always been very courteous and obliging and everyone will regret exceedingly to see them leaving the commercial world. But during the past year, Mrs. McCallum's health has been anything but good and it is thought that a rest and change will do her good.

Mr. McCallum has purchased a very comfortable home at 123 Gilmour street, and he is now having it fitted with a furnace and as soon as the plumbers are through he will furnish it, and reside there in the future. The house is fitted with all modern conveniences, and was just built last year and finished this spring. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. McCallum will wish them many years of health and happiness, in which to enjoy the results of their years of labor.

A POPULAR OFFICIAL.

That Mr. McEwen Spence was a popular and capable official is evidenced by the following taken from the Guelph Herald, of a few days ago,—"Mr. McEwen Spence, who has been connected with the Homewood Sanitarium for the past ten years, has severed his connection with that institution. The following presentations express the esteem in which Mr. Spence was held by all those in any way connected with the institution." The presentations and addresses were from the attendants, from the patients, from the employees, and a handsome Morris chair from the office staff.

FROM THE PATIENTS.

The address from the patients read as follows,—

Homewood Sanitarium,
Guelph, June 17, '07

Mr. M. E. Spence.—The undersigned patients at Homewood Retreat, on the occasion of your retirement from the office you have so long satisfactorily filled as chief nurse and attendant, desire to give expression, if only in a feeble way to the feelings of regret which the steps you are about to take, has caused us, one and all.

We have experienced at your hands a degree of attention and courtesy, which calls forth our very warmest commendation, such as move us to wish you every success in your new sphere of life. At the same time we are not without the knowledge that the loss of your sympathetic and kind oversight will be keenly felt in many individual cases. We are satisfied your success will follow well in your footsteps but there must remain the ache of parting and the void following the absence of the accustomed touch of the old masterhand, with his heart of sterling human kindness.

Assuring you again of our very best wishes for your future success, and asking you to accept the accompanying small gift as a token of remembrance and esteem.

SIGNED BY THE PATIENTS.

Where Eighty Oddfellows Sleep Their Last Long Sleep

Decoration Day Ceremony at Little Lake Cemetery Marked by Fine Weather, Large Gathering and Many Loving Tributes—Paying Homage to the Departed—Many Citizens Join in the Impressive and Beautiful Rite.

"We see but dimly through the mists and vapors,
Amid these earthly damps,
What seem to us but sad funereal
tapers,
May be Heaven's distant lamps."
—Longfellow.

The annual ceremony of decorating the graves of departed brethren was last evening observed at the Little Lake cemetery by the Oddfellows of Peterborough. The pretty, attractive and impressive ceremony was heartily joined in by a large number of citizens and friends of the Order.

The city of the dead never presented a lovelier or more beautiful appearance, and all nature seemed in harmony with the spirit of the occasion.

The flowers resting on the grassy mounds of the departed, reminded all present that the interest of the living extends beyond the grave, and that there is a bond of sympathy and affection between Oddfellows that even death itself cannot sunder.

The representative gathering took much interest in the solemn and impressive proceedings and many appreciative remarks were heard, not only upon the tender, loving and sympathetic nature of the ceremony but upon the splendid appearance of grounds, which reflects the highest credit on the care and industry of Supt. Wise and his staff.

Shortly after five o'clock the members of Peterborough Lodge No. 111 and Otonabee Lodge No. 13, headed by the 57th Regiment Band, marched down George street to the necropolis.

About 100 Oddfellows were in the procession, which was marshalled by Bro. J. W. Miller, P.D.D.G.M.

Arriving at the cemetery, and while ascending the hill, the brethren counter marched. Near the chapel they formed a circle, when, led by the band, all joined in singing "Nearer My God to Thee."

Rev. J. G. Potter then offered prayer and the members separated in four sections, when a bouquet of flowers was deposited lovingly on the grave of each Oddfellow. The guides of each section were;— Bro M T Breckenridge, P.G., No. 1 sec.; Bro. Wm. Hall, D.D.G.M., No. 2 section Bro. Wm. Freeburn, P.G., No. 3 section, and Bro. Frank Wise, P.G., No. 4 section.

As each grassy mound was strewn with flowers, an appropriate quotation or verse of Scripture was recited.

LIST OF THE DEAD

Beside the waters of Little Lake, some eighty triple-linked brethren sleep their last long sleep.

ADDRESSES DELIVERED

After the decoration ceremonies a large number gathered about the platform to listen to the addresses.

Bro Wm. Hill, D.D.G.M., presided, and, in a brief address, spoke of the appropriateness and beauty of the ceremony.

Miss Carrie Reesor then sang a solo in excellent voice, Mr. George Schneider playing the accompaniment.

Rev. Wm. Major, of All Saints' church, was the first speaker. It was with great pleasure that he was present to say a few words. He spoke of the beauty of the ceremony and the manifestation of love in placing floral tributes on the graves of the departed. All around were monuments—expressions of love to those gone before—and their desire to have an honored remembrance. The object of those departed was to so live as to gain the esteem of others and this was not an unworthy aspiration. It inspired in them—and it should do so in us—a thought or ambition to strive to live right. It was a legitimate object to endeavor to earn the esteem of others. It showed that members of the Order sought to further fidelity and loyalty to its principles, which were friendship, love and truth. Too often we postpone our tributes of affection and appreciation of the living until they are dead. There was, of course, some danger in expressing too full an appreciation of the living as they might become puffed up with vanity, or look with some degree of condescension upon their fellows, but we should not delay expressing tribute to their good qualities until after they had passed away. Though Christ was buried in a rich man's garden it was no compensation for his death on Calvary. Let us speak good of those we esteem while they are passing through this world and not wait until they are laid beneath the sod. Christ Himself was not appreciated when on earth. We might not all be able to secure renown, or achieve distinction in literature, science and discovery, but it was within the reach of all to win fame for goodness, purity and excellent living, and thus show forth a reflex of those qualities and virtues which our Heavenly Father sought to teach. A good life might last only a few days, but a good name lived forever.

Rev. H. J. Keith, of Knox church said that many lessons could be learned from paying loving tribute to those gone before. The object of Decoration Day, was a good thing, so far as the Oddfellows' organization itself was concerned and also as an example to the community. By it, we were reminded of the great felllowship above, and that we are constantly surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. It reminded those around of those who had gone ahead and brought the living and dead in closer contact and communion. We had a veritable Eden around us, that is filled with hope and brightness, glory and love. The ceremony also commemorated the good things for which the departed stood in their lives. They lived, perhaps, only quiet, simple lives, doing each day's duty bravely and faithfully, and in an humble, plain way sought to follow in the footsteps of Him who was the friend alike of the publican and the sinner. Our own lives were passing. We should toil and strive in the making of character that abides, standing constantly beside the One who conquered death and the grave and thus play our part in the re-linking of those links above, which are broken here on earth, by the hand of death.

Rev. J. R. Webb, of Murray-st. church referred to the fact that this was the first decoration ceremony he had ever witnessed. From what he knew of the Order of Oddfellows and from what he had learned today he saw a friendship existing between man that death could not destroy. He spoke of the great friendship of David and Jonathan, and the modern illustration of it as exemplified today by the I.O.O.F. organization. The vast majority had been called home and the people on the globe at the present time, were but a mere fragment of the great human race. Soon we too would be at home. We could easily discern the end of the journey which was not long. Another lesson impressed by the ceremony was that Oddfellows also gave attention to the living and demonstrated that they live not to minister to themselves alone, but to others. It should be proclaimed from every pulpit in the land that Christ was in the world today. Men seeking to carry out the principles that were evidenced today, were doing as Christ would do in helping along those on the dusty road from Jerusalem to Jericho. When assisting father or mother, son or daughter, or friend, the speaker said he was reminded of the words;

"There is no death; what seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath,
Is but a suburb of the life Elysian,
Whose portal we call death."

This concluded the programme of addresses.

Rev. Wm. Major then pronounced the benediction and the annual ceremony of decorating the graves of the dead, was over.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country, than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years, was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENEY, Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by druggists, 75c.

Norwood Man Won in By-election

Elected Alderman in Calgary by Big Majority

Mr R. J. Stuart, of Calgary, formerly of Norwood, was elected alderman in Calgary on June 20th, in ward four in that city, and many friends will extend congratulations.

The vote stood;—

R. J. Stuart	156
R. A. Brocklebank	84
Wm. Halliday	66

Mr. Stuart's majority over the combined vote of his opponents is 6.

The Calgary News referring to the victor, says;—Alderman-elect R. J. Stuart has been in Calgary several years, and up till a short time ago was general manager for the west of the Sun Life Insurance Company, of Montreal. Mr. Stuart came to Calgary from Norwood, Ont., in which town he was on the council board. A year ago last December Mr. Stuart headed the poll in the aldermanic elections. He stands for a clean and moral city.

Continuing the News remarks:—Ward 4 put the wiseacres all out of court. It had been decreed by some of our esteemed contemporaries that no matter who was elected in the ward, Mr. Stuart should not be. Everything nasty that could be said was said, and even alleged cartoons were brought into play. Malice was observable in every line that was printed against him, and the people have delivered a rebuke in a most unmistakable manner.

The day has passed in Calgary when a newspaper combination can be formed to hound any respectable man out of public life by unmerited censure and constant abuse.

RELIABLE IN EMERGENCIES

Mr. L. Struthier, 92 Crescent Road, Toronto, Ont., Canada, writes under date of March 26th, 1907, "I have been using Absorbine for the past year or more and find it everything that could be desired for soft swellings, such as wind puffs, capped hocks, thoroughpins, and strains." Many customers write of the satisfactory results Absorbine gives in removing blemishes, curing lameness, etc. You try a bottle. Prices $2.00 at druggists or delivered. Manufactured by W. F. Young, P.D.F., 185 Monmouth street, Springfield, Mass., Canadian agents, Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal.

BASEBALL IS NOW BOOMING

Locals Preparing for Coming Games—Arctics Here To-morrow Afternoon

The local ball team had a great workout at Riverside Park last night in preparation for their games against the Arctics of Toronto tomorrow afternoon and Monday forenoon and against Port Hope in the afternoon. Every man of the team was out, including Fred Whitcroft, who displayed all his old time ability. The boys are playing fast, snappy ball, and are putting lots of ginger into their practices.

The Arctics, while pleased with their visit to Peterborough on May 24th were not at all satisfied with the way they were trimmed by the locals and are coming back set upon victory. The Peterborough team is now much stronger than when they met the Toronto bunch at the beginning of the season, and should come out on top. Tomorrow's game starts at 3.30 and Monday's at 9.30. They will both be great contests, and should be largely attended. Peterborough has a winning ball team and the boys deserve every support.

After their game with the Arctics on Monday, the locals board the noon train for Port Hope, where they will meet the stalwart Lake-town [illegible] in a Midland League game. Peterborough must win this contest and will be represented by a strong team.

LILLIES AGAIN WON THE GAME

The Excelsiors did not keep up their good work last night and went down to defeat at the hands of the Lillies. At the start the Excelsiors were ahead by one, but were playing two men short and were unable to retain their lead. Their score in the remaining three innings was 5—2, making the final score, 6—7 in favor of the Lillie aggregation. Coughlin and Guerin, two of the Excelsiors best men were unable to play, and thus the Excelsiors were playing under difficulties. Belleghem twirled great ball for the losers, and Graham on the Lillie aggregation pitched a good steady game.

Mr. W. Stacey officiated as umpire, satisfactorily.

The teams were,—

Lillies—Hillier c, Graham p, Price 1b, Shambo 2b, Foley ss, Connors 3b, Pilling rf, Webb cf, Simmons lf.

Excelsiors—Belleghem p, Pillington c, Clancy ss and 3b, Heaslip 2b, Russell 1b, Tobin rf, O'Shea cf.

Lindsay Golfers Playing Here

Twelve members of the Lindsay Golf club arrived in the city this morning and are playing a game with the Peterborough club at the links this afternoon. The visiting players are Messrs. A. Higginbotham, Dr. J. L. Sutton, George A. Little, D. R. Anderson, George H. Matthie, J. D. Flavelle, G. H. Hopkins, W. C. T. Morson, F. R. Wilfred, J. G. Edwards, L. V. O'Connor and C. D. Barr.

They will return home at nine o'clock this evening.

The Peterborough Golf club will go to Toronto on Monday to play a match with Rosedale.

LACROSSE TEAM WORKING HARD

Preparing for Monday's Contest Against Beaverton

The Peterborough lacrosse team is hard at work, preparing for the big tussle against the Beaverton braves at Riverside Park on Monday afternoon. A half dozen players had a practice in the sun yesterday afternoon, while eight or ten were out at night and had a spirited workout. Harry Morgan will be found in his old place at cover point on the holiday, while Glover will be on the home and should add strength to this department. Beaverton is a stiff proposition and the locals will have to travel a lively race to beat them. Beat them they must, however, and no chances are being taken.

Another practice will be held tonight. Everybody is asked to be out.

ATHLETICS

ANOTHER INDIAN RUNNNER.

Rosneath, June 27.—It is stated here that Ben Howard, the Hiawatha Indian, who won the five mile race at Peterborough exhibition grounds on May 24, will take part in the ten mile Marathon race to be held at Lindsay on July 1. Howard shapes up like a good runner and no doubt will make things interesting for the Toronto runners and the other competitors at Lindsay.

Clever Student Won Gold Watch

Miss Gladys Botsford Captured Many Honors at Bishop Straham School

At the summer closing of the Bishop Strachan School, Toronto, Miss Gladys Botsford, of Peterborough, distinguished herself by coming first of the entire class, and thereby winning the beautiful gold watch, donated by the late Alexander Manning.

This is Miss Botsford's third year at the Bishop Strachan School and this is the third time she has stood at the head of her class.

Rev Canon Sweeney presented the prizes and when he came to Miss Botsford, he warmly complimented her on her great success, and upon the excellence of her work. In addition to receiving the gold watch, she was also presented with a valuable set of books, being the honors of the French class.

Thieves are Also Busy at Norwood

One night last week sneak thieves entered the residence of Mr. and Mrs Thomas E. Robinson, Belmont street, doubtless for the purpose of plunder. The intruders were, however, unsuccessful in their mission as they made a slight noise which awakened Mr. Robinson, at whose approach they made a hasty exit, and jumping into a buggy, which was standing at the front door, drove off, empty handed as they came. This is not the first visit of these gentry to Mr. Robinson's home, it appears. Some weeks before they paid him a visit and managed to get away with a quantity of provisions. Encouraged by their former success, no doubt, the sneaks thought they would try it again. Next time they come they will not go away without something—if Mr. Robinson hears them—unless his old shot gun, which has been "loaded for bear," fails to go off.—Norwood Register.

Will be Open In the Morning

The Union barber shops of the city will be open until noon on Monday, but will close for the afternoon of the holiday. The shops would be closed for the whole day were it not for the fact that the holiday comes right after Sunday.

CRICKET

GAME ON MONDAY.

The Peterborough Cricket Club will go to Toronto on Monday, where they will play the Grace church team.

Faithful Work is Appreciated

George Street Sunday School Honors the Misses Crothers

At a largely attended meeting of the teachers and officers of the George street Methodist Sunday school last evening, the Misses Maud and Mable Crothers, who during their residence here have taken an active part in Sunday school work, were made the recipients of a presentation from their fellow workers prior to their departure for St. Catharines.

Mr. S. R. Armstrong, superintendent of the school, occupied the chair. In a few opening remarks he spoke of the object of the meeting, to say farewell to Rev. Dr. Crothers and family

He called upon Mr. A. E. Dixon, secretary of the school, who read the following address:—

To Misses Crothers:—

Dear Friends,—The officers and teachers of the George street Metodist Sunday school desire to give expression to their appreciation of the services you, as well as your father, the Rev. Dr. Crothers, have given to the school during the past three years. While your father, as pastor, been most faithful in his oversight of the work and has most efficiently taught a most important class, you have also been zealous and faithful teaching classes in the school and have in this way given valuable service not only to the classes directly under your charge, but also to the school as a whole. You have also been willing and ready to aid in other ways, especially when services of a musical character were required, and you efforts in various ways to advance the work of the school have been valuable and have been appreciated.

We regret that you are about to leave Peterborough. Your classes will miss you, and we will miss you and we will miss you personally, as we have learned to esteem you highly, and also because we will no longer have your useful counsel and assistance in the work of the school.

As a slight token of our esteem and of our appreciation of your work in the school we ask you to accept from us the accompanying gifts, and we pray that the Master whom you serve will continue to bless you and the whole family of our beloved pastor, with all of whom we part with deep regret.

S. R. ARMSTRONG,
Superintendent,
J. S. KNAPMAN,
Asst. Supt.
A. E. DIXON,
Secretary.

The young ladies were presented with a handsome silver fern bowl and silver pie dish, the presentation being made by Mrs. Lewis and Miss Maud Mason.

Short speeches eulogistic of the Misses Crothers' worth as teachers were made by Messrs. Knapman, McGill, Middleton, Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Lewis.

Songs were also given by Misses Chasty and Mowry. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time spent.

GOOD PROGRESS ON THE NORMAL

Foundation is Completed and Brick Work Will Soon be Commenced

Good progress is being made on the erection of the new Normal school in Dixon Park, in the north end of the city. Contractor Whitham has about fifteen men at work and they are running the job along. The outer walls of the foundation have been completed and the brick work will be commenced at an early date. The school is being built at the south end of the park and is in a splendid location. The locality is especially beautiful in the summer, being marked by plenty of grass and trees.

The foundation of the new building is of cement and the brick is already on hand, as well as numerous other supplies.

THE TONIC OF HEALTH

Must be more than a stimulant—must be a food as well.

The "Best" Tonic is FERROZONE, which is both a food and a tonic; it aids digestion, promotes assimilation and converts food into blood, muscle, bone and nerves. No wonder it builds up the weak, makes them strong and vigorous!

FERROZONE

THE GREAT FOOD TONIC

FERROZONE contains exactly what your run-down system lacks. It supplies oxygen to purify the blood, phosphorus to develop the brain, iron to harden the muscles.

No combination of strength-giving, life-sustaining elements can surpass FERROZONE. Instant in effect, lasting in results, no medicine can benefit as much. You'll eat, sleep, think and feel better by using FERROZONE, which is a true tonic. Try it—now.

Ferrozone is sold everywhere in 50c boxes or six for $2.50. By mail to any address from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

MINE OWNERS AIMED AT

Haywood's Defence Say Conspiracy Can Be Proven.

Pinkerton's Men Involved—Vindicator Mine Explosion Accidental—How the Revolver Was Fixed — Orchard's Account Severely Attacked—Witnesses Testify as to His Threats Against Steunenberg.

Boise, Idaho, June 29.—The effort of the defence to open the way for a showing of a general conspiracy extending over many states on the part of the mine owners to crush out the Western Federation of Miners has now become one of the interesting features of the trial of Wm. D. Haywood. The state is resisting this very earnestly.

So far Judge Wood has ruled that evidence showing a conspiracy in the States of Idaho and Colorado will be admitted on the promise that the defence has not given up their effort to widen the field and yesterday the struggle was resumed.

The counter conspiracy and not the discrediting of Orchard has now come to the forefront. W. B. Easterly who, as a member of the famous Altman Union No. 19 of Cripple Creek, was on the strike committee and who Orchard swore was one of the men with whom he made the arrangement, flatly contradicted every statement Orchard made connecting him with the Independence Depot or the Vindicator Mine.

Clarence Darrow, who is conducting the defence, asserts positively that he proposes to go, directly if possible, into the conspiracy of the mine owners and claims if he succeeds in broadening the scope he will be able to prove that a widespread conspiracy exists.

Thomas Wood, a miner, testifying for the defence, said that he was in the Vindicator mine on the eighth level at the time of the explosion. He said he saw a revolver hanging loose from Beck's pocket, half an hour before the explosion.

He had left a box of dynamite in the shaft on the eighth level. When he reached the shaft of the eighth level, after the explosion the powder was gone. When he reached the sixth level he found fragments of a revolver on the ground by the bodies of Beck and McCormick. The defence is seeking to show that the explosion was an accident.

W. Easterly and C. D. Copley both swore that they heard Orchard mention his loss in the Hercules Mine, and threaten to kill Steunenberg for it. On cross-examination the state scored Easterly because he received two letters and a telephone message from Orchard on the eve of Steunenberg's murder, and it scored Copley for remaining quiet when the two men knew a crime might be committed. Easterly contended that he did not know Steunenberg lived at Caldwell, and explained that although he knew Thomas Hogan was Orchard, he took no steps immediately after the crime except to consult counsel for the Federation, because he was not an informer.

Copley asserted that he did not take Orchard seriously when they met in San Francisco, and Orchard told him of the Bradley crime.

G. F. McKim In South Lanark.

Perth, Ont., June 29.—At the South Lanark Liberal convention, held here yesterday, G. F. McKim of Smith's Falls was the unanimous choice of the Liberal party of South Lanark as candidate for the next Dominion election. Three were nominated, G. F. McKim, Smith's Falls; Dr. A. F. Dwyer, Perth, and J. W. Leaver. The latter two retired in favor of Mr. McKim.

Dined by British Chambers.

Paris, June 29.—The British Chamber of Commerce yesterday gave a luncheon in honor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian Premier, and his colleagues, W. S. Fielding, the Minister of Finance, and L. P. Brodeur, the Minister of Marine.

TWO TUGMEN DROWNED.

Captain and Engineer Seen Struggling In the Water.

Port Arthur, June 29.—Captain John McGinnis and Engineer John McKenzie of the fishing tug James Story, owned by G. M. Titus of Port Coldwell, were drowned in Lake Superior on Thursday at a point between Jackfish and Home Point. The tug had been run down to Jackfish for coal, and was on the return trip. Besides the captain and engineer two men were on the tug. How the drowning occurred they could not say. The first they knew was when they saw the captain and engineer locked in each other's arms struggling in the water. For a short time they stood spellbound, watching the struggling men, unable to render assistance. As neither knew how to manage the engine, the two unfortunate men were left to their fate. The men on the tug managed to bring the craft to port, where they reported the tragedy. As the drowning occurred in deep water, with no landmark to indicate the place, it is not likely the bodies will be recovered.

TROOPS MASS ON FRONTIER.

Will Prevent Transmigration of Armenian Refugees.

Tiflis, Russia, June 29.—On account of the anarchical conditions of Bitlis, Turkish Armenia, where much fighting between Mussulmans and Armenians has occurred, the Russian troops on the Turkish frontier have been heavily strengthened, in order to prevent the transmigration of Armenian refugees, and a spead of the agitation to Russian territory, and also for the moral effect of the movement on the Turkish Government. A repetition of the big Armenian massacres of 1906, when thousands of Armenian refugees crossed the frontier and settled in Southern Caucasus, is feared. The Russian Government first encouraged the movement as a valuable industrial and civilizing factor, but later it felt obliged to prohibit immigration, asserting that the rapid occupation of Tartar lands by colonists was responsible for the Armenian-Tartar racial warfare, which has since periodically drenched Southern Caucasus with blood.

THE "ALL-RED" ROUTE.

Lloyd-George May Have Promised More Than He Can Deliver.

London, June 29.—(C. A. P.)—Referring to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's scheme of an "all-red" route to Australia through Canada, The Yorkshire Post says this was the subject on which Lloyd-George was pressed very hard by the colonial Premiers, and it may be found that in the end he conceded more than his colleagues in the Government will be disposed to endorse. At any rate he has aroused the suspicion of some of the Radical economists. Concluding, The Yorkshire Post says it is doubtful whether our recent experiments in subsidies have been beneficial to the country. The fruit dealers recently protested that the subsidy paid Sir Alfred Jones is decidedly injurious to their trade.

CASH FORGED CHEQUES.

Revolutionists Said to Have Hit Two Banks Hard.

Harbin, June 29.—A revolutionist, dressed as an officer of the Frontier Guards, drew $30,000 from the Russo-Chinese Bank on a forged cheque yesterday and decamped.

Vladivostock, June 29.—The Russo-Chinese Bank paid out $50,000 on a forged cheque yesterday. The man to whom the payment was made escaped.

Fire At Little Current.

Little Current, June 29.—At 4 o'clock yesterday morning, fire broke out in the Mansion House barns, destroying E. M. Bradley's barns, insured; Queen's Hotel barns (fully insured); R. Malta's store and stock (small insurance); May Bros.' new livery barn (fully insured), and the Methodist Church (insured). Three good horses were lost in Bradley's barn. R. Malta's loss is heavy, he having a big stock with little insurance.

Good work by the engine and willing workers saved the two hotels.

Present to Mr. Baker.

Victoria, B. C., June 29.—Before sailing on H. M. S. Monmouth to Japan, Prince Fushimi presented W. R. Baker with a magnificent silver and gold bowl, on which was beautifully engraved the personal crest of the prince as a further mark of his appreciation of the many kindnesses extended to him by the C.P.R. through Mr. Baker.

Two Drivers Drowned.

Ottawa, June 29.—Two young men have been drowned at the Gauthier Chute, on the Coulonge River. The young men, whose names are R. Rouleau and Onesine Godin, were working on the drive of McLachlin Bros. Their bodies have not been recovered. They lived at Calumet Island.

CRISIS IN PORTUGAL

Report That King Carlos Intends to Abdicate the Throne.

Rumor Says Either His Son Or Brother May Take the Crown—Martial Law to Be Proclaimed—Editors In Trouble—One Arrested For Declaring Premier Franco Is Insane—Another Escapes.

London, June 29.—The Madrid correspondent of the Standard says it is rumored there that King Carlos of Portugal is determined to abdicate in favor of the Duke of Oporto, his brother. It is probable that martial law will be proclaimed.

The Mail's Madrid correspondent says it is rumored that the King will retire in favor of the Crown Prince, the Duke of Braganza, adding that the rumor is not generally credited in view of the fact that the Crown Prince has gone on a tour of the Portuguese African colonies.

Madrid, April 29.—While the editor of the Portuguese newspaper, Omundo, fled to Bazajez to avoid arrest and deportation from Portugal, his editor colleague, Dr. Leito, has been arrested for having published a pamphlet in which he tried to show that Senhor Franco, the Portuguese Prime Minister, is insane.

THE OXFORD PAGEANT.

Mark Twain Says 'Twas Finer Than Anything He Imagined.

Oxford, Eng., June 29.—Mark Twain was an interested spectator at the opening of the elaborate pageant illustrative of events in the history of Oxford and the university, which occupied seven months in preparation and in the rehearsal of which some three thousand performers engaged.

Sixteen scenes, illustrating a thousand years of history, the arranging of which has been in the hands of Oxford's best scholars and writers, including Stanley Weyman, Laurence Housman and A. T. Quiller-Couch, formed a beautiful spectacle of pictorial imaginative drama.

Mark Twain said afterwards: "It was beyond anything I had imagined. I never meant to journey over any sea again, except at my own funeral, but I would cross the Atlantic twice to see it."

PROTECTION FROM MINES.

Japan Suggests That Explosives Which Rot Should Be Used.

The Hague, June 29.—Various amendments have been presented to the British proposal, now before the sub-committee on maritime war of the peace conference, on the subject of submarine mines, all aimed at diminishing danger in the event of mines becoming derelict.

Japan suggests that only mines which are inoffensive after a limited time be used, and Italy proposes that an apparatus be attached to floating mines—making them inoffensive an hour after they get adrift, and that fixed mines be rendered useless so soon as they break loose.

DOCK STRIKE AT BELFAST.

Armed Soldiers Are Assisting Police to Guard Wharves.

Belfast, Ireland, June 29.—The dock laborers here are on strike, and channel traffic is greatly interfered with.

Five hundred soldiers with rifles are assisting the police to guard the docks.

A great body of strikers marched Thursday through the principal streets, and after attempting to loot a number of wagons belonging to shipping companies, they were dispersed.

Five Hundred Dollars Disappeared.

Kingsville, Ont., June 29.—On May 30 Ernest Brown of Brown & Wigle shipped a package of money containing about $500. He gave it in care of William Wilson, a hotelkeeper who conducts the stage business in the town, who in turn gave it to his driver, Clay Cooper, to be delivered to Edward Liddle, the agent at the Pere Marquette Railroad. Liddle denied that Cooper had given him the parcel, although the stage driver said he had. Wilson has made good the amount.

Blames Premier For Riot.

Paris, June 29.—M. Bedouce, unified Socialist, in the Chamber of Deputies, yesterday attacked Premier Clemenceau, declaring the latter was responsible for the bloodshed in the South of France.

He became so violent that M. De Baudry D'Asson, Royalist, fainted from excitement and had to be carried out. Notice of nearly twenty interpellations has been filed. The prospects of victory for the Ministry are believed to be good.

Object to Preference

London, June 29.—(C.A.P.)—Twenty-two Unionist M.P.'s have issued a manifesto against colonial preference, which says that Canada, the colony that has made most advance in national importance, "being represented by a statesman," has dissociated herself from the demands of Australia and New Zealand.

J. E. Kilmaster Nominated.

Port Rowan, June 29.—J. E. Kilmaster, warden of the County of South Norfolk, was yesterday chosen to contest the county at the next provincial election.

Hon. W. A. Charlton was offered the nomination, but refused.

May Exempt Cheesemakers.

Toronto, June 29.—The Ontario Department of Agriculture has recommended the Attorney-General not to sanction any prosecutions under the Sunday Act brought against cheesemakers during the rest of the present year.

The trade disputes during May totalled 49 and 411 firms and 11,697 employees affected.

KILLED IN A FIGHT.

Struggle With Insane Patient In Cell at Montreal.

Montreal, June 29.—While struggling with an insane man, Augustin Loizeau, 62 years old, met death last night in a cell of the Hospice Camelin, a charity institution at the corner of Fallum and St. Catharine street. During the scuffle, which had arisen because Joseph Sorel, an insane inmate, refused to go to bed, Loizeau fell violently to the floor, and severed an artery in his neck, which caused him to expire in a few moments.

Joseph Sorel, the insane man, is now locked up in a padded cell of the Central Police Station, pending the coroner's inquest into the case. There was only one witness of the struggle. This was Adolphe Vaurin, the keeper, who had first tried to persuade Sorel to retire. The latter, who had never previously showed signs of violent insanity, refused to obey the order, and a struggle between the two ensued, during which the keeper called upon Loizeau, who was a boarder, to come and help him. To a morgue employe, who went down to the institution for Loizeau's body, Vaurin said that Sorel had kicked him in the stomach during the struggle, and that Loizeau on coming to intervene also received a violent kick, which caused him to fall to the ground.

FOUR NEW PEERS CREATED.

Free Recognition of Art, Science and Literature.

London, June 29.—The list of the Kings' birthday honors, which usually are conferred as a reward of political and civil service, is more interesting than usual this year because of the recognition accorded art, science and literature. Four new peers have been named by the King, Sir James Kitson, the former Lord Mayor of Leeds, a steel manufacturer; Sir James Blyth, who has devoted his wealth to the campaign against tuberculosis; Sir Samuel Montagu and Alexander Peckover, the two latter being bankers.

The new baronets include Sir William H. Holland, M. P. of Manchester, a cotton spinner; Sir Charles Scotter, chairman of the London & Southwestern Railway, and Sir William P. Treloar, Lord Mayor of London.

More than thirty knighthoods have been bestowed, the recipients of this honor including William R. Cremer, M. P., the peace advocate; Dr. James Donaldson, principal of St. Andrews University; W. S. Gilbert, the playwright; Prof. Hubert von Herkomer, R. A.; W. Q. Orchardson, R. A., and Prof. John Rhys of Oxford.

OPIUM IN FRENCH NAVY.

Minister of Marine Demands Names of Officers Using Drug.

Paris, Friday, June 29.—The use of opium in the French navy has reached such proportions that M. Thomson, Minister of Marine, has sent out a circular, ordering that the names of officers showing evidences of the use of the drug be transmitted to him immediately. Officers are forbidden not only to smoke opium aboard the ships, but even to keep any objects that can be used for that purpose.

FOR FAMINE RELIEF.

Russian Imperial Ukase Authorizes Issue of Four Per Cent. Rentes.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—An Imperial ukase issued Thursday night directs M. Kokovsoff, the Finance Minister, to issue $25,000,000 in four per cent. rentes for purposes set forth in the budget, including famine relief.

The Council of Ministers has invested the commandants of all the Imperial palaces with exceptional powers.

TO VISIT AT WINDSOR.

Kaiser Will Be Guest of King In November Next.

London, June 29.—It is authoritatively stated that Emperor William and the Empress of Germany will visit King Edward and Queen Alexandra at Windsor in November.

Carried Off By Toy Balloons.

Chicago, June 29.—A despatch to The Record-Herald from Rockport, Texas, says:

Minna, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moody of Waco was carried into the air Thursday by a bundle of toy balloons which an Italian peddler on the verandah of the hotel tied around her waist, thinking to please her. Before the spectators could recover from their surprise she was wafted out to sea, fifty feet in the air.

A launch occupied by George Munafee of Denver was in the bay, and he came to the little girl's rescue. Firing at the bundle of balloons he punctured several of them and she began to settle downward, finally landing safely twelve feet from the water on the shore of St. Joseph's Island.

I.C.R. Porters Will Strike.

Halifax, N. S., June 29.—The Government's refusal to give the Intercolonial freight porters at the Halifax terminals more than 1c an hour increase sent them out on strike today. The refusal was reported at a meeting held Thursday night and in consequence the men resolved to strike. The men have hitherto been paid 13c an hour.

The Government made it 14c, but the porters, who demanded 17 1-2c, have now definitely decided to do out on strike unless they are paid the money demanded.

Fired a Blank Cartridge.

Kingston, June 29.—Yesterday, as the soldiers were leaving for home, one, in a frolic, fired his gun as he was riding on a G. T. R. train. The blank charge struck George Armstrong, a packer in N. C. Polson & Co.'s warehouse on Ontario street, making a bad wound. A strict inquiry will be made to find the man.

John Singer, aged 23, a brakeman, on the Grand Trunk was killed at Port Hope while coupling cars in the west end of the yard.

HAS A BAD RECORD.

Deposed Chicago Clergyman Suspected of Poisoning His Wife.

Chicago, June 29.—Walter Swinburne Hancock, who is under surveillance in London, suspected of poisoning his wife, was, during 1896 assistant rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, one of the leading churches of the denomination here, and was inhibited by the late Bishop McLaren upon charges preferred by Rev. James S. Stone, who is still rector of St. James' Church. Hancock came to Chicago from St. John's, Nfld., and investigations made there by Bishop McLaren showed him to have been a "man of evil repute." "The charges brought against Hancock here," said Mr. Stone Thursday night, "were that he was given to consorting with lewd women. They were never made public, but Bishop McLaren was convinced of his guilt. Being a British subject, Hancock could not be deposed, and after his inhibition he dropped out of sight."

[illegible] Iron Merger.

London, June 29.—A great combination of iron and steel manufacturers is being formed in Great Britain to combat American and German competition, control the British trade and dominate the steel industry of the world.

Nine big companies, headed by Vickers, Sons & Maxim, have absorbed 30 independent concerns, giving them control of 90 per cent. of steel produced in Great Britain.

The combined capital of the firms is over $130,000,000.

RARE CHANCES FOR IDEAL HOMES IN

ENGLEBURN PARK

The New and Beautiful Residential District in East City

ENGLEBURN PARK, situate in the most attractive part of the city of Peterborough, is destined to be one of the most beautiful residential spots, and the one into which is going the Best Grade of Development to be found in the city. It has been subdivided into lots in a most attractive manner, and is now offered for sale by R. A. Elliott & Co. It is in the heart of the city, within ten minutes walk from Street Car, Post Office, Market, and George Street (the main business street in the city). When the present plans are consumated, Engleburn Park will be so developed as to conserve its native charm, and cause each home-makers work to enhance the beauty of the whole.

Make Money Through Real Estate

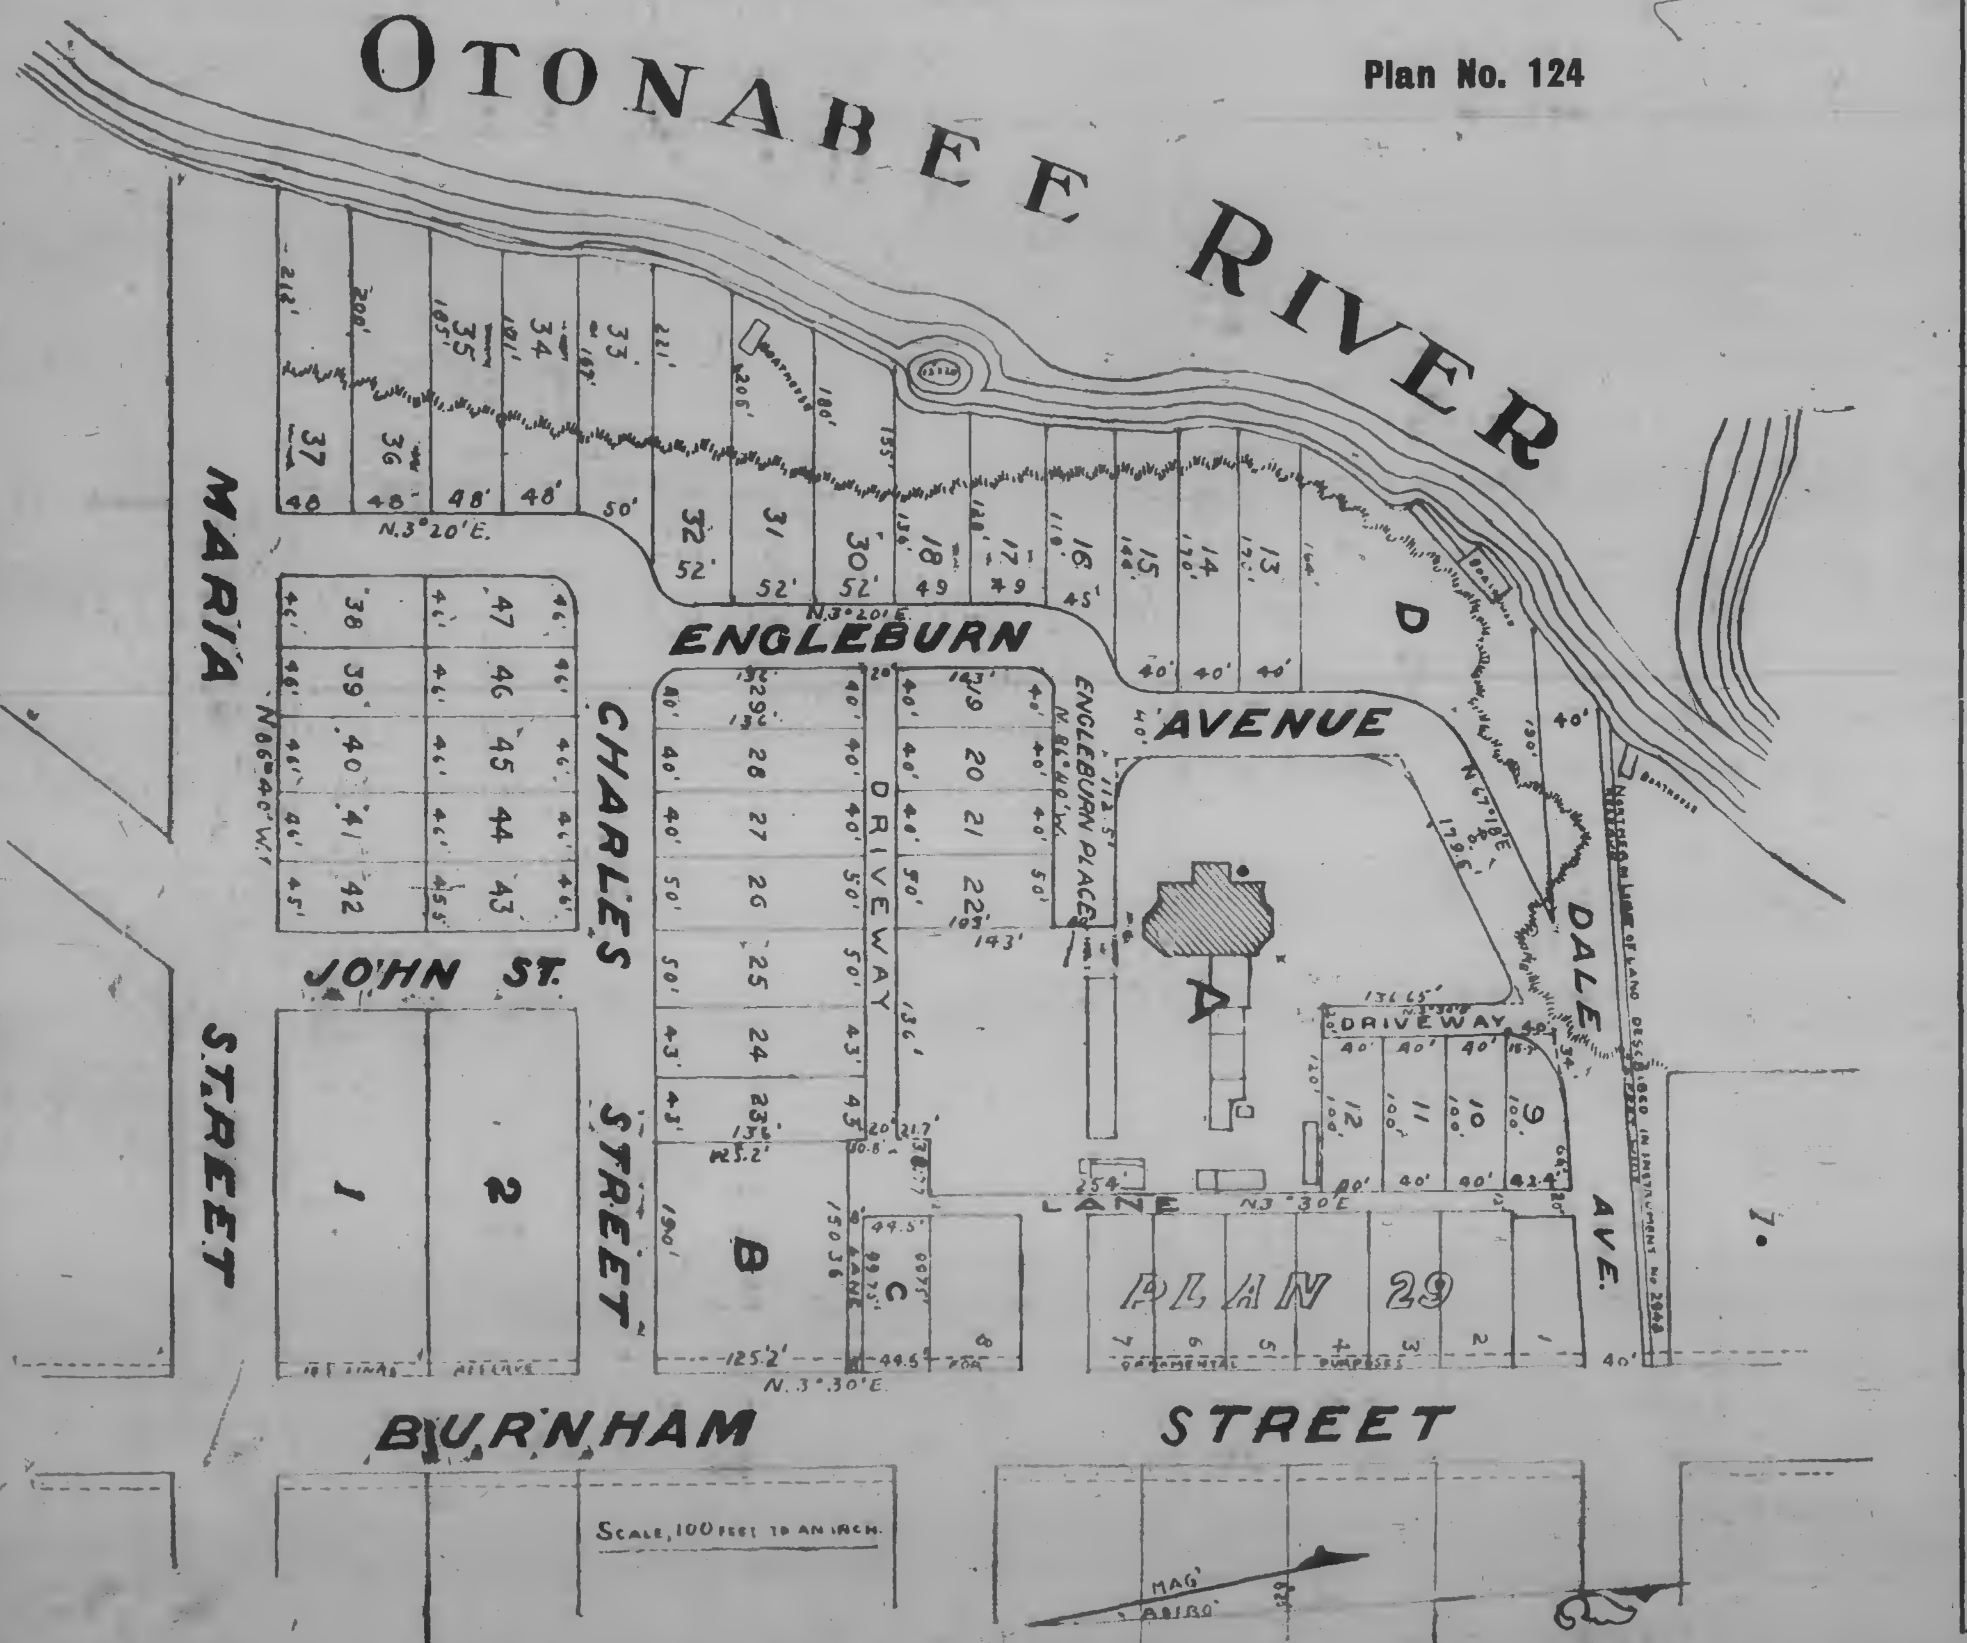
The man who buys today will obtain for himself a home at once and probably financial independence for the futnre. There is just one kind of property that cannot be stolen from you and that is a piece of the surface of the earth. The only thing we know to be real is that solid earth upon which we stamp our feet, and the man who can stamp his feet and say "This piece of earth belongs to me" is the wise man taking advantage of present conditions to protect himself and those dependent upon him. The man who buys and pays for and owns a piece of land has something to show for his money. Peterborough is building up rapidly and it will be difficult for some time to buy land that will fail to pay the investor well. In making selection of lots for a home, the purchaser will look for a healthy site; Engleburn Park affords all that heart or hand could wish for along that line. If you will take a little of your monthly earnings and put them into Peterborough real estate it will pay you, for in a short time what the wise man knows now the whole public will know, and it will be too late then for bargains. Buy all you can carry, but not one dollars worth more. Allow for sickness and possible lack of work, keep within your means; use your best judgment.

A Suburb of Homes

Intelligent co-operation, a pre-figured plan, a community spirit and an artistic and an enlightened forethought will make Engleburn Park a lesson to home building in the city of Peterborough. In Engleburn Park YOU CAN BE SURE OF YOUR NEIGHBORS, it will be strictly a district of homes. No one can build other than far enough back on his lot to protect his neighbor's right to outlook and air. A minimum for expenditure insures the erection of houses of a type satisfactory to all.

Engleburn Park will be the most beautiful residential spot in the city of Peterborough and no expense will be spared to carry out this object. Unlike other tracts of land that have been marketed in the city, instead of destroying the work of nature, all desirable trees will be preserved so that every lot buyer will have his share of this beautiful park. The main driveway will be illuminated with electric jets, materially adding to its beauty.

Aside from all this Engleburn Park has a surplus of all other elements of attractiveness. Its own virgin beauty is heightened by the picturesque environments, and while located within a few minutes walk from the business centre, it is far enough away from the manufacturing industries to preserve that purity of air which counts for so much in a distinctly residential districts.



Peterborough's Commercial Advantages

Peterborough, as a city of commercial advantages, stands in the front rank. Evidences of prosperity are on every hand; there is no city in the Dominion that has the same output from her industries as Peterborough, being fifty per cent. higher than any other according to the population. Peterborough's output last year was eleven million dollars. The weekly pay roll for wages at the Canadian General Electric amounts to over ten thousand dollars. This coupled with all the other large manufacturing concerns means a big thing for the working class of people and business men. Twenty-four passenger trains arrive and leave daily.

Peterborough has unlimited water power, resources convertible into electricity for manufacturing purposes, offers opportunities for investment of capital where electricity for manufacturing is used as a power. At the present time electricity is delivered into Peterborough at a lower rate than any other inland city in the Dominion.

The Quaker Oats Company manufacture into different kinds of cereals forty-two car loads of different kinds of grain daily. Two trains of cars depart from the Company's yards every day.

It is a well known fact that the underlying factors which start all the processes creating and distributing wealth are the energy and enterprise of the people. The constant increase in business and manufacturing enterprises are unquestionable evidence of the unity of spirit and determination of the people of Peterborough to utilize the natural advantages this favored spot offers.

It is not strange, then, with the foregoing facts, Peterborough continues to show a growth unequalled by any inland city in the Dominion. The demand for homes and places of business are unprecedented in the history of the city, affording openings for investiment of capital in the erection of Buildings for Business and Residences.

A Lot in Engleburn Park offers today the best opportunity for Real Estate Investment in the city of Peterborough Already several lots have been sold and are going to be built on at once.

TERMS—The Terms under which Engleburn Park Lots are offered for sale bring them within the reach of all, as follows: 25 per cent. payable at time of purchase and an additional 25 per cent. three months thereafter, balance to be secured by mortgage, with interest at the rate of 6% per annum.

Pretty Wedding in Millbrook

Nuptials of Mr. E. W. Lamprey and Miss Helen G. Collins

A pretty wedding was celebrated at St. Thomas Church, Millbrook, on Wednesday, June 26th, at half past two o'clock, when Miss Helen Gertrude Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Collins of that village, was united in the holy bands of matrimony to Mr. Ernest Williams Lamprey, manager of the Bank of Toronto, at Montreal, formerly of Peterborough.

The church was prettily decorated with Seringa and Acacia blossoms, and the perfume of the flowers permeated the whole church.

Arriving at the church door the wedding party were met by the ushers, Mr. Gerald Rackham, and Mr. Thomas W. E. Allen. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Grace Youell she was followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away.

The beautiful service of the Church of England was read by the Rev. William Cartwright Allen, rector of Cavan, assisted by Rev. H. A. Ben Oliel. The bridegroom was supported by Mr. Wood of Toronto.

As the wedding party proceeded to the Chancel steps, Mrs. (Rev) William Cartwright Allen, played the wedding march from Lohengrin. When the Chancel steps were reached the hymn "How welcome was the call" was sung, and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Louis Henry Winslow sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride's gown was silk crepe de chene over taffeta, with valenciennes lace trimmings, veil and orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was attired in blue crepe de chene with blue mohair hat and blue gloves and shoes; she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride was an amethyst pendant set with pearls; to the maid of honor a pearl and enamel brooch; to the best man a gun metal cigarette case with silver monogram; to the ushers gold cuff links.

The bride presented to the organist a gold fleur de lis brooch and to the bridegroom an alligator travelling bag.

A reception was held after the ceremony, at Glenavon, the residence of the bride's parents, at which a number of guests were present, and dainty refreshments were served.

The bride's travelling costume was brown Panama cloth with tan and Persian trimmings, and tan hat, with brown roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamprey left on the five o'clock train from Cavanville, for Toronto and Montreal.

The many beautiful presents testified to the high esteem in which the bride is held. The bridegroom is also very popular in Millbrook, having been manager of the Bank of Toronto there.

Among the invited out-of-town guests were,—Misses Armstrong, Mr. G. Scott, Miss Louise Scott, Misses Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wood and Miss Edith Cross, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. H. Fraser Holland, Sarnia; Mr. and Mrs. H. Wetherspoon, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. John Lamprey and Mr. and Mrs. Brock, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Collins of Latchford; Dr. H. A. Armstrong of Fergus; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ralston, Mr. and Mrs. Barlow Cumberland, Mr. and Mrs. Boultbee, of Port Hope; Miss Moore, Miss Stratton, Mrs. Eileen Fair, and Mr. F. D. Kerr of Peterborough.

Two Americans Paid Their Fine

Caught Many Small Bass and Walked into the Arms of Fishery Inspector

The fishing laws of the Dominion of Canada are considerably different to those of the United States, although many of the sports of Yankeedom either are ignorant of the difference or ignore it. A few days ago a couple of well known would-be sports went up the lakes to see how many fish they could get in one day. They knew pretty well where to go and succeeded in hauling in a big bunch of them. They put their game in a bag and struck for home, thoroughly delighted with their good fortune and congratulating themselves upon their skill as fishermen. They came down on board the Stony Lake to Lakefield, and seeing a man on the wharf they could hardly wait until they landed, before telling him all about it.

As soon as the two citizens of Uncle Sam's country touched the wharf, they ran up to the man waiting there, dumped their fish on the wharf, and with broad smiles and heaving chests said, "What do you think of that for a catch?"

"My friends," was the cool reply, "I'm afraid you struck the wrong man I'm Moore the fishery inspector and your fish are nearly all undersize Thank you for coming to me, but I will have to ask you to pay the fine and also leave the fish with me."

The sports looked at each other as silly as two kids caught stealing a pie Their jaws dropped, the broad smile faded away, and they felt their position. One fellow backed up after a while and protested against Mr Moore's action but the latter took out his rule and measured the fish and read the law to the offenders, who thought the best thing for them to do was to settle and keep quiet.

This they did and in doing so, took a good look at Mr. Moore, so that they will make no mistake next time Mr. Moore in turn told the men a few things and he does not believe there will be any 'next time.'

John Ecobichom Fell Off Ladder

A somewhat serious accident occurred this morning about six o'clock at the American Cereal works. John F. Ecobichom, who is on the night gang in the elevator, was the unfortunate man. He went up a ladder to oil some of the shafting, when he fell to the floor below. He was picked up and carried to the outside of the building and Dr McNulty and the ambulance were sent for. The doctor made an examination and found that the man's hip was injured, although to what extent he could not say. The unfortunate fellow was then removed to his home where his wound was attended to.

He will be laid up for some time

Dragoons to Pass Through Here on Their Way to Petewawa

"B" squadron of the Royal Canadian Dragoons will pass through Peterborough on their way to Petewawa on Monday or Tuesday of next week. They left Toronto this morning and are following same route as the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, which passed through here several days ago. A Toronto despatch says:—

"B" Squadron, Royal Canadian Dragoons, paraded at Stanley barracks ninety strong this morning, and under command of Capt. C. T. Van Straubenzie immediately proceeded on their march via the Kingston road to Petewawa, which place they expect to reach in 15 days.

This route march will be conducted under exactly the same conditions as if the men were on active service. They will take with them their tents, cooking utensils and all things necessary to enable them to camp each night. The places where they will encamp will be left to the discretion of the officer commanding the unit to decide, who in his turn will be held responsible to the authorities at headquarters for the due performance of his duty.

The experience gained by Captain Van Straubenzee in the South African war in 1899-00 will be of immense value to him in this undertaking. He already bears an exceedingly good record, his South African medal having no less than five clasps, so he may safely be trusted to carry out this arduous duty thoroughly. Capt. Van Straubenzee will have the advantage of the services of Sergt.-Major J. Widgery, W.O., who like himself, served in South Africa besides having gained previous experience in the Northwest expedition of 1885.

HOLIDAY TRAFFIC IS VERY HEAVY

All Outgoing and Incoming Trains Were Loaded

The holiday traffic is very heavy. All the outgoing and incoming trains by both the G.T.R. and C.P.R. lines were crowded. Single fare prevails, and all tickets are good to return until Wednesday, July 2nd. Numerous Peterborough old boys are returning to the city for a few days while many who reside here, went to visit relatives in other places.

By the Belleville train this morning over 300 visitors arrived, while the local to Lakefield was crowded, persons standing in the aisles of the cars. Scores will spend a few day at Stony Lake, while others intend going down the river this afternoon to spend Sunday and Dominion Day at Rice Lake points.

The present holiday traffic on the railways and local steamboat lines, is certainly a record breaker.

Foresters Elect Their Delegates

To the I. O. F. High Court Meeting in Ottawa in August

The brethren of Court Chemong, No. 533, I. O. F., are to be congratulated on the interest they are showing in Forestric matters. There was a large and enthusiastic attendance of the members at the monthly meeting held on the S.O.E. hall on Thursday evening.

The organizing work of Bro. A. Bradshaw, D.S.C.R., was again very much in evidence, when twelve new members came forward for initiation The new initiatory outfit was again brought into use. The candidates were put through the mysteries of the forest in true Robin Hood style. The Court has grown to such large proportions that it was unanimously decided to hold two meetings each month on the second and last Thursdays, when it is hoped the meetings can be concluded by ten o'clock.

The nomination of delegates to the High Court of Eastern Ontario, which meets at Ottawa on August 21st and 22nd, was proceeded with, when the following were nominated companfollowing were nominated, Companions Wallace and Bullen, Bros. Miles, McKee, Allison, Powell, Dale, Moore, Armstrong and Rooke. The names of the five successful delegates will be announced after next meeting, to be held on Thursday, July 11th. Bros D. Wallace and A. Bradshaw, being High Court officers, will go to Ottawa.

HO! FOR STONY LAKE!

For Treatment of the Insane

Hon. W. J. Hanna states that before the end of next week, Dr. Clark, medical superintendent of Toronto Asylum, and Dr. Ryan, medical superintendent of the Rockwood Asylum, Kingston, will leave for Europe, in connection with the Government's intention to institute a new system of psychiatric treatment of the mentally diseased.

They will visit various institutions in Germany and Great Britain which are doing work of the nature proposed for adoption here, and on which it would be an advantage to the government to be fully informed, before taking a step involving so much.

Both Dr. Clark and Dr. Ryan have been giving close and earnest attention to the subject and the journey means several weeks' careful and absorbing work. Arrangements have been made with professional men in Europe who can be of service to them.

Later, Hon. Dr. Willoughby will join them in Europe and take part in the final deliberations and investigations.

WILL HOLD OUTING

The eighth annual excursion of the Auburn Union Sunday School is being held on Monday to Stony Lake. The holidayers will go to Lakefield on the 8 30 G.T.R. train and at the lakeside town, will board the steamer Stony Lake for a trip around the lakes. A most enjoyable outing is anticipated.

OBITUARY

WM. MEIN, SR.

The death occurred this morning at a quarter to eight o'clock at his late residence, 34 Louis street, of Wm Mein, sr., after a lengthy illness. The deceased was 71 years of age and was born in Melrose, Scotland In 1863 he was married to Fanny Adams in Edinburgh, and fourteen years later he and his family came to Canada, settling in this city, where they have resided ever since The deceased was a Presbyterian in religion and in politics he was a Reformer.

Six children, four sons and two daughters, are left to mourn his loss. The sons are Henry, of Toronto; John, of Picton; and Wm and George of this city. The daughters are Mrs. R. M. Beach, of this city, and Miss Maggie at home. One sister. Mrs. Jas. Herd, is residing in Galashiels, Scotland.

The funeral will take place on Monday at 2.30 o'clock, from the family residence, 34 Louis street, to the Little Lake cemetery.

WANT CHAMBERS STREET CLEANED

Merchant on Hunter St. Draws Attention to the Boxes and Sheds

A very prominent citizen, whose place of business is not very far from Chambers street, last night drew the attention of the Review to the condition of that thoroughfare. He was greatly pleased with the way the new walk had been laid and with the way the road had been left. The appearance of the street has been vastly improved. But on the east side of the street, a number of the places of business are daily breaking the box bylaw. Chambers street is a street and not a lane, and it is claimed by those who are forced to maintain a lane, that the people on the said street have no more right to leave boxes and old iron and rubbish on the street than the merchants on George street. The east side of Chambers street is indeed very poorly looked after, and the Board of Works should see if some improvement cannot be made. The boxes should be removed anyway.

Saturday Market Well Attended

There was a large attendance at the market this morning of both buyers and sellers. There was a good supply of almost all kinds of farm produce and a good demand. On the outside market there was plenty of potatoes, which brought $1.25 and $1.30 per bag. There was also an abundance of green stuff, which sold at the usual prices. In the building considerable fowl was offered, which sold at; Turkies, $1.50 to $2; Chickens, 80 cents, $1 to $1.25 per pair. Butter was down in price and brought 20 cents, and 22 cents per lb.; eggs went at 17 and 18 cents per dozen. Otherwise the market was without any special features.

BASEBALL FANS ARE ENTHUSED

Much Interest in Peterborough-Arctic Games

This afternoon's baseball match between the Peterborough team and the Artics, of Toronto, will be attended by a big crowd of fans. Can the locals beat the fast Torontonians? That is the question that is foremost among the followers of the Peterborough team, and they will turn out in force to see the problem solved. The Arctics arrived in the city at noon and will remain here until Monday. They also play the locals on the morning of the holiday, the game starting at 9 15 sharp. Today's match will commence at 3 30.

Sold Poles That He Did Not Own

How a Sharper Victimized Several Farmers Up West

Chatham, June 29.—A sharper, representing himself as a superintendent of the C.P.R. succeeded in swindling a number of farmers around Louisville, a few miles from Chatham, to the tune of several hundred dollars.

He claimed to be at the head of a gang of men who were going to remove all the telegraph poles from the tracks and put the wires underground. He was disposing of the poles at $7 a hundred, and he made spot cash sales. Many farmers bought poles and are still waiting for them to be delivered.

The sharper strengthened his game by engaging a number of rooms from William Buff, who keeps a country boarding house, claiming that he wanted accommodation for his gang of men.

SPECIAL SERMON AT ST. ANDREW'S

Rev. J. G. Potter, B. A., pastor of St. Andrew's church, will preach Canadian patriotic services, on Sunday, June 30th, 1907. At 11 a.m. a special inspiring service of praise will be rendered and an appropriate address from the text, "Thanks be to God, who leadeth us in Triumph." At 7 p.m. the subject will be "The unique method of Christ in raising a World Empire."

Communion will be held immediately at close of evening service.

Ottawa Soldiers Passed Through

The Governor - General's Foot Guards of Ottawa, over 400 strong, passed through Peterborough on a special train over the C.P.R. at an early hour this morning. They were on their way to Buffalo where they will spend Dominion Day. They will return to Ottawa Tuesday morning.

GOLF

PETERBOROUGH WON

Peterborough defeated Lindsay very easily yesterday afternoon in the game against the Lindsay bunch. The score was 24 to 6 although the wide difference did not prevent the players from fully enjoying the game The Lindsay golfers arrived on the noon G.T.R. train yesterday and registered at the Oriental, and immediately after dinner they proceeded to the links where a very jolly afternoon was spent. As soon as the game was over the Peterborough team entertained their guests to luncheon at the club house, and the visitors returned home on the evening train.

The teams were;

Lindsay; Messrs. A. Higginbotham Dr J. L. Sutton, George A. Little D. R. Anderson, George A. Matthie, J. D. Flavelle, G. H. Hopkins, W. C. T. Morson, F. R. Wilfred, J. G. Edwards, L. V. O'Connor and C. D. Barr.

Flower Sunday Will be Observed

In George St. and St. Luke's Churches To-morrow Morning

Tomorrow morning flower Sunday will be observed in two of the city churches.

In St. Luke's there will be a special service at 11 o'clock for the children, who will bring flowers. Rev Mr. Langfeldt will preach a special sermon to the little ones.

In George street Methodist church Rev Dr. Crothers will preach a sermon to the scholars and teachers, who will attend in a body.

Flower Sunday is always an interesting and impressive occasion.

OUR MEAT SUPPLY

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Under the above caption there appears in yesterday's Review a letter from "A Lady Patron," complaining of the careless handling of meat by butchers and reciting what she saw the previous day in confirmation of her complaint. The case she refers to is bad enough, but I am afraid she does not know the worst of it or to what extent it is carried on. I have often wondered why no steps have been taken to enforce cleanliness in the handling of food stuffs. I venture to say that ninetenths of us would become vegetarians at once if we knew the whole truth.

Yours, &c.,

A GENTLEMAN PATRON.

Two Vagrants Were Discharged

At the police court this morning Michael Hatrick, a local butcher, was charged with having cruelly bound two calves. He pleaded guilty, stating that to save time in bringing them to the city he had tied them. A resident of Springville informed the Chief of the way the animals were being treated. His Worship fined Hatrick two dollars, warning him not to do it again. The fine was paid.

Roland McDonald, an old Scotchman, was in police court this morning on a charge of vagrancy. He said that he was a stranger here, but was a painter and had got work with a local contractor. He wanted to get to work so that he could send some money home to his wife and twelve bairns in Scotland. His Worship allowed him to go, and McDonald trotted off, bag pipes on his shoulders, with a "Thank you, your honor.

Andrew Wilson, of Gooderham, was also charged with vagrancy. He was found sleeping in a shed last night He was allowed to go on condition that he got right out of the city.

SHOULD CARRY OUT THE BY-LAW

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir.—I noticed in your paper of a few days ago that a correspondent suggested the propriety of rescinding the bylaw against fires in the back yards, because, as he alleged, among other things, its non-enforcement would breed contempt for other laws as well and thus lead to anarchy. If such a suggestion were carried out, it would be a deplorable state of things, for such action would be an open confession of our inability to enforce our laws, and thus open the doors to all sorts of crimes. Now, I would suggest that if our chief of police, owing to his onerous and arduous duties, has no time to enforce this bylaw, the council should at once appoint an assistant chief of police, so that the work may be fully and effectually done. The fumes as well as the smoke that come from these burning heaps of filthy matter and pervade the atmosphere, and fill our rooms, are very distressing these "long, long, summer days."

Yours, etc.,
A SUFFERER.

High Honor for Rev. Mr. Langfeldt

Degree of Doctor of Philosophy Conferred Upon Rector of St. Lukes

The Daily Review earnestly desires to extend congratulations to Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, the esteemed rector of St. Luke's church upon the degree of Doctor of Philosophy being conferred upon him.

He is now entitled to be called Rev Dr. Langfeldt. This week he was the recipient of the documentary Testamur certifying to his having been given the degree of Ph.D., Doctor of Philosophy, honoris causa, at the annual convocation of Fredrich Franz University, Rostock, Germany. Rev. Dr. Langfeldt is a graduate of this University, with the degree of M.A., which qualifies him for the degree of Ph.D., so that while the degree conferred it is at same time an earned as well as honorary degree. The university at Rostock decided to confer this honorary title upon several of its graduates, who have in foreign lands, by distinction in their callings and character, reflected credit upon their country, and their alma mater. Rev. Dr. Langfeldt's many friends in Peterborough and elsewhere will extend felicitations on his new distinction, an honor which he will well and worthily bear.

SAW THE COMET THIS MORNING

The Review this morning asked Rev Dr. Marsh, of Springville, if he had seen the comet, reference to which was made in yesterday's papers. Dr. Marsh gave the information that he saw the comet about 2.30 this morning, but owing to the brightness and proximity of the moon he could not get a very distinct view of it. The wandering heavenly body has no tail nor is it likely to have one. It has the appearance of a nebulous star, and cannot be seen, except with a fairly strong field glass. Dr. Marsh says the comet will likely grow brighter for several months and then disappear. Its position is north east of the planet Saturn, and between 2.30 and 3 o'clock in the morning is the best time to see it. In astronomical terms its position is plus 4 degrees, 26 mins. and its right ascension is 0 hours, 48 mins., or in other words, at the time of the comet's noon, which is about 6 o'clock in the morning, it will be 50 degrees, 9 mins. above George street. This calculation is made for six o'clock tomorrow morning.

CONSERVATIVE NOMINATION

To the Editor of the Review.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women Make Healthy Women.

Whether you believe it or not, this incontrovertible fact remains. These tablets will change weak and diseased organs into strong, healthy organs; fast with some, more slowly with others, but sure and absolutely certain with all who persist in their use, except the few beyond the help of medicine.

Disease, even chronic, will then disappear as these organs are restored to their normal conditions.

These tablets are now recognized beyond doubt or question as best adapted to the special needs of women.

How's your Roof?

Is it Lightning-proof, Fire-proof, Water-proof?

If not, you should learn all about our "Safe Lock" Galvanized Steel Shingles. They are proof against every element. The lock—on all four sides, makes it impossible for rain or snow to back up under the shingles and rust the nail holes and raw edges. This feature has been imitated, but is found in its perfection only in Our "Safe Lock" Shingles.

Don't use wood shingles. Nowadays, they are expensive and very inferior. They catch deposits of dust and dirt, which soon rot the shingles. Then the roof begins to leak. Patch all you like, you can't keep ahead of the leaks. There's no economy in a wooden roof.

Users everywhere are delighted with "Safe Lock" Shingles. Talk to them about the roofing question. We'll send you names of users in your own vicinity, if you drop us a card. 48

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

IS RECOVERING

J. Earl Halliwell was taken suddenly ill on Friday evening last while on the way from his office to his residence, and has since been confined to the house, suffering from heart trouble and an attack of pneumonia. We are pleased to learn that he is now much better, and we hope to see him around again in a few days.—Stirling News-Argus

TOO MUCH PROFANITY

A citizen reminds us that some men who frequent our streets are apparently not aware of the fact that profanity is punishable by law. Not many days ago he had to listen to an outburst that might cost the vile-mouthed speaker quite a few dollars. Perhaps a word of warning is not out of place.

Who Will Preach His Farewell Sermon In Mark St. Church. To-morrow Night, Before Leaving for Picton

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Henry Lockyer Committed For Trial At Stratford.

Stratford, June 29.—Henry Lockyer, who in a fight here some weeks ago struck the blow which the Coroner's jury found caused the death of Noah Hills, was brought before Police Magistrate O'Loane yesterday. Crown Attorney McPherson prosecuted, and Mr. W. H. Gregory appeared for Lockyer. Medical and other evidence, which was practically the same as that given before the Coroner's inquest, was heard, and the Magistrate sent the prisoner for trial on the charge of murder. Counsel for the defence tried to have the charge changed to manslaughter, but the court held that the jury might if they wished make a change in the charge. The trial will likely take place at the Fall Assizes in September. Bail was refused.

Keep Winnipeg Clean.

Winnipeg, June 29.—Mayor Ashdown is determined to have the new law regulating the house of ill-repute, rigidly enforced, and is quite dissatisfied with the police department for their apparent neglect of duty in this respect. To-day his Worship said: "I received a copy of The Gazette from Ottawa several days ago and have forwarded it to the Chief of Police, and hold a receipt for the delivery at the police department of The Gazette, with the criminal code amendment in it. It is my intention to see that the law is enforced, and if the morality officers do not propose to enforce it, we will find someone who will."

FIVE KILLED AT BUTLER

Two C. P. R. Trains Come Together Head-On.

Several Passengers Also Injured—Dead Include Four Chinese and C. P. R. Guard—Both Engines Damaged—Worst Cases Removed to Fort William Hospital—Traffic Was Not Long Delayed.

Winnipeg, June 29.—A head-on collision occurred at 5 o'clock last evening between the westbound express and an extra loaded with Chinese at Butler, two stations west of Ignace. Four Chinese and M. E. O'Connor of St. John, N. B., guard on that train, were probably fatally injured. Several passengers on the westbound train were also injured, but they are not believed to be seriously hurt.

Both engines, together with the baggage and two colonist cars on the extra, were damaged. Auxiliary trains were despatched from Kenora and Ignace, and doctors were hurried to the scene on a light engine to render every possible attention to the injured. The injured Chinamen were sent to Fort William on a special train. Traffic was not long delayed.

BOAT NEARLY OVERTURNS.

Gallant Rescue In a Canoe at the Rapids.

Latchford, Ont., June 29.—On Wednesday the steamer running north from Pork Rapids was nearly overturned. It was in the afternoon and the boat had just started on its trip north and less than 100 yards from the shore, when she refused to answer to the rudder, and going sideways, struck a rock and went over half way.

Fifty people were on board and eight men sitting on the stern and ten canoes on the hurricane deck were sent over into the river. Four struggling men were swept down the rapids. Three got to shore and the fourth was sinking for the third time when a prospector, who was fortunately coming up in the rapids and at the risk of his own life, paddled to the drowning man and got him in his canoe.

BOY DROWNED—ONE SAVED.

Took Cramps While Swimming In River At Ayr.

Ayr, June 29.—A drowning occurred at Ayr on the River Nith, when Earl Garbutt, a boy of 7, was drowned, and Bert Walton, a boy of 12 or 13, was saved in time to prevent drowning.

They were both swimming in a deep hole, when Earl said: "I have a pain in my leg." He sank immediately. Young Walton was swimming, too, at the same time, and had a cramp, too.

Some big boys arrived in a short time and pulled out Walton, but Garbutt had sank.

SWINDLED MANY FARMERS.

Man Posed As C. P. R. Official and Sold Telegraph Poles.

Chatham, June 29.—A swindler cleaned up several hundred dollars from farmers around Louisville, a village near here, by a new trick.

The man who has gone away with the money posed as a C.P.R. superintendent at the head of a gang of men who were to remove the telegraph poles and put the wires underground.

Many farmers paid $7 a hundred cash for poles, but the poles are still standing.

SIX MONTHS FOR BIGAMY.

Sister-In-Law Has Four Husbands—Why Not Two Wives?

Toronto, June 29. Alfred Middleton, an Englishman, charged with bigamy, admitted to Magistrate Denison that he had married a Toronto woman knowing that he had a wife and family in England.

"My wife's sister has four husbands, why shouldn't I have two wives," he argued as the magistrate sentenced him to six months' hard labor in the Central Prison.

ENGINE STRUCK HANDCAR.

Italian Sectionman Ground to Pieces Near Gurney.

Port Arthur, June 29.—An Italian sectionman met a horrible death near Gurney on Wednesday. The handcar on which he and several companions were patrolling the track was struck by a freight locomotive. The unfortunate man was thrown on the track and ground to atoms under the engine wheels.

The Ovation Crown.

The ovation crown in Rome was made of myrtle. An ovation was a lesser species of triumph.

Grenadiers.

The term grenadier was originally bestowed on a soldier whose duty it was to throw hand grenades. As the duty was excessively dangerous and they were always first in the assault, only veteran soldiers were selected for this service, and thus they formed a kind of elite. When hand grenades went out of use the name grenadier was continued.

A Wonderful Echo.

Two miles from Milan, Italy, is the most remarkable echo in the world. It is at the castle of Simonetta and repeats the shot of a pistol sixty times.

Starfish.

Starfish commit suicide. When one is caught in a net it dissolves itself into many pieces, which escape through the meshes. In time each piece becomes a perfect animal. To preserve a starfish it must be plunged into a bucket of fresh water before it has had time to take the alarm. Fresh water is instant death to it.

Vegetables.

Persons should be cautious about trying new and unknown vegetables. Even many known are at times unwholesome. Potatoes when not fully ripe are deleterious, causing severe bowel complaint and sickness.

The Modern Shark.

The modern shark is deteriorating. In ages gone by there were ferocious sharks, such as would make a mouthful of you without blinking, seventy feet in length. Plenty of their teeth have been found which are five inches long, whereas the biggest of the teeth belonging to sharks that exist at the present day are one and a half inches long.

A Sudden Stop.

If an express train moving at the rate of forty-five miles an hour were to stop suddenly it would give the passengers a shock equal to that of falling from a height of fifty-four feet.

Coaches.

Coaches are said to have been invented in Hungary and called "kotzey"—in French, "coche"—and were introduced into England in the reign of Queen Elizabeth. They were then termed "whirlicotes," a name long since sunk into oblivion.

Craps.

The gambling game "craps" was invented by the aristocratic Marquis Bernard de Marigny of New Orleans, who entertained Louis Philippe when the latter visited Louisiana.

The Word "Chum."

Our word "chum," meaning a boon companion, is an extremely old one. It originated with two obscure schoolboys over two centuries ago. These youths were room fellows at the same school, and finding the word roommate or chamber fellow unwieldy when speaking of each other they shortened it to "chum."

The British Parliament.

The British parliament is the British people in a sense in which the American congress is not the American people. The parliament is supreme, even to the extent of voting itself out of existence.

The First Anthology.

The first anthology was a collection of poems written by Archilchus and others.

Arabian Salutations.

The Arabians shake hands six or eight times. Once is not enough. If, however, they be persons of distinction they embrace and kiss one another several times and also kiss their own hands.

Life of a Serpent.

The life of the serpent is sometimes protracted far beyond a period that would be deemed reasonable. In the python temples of western Africa there are serpents which are known to have been there a century and a half ago.

The Pyramids.

Like the pyramids themselves, the object of their erection is a mystery. No one knows why the pyramids were built. There are, however, three principal guesses on the subject—first, that they were erected to memorialize the reigns of certain kings; second, that they were royal tombs, and, third, that they were built for astronomical purposes.

Henry Jenkins.

Henry Jenkins, a Yorkshire fisherman, died in 1670 at the age of 169 years. He was dissected by the famous Harvey, who found no appearance of decay in any organ.

Silks In Ancient Greece.

In Greece in the third century B. C. the wearing of silk was forbidden to women, the husbands of those who violated this law being heavily fined, on the theory that a husband ought to be able to control his wife's taste for finery.

German Mustard.

Here is a recipe for old fashioned German mustard: One-half cup of flour, one-half cup of sugar, five tablespoonfuls of mustard, one scant tablespoonful of turmeric, butter large as a walnut, one tablespoonful of salt, vinegar enough to make smooth paste; then add one cup vinegar. Boil until it thickens; then add vinegar until as thin as liked.

The Duke of Abruzzi sailed from Boston in his flagship Varese for Quebec.

THE GILA MONSTER.

Strange Ways of This Dreaded and Hard Biting Reptile.

Of some of the strange ways of the gila monster, that little known creature of the southwestern deserts, a correspondent writes: "I have had some experiences with Gila monsters and can state that, no matter what scientists may claim, the Gila monster is a good thing to shun. Indians and Mexicans have a horror of it and fear it more than a rattlesnake. I believe that the bite of the Gila monster is dangerous because of the creature's habit of eating lizards, bugs and rodents and then lying on sand so hot that it blisters the hands and feet of men. The heat causes the food to putrefy in the stomach, evidenced by the fact that the teeth are often covered with a fermented, putrefied froth from the food. A bite has the same effect as the cut of a dissecting knife used on a cadaver—in other words, the inoculation of a deadly poison.

"When frightened or angry he can move quite rapidly: That short, thick, stubby tail is used in jumping, just as a kangaroo uses his tail. The Gila monster bites like a bulldog and has the tenacity of a snapping turtle. I once saw some men teasing a Gila monster brought to Tucson. A string was tied around his neck. The Gila monster was crawling around on the ground, trying to get away, but was pulled back by the string. This was carried on till the creature became furious. The crowd around the Gila monster knew nothing of his power to spring. Suddenly he sprung up and bit a man among the crowd on the hand, leaping fully two feet from the ground.

"Another instance, this of a man whose chief object seems to have been a foolhardy display of fearlessness. He was holding one of the monsters in his hand by the back of its neck, so it could not bite him. He dropped his hand to the side of his leg. The Gila monster shut his teeth down on his heavy duck overalls, taking a double piece out where the cloth folded as quickly as a pair of scissors could have cut the fabric and as cleanly."

ABUSE OF THE DEAD.

Queer Custom of the Bagas Forehs of French Guinea.

The Bagas Forehs, who live in French Guinea, quit life in a manner anything but commonplace. When a man dies his wife and children do not lament him. Instead they are angry at having been abandoned. They prop the body up against the house with the forked branch of a tree and invite their friends and relatives to come, all of whom are furious that one of their own has left them. When all the guests have arrived the wife of the deceased advances and addresses what was once her husband in a way well calculated to scare his ghost away from the neighborhood.

"There now, listen! You'd leave me, would you? So you don't want to live with me? Why do you do this way? Haven't I always been a good wife to you? Haven't I been a good mother to your children? Haven't your rice and fish always been well cooked? Have you anything to reproach me with? Nothing. Then shall not you go? Coward! Traitor! You shall not leave without receiving the correction that such conduct deserves."

Then the blows begin to rain down upon the poor defenseless figure. Presently the tired wife gives place to the children, and they in turn to the relatives and friends, all of whom similarly abuse it. At length, with a natural human impulse, their fury spent, they try to make amends to the hapless corpse. They bathe it and bury it a meter deep inside the house, and each day at the dinner hour the family places on the tomb some grains of rice and a little palm wine for refreshment of the soul should it return.

Origin of Cork Legs.

"A cork leg?" said the dealer. "Why, man, a cork leg would crumble under you like a leg of bread. You don't want a cork leg, but an elm or willow one. A leg was never made of cork since the world's beginning. But many people think as you do, and I'll tell you how the fallacy originated. The inventor of the modern artificial leg—the leg instead of the stick—was John Cork. Cork's legs, or cork legs, were famous around 1810. And whenever a man makes your mistake he pays an unconscious tribute to Cork's skill."

Very Much Settled.

An elderly woman, on being examined before the magistrate of Bungay as to her place of legal settlement, was asked what reasons she had for supposing that her deceased husband's settlement was at St. Andrews.

The old lady looked earnestly at the bench and said:

"He was born there, he was married there, and they buried him there; and if that isn't settling him there, I'd like to know what is!"—London Telegraph.

A Correction.

Bertie—Father, what is an egotist? Father—He is a man who thinks he is smarter than any one else. Mother—My dear, you are scarcely right. The egotist is the man who says that he is smarter than any one else. All men think they are.

Small Himself.

"The trouble with that man is that he takes small matters seriously."

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "but you could not expect him to do otherwise without sacrificing his self esteem."

Strong minds suffer without complaining; weak ones complain without suffering.

Mr. Thomas Keys, of Harmony, Ont. was drowned in a water pail and suicide is suspected.

HUMOR

DEPRAVITY OF MAN.

How a Chicago Husband Proved Himself the Meanest of Men.

"I've just heard of the meanest man in this town."

"What did he do—break open some child's bank?"

"It was worse than that. His wife had made him promise to help her pick out a new spring hat, and a few hours before the time at which he had agreed to meet her in the millinery department of one of the big stores he went to the place, made a few complimentary remarks to one of the young women on duty there and then told her what he had agreed to do.

"'The woman who lives next door to us,' he explained, 'has a new hat which cost $33. Now my wife will want one which is worth at least $5 or $10 more.'

"Then he whispered some instructions to the bewitching saleslady and departed. When he returned with his wife, he skillfully managed it so that she was waited on by the young woman with whom he had arranged matters. A number of hats were brought out for inspection, but only one of them seemed to be satisfactory. There was a hat marked $42 which the victim of the plot liked pretty well, but her husband threw up his hands and declared that it was outrageous for her to expect a man in his circumstances to pay any such price for a wisp of straw and a feather.

"'But, Henry, you want me to look respectable, don't you?' the wife pleaded.

"'That's all right. If I could afford it, nothing would give me greater pleasure than to buy this hat for you. But $42! That's more than I pay for a whole suit of clothes. No. You must take something cheaper.'

"Well, they looked at every hat in the store, but always the lady got back to the one which was marked $42. At last Henry found that he would have to go. He couldn't neglect his business all day to help his wife pick out a hat, and he went away, desperately informing her that she might go ahead and select anything she wanted.

"When he got home that night his wife put her arms around his neck and said:

"'I suppose it was awfully extravagant of me, Henry, but I really could not find anything else that I would wear. I had the forty-two dollar hat charged to you. You won't think I'm silly, will you, dear?'

"Do you know what that wretch had done? He'd induced the young woman in the millinery department to take a twenty-one dollar hat and put a forty-two dollar price tag on it, and there his poor wife is with a hat which actually cost $12 less than the woman next door paid for hers? The depravity of some men is incomprehensible."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Utilitarianism.

"Some people," said Dr. Wallace Wood of the University of New York, "carry utilitarianism so far that the value of beauty is forgotten and nothing appeals to them but usefulness. They are like the barber who was cutting a young man's hair when his shears made an unfortunate snip.

"His victim leaped from the chair. 'Oh,' he cried in pain and dismay, 'you've cut a piece of my ear off!'

"'Sho,' returned the barber soothingly, 'don't carry on so, boss. 'Tain't nuff to affec' yo' hearin'.'"—Woman's Home Companion.

Long Time Between Calls.

"You used to wear a Vandyke beard," she pouted. "I don't like you without it. The next time you come to see me wear one again."

He looked at her reproachfully.

"Do you know how long it takes to grow a respectable Vandyke?" he asked her.

"No," said she. "How long?"

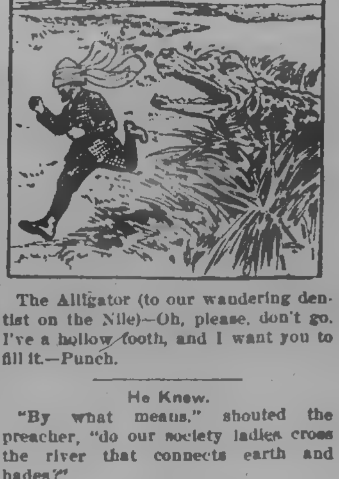
"About six months," he answered plaintively.—Ohio State Journal.

A Remote Contingency.

"What's the matter with your dog, ma'am?" the doctor inquired.

"He's worrying me terribly," the agitated lady replied. "He ran out on the porch this morning when his nurse opened the door and bit a hole in the mail man's letter bag, and I'm so afraid he may have poisoned himself on a dead letter." — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Help Wanted.



The Alligator (to our wandering dentist on the Nile)—Oh, please, don't go. I've a hollow tooth, and I want you to fill it.—Punch.

He Knew.

"By what means," shouted the preacher, "do our society ladies cross the river that connects earth and hades?"

"Bridge!" answered the lean faced man whose wife had stayed home to figure up Saturday's losses and who was still guessing.—Broadway.

The Wabash G. T. R. depot and pumping house at Thamesville were burned Wednesday night with $5000 loss

Humor and Philosophy

WHEN SHE IS NEAR.

I like to see a pretty girl,
  With pleasure I confess it,
Although when one is close at hand
  You might not ever guess it.
I hesitate and stammer so,
  Were one to take my measure
He'd think I suffered agony
  Instead of joy and pleasure.

I may be very fine and fit
  And feel like licking Corbett,
But all my courage oozes when
  I come within her orbit.
For manly bravery I make
  A poor and slender showing,
For any one who will but look
  Can see she has me going.

She may be only half my size
  And frail and pale and slender,
But all my bluff is on the blink,
  And I at once surrender.
The thirst for eating folks alive
  No longer in me rages;
In fact, would she but say the word,
  I'd let her draw my wages.

It's funny how a little girl
  Of one and twenty summers
Can meet a bunch of full grown men
  And vanquish all the comers.
Without an effort on her part,
  Without undue commotion,
She makes them to her music dance
  If she but takes a notion.

Hard Problem.

"There's one thing I can't understand."

"Only one?"

"Don't try to be smart. I don't see why that rich fellow has any friends."

"That isn't what puzzles me."

"What is it?"

"I don't see why he has any money."

BIG MUSKRAT WAS CAUGHT

Mr. Patrick Sullivan Thought He Had Lunge on His Line

Every year brings forth a fresh crop of good fishing stories. This year is no exception and some good ones have been told But it is claimed that Mr. Patrick Sullivan, who keeps a little grocery store in the north end has the best of all. He went out fishing bright and early one morning this week, and selected as his ground the Otonabee river, just below the old slaughter house, long since abandoned. Upon arrival at the spot he dropped his hook into the water and soon had a pretty fair bass on the shore. He dropped his line in again and he got a bite. It was a good sharp bite too, and Mr. Sullivan felt confident that he had a big lunge on the other end. He carefully played his enemy for several minutes and then pulled it out. To his surprise he had, instead of a fish a good sized muskrat. This is the first time that Mr. Sullivan ever heard of a muskrat being caught by hook and line, and being afraid of it bringing ill luck he let it go again.

First Oratorio to be Published

In Canada by a Canadian Lady is Just Issued by Mrs. Gardiner Harvey

A work has just been published which shows the progress which Canada is making. On reading this statement it will most likely be imagined that the book is a careful compilation of the accumulation of the wealth of the Dominion. In this materialistic age progress has been identical with money, and the excuse is often heard that Canadians have been too busy building up their country to allow of their devoting time and talents to the creation of the beautiful in art. The beauty of the butterfly has been ignored in favor of the honey-making, useful bee. This is but one illustration of the saying of Ruskin that "the most beautiful things in the world are the most useless, peacocks and lilies for instance."

The publication of this book is a sign that the times are changing. The incessant drudgery of the older days is passing and the love of the beautiful which was not dead, but only waiting, seed-like, to spring into life, is showing itself. And in what more beautiful form could this new life show itself than in music? It is the art of all arts, which has the power to lift the soul above the earthly storms and has well been described as "a thing of the soul—a rose-lipped shell that murmured of the eternal sea,—a strange bird singing the songs of another shore."

The oratorio is regarded as one of the highest forms if not the highest of musical compositions. The demands it makes upon the composer are the most severe and exacting. It is therefore, with great pleasure we speak of the publication of "Salvator," a sacred oratorio by Mrs. Gardiner Harvey, Mus. Bac., organist of St. George's Church, Guelph. This we believe is the first oratorio to be written or at all events published by a Canadian lady.

It is to be hoped that choir masters throughout the Dominion will not allow this work of a Canadian musician to remain unheard. Mrs. Harvey's work deserves recognition and encouragement not only for itself but should be hailed as a proof of what Canada can do, and what her example may lead us to expect that Canadian will do in the future. —Guelph Herald.

Road Roller Finished up Yesterday and Moved to Rubidge St.

The steam road roller, after six weeks hard labor has finished Water street north. One side of the street from Smith street north to the end of the street car tracks, has been made an entirely new roadbed, while from the end of the car line to the gravel pit, the whole road bed was torn up, covered with broken stone, and rolled into excellent condition. This work has been hanging fire for years and everyone will be glad that it is done. The roller is now working on Rubidge street, north of Simcoe.

For The Home Dressmaker

· SUITS FOR COUNTRY OR SEASHORE WEAR ·

THERE was a time not so many years ago when anything was considered good enough for everyday wear. Nowadays, however, the sensible woman who has the knack of always dressing well pays far more attention to her everyday suit than to any other gown in her wardrobe. The reasons for this are obvious, as the average woman has far more use for the walking-length skirt and jacket than she has for elaborate gowns, especially if she is going away to the seashore or country. It is such a satisfaction, too, to always feel well gowned, whether the days are sunshiny or gloomy, or even if the rain pours.

Two smart little suits are shown today, which are so easy to build that the home dressmaker will find no difficulty in copying them. The first one is in oyster shell white rough tussor or pongee, the skirt of which is frankly short and in the popular nine-gored circular model, finished with a deep hem. A cape coat with an under flounce, and with the long drooping shoulder lines, is worn with this jaunty costume. White tussor-covered buttons with white silk cord loops are used for trimming. The collar is a lingerie affair, and the soft tie in front is of deep rose silk. A large white chip hat has a deep pink and white scarf draped around it, with one huge pink rose in front to match the pink in the scarf and the parasol, both of which give the touch of color needed to liven the oyster white.

Soft white flannel or a linen not too heavy in weight would be equally smart. In this case a touch of red on the hat and a red parasol should be added to a most effective costume.

If linen is the choice for such a suit, another combination that is desirable is of dull blue braided and embroidered in white. The loose little cape with its jaunty lines may be supplemented by a braided skirt, as is the case in most of the French models of this class.

The bold Breton embroideries in red and blue are also much used in Paris for the trimming of string color and white linens, and some of the prettiest French models have English open-work embroidery in color on white or string color. Such embroidery in brown upon natural toned linen is considered very smart. Dull Copenhagen blue on string color is also most effective.

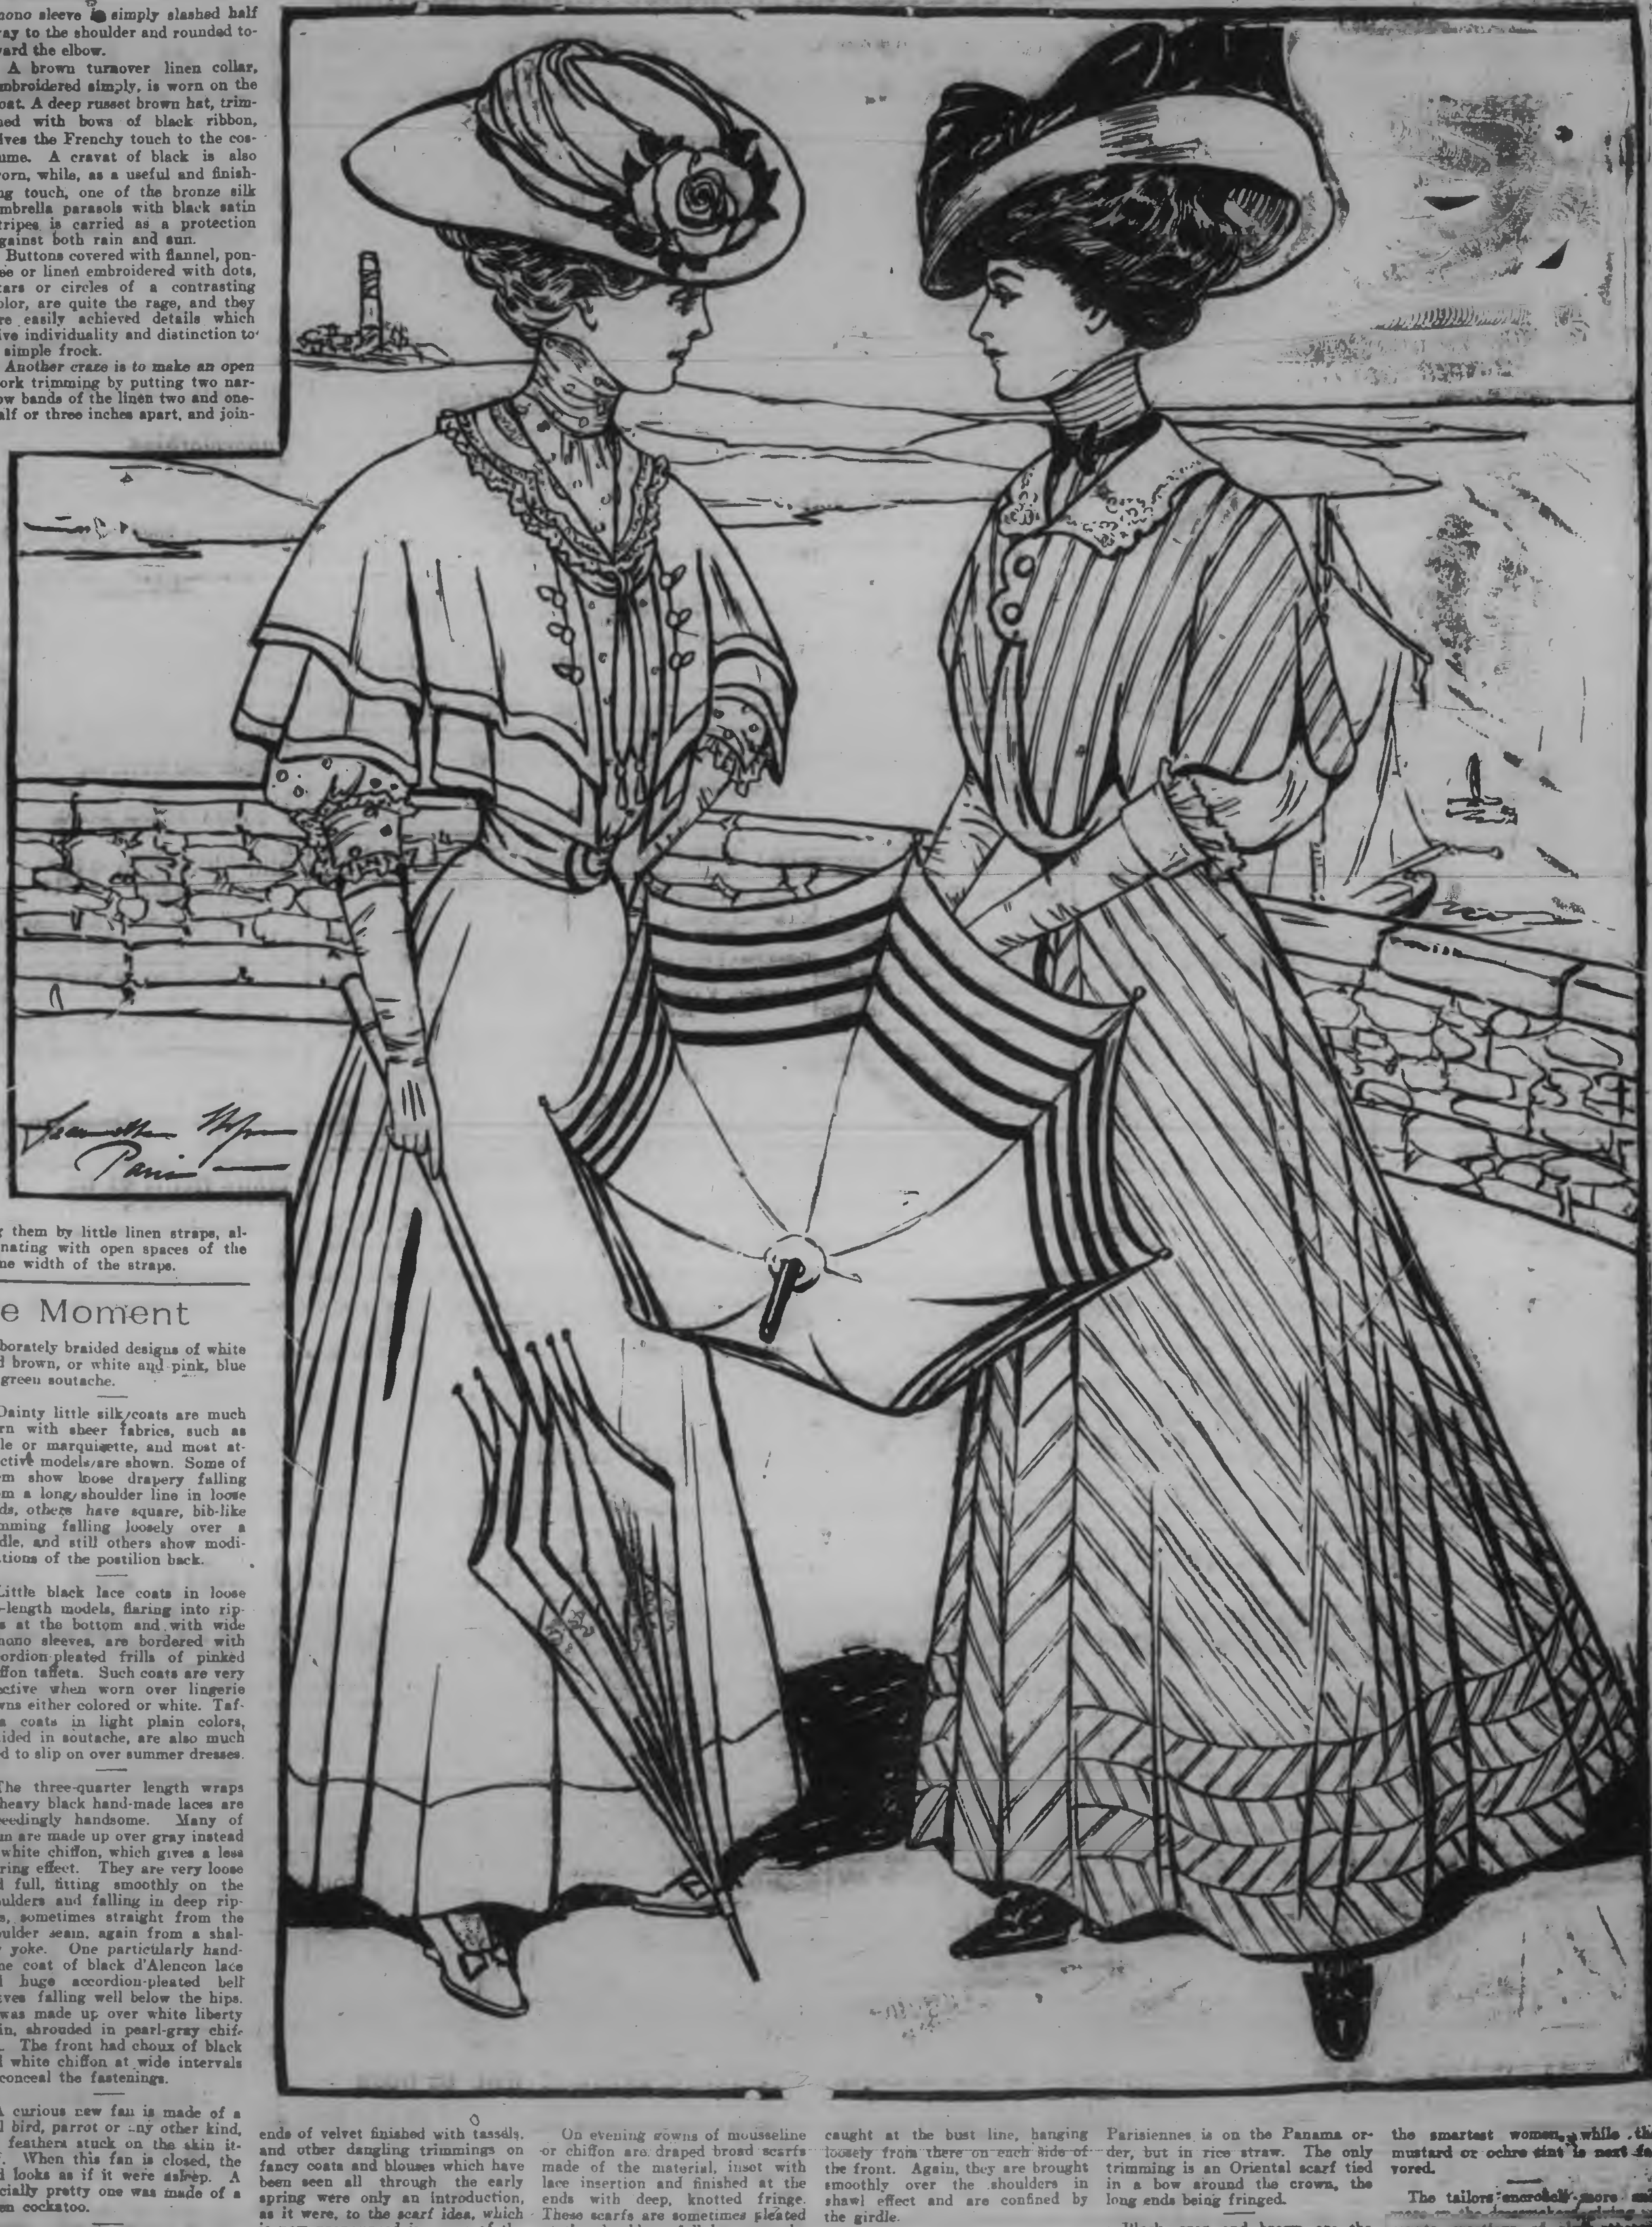
The second model shown is a smart brown-and-white striped flannel. It, too, may be developed in linen if lighter weight material is desired. Two bias panels are used in the front of the circular skirt, which is also trimmed with two bias folds around the bottom.

The cut of the coat is simplicity itself, but it is exceedingly chic with its left side lapels decorated with smoked pearl buttons. The kimono sleeve is simply slashed half way to the shoulder and rounded toward the elbow.

A brown turnover linen collar, embroidered simply, is worn on the coat. A deep russet brown hat, trimmed with bows of black ribbon, gives the Frenchy touch to the costume. A cravat of black is also worn, while, as a useful and finishing touch, one of the bronze silk umbrella parasols with black satin stripes is carried as a protection against both rain and sun.

Buttons covered with flannel, pongee or linen embroidered with dots, stars or circles of a contrasting color, are quite the rage, and they are easily achieved details which give individuality and distinction to a simple frock.

Another craze is to make an open work trimming by putting two narrow bands of the linen two and one-half or three inches apart, and joining them by little linen straps, alternating with open spaces of the same width of the straps.



Fancies of the Moment

LININGS for the sheer cotton gowns are preferably of lawn made into a slip skirt, which may or may not be elaborately trimmed, but must be cut on the same lines as the outside skirt.

The Parisienne still clings to the silk lining for the lingerie gown, and most of the imported models are made up over a white or colored silk foundation. The softer silks, particularly those of satin finish, are chosen rather than taffeta, as they lend themselves better to the clinging effects of the season.

For the serviceable gown, however, taffeta is still the favorite lining. It gives a better "set" to a frock, and if a good quality is bought, lasts a surprisingly long time.

Linen is more popular than ever, both in the sheer and heavy qualities. Nothing makes a more satisfactory costume for business than one of the new canvas weaves of linen in one of the many serviceable shades of brown, dull blue and gray now so much worn. These are, as a rule, made in strictly tailored fashion, with half-fitting or tight, half-length or short coats.

The more elaborate linen suits are in bolero or Eton styles. Many of them show the Oriental tendency, and all are more or less trimmed. Soutache braiding and hand embroidery combined is much seen on them, or the embroidery alone.

White, or ecru, linens frequently show the color note in their trimmings. This is often given by hand-embroidered dots. Sometimes the cuffs, collars and revers are in a colored linen. Thus one stylish string-colored linen had collar, waistcoat and cuffs of rose pink, set in inch bands of the string color and outlined by a narrow line of black soutache braid.

Pattern robes of white linen, with elaborately braided designs of white and brown, or white and pink, blue or green soutache.

Dainty little silk coats are much worn with sheer fabrics, such as voile or marquisette, and most attractive models are shown. Some of them show loose drapery falling from a long shoulder line in loose folds, others have square, bib-like trimming falling loosely over a girdle, and still others show modifications of the postilion back.

Little black lace coats in loose hip-length models, flaring into ripples at the bottom and with wide kimono sleeves, are bordered with accordion-pleated frills of pinked chiffon taffeta. Such coats are very effective when worn over lingerie gowns either colored or white. Taffeta coats in light plain colors, braided in soutache, are also much used to slip on over summer dresses.

The three-quarter length wraps of heavy black hand-made laces are exceedingly handsome. Many of them are made up over gray instead of white chiffon, which gives a less glaring effect. They are very loose and full, fitting smoothly on the shoulders and falling in deep ripples, sometimes straight from the shoulder seam, again from a shallow yoke. One particularly handsome coat of black d'Alencon lace had huge accordion-pleated bell sleeves falling well below the hips. It was made up over white liberty satin, shrouded in pearl-gray chiffon. The front had choux of black and white chiffon at wide intervals to conceal the fastenings.

A curious new fan is made of a real bird, parrot or any other kind, the feathers stuck on the skin itself. When this fan is closed, the bird looks as if it were asleep. A specially pretty one was made of a green cockatoo.

Tassels, fringes, long loops and ends of velvet finished with tassels, and other dangling trimmings on fancy coats and blouses which have been seen all through the early spring were only an introduction, as it were, to the scarf idea, which is now pronounced in many of the late models.

On evening gowns of mousseline or chiffon are draped broad scarfs made of the material, inset with lace insertion and finished at the ends with deep, knotted fringe. These scarfs are sometimes pleated at the shoulders, fall low over the arms, and are either knotted or caught at the bust line, hanging loosely from there on each side of the front. Again, they are brought smoothly over the shoulders in shawl effect and are confined by the girdle.

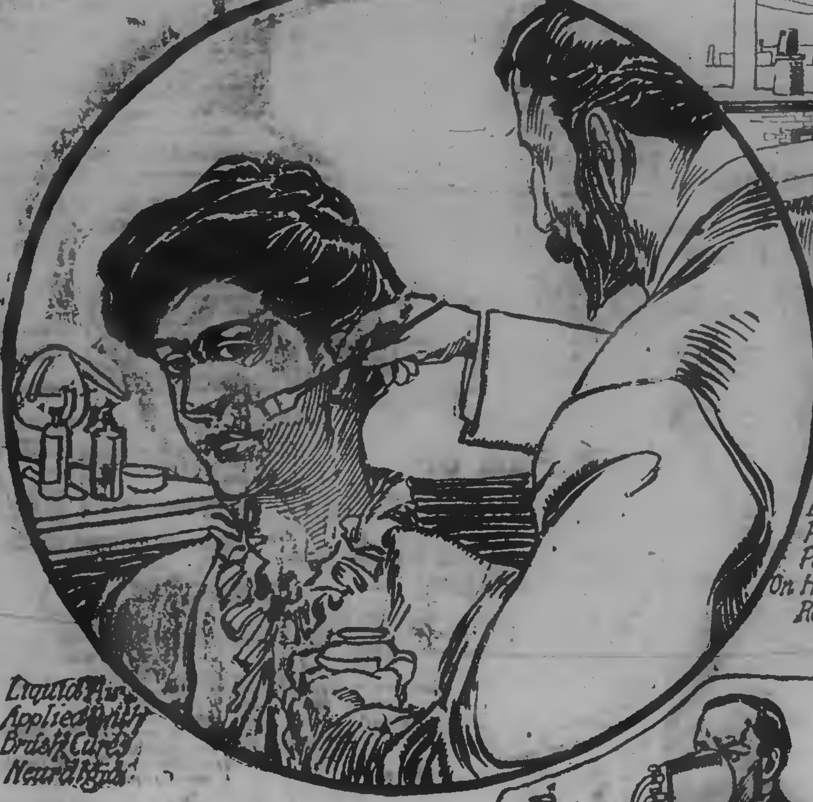
A favorite tennis hat with young Parisiennes is on the Panama order, but in rice straw. The only trimming is an Oriental scarf tied in a bow around the crown, the long ends being fringed.

Black, gray and brown are the colors most seen in the dresses of the smartest women, while the mustard or ochre tint is next favored.

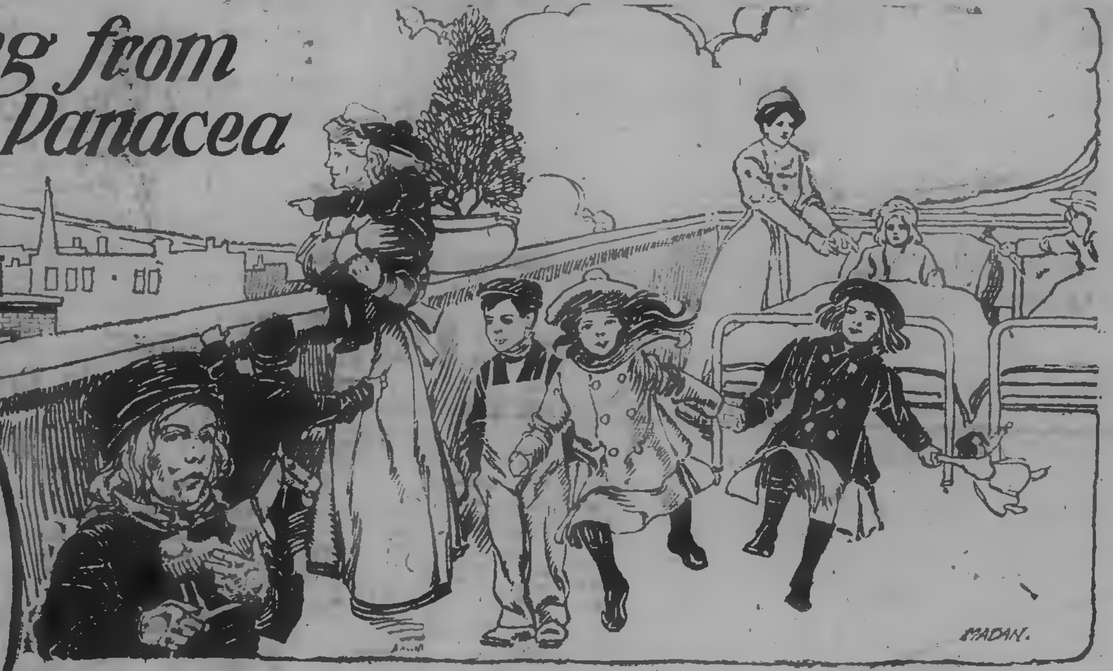
The tailors encroach more and [illegible] ornate creations of cloth, [illegible] linen, and even of muslin.

ARE NOW CURING DISEASE WITH AIR ALONE

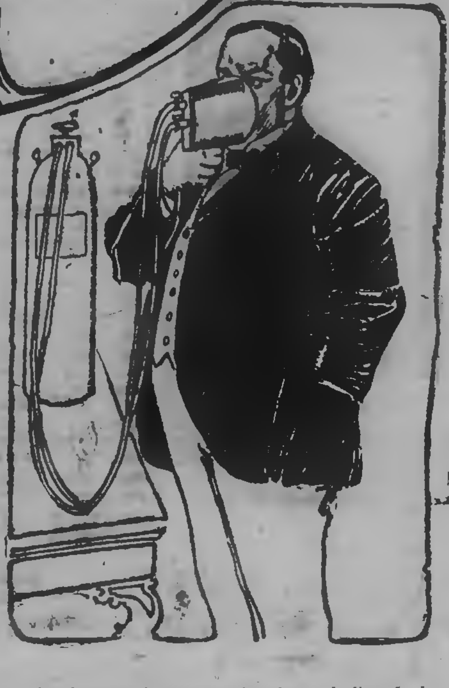
Medical Science Turning from Drugs to Nature's Free Panacea



Liquid Air Applied with Brush Cures Neuralgia



Little Pneumonia Patients on Hospital Roof.



Inhaling Rarified Air for Obesity

EXIT drugs, enter air.

To a large extent this is the epitome of recent developments in medical science. For many of the most deadly ills of mankind, physicians of authority now agree, no other treatment is so beneficial as the free panacea furnished by nature.

That consumption yields to fresh air and sunlight, with nourishing food, has long been known, and the prediction is made that in fifty years the malady will be practically unknown. Now, in addition to the White Plague, air treatment cures pneumonia, insomnia, anaemia, delirium, typhoid, malaria and other fevers, septicaemia and diseases of the skin.

And, whereas it was at first supposed that air could cure only that form of consumption which has its seat in the lungs and throat, now it is used with as notable results in skin, joint and bone tuberculosis.

So much for plain fresh air—free air. But this wonderful force is being harnessed in different manners for various kinds of treatment, until there is hardly a single classified disease which it will not cure. Compressed, rarefied and medicated air are prescribed in certain cases.

So impressed has science become with the beneficial effect of air as opposed to more artificial modes of treatment, that in the British Isles the subject of attempting to change the climate in order to give a wholesome atmosphere has been discussed.

A is for air, which,
Inhaled in large doses,
Will very soon cure you
Of Tuberculosis.
—From the Consumptives' Alphabet.

IF EVERY ONE should commit this little quadruplet to memory, and apply it at the proper time, it would probably mean a hasty rout of tuberculosis.

Owing, perhaps, to the very simplicity of the air treatment, many tuberculous sufferers, and some physicians, cannot be induced to take it up. Aerotherapy—this is the name of the science of curing disease by air—is, as an authority said the other day, "far from being appreciated at its true worth by the majority of physicians."

Astounding possibilities in the treatment of disease by air alone were brought out quite recently in New York when the management of the Presbyterian Hospital announced that many little children had been cured of pneumonia by simply being obliged to sleep on the roof of the building with their faces uncovered in freezing weather.

Children being compelled to sleep these cold winter nights in freezing atmosphere, their noses red and pinched from the elements, may at first seem to smack of cruelty, but at any rate it leads to a result not always attained by medicine—a complete cure. After a few nights in such an odd bedchamber the children grow to like it and become happy.

REAL CHILDREN OF NATURE

They become real children of nature, just as the Indian children were before civilization's day, when they had only a bark tepee to protect them from the wind and drifting snow, and yet thrived.

Nor does the comparison end there. They look like Indian papooses, too, wrapped as they are from head to foot in blankets, with only their heads sticking out, and even the heads are encased in nightcaps. Furthermore, they have the advantage of hot-water bottles at their feet, which help to make their little bodies as warm as toast. They are welcome to all the heat they can get, but must keep their lungs full of fresh, unheated air.

How different from the old-fashioned way of treating pneumonia. Not so many years ago the patient would be placed in a stuffy room with blankets over the doors and windows to keep out the air, and, incidentally, the light; perhaps a stove would be kept burning to its full capacity near the bed, and medicines of various sorts would be poured into the unhappy patient. The chest would be encased in burning poultices.

Under that method of treatment the death rate was high. Wonderful cures are effected by the fresh-air treatment.

Natural elimination is the keynote of the system. Cold, pure air, forcing its way into the lungs, partly given out again by respiration, and partly taken into the blood, keeps thrusting from the body poisonous gases, deadly germs, and building up good healthy tissue and muscle.

Only one aid is required in addition to air, and that is cold water. Sips of water are given the little patients from time to time, and this aids the air in eliminating poisons. Even the food that is given is liquid and easily digested.

In ten months of such treatment, only one patient died, and he was so worn down by pneumonia, complicated with rickets and other ailments, that there was no hope for him from the start.

Pneumonia is not the only disease so treated at the Presbyterian Hospital; in many others the fresh-air treatment, and that alone, is given.

For instance, a boy swallowed a sewing-machine bobbin, and following an operation was in a bad way generally. Thinking that death was inevitable, the physicians decided as a last resort to let the little fellow lie on the roof with the others. The fresh air healed up his wound, made his lungs and stomach strong, and in a short time he was well.

At the Fordham and Mount Sinai Hospitals, New York, the same treatment has been adopted with as gratifying success. At the former institution, out of thirty persons so treated for pneumonia, only one died. The patients sleep in an ordinary tent on the hospital lawn.

In the treatment of fever, fresh air is becoming more and more popular. Time was when the typhoid fever patient was shut in a closed room, little more than a cell, and given only hot beverages.

Some years ago there came a change; plenty of cold drinks, even ice water, were given, and it was agreed that the cooling of the blood was an aid to recovery. Still, the patient was kept in a comparatively close room. Next, the value of sunshine for the fever patient was seen; for sunshine kills germs and imparts cheer.

And now the logical extreme has been reached—the sufferer is either placed on a roof or in a room with the windows wide open so as to get the benefit of the purest of air.

Even the dreaded influenza, or grip, which has ravaged parts of the United States this winter, is treated with air.

A physician explains: "The grip patient is mentally sodden because of the toxins that pervade every pore of his body. These poisons cannot be driven out in a warm, close room; they thrive there. Place him in the freezing air and let him sleep so, and the grip will soon be gone."

As to scarlet fever, the same authority said: "The cry when fresh-air treatment is mentioned is, 'But the patient will catch cold.' That is wrong, for while the body is aflame with fever, it is impossible to catch cold. By every means—cold air and cold water, ice, etc.—the fever must be driven out."

At the Academy of Medicine, in New York, the fresh-air cure was discussed a few nights ago by some of the leading physicians of that city.

SUN'S RAYS HEAL WOUNDS

One of the most remarkable uses of fresh air described at the meeting was in relation to the cure of septicaemia—a disease produced by the focusing of many little abscesses in some part of the body, usually the lungs. Dr. William S. Stone said that with the aid of the simplest tonic cures can be effected by exposure of the patient to the open air.

A boy of St. Louis, John Cottle by name, recently had the skin of his entire chest burned in an accident. At the City Hospital he was placed in a ward where the sun could beat down upon his breast all day and he be constantly surrounded by perfectly fresh air. Now the wounded breast has entirely healed.

Every one remembers what his physiology said about air—that it is a gaseous mixture, composed principally of oxygen and nitrogen in the ratio of something more

It is generally believed that we breathe only with the lungs, but it has been shown that in other organs, especially the stomach, there is always a certain quantity of air, and this explains what physicians mean by "gastric respiration."

So, in considering air as a cure for disease, physicians have come to the conclusion that not only diseases of the lungs or respiratory organs need be considered, but that pure oxygen may with benefit be forced to all parts of the body. Even the skin is affected by the air in a manner which has warranted the term, "cutaneous respiration."

Importance of outdoor life in treatment of tuberculosis has become recognized the world over. Life in the open air, winter and summer, day and night, is the essential to a cure, and it has been found that tuberculous patients improve more rapidly during the colder than the warmer months.

COLDS NOT FEARED

In the many consumptive camps in all parts of the United States at present it is not uncommon for a patient to sleep with an inch or two of snow on his blanket and enjoy it. In some camps tents are the only shelter, in others, shanties are used, but in either case the free passage of air through the apartment is imperative.

Drafts are not feared, for it is maintained that fresh air, no matter how cold or damp, never gave any one a cold, provided the body was kept well covered. In some instances the head and hands are protected by cap and gloves.

It is not necessary, in order to benefit by this treatment, to go to a hospital or a consumptive camp. One may take it at home. Sleeping in a room with the windows wide open serves almost the same purpose.

Some persons, to get the full benefit of the fresh air, sleep on balconies or improvised landings outside their windows; while others sleep with their bodies in the house and their heads out of the window.

Medicinal treatment is reduced to a minimum; raw eggs and milk are given to build up the body, and the air is relied upon as the curative agent.

Within recent years air has been successfully liquefied, and to medicine and surgery the possibilities in liquid air are wonderful.

A proposition has been made to liquefy mountain air and sea air so that the air at any point may be treated with this liquid and become like that of the mountain or sea where it was secured.

Imagine sprinkling a bottle of fluid about your room and within a few minutes enjoying the air of the Swiss Mountains, the National Park or Atlantic City!

The refrigerant action of liquid air—for it becomes very cold—has been used in the treatment of carcinoma and of certain nervous affections, such as sciatica and neuralgia. A prominent physician uses it by dipping a small brush in a solution of air and applying it to the diseased tissues or skin. The skin becomes perfectly white and bloodless, but the circulation is restored promptly and a cure is soon effected.

Cold-air baths have been used recently for skin diseases, and ice-cold air administered through a tube surrounded by ice has cured cases of chronic catarrh, fever and tuberculosis.

When hot air—sunshine serves the same purpose—is applied to diseased skin, new blood vessels are formed and general improvement is noted. Hot air also effects a permanent cure in sneezing, asthma and certain kinds of catarrh, and hay fever is advantageously treated in the same manner.

TREATMENT IN AIR CHAMBERS

In building structures under water it is often necessary to have the men work in a caisson, charged with compressed air, which keeps the water from oozing in. It has been noticed that when men go into a caisson to work they enjoy a feeling of increased vigor, although sudden change from the caisson to the outer air may cause death.

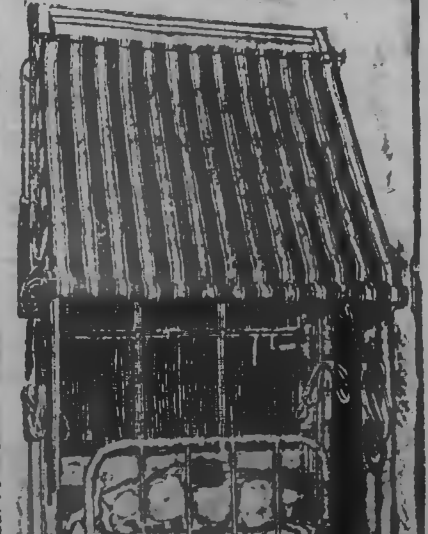
Taking advantage of the caisson principle, physicians now place patients in compressed air compartments and subject them to the pressure a certain number of hours a day.

This treatment cures affections of the bronchial passages, emphysema, asthma, pulmonary tuberculosis, pleural affections, diseases of the heart, anaemia, diseases of the ear, whooping-cough, hemmorrhage, diphtheria, deformities of the thorax and scrofulous disorders.

It has been commended in conditions of cerebral congestion and for the relief of toothache when not caused by caries of the teeth.

Encouraging results have been obtained from condensed-air treatment in diabetes, and even in obesity. In five cases of excessively fat persons who took the treatment, it was found that after thirty sittings they lost weight rapidly, but without ill effect on their general health.

Rarefied air may be given in a cabinet, but the same effect in a more natural manner is derived from balloon ascensions or mountain climbing. The treatment is recommended chiefly for pulmonary tuberculosis, anaemia and neurasthenia.



How One May Take the Cure at Home

The Waning of the Oath

THE practice of administering the oath appears to be passing away. In some countries—Germany, for instance—it has already gone.

At least one writer attributes modern laxity in opinion and practice relative to the oath to the prevalence of perjury. If witnesses no longer respect the oath, it would be better, it is thought, that it be not administered.

In some American courts a swearing witness is no longer required to kiss the book. It is considered sufficient that he hold his hand upon it while pledging himself to speak the truth. If he has a preference in the matter, he need not do even this. He may simply affirm.

Contrary to the supposition of many persons, the practice of kissing the Bible is not an ancient one. It did not pertain in the time of Lord Coke.

Jews make oath in either of two ways—the ordinary form adopted by Christians, except that the Pentateuch alone is kissed, and by the following solemn asseveration: "I swear by the great God of Israel and five Books of Moses to speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help me, Jehovah."

One of the most picturesque forms of administering the oath is that followed by the Mahommedans. The witness places his right hand flat upon the Koran, puts the other on his forehead, and then brings his forehead down until it is in contact with the book.

Then he stands erect and looks steadfastly up for some seconds. The officer of the court asks the witness: "Are you bound by the ceremony you have performed to speak the truth?" The answer is, "I am."

To the Buddhist witness, the officer of the court says: "You declare as in the presence of Buddha that you are unprejudiced, and if what you speak shall prove false, or if by your coloring truth others shall be led astray, then may the three Holy Existences, viz., Buddha, Dhamma and Phro Sangha, in whose light you now stand, together with the glorious Devotees of the Twenty-two Firmaments, punish you and also your migrating soul."

The witness places his hand on the Zendavesta and says: "I swear that the evidence I shall give shall be the truth, by God, by God omnipresent, by God omnipotent, the God Almighty."

To the strength of the Quaker's simple word it is assumed that nothing can be added, and he is permitted to simply affirm, which any one may do in court.

How Sports May Be Enjoyed in Old Age

"THERE is no sport like an old sport"—especially if the sport indulged in be baseball, football, swimming, running, wrestling. To all these forms of physical exercise there should be practically no age limit; they should be enjoyed in moderation by the man of 60 as well as the youth of 20, declare certain authorities.

While there are young men whose muscles are so weak that they cannot hang from a swinging ring and who become exhausted if they run ten or fifteen yards, there are scores of octogenarians who take the greatest delight in athletics.

Two of the champion skaters of the country are 90 years of age. Cannon held the Graeco-Roman championship of England for wrestling until he was past 50. The physical instructor of Girard College, Philadelphia, one of the best and sprightliest "gym" professors of the United States, is 78 years old.

"IF OLD PEOPLE knew how much younger they could be and how much longer they would live if they took strenuous physical exercise," a prominent physician declared recently, "there would be 'gyms' for old folk, for grandfathers and great-grandfathers all over the country."

The physical concomitant of old age is the hardening of the tissues and an increasing rigidity of the arteries. The arteries begin to lose their elasticity at about the age of 40. Without any physical exertion the circulation becomes sluggish, the rigidity increases and the wants of the system are meagrely supplied.

If an old man took as much exercise as he did when he was a freshman at college there would be an increase of blood circulation, the arteries would revive and become resilient, there would be improved nourishment of the tissues and a lively excretion of waste matter.

"If old men formed football teams," declared a physician, "and played the game I am certain their lives would be prolonged many years.

"'A man is as old as his arteries,' is a common saying. Well, if people took exercise and kept at it, although they became centenarians, their arteries would never get old. Hervey found arteries intact in a man who died at the age of 152.

"There has been a great increase in the number of old men who take exercise, and I am sure there would be many more if they knew what it does for them."

According to one well-known physician, the best age for playing football is between 25 and 35.

Take the winter sport of skating—if old men knew the pleasure and zest of skating there is little doubt all who are active on their feet would learn to describe circles on the ice. We should no doubt see grandfathers playing hockey with the children!

One of the fastest and most accomplished skaters of the country is Colonel J. Harvey Rogers, of New Castle, Del., who is 90 years of age.

Colonel Rogers has skated since he was a child, but enjoys the sport now as he always did. Hale and hearty, with red cheeks, flashing eyes, this old man says he feels as young as a boy, and attributes his good health to skating. Colonel Rogers has offered an open challenge to skate against any other old man in the United States.

Two other well-known aged skaters are Abraham Oppenheimer and Benjamin Garmer. Garmer lives at Trenton, N. J., and although 85 years of age, takes a daily skate, when there is ice on the river, from Trenton to Princeton, a distance of twenty miles.

An old man, well past 70, won a recent public skating contest in Holland. The course was 160 Dutch yards. G. R. Phillips won prizes in public competitions from 1867 to 1897, and still skates.

Some persons never learn to swim when young. But if you are 50, it is not too late. With practice in smooth water on a pleasant summer day there is no one so old that he cannot learn to swim, and even beat younger swimmers. One of the best swimmers in Germany is a man 65 years old. A resident of Cincinnati, well past 70, performs marvelous diving feats.

One of the easiest and best forms of exercise for young and old is running.

If you are 80 when you begin, you will have to take moderate exercise at first. An old person cannot expect to start with a sprint and keep up a six-minute-to-the-mile gait for several miles.

Begin to walk briskly, fall into a light trot and increase your speed until you go as fast as you can without having to breathe hurriedly through the mouth. When you get in trim, run a mile each day and take fifteen minutes of gymnastic exercise before retiring. That's the advice of old men who have tried.

In a go-as-you-please race from Bordeaux to Paris, France, a distance of 150 miles, a man of 70 arrived ninth, in good condition.

Professor G. Jaeger began running when he was a little past 50. He lived near Stuttgart, Germany. Five hundred yards was his limit at first; he soon became exhausted, bathed in perspiration. But with practice he was able to run five miles without experiencing any fatigue.

Two old men living in a city can get excellent exercise by wrestling in a large, light room. If they live in the country, a soft plot of grass is much better. Of course, there must be more gentleness displayed in the struggle than two 18-year-old boys would observe. The form known as "catch-as-catch-can"—similar to one form of Swiss wrestling—can be practised with benefit, as it calls all the muscles into play.

Then there is the gymnasium. Get away from the fireside and the pipe and take to dumbbells, is the advice of medical men.

The large class of boys at Girard College, Philadelphia, is under one of the oldest physical instructors in the United States. Professor Lois Lewis is 78 years of age, and is considered one of the best and most active instructors in the country. While the boys revere his gray head, his dexterity and skill encourage them to great effort. Lewis has been physical instructor for thirty years. He says his good health and strength are due to continued physical exercise.

"It is futile," says Dr. H. Toeppen, of St. Louis, "to try to lay down general age limits for the different kinds of athletic sports. The limits vary individually within very wide marks, and if observations made on a number of individuals of the present generation put them very low, this does not mean that they would be the true and desirable limits if we had a generation whose physical education from the beginning had been undertaken and carried out upon a plan only one-fourth or even one-tenth as elaborate as the plan for its mental education, not only so far as exercise and sport are concerned, but also in regard to eating, drinking, clothing, sleeping, pleasures, stimulants, etc.

"Live a simple, natural life, [illegible] every day of your life, even should you steal the time to do so, and see what will become of your [illegible] limit for the various kinds of sports."

THE MEDICINAL VALUE OF FRESH FRUIT JUICES

One of the Greatest Wonders of the Age.

Hundreds Have Been Made Well by Taking Advantage of an Ottawa Physician's Discovery.

Everyone knows how beneficial fruit is, when eaten regularly. Fruit is nature's laxative—the finest kidney regulator—and the ideal skin tonic. Unfortunately, the medicinal principle of fruit occurs only in minute quantities. In order to consume enough fruit to relieve Biliousness, one would also consume a large amount of woody fibre or pulp, which would upset the stomach and impair digestion.

An Ottawa physician discovered a way to get around these difficulties. He pressed the juice from apples, oranges, figs and prunes—and then forced one more atom of the bitter principle from the discarded orange peels, into the concentrated juices. This formed a new compound, having all the curative effects of fresh fruit—and in a highly intensified degree. Then valuable tonics and internal antiseptics were added and the whole pressed into tablets.

These are "Fruit-a-tives" the wonderful Liver Tablets you hear so much about. "Fruit-a-tives" cure the most obstinate cases of non-action of the bowels, biliousness, headaches, sleeplessness, nervousness, kidney trouble, rheumatism, sciatica and neuralgia. They are the greatest blood purifying medicine in the world, while their action on the skin, in clearing and beautifying the complexion, is nothing short of marvelous. Ask your druggist for "Fruit-a-tives" and see that you get them. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50. By mail, postpaid, from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa. 113

Battery Boys Will Return Home From Petawawa Camp Tomorrow

Minister of Militia Visits the Camp—Prizes Awarded the Men by the Canadian Artillery Association—Major Young Injured.

Camp Petawawa, June 26, 1907—Yesterday the camp was visited by Lieut.-Col. Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia, and Lieut.-Col. Jones, Director General of Medical Services, both of whom expressed themselves in very favorable terms.

The weather this week has been very favorable to men and horses, laying down the dust and cooling the air.

On last Tuesday Major Young was unfortunate enough to meet with an accident, which will keep him from mounting his horse for the remainder of the camp. While mounting something startled his horse and the Major gripped his saddle so firmly that the muscles of his leg were so badly strained as to incapicitate him for some time. In spite of this injury the Major continued mounted and finished that day's drill.

One of the Battery horses had his leg put out of joint while drilling.

The following prizes have been awarded to the 24th by the Canadian Artillery Association, viz.;

DRIVING.
1st, R. Shaw.
2nd, C. Barr.

DRAUGHT HORSES
1st, M. O'Toole.
2nd, Jas. Powers.

RIDING HORSE.
1st, J. Allen.
2nd, T. Kemp.

FUSE SETTING.
1st, G. Harrington.
2nd, W. Skipper.
3rd, M. Mitchell.
4th, F. McCarthy.
5th, H. J. Barton.
6th, J. Miller.
7th, D. Wilson.
8th, H. Logan.

GUN LAYING.
1st, Corp. Galvin.
2nd, Gunner Chapman and Gunner Coman.
3rd, Gunner Brooks and Bombadier Barrie.
4th, Gunner Edwards.
5th, Gunner C. Rush.

MAJOR YOUNG
Officer Commanding the 24th Field Battery Canadian Artillery.

The boys are all well, but we have not heard how Sergt.-Major Fee is progressing, but hope it is favorable. He is greatly missed, as he put his whole heart in his work.

We expect to arrive in Peterborough early Sunday morning.

Rangers Leave To-night To Invade St. Catharines

The 57th regiment leaves tonight for St. Catharines on their annual outing. They will travel by Grand Trunk and will leave the local depot on a special train shortly after ten o'clock. The regiment will parade at the drill hall at 9.30 and with both bands will march to the station and entrain. Complete arrangements have been made for the trip and it is expected that the Rangers will invade St. Kitts full strength. The regiment and both bands are in good condition and no doubt will make a favorable impression while abroad.

The military men and the citizens of St. Catharines have made arrangements for a hearty reception to their visitors from Peterborough and an enjoyable outing is expected. The programme for the parade includes a church parade, trip to Niagara Falls, and assisting in the ceremonies attending the presentation of a flag pole by the Daughters of the Empire to the City of St. Catharines. For the most part, however, the men will be free to enjoy themselves and see the sights around the Garden City.

The regiment will arrive home Tuesday morning.

The Officers and Sergeants of the Collegiate Cadet Corps

An Enjoyable Band Concert

Hundreds of People at Victoria Park Last Evening

For the fourth consecutive time this season there was ideal weather for the band concert in Victoria Park last night. The crowd was the largest of the season, it being estimated that there must have been over two thousand people present. The band was out in full force, and the programme rendered was perhaps the best of the season. Some of the selections were given with exceptional brilliancy and were greeted with hearty applause. One of the best numbers on the program was Bandsman Hughes' cornet solo, "Columbia Polka." This was given in splendid manner and was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. Another number, worthy of passing mention was the drinking song, "Cellar Deep," which was given by the band in a most praiseworthy manner.

The programme was as follows,—
March, Philharmonic.
Overture, Poet and Peasant.
Dervish Chorus, In the Soudan.
Trombone Solo, selected, Bandsman Nix.
Sacred March, Number Three.
Cornet Solo, Columbia Polka, Bandsman Hughes.
Patrol.
Drinking Song, Deep Cellar.
March, selected.
God Save the King.

Big Lunge Caught At Bobcaygeon

Hundreds of people were attracted yesterday by a huge fish, of the species maskinonge displayed in the Yonge street window of the Canadian Pacific ticket office. This fine fellow weighed 26 pounds, 46 inches long and 18 1-2 girth, and was caught on Wednesday by Mr. W. R. Crandell, proprietor of the Rockland House at Bobcaygeon, to whom the more credit is due in that he was landed without aid of gaff or net after putting up a strenuous fight. Mr. J. J. Rose, travelling passenger agent of the C.P.R., and himself an ardent fisherman, witnessed the "kill" and promptly brought the big lunge to Toronto, to show the kind of sport the C.P.R. offers its patrons. It should be remembered that Bobcaygeon is a splendid centre for the best bass and maskinonge fishing in the world, is about three hours' run from the city, and is reached only by the Canadian Pacific.—Toronto Mail.

Ladies' Aid Society Was Entertained

Yesterday afternoon, the Ladies' Aid of Mark Street Church were very pleasantly entertained at the residence of Mrs. Gamble, Warsaw road.

A large number were present and the affairs of the society were interestingly discussed. Music was also given and refreshments were served on the lawn. The party returned home early in the evening, after expressing thanks to Mrs. Gamble for her kind hospitality extended to the Ladies' Aid Society members.

Two Little Boys Left Their Homes

Were Not Heard of From Wednesday Morning Until Friday Night

Two little boys, one aged 12 years, and the other 11 years, took one of those notions which boys often do in the summer time, and they disappeared from home. It is an old trick for boys of that age. They get the fever for going away to see the world, as they picture it to themselves. Every kid has either done the same thing or wanted to. The two in question left home early Wednesday morning, and made for country, just where, they did not know exactly. The main question was to get away; such a thing as eating and sleeping could be settled later.

They were not missed by their parents until dinner time arrived and passed. Even then there was not much anxiety, as boys often go with chums to dinner. But at supper time Willie and Gillie did not show up, and their respective mothers became anxious. Darkness came on and still no boys appeared, and enquiries were made throughout the neighborhood. No one had seen the chaps all day. Then the searching party was increased by every member of the two families, but the result was the same. No little boys were put to bed that night and there was none to eat breakfast next morning.

The mothers became very anxious and feared something had happened to them. Early that morning reports were received that two little boys were seen at Sandy Point, and also at Chemong. Enquiries were made at both places, but there was nothing in the stories. All day Thursday no sons came home, and the fearful mothers heard nothing of the runaways until yesterday afternoon, when Willie's uncle came to the city, and said that the two boys were at his farm having a jolly time.

Willie's mother went out with the uncle and brought her little son home, arriving in the city last night. In the meantime the two sisters prepared for the prodigal's return, and, while he was not sent to bed without his supper, he will not likely run away again until he gets orders, and has some money in his pocket.

The trustees of the B.M.E. church at Windsor will retain the services of Rev. O. H. McGowan, who has been expelled from the conference.

C. P. R.'S NEW CROSS CONTINENT FLYER

"Trans-Canada" Makes Fastest Time Across America.

The business of the country is growing to such an extent that the C.P.R. finds it necessary to run an additional train between Montreal and Vancouver, making three trips a week during July and August. This train, which will be known as the "Trans-Canada Limited," will make the fastest time of any train across the American continent. It will carry baggage car, dining car, and palace sleeping cars only, of the very latest design, and with most modern appointments, and only first-class passengers will be carried. She will leave Montreal on the first trip July 2nd. Berths can be reserved in Toronto for passage from North Bay to points west of Winnipeg at which the "Trans-Canada Limited," stops. No passengers will be carried from Toronto for Winnipeg or points east thereof, as Winnipeg passengers arrive only one hour later by taking the "Imperial Limited." List of stops, full particulars, and berth reservations can be obtained at C.P.R. local ticket office, or from C. B. Foster, D.P.A., C.P.R., Toronto.

NEW FIRM OF CONTRACTORS

Messrs. Hawes & Bryant are Actively Engaged

A new contracting firm that is securing numerous contracts in the building line this season is that of the firm of Messrs. W. J. Hawes and Wm. Bryant, and they have been kept busy all season. Among the contracts which they have had is the erection of a house for Mr. James Grady on Smith street. Excellent progress has been made on this building and it will be completed in a few weeks.

Hawes and Bryant have the contracts for two new houses in the south end of the city and have plenty of work ahead of them for the summer and fall.

A LARGE FISH

Mr. Crandell of the Rockland went for a fish Tuesday and succeeded in bringing home a record breaker. The maskinonge weighs a few ounces over 21 lbs., the length was 46 inches, girth 18 inches. It was a pretty fish and of course was photographed. The guests all admired the fish and next morning, many were down the lake trying their luck.—Bobcaygeon Independent.

DOMINION DAY

Before another issue of the Re- reaches its readers, Canadians oughout the length and breadth th's fair domain will be celebrat- the birthday of the Dominion. ly 1st will be the fortieth anniv- ry of Canada's natal day. The n who laid broad and deep the ndation of confederation have passed away from the sphere of world's activity, with the ex- tio of two. What a splendid, mag- ficent, noble structure they have sed.

One might dilate at great length the progress of the Dominion, her rvellous industrial and commercial ncement, her fertility of soil, brity of clime, great material urces and unbounded prospects. late years her advancement has most marked and all eyes are ned upon this young nation, re peace, prosperity and plenty und.

Throughout the nine provinces, e is a happy song of freedom, ean of praise for the liberty privileges that we today en- No cloud darkens the indus- horizon; no domestic or for- entanglements disturb the out- k.

The population of Canada in 1871 3,689,257. Thirty years later number of inhabitants had in- sed to 5,371,315, and today it is ated that there are fully 6,- 000 people within our borders. migrants are coming to these es, attracted by the prospects red to make a good home for selves. During the ten months July 1906 to April 30th, 1907, less than 168,718 new settlers me to Canada, as compared with ,031 during the corresponding ten ths of the previous year.

But great as has been the mater- l progress, what about those things t endure— honesty, truth, right- sness—high ideals of citizenship there not a tendency to relax, to wer the standard of morality and blic service? It would so appear. andal and malfeasance of office m to be on the increase. Are we oming so inured to these out- eaks, manifestations and records, hat they no longer arouse us to action, or stir up righteous indigna- tion among the masses.

Speaking on this topic Mr. R. L. Borden, the gifted and popular Con- servative leader, this week, said:

"The different communities throughout the enormous area of Canadian territory, are beginning to know each other better, although much still remains to be accomplished in this regard. The material prosperity of the people in various industries, and the means of transportation, both by rail and water, have increased to a marvelous degree, within my recollection. Canada has received her full share of the tremendous commercial and industrial expansion and prosperity, which, during recent years have prevailed throughout the world.

"One can thus draw a roseate, but a true picture of the commercial and industrial development of our country. The more important question remains, as to whether there has been a corresponding moral and intellectual improvement and advancement. Are the standards of public opinion higher than those of thirty years ago? Does the commercial spirit dominate too greatly? Is aught unforgiven to him who acquires a great fortune? Have we not forgotten some things of importance in the fierce race for sudden wealth, and in the uses to which it is applied? There are more books, and perhaps more book-learning, but is there truer education than there was thirty years ago? The true answer to these and many other similar questions, would not give us in Canada today much cause for self-congratulation."

SHORT SERMONS

It is gratifying to learn that the clergy of Peterborough do not preach long sermons during the heated term. In fact, the services in nearly all the city churches are over in the evening within an hour. Frequently do long discourses defeat the object in view and the good that otherwise might be done. Mark Twain, the celebrated humorist, who is now touring England, and was present at the recent garden party of Their Majesties, the King and Queen, tells this story, which has a moral: "I went to church one time and was so impressed by what the preacher told me about the poor heathens that I was ready to give up a hundred dollars of my own money and even go out and borrow more to send to the heathens. But the minister preached too long and my enthusiasm began to drop about twenty-five dollars a drop until there was nothing left for the poor heathen and by the time he was through and the collection was taken up I stole ten cents off the plate."

PEN POINTS

Monday being Dominion Day and a national holiday, there will be no issue of the Daily Review.

What about the Christian charity of the ministers, (in Brantford), who have thus been instrumental in depriving a fellow being of his means of making a living, simply because he had offended their dignity? Can anyone imagine the Master correcting a sinner who had spoken intemperately to Him, by appealing to the politicians to have his means of support taken away from him.—Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

Yes! of course, blame it all on the ministers. So easy you know!

Mr. G. M. Macdonnell, K. C., of Kingston, in appearance as well as in nervous intensity of speech, reminds one very much of his distinguished brother, the late Rev. D. J. Macdonnell of St. Andrew's church, Toronto, says the Dominion Presbyterian. His impassioned speech on "Graft, the National Sin," will not soon be forgotten by those who heard it. He claimed that "graft" and not intemperance called for strong condemnation at the hands of the General Assembly and in confirmation of his contention, asked his hearers to "go to Ottawa, or to the election courts, or look at the report of the Insurance Commission and see that we are not an honest people in Canada today." A hard indictment, but, sad to say, with too much truth in it.

Here's something will interest smokers; the moral seems to be, grow your own tobacco;—The Minnesota food department took a shy at tobacco recently and the fact was revealed that the trust is preparing all kinds of stuff for the innocent to put in their pipes and smoke. Several popular brands of tobacco being analyzed, two kinds shown were found to contain 40 per cent. tobacco, and the balance was common brown paper cut fine. A certain cheap kind, which is 5 cents a package in the U. S. and 15 cents in Canada, contained not a particle of tobacco, but was finely chopped brown straw paper soaked in the juice of tobacco stems and the refuse. A popular "Mixture" was only 10 per cent. tobacco and the rest brown paper. When a man thinks he is suffering from nicotine poisoning, it may be nothing but the taste of straw smoke creosote in his mouth.

Will Not Play Double Schedule

Intermediate City League Will Stick to Single Schedule

A double schedule will not be played in the intermediate baseball league. Such was the conclusion reached at a meeting of the executive at which all teams were represented last night in the Y. M. C. A. The president, Mr. Jas. Lang, was in the chair.

After some warm discussion on the schedule question, a vote was taken resulting in three for a double and three for a single schedule. The president then settled the matter and votes for a single schedule. The Excelsiors have dropped out of the league. Their representative stated that if allowed the privilege of signing more players they would stay in it and would favor a double schedule. This was not allowed and they withdrew.

The matter of the protested game between the Excelsiors and Strathconas was also brought up. The Straths claim this game was a tie, but was reported as the Excelsiors winning it. The Straths say one of their runs was not counted.

The matter was left over until another meeting so that the umpire might be consulted.

What will practically be the deciding game of the league will take place this afternoon at the oval, when the Karenots and West Ends will struggle for first place. It will be an exciting contest. Mr. Herb. Campbell has been agreed upon by both teams as a satisfactory umpire.

The Straths have still a chance for the championship. They play the Lakeviews today at four o'clock at the Oval, and also have a tie game to play off with the Lillies. If they win these two and also their protested game, they will have to play off with the winners of the West End — Karenot contest for the cup, as they have already won a game and capturing these would place them even with the winners of today's game.

Canada's National Holiday And How it May be Spent

Peterborough People Will Have no Lack of Amusement—Many Excursions, Picnics and Sporting Fixtures—A Summary of What Will be Going on Monday of next week is Dominion day, Canada's national holiday. It will be the 41st birthday of the Dominion of Canada and throughout the whole of the land will be celebrated right royally. On July 1st, 1867, the British North America Act was passed and the various provinces of Canada were united into one strong federation which has since been known as the Dominion of Canada. Of the "fathers of confederation" few remain. With one or two exceptions those who had worked and struggled for the union of the provinces, have passed to their last long home. But, though called away, the effect of their labor looms up largely. Forty years ago Canada was known only as a minor British colony while today she is known the world around and she is fast taking her place among the nations of the earth. East and west, north and south, has spread the fame of Canada's rich soil, of her thriving manufacturing industries of the thrift and energy of her people, of the valor of her sons and the skill and endurance of her athletes.

Canadians have reason to feel proud of their country—the best in the world. Let them rejoice and be glad on her forty-first birthday and celebrate the day in true Canadian fashion.

In hundreds of cities, towns and villages from the Atlantic to the Pacific, celebrations will be held to do honor to the national holiday. While there will be no formal celebration in Peterborough, local people will have many opportunities to spend the day pleasurably, and that everyone will enter into the spirit of the day if the weather is fine, goes without saying.

T.A.S. PICNIC.

Foremost among the events of interest is the annual picnic of St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society, which will be held at McNamara's Grove about five miles down the river. The steamers Monarch and Rainbow have been chartered for the day, and a boat will leave the street railway wharf every half hour during the day. The steamer Monarch and barge will leave the Wolfe street wharf at 8.30, but after that the boats will not come past the street railway wharf to escape going through the locks. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the celebration at the park. Among the attractions will be athletic sports, gasoline launch and canoe races, music and dancing.

FORESTERS' EXCURSION

Another way to spend the holiday will be to go with Companion Court Queen Alexandra, on their annual excursion, which this year will be held to Idyl Wyld. The steamer Otonabee will leave the Wolfe street wharf at 8.30 and will call at the Ashburnham and street railway wharves. This promises to be a most enjoyable outing.

TO STONY LAKE

Another attractive outing is the excursion of St. Luke's Bible Class to Stony Lake. The excursionists will leave the G.T.R. station at 8.30 a.m. and at Lakefield one of the boats will be boarded for the sail around the lakes.

LACROSSE

For those who will stay at home the principal attraction will be the intermediate C.L.A. game at Riverside Park between the fast Beaverton aggregation and the home team. The match will start at 2.30 sharp.

BASEBALL

Lovers of baseball will have an opportunity of witnessing a fast game on the morning of the holiday. The Arctics, of Toronto, and the Peterborough team meet at Riverside Park at 9.15 a.m., and a great contest is assured.

GOLF AND CRICKET.

Two local sporting organizations will be represented out of town on the holiday. The Peterborough Golf Club is sending a team to Toronto to play the Rosedale Club, while the local cricket team goes to Toronto to play the Grace church eleven.

Of course, there are reduced rates on the railway for the holiday, and as usual many Peterborough people will spend the day at outside points.

BIG CELEBRATION IN HAVELOCK

There will be a big Dominion Day celebration in Havelock on Monday, at which the formal opening of the village park will take place.

In the morning there will be a big trades procession, and in the afternoon a programme of games and sports of all kinds will be carried out.

A number of the county councillors, including the county officials intend taking in the demonstration and congratulating Reeve Thompson of the village, on the opening of his new park.

The hustling railway village never does anything by halves and the festivities on Monday promise to be highly successful and enjoyable.

LACROSSE

TOO MUCH FAKING

"There is too much of this faking injury on the lacrosse field," remarked one of the Capital players, discussing the charges that several of the Nationals rolled to the ground and pretended to be badly hurt in their game against Shamrocks so that Shamrock men would be penalized.

"Every team in the league has its fakirs," continued the Capital man, "and I have often had to go to the bench through my cover falling while scuffling the ball, and then pretending that I had struck him. It is a simple thing for a player to scrimmage for the ball, and then roll over, pretending unconsciousness. This work has won and lost games, and few of the officials have ever seen through the trick. If I were refereeing a match and a player faked injury to penalize another man, I would rule the supposed injured man off for the match, and teach the rest a lesson."

It is alleged in Montreal that in the Shamrock-National battle, and the Toronto-National game, six or seven of the men who were carried off the field, supposedly knocked out, had not even a scratch on them after the match.

SMART STYLE AND BECOMINGNESS

It's a white season, and shirt blouses of every style will be par excellence. A very trig shirt waist in linen, showing narrow tucks at either side of the front closing, and wider ones on the shoulder ending at yoke depth is sketched and recommended to all lovers of good style. The narrow plaiting edging the front plait is a late suggestion for adornment and may be used or not as desired. The natty shirt cuffs are trimmed in like manner while this also appears on the collar. The waist is one not difficult to fashion, but suggestive of good taste and representing the best of the newest fashions. Any of the seasonable waistings may be used, the medium size calling for 3 yards of 36 inch material.

66815.—A SUMMERTIME COMFORT.

The heat of summer days is often rendered less oppressive by the donning of some light and dainty negligee and every woman and girl provides herself with several before this time arrives. A very dainty one is shown in flowered dimity with collar of plain material for contrast. The sack and sleeves are laid in narrow tucks at the top and the result is most pleasing. The closing is effected in front and may be elaborated with ribbon bows or pretty buttons. For home making this is excellent in style as it is a bit unusual and therefore more valued. The thin silks and washing fabrics may any of them be used successfully in its realization. For the medium size 3 5-8 yards of 36 inch material are needed.

KINDERGARTEN APPOINTMENTS

Miss Cameron Appointed Directress of Department in King Edward School

In the account of the proceedings of the Board of Education meeting, the following clauses from the report of the Committee on Appointments, Mr. W. H. Hill, chairman, were quite unintentionally omitted in yesterday's issue,—

Your committee recommend that Miss Mary Denne and Miss Ada Gillespie be appointed kindergarten assistants at a salary of $225 per annum.

We recommend that Miss Cameron who has been acting as assistant in the kindergarten, be appointed directress of the kindergarten, in the King Edward school, at a salary of $375 per annum, subject to transfer by the inspector, if found necessary. The report was adopted by the Board.

CITIZENS ASKED TO GET READY

For the Delivery of Mail Matter From House to House in Peterborough

Street mail delivery must be near at hand, for there is a notice in the Peterborough post office to the effect that all parties wishing letters delivered at their houses, should have it addressed to a certain street and number, when the mail will be brought around by carrier. The notice does not say when the free mail delivery service is to be inaugurated, but it cannot come too soon to please the majority of citizens especially those who have to endure the crush at the wicket during the busy hours of the day.

Final Arrangements for T.A.S. Picnic

The final arrangements for the big T.A.S. picnic at McNamara's Grove on Dominion Day, were completed last night at a special meeting of all the committees. Everything is in readiness and all that is now needed is a fine day. The gasoline launch race will be run off at 11 o'clock. The steamer Monarch and barge will leave the Wolfe-st. wharf at eight o'clock Monday morning, calling at street railway wharf at 8.30. The street car tickets are bought with the boat tickets. They are on sale at Menrell & Meredith's, Lang & Maher's, Lane & Eano's, T. A.S. rooms, and John Malane's, East City.

Ten bombs were thrown into the public square at Tiflis, Trans Caucasia, this morning, killing and injuring many persons.

DOCTORS HORSE IN A RUNAWAY

Broke Buggy and Harness and Then Went to its Stable

Dr. McNulty's horse created considerable excitement last night by taking a little run around the city by itself. The doctor had driven to Ashburnham early in the evening and left his horse and buggy standing on the road while he visited a patient. The horse was attached to an iron post and stood very quietly until the doctor came out. Just as the owner put out his hand to untie the horse it gave one spring, which broke the strap and let it loose. It ran at a good clip down Hunter street towards the bridge. Just as it went onto the bridge the buggy collided with the railing and the top and seat remained there, while the rest of the outfit continued up over the hill towards the doctor's house. The animal evidently thought the doctor was in the rig as it went straight to the office, and in pulling into the steps the buggy collided with the telephone pole, trees and sidewalk, and broke things up generally. By the time the horse got out of this tangle there was not an inch of harness left on it, not even the bridle. It turned around, however, and came down town again, and went to its stable in McCollum's livery barns, and there stood quietly until the hostler put the bridle on and gave it oats and water. The doctor will now have to get a new buggy and a new set of harness.

Says the By-laws are Not Enforced

Drivers Should Keep to the Right —Broken Glass on Streets

A citizen complained to the Review last night at two by-laws of the city were openly violated and the authorities apparently paid no attention to their enforcement.

One was the practice of many drivers to not turn to the right, when meeting another vehicle or when passing down the street.

The other matter was in reference to the practice of throwing glass on the roadways,—a habit that should certainly be checked. Many rubber tires were cut by the glass and great injury done.

Cost of Building Has Increased One Hundred Per Cent. in Ten Years

Lumber and Lath Have Doubled—Brick and Stone Nearly Doubled—Wages are $1.00 to $1.50 Per Day More—Still the Number of Houses is Ten Times Greater—Modern Conveniences in 90 Per Cent of the New Homes --Rents Have Been Doubled and Many People Are Buying Their Own Homes.

Peterborough of ten years ago is quite different from Peterborough of to-day. There have been great changes and greater growth and development. Hundreds of homes and hundreds of commercial and business places have been erected, while the increase in the volume of trade and in the total profits have been enormous. When one looks back and compares the city of 1897 with the city of 1907 we can hardly realize that it is the same.

In those days times were hard although the first rays of light were just peeping through the clouds that had been hanging over the heads of the people for the several years previous. The crops, owing to kind providence, were better than they had been for a long time; some money was being circulated and the country began to move out of a rut. Since then a steady improvemnet has been noticed and every year has since seen a greater advance than the year previous, until 1906 which was the banner year and 1907 promises to far surpass that.

The condition of the laboring man and the mechanic today is so different from what it was a few years ago that it is worthy of mention. Take for instance, the building trade, and all other trades and classes of labor have increased proportionately. Ten years ago the best carpenters could be engaged for $1.50 and $1.75 per day, and that was considered a good wage. To-day it is hard to get a man to do the most unskilled work for that money, while carpenters get from $2.50 to $3.00 per day. Times have changed and people cannot, or will not live in this age as they did a few years ago. More money is demanded and as everyone has more money they can afford to pay more for services rendered.

BUILDING TRADE.

To the general public probably the most noticeable development has been in the building trade. Statistics, however, do not show any greater increase in building than in commerce, but the people are more familiar with building as they can see it.

The Review yesterday afternoon in the course of a conversation with one of the best known contractors in the city, gained from him considerable information which will be of interest to many readers.

"What is the difference," asked the Review, "in the cost of erecting a house ten years ago and erecting one to-day?"

The contractor thought for a couple of minutes and then stated "It is just about double. That is a house which to-day costs a man $2000 to build, and that is about an average price ten years ago could have been erected for $1,000, roughly speaking. In addition the house built in the early period was far better value although the price was only half."

"How do you figure that out?" was asked.

"In this way," said the contractor. "At the time I speak of there were comparatively few houses going up. The lumber yards were piled high with lumber of all ages, and nothing was used for building purposes unless it had been properly seasoned. To-day the lumber is practically taken direct from the mills and put into the house, with the result that the building is not nearly so satisfactory. If I had known a few years ago what I know now I would have put up ten or twelve good houses, and instead of working in the hot sun earning my daily bread, I would be sitting in the shade with nothing to do but collect my rent."

"Why not build or buy a number of houses now?" inquired the Review.

"For the simply reason that houses to-day cost far more than they are worth for an investment. There are too many people buying a house to live in themselves, and this keeps the price up. Do you know the majority of houses are sold before they are finished and many of them change hands several times from the time the foundation is started until the place is ready to live in, and every change adds a couple of hundred dollars to the cost."

COST OF BUILDING.

Being asked why building was so expensive now compared with ten years ago the contractor gave the following figures showing the increase in every branch of the trade: Rough lumber, best quality, that cost $8 and $9 a thousand is now sold at $17 to $20 a thousand. Flooring that sold at $12 and $14 a thousand, we now pay $25 to $30 a thousand for.

Matched hemlock which cost $10 and $11 ten years ago now costs $20.

Lath was only 15c per hundred and is now 50c to 55c per hundred, while the second class lath which we could get for carrying away almost we now pay 40c a hundred for.

Brick veneering that cost $11 and $12 a thousand, laid in the wall, costs nearly $20 to-day. Solid brick walls 9 inch and 14 inch used to cost $7 and $8 per thousand, but to-day we pay $16 to $18.

Stone work, and we used to get very much better stone than we do now, cost ten years ago $1.50 per perch to-day it costs $3.00.

QUESTION OF WAGES.

Carpenters in 1897 got $1.50 to $1.75, in 1907 they get $2.50 to $3.00.

Stone masons in 1897 got 25c and 30c an hour in 1907 they get 45c an hour.

Thus the question of wages alone makes a very large difference in the cost of building, while the cost of every class of material has doubled. Painting and sheet metalling are to-day more reasonable than any other labor. The increase in this one has only been about ten per cent.

CLASS OF HOUSES.

The houses being erected to-day are far superior, except in the quality of material, to those put up ten years ago. The architecture ten years ago was very plain. In fact verandahs were a luxury and those that were built were very narrow. But today about 90 per cent of the homes are fitted, when being built, with all modern conveniences, such as verandahs, summer kitchens, bath rooms, closets, sewer and water connections, electric lights, concrete walks, furnaces and good big cellars with concrete floors. These extras add many hundred dollars, but they assure greater comfort, less work and better health, while the sanitary conditions are exceptionally good. Then the interior and exterior finish on the houses is inclined more to be fancy, attractive and beautiful.

RENTS ARE HIGHER.

In sympathy with the increase of cost of material and wages and many modern conveniences, rents have gone up. Ten years a house that rented for only $4 a month now bring $9 and $10 they are very hard to get at. Houses that rented for $7 and which was an average good ho now brings $12 and $15 with lots bidders, while the very good ho that rented for $10 a month cann be had for less than $20 to $22 month.

In spite of the greater cost building and the larger amount money required to purchase a hou the building trade and real business is booming. Not a day by that several sales are not ma Everybody is buying a house, or to build on. Mechanics and othe who a few years ago were glad live in a small six roomed house now buying or building 7, 8 and roomed houses with all modern veniences installed. Every year to 200 new houses are erected and is indeed a rare thing to see a empty. The city is growing and the people are all pros and there is every indication that present good times will continue.

Visits Old Home After 13 Years

For the first time in thirteen years Mr. Harry Stewart, son of Mr. Noble Stewart, of Otonabee, is visiting in the city. He left home in 1895, and went to Louisville, Kentucky, where he has made his home since. During that time he has had several exciting experiences, one of which was with the American army in the war with Spain. Of that war Mr. Stewart wrote several letters to the Review, which were read with interest by everyone. At the present time he is connected with the post office department at Louisville, and is accompanied to Peterborough by his wife and one child, and they will remain here until towards the end of July.

Speaking of Peterborough, Mr. Stewart says he would not know the place. When he went away the population was only about six thousand, and the many big commons on which he played ball are now covered with houses and manufacturing concerns. He has met many old friends since he came back, and he now feels quite at home again.

Fine New Church At Chemong Village

Was Opened on Sunday—Big Celebration on Monday Night

The handsome new church erected by the Chemong Indians was formally opened on Sunday and a big celebration took place yesterday.

The new building is a fine one, and certainly is a credit to the progressiveness of the Chemong Indians. On Monday the day was spent in several sporting events, including races and a football match. In this match, Mr. Dan Whetung, jr., had the misfortune of having his ankle badly sprained. The Whetung family were rather unlucky, as Mr. Whetung, sr., was also laid up with an attack of pleurisy.

In the evening a concert was given in the new hall, a large number being present, including many from other bands. Mr. A. E. Kennedy, of Smith, occupied the chair. Musical selections were given by the band and the Indian choir. Speeches were made by Rev. Mr. Bell of Blackstock, former pastor of the Indian church, and Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., who in his address referred to the progressiveness of the Chemong Indians, as was evidenced by their beautiful church and hall. He said that other bands, such as the Hiawatha, Scugog and Moravian, should follow their example. A great source of profit to the Indians would be a cheese factory. They have three thousand acres of fertile land. He also referred to the growth and wealth of Canada.

Mr. John G. Belcher, also gave a short address and was received with applause.

V. G. MORROW,

A WONDERFUL CURE OF RHEUMATISM

THE CAUSE An excess of uric acid and ureates are deposited in the tissues of the body and joints, causing aches and pains which are called rheumatic.

All the various causes of rheumatism, such as the acute, articular, muscular and gout, have the same common cause—Uric Acid.

To effect a satisfactory cure the uric acid must be removed. This can only be done by introducing into the circulation a remedy which will dissolve the uric acid and stimulate the action of the excretory organs.

No Case That Ferrozone Can't Cure

The remarkable success of Ferrozone is due to the fact that it attacks the disease in the blood. It goes right to the root and cause of the trouble.

Ferrozone is a perfect solvent for uric acid and quickly destroys its evil effect. It stimulates and quickens the sluggish circulation and drives every trace of rheumatic poison out of the system.

Rheumatism Can't Last if FERROZONE is Used.

We have conclusive proof of this. The strongest possible endorsements from people who have been cured after all else failed. If you suffer from rheumatism yourself, or in case you have a friend or relative subject to this disease, read the following—they tell their own tale.

LIFE-LONG CRIPPLE CURED

Mr. Louis Noll, 15 Fulton street, New York, N. Y., writes: "Ever since boyhood I have been a sufferer from rheumatism. My joints were twisted and swollen, and the pain at times was really intense. I used gallons of liniments, vapor baths, and other treatments, but was first noticeably relieved by Ferrozone. It cured me perfectly after taking twelve boxes."

Mr. Henry Heer, Pharmacist, 23 Eldridge Ave., New York, vouches for Mr. Noll's absolute cure. He says: "Mr. Noll has been freed from chronic rheumatism by Ferrozone. For years he has not been so well, and today shows no signs of rheumatic trouble. It is a pleasure to recommend Ferrozone."

The BEST remedy for rheumatism that science has produced is Ferrozone—it is unquestionably the only sure and lasting cure. Sold everywhere by druggists. Price 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50—by mail to any address if price is forwarded to N. C. POLSON & CO., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

FERROZONE, THE ONE SURE CURE.

AN IMPERIAL SCHEME

"AllRed" Line Must Encircle the Earth Says Sir Wilfrid.

Dominion Day Banquet In London—Tribute to Lord Strathcona—Confederation No Longer a Paper Bond But Union of Hearts — Canada Fortunate In Its Viceroys—Laurier Makes Eloquent Appeal.

London, July 2—(C.A.P.)—The Dominion Day dinner was held in the grand hall of the Hotel Cecil, and there was a record assemblage in point of numbers. For the twelfth consecutive time Lord Strathcona presided, having Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his right and the Duke of Argyll on his left. The guests in all numbered 400.

An enthusiastic reception was given the toast "Dominion of Canada" and "Governor-General," proposed by the chairman, Lord Strathcona, who traced the growth of the Dominion, indicated the strength of imperial connection and interest, and trusted that the bonds be drawn closer by an interchange of visits between the residents of the homeland and her chief daughter state, expressing the further hope that Ministers also might snatch a brief period in their busy lives to familiarize themselves with the conditions and circumstances of the great Dominion across the Atlantic.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was received enthusiastically.

In his response he made an eloquent appeal for the all-red route. He paid a tribute to the fathers of Confederation, those far-sighted statesmen who builded better than even they knew, and remarked that the Confederation which in 1867 was a bond on paper was now a union of hearts. The Premier directed attention to the growth so ably directed and assisted by Lord Strathcona of the Canadian railways.

"The next step to which we shall devote our enterprise," said Sir Wilfrid, "is truly an imperial scheme, for the time has come when the all-red line must encircle the earth. For that scheme the people of Canada are ready, and I ask myself if the people of England are ready.

"It is not for us to suggest, still less to insist, what shall be the policy of the English people, but it is not out of place if I remind you that the British people five years ago undertook heavy financial responsibilities to assist a line of steamers running between Liverpool and New York. I am not here to blame them for that policy. On the contrary, I might approve it if an Englishman, but may I not ask the British people and the British Parliament, whether what has been done for foreigners cannot be done for people who fly the British flag?" Here the speaker was loudly cheered.

Continuing, Sir Wilfrid urged that the British Parliament should not hesitate to adopt means of getting into better communication with the Dominion. Referring to the Governor-General, he said that Canada had been most fortunate with all its viceroys, and in a loyal peroration he declared that while he loved the British Isles one place took first place in his heart—Canada, covered by the British flag. (Loud cheers.)

Augustine Birrell, in responding to the toast of "Our Guests," proposed by Donald McMaster, expressed the hope that Ireland, which lay across the Empire, might not be left out of any scheme for its advancement. It was not for him to express any opinion, but if County Mayo, for instance, could be brought within three and one-half days of the glorious Dominion across the Atlantic, it would be a great thing for Ireland and a great thing for the Empire.

SCORES "ALL-RED" SCHEME

London Daily News Calls It Preposterously Extravagant.

London, July 2.—The Daily News, which voices the opinions of the more extreme Radicals, publishes a "somewhat alarming rumor" to the effect that the Government is "still considering the request for a subsidy for the all-red route." It says it is seriously suggested that a free trade government, bent upon economy, should spend anything up to £400,000 a year upon this preposterously extravagant scheme. The News declares no one knows the party would answer for the division if such a proposal were brought forward in the House of Commons.

The Morning Post editorially assures Sir Wilfrid Laurier that public opinion here is steadily setting in the imperial direction he desires, but for the moment it must be confessed the prospects are none too bright for the all-red route.

The Liberal Imperialist Chronicle hopes the Government will assist in carrying out the all-red route.

WHITE MAN LYNCHED.

Assaults Step Daughter and Is Hung In Centre of the City.

Dalton, Ga., July 2.—Dock Posey, a middle-aged white man, the self-confessed assaulter of his nine-year-old stepdaughter, was taken from the Whitefield county jail here yesterday morning and hanged to a railroad viaduct in the middle of the city. His body was found there at daybreak.

Posey, who lived with his family some miles from town, brought the girl here after the crime and first accused another man of the assault.

London ratepayers will receive ballots at their doors by which they will vote on four plans to secure water.

CHINESE LABOR MUST GO.

General Botha Speaks Out At Opening of Transvaal Parliament.

Pretoria, July 2.—In announcing the policy of the Government, Gen. Botha stated that it had been decided not to re-enact the labor ordinance, but to send the Chinese home immediately on the expiration of their contracts. The Chinese indentures would begin to expire this month, and sixteen thousand would expire before December 31 next. The Government had been pressed to amend the constitution to enable a temporary renewal of the contract. After ample and careful consideration, however, it had been decided not to introduce such legislation this season, but let repatiation occur as the indentures expired. The Government was moved not only by the unalterable conviction that the presence of the Chinese was in the highest degree inimical to the interests of the Transvaal, and should cease at the earliest possible moment, but also by the consideration that the supply of native labor had for some time, in a marked manner, been exceeding the demand. General Botha proceeded to declare that the Government native labor bureau would supervise the recruiting of natives in South Africa, and would improve, control and safeguard the interests of the natives, thereby increasing their confidence in their employers. When in England, continued General Botha, he had endeavored to safeguard the rights and the freedom of the Transvaal, consistently with the obligations of the Colony to the Empire. The warmest thanks of the Transvaal were due to the Imperial Government for the generous way in which it had guaranteed the £5,000,000 loan.

The exact number of coolie indentures expiring before Dec. 31 next is 16,759.

FASTS FOR A MONTH.

Yankee Physician Tries Novel Stunt and Gets Away With It.

Belleville, Ills., July 2.—After fasting since May 30, during which time he tasted nothing but water, Dr. I. J. Eales broke his abstinence by taking a small quantity of malted milk. His fast was instituted to test his theory that total abstinence from food for a period is beneficial to health.

After taking the malted milk he said he would fast for 24 hours longer, to ascertain what effect the nourishment would have upon his system.

Beginning his fast at 192 lbs., Eales has lost 28 lb. His chest measurement has been reduced from 43 to 40 inches and his waist measurement from 44 to 34 inches.

He lifted a man weighing 225 lbs. Sunday to demonstrate that his strength has not yet diminished.

CITY SAVED BY DYNAMITE.

Over 200 Buildings Destroyed — Ten Acres Fire Swept.

Bisbee, Ariz., July 2.—Fire broke out here on Saturday and threatened to destroy Bisbee, which has a population of over 20,000.

Over 200 residences have been destroyed.

There was a high wind and the water supply was scant.

The fire was brought under control before noon by blowing up buildings with dynamite.

An area of ten acres was burned over. Over 200 houses in the section known as Chihuahua Hill were burned. Part of the business portion also was destroyed.

The fire started from a gasoline explosion in the Colorado Hotel.

TWO CHARGES OF ASSAULT.

Tweed Storekeeper Arrested For Serious Crimes.

Belleville, Ont., July 2.—Philip Ketcheson, a storekeeper of Tweed, was arrested, charged with assault, committed on the 27th inst., on Mabel Arbuckle, 10 years old, and Edith Beatty, 14 years old.

The mother of the little Arbuckle girl came to the city Friday and laid the complaint.

The prisoner is now in jail here. He is a married man, about 45 years of age, with grown-up children.

Heavy 'Quake Recorded.

Washington, July 2.—The coast and geodetic survey service reports that an earthquake was recorded at the Cheltenham, Maryland observatory yesterday, beginning at 8 hours, 15 minutes and 53 seconds and lasting an hour. The principal disturbance was from 8.22 to 8.26 o'clock, the largest motion being in a north-south direction. The shock was comparatively greater than that at Kingston, but not so great as the San Francisco earthquake.

Albany, N. Y., July 2.—The seismograph at the state museum at Albany registered a fairly large earthquake movement yesterday morning. The disturbance originated apparently at a remote point about 7,000 miles to the southwest.

According to State Geologist Clarke, "it is not unlikely that considerable damage may have been done if it occurred in a settled area."

Told to Eat Poison.

Brockville, July 2.—George Price, a weak-minded young man residing at Plumbrook, died from the effects of a dose of paris green.

Price found a parcel of the poison beside the road and afterwards, it is said, he met a person who jokingly told him to eat it and "that it would be good for him."

He did so and upon reaching home became very ill and died shortly afterwards.

Four Killed.

Bethlehem, Pa., July 2. Two heavily loaded cars became separated from a Bethlehem Steel Co. train at the steel works yesterday crashed into a shifting engine, fatally injuring four men.

Queen Greets Peace Delegates.

The Hague, July 2.—The heads of the delegations to the peace conference were received in audience by Queen Wilhelmina yesterday.

Ten bombs were thrown into the public square at Tiflis, Trans-Caucasia, this morning, killing and injuring many persons.

ORCHARD PLAYS POKER

Was Gambling at Mullen When Sullivan Mill Blew Up.

Pinkerton Man On Stand—Tells Methods Used In Fight Against Miners—Detectives Got High Union Offices—Relief Was Cut Down—Haywood Was Blamed—Orchard Robbed of Some of His "Glory."

Boise, July 1.—At the trial of William Haywood on Saturday, Dominick Flynn, a merchant of Mullen, Idaho, declared that Harry Orchard on April 29, 1899, the day of the explosion at the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mill, played poker in his place from noon until 4 p.m.

Cross-examined by Senator Borah, Flynn declared he had never been a member of any labor organization. He had known Orchard a year and a half and the man often played poker at his place. One of the men who played with Orchard was Patrick McHale.

McHale, who is a bartender in Mullen, followed Flynn on the stand. He said he played poker with Orchard in Flynn's cigar store April 29, 1899, and had never seen the man since.

On cross-examination McHale admitted that he had gambled every time he got a chance.

The witness declared he was positive Orchard was not at Wardner the day of the mill explosion.

On redirect examination McHale said everyone in Mullen except the saloon-keepers were arrested.

The defence also called Morris Friedman, formerly a stenographer to James McPartland of the Pinkerton Detective Agency. Friedman testified as to the methods of the agency in connection with the strikes in Colorado.

Friedman said a Pinkerton man named Crane became secretary of the Smeltermen's Union of Colorado City and was also chairman of the strike committee. Other operatives who were connected with unions in Colorado were: Joseph F. Gaddon, Charles H. Rymer, George W. Riddell, P. B. Bailey, Cummings Lutlow and Conibear. Friedman declared he handled most of the daily reports from these men for a year and a half.

Boise, Idaho, July 2.—The defence in the trial of William D. Haywood began the second week of direct examination of its witnesses, yesterday, when Morris Friedman, the young man who was at one time the stenographer in the Denver office of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, was recalled to the stand. He is looked upon by the defence as one of the chief witnesses to prove a conspiracy on the part of the Mine Owners' Association and others to exterminate the Western Federation of Miners.

The defence expects to conclude the direct testimony this week.

The closing of the case, which will probably be within the next two weeks, will be filled with sensational developments if the promises of both sides are made good. There is an increase of activity and many sensational reports are being circulated, but on investigation prove to be without any good foundation.

Friedman was introduced by the defence to expose the Pinkerton methods of dealing with the Western Federation of Miners. He identified many reports from secret operatives which, he says, he made copies of while in the Pinkerton office. The prosecution offered no objection to the introduction of the reports of the detectives in evidence, and many of them were read to the jury by Mr. Dawson.

Gratias, in one of his reports, wrote that he had told the men the strike would continue for a long time, and that unless it was ended by fall the union probably would have to give up. After telling of his intention to carry out his instructions to cut down the relief, in an effort to cause dissatisfaction among the men, Gratias wrote: "I will put the blame for not giving the men more relief as much as I can on William D. Haywood, by saying that I carried out his instructions."

Indian's Break For Liberty.

Edmonton, June 2.—The Indian Uellrum, imprisoned for horse-stealing, made a daring attempt to escape from the penitentiary. The Indian was working with numbers of other convicts at the brickyard. Being near the river bank, while the attention of the guard was for a moment distracted, he dashed for the bush, into which he disappeared. Guard Stewart captured his man, bringing him back at the point of a revolver. Stewart was the captor of Bill Miner and his crew of train robbers in Kamloops last summer.

Sentenced for Bigamy.

Welland, July 2.—Police Magistrate Burger yesterday sentenced H. Gibson of Sherkston to three months in jail, and let Mrs. Sidney Beam go on suspended sentence for bigamy.

This couple, who both have former partners living, went to Buffalo two weeks ago and were married.

Father Accused of Murder.

New York, July 2.—Thomas Boylan, father of little Viola Boylan, who was assaulted and murdered several days ago, was arrested by the police yesterday and taken before a magistrate, but was discharged, there not being sufficient evidence against him to warrant his detention.

Drowned While Fishing.

Belleville, July 2.—C. Ritz of Thurlow Township lost his life yesterday afternoon by drowning. He was fishing on the River Moira, near the Village of Foxboro, when he slipped off a ledge of rock into a deep hole and never rose.

Drowned While Bathing.

St Hyacinthe, Que., July 2. Agner Mailloux, aged 16, son of J. H. Mailloux, was drowned while bathing last evening.

Charles Avard, aged 33, of Port Elgin N.B., set out in a sailboat on Sunday, and on Monday, the craft was found overturned.

UNWRITTEN LAW SCORES.

Virginia Jury Acquits Judge Loving Within an Hour.

Houston, Va., July 2.—It took the jury but 53 minutes to decide that ex-Judge William Loving, who killed Theodore Estes for an alleged assault on his daughter, was entitled to an acquittal. Had it not been for a sense of propriety the verdict would have been rendered fifteen minutes after the jury retired, for on the first ballot all voted to discharge the prisoner. Judge Barksdale, presiding, warned the crowd that he would permit no demonstration, but notwithstanding this a considerable ripple of applause was heard in the rear of the hall of justice.

While awaiting his fate Loving, who was astonishing calm, as was his wife, who sat beside him, shed no tears. Scores rushed up to congratulate the couple as they withdrew from the court-room.

The Estes faction are profoundly distressed at the verdict, not so much because they are vindicative, as because the verdict indirectly casts an imputation of guilt on the dead man. As a matter of fact, collateral evidence touching his culpability was excluded and it was this ruling which scored the great victory for Loving.

The accused left for his home in Nelson County and will at once resume his usual walks of life.

FIERCE STORM IN ENGLAND.

Fatalities and Damage by Lightning—Thrilling Balloon Incident.

London, July 2.—England experienced on Sunday one of the fiercest thunderstorms in years. Two persons were killed and several others injured by lightning which created havoc in many other ways, causing fires and interference and break-downs with electrical installations. The most thrilling incident of the storm was the adventure of Ernest Bucknall in the balloon Enchantress, which was beaten to the earth by the force of the rain. Lightning played around the balloon till it descended. Eye-witnesses described a great flash of lightning which seemed to hit the balloon and then it dropped. The occupants, however, managed to scramble unharmed off the roof of a house.

It was a long distance aerial race with determinations to do some big record-breaking, but it rapidly degenerated into a hurried descent. Eleven competitors started in the full blast of the storm, but the elements became too much for the aeronauts, who came to earth as quickly as was [illegible]ible with safety.

THREE KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

Water Tank Demolished and Scene of Carnage Deluged

Schenectady, N. Y., July 2.—A ten-ton steel cylinder, loaded with brick of equal weight and filled with steam at a pressure of 120 pounds to the square inch, at the plant of the Schenectady Sandstone Brick Co., was opened by mistake without first reducing the steam pressure, and as a result exploded.

The cylinder head, which was partly unsealed, went in one direction, killing two men, wrecking a portion of the plant, twisting a steel water tower into scrap iron, wrecking a big water tank and windmill, and deluging the scene of carnage with water.

The big cylinder, five feet in diameter and 40 feet long, went through the end of the building, and a pile of brick five feet thick, across the highway, hit a carload of coal and a telegraph pole a glancing blow, killed a track repairer and skidded up the D. and H. track to a point fully 15 yards from its original position.

TWO BURNED TO DEATH.

Sought Refuge In Barn But Were Struck By Lightning.

Brockville, July 2.—Miss Jennie Grant of Clinton Mills and James Bond of Ellenberg Centre, aged respectively 20 and 23 years, were burned to death in a barn in which they took refuge during a severe thunderstorm.

They were driving home, but the storm became so severe that they sought shelter in the first building in sight.

They had no more than entered the barn, when it was struck by a bolt of lightning and burned to the ground, both of them perishing.

It is thought they were either killed or stunned by the shock and thus rendered helpless.

Their charred remains were found in the ruins.

ROBBED IN DAYLIGHT.

Messenger Relieved of Money He Had Just Drawn From Bank.

Montreal, July 2.—The information was given out last night that Gerald Murray, messenger of the Allan Line office, was jostled and robbed of $1,500 as he was entering the company's office Saturday at noon. There were three in the gang and all escaped.

Murray had just drawn the money from the Merchants' Bank.

Miss Eva Hall, formerly of Portage la Prairie, was drowned at the C P R dam at Moose Jaw.

Express Thrown Off Track and Down Embankment.

Broken Rail the Cause—Acetylene Gas Tank Explodes—Eight Cars Burned—Ties Ripped Into Matchwood—Passengers Escape Severe Injury—No Means to Extinguish Flames—Baggageman's Experience.

Calgary, July 2.—Shortly before six o'clock Sunday night No. 2 express, east-bound, was wrecked at Brook Station, 96 miles west of Medicine Hat, and Express Messenger William McKinley of Orangeville, Ont., was killed through the explosion of the acetylene gas tank. His leg was blown off and he died a few hours later. Eight passenger cars were burned, as there were no means available to quench the fire, and no way of cutting the train, as the engine was on the wrong side of the fire. The line was reported clear at ten o'clock yesterday morning. The passengers have not yet been brought to Medicine Hat.

A broken wheel on the second baggage car is said to have caused the derailment, as this was the first car to leave the track, dragging with it two colonist cars, a first-class coach and diner, in the plunge down the embankment. Another coach left the rails and plowed along the ties, ripping them into matchwood. Baggageman McDonald was thrown about in the baggage car and stunned, but was able to crawl outside. None of the passengers suffered severe injury.

ICE DRIVERS MAKE TROUBLE.

Strike-Breakers Pelted — Police Take Charge of Wagons.

New York, July 2.—Police reserves were called to quell several street disorders yesterday when the American Ice Co. made an effort to break the strike of the ice drivers.

The company hired several score of strike-breakers and issued an ultimatum that if the strikers did not return to work the new men would be put in their places.

When two wagons, driven by strike-breakers, drove from the company's pier on the East River yesterday a crowd of men set upon the drivers. Clubs and bricks were hurled and the police charged the crowd, which finally fell back. Two policemen were then assigned to each wagon.

More trouble occurred on Avenue C, when a score of men set upon a driver, but were beaten off by the police.

PEASANTS TAKE REVENGE.

Incendiary Movement in Russia Growing Serious—Estates Destroyed.

Tula, Russia, July 2.—The incendiary movement among the peasants, due to revenge for the dissolution of Parliament, has assumed serious proportions.

Six large estates, including those of Count Vladimir A. Brombinsky, president of the Constitutional Conservative party, a marshal of the nobility and a monarchist member of the late Parliament, and Princess Vjadbolskaya, were devasted by incendiary fires. The losses were heavy.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, July 1.—(Special.)—Cables from Liverpool and London on Canadian cattle were easier and prices one quarter to one half cent lower, with sales at 12 1-2c to 13c. Exports for the week were 2962 cattle. The supply, altho smaller, was ample to fill all requirements. There was some demand from exporters for a few to complete shipments with, and they bought a few of the best steers at 5 1-2c to 5 3-4c per lb., but there were no really choice stock on the market which they would have been willing to pay 6c for. Choice cattle were quoted at 5 3-4c to 6c, while good beeves sold at 5 1-4c to 5 1-2c; fair at 4 3-4c to 5c, and lower grades at 3 1-2c to 4 1-2c per lb. There was no further change in the condition of the market for live hogs since last Wednesday. A weaker feeling has developed in the market for sheep, and prices have declined 1-2c per lb. in spite of the comparatively small supply coming forward and the continued fair demand from exporters for the same. However, sales to-day were made at 4 1-2c per lb. The demand for lambs is good at $4 to $5 each, and calves meet with a ready sale at from $2 to $5 each.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

One reason why women wouldn't make good jurors is because they are not stupid enough.

Some people are satisfied with just getting even, while others want to get ahead.

Talking about people seems such a reprehensible habit when your part in the matter is playing the listener.

Many ladies would look a lot better if they would get their powder on straight at the time that they are straightening their hat.

Some people run out of common sense so early in the game that they look foolish.

Learning Something New.

Some of our big criminal trials are as good as a liberal education in some lines to the man who will follow them closely.

The man who will read every line of the testimony should be something of an expert on insanity when the trial is over—enough so, in fact, to be able to hold a job as guard at an asylum at $100 a month, provided he has a political pull strong enough to get it.

There are thousands of people in this country who didn't get far enough along in school to master the big words who would know a brain storm were they to meet one on a lonely country road, although six months ago they didn't know that people made it a practice to have such things.

If more men who could afford to have expensive lawyers would volunteer to have trials in the interest of popular education, what a cultured people we would be!

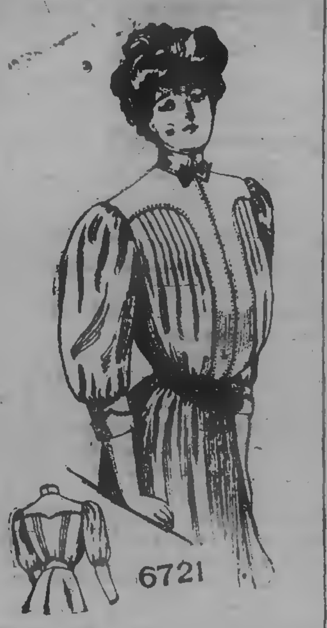
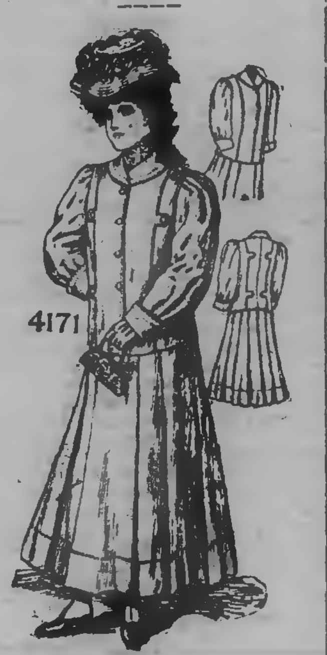
THE DEAN PATTERNS



6721.—A SHIRT BLOUSE OF SMART LINES.

Now that the shirt blouse is so necessary to every woman and girl, the designs for this garment must be as varied as possible. A waist which will not fail to please the particular woman has a stole yoke which is completed at each side with tucks of becoming depth. The yoke appears in back and two groups of tucks lend further adornment and tapering lines. Together with the long sleeves, those of three-quarter length are also provided for and may be finished with natty little cuffs of the same or a contrasting material. While simple, the waist is one of undeniably good style and for wear with the suit or odd skirt will prove most fetching. Any seasonable fabric may develop it. The medium size calls for 3 1-2 yards of 27 inch material.

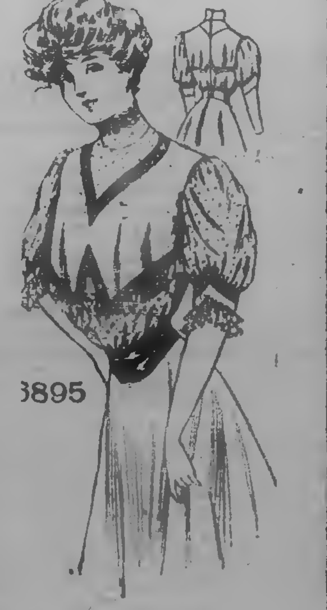


4171.—AN ATTRACTIVE STYLE FOR LLINEN.

The semi-fitting coats are specially pleasing upon young girls and as Dame Fashion considers them par excellence no better mode can be chosen. This coat suit shown is one of the smart new models, buttoning in single-breasted fashion and ending below the hip. The trig rolling collar and cuffs are shown in a darker linen, the buttons being covered with the same. The skirt is a seven-gored one with the fulness laid in box plaits and stitched flat over the hips. This insures a trimness about the top and and full ripple at the hem. The suit may be made without difficulty and may be developed in any of the seasonable materials. For the medium size 4 7 8 yards of 50 inch material are needed.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

Leave your order and ten cents at the REVIEW OFFICE and pattern will be sent you by mail.



6895.—A WAIST OF NOVEL DESIGN

The fasion of trimming cloth or silk with lace has been reversed and now it is lace which forms the body of the prettiest waists and the material adorns it. Here is a waist showing the style very prettily, the waist proper being of figured net and the bolero of silk. The waist is very unique in style and wonderfully fetching. Long and short sleeves are provided for, the latter being the more attractive because of the natty little cuff band which finish them.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

Leave your order and ten cents at the REVIEW OFFICE and pattern will be sent you by mail.

66815.—A SUMMERTIME COMFORT.

The heat of summer days is often rendered less oppressive by the donning of some light and dainty negligee and every woman and girl provides herself with several before this time arrives. A very dainty one is shown in flowered dimity with collar of plain material for contrast. The sack and sleeves are laid in narrow tucks at the top and the result is most pleasing. The closing is effected in front and may be elaborated with ribbon bows or pretty buttons. For home making this is excellent in style as it is a bit unusual and therefore more valued. The thin silks and washing fabrics may any of them be used successfully in its realization. For the medium size 3 5-8 yards of 36 inch material are needed.

68815.—Sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

Glass Broke and Injured Optic

Engineer on Steamer "Empire" Had Slight Accident

As a result of the breaking of the water glass of the boiler of the government steamer "Empire," Engineer W. P. Costricum had an eye somewhat severely injured this morning. The Empire is working in connection with the dredge "Emmerson" at Dangerfield, and it was there that the accident occurred. Mr Costricum came up to the city on the Empire and had the injured optic dressed at a local doctor's. A piece of glass had lodged in the eye and the doctor had to remove it. Mr. Costricum will be able to continue at work.

Murray Street Baptist Sunday School annual excursion will be run to Idyl Wyld on Thursday next, July 4th, per steamer Otonabee. The Boat will leave the Wolfe St. wharf at 8.30 am. and the street railway wharf at 9.00 a.m. Tickets 50c, children 25c. A splendid programme of races will be run off. Do not fail to go.

Narrow Escape From Drowning

What might have been a triple drowning occurred on the Otonabee on Sunday evening last, when three men who were returning to the city, were upset in mid-stream, about two miles below the city. How the accident occurred is not known. As two of the men could not swim, they were in great danger, as their companion, who reached the shore had no means of assisting them. Mr. R. Rodgers, formerly of Peterborough, and Mr. Huffman of Toronto, accompanied by a couple of young ladies, heard their cries for help and hastened to them. The two men were helped to shore with some difficulty, from their perilous position on a buoy. As their companion had called another canoeing party, they were able to recover their boat and proceed to the city, after their most exciting experience.

New Club House Formally Opened

The comfortable new club house of the C.G.E. Angling Club was formally opened on Dominion Day, amid great enthusiasm.

There was an attendance of about twenty members and five new ones were received. Commodore J. G. M. Wilson presided, and a tempting spread was enjoyed. There were many hearty toasts and all spent a delightful time. After the toast of the King, proposed by Commodore Wilson, Mr. David Carlisle offered a toast to the new members which was suitably acknowledged by the five "youngsters."

Mr Thos. Carson proposed the toast of "Our guests," and Mr. R. Dobie, answered in felicitous terms.

After the dinner the new members were duly and regularly initiated.

In the absence of Ald. Tovey, official liar of the club, Mr R. Dobie was temporarily elected to that position.

The C.G.E. Anglers certainly had a grand time and met with good luck in fishing.

An Immense Crowd Attended T.A.S. Picnic Down River

Highly Enjoyable Time Spent by Over 2000 People—Ideal Picnic Grounds—Exciting and Closely Contested Races—Rev. Dr. O'Brien Cordially Welcomed—Greatest Success Ever Scored by the T.A.S.

Fully over 2,000 people attended the annual picnic of St. Peter's T. A S., held yesterday at T.A.S. Park, on the Otonabee river.

With the exception of a slight shower of rain, shortly after dinner, the day was an ideal one, and it certainly must have been a source of gratitude to the committee who who worked so hard, to be favored with such grand weather.

The picnic was truly a great success, and far surpassed any ever held by the society in former years. In the opinion of a great number of the parishioners of St. Peter's Cathedral, it outclassed the picnics held some years ago on the grounds surrounding St. Joseph's hospital. Despite the fact the skies looked threatening several times during the day, it apparently had no effect on the people as each boat carried its full capacity, and the people seemed to swarm there in crowds.

The day was a warm one, but no more delightful or cool spot could be found than the T.A.S. Park. For the past two years the society has held its annual picnic at this place, rather than at Jubilee Point, as was the case for many years. It was thought that the members of the society and their families and friends, could spend a more enjoyable time at this point than at Jubilee, as the large crowds who wanted to attend could be handled better.

T.A.S Park is beautifully situated on the right hand bank of the Otonabee river, about five miles from the city. It contains a ten acre field of level ground, suitable for sports. A very pretty grove is attached, making the whole a very ideal spot for a picnic such as yesterday's. The Park was reached principally by boat, but some drove down. The steamers "Monarch" and "Rainbow" carried most of the picnicers, making trips every hour, and each time the boats were packed. A large number also reached the point by paddling down in canoes.

At the grounds a large concourse of pleasure seekers spent the day in many different ways. Some enjoyed a canoe ride on the calm waters of the Otonabee, some took part in the sporting events of the day, while a large majority of those present tripped the light fantastic in the pavilion erected for the occasion to the strains of music supplied by the old-time fiddle and organ.

Despite the warm day this amusement was indulged in to a large extent. The organist and fiddler along with the master of ceremonies, occupied seats on a raised platform, and were kept busy from early morning until late in the evening. The music was supplied by several.

A baseball match was played in the morning between two picked teams, the Wellington and Beans. It resulted in a win for the Wellingtons by 12 runs to 10.

An outfit for playing box ball was also on the grounds, and was largely patronized. A refreshment booth where soft drinks, ice cream and all other delicacies could be had was at all times during the day kept very busy.

Several of the picnicers took their baskets with them and had their dinner and tea in true picnic fashion, but for those who did not care to be bothered with looking after a basket, the ladies of the Sodality of St Peter's Cathedral conducted a dining room, where dinner and tea could be enjoyed. It is needless to say that the meals were of the highest order, and were indeed a credit to those in charge.

Rev Dr O'Brien, who recently spent some months in Europe, was on the grounds, and was besieged on all sides by his many warm friends and parishioners, who were more than glad to see him safely returned and looking much better for his holiday abroad.

THE RACES.

After dinner a number of races, jumping events and canoe races were run off under the direction of the following committee;—W. S. Merrell, George O'Hern, P. O'Donnell, T Cronin and J. Noyes.

Quoit Match—1st Alex. O'Brien, 2nd N O'Brien.

Tug of War—Married men.

Double Canoe Race—1st Stock and Gilbert, 2nd McMartin and LePlante

Single Canoe Race—1st Stock, 2nd Gilbert

Step Dance—1st gentleman, L. Milaney. 2nd lady, Miss L Gros.

Clog Dance—1st D. Quinlan, 2nd M Guerin.

Largest Family—1st L. Milaney, 2nd C O'Hern, 3rd W S Merrell.

The success of the day is due to the hard and faithful work of the committees, but particularly so to Mr. N Bibby, chairman of the committee, and Mr. Joseph Maher, secretary. These gentlemen left nothing undone for the success of the affair and for the enjoyment of the people, and to them the thanks of the T.A.S. Society is due.

About eight o'clock the people started on the home trip, and it was the popular opinion that the picnic of 1907 was the most successful and enjoyable ever held.

Peterborough Man Almost Met Death in Big Wreck

Mr. Isaac Eastwood Was Passenger on Train Wrecked Near Kenora and Received Several Injuries

Mr. Isaac Eastwood, who resides at 805 George street, in this city, was in the wreck on the C.P.R. at Butler, near Kenora, on Friday of last week and was among those injured. Mr. Eastwood had one of his hands crushed and also received some injuries about the head. He was taken to the hospital at Kenora where he is now recovering nicely and will be able to be out again in a few days. He was on his way to visit a mine in New Ontario in which he is interested, when the smash up occurred. Information received in the city is to the effect that Mr. Eastwood had a narrow escape from death. In a letter to relatives here he states that it was an awful sight and one the like of which he never wants to see again.

Twelve were killed and thirteen injured in the wreck. Those killed were all Chinamen except two. The injured were taken to the hospitals at Kenora and Winnipeg.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Raines spent the holiday with friends in Port Perry.

Mr. Joseph Legg, now of Guelph, formerly of Peterborough, is in the city on a short visit.

Mr. George Jackson, of Toronto, formerly of Peterborough, spent the holiday with friends in the city.

Miss Winnie Reid, of Toronto, spent the holiday with her father, Mr. G. A. Reid, Smith street.

Mr. T. Hullet, of Sunbridge Wells, Kent., England, arrived here on Sunday. He is visiting his daughter, Mrs B Moon, of this city.

Rev H. Bruce Kenny, late of Fenelon Falls was in the city today on his way to Belleville where he will assume the pastorate of the Tabernacle Methodist Church in that city.

will be appointed County Court judge, is correct.

Richard Hall's Cottage Burned

During one of the most terrific thunder storms of recent years, the summer cottage of Mr. Richard Hall on [illegible] Island, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, yesterday afternoon. The storm came up just before three o'clock and the thunder and lightning were accompanied by a deluge of rain, which lasted for about half an hour. When Mr. Hall's cottage was hit the crash of thunder, which followed instantaneously was awful, but the cottagers knew that something had been hit, and it was only a minute or two when they saw flames rising from Mr. Hall's cottage. Several hundred people in skiffs and canoes made off for the island and through the rain, and for nearly an hour worked faithfully. The cottage, however, was of wood and very dry, so that the flames made great headway, and the volunteer fire fighters could do nothing with the main building. They did succeed in saving the kitchen, which is detached. The house and contents, consisting of all the furnishings, were destroyed, and the loss is estimated at between two and three thousand dollars, and is partly covered by insurance. Fortunately Mr Hall and his family had not yet gone up for the summer, and no one was on the island.

When asked if he would rebuild, Mr. Hall replied that he would, but not this year as the season was so late.

Farewell Sermon of Rev. J. G. Lewis

Pastor of Mark Street Methodist Church Bade His People Good Bye

Large congregations were present at both services at Mark street Methodist church yesterday, and especially in the evening, the occasion being the farewell sermon of Rev. J. G. Lewis, at the close of a four years' successful pastorate. Mr. Lewis and family go to Picton this week, where he will have charge of the Main Street Methodist church there.

In his concluding sermon, Rev. Mr. Lewis chose for his final message the words found in the 24th verse of the 20th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. Mr. Lewis said that he hoped the congregation of Mark street, would unitedly assist their new pastor, Rev. C. H. Coon, and bear with him the burden of the trials and cares of the church.

In conclusion, Mr. Lewis said that nowhere had his ministry been so pleasant as in Peterborough. He had sought to help his people and he went away from here with the thought that his work had been a success. His congregation had been very kind to him, and it was with a great feeling of sadness that he left them.

At the evening service the music was of a special nature. Mr Dormer sang "Face to Face," very effectively, and during the offertory Mrs. Payne and Mrs. McDonald contributed a duet.

Rev. C. H. Coon, late of Bobcaygeon, the new pastor of Mark street church will occupy the pulpit next Sunday at both services.

BURNING LAMP FELL TO FLOOR

The people living at 93 Hunter street east had a very narrow escape last evening. The lady of the house was carrying a baby down stairs on one arm, and a lighted lamp in the other. When near the foot of the stairs the lamp fell out of her hands and broke on the floor. In an instant the hallway was a mass of flames. The woman screamed for help, and a number of men who were passing on the street, rushed into the house, and with considerable difficulty stamped the flames out before very much damage was done.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS.

The receipts at the local Customs House for the month of June were $26,121.29, or nearly $1,000 per day.

BUS FOR SUMMER SCHOOL.

The summer school at Chemong starts this evening. The bus leaves the Snowden House daily at 8 a.m., 4 and 6 p.m.

Ice Cream.

Ice cream should contain a reasonable amount of cream to give it richness. Instead of cream, milk thickened with gelatin or cornstarch is sometimes used. It is said that a few drops of tincture of iodine will detect the presence of starch or flour. The ice cream will instantly turn a deep blue color. This test is also good for the detection of cornstarch in cream or milk.

English Sponges.

Sponges are found occasionally on English coasts. There are several sorts. They are often found on the lower timbers of old piers.

Rhinoceros Horns.

In mediaeval times rhinoceros horns were employed for drinking cups by royal personages, the notion being that poison put into them would show itself by bubbling. There may have been some truth in the idea, as many of the ancient poisons were acids, and they would decompose the horny material very quickly.

Torquay's Seaweed.

Torquay is famous for a rare tropical seaweed, the so called "peacock's tail."

Elasticity of Glass.

Glass is the most perfectly elastic substance in existence. A glass plate kept under pressure in a bent condition for twenty-five years will return to its exact original form. Steel comes next.

Cartridge Currency.

Cartridges are taken as change all over Abyssinia at a rate usually of ten to the dollar. The cap must be undamaged, the case in no way misformed, and the paper round the bullet must be in a state of perfect preservation.

Buried Wealth.

Ancient Stained Glass.

In the British museum there is a beautiful piece of stained glass with an engraved emblazonment of the monarch Thothmes III., who lived 3,400 years ago.

Deer In Japan.

Deer are relatively plenty in various parts of Japan and in such show places as Maru and Miyajima are held as sacred, becoming so tame as to eat from the hands of visitors. They are generally smaller in size than the American deer.

Irish Moss.

From carrageen, or Irish moss, is made an isinglass, formerly much used for stiffening blancmange and still greatly esteemed in Ireland as a remedy for consumption. Irish moss is a plant about a foot high, with a fan shaped leaf.

Offers to Walk From Here to Toronto

Peterborough too, has a walker who claims he can do better than Jas. Reynolds the Port Hope man, who tried and failed to accomplish a walk from Port Hope to Toronto and return, 130 miles in 36 hours. This pedestrian is a veteran in the walking line, and has figured in long journeys before. He claims that he can and will walk from the Oriental Hotel, to the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, and return, a distance of 180 miles return, in 45 hours. The gentleman referred to is Mr. David Hartley, Robinson street, east city. He offers to wager $100 that he will make the distance, which is about fifty miles longer than the walk from Port Hope to Toronto in 45 hours. Mr. Hartley, although he has not been in training, feels confident that he could make the distance as stated. He is a painter, and some years ago, at the local armoury, in competition with Mark Spencely, W. Drury, Jas. Kane, Geo. Kelly and Dave Spence, he came second in a walking match of six days' duration.

It is to be hoped that some interested persons will take up Mr. Hartley's offer and that it will not be long before the walk will take place.

Dragoons Home From Barriefield

"C" squadron of the 3rd Prince of Wales Dragoons returned from Barriefield Camp on Friday night after two weeks drilling. "D" squadron detrained at Millbrook, and the other two squadrons at Trenton and Colborne. The Peterborough squadron arrived home in fine condition and the men were all pleased with the two weeks under canvas. The officers of "C" squadron are Captain Johnson, Lieuts. Anderson and Clugstone, Veterinary Captain Poole and Surgeon Captain Douglas.

INSPECTION OF THE REGIMENT

Col. Hemming, D.O.C., and Col. Gordon of Kingston, will arrive in the city tomorrow and will inspect Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4, companies at the drill shed tomorrow, Wednesday, evening at eight o'clock.

Companies Nos. 5, 6, 7, and 8, will be inspected on Thursday night. The regiment will be inspected on Friday night, at an hour to be appointed later.

SAID FAREWELL.

Rev. Dr. Torrance preached in Knox Church Sunday evening and delivered a farewell address. At the close of the service the choir sang "God be with you till we meet again," and many persons shook hands with the reverend gentleman. Rev. H. J. Keith of Knox church, occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's church on Sunday evening.

WERE WEDDED.

A wedding was celebrated on Wednesday evening at the Queen's Hotel when Miss Bertha Allen became the wife of Mr. Fred Boarde. Rev H. M. Manning performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends.

THE LIFE OF MAN

At Scott's Coliseum, Jackson Park, we are showing a remarkable moving picture, "The Seven Ages," showing the life of man, from infancy to old age. Admission, 6 cents. Matinee, 2 to 5. Evening, 7 to 10. Change of programme Thursday.

OLD MAN FELL.

An old gentleman under the influence of liquor created a little excitement at the corner of George and Charlotte streets about two o'clock this afternoon. He fell off the sidewalk and some of those who gathered around sent for the ambulance and had him removed to Nicholls hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Talbot and Mrs. Wood and family of St. Louis, have moved to Stewart's Grove, about seven miles down the river where they will spend the summer. This grove is a very pretty spot and is quiet and all that could be desired, so they expect to have a pleasant summer. Mr. Talbot reports fishing very good. On Monday morning they were out for a while and caught five 'lunge, one of them weighing thirteen pounds. Mr. Wood of St. Louis, will join the party in a couple of weeks.

Ottawa House cushion island

The popular and delightful spot known as the Ottawa House at Cushing's Island, in Portland Harbor, Maine, was refurnished and reconstructed in all departments last year. The management this year are catering to the many Canadians who annually go to the seaside for their summer trip, and a more delightful spot than Cushing's Island could not be chosen. Sea bathing, golf, deep sea fishing, pure air and cool and pleasant evenings are some of the attractions.

Through Pullman cars, Chicago Toronto and Montreal to Portland, and further particulars with handsome illustrated literature may be secured on application to J. D. McDonald, Union Station, Toronto.

AT THE POLICE COURT.

As an aftermath of Dominion Day, three drunks faced His Worship in police court this morning. "I suppose you were showing your loyalty," said His Worship. Fred Leslie was the first one. He pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk in a public place. Thomas Jones, his companion, also pleaded guilty. Both were fined two dollars to be paid forthwith, but they had not the necessary, so will spend the next ten days on the hill. Oscar Fowler, whose appearances in police court, have been numerous, was again on the scene. He pleaded guilty, and as he was the cause of all the trouble. He was fined $2.00 and costs, amounting to $5.85 to be paid forthwith, or fifteen days in gaol. He had no money and had been taken down to his cell, but soon after some friends happened along, and went together and paid the fine.

CHEMONG PARK.

Are you going to the summer school to be held at Chemong Park? asks the official programme. Then let me tell you about it, so that the delights may be anticipated. From south, east and west, you will reach it by the way of Peterborough, which will surprise those who have looked upon this place as a quiet little town. They will find it an up-to-date city, and everything humming with life and business.

The drive upon the auto-car from Peterborough to Chemong, is one of the most pleasant possible. Up hills and down braes, through the foothills of the highlands of Middle Ontario, each reach in the road bringing clearer and purer atmosphere. Over the summit, the Chemong Lake bursts into view, stretching like a mirror ten miles long and one or two wide.

The Park stretches along the eastern shore of the lake, and the land dry and sandy, rises as it retreats from the beach till it reaches its crown in the old pine forests some hundreds of feet above the lake level. Here and there clear springs of water burst from the soil and sing their way to the lake, and in springtime, the woods are a mass of ferns and flowers.

The bathing and boating are not surpassed in the whole Kawartha Lake region, and at the proper places little children are perfectly safe for rods from the shore. The pavilion is situated at the highest point on the Park shore, with a magnificent view of the lake and all the advantage of a cool breeze. Rest assured that you will never regret the visit to Chemong Park. For the murmur of the pines, the songs of the rivulets, the gentle roll of the waves upon the pebble shore, from one common harmony of nature, which is better than medicine to the worn nerves of those who toil through the long winter.

Scarlet Coated Lads of Peterboro' Invade and Capture St. Catharines

Annual Outing of the 57th Regiment one of the Most Enjoyable Ever Held Garden City Gave Warm Welcome to the Visiting Soldiers—Many Historic Places Visited—The Wonders of Old Niagara—Civic Demonstration Feature of Dominion Day

> "Shine martial faith and courtesy's > bright star,
> Through all the darkening storms > that cloud the brow of war."—
> Scott

Somewhat tired from their two days activity at St. Catharines and the long ride on the train, yet thoroughly happy and singing the praises of the fair Garden City and her citizens, the 57th Regiment arrived home from their annual outing at seven o'clock this morning. From Sunday morning until after eleven o'clock last night they were the guests of the 19th. "St. Catharines," Regiment of Infantry, and the whole corps is a unit in voting the trip the most successful ever held, and that is saying a great deal. The visiting regiment captured the hearts of the people of St. Catharines, as was amply evidenced by the fact that "every lassie had her laddie"—from Peterborough—before the visiting soldiers left for home. Officers and men of the 57th are unanimous in declaring that the people of St. Catharines are the best they have ever met. They extended a warm welcome to the scarlet coated volunteers from Peterborough and nothing was too good for them while in the beautiful little city on the Welland. Of course, the members of the 57th regiment were thrown into contact with their hosts, the 19th regiment, more closely than anyone else and have nothing but the most sincere words of praise for the military men of St. Catharines. "Every one of them is a prince," was the way one officer put it, as the homeward trip was being made, and that was the sentiment of every member of the 57th.

The 19th regiment of St. Catharines is a four company corps, with a total strength of about 200. It has a splendid class of officers and men and an excellent brass band and bugle band. The former is considered one of the best bands in the province, and is under the leadership of a talented musician, Mr. William Peel. The regimental staff of the 19th is composed as follows;—Honorary Colonel, Major General F. W. Benson, C.B.; Lieut.-Col. J. S. Campbell, Commanding; Adjutant, Capt. and Bt.-Major, C. J. A. Cunningham-Dunlop; Medical Officer, Major S. H. McCoy, M.D.; Paymaster, Hon. Capt. M. J. Mulock; Quartermaster, Hon. Capt. E. Gander; Chaplain Rev. Robt. Ker.

Col Campbell and the other officers could not do too much for their visitors, and the friendships formed between the officers of the two regiments will not soon be broken.

The country around St. Catharines is rich in historical interest as the following places can be reached by electric cars;—Beaver Dam, Lundy's Lane, and Queenston Heights, the scenes of famous battles during the war of 1812; Niagara Falls and other spots of deep interest.

The officers of the 57th were entertained by the officers of the 19th to a trip to Niagara Falls on Sunday afternoon, and the men of the regiment were also provided with transportation and given plenty of opportunity to visit the far-famed cataract, and a great sight it was too. It was the first time that the majority of the Peterborough visitors had seen the world-famed waterfall, and they will not soon forget the beauty, the grandeur, the magnificence of Niagara.

Lieut.-Col. (Dr.) Bell, of Toronto, formerly commanding officer of the 57th joined his old comrades at St. Kitts and remained with them during the visit. Lieut.-Col. H. C. Rogers and Lieut.-Col. J. Z. Rogers, both formerly connected with the 57th, also took in the trip, as well as several other prominent citizens, who went as guests of the officers.

PETERBOROUGH LEFT BEHIND

It was shortly after eleven o'clock on Saturday night when the regiment pulled out of the G. T. R. station on a special train amid the cheers of an admiring throng. Rain had commenced to fall early in the evening and a constant drizzle kept up all night, but this did not prevent a large crowd turning out to see the boys in scarlet leave on their annual outing. George street was lined with people, as the regiment marched to the station, and it was with difficulty that the soldiers were able to make their way at the depot, so large was the assemblage of citizens there. Thanks to the excellent arrangements made, however, and the exactness of military drill, the entraining was done in good order, and the train pulled out about fifteen minutes after the troops had arrived at the station. There train consisted of nine passenger coaches, and a baggage car, which gave everyone plenty of room, and made travelling quite pleasant. The trip to St. Catharines was characterized by the usual features that attend the annual outing of the 57th. Those who wanted to sleep could do so, but there were few who seemed inclined to drop off into slumberland. The trip only comes once a year, and everybody was out for a good time, so what did one night's sleep or loss of sleep, matter? Nearly every company, and each had a car for themselves, had several mouth organs to provide music and these, with songs and anecdotes, made the night wile away quickly. After leaving Toronto the majority of the men settled down, but daylight soon came and they did not have long to remain quiet.

AN ANNOYING DELAY

Owing to some blundering on the part of someone in connection with the Grand Trunk, there was considerable annoyance and delay in ensiderable annoyance and delay in detraining at St. Catharines. The train reached St. Catharines station shortly before six o'clock and after a short stop there, proceeded on to Merriton, a busy manufacturing village about three and a half miles from St. Kitts. At Merriton the train was to have been taken on another line of track and in this way would have been able to have landed the regiment almost in the heart of the city. At Merriton a light engine was to have been in waiting to make the trip on the line from Merriton to St. Catharines which is equipped with light rails and the big mogul that had taken the train from Peterborough could not be run upon them. But there was no light engine at Merriton and then the trouble began. Some one had forgotten to order it and for an hour and a half the train officials made themselves busy apparently trying to find out what the matter was. While they were discussing what was to be done, the train with the regiment on board was pulled into the station, then backed out half a mile, then taken into the depot again, and then backed out on another siding just to provide a change of scenery, as it were. An effort was made to secure a light engine from Niagara Falls but it was ascertained that one could not be on hand for over an hour, so then another plan for reaching the city was decided on. The train was taken back to St. Catharines station and there the regiment detrained and marched to the armory which is located about a mile and a half from the station. The delay, while the train was being shifted around was most tiresome, but everyone took it with considerable good nature, although it cannot be said that anyone was very greatly pleased.

CLOUDS DISAPPEAR

A drizzle of rain was falling as the regiment marched to the armory from the depot and it continued to come down until one o'clock. Then the sky cleared, the sun chased the gloom away and fair weather favored the regiment during the remainder of its visit to the Garden City.

Any annoyance that had been caused by the bungle in the railway service on the arrival at St. Catharines and any gloom that the depressing weather might have cast were soon overshadowed by the warmth of the reception given the visiting soldiers by the officers and men of the 19th regiment and the citizens of St. Catharines generally. From the time the visiting troop entered St. Catharines, until they left last night, they were given a welcome, and treated in a manner that is seldom accorded the most distinguished visitors. Nothing was too good for the visiting red-coats no matter where they went.

THE CAMPING GROUND

The regiment was camped on an open space in front of the armory of the 19th regiment, which by the way, is one of the finest buildings of its kind in Ontario. It was built three years ago and is commodious, well arranged and handsome in architectural design. About forty military tents had been pitched in front of the army and here the visiting regiment made its headquarters.

Captain Eastwood, quartermaster, and Captain MacLean, who had preceded the regiment to St. Catharines on Friday, along with the advance party, had made most complete arrangements. The officers secured their meals at the New Murray hotel, while the men boarded at other hostelries in the city.

DIVINE SERVICE

After breakfast on Sunday morning, the two regiments assembled in the armoury for divine service. Owing to the rain and the belated arrival, the parade which was to have been held before the service was cancelled. The service in the armoury was conducted by Hon. Major Rev J. C. Davidson, chaplain of the 57th regiment, assisted by Capt. Rev. Robt Ker, chaplain of the 19th regiment. Sacred music was played by the band of the latter corps, who also provided the accompaniments for the hymns which were of an appropriate nature and were heartily sung. The gallery of the armoury was filled with citizens of St. Catharines, who at all times, showed a keen interest in the Peterborough visitors. Major Davidson gave a short address to the assembled soldiers, enlarging upon the words, "Every man in his place." The N. D. Veteran Volunteers' Association of St. Catharines, under Commander George Wilson, formed part of the unique congregation. After the church parade the men were dismissed and were free to do as they pleased the remainder of the day.

MONDAY'S PROGRAMME.

At 9.30 Monday forenoon, the two regiments and the Veterans' Association, paraded at the armoury and marched to the City Park, where the military movements were held. Col. Carlyle, formerly officer commanding the 19th, was in command of the brigade and on arrival at the park the general salute was given. The regiments then formed into line in quarter columns, the officers took their posts in review order, and saluted again. This was followed by the march past in column and back again in quarter column, the staffs of the two regiments composing the reviewing officers. The 19th regiment then performed the ceremony of "trooping the color," going the different movements with great precision and fine military style. The sight was a very pretty one and the exercises were witnessed by a large number of citizens.

The troops then marched to Shipman's Gore, at the corner of St. Paul and Ontario Streets, where a civic demonstration was held. It was marked by several interesting features and thousands of interested spectators were present. The most important were, the presentation of a steel flag pole to the city by the Sons of England of St. Catharines, a flag by the Daughters of the Empire, who also donated the Veterans' Park and a fountain to the city, and a Canadian ensign to the Veterans' Association. Both regiments took part in the first presentation and the officers of the two corps, and the Veterans at the others. Major Riddell, received the gifts on behalf of the city. As the flag was run up on the new flag pole, the band of the 57th regiment played the National Anthem, amid great enthusiasm.

OFFICERS "AT HOME."

In the afternoon the officers of the 57th regiment were "at home" to the officers of the St. Catharines' regiment, with their wives and daughters, and lady friends, and numerous prominent citizens. The 57th band supplied music for the occasion and many were the complimentary remarks passed upon its excellent playing and the fine leadership of Bandmaster Gliddon. Refreshments were partaken of in the officers' tent and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent. A pleasing feature of the "at home" was the presentation of a beautiful bouquet of roses to Lieut.-Col. Miller, officer commanding the 57th regiment, by the ladies of St. Catharines. The colonel, along with the other members of the regiment, made hosts of friends in the Garden City.

A large number of the men of the visiting regiment, attended the lacrosse match between St. Catharines and Brantford, which was one of the Dominion Day attractions. It was a senior C.L.A. game and the home team were victorious, the score being 9—5. It was a good exhibition of the national game, and was attended by over a thousand people.

CLOSING HOURS.

The closing hours of the visit of the Peterborough regiment were pleasantly spent. The officers of the 57th were entertained to a dinner at the Welland hotel by the officers of the 19th. The menu was one of excellence and after justice had been done the numerous good things, there were short speeches by several of the officers of the two regiments.

The men were free to do as they liked and visited the numerous points of interest about the city.

OFF FOR HOME.

It was nearly eleven o'clock last night, when the bugle sounded the "fall in" at the armoury and the Peterborough boys fell into line for the march to the station. The 57th band led the parade, then came the bugle band of the 19th. Nearly all the officers, all the sergeants and many of the men of the 19th fell into line and escorted their visitors to the station. The streets along which the soldiers passed were lined with people, and as the 57th marched by the Peterborough red coats cheered St. Catharines time and again, and the salutation was answered by cheers and hand-clapping by those who lined the streets. Col Dunn and Col. Carlyle, who until a few years ago, were actively connected with military life in St. Catharines, marched with the Peterborough regiment to the station, as did also Mayor Riddell and Rev. Robt. Ker, the veteran chaplain of the 19th. As it was a mile and a half walk to the St. Catharines station, the officers and men of the 57th deeply appreciated the kindness of their hosts in escorting them this long distance. A big crowd was present at the station to see the soldiers off. Amid hundreds of goodbyes, waving of hands and handkerchiefs, and volleys of cheers, the train bearing the Peterborough regiment, pulled out of the station about 11.30 and the visit to fair St. Catharines was at an end.

The return trip was without incident, Peterborough being reached at seven o'clock.

Young Lady Had Severe Accident

Miss Tryphena Chasty sustained somewhat severe injuries as a result of a runaway accident last night at Fairmount, about eight miles out from the city. In company with a friend she was driving out to attend a social which was held last nigth near Fairmount and the accident occurred while the horse had been stopped to take a drink at a watering trough alongside the road. The young lady was alone in the buggy, her friend being standing at the horse's head, when the animal took fright at something and made a dash for liberty. The buggy was upset and Miss Chasty was thrown out with considerable force. One of her hips was put out of joint and she received a bad shaking up. She was carried into a nearby farmhouse and Dr. McClelland of Peterborough was summoned. He arrived as quickly as possible and when he found that the hip was out of joint he called Dr. Boucher and the two doctors set the injured part. Later the injured lady was taken to Nicholl's hospital in Comstock's ambulance where she is now resting easily. Nothing serious is anticipated although Miss Chasty will be laid up for some time.

Many friends will regret to hear of Miss Chasty's accident, and will hope for her rapid recovery.

OBITUARY

LILLIE ARMSTRONG.

The death occurred on Sunday morning of Lillie Armstrong at her late residence, 69 McDonnel street, after an illness of about four months' duration, suffering from tuberculosis. The deceased was the only daughter of Mr. John A. Armstrong. She was born in this city 28 years ago, and was a faithful member of Bethany Tabernacle.

Her parents, and two brothers, William John of North Monaghan and Wesley, of Boone, Iowa.

The funeral took place this afternoon, from the family residence, 69 McDonnel street, to the Little Lake cemetery, for interment.

MR. HENRY TROLLOPE.

The funeral of the late Henry Trollope 850 Water street, took place yesterday afternoon to Little Lake cemetery and was largely attended. Rev. Dr. Crothers of George street church, conducted the services.

The late Mr. Trollope, who died on Saturday afternoon last, was one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Peterborough. He was 67 years of age, and for several years was employed as night watchman at the Auburn Woollen Company's mills. Over a year ago his health began to fail and he gradually grew worse until the end came, as stated on Saturday afternoon. Heart disease was the cause of his death. The deceased was born in the old country and in religion was a Methodist. He leaves a wife and large family to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father.

Annual Excursion To Niagara Falls

Will be Held by Court Littlejohn C.O.F. on Thursday, July 18

Court Littlejohn, No. 92, Canadian Order of Foresters, will run their twentieth annual excursion this year to Toronto and Niagara Falls on July 18th. Big preparations are being made for the event, which it is expected, will be largely patronized. This excursion is always a popular one and has been to Niagara Falls, and Toronto ever since it was first started. As the railways allow no excursion rates on Civic holiday—the date that this outing was usually held, Court Littlejohn has decided upon Thursday, July 18th, as the date. Tickets will be good to return until Saturday night, July 20th.

Three hotelkeepers of Amherstburg pleaded guilty to violations of the license law and were each fined $50 and costs.

Safest Medicine for Women's Complaints

Women certainly do neglect themselves. They work too hard—over-tax their strength—and then wonder why they suffer with diseases peculiar to their sex.

Most cases of female trouble start when the bowels become inactive—the kidneys strained—and the skin not cared for. Poisons, which should leave the system by these organs, are taken up by the blood and inflame the delicate female organs.

Fruit-a-tives

OR (FRUIT LIVER TABLETS.)

remove the CAUSE of these diseases. "Fruit-a-tives" sweeten the stomach—make the bowels move regularly every day—strengthen the kidneys—improve the action of the skin—and thus purify the blood.

Battery Boys Are Home From Camp

Will Turn in Uniforms and be Paid Off This Evening

The members of the 24th Field Battery, Canadian Artillery, which have been in camp at Petawawa for the past two weeks, returned home on Sunday afternoon. The Battery consisted of 85 men, 64 horses, four 12 lb. guns, besides ammunition wagons, etc., and was in command of Major T. W. H. Young. The other officers are Capt. G. R. Hall, acting adjutant, for 10th Brigade, Lieuts. R. H. Leary, T. W. McDonough, Battery Sergt. A. E. Hutchinson, Quartermasters Sergt. Boyle, O.R. Sergt. R. A. W. Hay, Sergts. T. Guerin, Grey, J. Clancy and Galvin.

All uniforms must be turned into the east city drill hall this evening when the men will be paid off.

The boys all had a good time in camp and return well bronzed. They complain most about the black flies and the mosquitos, which were terrible. On Saturday afternoon the members of the 24th Field Battery were told that as soon as they could get in shape that their special would be ready for entraining. They found for some reason or other that their train was not ready, and horses and men waited around for several hours it being 12.10 in the morning before the special moved out.

The boys loaded and blocked the four guns in just seven minutes. This is pretty quick work.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

Another annual camp is over.

Corp. Vance Wilson, who had his leg broken last week had to remain behind in the hospital tent. He is progressing favorably.

Major Mulholland, of Campbellford commanding the 10th Brigade, entertained all the members of the 4th and 24th Field Batterries on Thursday afternoon last and Lieut. McDonough of the 24th, returned the compliment a few hours later. A jolly time was spent.

B Battery R.C.H.A., which has been on the march from Toronto to Petawawa, was expected to reach the latter point yesterday.

Returns Home From Long Trip

Mr. J. A. Tully Reports Oddfellowship as Booming in New Ontario

The Sudbury Mining News of June 28th says: Mr. J. A. Tully, special agent for the Oddfellows' Relief Association, was in town this week in the interests of the association. Mr. Tully was on his return trip from the Soo, where he spent a few days, and after a stop at Sudbury, will proceed to his home in Peterborough. Mr. Tully's territory extends from ocean to ocean and in a few months he will commence a western trip which will probably extend to Victoria.

Mr. Tully returned to Peterborough on Saturday night. During his absence of three weeks he visited, not only Sudbury and the Soo, but Parry Sound, Little Current, Manitowaning, Thessalon, Bruce Mines, Webbwood and North Bay. He reports Oddfellowship as flourishing in all these centres.

Dominion Day and How it Was Spent

Thousands Enjoyed the Holiday in Various Ways

Dominion Day has come and gone and it proved to be a very delightful holiday for all. It was thoroughly enjoyed by the people and was spent in various ways. Thousands went out of the city, down the river and up to Stony Lake, while the city parks were thronged, Jackson Park, especially being the favorite. The ball game in the morning and the lacrosse game in the afternoon were fairly well patronized while over 2,000 went down the river to the T.A.S. picnic grounds.

EXCURSIONS.

The annual Sunday school picnic of the Auburn Sunday school was held on the steamer Stony Lake up the lakes and was liberally patronized in spite of the storm. The boat was crowded and all had a very merry outing. During the heavy storm the steamer was obliged to lie at the dock for two hours.

The annual outing of St. Luke's church Bible class on the steamer Water Lily was also well attended. The trip around the lakes was greatly enjoyed and all on board spent a very pleasant holiday.

The excursion on the steamer Otonabee down the river to Idyl Wyld was attended by some 500 persons, and the delightful associations of the outing will long be remembered. Several hours were spent at Idyl Wyld. The excursion was under the auspices of Companion Court Queen Alexandra, Ancient Order of Foresters, who scored a distinct success.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. PAID TRIBUTE TO PETERBORO'

Rev. Dr. Crothers' Parting Words to George-st. Congregation

Rev Dr. Crothers closed three years successful pastorate in George street church on Sunday evening. The edifice was crowded to the doors and the service, which was one of song, was greatly enjoyed, although tinged with regret at the doctor's departure.

Accompanied by his wife and family he will leave on Thursday for St Catharines, his future charge. Rev. E. A. Pearson, the new pastor of George street church, will arrive on Thursday morning and will deliver his introductory sermons on Sunday next.

Dr Crothers on Sunday night emphasized that the church must hold fast to four things—the incarnation, the atonement, the inspiration of God's word and the future life. These must all be held fast to, firmly guarded and watched over. The individual should also hold fast to the spiritual life and be incessant in prayer, the study of God's word and the performance of Christian duties, no matter how humble.

In bidding his hearers farewell he thanked all for their kindness to him, his wife and family, during the past three years. These years had come and gone like a flash. If conditions were agreeable to the people and the rules of the Methodist church permitted it, he would be most happy to spend the remainder of his life in the busy, hustling city of Peterborough. He had spent very few lonesome hours here. He had not done his best because he felt that no man could do his best, but he had tried to be busy. No one had a better idea than he had how he had come short in Sunday school and pulpit work. His relation with the other denominations of the city had been of the most cordial character and his intercourse with the clergy of the city had been very friendly—in fact the kindly relation between the ministers of all churches in Peterborough was ideal. He thanked the citizens generally for their great kindness to him and his family, and bespoke for his successor, Rev. Mr. Pearson, the same cordial treatment and genuine welcome. He would carry away very pleasant memories, as he never had three more enjoyable years. He also expressed his appreciation of the generous treatment of the local press, which had materially assisted him in his work. He could not thank the press too heartily. His relations with the quarterly official board had been exceedingly pleasant.

"Peterborough is bound to grow as Canada grows, and I hope you will stand by your new pastor as you have by me. May God's richest blessing rest upon you all," were the speaker's concluding words.

Miss Birdie Thompson is likely to be one of the ladies who will enjoy the Toronto World's free trip to London and Paris. In district No. three out of the twenty-three candidates from the province at large, that our highest to enjoy the trip. Miss Thompson now stands third, having received 164,588 votes. She has been advanced by her many friends who work industriously in her behalf, from seventh place to third.

Peterboro' Sailor Boy Had Lively Experiences at Sea

How He Ran the Blockade in Yellow Sea With Coal for Japan During the Russo-Japanese War—Was Captured by Russian Gun Boat on His Second Attempt—Has Sailed the Deep for Sixteen Years and Served a Long Time in British Navy.

Mr. "Jack" Bryson, who has been a sailor boy for 16 years, many of the British navy, is home on a visit to parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Bryson, 414 Dublin street.

Mr. Bryson has had some lively experiences at sea, particularly during the Russo-Japanese war, when he undertook to deliver coal to Japanese war vessels in the Gulf of Pechili, an arm of the Yellow Sea.

Mr. Bryson's parents came to Peterborough from Glasgow, Scotland, about six years ago, and he had never seen them since they arrived in Canada, until the occasion of his present visit. He served in the British navy on board several men-of-war, but left the service at Hong-Kong, during the outbreak of Russo-Japanese hostilities. He then shipped on various British merchant marine, sailing to Australia and South Africa ports. When at Newcastle, New South Wales, Australia, he was approached one day by a Japanese official and asked how he would like to run the blockade in the Gulf of Pechili with coal for the Japanese war vessels. He was offered a good figure to undertake the task and placed in charge of the vessel, the Ailsa Craig. After heaving on board a cargo of 3,500 tons of coal he and his crew set sail, and, after several days' voyage, passed all Russian ships and successfully handed over the coal to a Japanese man-of-war in the Gulf of Pechili. His ship flew the British flag. On returning to Australia, having completed his hazardous task, coal of course, being contraband of war, Mr. Bryson was again approached and offered three times the former amount of cash that he had received if he would undertake a similar job. He hesitated for some time, but finally accepted the conditions and set sail with a cargo of 5,500 tons on the vessel, Invergarry. He reached the Yellow Sea surrounding Japan, and, when within a mile and a half of land, a shot was fired from a Russian gun boat just across the prow of his vessel as a warning to stop. He proceeded, however, and made a bold attempt to run the blockade again, but a second shot from the Russian gun boat carried away a portion of the bowsprit of the "Invergarry," and showed that the Russian admiral meant business. Mr. Bryson then had the vessel, of which he was in command, stopped, and the Russian officer, who was a member of Admiral Rojestvensky's staff, came aboard.

Mr. Bryson tried a great game of bluff saying that he was flying the British flag and was bound for Hong Kong, but that his ship had been blown by heavy gales out of its course. The story did not work, however, with the Russian officer. The Invergarry and her cargo of 5,500 tons of coal were confiscated by the Russians as being contraband of war and the supply of fuel, which was intended for Japan, became the property of the Russian fleet instead. The matter was reported to the British Admiralty, and Mr. Bryson, who held papers as a second mate, was brought before Admiral Seymour and court martialled. The result was that his papers were taken from him. It was certainly a piece of hard luck that he was not successful in his second attempt of running the blockade in the Gulf of Pechili, and more unfortunate for him personally that his papers were taken from him.

Mr Bryson had had many exciting experiences at sea, and was present at Valparaiso, South America, during the time of the great earthquake.

After spending a few more days here, he will sail from Montreal on the Utica, a merchant vessel, for the Old Country, and will interview the marine authorities in an effort to get back his papers as a mate. He has every hope of being successful, in view of the fact that he served so many years in the navy, and especially in view of the recent treaty and friendly relations now existing between Great Britain and Japan.

Long Pastorate Is Concluded

Rev. Dr. Torrance Parts With St. Paul's Congregation After 31 Years Ministry

In St. Paul's church, at the close of the communion service on Sunday morning, Rev. Dr. E. F. Torrance spoke a few words of farewell in connection with the termination of his thirty-one years' pastorate.

He said that he had presided at every communion service in the long period of 31 years, with the exception of one, when he was ill. He looked back upon the hallowed associations when they had assembled at the King's banqueting house, and He had placed His banner over them, and that banner was love.

During the past five months of trial he had shed no tears, but it was difficult to keep them back now as he said farewell. He had come among the people 31 years ago, young and inexperienced. He spoke of the help and support received from the congregation, of their devotion and loyalty to him in the earlier and later days, how the membership had grown and the edifice had been enlarged, how kind all had been during his long illness of some years ago, and the many gifts, large and small, that had at different times been bestowed upon him as tangible proofs of their appreciation—on the occasion of his starting housekeeping, his marriage day and on other occasions, and lastly the donation of $2,500 as a retiring honorarium.

He was not leaving Peterborough joyfully or willingly. It might be asked then, why was he separating himself from the congregation. This severance was the greatest sorrow that had ever come into his life.

"I resigned my pastorate," he remarked, "because I was given to understand that a considerable portion of the congregation did not believe that it was for the best interests of St. Paul's church that I should remain as pastor, and so I resigned. I was led to understand a number believed that under another pastor, the church would make greater progress—spiritually and financially—and that every department of the work of the church would increase in activity. I therefore felt that it was my duty to resign. My interest in this church will never cease, and I shall watch it with deepest interest. I sincerely trust that your brightest expectations may be realized and that the church may be more prospering than it ever has during its past history. May God's richest blessing rest upon you all, and may you all work together in the best interest of St. Paul's.

INDIANS WON LINDSAY RACE

Fred Simpson of Hiawatha, won the ten mile road race at Lindsay yesterday, and Ben Howard came second. Roylar of the West End Y.M.C.A., Toronto, was third, and Taylor of the Central Y.M.C.A. came fourth. The first prize was a gold watch and the second a gold locket. Simpson, the winner, was trained by "Dick" Baker, of Peterborough, who deserves credit for the way he has handled the speedy Indian.

Toronto Man Drowned.

Buffalo, July 2.—While taking soundings from a dredge off the foot of Porter avenue, yesterday, Joseph Roach, a deckhand 24 years old, employed by the Empire Engineering Co., which is deepening the harbor near the Buffalo Yacht Club, fell into the water and was drowned. The body was recovered and removed to the morgue.

Fellow workmen said Roach was an excellent swimmer, but it is thought his clothes hampered him. He lived in Toronto.

Unexpected Contents.

There is a state senator in one of our western states whose burly appearance might possibly lead one to mistake him for a laboring man, but who is as sensitive as a woman to all unpleasant circumstances.

He happened one night to be standing on the sidewalk outside of an undertaking establishment, conversing with a friend on some important political matter. One of the employees of the shop approached them and said, "Say, will you give me a lift with a casket?" The senator shuddered and said hesitatingly, "Is there—is there—anything—in it?"

"Sure," came the hearty reply; "there's a couple of good drinks in it."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Destructive.

"You don't say! Thunderstorm?"

"No, boss; wuss den dat. I am expectin' de old woman to hab one of dese brain stohms yo' heah so much about heah lately, en when et comes yo' want to be a mile away, kase et's wuss den a cyclone."—Chicago News.

"Hold on!" said the learned chemist. "Didn't I give you a bottle of my wonderful tonic that would make you look twenty years younger?"

"You did," replied the patient, "and I took it all. I was then thirty-nine, and now I am only nineteen."

"Well, then, will you please settle this little bill you owe for the treatment?"

"Oh, no. As I am only nineteen now, I am a minor, and minors are not held responsible for the bills they incur. Good day, sir."—Detroit Free Press.

THE TURF

Peterborough horses did well at yesterday's races at Port Hope. Hazel Belle, Dr. Johnson, took second money in the 2.22 class, and Martin Connors' Lady Gothard came third.

George Lipsett's City Queen got first money in the 2.25 class, and Marion Garious took first place in the half mile run.

The races were continued today.

BASEBALL

GAME TO-NIGHT.

Norman Jolliffe, ex-newspaper man and (ex)-star pitcher, will be the star attraction in a baseball match at Riverside Park at 6.30 o'clock this evening. Norman had the reputation of being a good one in his day, but it would take a Diogenes with a 1,000 candle power lantern to ascertain when that day was. In this evening's game he will use the unsanitary "spit" ball if the other Ball, known as the Sanitary Inspector does not interfere.

Peterborough Takes Two More Games From Arctics of Toronto

Peterborough took four games of the five played with the fast Arctic bunch from Toronto. The series of three games on the 24th of May went two to the locals and on Saturday afternoon and yesterday morning Peterborough won both games. The Arctics play a good game, but they are not fast enough for Peterborough, who put up, as a rule, a very snappy variety of ball. The locals have only one or two weak men on the team, and if these were replaced Port Hope would have to travel very fast to win the championship.

It is years since the people of the Lift Lock City have seen such good baseball as the boys are putting up this year, and it is a shame that greater crowds do not turn out. At both Saturday afternoon's and Monday morning's games the attendance was small and the expenses were heavy. This should not be. From a spectator's standpoint, baseball is the best game to watch, and the people should encourage the players.

PETERBOROUGH 10; ARCTICS 3

Saturday afternoon's game was a somewhat listless exhibition, especially in the last six innings. There seemed to be something in the air that made the players lack ginger, and the spectators, who numbered about a hundred, never seemed to become enthused although at times there were some stunts that usually would have brought the crowd to their feet. The Arctics had only five of their regular team along, and they had to scare up four other players to take their places before leaving Toronto. Under the circumstances they did fairly well. Greer did the twirling for them and was hammered for ten hits, and had few strike-outs to his credit. Morran did the receiving and played good ball in this position.

Quinlan pitched the first three innings for the home team and put it all over the visitors. In the three periods he had seven strike-outs and shut them out without a hit or a run. His twists completely fooled the opposing batters, and showed them up badly. Corney Burns came in at the beginning of the fourth and although suffering from a bad arm, twirled good ball. He was batted rather freely for the first few he sent over, but then steadied down and was seldom connected with in the last five innings.

All the locals showed up well and missed few opportunities. Four errors were chalked up against them as compared with eight to the visitors credit or discredit. In the beginning of the fourth W. Cowle got a home run on a drive to the raceway. The ball had to be fished out of the stream. Burns' work in running the bases was a feature as was also his stunt in catching Greer between the third bag and home plate, that put the Arctics down and out in the ninth. Greer was trying to come home and was caught by Burns and Quinlan, the former feigning to throw to the third baseman and putting out the Arctic man as he danced on the base line. Poulter did great work at short and the others were also to the good.

MONDAY MORNING

Peterborough 12, Arctics 8

In a game with many errors on both teams, Peterborough for the fourth time defeated the Arctics, of Toronto at baseball. There was scoring from the first innings, and in the seven and a half that were played a side was retired a blank, only three times, twice for the Arctics and once for Peterborough. In spite of the errors and sometimes listless play the game several times warmed up, and the spectators became enthused.

Ed Poulter, the clever short stop who has recently been signed with Peterborough, was in the pitcher's box and handled himself very creditably. This is his first game in that position for two years and by the form he showed he will be a very valuable addition to the staff. He has very fair control and throws a nice ball. He struck out twelve men in eight innings and let only a couple of bases on balls.

Corney Burns, in left field, made two excellent catches, although he was not up to his usual batting form. For the first time this year he struck out, being a victim of Cheatham in the fifth innings.

Jack Kehoe, who was a strong pitcher on the Peterborough team seven or eight years ago, was on the line-up with the Arctics and he put up a great game at second base. He still knows how to hit, run and steal bases, and the crowd applauded him frequently, especially when he made a sensational catch after running backwards about 25 yards.

Pitcher Cheatham did very good work for the Arctics in the box. He has lots of speed and has a twist on his ball that is hard to hit. After he took charge of the ball no more big scores were made.

Harry Burridge, behind the bat, was a little better than usual yesterday morning. His throwing to bases was a feature of the game, and he caught several base runners stealing.

Owing to the locals having to go to Port Hope to play their first game in the Midland League, with the lake front boys, only seven and a half innings were played. The game started at 9.30 and a few minutes after eleven was called off with Peterborough going to bat, and the score 12 to 8 in their favor.

The teams were;

Arctics. —Averson cf, W Cowle ss, Haliburton 3b, Cheatham 2b, Moran c, I Cowle lf, Kehoe 1b, T Haliburton rf, Harding p.

Beaverton Won League Game In C.L.A. Intermediate Series

Peterborough's intermediate lacrosse team is running in hard luck so far this year and it does not look much like a championship. Beaverton yesterday afternoon at Riverside Park defeated them after a very hard contest. The score was 6 to 5 and it is a good indication of the play, and the merits of both teams. Beaverton is a little the better although at no time were they safe and every goal they got they worked hard for. The boys in blue and white played a very creditable game and showed a decided improvement over the match with Toronto Junction, and with a little more practice they will be in their old time form. The weakest part of the outfit is the home and if it was not for McDonough, it would be much harder to score. Then the locals usually had one or two men on the fence, which was not in their favor.

The centre and defence put up an excellent game, and they played lacrosse all the time. The boys were always wide awake and were after the ball all the time. Judd and McGrath never played better, while Backus on goal stopped a score of hard ones and Regan and Morgan did a lot of hard, effective work. The boys all played hard and checked hard but they were up against a hard checking bunch and they had to.

The Beaverton boys do not have to learn much about the game. They are fast, although the locals could outfoot them at almost every point but they have great staying powers and in the last quarter, were playing much faster than at any other time.

The first quarter started off at a good clip and the ball was carried up and down the field in good shape. Several times shots were made on goal but not a score was counted until just before time was called, when McDonough found the nets for Peterborough. This woke up the several hundred spectators and a keener interest was taken in the play.

The second quarter was pretty much the same as the first, although Peterborough had the ball more than the visitors and many hot shots were stopped by Dobbin in the Beaverton nets. A short delay was caused by Cameron getting a nasty cut just below the eye. No score was made.

In the third quarter Peterborough came out strong and in half a minute McDonough scored again off a nice pass from Best. The Beaverton spectators did not like the looks of things, while the home rooters became enthused. A couple of minutes later Peterborough scored again making the tally 3—0 in their favor. At this point the visitors' dope seemed to take effect. They got the ball and after several attempts succeeded in getting through the defence and Cameron shot past Backus for the first goal. Beaverton spectators took heart and cheered their boys, with the result that a couple of minutes later Pennock repeated the trick. Just before time was called McDonough and Marshall had an argument with their fists and both were laid off, and no more scoring was done. Total 3—2 in Peterborough's favor.

In the last quarter the boys in red and white took charge of the game and in short order added three more goals, making the score 5—3 in their favor. Peterborough braced up and Glover scored, but Beaverton also scored again. Then Best found the nets, making the total six to five in favor of Beaverton with five minutes to play. The locals tried hard to even things up but the time was too short and the game was over, with Beaverton winners by one goal.

Referee Henry, of Brampton, handled the whistle very satisfactorily, and was heard to remark, that, considering the hard checking, the game was very clean and there was very little attempt at dirty work.

The teams lined up as follows;

Beaverton		Peterborough
Dobbin	Goal	Backus
Coombs	Point.	Regan
Hinds	Cover.	Morgan
Marshall	1st defence	Derocher
Tucker	2nd defence	Meagher
Jacobi	3rd defence	Smith
Marrin	Centre	McGrath
Curran	3rd home	Judd
Cave	2nd home	McDonough
Cameron	1st home	McLean
Anderson	Outside home	Glover
Pennock	Inside home.	Best

Peterboro' Loses First League Game

The Peterborough Baseball Club have played and lost their first game in the Midland league. They were defeated at Port Hope yesterday afternoon by the score of 3—0, after one of the best games ever seen in the League. Everything broke badly for Peterborough. The morning game with the Arctics did not do them much good, and they had to go on the field without dinner. This was enough to take the ginger out of them and they did not slip into them at the bat as they have been doing all season.

Jack Rosevear, of Port Hope was umpire, and he did not give the new team anything, especially on balls and strikes, making it very hard for Quinlan, who occupied the slab for Peterborough.

Quinlan was in great form and only allowed the hard hitting Port Hopers four hits, but Rosevear's bad decisions on balls and strikes got him into trouble. Surphlis pitched for Port Hope and was unhittable when hits meant runs. The Pirates got to him for five singles but he kept them scattered and although he was in trouble several times, got out of the hole in a very lucky manner.

The teams were:

Port Hope. —O'Brien 3b, Thompson lf, Henderson cf, O'Neil c, Kolb 2b Walters rf, Surphlie p, Brown ss, Boney 1b

Peterborough. — Burns rf, Callaghan lf, Burridge c, Connors cf, Quinlan p, Haliburton 3b, Poulter ss, Cheatham 2b, Graham 1b.

Score by innings;

Port Hope;— 0 0 2 0 0 1 0 0 0—3
Peterborough;— 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

West Ends Won From Karenots

In a close and exciting game of baseball on Saturday afternoon the West Ends notched a victory from the Karenots by winning in a nine innings contest by seven runs to six.

It was thought by a good many that this was the final and championship game in the Intermediate league, but most likely there may yet be another game. The West Ends will now have to struggle for the Review silverware with the St Alphonsus. The Straths were to play the Lakeviews Saturday afternoon, but the Lakeviews defaulted, thus giving them the game. They have a tie game to play off with the Lakeviews, and will likely win the protest of the game with the Excelsiors, and thus be on an equal basis with the West Ends. Saturday's game was a splendid exhibition, and excitement was keen at all stages.

The Karenot aggregation were somewhat broken up and had difficulty in getting a team together. They played Campbell, and the winners claimed that, had they not have won the match it would be theirs, as Campbell was not one of the signed men at the start of the league. As has been previously stated, it was the very best sample of ball that was dished out. In fact very few errors were credited to either team. It is hard to say who would win out, for at the end of the sixth it was a tie. The West Ends claim two runs which are not marked to them, and which in the opinion of a great many they rightfully deserve.

In the fifth innings there were three men on bases. They were all running in home. Cameron and Rose both got in just ahead of Dobson, who was put out running home. The umpire said the runs did not count.

Both aggregations are pretty good ball players and have very little advantage over each other.

Mr. H. Campbell officiated as umpire.

The teams were,—

West Ends—L Dobson ss, J McNern c, —W Batcher p, M Cameron 3b, G. Rose 2b, C. Dobson cf., P Grange lf, P Kings, 1b, N. Moore rf.

Karenots—Long p, Campbell 2b, Laing 1b, Geale ss, Ray 3b, Borradaile lf, Johnson cf, Lees rf, Carton c.,

IMPORTANT TO INVESTORS

On account of the continued results from the recent developments on the properties, and on the advice of our engineers, the shares of the Lucky Boys Gold Mines, Ltd., now selling at 6c per share, and the shares of the Blue Bell Gold Mines, Ltd., now selling at 50c per share, will each be

ADVANCED to $1 PER SHARE
AFTER SATURDAY, JULY 6.

We wish to inform our clients and investors that present indications point to a further and rapid increase in the value of these shares. Work is being vigorously prosecuted on all the properties of the above Companies under the supervision of the most practical and capable mining men in the world.

The progress made on these properties has been remarkable, and the developments have enthused all the miners and prospectors in the Larder Lake District. We believe they are richest in the Larder Lake District. The properties of the Blue Bell Gold Mines, Ltd., consist of twenty-eight forty-acre claims, making a total acreage of eleven hundred and twenty acres; and those of the Lucky Boys Gold Mines, Ltd., consist of twenty forty-acre claims, making a total acreage of eight hundred acres. The properties of both the above Companies are free of debt and other incumbrances.

We have been expecting this raise, and have been constantly advising our clients and investors that immediate action was necessary if they wished to secure these shares at the present prices. Investors who take our advice and BUY NOW will greatly profit thereby. In a few days you will be too late. This is your last opportunity to buy Blue Bell at 50c per share (par value $1, fully paid and non-assessable) and Lucky Boys at 6c per share (par value $1, fully paid and non-assessable.

At the close of business on Saturday next, July 6th, Lucky Boys and Blue Bell shares will jump to $1.00 per share, and not a share can be had after that date for less than this price. If you miss this opportunity you will miss the greatest chance in your life. Our advice to you is "THAT YOU MUST NOT DELAY." If you wish to secure some of these shares you must positively send in your order with remittance to cover on or before Saturday next, July 6th.

DENY ORCHARD'S STORY

Max Malich Flatly Contradicts Evidence Given by Him.

Orchard Proposed to Dynamite Hotel Filled With Men—Swore He Would Kill Steunenberg — Dramatic Dismissal of Miners — Three Volleys Were Fired Over Their Heads—Bidden Never to Return.

Boise, Idaho, July 3.—Commencing the seventh day of direct examination of its witnesses yesterday the defence in the trial of William D. Haywood bids fair to exceed by several days its promise to close within eight days after the opening speeches.

The foundation laid by the testimony of the former stenographer of the Pinkerton agency, who, to use his own words, "gave back to the rightful owners" the secrets entrusted to him by his employers, was used yesterday, and on it will be built the structure by which the defence hopes to convince the jury and the public that there has been a widespread conspiracy to wreck the Western Federation and convict its officers of murder.

Council for the defence claim that they can show a conspiracy existing throughout many states in the union, and intended to affect union labor everywhere and they propose to try to get the whole thing before the jury.

Contradicts Orchard.

Max Malich, another of the men implicated by the testimony of Harry Orchard, made his appearance yesterday as a witness in behalf of Haywood. He directly contradicted all of Orchard's story relating to him.

Orchard testified that Malich proposed to him that he dynamite a hotel at Globeville filled with non-union men and offered him $100 to blow up the store of a business rival, and privately informed the prosecution that Malich had burned himself with "Pettibone dope," while preparing to burn his own store, and later burned his store with "Pettibone dope," and that Malich had agreed to help him with an alibi when he killed Detective Lyle Gregory.

Malich swore that Orchard had proposed destroying the non-union hotel and the killing of McDonald, and that he had refused to have anything to do with the crime. He also denied all knowledge of "Pettibone dope" and swore that Orchard told him that but for Governor Steunenberg he would be a rich man, and that he would kill him.

McPartland's Brother.

The next witness for the defence aroused unusual interest. He was Edward McPartland, a brother of Pinkerton Detective James McPartland, who has been in charge of securing evidence for the state. The witness said he was not a member of the Western Federation of Miners, but a shoemaker by trade. He was at work in his shoeshop in Victor the day of the riot there, following the Independence Depot explosion.

After the shooting started McPartland said five men came to his shop and said they wanted him. He was marched between lines of soldiers to the train and taken to Colorado Springs, where he and several hundred miners were transferred to the Santa Fe road and taken to within a short distance of the Kansas line.

"After we left the train three volleys were fired over our heads and we were told never to come back," said McPartland.

"Did you ever go back to Victor?"

"No, sir."

Moyer and Haywood Re-elected.

Denver, Colo., July 3.—Charles H. Moyer was retained as president, and William D. Haywood as secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners by the federation in convention yesterday.

Nearly Electrocuted.

London, July 3.—George Northcott, superintendent of the Southwestern Traction Co. met with a painful accident while repairing the overhead wire of the line at Glendale yesterday morning.

He established a circuit for the current while he held the wire in both hands. He received two bad burns on each hand, and considers his escape from death almost miraculous, as at least 1,000 volts passed through each hand.

Swimmer Goes Down.

Haileybury, July 3. Two young men, named Eugene Savageau of Mattawa, and Charlie Austin, Jr., were sailing when their boat upset between the wharf and the Farr Island. Austin was saved, but Savageau was drowned.

He tried to swim for shore, but the swells were too heavy for him. Austin clung to the boat and was saved.

Strike At Cobalt.

Cobalt, July 3. A strike by the surface men at the Nipissing has somewhat disturbed the company. Two hundred men walked out. They have been receiving $2.25 a day and are charged 65 cents per day for board and lodging. They want $2.75 per day.

Labor agitators are said to have been working in the camp for some weeks, with this result.

Horse Bolts In Crowd.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 3.—Yesterday what will likely prove a fatality occurred at the horse races at the oval.

In the second heat of the second race Hussey and Drury's Kafe bolted in the crowd, seriously injuring Beverly Hambly, the ten-year-old son of W. S. Hambly.

Another War Yarn Denied.

Oyster Bay, N.Y., July 3.—The reports that sixteen battleships of the Atlantic fleet of the United States navy are to be transferred to the Pacific coast because of anti-American feeling in Japan were denied yesterday by William Loeb, President Roosevelt's secretary.

Winter at Fort Churchill.

Ottawa, July 3.—Major Moodie's mail of February last from Churchill has come down to the comptroller of the R.N.M.P. He reports an uneventful winter, no deaths, no sickness and no suffering.

Ten Hurt In Collapse.

Cincinnati, O., July 3.—Ten were hurt in the collapsing of a four-storey business block on Main street yesterday afternoon. Forty-two others escaped injury.

CANADA HAS FREE HAND.

Laurier Says British Sanction Is Matter of Form.

London, July 3.—(C. A. P.)—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, interviewed by The Journal at Paris on the subject of the improved relations between France and England, said that when terms between France and Canada had been arranged, the obtaining of the British Government's signature would be a formal matter.

"England, whose loyal subjects we are, considers us as sons, who have been given their independence, and grants us its signature without any difficulty, leaving to us every latitude in discussing our own interests, and it is surely to our interest, as it is to yours, to strengthen the bonds which unite Canada and France.

"The commercial treaty that we desire will, in short, unite two near relations, mother and daughter," suggested the interviewer, but Sir Wilfrid was not to be caught that way.

"Leave the question of relationship in general terms," he said, adding, rather pathetically, "and mind you don't make me say a word more than I have said to you."

The Paris Figaro announces that the new treaty of commerce between France and Canada will shortly be signed by the Governments of the two countries.

Ice Drivers Return.

New York, July 3.—The strike of ice wagon drivers, which has caused considerable inconvenience in the downtown section of the city and in Brooklyn was broken yesterday.

A large number of the strikers, without authorization by the union, went back to the company and applied as individuals for their old places.

T. & N. O. Earnings.

Toronto, July 3. Net earnings on the T. & N. O. Railway for April were $27,458, as compared with $23,617 for April, 1906. The gross receipts were $81,458, and the expenses $54,100. Passenger traffic contributed $37,432, and freight $35,949, the balance coming from miscellaneous sources.

Five Years In Pen.

Woodstock, July 3.—Alexander Coulter, with a long criminal record in Toronto and one conviction in Stratford, was sentenced to five years in Kingston penitentiary by Magistrate Ball on each of the two charges of passing bogus cheques. He pleaded drink as the cause of his crimes.

Quarantine Is Absurd.

London, July 3.—Agriculturists declare that Canada's action in doubling the length of the quarantine of imported sheep is absurd, and indefensible, imposing needless restrictions upon those exporting pedigreed animals.

Reception for Laurier.

Ottawa, July 3.—A civic reception is to be tendered Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his return from England on Saturday, the 20th inst.

It will be of a non-political character. He will be given an address.

James W. Maitland, of Owen Sound, is dead.

CABRERA HAS REVENGE

Eight Score Prominent Guatemalans Thrown Into Prison.

Many Tried and Sentenced to Death—Charges Were Trumped Up—Were On Black List—Protest Forwarded to the Powers—Chaos Reigning—Crops Rotting In Fields—Troops Sent to Front.

Mexico City, July 3.—Word has been received in Mexico City that President Cabrera in Guatemala has caused the arrest of 160 citizens of that republic on the charge of alleged complicity in the recent attempt to assassinate him. All were thrown into prison, and later herded into squads of twenty, and tried in groups.

Two bands have been tried, and many of the accused sentenced to death. Among the men imprisoned are some of the most wealthy and prominent men in the country. These men have long been on Cabrera's black-list, and the charges against them were trumped up for political reasons.

A note of protest will be forwarded to the powers by the diplomatic corps.

Absolute chaos reigns in Guatemala. Farm hands are pressed for military service, and corps are rotting in the fields. Troops are hurriedly rushing to the frontiers.

THREE KILLED, MANY INJURED.

Buffalo Express Collides With Freight—Cause Open Switch.

Sunbury, Pa., July 3.—Three trainmen were killed, one probably fatally injured, and twelve passengers were slightly hurt yesterday by a collision between a northbound Buffalo express and a freight train on the Pennsylvania road, about two miles from this city.

The dead are: J. F. McEvilla, fireman, Williamsport, Pa.; Harry Eyrol, express messenger, Williamsport, Pa.; C. P. Hunter, assistant baggagemaster, Harrisburg.

George Lantz of Williamsport, the baggagemaster, was probably fatally injured. None of the twelve passengers injured was seriously hurt, and most of them proceeded after having their injuries dressed. Many of them refused to give their names.

The accident was caused by an open switch.

TWO MEN SHOT.

New Yorker Resists With Revolver, Arrest For Trifling Offence.

Utica, N.Y., July 3.—An exciting man hunt after George Delcour of Lake Placid, came to an end at 2 o'clock yesterday morning near Bloomingdale, about 15 miles away.

Delcour had been driving his horse on the sidewalks in Lake Placid, and Policeman Fred Cutler and John Arnold went to gather him in. They found him in a barber shop getting shaved. Delcour, leaping from the chair, shot Cutler over the heart.

Arnold exchanged several shots with Delcour, but finally got a bullet through his pistol-arm. Then Delcour sought the woods.

The big hotels and various resorts turned out automobiles, livery rigs and horseback riders and armed men followed the desperado.

Steamer Runs Aground.

New London, Conn., July 3.—The steamer City of Lawrence ran ashore on a small island at the mouth of the harbor yesterday, stove a big hole in her bow and rapidly filled. The boat was crowded with passengers, but there was no panic.

Soldier's Wife Deserted.

London, July 3.—Capt. F. A. Hole has obtained a divorce from his wife, who eloped to Canada with another officer named Ernest Walter Appleby, while her husband was besieged by the Boers.

BARTENDER HITS MAN.

He Became Quarrelsome Over Price of Drink and Fall Broke His Jaw.

Haileybury, July 3.—Chief of Police Powell arrested Gardner Hunter, a bartender at the Vendome Hotel, Haileybury, Monday night on a serious charge.

It appears that three weeks ago a man named Thomas Boland was in the hotel and became abusive because he was charged 15 cents for a bottle of sanitaris and lemon. Hunter put him out. In a few minutes he came back again, and Hunter walked from behind the bar and got him out again. Boland turned and advanced towards him, calling him vile names. Hunter came out and hit. Boland fell in the doorway and broke his jaw.

Boland was taken to Ottawa and died Monday.

The deceased is said to have been a quarrelsome man, and sympathy seems to be with Hunter in Haileybury. Hunter is a married man and his home is in Orillia.

HALIFAX TRADE TIED UP.

Strike of Freight Handlers Reaches an Acute Stage.

Halifax, N. S., July 3.—The strike situation at the I. C. R. terminal here was unchanged last night.

The authorities brought in a number of men from the line last night, but they were intercepted by the strikers and returned home. Merchants who have perishable goods going and coming have to load and unload themselves.

At a special meeting of the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon a motion passed and was telegraphed to M. J. Butler, Deputy Minister of Railways, and David Pottinger, general manager, that the schedules of rates demanded by the freight handlers be immediately acceded to temporarily, as trade is paralyzed by the strike and immediate action is necessary.

TWO PROFESSORS DROWN.

Their Canoe Upset In the Connecticut River.

Northfield, Mass., July 3.—Philip K. Green, instructor of English and mathematics, and Prof. David A. Durward, assistant in the agricultural department in the Mount Herman school for boys, were drowned yesterday afternoon while canoeing in the Connecticut River by the upsetting of their craft.

Prof. Durward was 25 years of age, and a graduate of Cornell Agricultural school, class of 1906.

USE OF NEUTRAL PORTS.

Japs Present Propositions At The Hague Conference.

The Hague, July 3.—The sub-committee on arbitration met yesterday afternoon, M. Bourgeois presiding, to discuss the American proposition regarding the collecting of public debts.

Holland presented a proposal that 24 hours must elapse between a declaration of war and the presentation of an ultimatum and the opening of hostilities, and also providing that the neutral powers must be notified of a declaration of war.

The Japanese presented propositions on the subject of the treatment of belligerent ships in neutral waters, which provide that belligerent ships cannot use neutral ports or waters for any military purpose; that they cannot remain in neutral ports or waters longer than 24 hours, except in the case of putting to sea being dangerous; that more than three belligerent ships belonging to the same state cannot enter a neutral port; that belligerent ships are strictly forbidden to strengthen their forces in any manner while in neutral ports or waters, or to take on board ammunition, coal or provisions; that warships not conforming with these rules shall be disarmed and interned for the rest of the war by the neutral power whose port or ports they may have entered.

SHOT OFFICER IN FACE.

Fired Because Constable Would Not Release His Prisoner.

Port Arthur, July 3.—Early yesterday morning Officer A. Grant of the C. N. R. local force arrested a man who was trespassing on the company's property and was proceeding with him to the cells when near the Bank of Montreal they encountered a young man, apparently under the influence of liquor, and who ordered the policeman to release his prisoner. He threatened to shoot if his command was not instantly obeyed. The policeman made a move to secure his own gun, but the latter had his revolver out in a minute and fired. The bullet struck the officer in the jaw and plowed its way along to a point just in front of and below the ear. One of the city night men heard the shooting and hastened to the scene. The wounded man was taken to the hospital and a search instituted for his assailant. He was located at the Mariaggi Hotel and arrested. He gives the name of Arthur Carman.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

LIFE PRISONER RELEASED.

Had Served Twenty-Two Years, When Pardon Was Granted.

Kingston, July 3.—Alexander Gillis, who has been for the past 22 years within prison walls on a life sentence, has been given his freedom.

In 1885 Gillis murdered a man in Nova Scotia, striking him on the head with a rolling pin. He was sentenced to be hanged, but later the sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

For nine years he remained in the penitentiary at Dorchester, N. B. In 1894 eight prisoners from that institution were transferred to the penitentiary at Kingston.

He has gone to the United States. During his incarceration he was a model prisoner.

HUSBAND BURNED TO DEATH.

Woman Alleged to Have Set Fire to His Bed.

Scranton, Pa., July 3.—Mrs. Kindra Howrato, aged 18 years, of Dunmore, is in the county jail, charged with having burned her husband to death, that she might be free to marry her former lover, Ignatz Hutro, who is also in jail, charged with being an accessory.

The woman got her husband drunk, and when he was stupefied in bed, she went to the room with a kerosene lamp. She poured oil from the lamp on the bed and then, she says, the lamp dropped on the bed setting it afire.

Japan Would Not Care.

Washington, July 3.—"No, Japanese would not regard it as an unfriendly act if the American Government saw fit to increase her naval representation in her territorial waters on the Pacific Coast or even if she sent additional men-of-war to the Atlantic station. She would not look upon it as a menace or regard it with regret."

These were the words of Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador to the United States.

Midland Goes Dry.

Toronto, July 3. The division court at Osgoode Hall yesterday, by judgment, restored Midland's local option bylaw, which had been quashed by Chief Justice Mulock, on the ground that it had been passed before the expiring time for application for a scrutiny of the ballots.

The high court held that the bylaw was not rendered void by this action.

Strike-Breakers Will Assist.

New York, July 3.—Work of cleaning up the rotting garbage piles in the streets, to prevent a possible epidemic, was commenced with vigor yesterday.

Several days may be required to clear the city streets of filth and refuse. Until the work is completed the strike-breakers will aid the regular drivers in the work.

Down for Twenty Years.

Toronto, July 3.—Stephen Miller, under sentence of twenty years in Kingston Penitentiary for attempted murder and horse-stealing at Port Arthur, was in Toronto Monday night. With him in charge of District Constable Stretton was Frank Veto, an Italian, who is to serve two years for manslaughter.

Pulpwood Swept Away.

Quebec, July 3.—Thousands of cords of pulpwood were carried over the booms in Grande Riviere on Sunday night, as the result of the high water, caused by Sunday's downpour.

Duke to Visit Cobalt.

Quebec, July 3.—The Duke of Abruzzi, the Italian explorer, left yesterday for Montreal and the west. He will visit Cobalt this week.

The Motor Face.

A few days ago a well known personage was motoring in Derbyshire when a policeman stopped him.

"You'll have to take off that mask," said the officer. "It's frightening every one who sees it."

"But I'm not wearing one!" explained the unfortunate offender.—London Tatler.

PLOT TO MURDER WITTE

Planned by Society to Which Czar Sent His Blessing.

Bomb Was to Be Thrown at Former Premier's Carriage — Companions Betray Traitor Pretending Loyalty —When Taken to the Wood to Get Explosives Turn Upon Conspirator and Kill Him.

St. Petersburg, July 3.—From revolutionary sources there has been obtained and published full details of a sensational reactionary plot to compass the murder of Count Witte, the former Russian Premier, who represented his country at the peace negotiations at Portsmouth in 1905.

This assassination was planned by the Moscow branch of the Union of True Russian People, the organization to which the Emperor sent a communication on June 17, conveying his blessing to the Ultra-reactionary party, and his hopes for the success of its purposes.

The execution of the plot was entrusted to the leader of the Moscow branch, a man named Kazantseff, who came to St. Petersburg the latter part of May and secured employment in a factory as a common laborer. He befriended several of his fellow workmen, and after announcing himself as an anarchist he enlisted four men to assist him in carrying out his commission. It was planned to throw a bomb at Count Witte's carriage from the window of a cheap boarding-house on Kamenny Island, while the count was on his way to attend a meeting of the Council of the Empire.

The plot, however, was betrayed by the revolutionist bureau, which gave Count Witte warning. The four workmen continued to pretend loyalty to Kazantseff in order not to arouse his suspicion. The day for the assassination was fixed, and that morning Kazantseff led his supposed assistants to a wood in the vicinity of St. Petersburg in order to get the bombs from a secret hiding-place, but at this point the four men turned on Kazantseff and killed him, carrying out the sentence of death passed upon him.

A WELCOME SURPRISE.

Dominion Government Pays Over Extra Subsidy in Good Time.

Toronto, July 3.—Hon. A. J. Matheson, Provincial Treasurer, received a telegram from the Dominion Government yesterday announcing the issue of the Provincial subsidy cheque for the half year. He was not aware if it was the intention of the Ottawa authorities to include the extra subsidy now being authorized by the Imperial Government. This will amount to $400,000 or so, making a total of $1,064,000.

Last year the total amount of the subsidy received was $1,339,287.28. In future years it is expected to amount to $2,128,772.08.

From nineteen estates $50,217 in succession duties was received by the Ontario Treasury Department in June. The total for the half year is $541,417, of which $200,000 came in equal sums from the Fulford and Eaton estates, which are not yet closed. Last year the receipts ending June 30 were $300,746. The estimate for the year made by the Provincial Treasurer was $700,000, and it now looks as though this would be exceeded.

MURDERED BY HIGHWAYMEN.

Farmer Beaten to Death and Robbed In Lonely Spot.

New York, July 3.—Held up by highwaymen on a lonely road near Richmond Hill, Christopher Braas, a farmer, was shot and robbed early yesterday while driving home from market. Braas lived in Jamaica.

Evidences along the roadside showed that the farmer had made a desperate fight for his life.

Another farmer says that an attempt was made to hold him up early yesterday by three men, but that he whipped up his horses and got away.

All-Red Justifies Expenditure.

London, July 3.—(C. A. P.)—The Westminster Gazette in an editorial on the all-red line, says if the scheme can do what it professes to do, and in particular if it can accelerate and improve the mail service to Canada and New Zealand in the manner claimed for it, it does fulfill public objects which justify an expenditure of public money.

Wine-Growers Stay Jailed.

Montpellier, France, July 3.—The local court yesterday denied the petition for the temporary release of Marcelin Albert, Moneeal and others of the wine-growers' committee of Argelliers, arrested as a result of the recent disorders in the south of France.

Pays Damage for Calumny.

Munich, Bavaria, July 3.—Herr Gruber, editor of The Munchener Post, who was sued by Dr. Peters, the African explorer, for calumny in accusing him of cruelty to the natives in East Africa, was sentenced to pay a fine of $125 and costs.

Fatal Street Car Collision.

Jamestown, N. Y., July 3.—A collision occurred yesterday morning between two street cars near Chautauqua, in which Chauncey Newton, one of the motormen, was fatally injured. Both of his legs were cut off.

Powder Magazine Explodes.

It is as yet unknown whether there were any casualties.

Summer Residence Burned.

Stony Lake, July 3.—The summer home of John Hall, drygoods merchant of Peterboro, was struck by lightning Dominion Day and burned to the ground. The family had not yet occupied it for the season.

Philip Ketcheson, a storekeeper, of Tweed, is in gaol, charged with assaulting two girls.

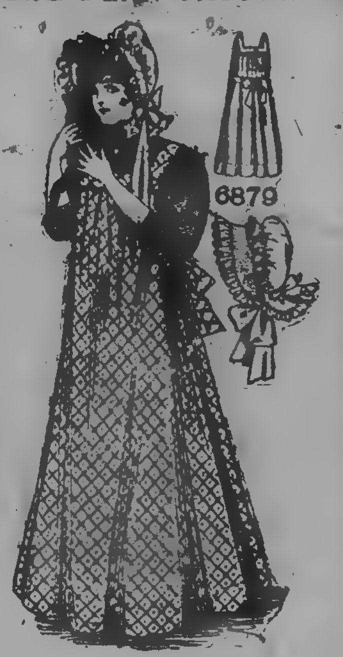
THE DEAN PATTERNS

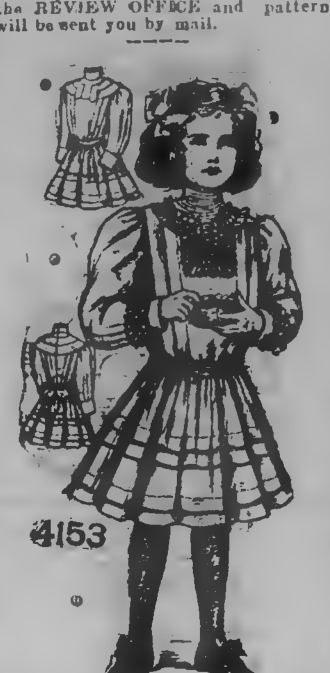


6838.—A PRETTY FASHION FOR DRESSING UP THE SHIRT BLOUSE.

Among the newest fads displayed by the young matrons and girls is the ribbon girdle and bretelles which go on over the shirt blouse and dress it up wonderfully. These accessories which are so easily made and so inexpensive, are most flattering in effect as they invariably broaden the shoulder line and lend taper to the waist. The bretelles shown are broad enough to be shirred a bit on the shoulder and at the belt so as to avoid any tendency to stiffness. The shoulder portions consist of two pointed tabs held together with narrow velvet straps and tiny pearl buttons. Not only ribbon, but soft silks, velvet and satiny fabrics are employed in the making of them and whether they be elaborate or plain remains with the owner to decide. These accessories usually match in color the skirt with which they are worn. For the ladies' size 4 yards of ribbon 6 inches wide are needed.

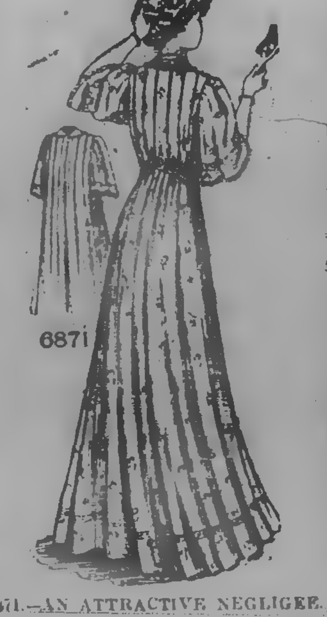
6838.—Sizes, ladies' and misses'.

The price of this pattern is 10c. Leave your order and ten cents at the REVIEW OFFICE and pattern will be sent you by mail.



4155.—A NEW FROCK FOR THE LITTLE MAID.

The younger sister as well as the older one likes to have new frocks, and if these must be made at home, the dress shown will prove pleasing. The waist has two tucks extending over the shoulder which lend height and breadth of shoulder while the skirt is tucked in groups of two. The latter assist the flare of the skirt and prove most becoming to growing girls. The sleeves are pretty with their backward turning tucks and deep cuffs. A fanciful bertha which is arranged over the yoke is given in the pattern and may be used when an elaborate dress is desired. The skirt is attached by a narrow waistband which may be adorned with a sash or crushed girdle. Any of the seasonable cloths or pongee might serve, the medium size requiring 3 7-8 yards of 27 inch material.

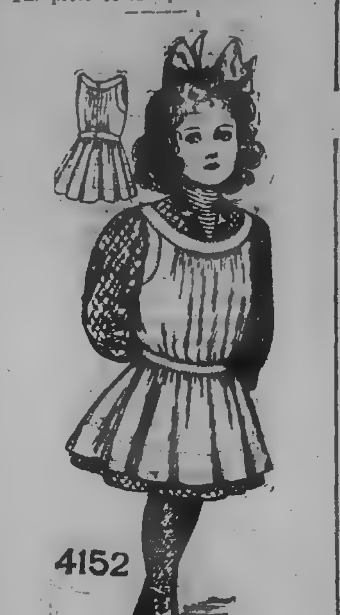


6871.—AN ATTRACTIVE NEGLIGEE.

It is during the warm days that a woman takes keenest delight in her negligees and those are therefore a part of her wardrobe which she does not fail to provide. A very restful and pleasing gown which suggests the kimono in style is sketched and will prove most charming for the home sewer to fashion. It is box pleated front and back to yoke depth so that plenty of fulness is provided for the skirt portion. The gown falls free from the shoulders and may be slipped on easily for lounging or as a bath robe. The Japanese fabrics are best suited to the making of this gown, but any soft silk or tub fabric would serve. For the medium size 6 1-4 yards of 44 inch goods are needed.

6871.—6 sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust measure.

The price of this pattern is 10c.



4152.—A SMALL PINAFORE APRON.

There are pinafores for little folks and pinafores for big ones, but the style belongs unquestionably to the former and an apron built on this order is sketched. The neck edge is finished with a band yoke which is attractive by reason of its trimness, while similar bands outline the armholes. These also act as a strengthening for edges, which as the garment wears are apt to become torn and frayed. The waist portion is prettily full in front and back, several shirrs at the yoke edge regulating the fulness. The skirt is a straight full one which protects the dress completely. The effect produced by this apron is that of a guimpe and over-dress and every mother will like it. Any of the apron materials, such as cross-barred muslin, lawn or Swiss would be suitable. For the medium size 3 yards 36 inches wide are needed.

4152.—Sizes 3, 5, 7 and 9 years.

The price of these patterns is 20c, but either will be sent upon receipt of 10c.

OBITUARY

DUNCAN MACKENZIE

Kirkfield, July 2.—Duncan Mackenzie, the eldest brother of Wm Mackenzie, pioneer of the Canadian Northern, passed away this afternoon, at his residence here, from heart trouble. He was born in Montreal, Que., May 23rd, 1833. He leaves three sons, John, Charles and William D. and three daughters, Mary, Melinda and Sarah C.

More Charges Have Been Made

Against the Four Alleged Pickpockets—Were Remanded for a Week

A good large crowd was at the police court this morning eagerly awaiting for the doors to open, in order that they might get a look at the four pickpockets who were brought up before His Worship Magistrate Dumble this morning. The defendants were Chas. H. Phelps, Harry Goldfield, Ray Bradford and Henry Lewis. Mr. F. D. Kerr appeared for the first mentioned two, and Mr. G. N. Gordon for the other two. Last week there was only the one charge against them, that of stealing $12 from Wm. Hurl. This morning additional charges were laid against them, one of taking $40 from Luke Frances, and $1.50 from B. Hartley. On these charges they did not elect how they would be tried, but Mr. Kerr stated that they were ready to go on with the preliminary hearing. The Crown was not ready, so His Worship again remanded them till next Wednesday. Mr. Kerr stated that he thought this was an unnecessary delay on the part of the Crown, as it was only the preliminary hearing; he thought it was not right to again remand them. Mr. Gordon stated that Mrs. Bradford, wife of one of the prisoners, had come here from New York for the trial, and if her husband was again remanded it would necessitate her waiting.

His Worship considered the Crown should have all the time it wanted to get ready. Previous to the court this morning an official representative from Toronto took the measurements of the four defendants, and also their photographs. After the court Mrs. Bradford was given an opportunity to converse with her husband in the hearing of P.C. Adams.

AN ASSAULT CASE.

John R. Cully was charged with assaulting Fred Oliver. Mr. E. L. Goodwell appeared for Cully. As Oliver was not present, the charge was dismissed, the informant having to pay the costs.

An Earthquake Every Week

Interesting Statment Made by Rev. Dr. Marsh of Springville week will no doubt be surprising news to many people. But it is true, nevertheless, and the Review has for its informant, such a well-known authority as Rev. Dr. Marsh, of Springville. The doctor was called up by the Review today, and asked if he had any information about an earthquake shock that was recorded at Ottawa yesterday. He stated that his astronomical transit had recorded no shock, but imparted the information that on the average there is an earthquake every week, sometimes more. The shock is slight, however, and is not felt by anyone, although recorded by the seismograph and instruments intended for that purpose. The despatch from Ottawa, regarding the earthquake registered there is as follows,—

Ottawa, July 2.—A severe earthquake was recorded yesterday at the Dominion Observatory. The preliminary tremors arrived at 8.15.48, and the principal shock was felt at 8.21.14. The shock recorded was comparatively greater than at Kingston, Jamaica. It is inferred from the seismograph, that the earthquake took place some 1,100 miles from here, probably somewhere to the north of the Bahamas. Earthquakes were also recorded yesterday in the United States at the Cheltenham, Maryland Observatory, and at Albany, N.Y.; from the time of the registration it is evident, that the shock is the same one as is felt at Ottawa.

Many Persons Up for Trespassing

Over Half a Hundred Summoned for Walking Over C. P. R. Bridge

The C. P. R. Co. are following the example of the G.T.R. and for the past two days, Mr. B. McQuay, a C.P.R official, of Toronto, has been in the city.

As a result of his visit over fifty persons will appear in police court in a day or so. This morning fifty-four summonses were ready to be delivered. Mr. McQuay has a large number of names, for which invitations to police court have not yet been made out.

The offence is for trespassing on the C.P.R. tracks and principally crossing the bridge. Mr. McQuay believes that it is for the people's own good that the practice should be stopped. If any accident happened while on the track, the railway company would be held responsible and the company intend to strictly enforce the law in keeping persons off their property. The C.P.R. bridge is utilized more than any other place, for a short way to the C.G.E works or the C.P.R. station. Nearly all residents of East City employed at the Canadian General Co. or the Cordage Works, cross this bridge two and three times a day. It is principally these people who will appear in police court. It would be well for them to take a warning, and even if they have to go a longer route, they will not have to pay a fine.

CANOE UPSET; NARROW ESCAPE

The Toronto Star of last night says;

"Word was received in Toronto this afternoon that Miss Nellie Rowe of this city, had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday at Stony Lake. She was out canoeing, when her canoe capsized, and she was thrown into the water. She was rescued by two young men who happened to be nearby."

The Review today called up several cottages at Stony Lake, but none of them knew anything about the accident.

Fisrt Weekly Half Holiday Tomorrow

Tomorrow afternoon will be the first half holiday this summer for the clerks. There has been no formal petition circulated among the employers this year, but a large number of them have signified their intention of closing. Last year the half holiday was beneficial to the clerks and the merchants lost practically nothing by it. Some of the stores will be open, but it is hoped that by next week, the movement will be universal.

Adam Menzie, a farmer near Listowel, fell dead at his table.

Will be Lynching in the Vicinity

Several Review Employees Are on the Warpath

A Hunter street merchant set out a fire to burn some rubbish in his back yard this morning, and incidentally filled the mechanical department of the Review, and several other premises on the east side of this office with smoke. From the printers' devil up to the foreman every employee of the Review news room was on the warpath today as a result of the smoke, and state that there will be a Lynching in the vicinity if the like ever happens again.

Give Fair Play to

A really reliable remedy for headache —Zutoo.

If you have got it into your head that Zutoo Tablets will hurt you, you are mistaken.

It isn't fair to us for you to judge Zutoo by the drug cures.

It isn't fair to yourself to suffer from headache, when this really harmless vegetable headache cure is within your reach.

The fair thing for both of us is—to judge Zutoo on its merits—to test it.

If you find it does not cure your headache, sick, nervous or otherwise, in twenty minutes, and leave you feeling good every time—no bad after effects, then discard it.

But do not condemn it unfairly without a trial, and keep on suffering from headaches. You really do not have to, and one trial of Zutoo will prove it.

All we ask for Zutoo is fair play—that you give it a trial before concluding as to its merits or demerits.

Wont you do this? You'll be glad ever after if you do.

We'll send trial tablets for nothing, or you can buy them at dealers in 10c. and 25c. packages.

"NO SURRENDER."

There will be a big Orange celebration in Millbrook on Friday, July 12th, in which it is expected thousands of the sons of William, Prince of Orange, will take part. They are building a new cement walk on one of the leading streets of the village, and some enthusiastic workman has scratched the letters, "No Surrender" in the pavement and the words cannot be effaced.

WAS FOUND HERE.

A brown leather card case thrown away by the quartette of circus followers arrested a week ago in Peterborough, charged with picking pockets, was given to Inspector Duncan by a Peterborough police official Identification of the case is sought. It bears the name "J. W. Burns" and contains cards bearing addresses in this city, also several small photos taken here.—Toronto World.

TO ATTEND WORSHIP.

The Orangemen of Peterborough and district will attend divine worship at All Saint's church on Sunday evening next at seven o'clock, when Rev. Wm Major will deliver a special sermon to the visitors. The Orangemen, Loyal "True Blues," and Prentice Boys will assemble at the Orange Hall on Simcoe Street, at 6.30 o'clock, and march to the church in a body.

ST. MARKS', OTONABEE

The weekly cottage meeting will be held at the home of Mr. John Thorne on Tuesday evening, July 9, at eight p.m. A lawn social will be held under the auspices of the W. A. on Mr. Joshua Smithson's lawn on Tuesday evening, July 16th. Refreshments will be served, after which a programme, consisting of musical selections, recitations and addresses will be rendered. An orchestra will add to the evening's enjoyment. Admission 25 cents.

EXCURSION.

The steamer Rainbow came up from Rice Lake yesterday morning and went over the lift lock, with about one hundred and fifty excursionists on board. The excursion was under the auspices of the Sunday School of Pannella, in Alnwick township. The trip was made over the lift lock, where the steamer turned around and started on its return. No stop was made to give the people an opportunity of coming into the city.

RESTAURANT SOLD.

As was mentioned in these columns a few days ago, Mr. McEwen Spence, lately of the Homewood Sanitarium at Guelph has purchased the well-known restaurant business of Mr. W. J McCallum. The deal was put through and the new proprietor was given a lease and he took possession this morning. Mr. Spence will be assisted by Mrs. Spence and several of her sisters, and there is every reason to believe that they will make a success of the undertaking. Mr and Mrs. McCallum will remain with the new owner for a few days before retiring.

SPECIAL MUSIC.

The presence in the city over Sunday of a number of former members of Charlotte street choir, made possible musical services of more than usual interest and excellence. At the morning service Miss Clara Belleghem sang as a solo, "Shall I Forgotten Be?" by Herbert Johnston and after the sermon, Mr. R. Norman Jolliffe was heard with delight in "Crossing the Bar" by Behrend. At the evening service Mr Jolliffe again sang, his selection being Granier's "Hosanna," and the offertory number was a male quartette, "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" the members taking part being Messrs. Brown, Legge, Jolliffe, and Dormer; the solo parts were taken by Messrs. Legge and Brown. The sermons were preached by Rev Alan Terrill, of Greenbank.

ENJOYABLE OUTING.

The annual excursion of St. Luke's Bible Class was held on Dominion Day around the lakes, by steamer Water Lily. About sixty excursionists were on board. The trip was made to Burleigh, where dinner was partaken of, after which a delightful sail was made around the lakes. While at Burleigh a very heavy thunderstorm took place, and the rain came down heavily for nearly an hour. Two young men on the trip, invested in a fishing outfit at Lakefield, and when Burleigh was reached, went fishing. Like true followers of Isaac Walton, they fished through all the rain and were drenched clean through, but never ever got a bite.

The return trip was made in good time, and everyone returned home feeling better for the day's outing.

Contractor Mahoney Get Three Cents Yard Increase on His Job

Price is now 11 1-2 Cents—Conditions are Different to Last Year—Troubles at Fire Hall Aired; Before Committee of the Whole—Prompt Action Will be Taken.

A meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council was held last night, when the main things taken up was the trouble at the fire hall and Mr. Mahoney's contract.

Members present were Mayor McWilliams, Ald. Bradburn, Morrow, Phelan, Johnston, Elliott, Morgan, McIntyre, Wilson and Duncan.

The first matter taken up was Mr. Mahoney's contract for handling the dredgings from the river. He asked to be relieved of his contract as the conditions were not what he had expected, and he found that he had tendered too low. He asked the Council to raise his price from 8 cents to 11 1-2 cents a yard, and to repair the cars for him.

Ald. Duncan said that the city engineer recommended that the Council pay the contractor the 11 1-2 cents as asked. Mr. Mahoney could be held to his contract, but it would be hardly fair to do that. He is losing money now.

Moved by Ald. Duncan and Ald. Johnston, that a new contract be made with Mr. Mahoney at 11 1-2 cet per yard, he to repair his own cars, and to furnish securities, new price, to take effect from June 27th.—Carried.

Four voted for it, and two against it; four did not vote. Ald. McIntyre was opposed to the motion on principle.

Tax Collector Green appeared before the Council and asked that his salary be changed from a lump sum of $1000 and he pay all his expenses to 1 per cent of the monies collected; also to lower his bonds from $12,000 to what the Council thinks is right. This was asked on account of the city having appointed a permanent auditor.

This matter was referred to the Finance Committee to report on.

FIRE HALL TROUBLES.

Changes will have to be made at the fire hall at once, and the sooner it is done the danger of serious trouble will be over. The fire brigade held a meeting last night and appointed a deputaion to await upon the Committee of the Whole Council and place before them their complaints. The deputation was heard, and everything they asked to have rectified was quite within reason, and the chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee said that he had several times instructed Foreman Pakenham to attend to them.

There has been a feeling of dissatisfaction in the brigade ever since the new foreman was appointed, although the majority of the members do not care to complain to the Council. A couple of times it looked as if the trouble would come to a head last night, when one or two of the aldermen asked some questions, but the expected storm went around. Some things came out, however, which will be taken up at a joint meeting of the Fire, Water and Light Committee and the Board of Works at an early date.

Mr. Jos. Metheral said that they had been appointed by the brigade to notify the Council that only one driver was sleeping at the hall and only one team could be taken out. The second team was hitched and driven by outsiders and firemen. The brigade, therefore, refused to go on the second waggon without a proper driver. The present drivers have no alarm in their houses, and therefore know nothing of the fire. In the old hall the drivers had an alarm in theis houses. Wainwright used to do the driving on the second team when he was in the hall.

Capt. John Gibbs brought up the matter of the electric fixtures on the doors, etc. He thought it was about time now for the electric fixtures to be put on the stable doors, and that other appliances be put in which are necessary. The brigade will have no "Hall Opening" until these things are done.

Ald. Johnston said he had often instructed Foreman Pakenham to put on the fixtures, and he did not know why he had not done so.

The Council, until recently, was under the impression that two of the three men were already in the hall, and that they took turns in being at home.

The Mayor said that there would be a joint meeting of the Board of Works and the Fire, Water and Light Committee held in a day or two, and this matter would then be brought up and settled.

The firemen also stated that the alarm bells in their houses were not at all satisfactory. They were very dull, and the men feared that the bells would not awaken them if they were sound asleep.

It was moved that the city clerk notify the manufacturers and have the bells rectified.—Carried.

Fireman Charles Butcher said that twice since he had been sleeping in the hall some smart Aleck had gone in and sounded the main gong and got him out of bed. Then he said that the outside doors were so bound at the bottom that the men had to nearly tear their fingers off in order to get in.

Foreman Pakenham is responsible for all these things, and he should, said one alderman, be made to understand that he is responsible and must look after their property.

Chief Rutherford said that as far as the door openers were concerned, that he thought it was a wonderful thing that it took seven or eight weeks to get those little things done. In reference to the big doors he said that ~~they will~~ not open. Then in reference to the foreman, he said the city was no better off than before he was appointed. His opinion of a foreman of a fire department was that he should sleep in the hall himself. If he does not he is of practically little use to the department. Unless the new official was appointed as an electrician only, he could not see what use he was to the city.

All the matters were referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee to report at once.

ICE FOR FOUNTAINS.

On motion of Ald. Phelan, the chairman of the Property Committee was authorized to make the best arrangements possible for supplying the public drinking fountains with ice.

CARE OF FIRE HALL.

Ald. Johnston reported that the best terms he could reach for keeping the bed rooms in new fire hall clean and making beds was to pay the Parnell boys $50 a year each. He contended that these men are keeping the rooms in very satisfactory condition and recommended that they be paid this amount for a continuance of this service.

Ald. Johnston also recommended that electrical door openers be furnished for each door.

Ald. Bradburn moved, seconded by Ald. Johnston, that the Fire, Water and Light Committee be authorized to have electrical door openers placed on six doors in the new fire hall at $25 each.—Carried.

Ald. Morgan moved, seconded by Ald. McIntyre, that the present two fire hall drivers be paid $100 between them for looking after the rooms, this arrangement to date from the time they started to do the work.—Carried.

The Council then adjourned.

Big Turnover of Cheese at To-day's Meeting Local Board

The high price for cheese at today's meeting of the Peterborough Board was 11 5-16c and all sold at this figure, except fourteen factories and for these 11 1-4c was paid. All sold except Buckhorn, the salesman for this factory turning down Mr. Moston's offer of 11 1-4c. The total registration of cheese was 4,~~386 boxes, as compared~~ with 3,918 two weeks ago, when the first price paid was 11 5-8c. Bidding was brisk today and the board was soon cleared.

When bids were called, Mr. G. Gillespie offered 10 1-2c, which was advanced to 10 3-4 c by Mr. Morton. Mr. Wrighton then bid 11c and Mr. G. Gillespie made it 11 1-16c. Mr. Weir then came in and offered 11 1-8c but Mr. Wrighton outbid him with 11 3-16c and Mr. Cook went one better, with 11 1-4c. Mr. Wrighton then offered 11 5-16c, upon which there was no advance.

At 11 5-16c Mr. Wrighton called the board and took the following: Treewern, Bensfort, East Emily, Warsaw, Shearer, Lang and Indian River.

At the same figure Mr. Cook got the next selection as follows: Pine Grove, Maple Leaf, Myrtle, Crown, and Ormonde.

Mr. Weir took the next lot at the same price, 11 5-16c; Keene, Warminster and Central Smith.

Mr. Cook came in again with 11 5-16c and took another selection, as follows; Westwood, Villiers, Selwyn and Lakefield.

Mr. Morton bid 11 1-4c for the balance of the board and the following sold; Fleetwood, Oakdale, Norwood, Cavanville, Cedardale, Killarney, Otonabee Union, Young's Point, Fraserville, Mt. Pleasant, Oak Leaf, Hope, North Dummer and South Burleigh.

Buckhorn alone refused this offer, being the only factory on the board that did not sell.

The boarding in detail was as follows;

Keene	200
Warminster	125
Shearer	170
Central Smith	180
Selwyn	170
Warsaw	135
Oakdale	130
Lakefield	95

Killarney	140
Cedardale	78
Westwood	200
Villiers	110
Indian River	125
North Dummer	70

While waiting for two of the buyers, who were telephoning Montreal at the request of President Riddell, a few remarks were made by Thos. Watkin, of Belleville, a veteran cheese buyer. He congratulated the Peterborough Board on the excellent manner in which it was being being run, and the splendid progress it was making. He referred to the importance of factories installing cool curing rooms and he hoped the Peterborough district would follow the example that had been set by the dairymen of Belleville, where there were now a large number of cool curing rooms.

The board adjourned for two weeks.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Breezy News Notes From Stoney Lake

Annual Reggata Will be Held August 12—Several Crafts Change Hands

Fishing has been excellent at Stony Lake. The cool weather drove the fish into shallow places and good catches of bass and lunge have been made. Pittsburg, Buffalo and Rochester fishing parties have been trying their luck at Buckhorn, Young's Point, Burleigh Falls and Viamede, with fair success.

Mr. H. Sutherland has arrived at Eaglemount. His friends are looking for an early mess of new potatoes.

Mr. R. B. Rice and family are among the early comers.

The regatta will be held on Monday, August 12th. Three silver cups are donated this year; One by Senator Cox in the dinghy race, the second by Hon. J. R. Stratton, in the sailboat event, and the third by H. T. Woodroof, for the speediest single canoe. The annual at-home will follow the regatta. It will be held in the pavilion. It had been intended by the way to lengthen the pavilion by sixteen feet and build a ten-foot verandah, thus about doubling its capacity. These improvements will be made next year. The pavilion is used for church services on Sundays, and for dancing during the week.

Mr. George Gillett, ex-M.P., of Cobourg, is again in possession of his twenty acres of a hundred-acre island. However, it is not unusual for Mr. Gillett to come as soon as the ice melts, and to stay until it forms once more.

Mr. James Acton, president of the Stony Lake Cottagers' Association, was up early in the week, settling his family at "Tawasentha," for the summer. Mr. Acton has sold his last year's boat, the "Avoca," to Thomas W. Robinson, the Juniper Island merchant, and is buying a new launch, the Hiawatha. Mr. Acton's office staff spent Sunday and the holiday at Tawasentha.

Mr. A. L. Davis has completed his new house. It is one of the finest on the lake. Its equipment will include numerous incandescent lights, besides acetylene gas, and an engine will operate the dynamo and pump the water.

Senator Cox, Hon. President of the Stony Lake Cottagers' Association, intends to spend some weeks with his daughter, Mrs. A. L. Davis.

Mr. Samuel Henderson, of Parkdale, Toronto, has opened his cottage at Mount Julian, and his launch, the Kanatha, is in the water. He has installed an acetylene gas plant.

Hon. J. R. Stratton has bought Mr. J. J. McBain's interest in the Molly. Mr. Stratton is now sole owner of this 48-foot steam launch.

Mr. J. Walter Curry, K.C., has rented Mr. D. W. Dumble's cottage at Boschink, and will occupy it in ten days. Mr. Curry intends to spend a month on Stony Lake and will take a couple of dinghies along with him.

Mr. Edward Piper will occupy his new cottage. Mr. McCabe and family will live at "Kimo."

The water in Stony Lake is lower this year than it was last, and is likely to remain so. The Government has raised and otherwise improved the wharves.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gouinlock have been spending the honeymoon at Sandhaven. Mr. Gouinlock, sr., and his sons, John and Walter, came up on Friday.

The Stony Lake "Year Book" has been issued. It is larger than ever, and fully as interesting.

The "Sailor Boy" brand of canned goods are the best that are put up. They never fail to please. Try a few cans.

CONFIRMATION AT THE CATHEDRAL

At the 9 o'clock mass on Sunday morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, His Lordship Bishop O'Connor administered the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation to about two hundred boys and girls. The ceremony was performed during the mass, which was celebrated by Bishop O'Connor. There was a majority of boys this year, which is somewhat of an exception. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday the children were prepared for the event.

They occupied the centre of the church, and, at the Communion time, filed to the altar. The girls were dressed in white and wore white veils, while the boys wore black suits, and each had a white ribbon tied on his left arm. The ceremony, which was an impressive one, was performed by His Lordship, assisted by Rev. Father McColl.

After the mass the children received the Sacrament of Confirmation, after which His Lordship addressed a few remarks to the children. He said that the day marked one of the most important events in their lives.

The children, said the Apostles' Creed, Our Father, and Hail Mary, and Bishop O'Connor asked them to make three promises, which they did. They were first to abstain from all intoxicating liquors until the age of 21 years; second, to say their morning and evening prayers every day, and, third, to always receive Holy Communion at least once a year. If they remained faithful to these promises he said they would enter upon manhood and womanhood well equipped. Business today, His Lordship said, demanded men who lead, honest, pure lives, and, remaining true to the promises just made, they should make men and women of the best and noblest type.

His Lordship also complimented the Sisters, who had so carefully instructed the children. He asked the parents to do all in their power to help their children under their care.

After the service the children returned to the Convent, marching in separate bodies. Two banners were carried, one by the following boys; James Heffernan, Louis Barette, George Bain, Kenneth Donoghue, John Cahill, and the other by the girls. Those chosen were; Aileen M[illegible], Mossie McCasney, Kathleen Conroy, Marie Audette, Rose Drennan, Hermance Duranceau.

In the afternoon the children were enrolled in the Scapular of the Blessed Virgin.

Death of Miss Myrtle Fisher

On Dominion Day—Many Visitors in the Village on the Holiday

Fraserville, July 2.—Mr. T. Weatherill of Toronto, is the guest of his father, Rev. W. J. Weatherill.

The boys have returned from camp after having a good time.

Mr. M. E. Hutchison and daughter, are visiting friends in Lindsay.

Miss Cora and Mr. Stanley Kidd of Lakefield, are staying at the home of A. Kidd.

Mr. Hopkins and wife of Toronto, spent Sunday at the home of his brother, Mr. J. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Ridpath, Peterborough, spent the holidays at the home of her brother, Mr. Jas. Morton.

Messrs. James and John Agnew of Toronto, and Mr. Charles Crowe of Peterborough, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers over Sunday.

The death occurred Monday, July 1st, of Miss Myrtle Fisher, third daughter of Mr. W. J. Fisher, of Cavan. Deceased had been in poor health for some time, but was always bright and cheerful. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Miss Clifford of Coboconk is the guest of Mrs. A. J. Carl.

Dominion day was quietly observed in Ottawa.

Big Celebration Held in Havelock

Most Successful Dominion Day Demonstration in the Village

Special to the Review.

Havelock, July 2nd.—The celebration held here on the first was largely attended and on the whole was a great success. It will be remembered by those attending for many a year as everyone heartily enjoyed themselves.

The baseball game between Havelock and Hastings resulted in a score of 10—4 in favor of Havelock. The batteries were Rose-Scott for Havelock, and Graham-Prest for Hastings.

A very interesting and well contested game of football took place between Norwood and the local team resulting in a score of 2—1 in favor of Havelock.

There were six contestants for the five mile race. Mr. J. Moss of Round Lake was the winner, while R. Moss came second and W. McBurney, the local runner third. McBurney is sure he could have won had he not had a bad pain in his side for the past few days.

Mr. A. Moss, winner in the five mile race also carried off the prize in the mile race, while M. Watson and R. Webb of town came second and third respectively.

The trades procession which took place in the morning was a beautiful sight, each manufacturer and merchant turning out, exhibiting and advertising his business.

The slow horse race, in which each of the contestants had to change horses was a most laughable affair.

There was a large number from outside towns attending, many coming in on the special train from Peterborough.

FAREWELL SERMON OF REV. ROLAND

Death of Miss Northey on Sunday—Holiday Visitors

Lakehurst, July 2.—Miss Ethel Coons is spending her vacation at her home here.

Miss Ethel Clarkson of Peterborough, is home for a short holiday.

Miss L. M. Weir of Merritton, is home for the summer vacation.

Rev. Mr. Roland preached his farewell sermon in the Methodist church to a large congregation last night. Mr. Roland is deservedly popular and his many friends regret his departure.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Miss Maggie Northey which took place early Sunday morning. The deceased had been ill for some months, but her death caused a shock to her many friends. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Budget of News From Graystock

Graystock, July 2nd.—Wedding bells may ring here soon. Zion may witness a few this coming fall.

The annual picnic of the Zion Methodist church Sunday school and Bible classes was held on June 19th. It was a success and a credit to the people of this place.

Being a slack time of the year and the spring work about done, and now waiting for the harvest to come in, many of our farmers spent Tuesday, June 25th, at the Forepaugh-Sells Bros.' shows.

Mr. Thomas Graystock has erected a new driving shed on the west side of his barn.

Miss Edith Hutchison has closed her school for the summer holidays and has returned to her home where she will spend her vacation.

Mrs. John Moncrieff and family of Peterborough, spent Sunday at Mr. Sid Rutherford's.

Mrs. Charles Kindred spent a few few days at Westwood, visiting friends there.

Mrs. James Rutherford of Peterborough, visited here some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weaver of Millbrook, visited at Mr. Joseph Robinson's recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kindred of Belleville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kindred on Dominion Day.

Miss Lizzie Perry of Zion, is spending this week, with her friends at Mr. Andrew Chatten's, Smith.

The cottage prayer meetings in connection with the Church of England here, are now being conducted weekly. This week's meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Robert Scollie.

Mr. Joseph Reed, Trenton, was the guest of his brother, Mr. Henry Reed, on Sunday.

Mr. Frank Dixon has returned home from camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wood are visiting for a few days this week, at Chemong.

No public demonstration of any kind took place in Montreal on Dominion Day.

L. V. Cote, deputy postmaster of Oakville, succeeds W. H. Young as postmaster.

Havelock Will be Visited by Circus

Will be the First Circus to Ever Exhibit in That Village

Havelock, July 2.—The youthful population of this small, yet prosperous railroad town are eagerly looking forward, with the greatest excitement and a large amount of talking, to the 11th of July, when the celebrated Hargreaves Circus Co. who are travelling in Canada for the first time, will show in town. The pictures posted on all the barns and fences of the most fierce and blood thirsty animals, which roam the forest in quest of prey, are causing many a blood curdling and nerve jarring story to be told by the youngsters of what brave deed or narrow escape their father, uncle, or some other relation has passed through uninjured.

But still more excited are the boys over slack wire walking and performances on wire and rope in mid-air, and by diligent practice and a large amount of nerve, several boys in town believe themselves equal to any circus actor in that capacity.

Hargreaves is a good show, and all those who are able should attend, if only to study the nature of the boys, which is sure to be clearly shown on such an important occasion as this.

FINE SPRINTING.

Some fine running was done here on July 1st. J. Moss, who came first in the five-mile race, covered the distance in 27 1-2 minutes, or at the rate of one mile in 5 1-2 minutes.

Among the contestants in this race were two Havelock boys, about 12 years old, who ran the five miles with their ordinary clothes and boots on, and who came in a few minutes behind the winner, as fresh as when they started. These two boys are V. Chapman and J. Spinks.

PROPERTIES SHOWING FREE GOLD

New Liskeard, July 2nd.—To those who have never been in Northern Ontario, at least as far as this town and Cobalt, the statement that there are so many flies in the woods and mining camps, that the men are quitting the mines and woods in gangs may possibly cause some surprise. Such is the case, however. Prospectors arriving here from Larder Lake and the new gold camp report the prevalence of large flies and myriads of fleas make life almost unbearable, especially if one is residing any distance back from the lake.

It is also reported that the heat is intense and sultry. However, there are always two sides to a story and it is just possible that these tales of distress have been somewhat magnified.

The discoveries that have been made of late, have caused great enthusiasm. Developments have been diligently prosecuted, especially on some of the older properties, such as Dr. Reddick, Harris-Maxwell, Blue Bell and Lucky Boys. The superintendents of the two latter companies have recently visited here and both speak in the highest terms of the values, showing free gold, that have been obtained from their properties.

Presentation to Retiring Teacher

Miss Fife of Kenora, Formerly of Peterboro', Honored by Her Pupils

Miss Mary Fife, of Kenora, Ont., daughter of the late Dr. Fife, of Peterborough, who has been a teacher on the staff of the Kenora High School for some years, is retiring from her position. At the close of the present term Miss Fife was presented by the staff and pupils with an appreciative address, accompanied by a handsome writing desk. Miss Fife, though completely taken by surprise, replied in a few admirably expressed remarks

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 82, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are, it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

No City Council For Kirkfield

Could Not Attend Opening of Lift Lock Without Invitation

The Kirkfield lift lock will be opened on Saturday next and quite a number from there will attend. Ald. Elliott suggested that the City Council attend in a body. This idea was, however, quickly knocked in the head. Ald. Wilson remarked that the Council had better wait until they were asked. He did not believe in butting in on an affair of this kind without an invitation, especially when invitations were being issued.

This was the idea of practically the whole council. No one felt like going to Kirkfield on Saturday on their own hook, and to charge the expenses to the city would not be right. Had they received an invitation it would have been different. Several of the aldermen would have gone at their own expense.

Government Tug Travelled Fast

Complaints have been made about the speed that the Government tug Bob Hall makes in the river, below the locks. On ordinary occasions and especially in the day time, speed makes little difference. But on the 1st of July night, the Bob Hall came up the river with a small party of excursionists on board, and travelled at the fastest possible speed. The result was that the boat threw a very heavy double swell, which is very dangerous to canoes and skiffs. The river was full of small boats at the time the tug came up and it is a wonder that no one was swamped. A double swell is a difficult one to handle except by an expert canoeist.

It is not the intention to knock the speed of the Bob Hall, or to knock the size of the swell it throws, but for an excursion party on a government tug to travel at such a speed in a river at night, is entirely uncalled for. For navigation purposes the tug would not travel nearly as fast and if the pleasure parties want to try its speed, the canal officials would not object to them going to the open lakes where there is no small boats to be swamped.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

Last Sunday morning was flower service, which was attended by the Sunday school children in a body. The flowers were beautiful and in large numbers, so that two large boxes could be sent to the Victoria Hospital for Sick Children. Rev. Dr. Langfeldt preached an appropriate sermon from the text, "The Angel which delivered me from all evil, bless the lads."

Mr. T. A. Perry, B. A., preached at St. Luke's Sunday evening in the absence of the rector and created a very favorable impression.

Dominion Day at Chemong Village

Sports Were Greatly Enjoyed—List of the Winners

In connection with the celebration and formal opening of the new church at Chemong Village, a number of sports were run off Monday afternoon, for which several valuable prizes were donated by merchants in the city. Those who gave prizes were Messrs. H. LeBrun, T. Barrie, W. Talbot, J. T. Stinson, Robt. Neill, Kingan Hardware Co., Richard Hall, Storey & Leary, A. G. Dickson, C. B. Routley, R. J. Soden, Chas. McClelland, and Jas. Head, of the Peterborough House. The committee in charge, consisting of Dan Whetung, jr., Alf. McCue, L. D. Taylor, Z. Knott and Wm. Taylor, desire to thank all who donated prizes.

On Monday morning a football match between Chemong and Selwyn teams was played, and resulted in a win for the former by 3 goals to 0.

The following is a list of the races and prize winners:—

BASEBALL AS SHE IS PLAYED

The charter members of the "B.A.C." triumphed over the newer members in a game of baseball at Riverside Park last evening. The game was practically handed to the has-beens on a silver tray by the umpire, who happened to be that individual of alleged sporting blood, Uncle Josh Craig. When the defeated team saw the aforesaid Uncle Josiah Craig receiving a few pennies and a cent's worth of gum from Manager Hutchison of the has-been nine, they knew it was all up with them, but although they were aware of the fact that the ump. had sold the game, they made no protest and went on the field and were trimmed—by the umpire, and not by the superior ball playing ability of their opponents.

The score was 10—3 when the game was called at the end of four innings. "We're ahead and we're going to quit," chimed the old timers, and the ump. backed up their determination. It was well that they did so for their opponents were just starting to warm up and put it all over them like the main tent of a circus.

Norman Jolliffe, who some people here may know, was on the rubber for the charters, and from his exhibition of arm flinging is fully qualified to write a treatise on—"Best means of not getting the ball over the plate." He was being batted all over the pasture when the game was called, but distinguished himself with the hickory. On one occasion he pounded out a three bagger with the bases full. One M. J. Hutchison did the receiving for the victors and tried hard to catch the flying sphere with a large 4x4 clothes basket kindly lent for the occasion by Brother Hetherington. E. Best appeared on the field in a pair of bright red carpet slippers, which he had borrowed from some of his lady friends. He had soaked them over night in order to stretch them so that he might get his pedal extremities into them. (They were No. nines originally).

Harmer p., and Dobbin c., were the battery for the other team, and they did good work—in spots.

The teams were as follows,—

Charters—Jolliffe p, Hutchison c, Robertson 1b, Hetherington 2b, E. Best, 3b, M. Dobbin rf, W. Warner rf, H. Gray lf.

"Stung"—Harmer p, R. Dobbin c, R. Best 1b, Richardson 2b, Sisson 3b, Middleton lf, Huston cf, MacRae rf.

Coon has Been Acting Wild Like

Harold Coon, of Bridgenorth, is apparently trying to live up to his name. At any rate, he has been acting kind of wild lately, and this morning faced County Magistrate Edmison to explain some of his disorderly acts.

Coon was charged with causing a disturbance in a public place, the complainant being Constable W. T. Cullen, of Bridgenorth. It appears that last Saturday Coon took too much lemonade, or something stronger, at Bridgenorth, and commenced to cut up at a lively clip. After doing a stunt at the lumber village he proceeded to Chemong, where he acted disorderly at the hotel, and was taken into custody by Constable Cullen.

This morning he pleaded guilty to the charge against him and was fined $10 and costs, amounting to over $15. He was given until July 18th to pay it.

Public Bath For Lakefield Appeal to Wealthy Men to Aid

Patriotic Service in Presbyterian Church—Local Lawn Tennis Team Won From Bobcaygeon—Many Holiday Visitors to and From the Village.

Lakefield, July 2—Rev. A. W. Mackenzie and Mrs. Mackenzie are staying in Bobcaygeon for a few days.

LAWN TENNIS.

Messrs. Creighton, Pratt, Langley and De la Fosse drove to Bobcaygeon on Monday last to play against the Bobcaygeon Lawn Tennis Club. Mr. Mackenzie joined forces with them on their arrival and a most pleasant afternoon was spent at the grounds. The Bobcaygeon Tennis Club treated the visitors most hospitably. The Lakefield players hope in their turn to be enabled in a few weeks' time to invite the Bobcaygeon Club to Lakefield. So far as the events were concerned, the Lakefield players were lucky in winning the majority of the games.

Miss Wilson, head milliner at Mr. R. Johnson's left on Monday last for a two months' holiday at her home in Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lingwood, of Simcoe, Ont., are staying for a few days, with Mr. and Mrs. Atwood at Ashworth.

Major and Mrs. Leigh, of Toronto, old time residents of Lakefield, passed through the village on Tuesday last on their way to Mr. Litticrap's cottage at Stony Lake.

Miss Ethel Penny, of Norwood, England, is expected to arrive in Lakefield on a visit to her sister, Miss Penny, on Thursday next.

Green's moving pictures, which are being shown at the town hall, in aid of the public library, drew a crowded house on July 1st. A substantial sum was netted in aid of the institution.

Many of our residents left for outside points on Saturday last and the village had quite a deserted look in consequence.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

A patriotic service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. The church was very nicely decorated with flags, flowers and foliage, the work of the ladies of the church. A marked feature of the service was the eloquent and patriotic sermon of Rev. S. S. Burns, pastor of the church.

The Orangemen of Lakefield and surrounding district will attend evening service at St. John's church on Sunday next. The preacher will be Rev. W. J. Creighton, incumbent of the parish.

Hon. L. H. Grahame, secretary of the interior at Porto Rico, and his family, passed through the village on the way to their island at Stony Lake.

Mrs. Chamberlain left last week for Toronto, where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fitzgibbons.

Miss Louise Bell, who has been visiting Miss K. Blomfield, returned to Apsley on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Strickland, accompanied by Mr. Geo. Hatton, of Peterborough, have been touring Stony Lake for two or three days.

Mr. Geo. Hilliard arrived home for the vacation from R.M.C., Kingston, last week.

PUBLIC BATHS.

Lakefield has a good deal to learn from Bobcaygeon in the matter of public utilities. Take for instance, the matter of public baths. Although we may not be so favorably situated in regard to the establishment of a suitable bathing place, there is no doubt that whatever difficulty lies in the way could be easily surmounted, provided the wealthy men of Lakefield were willing to contribute something towards its formation. The Board of Trade might very well take this matter under its cognizance, for there is not the least doubt that a suitable bathing place for the village would be looked upon as one of the greatest boons that could be conferred upon it.

Mr. Fred. Blomfield, lately accountant in the Bank of Montreal, at Amherst, N.S., paid a flying visit to his father on Saturday last, on his return from Detroit, where he was offered and has accepted the position of auditor to the First National Bank.

Opening of Summer School; 100 Delegates in Attendance

Special to the Review.

Chemong Park, July 2nd.—Here, in this magnificent spot on the shores of Chemong Lake in a grove of stately pines, the Kawartha Lakes Summer School has commenced its work. About one hundred delegates have already registered and every bus is bringing in its quota from all parts of the Bay of Quinte Conference. This school is under the auspices of the "Bay Conference" of the Methodist church and is held for the study of the Bible and missions and methods of work. It is intended to be an aid especially to young people, Epworth League Workers, Sunday school teachers and others interested in church effort. It started last night and will continue until Sunday evening next. In general 8.45 to 12 is devoted to study periods, Prof. McLaughlin, B.A., B.D., and Mr. Thos. Keough, being among those who are lecturing and leading the classes. Besides these Miss Ethel H. Patterson, B. A., Athens, and Miss Edna Drewry, Welland, are conducting mission study classes in China, the text books studied being "The Uplift of China," by Rev. Arthur H. Smith, for many years a missionary and still laboring in China.

AFTERNOON FREE AND EASY.

The afternoons are left free for recreation, conversation, etc. Boating parties will be organized, and tennis and other games will occupy many. The evenings are devoted to mass meetings, when addresses of an inspiring nature will be delivered.

Yesterday afternoon was spent in getting ready. Large roomy tents have been erected to accommodate the overflow from the hotel. Just here, let us say, that it is probable that never before has the hotel at the park been so taxed for a week as it is now, and Mr. Geo. H. Brown, the proprietor is doing his utmost to make everything comfortable for the many guests. Every room in the large building is filled and tent accommodation is provided for about sixty outside.

OPENING MEETING.

Last night's meeting was addressed by Prof. J. F. McLaughlin and Mr. Thos. Keough, both of Toronto. The addresses were in the nature of an introduction to their studies of the week.

This morning, Prof. McLaughlin, spoke on "The missionary idea of the Bible." Rev. B. Emberson, B. A., gave an address dealing with the recent union of the Methodist forces in Japan. Rev. H. W. Foley, B. A., B.D., on "Methods of League Work," and the study classes on "The Uplift of China" were discussed, while eighty young people sat with note book, pencil, Bible and text book to take down all that is helpful.

The spot is ideal, the people are here to work, they are representative of the whole conference, their influence should be widespread when they return.

DELEGATES PRESENT.

Among the delegates are,—

Toronto—Prof. J. F. McLaughlin, Thos. Keough, Miss E. H. Patterson, B.A., and P. G. Might.

Peterborough—Miss J. Howson, Miss E. Might, Miss Deyell, Miss S. Davis, Miss A. Crafts, Mrs. Lewis, Miss Munroe, Miss E. Hill.

Belleville—Miss K. Van der Water, Mr. Douglas Holton.

Picton—Misses M. Pettigill, A. Haight, F. Cole, M. Harwood.

Bowmanville—F. R. Foley, E. G. Foley, S. J. Trebilcock, Miss M. Symonds, S. L. Hocken, G. Young, Miss Rutledge.

Port Hope—Rev. G. W. Henderson and wife.

Campbellford—Misses Platt and Totten.

Oshawa—Misses E. R. Bond, and E. R. Bale.

Stirling—Miss Westcott, M. Meiklejohn, A. Spry, M. Reynolds.

Southfield—Rev. A. H. Foster, Mrs. H. Miller, Miss E. Drewery, Mrs. Powers, Miss M. Hanna.

Trenton—Miss A. Scriver, Miss F. Ross.

Millbrook—Miss P. Burnham, M. Nugent, S. Hetherington.

Warsaw—C. M. Dewart, E. M. Dewart.

Wooler—Rev. W. P. Rogers, Miss M. Bell, S. Alley.

Keene—Misses M. C. Gall, M. L. Howson, Mrs. W. J. Mather.

Bayside—Rev. W. H. Foley, B. A., B.D., Miss E. Ostrom, R. Finkle.

Others who were present were,—C. A. Moore, Queensboro; Miss L. E. Forges, Auvery; Miss A. Crothers, Northport; Miss R. Morgan, Brighton; Misses M. Kirkpatrick, E. L. Jones, Norwood; Miss M. Bruce, Beaverton; Rev. G. C. McQuade, Omemee; Mrs. T. H. Reid, Bellevue; A. W. Terrill, Fenelon Falls; Miss M. Bick, Bobcaygeon; Miss N. Sherin, and eight others, Lakefield; C. E. Weekes and wife, Woodville; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Edwards, Cannington; Miss E. Maxson, Lindsay; Miss E. Mann, Orono.

Mrs. Thompson, for an addition to house at 351 Charlotte street, to cost $1,650. W. Blackwell, architect, and W. J. Johnston, contractor.

VALUABLE HORSE SOLD

Mr. Geo. Lipsett, East City, has disposed of his fast race horse, City Queen, to Mr. L. G. Bennett, proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, Port Hope. The price paid was $600 and Mr. Bennett certainly has something good in City Queen and her splendid record made at the Port Hope race track, induced him to buy her. Mr. Bennett also owns two other race horses which figured in the Port Hope meet, but they cannot come up to City Queen, who came second in the free-for-all.

Provincial Tour During This Fall

Toronto, July 2.—The Ontario Government, it is understood here, contemplate a tour of the province during the coming fall. Premier Whitney is a strong advocate of close contact with the people, and to this end he is believed to be favorable to the holding of a series of public meetings throughout the country, with a view to laying before the electorate an account of the work which the Government are doing and also in order to more closely keep in touch with the public opinion.

No Nomination For Aldermen

The superintendent of the Trent Canal stated this morning that he understood some of the aldermen were hurt because the council did not receive an official invitation to attend the opening of the Kirkfield lift lock on Saturday. He said that none of the municipal councils received an invitation, except through the press, but all the governing bodies were expected to be present.

Detachment of Dragoons Camped at Driving Park

Shortly before three o'clock this afternoon a detachment of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, of Toronto, arrived in the city and at once went into camp at the exhibition grounds. They are marching from Toronto to the military camp at Petewawa, and marched from Port Hope to Peterborough. Yesterday they came from Bowmanville to Port Hope.

There are 75 men and 62 horses, and Capt. C. T. Van Straubenzee and the other officers are as follows; Capt. Douglas D. Young, Lieuts. F. Gilman, W. H. Bell and G. R. MacBrien Medical Officer Major J. T. Clarke; Vet. Surgeon, Vet. Lieut. F. W. Burke.

The squadron is likely to remain here until noon tomorrow, when they will continue on their march, stopping tomorrow night at Young's Point.

The detachment has not stopped for a day's rest since leaving Toronto, hence the necessity for stopping here. Traveling in this warm weather is very hard on the horses, and it is necessary to give them occasional rests.

Bill Posters to Come to Peterborough Next Year

The annual convention of the Canadian Bill Posters' Association of Canada, of which Mr. Walter Stocker of this city, is president, opens in Niagara Falls, Ont., on Monday of next week. Representative bill posters from all over Canada will be present and a most successful gathering is assured. On Tuesday the annual convention of the Bill Posters' Association of America, opens at Niagara Falls, N.Y., and representatives will be present from all over America. The convention will last for several days. The Canadian convention will adjourn early in the week in order to give the delegates an opportunity to attend the American convention, where they will be able to secure many new ideas and much valuable information.

The Canadian bill posters would have met in Peterborough this year were it not for the fact that the convention for America was being held at Niagara Falls, N.Y., and by holding the convention at the Canadian Falls, the delegates would be able to attend the larger gathering on the American side. There is every likelihood that the Canadian Association will decide to meet in Peterborough next year, and no doubt will be given a hearty welcome here.

Will Begin Tomorrow Evening—Many New Players

Beginning tomorrow evening the Salvation Army Band, under the leadership of Bandmaster Greene will give concerts in Victoria Park every Thursday night. This will be the first of the season by this band and no doubt will be largely attended. The band has been greatly strengthened of late. Several recent arrivals from the Old Country have joined, and among them are some excellent players. Last evening, Mr. Darling, formerly bandmaster of a band in Liverpool, was appointed deputy bandmaster of the local corps. The band is contemplating taking a week's trip visiting several towns, including Port Hope, Cobourg, Trenton, Belleville, Kingston and Smith's Falls. The outing is being looked forward to by the bandsmen with great pleasure.

Port Hope Here On Saturday

Locals Practising Hard to Beat the League Leaders

The baseball team had one of the best workouts of the season last night in preparation for their game here on Saturday against Port Hope. The Midland League leaders are bringing up their strongest aggregation and will make a desperate effort to beat the locals on their own grounds. The Port Hopers cannot well afford to lose a game, and are out to win. On the other hand the Peterborough boys need the victory badly and will go after the visitors hammer and tongs on Saturday. They showed fine form last night and should be able to win out.

Another practice will be held on Thursday evening when every man is wanted out in uniform. There must be no excuse that lack of practice lost the game.

The match should be a hummer from beginning to end. Those who saw the last contest between Peterborough and Port Hope at Riverside, will remember the great ball that was played. It should be even better on Saturday, as it is a league game and both teams will struggle desperately to win.

FOOTBALL

GAME ON SATURDAY.

The Quaker intermediate football team will go to Warkworth on Saturday next, to play the Warkworth team in the final game for the intermediate championship of the Midland League.

THE TURF

At Port Hope yesterday Martin Connor's Lady Gothard took second money in the free-for-all race and G. Lipsett's City Queen took third money. J. J. Cottingham's Harry Direct was fourth.

Band and free Moving Pictures at Jackson Park this evening.

PERSONAL

Mrs. R. M. Dennistoun of Winnipeg, is in the city. She will spend a vacation at Little Metis on the lower St. Lawrence, with Mrs. J. F. Dennistoun, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Torrance and family.

Mrs. J. B. Larque, sr., and Mrs. E. Morin, of Montreal, formerly of Peterborough, are in the city, visiting her sons, Messrs. J. B. and A. Larque, at the Montreal House, and her daughter, Mrs. R. Gordon, Perry street.

Miss F. Burnham, one of the prominent members of Rev. Dr Langfeldt's German Class, entertained the lady members of the class at the cottage at Stoney Lake over the holiday. The young ladies went up on Saturday and returned Tuesday night. They had a very jolly time for the few days they were away [illegible] were true Germans.

A recent number of the London Sketch had an excellent portrait of Miss Brenda Taylor, daughter of Mr Taylor, manager of the Bank of Montreal in London and formerly manager in Peterborough. The notice accompanying the portrait speaks of Miss Taylor as being of United Empire Loyalist descent, through her mother, who was a member of the Henshaw family, of Montreal.

Lindsay Post; Messrs. Angil King and Harry Begg spent the holiday in Peterborough where they witnessed the Peterborough-Beaverton lacrosse game. The Misses Helen Davies, Geraldine King, Frankie Burrett and Jean Robson, of Peterborough, were in town Saturday, guests at the Benson House. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Morrow, Peterborough, spent the holiday in town, guests of Mrs. Wm. Graham. Mr. and Mrs. G. Cottingham, of Peterborough spent Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. G. J. COMPANY INSPECTION

Lt.-Cols. Hemming and Gordon of Kingston, arrived in the city today, and will inspect companies No. 1, 2, 3 and 4, of the 57th Regiment this evening. Tomorrow night at eight o'clock, companies 6, 6, 7, and 8 will be inspected.

TWO DRUNKS IN QUOD.

Two citizens who apparently have not got over their holiday of July 1st and who were carrying their celebration too far, were taken into custody by P.C. Adams and placed under arrest this morning. They were suffering from the effects of an overdose of boozerine and had laid down to rest.

BIG LUNGE

Hundreds of people were attracted yesterday by a huge fish, of the species maskinonge displayed in the Yonge street window of the Canadian Pacific ticket office. This fine fellow weighed 26 pounds, 46 inches long and 18 1-2 girth, and was caught on Wednesday by Mr. W. R. Crandell, proprietor of the Rock and House at Bobcaygeon, to whom the more credit is due in that he was landed without aid of gaff or net after putting up a strenuous fight. Mr. J. J. Ross, traveling passenger agent of the C.P.R., and himself an ardent fisherman, witnessed the "kill" and promptly brought the big lunge to Toronto, to show the kind of sport the C.P.R. offers its patrons. It should be remembered that Bobcaygeon is a splendid centre for the best bass and maskinonge fishing in the world, is about three hours' run from the city, and is reached only by the Canadian Pacific.—Toronto Mail.

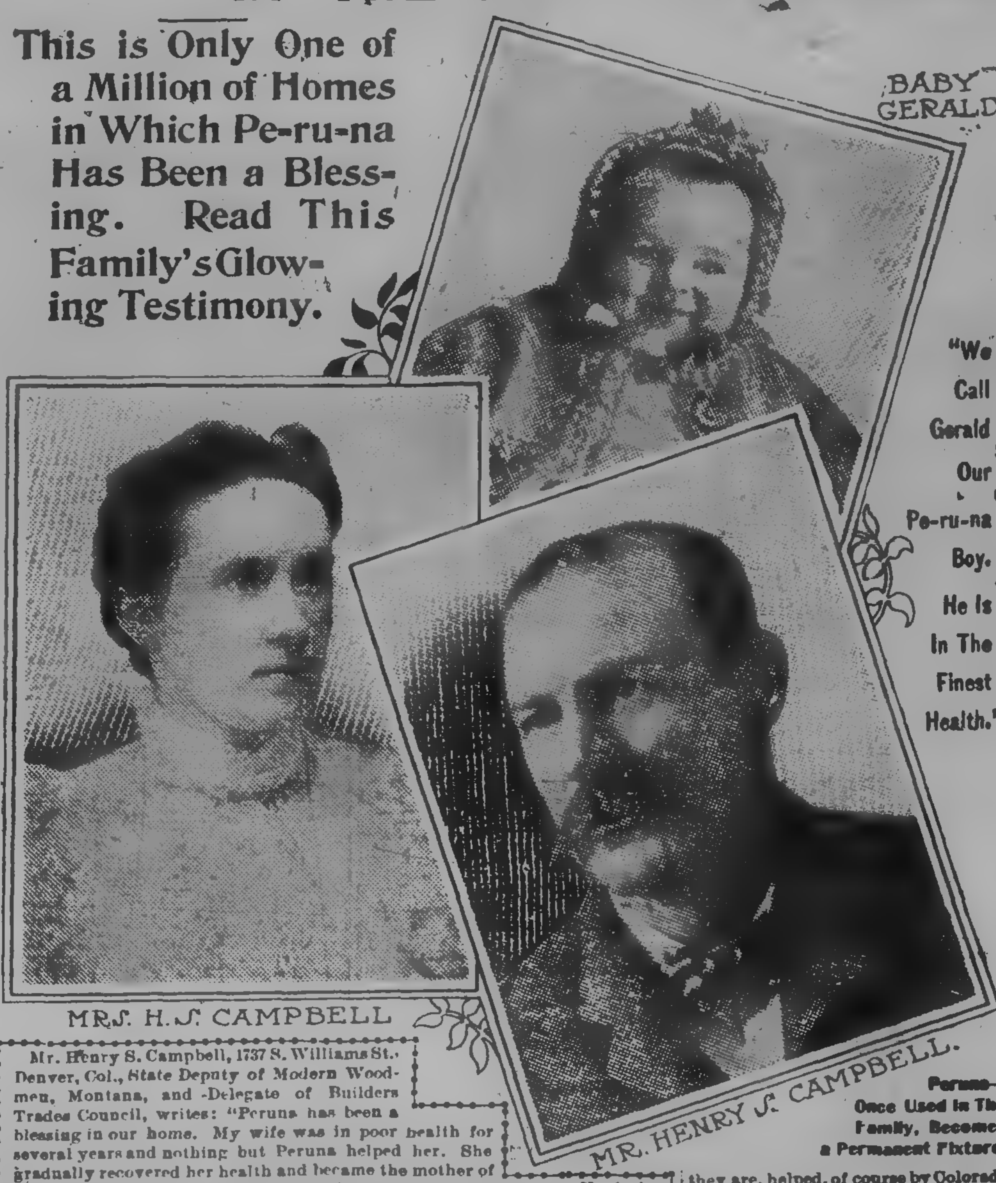
PE-RU-NA KEEPS THE FAMILY IN THE BEST OF HEALTH.

This is Only One of a Million of Homes in Which Pe-ru-na Has Been a Blessing. Read This Family's Glowing Testimony.



BABY GERALD

"We Call Gerald Our Pe-ru-na Boy. He Is In The Finest Health."

MRS. H. S. CAMPBELL

MR. HENRY S. CAMPBELL.

Mr. Henry S. Campbell, 1737 S. Williams St., Denver, Col., State Deputy of Modern Woodmen, Montana, and Delegate of Builders Trades Council, writes: "Peruna has been a blessing in our home. My wife was in poor health for several years and nothing but Peruna helped her. She gradually recovered her health and became the mother of a boy which blessed our home. We call Gerald our Peruna boy. He is in the finest of health and his mother has never enjoyed such excellent health.

"I have personally found Peruna of great value to me while traveling. Getting irregular meals and often poorly prepared food ruined my stomach, but Peruna toned up my digestive organs and brought fine health to me.

"We are never without Peruna in our home and know by experience that it keeps us all in the best of health."

A RECENT LETTER.

"We still use Peruna and in addition to our son, Gerald, who is a fat and saucy lad of 28 months, we have another son, still larger for his age. He is now ten months old and is always healthy.

"His mother says Peruna has surely made both of our children as healthy as they are, helped, of course by Colorado's healthy air.

Peruna—Once Used in The Family, Becomes a Permanent Fixture.

A multitude of families have discovered that Peruna is their standby.

In all the catarrhal ailments which are likely to beset the various members of the family, Peruna is the remedy that brings quick relief.

No matter whether it be a catarrhal condition of the head or lungs, or a derangement of the stomach and bowels, Peruna is the remedy.

Fleas.

Fleas will never touch an epileptic and will instantly leave a dead or dying person.

Severus of Rome.

Several of the Roman emperors visited Britain, but one died there. This was Severus, who died at York Feb. 4, A. D. 211. The great tumulus remaining at York is shown as his funeral pile. His ashes were taken to Rome.

A "Literary" Event.

A notable "literary" event of London was the hanging at Tyburn on Feb. 20, 1749, of two young Irish poets, Usher Gahagan and Terence Conner, "for filing the coin of the realm," then considered high treason.

Dulse.

Dulse is more frequently eaten than any other seaweed. It is usually dried and eaten raw. In the Mediterranean, where the plant is common, it is cooked.

Giraffes.

Giraffes are the most difficult animals to trap. They are caught with lassos, bolos or ratatas, a kind of net. The only animal impossible to trap is the gorilla. He is too strong and fierce.

The Primrose League.

The Primrose league was formed in England in the year 1884 in memory of Lord Beaconsfield, with whom the primrose is said to have been a favorite flower. Beaconsfield died on April 19, 1881, and the anniversary of that day is termed "Primrose day," when the flower is generally worn by his admirers.

Sweden's Criminal Law.

In Sweden the criminal law provides that the capital sentence shall only be carried out in the case of a prisoner confessing the crime with which he is charged.

James R. Meagher, was drowned at New Liskeard while canoeing.

Two large smokestacks on the Riordon pulp mills at Hawkesbury were blown down during a wind storm, killing Wilfrid Quimet and injuring three others.

The London & Southwester Railway has settled with Mrs. Walter Barwick of Toronto, for £10,000 for the death of her husband, killed in an accident last Dominion day.

Grading has commenced on the G.T.P. east of Portage la Prairie.

Laurier's Policy of Mere Expediency

The Dark Record of His Government Reviewed

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—On Monday, June 24th, 1907, I saw an editorial in the Peterborough Examiner. Allow me to quote a few paragraphs here and there throughout this wonderful article, which begins as follows;

"Twenty years ago, yesterday, June 23rd, 1887, Sir Wilfrid Laurier accepted the leadership of the Liberal party of Canada. He is a bold man who would outrage the truth to say that the choice has not been amply justified, both from a party and national viewpoint."

This is where the rub comes in—the above is true, if viewed from a party point, but not from a national point. Again I quote;

"The general elections of 1891, although they went against the Liberal party, paved the way for the succeeding victory in 1896. In this election Laurier became a national figure, and popular acquaintance with him was improved by the campaign of speaking he performed between 1891 and 1896."

No doubt the famous remedial question was the stepping stone for Sir Wilfrid Laurier. At that time, Mr. Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. Greenway, and Mr Sifton, who were all good Grits, joined with Mr. Clarke Wallace, Mr. McCarthy and other good Tories, tooth and nail, against the remedial bill. It seems to me this remedial bill was almost as dangerous as the dispute in regard to the Reil Rebellion.

No doubt Mr. Laurier was a leading figure in this remedial bill which bid fair to set race against race, and creed against creed, a thing that both Tory and Grit should be very careful about. Any man who aims to gain power by setting race against race and creed against creed, is one of the worst characters imaginable. Again I quote;

"He threw himself with tremendous energy into the campaign of 1896 and its result has become history, too."

It seems to me it has been history of ungodly dealing in high places, which no honest clergyman can stand up and defend. It has been a history of deceit. Both Grit and Tory have been deceived; our morals are becoming at the lowest ebb. Once more I quote;

"No Premier of Canada has ever entrenched himself so firmly in the affection and esteem of the people of Canada."

No doubt but that he has entrenched himself firmly in the affection of some people, and some well paid newspapers of Canada, but it is a question whether they are of the best class. The Examiner also says;

"Under no premier has Canada made such magnificent and wonderful progress, and enjoyed such splendid and persistent prosperity. His achievements in the past eleven years have been a series of triumphs of statecraft, loyalty and common sense."

Although the Grits and Tories were both deceived, yet it was a lucky thing for him to practically adopt the Tory National Policy. Whether it was an honorable thing for him to do is another question. I would prefer being an inmate of the House of Refuge than to hold the biggest position in Canada on such terms. The Grit sheet remarks;

"The settlement of the Manitoba school difficulty, preferential tariff, the opening of the west, the promotion of immigration, the organization of agriculture, the transcontinental railway, the creation of two new provinces, the prudent regard for tariff stability, and industrial progress, are but a few of the great items to the credit of the accounting of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his administration to the country."

I may say that in regard to the Manitoba school difficulty, as I have said before, that it was a dangerous proceeding, and a man that uses such tactics to hold office, or gain power is a dangerous man. The Manitoba school question reminds me of a passage in Scripture, where it says, "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Mr. Greenway, Mr. Sifton and the Grit Government of Manitoba, gave the Manitoba School question, and Mr Laurier, Mr. Greenway, and Mr. Sifton, through the Dominion Grit Government taketh it away so far. It is a wonderful Grit deal.

As for the preferential tariff of these Grits it may have done some good, as well as done some harm. The opening of the West, the promotion of immigration, the organization of agriculture, are all due to the party that gave us the National Policy. As for the transcontinental railway, it has been a bungle ever since it was first mentioned and the Government has accomplished very little that is good on this scheme yet.

The creation of two new provinces are natural consequences in a new country like Canada.

Still I quote, "The prudent regard for tariff stability and industrial progress are but a few items to the credit of the accounting of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his administration to the country."

What stuff! It is a farce to talk about tariff stability in view of the Grit threats against our National Policy. And as to the industrial progress, the Tory National Policy has been the sole cause of our prosperity. It was good for Canada that the Grits adopted it, because the Tories have always been their friends as far as the National Policy went, which was not the case, when the Grits were in opposition. If we had a Government free from immorality, our clergy would have no cause to grumble, but as it is it is time the churches spoke out.

The last paragraphs of this wonderful editorial read thus: "He has achieved a credit and a reputation that will retain him in power so long as life and health lasts. Indeed, it is probable that the Conservative party of today, regard the situation in a similar manner to what Laurier did when he became leader, and believed that the Conservative party could not be defeated so long as Sir John Macdonald lived."

Well, I will leave the last paragraphs to your readers, if there are any that can digest such stuff. If I can judge by the meetings which have been held lately by our clergy throughout the length and breadth of this Dominion, touching upon the immorality seen in Canada, then our churches will ring in a way which they did never ring before in the history of Canada.

I remain, sir,
Yours, etc.,
A PASSER-BY.

Hunter St. Bridge Needs Painting

Citizens Think the Council Should Furnish it With New Suit of Clothes

The Hunter street bridge has lately received some attention from the citizens. It has been suggested that the iron work be given a new suit of clothes and thus preserve it from prosecution under the laws of nature. The Hunter street bridge has been erected for many years, and one old resident said he could not remember when it was last painted.

It is true that for the past couple of years there has been talk of building a new high level bridge, but that proposition is still several years in the future and in the meantime the old bridge should be painted to preserve the steel work, as it will be of service at some other point on the river.

OBITUARY

MRS WM McBAIN.

The death occurred about nine o'clock this morning of Mrs. Wm. McBain, at her late residence, 280 King street, after an illness of three weeks' duration. The deceased was 82 years of age and was born in Por Hope. Her maiden name was Margaret Clarke. She had lived in this city 64 years. Her husband predeceased her 21 years ago.

The late Mrs. McBain was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church and attended St. Andrew's.

Two sons and one daughter are left to mourn her loss. The sons are Messrs J U McBain, of this city and G A McBain, of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. D. Menzies, of this city, is the daughter.

The funeral, which is private, will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from 280 King street, to Little Lake cemetery.

Smith Patent Tapping Machine Successfully Demonstrated

Waterworks Commissioners Can Now Make Connections to Water Mains Without Shutting Off the Water—A Machine Purchased.

(Reprinted from the Daily Review of June 26.)

In future it will not be necessary to cause water consumers any inconvenience or for the city to run any great risk from loss in case of fire by turning the water off in any section while a large connection is being made. The water commissioners have purchased a Smith Patent Tapping machine, and it was used on Tuesday for the first time, and proved very satisfactory in every respect.

Mr J. W. Strackhein, representing the A. P. Smith Manufacturing Co., of Newark, N.J., was here and superintended the operations. The machine was designed for the purpose of making connections from two to eight inches in diameter, in the water mains, without shutting off the water for a minute. This was accomplished, and the connection was made in two hours and a half, and not one consumer knew that it was being made, nor yet was the water pressure reduced an ounce.

The demonstration was made at the corner of George and Brock streets, in front of the Geo. Matthews Co's north store, in a 12-inch water main, with eighty pounds water pressure in the main pipe. The connection was made for the purpose of installing a four-way fire hydrant, several of which are to be installed on the main business streets. It was witnessed by all the water commissioners, Superintendent Henderson, several of the aldermen and a large number of citizens, who are delighted with it, especially Superintendent Henderson.

Hitherto it has been necessary, when the water commissioners were about to make a connection of any kind whatsoever, to notify the consumers in the district effected, and to notify the chief of the fire department that the water would be turned off. Then it could not be known for how long; sometimes it took all day, causing great inconvenience to all parties, besides leaving that particular district practically at the mercy of a fire. Then the work was also very dirty and very hard, as large quantities of water came out of the main. With this new machine all this has been done away with, and in time alone, the machine will soon save its own price, which is $550, in both Canada and the United States.

It might be interesting to mention here that the Smith Patent Tapping machine, was invented by Mr. A. P. Smith, president of the company. He was for sixteen years superintendent of the waterworks at Newark, N.J., and once, while they had the water turned off, to make a connection, a fire broke out in a large zinc works, causing damage to the extent of $250,000. From that day Mr Smith stared to study how to make connections without turning off the water. After some time the result of his labors was the patenting of this machine, and today Newark has another large factory, and the machines are being purchased in all the leading cities and towns in Canada and the United States.

Recently machines were installed in Toronto and Hamilton. Kingston, Belleville and Lindsay are considering the advisability of getting one, and Mayor V. R. Vrooman, Superintendent of Waterworks W. H. Hammond, and Mr. Thos. Brady, of that place, were here and witnessed the demonstration.

Can Send Gunboat to Great Lakes

Britain Has Given Permission to United States

Washington, July 3.— The State Department has received the assurance of the British Government that there will be no objection to the request of this Government in sending the gun-boat Don Juan de Austria to the Great Lakes, where she will be used for cruising purposes by the naval militia.

ONLY THREE AT SHELTER NOW

Everything Quiet in Children's Aid Society

There are only three children in the Children's Shelter at the present time, two girls and one boy. This is the smallest number that has been in the Shelter for a long time, in fact it is almost a record in the history of the society. There have been very few cases of ill-treatment of children reported lately and everything is quiet in Children's Aid Society circles.

Influential Man of Morocco Has Been Captured by Bandits

Gen. Sir Harry MacLean Seized as Hostage by Raisuli.

To Be Held Prisoner Until Sultan Grants Demands of Bandit Chief—Was on Mission of Pacification—Bearing Presents From Moroccan Ruler — Punitive Expedition Has Been Sent Out.

Tangier, July 4.—Kaid Gen. Sir Harry MacLean, commander of the Sultan's bodyguard and next to the Sultan, the most influential man in Morocco, has been captured by Raisuli, the bandit chief. The latter has announced that he will hold the general prisoner until the Sultan grants the terms which he, Raisuli, demands for his own pardon and MacLean's release.

For some time past, Gen MacLean, acting in behalf of the Sultan, had been trying to persuade Raisuli to resume a peaceful mode of life, and recently the bandit leader had apparently showed signs of willingness to meet the wishes of the Moroccan authorities, with the result that Gen. MacLean, who is a former officer of the British army, having served in the 69th Regiment of Infantry, the descendant of an old Scotch family, and a man universally respected, even among the most fanatical of the foreign-hating Moors, was entrusted with the task of taking some presents from the Sultan to Raisuli, in the hope of finally persuading him to come to terms.

These gifts consisted of horses, and tents, and to escort them to his stronghold, Raisuli sent 15 of his banditti to the general to act as a bodyguard.

Accompanied by these men, MacLean journeyed towards Rouina, where he was to meet Raisuli. But on arriving there the general was informed that he was a prisoner. Later Raisuli sent a messenger to the Sultan, announcing the capture of his bodyguard and informing his majesty that he would hold the general a prisoner until the following terms were granted for his surrender:

First—The reconstruction of Raisuli's house at Zinat.

Second—The payment of an indemnity of 100,000 doures, about $200,000.

Third—His reappointment as governor of Tangier and of Fahs, and his appointment as commandant of police.

The officials of the British Legation subsequently confirmed the announcement of the capture of Gen. MacLean.

The Sultan is launching a punitive expedition against the Adjera tribe of this vicinity, owing to the fact that they have not paid their tribute to his majesty's collectors.

What Will Britain Do?

Kaid MacLean is now at Elkmes, in the heart of a wild mountain district, three days' march from Tangier. He is being well treated, and has been allowed to write to the British Minister and send for his baggage.

The capture of the general was planned carefully. He went out to the rendezvous with Raisuli, against the advice of his companions.

The incident is being discussed with deep interest in diplomatic circles, and the action of the British authorities is awaited with considerable anxiety. It is recognized that the affair may entail the gravest consequences.

CAR DASHED DOWN HILL.

Was Loaded With Bricks—Many People Had Narrow Escapes.

Toronto, July 4.—A freight car loaded with brick broke away from a northbound train on the Metropolitan Railway on Yonge street yesterday forenoon and ran back down the steep grade to the C. P. R. When the car struck the curve turning into the station it jumped the rails, crossed the sidewalk and smashed to pieces on the C. P. R. track. The bricks were scattered in every direction, the rails were torn up, and the car, which was a flat-car built on one of the old horsecar trucks, was smashed to kindling.

There were several people on the street at the time, and two women had just got clear of the car when it made its leap across the railway crossing. Traffic on the street was blocked for a couple of hours.

Kaiser's Windsor Visit.

Berlin, July 4.—Emperor William has acknowledged King Edward's invitation to visit Windsor Castle for five days in November in a most courteous manner, but without accepting it unconditionally, saying, it is understood, that he will only be able to give a final answer after some questions regarding public business are settled.

No one, however, doubts that the Emperor ultimately will accept, but he is not disposed to accept hastily, as the invitation has been a long time coming.

The Kaiser and the Empress are now at Copenhagen.

Several Hundred Damage.

Jarvis, Ont., July 4.—Fire broke out yesterday afternoon in the upper store-room of P. W. Armstrong's general store. The fire brigade apparently extinguished the fire, but last evening it broke out again. Damage will amount to several hundred dollars.

Two Dollar Bill the Limit.

Detroit, July 4.—Justice Ott has set a Michigan precedent by deciding that a street car conductor is not required to change a piece of money larger than $2 when tendered by a passenger.

Bricklayers Locked Out.

Winnipeg, July 4.—There is trouble in building circles again, the contractors having locked out the bricklayers, who are demanding 60 cents an hour.

Daring Adventure of Four Boys From Buffalo.

Take Chance of Death to Cross the River—Had No Money to Pay Toll—Clambered Through Network of Niagara Bridge Across the Falls —Scores of Spectators Watch the Exploit.

Buffalo, July 4.—Before the eyes of hundreds of spectators, who were thrilled by the daring of their performance, four Buffalo boys yesterday afternoon worked their way across the Niagara River by gripping the steel work of the upper arch bridge.

They went below to the bank, started their sensational climb, working their way across the river, through the network of steel braces underneath the bridge, fully 200 feet above the whirling waters. Their hazardous trip was made to avoid the forty cents bridge tolls, as there was but five cents in the party.

The boys are all in the neighborhood of 14 years of age.

As the lads reached the centre of the iron work 200 feet above the water they halted for a moment as if about to abandon their purpose, while spectators on either bank stood spellbound. They were only resting however, and after several moments they continued their trip and arrived safely on the Canadian shore where they were arrested.

Chief Mains of the Niagara Falls, Ont., police department, after hearing the lads' stories, sent them home.

NEW ONTARIO PRISONS.

Dr. Bruce Smith Has Returned From a Tour of Inspection.

Toronto, July 4.—Dr. R. W. Bruce Smith, Provincial Inspector of Hospitals and Prisons, has returned from an extensive tour of the New Ontario districts.

Under the Legislative grants of last session the Public Works Department is spending nearly $100,000 upon the jails of the Northern Ontario districts. New jails are being erected at Gore Bay, Port Arthur, Sudbury and Fort Francis, and extensive enlargements and improvements being made to the jails at Sault Ste. Marie and Kenora.

During the early part of the year the Government received many complaints as to the overcrowding and inadequacy of the jails. The new works, Dr. Smith says, will effectually remove all cause for complaint.

The western crop is a big one, but it is two weeks late.

London's customs collections for last month totalled $72,572.06, an advance of $8,707.37 over June, 1906.

PRIVATE PROPERTY AT SEA.

More Opposition to American Proposal At Hague Conference.

The Hague, July 4.—The opposition to the American proposition before the peace conference on the inviolability of private property at sea is increasing. It now seems that Russia and France are not even in favor of the Italian amendment suggesting that belligerants be allowed to capture private property at sea, but that such property be returned after the war, and that the owners be paid an indemnity for the damage sustained.

Japan is preparing a proposition regarding the use of wireless telegraphy, based on her experience during the Russo-Japanese war, while other powers are desirous of proposing that submarine cables be classed as neutral property.

The Japanese have not presented any proposition regarding the bombardment of towns, but have asked the Americans, who, in their proposition, desire to prohibit bombardments of towns for not paying ransoms, to propose the abolition of the payment of ransoms in order to escape bombardments.

Miss Anna Eckstein has requested an audience of President Nelidoff in order to present a petition, signed by over two million Americans, in favor of a general arbitration treaty. M. Nelidoff will receive Miss Eckstein this morning.

The sub-committee of the peace conference on the amelioration of rules of land war met yesterday.

M. Bustamente (Cuba) presented a proposition regarding the amelioration of the treatment of prisoners and the organization of a bureau aiming to keep a complete record sheet for each prisoner.

Holland presented two propositions, one to prohibit the use of force to induce the population of a town to give an enemy the information about the armed forces of the country, and the other prohibiting the infliction of capital punishment without the sentence of a regular court-martial having been ratified by the commander-in-chief.

Germany made the following propositions:

First—Volunteer forces must be provided with uniforms visible at a distance except in the case of a rising of the population. In such cases the people must carry arms openly.

Second—Nobody shall be forced to fight against his own country.

Third—The inviolability of private property on land shall be extended to contractural obligations.

Spain proposed that all prisoners, except officers, may be employed on military works.

Germany presented to the sub-committee on the proposed prize court a proposition, in six articles, establishing that arms and war materials be considered as contraband of war, including shotguns.

SON DYING, MOTHER GONE.

Charles Lancaster's Pathetic Search For His Missing Wife.

Detroit, Mich., July 4.—While his four-year-old son lies dying on a farm near Woodstock, Ont., as a result of being kicked by a horse, Charles Lancaster is vainly searching Detroit for his wife, who left him last week. The couple had a disagreement, and Mrs. Lancaster left her husband to go to London, Ont. Lancaster placed his little son with friends on the farm. Tuesday the little fellow was playing about the stables, and was kicked by a vicious horse, and is thought to be dying. The distracted father thought of his wife in his new trouble and wired to London to reach her. Word came back that she had returned to Detroit, and yesterday he appealed to the police to aid him in his search.

COULDN'T DELIVER THE GOODS.

And Fake Advertiser Had to Give Back Money He Got.

St. Thomas, Ont., July 4.—Norman Lindop of this city answered an advertisement for a Buffalo firm, offering for sale ready-made cottages. Lindop sent $275, but repeated queries brought no answer.

He went to Buffalo, enlisted legal aid, and went to the address, but the proprietor could not produce the cottage, and was forced to disgorge the $275.

Three stenographers were at work in the office and stacks of mail were in evidence. The business is well advertised in Canadian papers.

Can't Get Strike-Breakers.

Halifax, July 4.—The striking freight handlers of the I. C. R. find their ranks still unbroken. The railway brought in more than 30 men yesterday from points along the line, but when they found what the situation was none would go to work. Efforts are being made to get clerks to temporarily undertake the work of the strikers.

Farmer Suicides.

Winnipeg, July 4.—Yesterday Dr. S. W. Axtell identified a man who committed suicide in Central Park Tuesday, as Israel Scott of Elgin, Man., a farmer, reputed to be worth $30,000.

Scott, who was a bachelor, was disappointed in love, came to Winnipeg recently to get away from his troubles.

Jameson Will Retire.

Durham, July 4.—It was announced yesterday that Dr. Jameson, M.P.P. for South Grey, would not stand again as a candidate for the Legislature, and that he had determined to retire from public life.

He has been in the Legislature since 1898.

Scarcity of Tailors.

London, July 4.—At a sitting of the alien immigration board, Mr. Taylor declared there was a scarcity of tailors in London owing to the large number emigrating to Canada.

Two Killed, Five Injured.

Danbury, Conn., July 4.—A steam shovel at the new reservoir hit a stick of dynamite, and the explosion killed two men and injured five others.

While canoeing on the Assiniboine River, near Marquette, Man., a young German, J. Kauffman, was drowned.

CALLS IT "PIPE DREAM"

Another of Orchard's Comrades Contradicts His Evidence.

Pat Moran Says He Did Not Get $500 From Pettibone—Orchard Had No Connection With Cripple Creek Train Wreck—Sheriff Gives Evidence—Psychologist Believes Orchard's Story—Trial Adjourned.

Boise, Idaho, July 4.—When the Haywood trial opened yesterday it was not considered likely that the defence would be able to conclude the presentation of its evidence Friday evening. With an adjournment over the 4th, it is not probable that they will be in a position to call Moyer to the stand before next Saturday evening. Moyer will be followed by Haywood, who will close the case for the defence.

Pat Moran, whom Orchard testified made a trip from Cheyenne to Denver for him to get $500 from George A. Pettibone, after the Independence Station affair, went on the stand and testified that Orchard's story was "a pipe dream."

Boston, July 4.—In a newspaper interview Prof. Hugo Muensterberg, the famous Harvard psychologist, who has been attending the Haywood trial at Boise, Idaho, for the purpose of studying the mind of Harry Orchard, the principal witness, says he believes Orchard's confession to be thoroughly true.

Peublo, Col., July 4.—Former Sheriff J. L. Beeman on Tuesday night said that Harry Orchard had no connection with the attempt to wreck the Florence and Cripple Creek train, as Orchard had testified.

He said that while he was sheriff the Teller County authorities brought to Peublo a man named Chas. Beckman, an employe of a detective agency. Beckman was jailed with Charles McKinney, who was accused of the attempted train-wrecking, in hopes of getting a confession from him. Before going to jail on this mission, Beeman says Beckman related a story of his experiences.

He said he was a detective and a member of the Western Federation of Miners' "inner circle." The "inner circle," Beckman asserted, designated him and several others to wreck the train.

He reported the matter to Scott, special agent for the railroad company, and Sterling, special agent for the mine owners, and went with them to the scene of the proposed wreck, where they saw men pull spikes from the rails.

JURY CANNOT AGREE.

Collins, Accused of Murder, May Likely Be Acquitted.

Hopewell Cape, N. B., July 4.—The jury in the trial of Thomas Collins, accused of the murder of Mary Ann McAulay, cousin of Father McAulay, last August, disagreed as to a verdict yesterday afternoon, after being out three hours.

Judge Tuck sent them back again, and when late last night they sent word that no verdict had been reached, he ordered the jury locked up for the night. The jury in the afternoon stood seven to five in favor of acquittal.

The chief justice made an unusually strong charge against the prisoner.

SENDING CHINESE HOME.

Work of Repatriation Has Begun In South Africa.

Durban, Africa, July 4.—One thousand nine hundred and forty-eight repatriated Chinese laborers sailed from here Tuesday for home.

Measures were adopted last month for the abolition of Asiatic immigration to Natal by Dec. 31, 1908, and providing at the same time for the repatriation of the Chinese coolies now in the colony at the termination of their contracts.

Appointments at Queen's.

Kingston, July 4.—Prof. Cecil Lavall, M. A., graduate of Queen's, and son of the late Warden Lavall of Kingston Penitentiary, has been appointed dean of the new faculty of pedagogy to be established with Government aid at Queen's University, and has accepted.

Hector Anderson, M. A., of Oxford University, a recent candidate for the chair of Latin in Queen's, has been offered the position of professor of education.

Japs Sue 'Frisco.

San Francisco, July 4.—Suit against the City and County of San Francisco was filed yesterday for $2,575 damages, said to have been sustained by the proprietor of the Horseshoe Restaurant and a Japanese bath house on May 23, when a row caused by an attack by labor union men on two non-union men resulted in the fronts of the two places being smashed by stones and clubs.

Firebug Sent to School.

Belleville, July 4.—Torand Foote, the 10-year-old self-confessed incendiary, was yesterday sent to the industrial school for an indefinite period.

The report from the secretary of the Children's Aid Society said the boy had attended school only 21 days during the past two years.

Anti-Jewish Riots.

London, July 4.—A despatch to a news agency from Odessa says that an anti-Jewish riot was started by a Black Hundred gang in Bulgaria street during the night.

The rioters used revolvers freely, killing two Jews and wounding 15, including several children.

Whirled Around Shaft.

Vancouver, B. C., July 4.—Yesterday morning, Alexander Abercrombie, millman, while fixing a belt in the Royal City mills was caught and whirled around the pulley. His head was dashed against the pillars. He was frightfully injured and will die.

George Penim, an Italian, of Vancouver is in a dying condition from stabs received in a row on Dominion Day.

YOUNG GIRL MURDERED.

Assailant Escapes to Woods But Whole District Is After Him.

Sherbrooke, Que., July 4.—A brutal assault, resulting in the death of the victim, a 16-year-old daughter of John Lynn of Melbourne, is reported here.

The assailant was Albert Greenwood, an Englishman. He escaped in the woods and the entire district is searching for him.

It is stated that the local militia will aid in the search.

HORRIBLE TORTURE.

Burning Resin Poured On Bare Bodies to Extort Information.

Hong Kong, July 4.—It is reported here from Wongkong that imperial troops surprised a band of insurgents recently, capturing eighty of them.

The prefect of Wayhau tortured the prisoners, pouring burning resin upon their bare bodies in an attempt to extract the names of the leaders of the uprising, in which, however, he was not successful.

C. P. R. Again Sued.

Ottawa, July 4.—Another claim for damages has been filed against the C. P. R. in regard to the collapse of the bridge at Firchill on April 29, when Andrew Villeneuve, fireman, was killed.

Alfred Tappe, carpented, who was on the first-class coach when the train went through the bridge, claims $3,500 damages for injuries then sustained by him.

Tupper Better, Coming to Canada.

London, July 4.—Sir Charles Tupper, who has been very slightly indisposed, is now quite recovered. He visited London yesterday. He has reserved accommodation on the Empress of Britain, sailing Aug. 9.

Lose Strike After 16 Weeks.

Chicago, July 4.—After sixteen weeks of strike, the members of the Boilermakers' and Iron Shipbuilders' Union at South Chicago have given up the struggle against the Chicago Shipbuilding Company.

Mail Car Burned.

Sioux City, Ia., July 4.—Fire, caused by engine sparks in the mail car of the Illinois Central Chicago Flyer, destroyed practically the entire contents.

Spanish War Minister.

Madrid, July 4.—Gen Primo de Livera has been appointed Minister of War.

TROLLEY CAR COLLISION.

Motorman Receives Fatal Injuries In Street Car Collision.

Washington, July 4.—A dozen persons were seriously injured and as many more slightly hurt in a collision yesterday between a Washington-bound trolley car and two carloads of rails on the Washington, Arlington & Falls Church Electric Railway.

At Spruce Station the two flat-cars loaded with steel rails were pushed out without waiting for the Washington trolley to pass. The rails on the forward car extended several feet beyond the truck, and when the crash came they ripped into the passenger car, almost completely telescoping it.

One rail passed entirely through the abdomen of Motorman William Mock, who died later in the day, and one passenger had both legs severed.

Making Use of Grandma's Gown.

Seldom has a gown handed down from a grandmother been put to a stranger use than was the fate of a flowered frock owned by an ingenious girl. From one section of it she made a large square for her luncheon; of the odds and ends she constructed doilies. The silk was a soft moire, with deep pink roses and variegated leaves spread over it as generously as if it were a June garden. With an edging of deep cream lace to the centerpiece the effect was artistic. In this guise the silk will last many years, whereas had she cut it into a waist or skirt, as most girls would do with such finery, it would not last a season.

A Popular New England Cake.

A very popular cake among a dozen or more related New England families for more than fifty years past is dimmock cake. To make it cream one cup of butter with two and one-half of sugar, add four well beaten eggs, two cups of chopped seeded raisins, one cup of milk, five cups of pastry flour, a level teaspoonful of cream tartar, half as much soda, nutmeg and mace. This will make three loaves, which will keep good for a number of weeks.

Making the House Look New.

It is well after housecleaning if the housekeeper is unable to buy new furniture to change the location of chairs, tables, etc., in a room. This is a pleasant change to the eye and often gives the effect of an entirely new furnishing. Perhaps it would be just as well, however, for the wise woman to put back in the exact same places the things commonly used by her husband, such as his tobacco, pipes, etc.

Old Map of Maryland and Virginia.

At the Peabody library is an old map of Maryland and Virginia which is believed to date back to the seventeenth century. The map has a description of Maryland on one leaf of the back and a description of Virginia on the other leaf. It is bound with a few blank pages to give it stability and was evidently part of a larger work describing the American colonies, as the pages are numbered. "Baltimore town" is situated between the "Susquesahanough" and Bush rivers. No especial mention is made of it in the description of the colony, in which "St. Maries" figures as the chief place. In addition to the Susquehanna, with its queer spelling, the principal rivers are named as the Patowmec, Patuxent, Ann Arundel, alias Severn, Choptank, Nanticoke and Pocomoke. Tobacco raising is named as the principal source of revenue in the colony, and it is stated that trade was carried on chiefly by barter and exchange. The map was published in London.—Baltimore Sun.

ROCKEFELLER FOUND.

Served With Subpoena at Pittsfield—Caught by a Ruse.

Pittsfield, Mass., July 4.—John D. Rockefeller accepted service in person of the subpoena issued by Judge Landis of the Federal Court at Chicago at the summer home of his son-in-law, E. Parmlee Prentice, in this city, yesterday.

Service was affected, according to Deputy Marshal Frink by a ruse on his part. The deputy marshal explained later that he was not satisfied with the condition of affairs at Mr. Prentice's estate as he found them on an earlier visit yesterday, and after apparently leaving Pittsfield for his home in North Adams he returned unexpectedly to Taconic Farm, the Prentice estate. He saw Mr. Rockefeller sitting on the front piazza. Mr. Rockefeller greeted his visitor with a smile and accepted service in person. He said that he had not been trying to evade service, but he did not exactly understand what was wanted of him. After accepting service, Deputy Frink said, Mr. Rockefeller shook hands with the deputy and expressed pleasure at meeting him.

TELLER DECAMPS WITH CASH.

$96,317 of Windsor Trust Co.'s Money Is Missing.

New York, July 4.—Detectives throughout the United States are searching for Chester B. Runyan, paying teller of the Windsor Trust Co., who, the directors allege, is missing with $96,317 in cash.

Runyan is accused of having placed $96,317 in currency in a suit case last Saturday, and, after shaking hands with his banking associates, left the trust company. Since then he has not been seen.

Runyan, it is said, did not even go to his apartment to bid good-bye to his wife, to whom he had been married five years. He is said to have taken all the cash available in the bank last Saturday. The directors, it is stated, have made up all the loss of the defalcation.

Runyan was a man of exemplary habits, so far as known, and was a trusted employe. When the auditors went over his accounts on May 1 they were found to be all right.

SMASHED INTO STEAM BARGE.

R. & O. Steamer Prescott Does Considerable Damage.

Montreal, July 4.—The Richelieu & Ontario Navigation steamer Prescott was entering the first lock of the Lachine Canal last Tuesday when the wire of the signal bell from the wheelhouse to the engine-room broke, and the man at the wheel being unable to signal the engine-room to stop, the boat steamed straight into the second gate, smashing it to splinters.

The rush of water carried the Prescott backward, snapping off the first gates, which were, by this time, partly closed, and sweeping the steamer back into the canal basin, where she collided with the steam barge Havana, smashing in her stern. The Havana sank, but the crew were saved without trouble.

The Havana had a load of pulpwood. The Prescott was little damaged. The canal was repaired during the day.

$2,000 FIRE AT HAMILTON.

Explosion On Gasoline Launch the Cause—Several Boats Burned.

Hamilton, July 4.—J. W. Castell, son of ex-Sergt. Castell, was seriously burned last evening by the explosion of a steam launch, and a $2,000 fire was started which destroyed two boathouses, a number of boats, and did damage to the extent of about $1,500 to the Acacia. Mr. Castell had a close call.

He went to his boathouse last evening and turned on the switch of the engine in his gasoline launch. There was a big explosion. Castell's clothes caught fire, and he had to dive into the water, leaving a suit of clothes, a gold watch and $30 in money to be burned with his boathouse. He had to dive into the water three times before he extinguished the fire in his clothes, and he was severely burned about the face, neck and chest.

Killed By a Street Car.

Kingston, July 4.—Yesterday morning, shortly after 9 a.m., a little girl, Hilda MacGillivray, aged two years, daughter of R J MacGillivray, Collingwood street, was killed by a passenger street car on the corner of Union and Collingwood streets.

The little girl was on her way home wheeling a little doll's carriage. She tried to cross in front of the car, but was too late.

Jumped Into the River.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 4.—Merrit Treadwell, one of the oldest letter-carriers in Southern New York, committed suicide here yesterday by fastening an anchor to his wrist and jumping into the Susquehanna River. Treadwell completed his morning's work and borrowed a boat from a fellow-carrier rowing into deep water, where he plunged in.

Does Not Suit Longshoremen.

Montreal, July 4.—The award of the board of conciliation and investigation in the trouble between the longshoremen and shippers of Montreal has been accepted by representatives of 17 shipping companies, but is unsatisfactory to the men.

Drug Clerk's Tragic End.

Winnipeg, Man., July 4.—G. G. Griffin, drug clerk, committed suicide last night by cutting his throat, and then jumping out of a second-storey window at his boarding-house.

Killed By Fall From Bridge.

Alvinston, July 4. Alton Irving, six years of age, son of John Irving, tailor of Alvinston, fell off the overhead Grand Trunk Railway bridge and died shortly after.

Jacob Neuhart, a German, who lived near Sunnyslope, Alta., near Olds, drank methylated spirits and died.

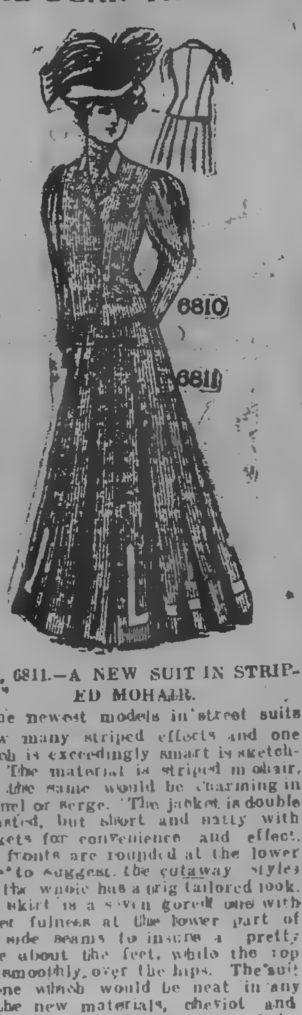
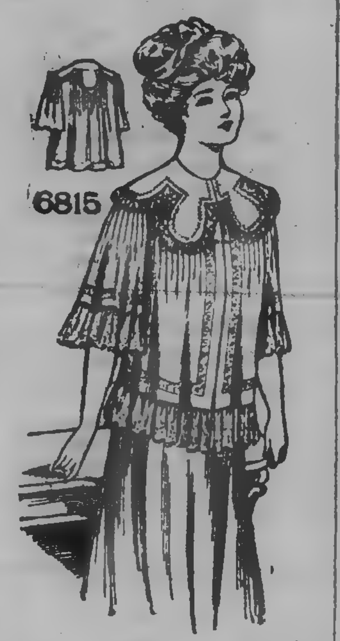
THE DEAN PATTERNS



6810, 6811.—A NEW SUIT IN STRIPED MOHAIR.

The newest models in street suits show many striped effects and one which is exceedingly smart is sketched. The material is striped mohair, but the same would be charming in flannel or serge. The jacket is double breasted, but short and natty with pockets for convenience and effect. The fronts are rounded at the lower edge to suggest the cutaway styles and the whole has a trig tailored look. The skirt is a seven gored one with under fulness at the lower part of the side seams to insure a pretty flare about the feet, while the top fits smoothly over the hips. The suit is one which would be neat in any of the new materials, cheviot and English suiting being a favorite choice for such models. The medium size calls for 7 yards of 54 inch material.

Two Patterns,—6810.—Sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. 6811.—Sizes 20 to 32 inches waist.



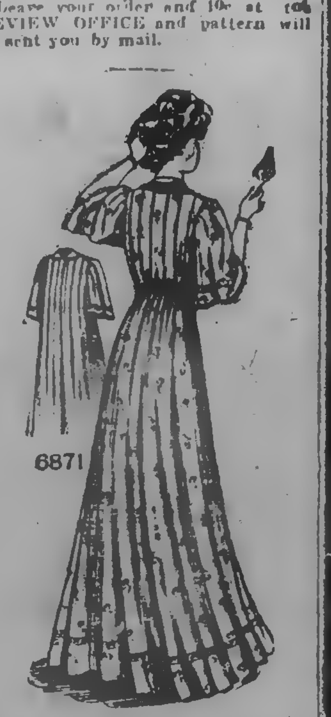
66815.—A SUMMERTIME COMFORT.

The heat of summer days is often rendered less oppressive by the donning of some light and dainty negligee and every woman and girl provides herself with several before this time arrives. A very dainty one is shown in flowered dimity with collar of plain material for contrast. The sack and sleeves are laid in narrow tucks at the top and the result is most pleasing. The closing is effected in front and may be elaborated with ribbon bows or pretty buttons. For home making this is excellent in style as it is a bit unusual and therefore more valued. The thin silks and washing fabrics may any of them be used successfully in its realization. For the medium size 3 5-8 yards of 36 inch material are needed.

66815.—Sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

Leave your order and 10c at the REVIEW OFFICE and pattern will be sent you by mail.



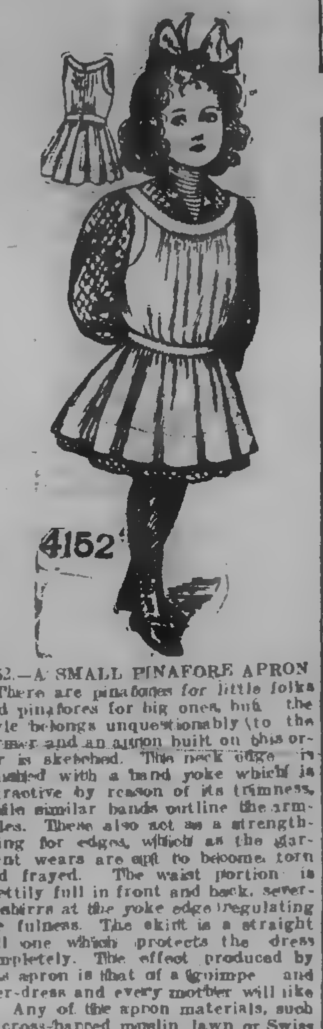
6871.—AN ATTRACTIVE NEGLIGEE.

It is during the warm days that a woman takes keenest delight in her negligees and these are therefore a part of her wardrobe which she does not fail to provide. A very restful and pleasing gown which suggests the kimono in style is sketched and will prove most charming for the home sewer to fashion. It is box pleated front and back to yoke depth so that plenty of fulness is provided for the skirt portion. The gown falls free from the shoulders and may be slipped on easily for lounging or as a bath robe. The Japanese fabrics are best suited to the making of this gown, but any soft silk or tub fabric would serve. For the medium size 6 1-4 yards of 44 inch goods are needed.

6871.—6 sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust measure.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

Leave your order and ten cents at the REVIEW OFFICE and pattern will be sent you by mail.



4152.—A SMALL PINAFORE APRON

There are pinafores for little folks and pinafores for big ones, but the style belongs unquestionably to the former and an apron built on this order is sketched. The neck edge is finished with a band yoke which is attractive by reason of its trimness, while similar bands outline the armholes. These also act as a strengthening for edges, which as the garment wears are apt to become torn and frayed. The waist portion is prettily full in front and back, several shirrs at the yoke edge regulating the fulness. The skirt is a straight full one which protects the dress completely. The effect produced by this apron is that of a guimpe and over-dress and every mother will like it. Any of the apron materials, such as cross-barred muslin, lawn or Swiss would be suitable. For this medium size 3 yards 36 inches wide are needed.

4152.—Sizes 3, 5, 7 and 9 years.

The price of these patterns is 20c, but either will be sent upon receipt of 10c.

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly. Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO HIS SUCCESSOR

Rev. John Pickering of St. Catharines Speaks Highly of Rev. Dr. Crothers

The St. Catharines Standard says; "The services at the St. Paul street Methodist church on Sunday, being the occasion of the farewell of the Rev. John Pickering, were largely attended, and the two sermons delivered by the pastor were in harmony with the thoughts of the day.

At the opening service the pastor read the lesson from a portion of the 9th Chapter of Acts, which is known as that part telling of the conversion of Paul, the Apostle. In making the announcements for the week the pastor said that on Sunday, July 7th, the Rev. Dr. Crothers, of Peterborough, would occupy the pulpit of the church for the first time, and in the course of his remarks he said that the pastor who would succeed him was a man of sterling qualities, a man whom any church might feel justly proud to have as their pastor. He hoped that the Rev. Dr. Crothers would be given the co-operation of all the congregation, and of all the various societies in connection with the church."

Garden Party Was Successful

Pleasant Gathering at the Home of Mr. Joseph Walsh, Cavan

A very successful garden party under the auspices of the Fairmount Sabbath School, was held on Dominion Day, at the home of Mr. Joseph Walsh, of Cavan.

The very unpropitious attitude assumed by the elements during the earlier part of the day, did much to detract from its success, from a numerical standpoint, and twice during the evening's proceedings, heavy, sombre clouds loomed up in the western sky, eventually terminating in gentle, refreshing showers, which, however, did not, to any appreciable degree mar the evening's entertainment. The grounds were beautifully and artistically decorated, for the occasion, and certainly reflected credit upon the school and much enhanced the naturally beautiful and spacious lawn of Mr. Walsh's palatial home, making it appear simply an ideal spot for an evening of the kind.

The tables were bountifully laden with the most tempting and toothsome viands of the season and a merry corps of agile waiters assumed the not easy duty, of seeing that the most voracious and fastidious appetite was fully appeased and satisfied. The programme left nothing to be desired. Miss Richardson, of Lindsay, and a little ladyy of the Salvation Army, elicited infinite applause by their recitations rendered in a most easy, smooth and pleasing style. None the less edifying were the addresses of Rev. Mr. Clare, of Millbrook, and Rev. Dr. Marsh, of Springville. Intensely interesting as these selections were, it cannot be gainsaid that the chief attraction of the evening's splendid entertainment, was the Salvation Army Band of Peterborough. The Hallelujah lads and lassies, in their quiet, modest and unostentatious manner, rendered many popular airs and melodies, which well merited the prolonged plaudits of a pleased and attentive assemblage. Everybody felt that the complete success of the entire evening's entertainment was largely due to their rendition of so many beautiful band selections, with a cheerfulness that could not fail to attracted the attention of the most careless observer, and we can recommend them to any organization desiring the services of a strictly up-to-date band in every sense of the term.

The refreshment booth —a very necessary attribute to a garden party—was well patronized, many being utterly unable to resist the fascinating glance and smile of cheerful and obliging attendants within

The evening's entertainment was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem, and all repaired to their separate homes, feeling they had spent a very profitable and enjoyable evening together.

Attended the Night Session

About twenty members of the Epworth League of George-st. church drove out to Chemong last night, and attended the evening session of the Summer School that is being held at the park. The trip was made in one of McCollum's 'buses, and was much enjoyed, the courtesy of the driver, adding much to the pleasure of the ride. The party arrived home about twelve o'clock.

TEDFORD.— On July 4th, 1907, to Mr and Mrs. W. H. Tedford, of Smith township, a daughter.

Capital Stock of the C.G.E. Co. Will be Increased to $8,000,000

Of the Increase $2,000,000 Will be 7 Per Cent. Cumulative Preference Stock—No Common Stock Will be Issued at Present—Outlook for the Company Set Forth.

Directors of the Canadian General Electric Co. have decided to ask the shareholders of the company to ratify a bylaw providing for an increase of the company's capital stock from $5,000,000 to $8,000,000. Of this increase $2,000,000 will be 7 per cent. cumulative preferred stock, and $1,000,000 common stock. It is not, however, the intention to issue the common stock at present, but to hold it in reserve as treasury stock. The explanation is made that the directors deem it advisable to issue preferred, instead of common stock, "as the saving in interest will increase the net profits available for the holders of common stock, and the issue can be readily sold in England, should the shareholders not desire to take the whole of the same."

The circular goes on to explain that the moneys received from the issue of $2,000,000 preferred stock will be applied to redeem the present issue of $300,000 preferred stock, to redeem the $160,000 bonds of the Northey Steam Pump Co., which are guaranteed by the Canadian General Electric Company and will leave the entire assets of the Northey Company free from mortgage or bonded indebtedness of any description, while the balance will be applied in the repayment of advances made by the company's bankers.

The new preferred stock is to pay 7 per cent. in dividends. The old preferred stock, which is to be retired, paid 6 per cent.

The guess made some time ago that a Canadian General Electric preferred stock issue was coming, turns out to have been a prophecy.

According to the last annual statement the Canadian General Electric's indebtedness to the bank amounted to $1,196,272.39. It has probably been increased since then, says The Toronto Star.

As to the necessity for more capital the circular to shareholders says,—

"Our last annual report contains a copy of each balance sheet of the company for the past sixteen years, and a study of these statements will show the very rapid and continuous expansion of the company's business. During the current year, however, our growth has been even more marked than heretofore, owing largely to the increase in our population through immigration; the large sums that are being expended by the railways, the development of our Canadian water powers, etc., and to cope with these demands the company must extend its plant and carry a larger stock of raw materials and merchandise. During the past year additional factory buildings have been erected at Peterborough and Davenport and our liquid assets, comprising raw materials, merchandise, work in progress and accounts receivable, have largely increased, and now amount to no less a sum than $5,381,056.44."

Canadian General Electric common stock did not move yesterday morning on the exchange on the announcement, but declined to 124 in the afternoon.

On the Street it is said that the placing of $2,000,000 7 per cent. preferred stock ahead of the common stock would not be relished by common shareholders and might foreshadow a reduction in the common dividend. On the other hand it might be argued that the company will be better able to pay the preferred dividend on the new stock than it would the 10 per cent. on the common and that as between issuing common or preferred stock certainly the course chosen seems the better financing.

Canadian General Electric stock has had a checkered career and many margin traders have been killed off by its wide fluctuation. It sold as high as 235 in 1901, and is now down to 125. Its range for a few years follows,—

	High	Low
1900	193	160
1901	235	196 3 4
1902	227 1-2	193
1903	215	138
1904	178	138
1905	178	136 7-8
1906	155	130
1907	136 1-2	120 1-2

House Numbering Necessary For Good Delivery Service

Council Should Have it Done Before Free Mail Delivery is Started—Mr. Cameron Will Prepare New Map of the City—None Has Been Made Since 1896

For some time past it has been reported that Peterborough was to have a free mail delivery, and the preliminary arrangements are now under way. Mr. Ross, superintendent of street delivery of mails, has written Col. H. C. Rogers, postmaster here, for maps of the city. Since Ashburnham came into the city, there has been no new maps made, although many changes have been made in the names of streets, new streets have been opened up and many new houses have gone up. Therefore, Mr. A. Cameron has undertaken to revise the old map so that the authorities will have something to work on. He will then undertake to draw up a new map of the city, but as this will require some six months to complete it will be the first of the year before it will be ready.

Another feature in connection with the postal delivery is house numbering. The service will not be a success until every house in the city is properly numbered with good plain numbers. At present not half of the houses are numbered and many street corners are without name plates. This is a matter for the council to take up at once and act upon it. For the past two or three years the question has been shelved, but now it becomes an absolute necessity and will not permit of delay. The council should endeavor to do all in its power to assist the new service and to make it as near perfection as possible, then all blame for mistakes and trouble will rest with the Government.

The New Pastor Was Welcomed

Rev. E. A. Pearson, the new pastor of George Street Methodist church arrived in the city at 11.16 today, on the C.P.R. train from Toronto. He was accompanied by Mrs. Pearson, their eldest son, aged 13 years, and by Miss Greene, a niece of Mrs. Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearson's two other sons are remaining in Toronto for a few days, the guests of friends in that city. Among those who welcomed the new pastor and his wife at the station were Messrs. William Yelland, A. W. Cressman, Benj. Shortly, S. R. Armstrong, Felix Brownscombe, R. J. Winch, D. W. Dumble, Frank Mason. Rev. Mr. Pearson and party were escorted to the parsonage in cabs, where the ladies had a delicate luncheon prepared for the visitors.

Lindsay Midgets Lost Their Suit

Whitby, July 3.—The management of the Lindsay Midget hockey team was today made to set up and be good, by His Honor Judge McCrimmon. On March 14 last the Lindsay Midgets had agreed to play a match at Whitby with the local team. Instead of the Midgets a scrub team was sent. Manager McGaffin, of Whitby, refused to pay the $25 agreed upon, but offered $15. This was refused, and the Midgets sued to recover the $25.

His Honor held that the offer made had been a fair one, and all that the circumstances warranted. He therefore gave judgment for that amount with costs, deducting from the award $2 for expenses of the affidavit and an hotel bill of about $6.

Superintendent of Trent Canal

Explains That no Invitations Have Been Issued to Attend Lift Lock Opening

His Worship Mayor McWilliams has received the following letter from the superintendent of the Trent Valley Canal,—

His Worship Mayor McWilliams,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—There seems to be some misapprehension existing in the minds of some of the Peterborough aldermen, in regard to the ceremony in connection with the opening of the Kirkfield lift lock.

I wish to assure you at the outset that the opening of the Kirkfield lift lock, is in no sense of the term, an invitation affair. All are welcome to go to the Kirkfield lift lock, and to get there either by train or by boat. The sole and only question is, "How can the people get there?" No society in Peterborough has undertaken to run an excursion from Peterborough to Kirkfield lift lock, because the nearest point they can run an excursion by train would be to Kirkfield, which is two and a half miles from the life lock. The societies therefore, concluded that it would be utterly absurd to expect that people would walk two and a half miles.

It was also impossible for them to run an excursion from Peterborough to Lindsay and take the boat at Lindsay for the simple reason that every steamboat that is available is being utilized by such points as Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Fenelon Falls on the south, and by Orillia, Barrie and Beaverton on the north. The only other boats on the Trent waters that might have been available would not leave their regular passenger service.

I might further say that every available space upon the Government boat will be taxed to its utmost capacity by the party which comes from Ottawa, consisting of the Hon. Mr. Lemieux, Postmaster General, the Canadian newspaper correspondents of Ottawa, and the Midland district, and by the Senators and members of the Commons and Local Legislature, Mayors, Wardens and Reeves, in this district. You can therefore readily see how utterly impossible it would be for even the representatives of our municipal institutions, along the line of the canal to obtain either suitable train or boat accommodation to go to the Kirkfield lift lock.

Some of the municipal councils have already made arrangements on their own account to be present, but what those arrangements are, I do not know.

Yours faithfully,
J. H. McCLELLAN.

OBITUARY

MR. ISRAEL SCOTT.

Word was received in the city today, of the sudden death in Winnipeg, of Mr. Israel Scott, a former resident of Smith township. The deceased had lived in the West many years and was well to do. He resided at different times in Elgin, Souris, Vancouver and Winnipeg. He was 62 years of age and unmarried.

The late Israel Scott was a son of Mr George Scott, of Smith. Messrs Robert and Alex. Scott, of that township, and Dr. Scott, of this city, are brothers. Mrs. Percy Edmison and Miss Sarah Scott, residing on the homestead, are sisters. Besides the foregoing, three brothers, Geo., Joseph and John, reside in Manitoba and also three sisters. The remains will likely be interred in Winnipeg.

DAVID TULLY

The death occurred this morning at his late residence in Smith, of David Tully, after an illness of some weeks, from paralysis. The deceased was 66 years of age.

The funeral will take place on Saturday from his late residence, to the Little Lake cemetery.

PASSED AWAY IN MILWAUKEE

Death of Mr. John Ford Shortly After Celebrating Golden Wedding

It is seldom that the announcement of the death of one of the participants in a golden wedding follows so soon after the happy event, as in the case of the passing away of Mr John Ford, which occurred at Milwaukee, Wis., yesterday, at the age of 81 years. Deceased was the oldest son of the late Jos. Ford, one of the pioneers in this district. Deceased taught school in this neighborhood and in the town, in the early days, and afterwards moved to Milwaukee, where he since resided. His wife survives him, as also members of the family, both sons and daughters.

Sudden Death Of Hastings Man

Mr. H. M. Fowlds, Prominent Resident of Village, Passes Away

The whole community was surprised and shocked on Wednesday morning to learn that Mr. H. M. Fowlds, one of the oldest business men and most respected citizens of this district had passed away from heart failure, without even a minute's warning, says the Hastings Star.

Mr. Fowlds had been in his usual good health of late; in fact, on Tuesday he had walked out to the end of his farm, and over to the village twice and on Wednesday morning showed no signs of distress, until he had finished breakfast, when on being addressed by one of his daughters, he did not respond. Medical aid was at once summoned, but life was extinct before anything could be done, heart failure being the cause.

Deceased gentleman was born in New York City, on August 18, 1825, and was consequently in his 82nd year. At an early age he moved to Vermont, U.S., and from there to Birdsall, then to Westwood, where his father was engaged in the lumbering business, and finally in 1851 to Hastings, then "Crooks Rapids," where his father purchased the property from the Hon. Adam Crooks.

Later he engaged with his brothers, James and William, in the lumber grain and flour business, under the name of Jas. Fowlds & Bros., but this was terminated in 1884, by the death of Mr. Jas. Fowlds, and the estate was evenly divided. Mr. Fowlds has been engaged in a general mercantile business ever since.

He leaves to mourn his loss, besides his widow, two sons, James of Campbellford, and Walter at home, and four daughters, Mrs. J. Fraser, of Carstairs, Alberta, and Misses Louise Mary and Grace, at home.

A HURRIED SELLING OF NEW WASH COODS

We've an Old, Old Reason for Underpricing Now

LOW PRICES AND QUICK SALES---SMALL PROFITS, BUT MANY OF THEM

We say "Hurried Selling of New Wash Goods" and it will be "Hurried" if low prices are of avail. Take our word for it and let us prove it.

Not only have we assembled a more varied assortment of prettier and better Wash Fabrics, BUT WE HAVE PRICED THEM AT NEARLY ONE-FOURTH TO ONE-THIRD LESS THAN REGULAR PRICES. Some merchants would consider this unbusiness like. They will say, "Charge all you can get for them."

We could get a fourth more ann enjoy brisk selling, but we want "hurried" selling. Low prices and quick sales—small profits, but many of them. That's our way of doing business.

The fabrics are the freshest and fairest of this and foreign lands. All the old worthies; the widest and most satisfying assortment we ever gathered for July selling. Read the prices—

Lakefield Man Rescues a Miner

Took Awful Risk But Managed to Save a Life

An Edmonton, Alberta, despatch says;

Adrift on a log in mid stream, and within an ace of drowning, was the thrilling experience of a miner from the north yesterday afternoon. The rescue, which was accomplished by Reg. Blomfield, formerly of Lakefield, the well known canoeist, and member of the Argonauts, was no less thrilling. The miner had come down the Saskatchewan River about seventy miles on a poorly constructed raft, which went to pieces on a sunken pier opposite the brick yard below the Groat estate. The miner managed to cling to one of the logs on the pier until rescued by Blomfield. The rescue was a daring piece of work, and in less experienced hands, the attempt would have resulted in a double drowning, but Blomfield is a famous canoeist and holds the championship of Canada, besides many medals. He knows the canoe perfectly, and it mattered not that the stream was running at the rate of ten miles an hour and his canoe only a 45-pounder.

'Lunge Captured; Exciting Event

Fred Whitcroft Pulled Out Big One in Little Lake

One of the largest 'lunge that has been pulled in this year was hooked by Fred Whitcroft in Little Lake yesterday afternoon. In the boat with Fred were Harry Halpin, a member of the Toronto Canoe Club, who is visiting in this city, and Jack Connors, the crack centre fielder of the Peterborough Hamborough baseball team. While Fred held the line that was afterwards to land the big 'lunge, Jack sat in the centre of the boat with a large club to dispatch the fish that might be brought in. And he did not fail in his duty. When the big 'lunge was pulled out of the water, Jack landed on him with the club as if he were going to knock the cover off a baseball. The line broke and the fish dropped back into the water again. However, he was recovered, and when weighed, was found to tip the scales at 15 1-2 pounds. It is said that Mr. Connors' dive at the fish broke two seats in the canoe, put a big dent in the club as well as causing considerable other damage.

COUNCIL MEETING.

The City Council will hold a session next Monday night. Among some of the matters to come up will be the appointment of an engineer for the fire department, and road roller. The application of the Bell Telephone Co. to put their wires underground, the Colonial Weaving Company's bylaw, and several other matters.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

A meeting of the Finance Committee will be held this evening in the city clerk's office, when several important matters will come up.

THE GILMOUR AFFAIR.

The Port Hope Guide says,—We are requested to state that much of the story about the Gilmour brothers, which was published in the Guide two weeks ago, was not correct. There had been no quarrel between the brothers, nor was there any trouble between them in respect to property or financial affairs. The shock of his brother's attempt upon his life was more than John Gilmour could stand and he lost his reason. There is hope, however, for his recovery at an early date.

THE CANOE UPSET

Four young men who went down the river on a fishing trip yesterday afternoon had a narrow escape from meeting a watery grave. Near Yankee Bonnet their canoe upset and the four occupants were thrown into the water. Fortunately they were not far from the shore at the time, and all were able to swim to terra firma. They also succeeded in recovering the canoe and made the return trip in it. The quartette were soaked to the skin and had a rather uncomfortable time coming back. Needless to say, they caught no fish.
